COMPLETE AND UNABRIDGED / 31178 / $1.95

The OLD TESTAMENT of the Holy Bible

CONFRATERNITY VERSION

With introductions and commentaries by Reverend Joseph A. Grispino, S.M., S.S.L.

R-Bartlett

This edition of the Old Testament is one you will read and re-read. Over one-fourth of this book is a key to understanding the divine message hidden within ancient languages and customs. You will thrill to a new understanding of God's encounter with man. Brilliant introductions and clear commentaries bridge the centuries to bring God's truth to you as never before

". . . Whatever things are true, whatever of good repute, if there be any virtue, if anything worthy of praise, think upon those things."

THE PURPOSE of this annotated edition of the Old Testament is to make available to teachers, students and laymen an accurate, readable up-to-date book of Holy Scripture without pre-supposing a wide biblical background on the part of the reader.

It accomplishes this purpose superbly by bringing together the most significant findings of today's leading biblical scholars.

The main objective has been to clarify passages which appear to contradict science and history. More important, the theological content of the scriptural text is pertinently analyzed. Each of the forty-five books has a special introduction which gives the time, place and purpose of the writings.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine version has been made from the original languages. It is one of the best English translations in the world today.

Father Grispino offers his commentaries in the spirit of the ecumenical movement. The interpretation of Sacred Scripture in this edition, governed by exact philological and historical sciences, tends to bring more agreement among those whose faith is founded on the Bible. It is his hope that persons of all faiths will find in this volume guidance and inspiration.

THE COMMENTATOR:

Father Joseph Grispino is a priest of the Society of Mary and holds his licentiate in sacred scripture from the Biblical Institute in Rome. He has taught sacred scripture both at Marist College and the Catholic University, Washington, D.C. He is a member of the Catholic Biblical Association. As author and editor of Current Scripture Notes, he is involved day-to-day with all the new developments in scriptural scholarship throughout the world.

JOSEPH A. GRISPINO, S.M., S.S.L.

GUILD PRESS • NEW YORK

THE OLD TESTAMENT

COMPLETE WITH ANNOTATIONS

BY

REV. JOSEPH A. GRISPINO, S.M., S.S.L.

The text is the new translation sponsored by the Episcopal Committee of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine for the Books of Genesis to Ruth, Job to Sirach, and the Prophetical Books. The Books of Kings to Esther, and 1, 2 Machabees are from the Douay Version.

An Angelus Book

GUILD PRESS • NEW YORK

The text of the Confraternity Edition of the Holy Bible contained in this book is reproduced by license of Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Washington, D.C., the owner of the copyright of said Holy Bible. Used with its permission. All rights reserved.

Genesis to Ruth, Job to Sirach, and the Prophetical Books from the Confraternity Edition of the Holy Bible, copyright © 1952, 1955, and 1961, respectively, by Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. The Books of Kings to Esther, and 1, 2, Machabees are from the Douay Version.

IMPRIMI POTEST:

VERY REVEREND CHARLES WILLIS, S.M.
PROVINCIAL OF THE WASHINGTON PROVINCE OF THE SOCIETY OF MARY

NIHIL OBSTAT:

REVEREND HARRY A. ECHLE CENSOR LIBRORUM

IMPRIMATUR:

✠ PATRICK A. O'BOYLE
ARCHBISHOP OF WASHINGTON

January 10, 1964

The nihil obstat and imprimatur are official declarations that a book or pamphlet is free of doctrinal or moral error. No implication is contained therein that those who have granted the nihil obstat and imprimatur agree with the contents, opinions or statements expressed.

Charts: Erwin Schachner Maps: Map Projects, Inc.
Editorial co-ordination: Poldi Goetz Wittels

© Copyright 1965 by Guild Press, Inc. Designed and produced by Artists and Writers Press, Inc. All rights reserved. Printed in the U.S.A. by Western Printing and Lithographing Company.

PREFACE

The purpose of this annotated edition of the Old Testament is to offer a readable, up-to-date book of Holy Scripture to the layman and student.

It has been the endeavor to render, without presupposing a wide biblical background, the greatest intelligibility with the least explanation, and to give the best distillation of the interpretations laid down by modern Catholic biblical scholars. These interpretations, of necessity, incorporate the latest findings in literary criticism, history, and archeology. The aim has been to embody the general consensus of modern Catholic biblical scholarship and to shun personal interpretations. Since scholarship is always progressing, the interpretations can, of course, not be final.

A main objective of this work has been to clarify passages which appear to contradict science and history, and cause offense to accepted proprieties and conventions. Hebraisms, wherever possible, have been anglicized in the annotations. The introductions point out specifically those books of which particular use is made in the liturgy. This practice is also reflected in the annotations.

The introductions to the various groupings of books as well as to the individual books of the Old Testament include information on the time and place of writing, the addressees, the purpose, the type of literature, and on whatever general aspects that are indispensable for better understanding of a given book. The more technical problems of the text and the canon were in general omitted.

This edition may serve as a thumb-nail study course of the Old Testament with the latest biblical trends seen "in action." Teachers of religion from elementary to college levels may use this work together with their students as a basic text for further study. It will also be useful to scripture study clubs and Newman Clubs, in convert instruction and for Confraternity of Christian Doctrine classes. It may make it easier for the laymen to follow the biblical sermon of the parish priest. The biblical scholar, naturally, will not find anything new therein. It is a consolation to know that perhaps there is none better than the scholar who can appreciate the delicate task of avoiding, in popularization, the reefs of technical explanations without tumbling into the shoals of oversimplification.

The smooth and accurate translation used, commonly known as the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine text, has been made from the original languages. It is one of the very best English translations in the world today. Of the Old Testament there are only thirteen historical books not yet newly translated. They are 1, 2, Samuel, 3, 4, Kings, 1, 2, Paralipomenon, Esdras, Nehemias Tobias, Judith, Esther, 1, 2, Machabees. It is fortunate that of al the Old Testament books these thirteen were the least in need of translation from the Douay version. Because the headings within the text of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine translation correspond with the divisions given at the beginning of each book, these divisions were, for the sake of clarity to the reader retained in the introductions. Moreover, some translators' notes of the CCD edition have been incorporated into the annotations Cross references were, in favor of more pertinent annotations omitted.

Special Introductions to The Old Testament (p. 1), the Pentateuch (p. 2), the Books of Wisdom (p. 891), and the Prophetical Books (p. 1247), aim to give general notions which apply to various clusters of books.

May this edition help to bring the Catholics back to Scripture and Scripture back to the Catholics.

Marist College
Washington, D.C.

JOSEPH A. GRISPINO, S.M

THE BOOKS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

Their names and order, with the number of chapters

CHS.	PG.
50	4	Genesis
40	100	Exodus
27	174	Leviticus
36	227	Numbers
34	296	Deuteronomy
24	358	Josue
21	400	Judges
4	444	Ruth
31	452	1 Samuel (1 Kings)
24	512	2 Samuel (2 Kings)
22	561	3 Kings
25	620	4 Kings
29	673	1 Paralipomenon (1 Chronicles)
36	720	2 Paralipomenon (2 Chronicles)
10	776	Esdras
13	796	Nehemias (2 Esdras)
14	822	Tobias
16	842	Judith
16	868	Esther
42	892	Job
150	939	Psalms
31	1087	Proverbs
12	1130	Ecclesiastes
8	1146	Canticle of Canticles
19	1157	Wisdom
51	1187	Sirach (Ecclesiasticus)
66	1254	Isaia
52	1349	Jeremia
5	1441	Lamentations
6	1451	Baruch
48	1464	Ezechiel
14	1553	Daniel
14	1592	Osee
3	1610	Joel
9	1617	Amos
1	1632	Abdia
4	1636	Jona
7	1642	Michea
3	1652	Nahum
3	1657	Habacuc
3	1663	Sophonia
2	1671	Aggai
14	1676	Zacharia
4	1695	Malachia
16	1701	1 Machabees
15	1760	2 Machabees

Alphabetical List of Abbreviations of the Books of the Bible used in this Edition

THE OLD TESTAMENT

Abdia	Abd	Ezechiel	Ez
Aggai	Ag	Genesis	Gn
Amos	Am	Habacuc	Hb
Baruch	Bar	Isaia	Is
Canticle of Canticles	Ct	Jeremia	Jer
Daniel	Dn	Job	Jb
Deuteronomy	Dt	Joel	Jl
Ecclesiastes	Eccl	Jona	Jon
Esdras	Esd	Josue	Jos
Esther	Est	Judges	Jgs
Exodus	Ex	Judith	Jdt

3 Kings	3 Kgs	2 Paralipomenon (2 Chronicles)	2 Pa
4 Kings	4 Kgs	Proverbs	Prv
Lamentations	Lam	Psalms	Ps(s
Leviticus	Lv	Ruth	Ru
1 Machabees	1 Mc	1 Samuel (1 Kings)	1 Sm
2 Machabees	2 Mc	2 Samuel (2 Kings)	2 Sm
Malachia	Mal	Sirach (Ecclesiasticus)	Sir
Michea	Mi	Sophonia	So
Nahum	Na	Tobias	Tb
Nehemias (2 Esdras)	Neh	Wisdom	Wis
Numbers	Nm	Zacharia	Za
Osee	Os
1 Paralipomenon (1 Chronicles)	1 Par

THE NEW TESTAMENT

Acts of the Apostles	Acts	Luke, St.	Lk
Apocalypse	Ap	Mark, St.	Mk
Colossians	Col	Matthew, St.	Mt
1 Corinthians	1 Cor	1 Peter, St.	1 Pt
2 Corinthians	2 Cor	2 Peter, St.	2 Pt
Ephesians	Eph	Philemon	Phlm
Galatians	Gal	Philippians	Phil
Hebrews	Heb	Romans	Rom
James, St.	Jas	1 Thessalonians	1 Th
John, St.	Jn	2 Thessalonians	2 Th
1 John, St.	1 Jn	1 Timothy	1 Tm
2 John, St.	2 Jn	2 Timothy	2 Tm
3 John, St.	3 Jn	Titus	Ti
Jude, St.	Jude

Miscellaneous Abbreviations

ch., chs.	chapter, chapters
e.g.	for example
Heb.	The Hebrew of the Masoretic text of the Old Testament
i.e.	that is
Ms(s)	Manuscript(s)
n.	annotation
Sep.	Septuagint, the Greek translation of the Old Testament
Vg.	Vulgate, the Latin translation of the Bible
v., vv.	verse, verses
[ ]	indicates a gloss of a later inspired writer
|	indicates verse beginning where this is not otherwise clea

How to Read the References

Rom 5, 6—means the Epistle to the Romans, chapter 5, verse 6.
Jer 2, 1.8—means Jeremia, chapter 2, verse 1 and verse 8.
Ex 7, 14-18, 20-21, 24—means Exodus, chapter 7, verses 14 to 18, verses 20 to 21, and verse 24 of the same chapter.
Mt 9, 4-8—means the Gospel according to St. Matthew, chapter 9, verses 4 to 8.
Gn 48, 10—49, 6—means Genesis, chapter 48, verse 10 to chapter 49, verse 6 inclusive.
2 Pt 2, 3; 3, 10—means the second Epistle of Saint Peter, chapter 2, verse 3; and chapter 3, verse 10 of the same book.
Dt 13—14—means Deuteronomy, chapter 13 to chapter 14 inclusive.
Ps 5, 2f—means Psalm 5, verse 2 and the following verse 3.
Ps 5, 2ff—means Psalm 5, verse 2 and the following verses.
See Acts 15, 8 n.—means there is an annotation on Acts, chapter 15, verse 8. The scripture text and the annotation should be consulted.
v. 16a; v. 11b—means the first part of verse 16; the second part of verse 11.

Maps, Charts, and Tables

	pages
Liturgical Index	x
A Biblical Calendar	xiii
The Hebrew Idea of the World	8
The Forward Looking Concept of Biblical History	24
The Journeys of the Patriarchs	71
The Route of the Exodus	126
Josue's Campaigns	377
The Allotment of Chanaan to the Twelve Tribes	381
Episodes in the Book of Judges	407
1, 2 Samuel through the Eyes of Geography	511
Jerusalem from before David to the Time of Solomon	521
The Empire of David and Solomon	572
The Temple of Solomon	576
The Jerusalem of Nehemias	801
Tobias in Exile	825
"Campaigns" of Holofernes	846
The Prophets: Their Times and Teaching	1251
Royal Messianism (Dynastic, Personal)	1265
Prophetic and Apocalyptic Messianism	1314
The Key to Daniel's Stories	1559
The Spirituality of the Poor Folk	1666
Jerusalem of the Machabees	1705
The Campaigns of Judas Machabee	1715

LITURGICAL INDEX*

Genesis
14, 18-24	Daily Mass
Exodus
Introduction	Easter liturgy
16, 35	Daily Mass
Leviticus
Introduction	Ritual, Mass
Ruth
2, 4	Frequently used in the liturgy
Tobias
Introduction	Various Masses
Judith
13, 22-25	Epistles of Marian Masses
13, 23	Gradual of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception
Esther
13, 8-17	Epistle of two Masses
2 Machabees
1, 1-5	Mass for peace
Psalms
12	Mass for a happy death
19	Corpus Christi
21	Mass of Good Friday
22	Corpus Christi
24, 4-5	Antiphons in Advent and Lent
25, 6-12	Lavabo at Mass
26, 1-3	Fourth Sunday after Pentecost
26, 1	Fourth to Sixth Sundays after Pentecost
30, 6	Compline
34, 27	Monday of Holy Week
44, 10-16	Frequently used of Mary and the Virgins
45, 2-12	Ascension
49, 2. 3. 5	Advent liturgy
65, 9	Easter liturgy
67, 19	Ascension
68	Lenten liturgy

* This is an index of the annotations and Introductions in which mention is made of the place in the Roman liturgy where the Scripture passage is used or referred to.

70, 20	Mass for a happy death
72	Mass of several confessors
77	Third and Fourth Sundays of Lent
79	Masses of Advent
80	Corpus Christi
82, 14. 19	Mass for pagans
84, 13	First Sunday of Advent
86	Feasts of Jesus and Mary
88, 53	Masses of Our Lord
90	First Sunday of Lent
91	At the consecration of a church
103, 30	Pentecost liturgy
109	Feasts of Our Lord
110	Sunday Vespers
115, 4	Daily Mass
129	Liturgy for the Faithful Departed
136, 1	Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
Proverbs
8, 22-26	Marian feasts
Canticle of Canticles
Introduction	Marian feasts
Wisdom
1, 7	Introit of Pentecost
16, 20b	Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament
18, 14-15	Mass of Sunday after Christmas
Sirach (Ecclesiasticus)
24, 14-16	Seven Marian Masses
31, 8-11	Mass of confessors not bishops
39, 6-14	Mass of the Doctors of the Church
44, 16—45, 20	Epistle for several Masses
51, 13-17	Mass of a Virgin-Martyr
Isaia
6, 3	Sanctus at daily Mass
6, 7	Daily Mass
9, 5	Introit of two Masses
45, 8	Advent liturgy
46, 13	Advent liturgy
60, 1-6	Feast of Epiphany
Jeremia
14, 21	Lenten Masses
Lamentations
Introduction	Holy Week Office

Baruch
4, 36; 5, 5a — Second Sunday of Advent

Ezechiel
36, 23-26 — Introit of the Vigil of Pentecost 47, 9 — Easter blessing of water

Daniel
3, 29. 31 — Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
3, 39 — Daily Mass
13, 64 — Fourth Sunday of Lent

Osee
Introduction — Mass of Good Friday

Joel
2, 13 — Lenten liturgy
3, 1-5 — Pentecost

Michea
6, 3 — Mass of Good Friday

Sophonia
1, 15 — Mass of the Dead

Aggai
2, 7-9 — Advent liturgy

A BIBLICAL CALENDAR

History of the Hebrews	B.C.	The Ancient Near East Sumeria's renaissance—2044-1936
Abraham	1850?	Babylonian Kingdom—1826-1526 (Hammurabi—1724-1682)
Age of the Patriarchs	1850-1550	The Hyksos—1720-1560
Moses
Exodus		Rameses II—1289-1224 (Pharao of the Exodus)
Judges	1200-1025	Trojan War—1200
Saul	1020
David	1000-961	Homer—1000
Solomon	961-922
Schism	922-587
		Etruscans—800-509
		Foundation of Rome—753
Amos, Osee	750
		Assyrian Empire—745-612 (Tiglath Pileser III—745-728)
Isaia
Michea
Fall of Samaria	722-21	Sargon II
		Sennacherib—705-682
		Neo-Babylonian (Chaldean) Empire—626-539
Jeremia
Sophonia	640-630
Nahum	612	Fall of Ninive
First Siege of Jerusalem	598	Nabuchodonosor of Babylon
Ezechiel
Fall of Jerusalem	587
Babylonian Exile	587-538
Restoration Period	538-Cyrus conquers Babylon—539 Persian Empire—549-331
Zacharia
New Temple	515
		Marathon—490
Esdras and Nehemias	458
		Hellenistic Period—333-63 (Antiochus Epiphanes) 175
Period of the Machabees	166-63
Dead Sea Scrolls	150-
		Rome destroys Carthage—146
Pompey captures Jerusalem	63	Roman Empire—63 B.C.–A.D. 325
Birth of Christ	7?

THE OLD TESTAMENT

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

COME, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Thy love.

℣. Send forth Thy spirit and they shall be created.

℟. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let Us Pray.

O GOD, who didst instruct the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit: grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise, and ever to rejoice in His consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Indulgence of five years. Plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, if the prayer has been recited daily for a month.

INDULGENCES FOR THE READING OF SACRED SCRIPTURE

(a) An indulgence of three years is granted to the faithful who for at least a quarter of an hour read the books of Sacred Scripture as spiritual reading with the reverence which is due the word of God.

(b) An indulgence of five hundred days is granted to those who piously read at least some verses of the Gospel and besides, while kissing the book of the Gospel, devoutly recite one of these invocations: "By the words of the Gospel may our sins be blotted out"; "May the Gospel lesson be our salvation and protection"; "May Christ the Son of God teach us the words of the holy Gospel." A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, provided they perform the above-mentioned pious work each day for a month.

The indulgences listed above are found in the 1950 edition of the Enchiridion Indulgentiarum (##287 and 694, respectively).

INTRODUCTION TO THE OLD TESTAMENT

The Old Testament contains forty-five books. This miniature yet rich library was written mostly in Hebrew. Some small parts were written in Aramaic and Greek (Hebrew and Aramaic are almost as closely related as Spanish and Italian). Over a thousand years elapsed between the writing of the first book to the writing of the last. The authors of these religious masterpieces are generally unknown. They wrote in a variety of literary forms: epics, short stories, speeches, allegories, prayers, poetry, oracles, and letters. Some of these forms are strange compared with our western literary forms, e.g., the Vision of Daniel, chapter 7 to chapter 12. The geographical background of the Old Testament books stretches from the Egyptian Nile to the Mesopotamian rivers, Tigris and Euphrates.

Catholics conveniently divide the Old Testament into twenty-one Historical, seven Sapiential, and seventeen Prophetical books. The Historical books are: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Josue, Judges, Ruth, first Samuel (1 Kings), second Samuel (2 Kings), 3 Kings, 4 Kings, the two books of Paralipomenon (Chronicles), Esdras, Nehemias, Tobias, Judith, Esther, and the two books of Machabees. The Sapiential books are: Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Canticle of Canticles, Book of Wisdom, Sirach (Ecclesiasticus). The Prophetical books are Isaia, Jeremia (to which Lamentations are commonly appended), Baruch, Ezechiel, Daniel, and the twelve minor prophets.

The liturgy of the Church has always enthusiastically utilized the Old Testament riches. The members of the Church have not. One reason, among others, for the lack of interest is that the New Testament supposedly contains all that the Old Testament offers. Only within the last hundred years has this belief been proven an oversimplification. Historic, archeological, and linguistic discoveries in the Bible lands have made the Old Testament more intelligible. These revolutionary discoveries have made us realize that the best commentary on the New Testament is the Old Testament. Thanks to these cultural studies, the Old Testament is better understood today than it ever was in the Christian era.

INTRODUCTION TO THE PENTATEUCH

The term "Pentateuch" means the first five books of the Bible. They are: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. The composition of these books is different from any known composition in either ancient or modern times. Some of the obvious differences are the many sharp breaks in the narrative, and the narratives are often carelessly connected. Perhaps the most curious feature is repetition. Sometimes the same story is told in two different ways. The creation and the flood are examples of repetition. Literary styles and vocabularies change back and forth without warning. Moreover, the Pentateuch contains a variety of literary forms such as creation stories, epics, legal codes, poems, and exhortations.

After centuries of discussion on the best theory of the Pentateuch's composition, which would explain all the above peculiarities, most scholars today agree on the following working hypothesis: the Pentateuch was made up of four traditions, each of which contained centuries-old orally transmitted traditions before these were finally written down. The Yahwist tradition (known to scholars by J) was probably formed in the southern kingdom of Juda. It was written down in the tenth century B.C. The Elohist tradition (E) was probably formed in the northern kingdom. It was committed to writing in the eighth century B.C. In the seventh century B.C. Deuteronomy (D) was written. Last of all, during the Babylonian exile in the sixth century B.C. priestly writers wrote the Priestly tradition (P). They further expanded their version of the Hebrew nation's history and made it the framework of the Pentateuch. In the fifth century B.C. the final edition of the Pentateuch was written.

Consequently, although the reader of the Pentateuch in English does not notice it, he is constantly passing from one to another of these four traditions. A reader of the Hebrew Pentateuch would notice that "P" runs through Genesis, most of Exodus, Numbers, and all of Leviticus; "J" wanders through Genesis, Exodus, Numbers; "E" runs through them also, but to a lesser degree. "D" comprises all of Deuteronomy and some of Exodus. The best way to describe the composition of the Pentateuch is to call it the Mosaic Law enshrined within an historical framework. This means that a steady stream of historical narratives interrupts a series of legal proclamations. It follows from this peculiar structure that the main purpose of the Pentateuch is not to teach the history of Israel, but the law of Israel.

If practically everything in the Pentateuch was written after

Moses died in the thirteenth century B.C., how can it be said that he is the author? For us moderns an author is one who writes everything that becomes known under his name. For Semites, an author was one who may have written very little, but if he initiated a literary movement it was he that was considered its principal author. The other writers following his lead were merely considered to write according to the initiator's spirit when they explained and modernized his ideas or laws. Even when they wrote about times preceding Moses (e.g., Genesis) they did so in the light of his doctrine. In this sense the New Testament writers said, "Moses wrote."

Passing from the literary to the historical aspect of the Pentateuch, we ask: can we prove that the persons and events described in the Pentateuch are historical? Since these biblical persons and events were so insignificant in secular history when compared with the rulers of Egypt and Babylon, historians do not expect to find direct historical proof. They are more than content with a superabundance of indirect proof. This means that the historical, geographical, social, and juridical backgrounds described in the Pentateuch agree very well with what secular history and archeology tell us of the ancient Near East in the period between 2,000 and 1,750 B.C.

THE BOOK OF GENESIS

INTRODUCTION

Sometime in the fifth century B.C., one or more Hebrew authors wrote a final edition of what we call today the Book of Genesis.

Genesis means "beginning." Chapters 1—11 of Genesis are a religious prehistory on cosmic and human beginnings. Those chapters are "religious" because they are not a scientific account of the origin of matter, of life, of human civilizations. They are wholly preoccupied with the one true God who created everything. They are "prehistory," for the events sketched in these chapters happened before the invention of writing. These events and stories extend from creation to the flood. They cannot be verified by documents nor by eyewitness accounts.

There are six fundamental truths in Gn 1—11 which can be disentangled from their folklore wrappings. They are: first, the creation by God at the beginning of time; second, God's special infusion of a soul into the first human couple; third, the descent of all men from this first couple; fourth, a state of happiness and moral integrity; fifth, the sin of the first couple; sixth, the subsequent chastising hereditary penalties. Inasmuch as these six truths are also facts, Gn 1—11 may be called historical.

The six fundamental truths, and many other minor truths in these chapters, were not necessarily revealed by God to the individual sacred writers. It is neither necessary to believe that they were handed on from the beginning of the human race all the way down to Abraham, nor that a monotheistic doctrine was miraculously passed on by pagans who did not understand it, and that this "tradition" was carried on for nearly two million years. The most reasonable explanation seems to be that the Hebrews came from a larger group of Semitic peoples who possessed a fund of polytheistic stories about the creation of the world and of man. Many myths were told about man's golden age of happiness. Then, in the nineteenth century B.C., God made a three-fold revelation to Abraham. He revealed that He was the one true God, that He was all powerful, and that He was all-merciful. From the time of Abraham to the tenth and sixth centuries B.C., when Gn 1—11 were written, the best thinkers of the nation rethought their polytheistic stories in the light of God's three-fold revelation. The religious truths in Gn 1—11 are the best distillation achieved by these generations of thinkers. Therefore, the earlier revelations that God made to man may have been handed down for some generations but were finally forgotten. A new revelation was made to Abraham. In other words, Gn 1—11 are inspired, that is, written by God and man, but only three truths were revealed—truths either beyond man's mental acumen or too difficult for him to grasp with certainty through reason alone.

Chapters 12—50 of Genesis describe national origins. This part is not written like modern history books, which avail themselves of documented data and set the peoples of the world in the larger perspective of world history. Genesis is only concerned with popularly acknowledged traditions of the Hebrew ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph.

These traditions are related in picturesque biographical anecdotes. They are "religious" historical traditions insofar as every happening is attributed to God. All events are represented as providential. These traditions are woven around a three-fold teaching, namely: there is one God who formed one chosen people to lead them to one Promised Land. Note this national credo in Deuteronomy 26, 5-9. Nevertheless, these thirty-eight chapters relate real events that can be verified by the collective memory of the Hebrew people as a whole. As these were transmitted orally down the centuries, they were always subject to correction by national poets who guarded against falsifications creeping into the national literature.

Main divisions of the Book of Genesis are:

1. The Primitive History, 1, 1—11, 26
2. The Patriarch Abraham, 11, 27—25, 18
3. The Patriarchs Isaac and Jacob, 25, 19—36, 43
4. The History of Joseph, 37, 1—50, 26

I. THE PRIMITIVE HISTORY

I

1 The Story of Creation In the beginning God created the 2 heavens and the earth; the earth was waste and void; darkness covered the abyss, and the spirit of God was stirring above the waters.

3 God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw 4 that the light was good. | God separated the light from the

---

1, 1: In the beginning: since the inspired writer enumerates all categories of beings, he means that God created everything at the beginning of time when there was nothing. Pagan accounts of creation, contemporary with the biblical account, taught at least implicitly that matter was eternal. The heavens and the earth: a Hebraism for the entire visible universe.

1, 2: The earth: refers to the universe. Waste and void: a Hebraism for the greatest possible state of confusion. Abyss: refers to the waste and void, a limitless mass of dark agitated water. This is the biblical counterpart of our Greek idea of absolute nothingness. The spirit of God: the power of God is hovering over nothingness with the intention of producing life and establishing order. The tenth century Hebrew writer is not revealing the Third Person of the Trinity.

1, 3: Said: an anthropomorphism for: God wills. Let there be light: the sacred writer never speaks scientifically but religiously. His inspired religious message is: God created everything. In the artificial wrapper of this message, he has God begin by creating light. And there was light: after each item is created, the author will use a similar patterned expression to teach how immediately the will of God is executed. God saw that the light was good: whatever was created corresponded perfectly to what God wanted.

1, 4-5: The creation of light naturally produced the first day which ended with dusk, followed by the first night which ended with dawn.

darkness, calling the light Day and the darkness Night. And there was evening and morning, the first day.
Then God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters to divide the waters." And so it was. | God made the firmament, dividing the waters that were below the firmament from those that were above it. God called the firmament Heaven. And there was evening and morning, the second day.
Then God said, "Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place and let the dry land appear." And so it was. God called the dry land Earth and the assembled waters Seas. And God saw that it was good. | Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth vegetation: seed-bearing plants and all kinds of fruit trees that bear fruit containing their seed."
And so it was. | The earth brought forth vegetation, every kind of seed-bearing plant and all kinds of trees that bear fruit containing their seed. God saw that it was good. And there was evening and morning, the third day.
And God said, "Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to separate day from night; let them serve as signs and for the fixing of seasons, days and years; let them serve as lights in the firmament of the heavens to shed light upon the earth." So it was. | God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day and the smaller one to rule the night, and he made the stars. God set them in the firmament of the heavens to shed light upon the earth, to rule the day and the night and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good. | And there was evening and morning, the fourth day.
Then God said, "Let the waters abound with life, and above the earth let winged creatures fly below the firmament

1, 6-8: Firmament: what we call the skies appeared to many ancient Orientals as a solid blue, inverted bowl restraining the waters above from those below. Windows in the firmament allowed for the downpour of rain, snow and hail.

1, 9-10: The earth is like an immense disk floating above the waters.

1, 11: The world of vegetation was popularly divided into two classes: first there were plants which produced seeds and not fruit, e.g., oak and maple, and second, there were fruit trees.

1, 14-15: Lights: their tasks are assigned to them.

1, 16: Two great lights: the author writes according to appearances when he says that the sun and the moon are the largest luminaries in the skies. He does not know, nor does he care about, the scientific theories of how the astral bodies originated and evolved.

1, 20: Above the earth . . . below the firmament of the heavens: an awkward phrase for "in the air."

21 of the heavens." And so it was. | God created the great sea monsters, all kinds of living, swimming creatures with which the waters abound and all kinds of winged birds. God saw 22 that it was good, | and God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the waters of the seas; and let the birds mul-23 tiply on the earth." And there was evening and morning, the fifth day.
24 God said, "Let the earth bring forth all kinds of living creatures: cattle, crawling creatures and wild animals." And so it 25 was. God made all kinds of wild beasts, every kind of cattle, and every kind of creature crawling on the ground. And God saw that it was good.
26 God said, "Let us make mankind in our image and likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the cattle, over all the wild animals and every creature that crawls on the earth." 27 God created man in his image. In the image of God he created him. Male and female he created them.
28 Then God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the cattle and all the ani-29 mals that crawl on the earth." God also said, "See, I give you every seed-bearing plant on the earth and every tree which 30 has seed-bearing fruit to be your food. To every wild animal of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to every creature that crawls on the earth and has the breath of life, I give the green 31 plants for food." And so it was. | God saw that all he had made was very good. And there was evening and morning, the sixth day.

1, 21: Sea monsters: the Hebrew word means any large marine inhabitant: whales, sea serpents, crocodiles, sharks, etc. Winged birds: the Hebrew word means birds and insects. Exactly how fishes, birds and insects originated and evolved is a scientific question. The author merely says that God made them.

1, 26: Let us make: this is either a normal oriental plural of majesty or a metaphor of God deliberating with His celestial court. Mankind . . . them: the Hebrew word is "Adam." The plural "them," shows that "Adam" here is not the proper name of the first man. In this verse the sacred writer is not saying that God made one or several men but the human species. Dominion: it is characteristic of a Hebrew writer to say that man is like God insofar as man rules creatures lower than himself, just as God rules all creatures. A Greek writer would say that man is like God insofar as man has an intellect and will.

1, 28: This is not a condemnation of celibacy.

1, 29-30: The inspired writer's message is that man lived in peace before he sinned. His message prepares the readers for the disharmony

יהוה SHEOL

The Hebrew Idea of the World

This is a graphic representation of the Hebrew idea of the world. Above the superior waters is the home of God whose name, Yahweh, is written in Hebrew characters. These waters above can fall down to the earth in the forms of rain and snow through the openings in the blue heavenly vault. The blue sky or the firmament was conceived as being an overturned bowl supported by columns. In the firmament are the stars, the sun, and the moon. Then there is the land mass which was conceived as being a disc floating upon the world-sea. Directly underneath the submerged columns are the inferior waters. "Sheol" represents the home of the dead. Based on common unscientific observation, the sacred writers describe the creation in Genesis 1-2 against an imagined structural background of the universe, as pictured above. This prescientific image does not teach cosmography nor astronomy but only that God made everything.

2
1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished and all 2 array. On the sixth day God finished the work he had doing. And he rested on the seventh day from all the wor had done.
3 God blessed the seventh day and made it holy because he rested from all his work of creation.

4 Man in the Garden of Eden This is the story of 5 heavens and the earth at their creation. When the Lord made the earth and the heavens, there was not yet any shrub on the earth nor had the plants of the field sprung up the Lord God had sent no rain on the earth and there wa 6 man to till the soil; but a mist rose from the earth and wat 7 all the surface of the ground. Then the Lord God formed out of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils breath of life, and man became a living being.
8 The Lord God planted a garden in Eden, to the east, an 9 put there the man he had formed. The Lord God mad brought on by sin after the fall. The wrapper he uses to convey message is that man and the animals were on a vegetative diet. implies that men and animals lived in peace. Actually, science fa the view that animals were wild from the very beginning.

---

2, 3: This is the writer's way of saying that the creator of the w is the same as the God who gave the ten commandments, one of w obliges rest on the Sabbath.

2, 4b-25: This is the second account of creation, dating from tenth century Yahwist tradition. The author pictures the world at beginning as a desert because he lives in a climate where veget begins only after the rainy season.

2, 6: The inspired writer's message is that God created everyth According to the prescientific ideas of his day, he thinks of the on top of a world-sea which irrigates the earth.

2, 7: A popular way of saying that God made man's body. coming from the earth is common in Egyptian and Mesopotamian eratures. The idea may have arisen from seeing man die and re to dust. Breathed . . . breath of life: a popular way of saying that put a soul into man. The picture may have arisen from the obv fact that when a being breathes he is alive; when he stops breat he is dead. The context speaks of the first man, hence, monogen is the common interpretation of the Church but scholars are not bidden to pursue their research of polygenism.

2, 8-14: The author most likely had no idea where on earth originated. He does not seem to be describing an actual geograph site. He knew the rivers Euphrates and Tigris of Mesopotamia, the other two were legendary. As a semi-nomad, it is natural for to describe an oasis, in this text, as his garden of paradise. This is utopia. His message is: man was living in a happy place before fall. Scientists tend to believe that man originated in a warm cli grow out of the ground all kinds of trees pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

10 A river rose in Eden watering the garden; and from there, 11 it separated into four branches. The name of the first is Phison, which encircles all the land of Hevila where there is gold.
12 And the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx are 13 there. The name of the second river is Gihon, which encircles 14 the land of Chus. The name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Assur. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.
15 The Lord God took the man and placed him in the gar-16 den of Eden to till it and to keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man thus, "From every tree of the garden you 17 may eat; but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you must not eat; for the day you eat of it, you must die." 18 Then the Lord God said, "It is not good that the man is alone; I will make him a helper like himself." 19 When the Lord God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field and the birds of the air, he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; for that which the 20 man called each of them would be its name. The man named all the cattle, all the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field; but he found no helper like himself.
21 The Lord God cast the man into a deep sleep and, while he slept, took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.
22 And the rib which the Lord God took from the man, he made 23 into a woman, and brought her to him. Then the man said, "She now is bone of my bone, and flesh of my flesh; she shall

---

onducive to life such as South Africa or southern Asia. This is a cientific not a religious biblical question.

2, 15: God created man outside the garden (2, 8) and then put him n the garden. To till it: since God is bestowing gifts the cultivation f the land may be interpreted as pleasant work.

2, 16-17: From every tree: together with "the Tree of Life" in erse 9 a picture is presented in which man eats of the tree and remains mmortal. This common Semitic symbol of immortality corresponds) the classical "fountain of youth." You must die: the message in- ended is that God destined man for immortality, but he lost this gift hen he sinned.

2, 18-20: The author does not mean to say there was a real parade f animals in paradise during which Adam named them lion, cow, tc. For a Semite to name something means to have power over it. Be- ore the fall man ruled animals perhaps by having superior knowledge nabling him to use animals as he does today. This text does not mean hat man had infused knowledge of modern sciences.

2, 21-23: The message here is simply that God made man and woman.

24 be called Woman, for from man she has been taken." For reason a man leaves his father and mother, and clings to wife, and the two become one flesh.
25 Both the man and his wife were naked, but they felt shame.

3

1 Temptation and Fall Now the serpent was more cun than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made said to the woman, "Did God say, 'You shall not eat of any 2 of the garden'?" The woman answered the serpent, "Of 3 fruit of all the trees in the garden we may eat; | but 'Of fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden,' God said, shall not eat, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.' " 4 But the serpent said to the woman, "No, you shall not 5 for God knows that when you eat of it, your eyes wil opened and you will be like God, knowing good and e 6 Now the woman saw that the tree was good for food, plea

Whatever science proves about the formation and evolution of male and female bodies from the lower animals, and whether or man is found among the Australopithecus of about one million y ago, will be compatible with the biblical text. The author does literally mean the woman came from man's ribs. This picture, toge with "she is now bone of my bone . . ." means they are intima related, they are of the same nature but they are different from previously mentioned animals. The text says nothing about the "bea of mankind before the fall. It is a miniature marriage ceremony betw man and woman with God as the officiating witness. Called wo the Hebrew pun imagines that the first language was Hebrew. W ever the first language was, if primitive man had one, is a scientific a biblical problem.

2, 24: It is because man and woman are so closely united in na and love that they leave their parents and become one flesh in marr The fall and sin will introduce polygamy.

2, 25: The Church's common interpretation of this text is that did not know concupiscence before the fall.

3, 1: The writer chose the serpent as a symbol of Satan perhap ridicule belief and worship of the reputedly "wise" serpent an the Chanaanites.

3, 2-6: The message is that God gave man a test and man sin through some act of pride. Since the author does not know the pr nature of the test nor of the first sin, he symbolizes the test as a hibition to eat the fruit (not apples) from the tree of knowledg good and evil. The popular idea that in the author's symbolic acc God forbids Adam and Eve marital relations for a while is usu rejected by scholars because a Semitic author would hardly cons this evil. A better interpretation is that they are forbidden to try kind of experience independently of any moral law.

3, 6: In the "story" the woman sinned first; in the actual histo event we do not know the order of sinning.

to the eyes, and desirable for the knowledge it would give.
She took of its fruit and ate it, and also gave some to her 7 husband and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig-leaves 8 together and made themselves coverings. When they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, the man and his wife hid themselves from the Lord 9 God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?" | And he said,
"I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was 11 naked; and I hid." Then he said, "Who told you that you were naked? You have eaten then of the tree of which I com-12 manded you not to eat." The man said, "The woman you placed at my side gave me fruit from the tree and I ate." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "Why have you done this?"
The woman said, "The serpent deceived me and I ate."

14 Punishment; the Promise of a Redeemer Then the Lord God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals, and among all beasts of the field;
on your belly shall you crawl, dust shall you eat, all the days 15 of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, between your seed and her seed; he shall crush your head, and you shall lie in wait for his heel."

16 To the woman he said: "I will make great your distress in childbearing; in pain shall you bring forth children; for your husband shall be your longing, though he have dominion over you."

3, 7-13: They became subjected to concupiscence and lost the happiness and gifts God gave them.

3, 14: This does not mean the serpent used to walk upright on its legs until God cursed it. These are expressions of contempt.

3, 15: The tenth century writer of this "first-gospel" is making a Messianic prophecy in the sense that he foretells a moral struggle between the devil and the seed of the woman—mankind; but "he," mankind, will triumph in the end. The second century B.C. Greek translators of the Hebrew Bible made "her seed" mean the Messia. In and after New Testament times it became evident that it was Jesus who defeated the devil. Insofar as Mary is His mother, the Fathers of the Church translated "she" shall crush the serpent. The Latin Bible (Vulgate) began translating "she" in the sixth century A.D. Thereafter, art has been inspired to represent Mary crushing the serpent.

3, 16: The message is that there was an increase of physical suffering after the fall. Before the fall there must have been minor suffering which was, nevertheless, compatible with the state of happiness. The author epitomizes the suffering of woman in childbearing.

17 And to Adam he said, "Because you have listened to wife, and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded yo to eat: "Cursed be the ground because of you; in toil 18 you eat of it all the days of your life; thorns and thistles it bring forth to you, and you shall eat the plants of the 19 In the sweat of your brow you shall eat bread, till yo turn to the ground, since out of it you were taken; for you are and unto dust you shall return." 20 [And the man called his wife Eve because she was the m of all the living.]

21 Adam and Eve Expelled from the Garden The God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and cl 22 them. And he said, "Indeed! the man has become like one knowing good and evil! And now perhaps he will put fort hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live 23 ever!" Therefore the Lord God put him out of the Gard 24 Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. He drov the man; and at the east of the garden of Eden he place Cherubim, and the flaming sword, which turned every wa guard the way to the tree of life.

4

1 The Story of Cain and Abel The man knew Eve his and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, "I have given bir 2 a man-child with the help of the Lord." Later, she bor brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of flocks and Cain a 3 of the soil. In the course of time Cain brought to the Lor 4 offering of the fruit of the ground. Abel also brought som the firstlings of his flock with their fat portions. The Lord

3, 17: The writer reflects his own agricultural background he epitomizes the sufferings of first man as a farmer's frustratio making the earth produce.

3, 18-19: The author does not mean that the earth produces th and thistles for the first time after the fall. This is part of his wra to tell of the great suffering which entered the world. These ve 16-19, speak of hereditary penalties. The complete revelation of o nal sin is made in Romans 5.

3, 22: The author makes God say ironically that man will not be God nor be immortal.

3, 24: The Cherubim and the sword are symbols of the loss of mortality and of all the gifts man enjoyed before he sinned.

4, 1-16: The sacred writer did not mean to say this story act happened in the first generation of man. The background indicat later period. Science teaches that in the Near East the food gathe or hunter economy lasted until about 10,000 B.C. Afterward be the food producing or farmers' economy. The Cain and Abel s pleased with Abel and his offerings; | but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. Cain was very angry and downcast.

The Lord said to Cain, "Why are you angry and why are you downcast? If you do well, will you not be accepted; but if you do not do well, will not sin crouch at the door! Its desire is for you, but you must master it."
Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let us go out into the field."
Now when they were in the field, Cain turned against his brother Abel and slew him. Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He answered, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" | And the Lord said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries to me from the ground. And now cursed are you in the soil which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. When you till the soil, it shall not give its fruit to you; a fugitive and a wanderer shall you be on the earth." Cain said to the Lord, My punishment is too great to bear. | You are driving me today from the soil; and from your face I shall be hidden. And I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me." But the Lord said to him, "Not so! Whoever kills Cain shall be punished sevenfold." Then the Lord gave Cain a token so that no one finding him should kill him. And Cain went out from the presence of the Lord and dwelt in the land of Nod, to the east of Eden.
Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Henoch; Cain was the founder of a city which he named after his son and all of Gn 1—11) is silhouetted against the background of the ater economy. Verse 14 shows that the world was already populated ince there were other men who could kill Cain. Verse 17 shows that ain had no trouble in finding a wife. By pushing this story back to e first generation the sacred author wanted to teach this: after the st sin against God came the first crime against man. Death entered e world with violence. As man begins his reign of sin, God remains erciful in His punishments (v. 15). The story does not mean that od preferred the shepherd's life, represented by Abel, to the farmer's fe, represented by Cain (v. 2). However, a shepherd people like the lebrews would naturally delight in such a story.

---

4, 7: Will not sin . . . master it: this uncertain text may mean that od wants Cain to resist temptation.

4, 10: The picture of blood crying for revenge embodies a moral essage in a primitive wrapper. Since life is in the blood (the wrapr), life comes from God. Therefore, to destroy life is to destroy od's private property (the message).

4, 15: The token or mark of Cain is not a badge indicating that he lled his brother but a tattoo signifying the right of protection from nemies.

4, 17-24: The descendants of Cain began civilization through arts nd crafts.

18 Henoch. To Henoch was born Irad, and Irad became t ther of Mahujael, and Mahujael the father of Mathusae 19 Mathusael the father of Lamech. Lamech took two wive 20 one named Ada and the other Sella. Ada bore Jabel; h the forerunner of those who dwell in tents and have flock
21 brother's name was Jubal; | he was the forerunner of al 22 play the harp and flute. It was Sella who bore Thubalcai forerunner of those who forge vessels of bronze and iron sister of Thubalcain was Noema.
23 Lamech said to his wives: "Ada and Sella, hear my wives of Lamech, give ear to my speech: I kill a ma 24 wounding me, a youth for bruising me. | If Cain sh avenged sevenfold, Lamech seventy times sevenfold." 25 Adam knew his wife again and she bore a son and him Seth, saying, "God has given me another child in 26 of Abel whom Cain slew." Seth also had a son whom he Enos.
At that time men began to call on the name of the Lord.

5 1 Adam's Descendants This is the record of the descen of Adam. When God created man, he made him in the lik 2 of God. Male and female he created them, and he blessed 3 and called them Man when they were created. When Adan one hundred and thirty years old, he became the father of in his own likeness, after his image, and he called him 4 Adam lived eight hundred years after the birth of Seth, an 5 other sons and daughters. The whole lifetime of Adam wa hundred and thirty years; then he died.
6 When Seth was one hundred and five years old, he be 7 the father of Enos. Seth lived eight hundred and seven year 8 er the birth of Enos, and had other sons and daughters.
whole lifetime of Seth was nine hundred and twelve y then he died.
9 When Enos was ninety years old, he became the f

4, 23-24: The Song of Lamech may have been originally a b thirsty, victorious war song.
4, 26: To call on the name of the Lord may mean the beginni a public cult.
5: To bridge the gap of time between creation and the flood sacred writer stretched out the few names he knew into ten generat The Sumerian writers did the same thing because their prepatriarchs "lived" from 12,000 years to 18,600 years. The long meant, not how long the pre-flood patriarchs lived, but how long Moreover, a long life for a Semite is an indication of holiness.
torically speaking, man's life span then was shorter than it is t of Cainan. Enos lived eight hundred and fifteen years after the birth of Cainan, and had other sons and daughters. The whole lifetime of Enos was nine hundred and five years; then he died.

When Cainan was seventy years old, he became the father of Malaleel. Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years after the birth of Malaleel, and had other sons and daughters.
The whole lifetime of Cainan was nine hundred and ten years;
then he died.
When Malaleel was sixty-five years old he became the father of Jared. Malaleel lived eight hundred and thirty years after the birth of Jared, and had other sons and daughters. The whole lifetime of Malaleel was eight hundred and ninety-five years; then he died.
When Jared was one hundred and sixty-two years old, he became the father of Henoch. Jared lived eight hundred years after the birth of Henoch, and had other sons and daughters. The whole lifetime of Jared was nine hundred and sixty-two years; then he died.
When Henoch was sixty-five years old, he became the father of Mathusale. Henoch walked with God three hundred years after the birth of Mathusale, and had other sons and daughters.
The whole lifetime of Henoch was three hundred and sixty-five years. Henoch walked with God; and he was seen no more because God took him.
When Mathusale was one hundred and eighty-seven years old, he became the father of Lamech. Mathusale lived seven hundred and eighty-two years after the birth of Lamech, and had other sons and daughters. The whole lifetime of Mathusale was nine hundred and sixty-nine years; then he died.
When Lamech was one hundred and eighty-two years old, he became the father of a son, and called him Noe, saying,
"This one shall bring us comfort from our work and from the toil of our hands in the ground which the Lord cursed." La-mech lived five hundred and ninety-five years after the birth of Noe, and had other sons and daughters. The whole lifetime

In contrast, a modern historian would only say of this period, "We do not know how long the period was between creation and the flood."

5, 23: 365 years: a symbolic number of perfection based on the solar year.

5, 24: Henoch walked with God: the latter expression and the above "365 years" both connote exceptional sanctity in a corrupt world. And, therefore, God took him to a mysterious paradise without dying a natural death.

of Lamech was seven hundred and seventy-seven years; t he died.
32 When Noe was five hundred years old, he became the ther of Sem, Ham and Japheth.

6
1 When men began to multiply on the earth, and had daugh 2 born to them, the sons of God saw that the daughters of were fair, and they took wives for themselves, as many as t 3 wished. Then the Lord said, "My spirit shall not remain man forever, since he is flesh. His lifetime shall be one hund and twenty years."
4 There were giants on the earth in those days, and afterward, when the sons of God had relations with the dau ters of men, who bore children to them. These were mighty men who were of old, the men of renown.
5 When the Lord saw that the wickedness of man on the e was great, and that man's every thought and all the inclina 6 of his heart were only evil, he regretted that he had m 7 man on the earth and was grieved to the heart. Then the L

6, 1-4: The general sense of this obscure passage is that God distressed because of man's increasing sins from Adam-Cain-Lam Giants. The inspired writer uses the legend of angels, "sons of G having intercourse with mortal women and producing polygam titans as an example of corruption at that time.

6, 5—9, 17: The flood is the principal event between creation Abraham, who begins the history of Israel in chapter 12. Numer repetitions show that two different accounts, dating from the tenth sixth centuries B.C., respectively, are woven together into one narrat Many peoples throughout the world have flood stories which rive from Babylon, Genesis, or from some local flood. But of all th stories the Babylonian Epic of Gilgamesh resembles most the bibl flood. Three differences are: in the Babylonian flood story there many gods whereas in the Genesis story there is only one God; in pagan account there is no other reason given for the destructive fl but caprice, whereas in the Genesis account the world was destro because of man's increasing sins; in one account the hero is saved cause he was a favorite of the gods, whereas in the other, Noe was sa because he was a "just man." Although the biblical account did borrow literally from the older Babylonian story, the biblical st came from the same stock of folklore which may have originated fr an exceptionally devastating flood in the actual history of Mesopotam The historical nucleus may have contained an historical Noe. T popular imagination exaggerated its extent to cover all men all o the world. Sir C. L. Woolley discovered a flood in Kish—southe Mesopotamia—dating about 3,800 B.C., but this does not prove th it was the biblical flood. Hence, it is most unlikely that remains Noe's ark will ever be discovered on Mount Ararat (8, 4) or an where.

said, "I will wipe from the earth man whom I have created—man and beast, crawling creature and bird of the air as well—for I regret that I made them." But Noe found favor with the Lord.

Warning of the Flood This is the story of Noe. Noe was a just man, blameless among the men of his day. | He walked with God. Noe became the father of three sons, Sem, Ham and Japheth.
The earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and it was filled with violence. God saw that the earth was corrupt; for all men lived corruptly on the earth. And God said to Noe, "The end of all creatures of flesh is in my mind; the earth is full of violence because of them. I will destroy them with the earth.

Description of the Ark "Make an ark of resin-wood; make it tight with fibre and cover it with pitch inside and out.
"This is how you shall make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. Make an opening for the ark and finish it a cubit from the top. Set a door in the side of the ark; make it with a bottom, second and third level. For in truth I will bring the flood upon the earth to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which there is the breath of life. All that are on the earth shall die.
But I will establish my covenant with you; you shall go into the ark, you, your sons, your wife and your sons' wives with you.
Of every sort of living creature of all flesh you shall bring two into the ark to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. Of birds according to their kind and of cattle according to their kind, of every kind of creature moving over the ground, two of each shall enter with you to be kept alive.
Take with you also every kind of food that can be eaten and store it up with you, and it shall serve as food for you and for them." And Noe did all that God commanded him.

7

Then the Lord said to Noe, "Go into the ark, you and all your household; for you, in this generation, I have found just in my sight. Of all clean animals take with you seven pairs, a male and its mate; and of the unclean animals two, a male and its mate; of the birds of the air also, seven pairs, male and female, that they may raise up offspring over all the earth.

6, 15: A cubit is 1-½ feet. The dimensions of the ark are: 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, 45 feet high.

4 For after seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty d and forty nights, and I will wipe from the ground every liv thing that I have made."

5 Noe and His Household Enter the Ark Noe did 6 that God commanded him. He was six hundred years 7 when the flood came upon the earth. Noe and his sons, wife and his sons' wives went together into the ark to esc 8 the waters of the flood. Of clean animals and the unclean, 9 birds and of every creature crawling on the ground, | pai male and female, entered the ark with Noe, as God had co 10 manded him. And after the seven days the waters of t flood came upon the earth.
11 In the six hundredth year of Noe's life, on the seventeen day of the second month, on that very day all the fountai of the great deep burst forth, and the floodgates of the heave 12 were opened. And rain fell on the earth forty days and for 13 nights. On the very same day Noe and his sons, Sem, Ham ar Japheth, Noe's wife and the three wives of Noe's sons entere 14 the ark together: they and every kind of wild animal, ever kind of cattle, every kind of reptile crawling on the earth an 15 every kind of bird, every kind of winged creature. Pairs of a flesh in which there was the breath of life entered the ark wit 16 Noe. And they that entered were male and female of all fles as God had commanded him; and the Lord shut him in.
17 The flood continued forty days upon the earth. The water increased and bore up the ark and it rose above the earth 18 The waters rose higher and increased greatly on the earth 19 but the ark floated on the surface of the waters. The water rose higher and higher on the earth so that all the highest moun tains everywhere under the heavens were covered.
20 The waters rose fifteen cubits above the mountains so tha 21 they were covered. All flesh that moved on the earth died: birds cattle, wild animals, all creatures that creep on the earth, and 22 all men. All that were on the dry land in whose nostrils was 23 the breath of life, died. And every living thing on the earth was wiped out, from man to beast, from reptile to bird of the air; they were wiped from the earth. Only Noe and those with 24 him in the ark were left. | The waters rose on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

7, 4: Forty is often used in the Bible as a round number to express a long time.

7, 14-16: If the author meant to be taken literally, Noe would have had to take about 519,000 species and feed them in the ark.

8 1 Then God remembered Noe, and all the wild animals and all the cattle that were with him in the ark. And God sent a 2 wind over the earth and the waters subsided. The fountains of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens were closed. The 3 rain from the heavens was withheld. | The waters steadily receded from the earth. They subsided at the end of one 4 hundred and fifty days. And in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested on the mountains 5 of Ararat. The waters continued to recede until the tenth month; on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains appeared.
6 At the end of forty days, Noe opened the window which 7 he had made in the ark, and released a raven. It flew to and 8 fro until the waters had dried off the earth. Then he sent a dove to see if the waters had abated from the surface of the 9 ground. But the dove found no place to alight, so she returned to him in the ark; for the water covered the whole earth. He put forth his hand and caught her and drew her to him in the ark.
10 He waited another seven days, and again sent forth the dove 11 from the ark. The dove came back to him in the evening, and there in her mouth was a green olive leaf! So Noe knew that the 12 waters had abated from the earth. Then he waited another seven days, and sent forth the dove; but she did not return to him any more.
13 Now in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters were dried off the earth.
Noe removed the coverings of the ark and saw that the surface 14 of the ground had dried. In the second month, on the twenty-15 seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. Then God said to 16 Noe, "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and 17 your sons' wives with you. Bring out with you every living thing you have of all flesh: birds, cattle, and every creature crawling on the earth, that they may abound on the earth and 18 be fruitful and multiply on the earth." Noe went forth with 19 his sons and his wife and his sons' wives. All wild animals, all cattle, all birds and all creatures crawling on the earth: according to their kinds they went out of the ark.

20 Noe's Sacrifice after the Flood Then Noe built an altar to the Lord; he took of every clean animal and of every clean 21 bird, and offered holocausts on the altar. When the Lord smelled the sweet odor he said to himself, "I will never again curse the ground on account of man, for the inclination of man's heart is evil from his youth; I will never again destroy every livin 22 creature, as I have done. As long as the earth shall last, seedtim and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and nigh shall not cease."

9

1 Noe Blessed; Blood Forbidden God blessed Noe and hi sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill th 2 earth. The fear and dread of you shall be upon all the wil animals of the earth and upon every bird of the air, upon al creatures that crawl on the ground, and all the fish of the sea 3 into your power they are delivered. Every creature that move and lives shall be food for you; as I gave you the green plants 4 I give you everything. But flesh with its life—that is, its blood—5 you shall not eat. Surely I will require an account of your life's blood; from every beast I will require it, and from man; from every man I will require the life of his fellow.
6 "Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood 7 be shed; for in the image of God man was made. But you, be fruitful and multiply; abound on the earth and subdue it."

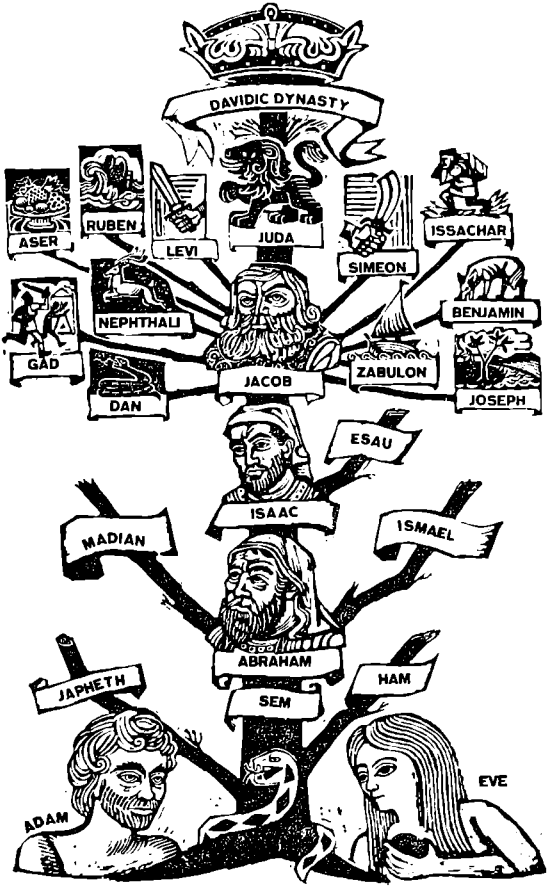
8 The Covenant with Noe Then God said to Noe and to his 9 sons with him, "I will establish my covenant with you, and with 10 your descendants after you; and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the cattle, and every wild animal with you; all that came out of the ark, even the wild animals. I 11 establish my covenant with you. Never again shall all flesh be destroyed by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be 12 a flood to destroy the earth." And God said, "This is the token of the covenant; I set it between me and you and every living 13 creature that is with you, for all generations to come. I will set

---

9, 4: God gives man permission to eat animal flesh provided the blood is drained out.

9, 5: A homicidal beast is explained in Ex 21, 28-32.

9, 8-17: God makes a covenant with all post-flood mankind represented by Noe. This is the Israelite's idea of a natural religion, i.e., a relationship between man and the one true God without any revelation. The writer has God seal the covenant with the rainbow. The symbolic religious meaning of this natural phenomenon is: hereafter, when men see the rainbow they should recall that even if they are continuing in sin and deserve to be destroyed again by a flood, God will not destroy them. The rainbow covenant is the main point of the story. It is the only outstanding feature not borrowed from other flood stories. From this it does not follow, however, that the writer thought the rainbow never existed before the flood.



my bow in the clouds and it shall be a token of the covenant 14 between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth, 15 and the bow appears in the clouds, I will remember my covenant which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh. Never again shall the waters become a flood to 16 destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will look upon it and recall the perpetual covenant between God and every 17 living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." And God said to Noe, "This is the token of the covenant which I establish between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

18 The Sons of Noe The sons of Noe who went out of the ark were Sem, Ham and Japheth. [Ham is the father of Chanaan.] 19 These three were the sons of Noe and from these the whole earth 20 was peopled. Now Noe began to till the soil, and he planted a 21 vineyard. When he drank of the wine, he became drunk and 22 lay naked in his tent. Ham [the father of Chanaan] saw his 23 father's nakedness and told his two brothers outside. But Sem and Japheth took a robe, and laying it upon their shoulders, went backward and covered their father's nakedness; as their faces were turned away, they did not see their father's naked-24 ness. When Noe awoke from his drunkenness and learned what 25 his youngest son had done to him, he said: "Cursed be Chanaan; 26 meanest of slaves shall he be to his brethren." Then he said:
"Blessed be the Lord, the God of Sem; let Chanaan be his slave.
27 May God expand Japheth; let him dwell in the tents of Sem; let Chanaan be his slave."
28 Noe lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood.

9, 19: The writer does not intend this as an historical fact but as a tradition found among his people.

9, 20-27: This story was written while the Israelites were subjugating the Promised Land of Chanaan (Palestine) in the twelfth century B.C. The author inserts the story here as though it happened at the beginning of the repopulation of the world. The tenth century writer wants to exhort the Israelites to avoid the lewd practices of the Chanaanite neighbors. Now the Israelites thought that every happening, e.g., their conquest of the Chanaanites, came about because God wanted it to happen from all eternity. To dramatize this the writer makes God bless the ancestor of his race, Sem, and curse the ancestor of Chanaan, Ham. This story does not say that the Negroes or the Africans are the slaves of the white men. To use this story as an argument from Scripture to uphold Apartheid or a segregationist policy is to interpret the text against the mind of the writer.

9, 27: One opinion of this very obscure verse is that the Gentiles represented by Japheth will participate in the happiness of the Israelites represented by Sem.

DAVIDIC DYNASTY
ASER
RUBEN
LEVI
JUDA
SIMEON
ISSACHAR
NEPHTHALI
BENJAMIN
GAD
JACOB
ZABULON
DAN
JOSEPH
ESAU
ISAAC MADIAN
ISMAEL
ABRAHAM
JAPHETH
SEM
HAM
ADAM
EVE

The Forward Looking Concept of Biblical History

The Israelites were the only people in antiquity who wrote their history in a straight line. The other Orientals, e.g., the Greeks, wrote history "in circles," for it was their belief that kings, kingdoms and movements repeat themselves. The People of God were headed for a distinct goal which became clearer as they marched down the centuries toward it.

In the tenth century B.C. the first Messianic text (see Gn 3,15 n) narrates that the offspring of Eve, mankind, is vaguely promised a victory over the Devil and sin. After the Flood when Noe and his three sons, Sem, Ham, and Japheth repopulate the world, there is the "second Messianic prophecy" (see Gn 9,20-27 n). It is the call of the Semitic race. God promises Sem's race His protection and favor. After discarding Ham and Japheth with their descendants the narrative tapers its view down to the call of one man from the privileged Semites, and that man is Abraham. In Abraham "shall all the nations of the earth be blessed" (Gn 12,3). This Abrahamitic Promise, renewed in Gn 18,18 and 22,16-18, forecasts that the Gentile nations will somehow benefit from Abraham's line.

After discarding Ismael and Madian with their descendants, the narrative focuses on Abraham's descendants, Isaac and Jacob, with whom God renews the promise made to Abraham, i.e., with Isaac in Gn 26,4 and with Jacob in Gn 28,14. Jacob's brother, Esau, and his descendants are also discarded. The twelve tribes of Jacob (see Gn 49,3-27 for the meaning of the symbols) are now in the mainstream of the forward movement of Israel's history. There then follows the call and privilege of only one of these tribes, the tribe of Juda (see Gn 49,10 n). The next Messianic text of the forward thrust is 2 Sm 7,8-16 where the call of the Davidic dynasty of the tribe of Juda is indisputably more clearly indicated than in Gn 49,10. Although this chart ends here, it is only at the beginning of the historic journey to Christ in the New Testament.

29 The whole lifetime of Noe was nine hundred and fifty yea then he died.

10

1 These are the descendants of the sons of Noe, Sem, Ha and Japheth; sons were born to them after the flood.
2 The descendants of Japheth are Gomer, Magog, Madai, J 3 van, Thubal, Mosoch and Thiras. The descendants of Gom 4 are Aschenez, Riphath and Thogorma. The descendants of J
5 van are Elisa, Tharsis, Chetthim and Rodanim. | From thes sprang the island-peoples. These are the descendants of Japhet in their countries, according to their languages and their fam lies, and by their nations.
6 The descendants of Ham are Chus, Mesraim, Phut and Cha 7 naan. The descendants of Chus are Saba, Hevila, Sabatha, Reg ma and Sabathacha. The descendants of Regma are Saba an 8 Dedan. Chus was the father of Nemrod; he was the first to b 9 a conqueror on the earth. He was a mighty hunter before th Lord. Hence the saying, "Like Nemrod, a mighty hunter befor
the Lord."

10 Nemrod the Empire Builder The beginning of his king dom was Babylon, Arach and Acchad, all of them in the land o 11 Sennaar. From that region Assur went forth and built Nineve 12 and Rehoboth-Ir and Chale and Resen | between Nineve and Chale [that is the great city].
13 Mesraim became the father of Ludim, Anamim, Laabim, 14 Nephthuhim, | Phethrusim, Chasluhim and Caphthorim -
15 from whom the Philistines sprang. Chanaan became the fa-16 ther of Sidon his first-born, and Heth, | and the Jebusite, the 17 Amorrite, the Gergesite, | the Hevite, the Aracite, the Sinite,
18 | the Aradite, the Samarite and the Hamathite. Afterward, 19 the families of the Chanaanites spread abroad. And the border of the Chanaanite extended from Sidon, in the direction of Gerara, as far as Gaza; in the direction of Sodom, Gomorra, 20 Adama and Seboim as far as Lesa. These are the descendants of Ham according to their families and their languages, in their countries, by their nations.
21 To Sem also, the father of all the descendants of Eber, 10: This table of the peoples of the world really represents a world map from the tenth to the seventh century B.C. It is written to show the common origin of all men, not national relationships.

10, 8-9: Nemrod is presented as a legendary founder of Assyria and Babylon.

the elder brother of Japheth, children were born. The descendants of Sem were Elam, Assur, Arphachsad, Lud and Aram.
The descendants of Aram were Us, Hul, Gether and Mes.
Arphachsad became the father of Sale; and Sale became the father of Eber. Two sons were born to Eber; the one was Phaleg—for in his time the world was divided—and his brother was Jectan. Jectan became the father of Elmodad, Saleph, Hasarmoth, Jare, | Adoram, Uzal, Decla, | Ebal, Abimael, Saba, | Ophir, Hevila and Jobab; all these were the sons of Jectan. Their settlements extended from Messa in the direction of Sephar, to the mountains of the East. These are the descendants of Sem according to their families and their languages, in their countries, by their nations.

These are the families of the sons of Noe according to their descent in their nations. From these the nations branched out over the earth after the flood.

11

The Tower of Babel The whole earth used the same language and the same speech. While men were migrating eastward, they discovered a valley in the land of Sennaar and settled there. They said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them." They used bricks for stone and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, "Let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves lest we be scattered all over the earth." The Lord came down to see the city and the tower which men had built. And the Lord said, "Truly, they are one people and they all have the same language. This is the beginning of what they will do. Hereafter they will not be restrained from anything which they determine to do. Let us go down, and there confuse their language so that they will not understand one another's speech." So the Lord scattered them from that place all over the earth; and they stopped 11, 1-9: The sacred writer found this Chanaanite story which explained how language began. The Chanaanites looked to Babylon as an ideal city for the setting of this story, for Babylon was ancient, wealthy, cosmopolitan, large, and studded with skyscraper ziggurats. (A ziggurat is a temple tower of the Babylonians consisting of a lofty pyramidal structure built in successive stages with outside staircases and a shrine at the top.) The writer was not thinking of one particular ziggurat but of a ziggurat. The Chanaanites and the Israelites thought that different languages caused different peoples. Today we know that the slow formation of peoples led to the formation of languages. The sacred writer recast this folklore with the light of his belief in one God to teach: when men become too concerned with material prosperity and act independently of God, He punishes them.

9 building the city. For this reason it was called Babel, beca there the Lord confused the speech of all the earth. From th the Lord scattered them all over the earth.

10 Sem's Descendants These are the descendants of Sem. Wh Sem was one hundred years old he became the father 11 Arphachsad, two years after the flood. Sem lived five hundr years after the birth of Arphachsad, and had other sons a 12 daughters. When Arphachsad was thirty-five years old he b 13 came the father of Sale. Arphachsad lived four hundred a three years after the birth of Sale, and had other sons a 14 daughters. When Sale was thirty years old he became the fath 15 of Eber. Sale lived four hundred and three years after the bir 16 of Eber, and had other sons and daughters. When Eber w 17 thirty-four years old he became the father of Phaleg. Eber liv four hundred and thirty years after the birth of Phaleg, and ha 18 other sons and daughters. When Phaleg was thirty years old h 19 became the father of Reu. Phaleg lived two hundred and nin years after the birth of Reu, and had other sons and daughter 20 When Reu was thirty-two years old he became the father o 21 Sarug. Reu lived two hundred and seven years after the birt 22 of Sarug, and had other sons and daughters. When Sarug wa 23 thirty years old he became the father of Nahor. Sarug lived tw hundred years after the birth of Nahor, and had other sons an 24 daughters. When Nahor was twenty-nine years old he becam 25 the father of Thare. Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years after the birth of Thare, and had other sons and daughters 26 When Thare was seventy years old he became the father of Abram, Nahor and Aran.

II. THE PATRIARCH ABRAHAM

27 Thare These are the descendants of Thare. Thare was the 28 father of Abram, Nahor and Aran. Aran became the father of Lot. Aran died before his father Thare in the land of his birth, 29 in Ur of the Chaldees. Abram and Nahor married. Abram's wife was Sarai and Nahor's wife was Melcha, the daughter of 30 Aran, father of Melcha and Jescha. Now Sarai was barren; she 31 had no children. Thare took his son Abram and his grandson

11, 10-26: The post-flood patriarchs in this list lived shorter lives than the pre-flood patriarchs in ch. 5. These direct forefathers of Abraham in ch. 11 are listed to connect the flood with the story of Abraham.

Lot, the son of Aran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and led them from Ur of the Chaldees toward the land of Chanaan; but when they reached Haran, they set-32 tled there. The lifetime of Thare was two hundred and five years; and he died in Haran.

12

1 Abram's Call and First Blessing The Lord said to Abram: "Leave your country, your kinsfolk and your father's 2 house, for the land which I will show you; I will make a great nation of you. I will bless you, and make your name great, so 3 that you shall be a blessing. I will bless them that bless you, and curse them that curse you. In you shall all the nations of the earth be blessed."

4 Abram went away as the Lord had commanded him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when 5 he left Haran. Abram took Sarai his wife, Lot his brother's son, all the property they had acquired and the persons they had got in Haran; and they departed for the land af Chanaan. When 6 they came to the land of Chanaan, Abram passed through the land to the sacred place at Sichem, near the terebinth of More.
At that time the Chanaanite was in the land.

7 The Lord appeared to Abram, and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." So Abram built an altar there to 8 the Lord, who had appeared to him. He moved from there to the mountain region east of Bethel, and pitched his tent with Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. He built an altar there to 9 the Lord and called on the name of the Lord. Then Abram journeyed on toward the Negeb.

10 Abram in Egypt during a Famine Now there was a famine in the land and Abram went down to Egypt where he lived

12, 1-9: The sacred writer leaves us with a mystery as to exactly how God revealed Himself to Abraham, except that it was a personal encounter and that Abraham was most likely a polytheist before his conversion (at least this may be deduced from the context and from Josue 24, 2.) Abraham received his vocation in the nineteenth century B.C. when there were many other clans migrating at the same time and in the same direction as Abraham's.

12, 3: God will bring happiness through Abraham to the Israelites and to the Gentiles.

12, 10-20: The original intent of this story, before the sacred writer incorporated it, was to praise the beauty of Sarai, the ancestress of the Israelites, and the craftiness of Abraham. The writer included it in his history, since he found it useful to show that Abraham's God was able to work in a foreign land, Egypt, and that He had taken Abraham 11 as a stranger; for the famine in the land was severe. When was about to enter Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, "I know t 12 you are a woman beautiful to behold. When the Egyptians you, they will say, 'She is his wife'; then they will kill me, 13 will spare you. Therefore, say you are my sister so that I n be treated well on your account, and my life may be spared 14 your sake." When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians s 15 that the woman was very beautiful. Pharao's princes saw and they praised her to Pharao. And the woman was taken 16 Pharao's house. He treated Abram well on her account so that received flocks, herds, he-asses, men-servants, maid-servants, sl asses and camels.

17 But the Lord struck Pharao and his household with gr 18 plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. Then Pharao sum moned Abram and said, "Why have you done this to me? W 19 did you not tell me she was your wife? | Why did you s she was your sister and let me marry her? Here now is yo 20 wife; take her and go." Then Pharao gave his men orders co cerning Abram; and they sent him away with his wife and a that belonged to him.

13

1 Abram and Lot Part Abram went up from Egypt to th Negeb, he and his wife and all that belonged to him, and Lo 2 with him. Now Abram was very rich in cattle, silver and gol 3 He journeyed by stages from the Negeb to Bethel to the plac 4 where his tent had been before, between Bethel and Ai. At th place where the altar was which he had previously built there Abram called on the name of the Lord.
5 Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks, herds and tents 6 so that the land would not support them dwelling together for their possessions were so great that they could not dwel 7 together. And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram' cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. At that time the Chana 8 anite and the Pherezite dwelt in the land. Then Abram saic to Lot, "Let there be no strife between you and me, nor be tween my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are kinsmen 9 Does not the whole land lie before you? Withdraw from me If you go to the left, I will go to the right; or if you take the under His special protection. The story makes us see that at that time adultery and lying were justified to save the life of a husband. The writer knows that Abraham did wrong but he is telling the story as he found it at a time when God had not yet revealed that lying and adultery were wrong.

10 right, then I will go to the left." Then Lot looked about and saw that the whole region of the Jordan toward Segor was well-watered—this was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Go-11 morra—like the Lord's garden or like Egypt. So Lot chose for himself the whole region of the Jordan and journeyed east-12 ward. Thus they separated from each other. Abram dwelt in the land of Chanaan, while Lot dwelt in the cities of the Jor-13 dan region, pitching his tent near Sodom. Now the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinned exceedingly against the Lord.

14 Abram Moves to Hebron The Lord said to Abram, after Lot had parted from him, "Raise your eyes, and from where you are now look to the north and the south and the east and the 15 west. All the land which you see I will give to you and your 16 posterity forever. I will make your posterity as the dust of the earth; if anyone can count the grains of dust, your posterity can 17 also be counted. Arise, walk the length and breadth of the land, 18 for to you I will give it." Abram moved his tent and came to dwell by the terebinths of Mamre which are at Hebron; and he built an altar there to the Lord.

14

1 Expedition of the Four Kings In the time of Amraphel king of Sennaar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chodorlahomor king of 2 Elam, and Thadal king of Goyyim, | these kings waged war against Bara king of Sodom, Bersa king of Gomorra, Sennaab king of Adama, Semeber king of Seboim, and the king of Bala—3 that is, Segor. These other kings formed an alliance in the valley 4 of Siddim—that is, the Salt Sea. Twelve years they had been subject to Chodorlahomor, but in the thirteenth year they re-5 belled. In the fourteenth year came Chodorlahomor and the kings with him. They defeated the Raphaim in Astharothcarnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Save-cariathaim, | 6 the Horrites in the mountains of Seir, as far as El-Pharan, close 7 by the desert. Then they turned back and came to En-mesphat—that is, Cades—and subdued all the country of the Amalecites, 8 and also the Amorrites, who dwelt in Hasason-thamar. Then the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorra, the king of Adama, 14, 1-17: Five city-states south of the Dead Sea rebelled against Chodorlahomor of Elam and his four Mesopotamian vassals. Lot, living at Sodom, one of the five rebelling cities, was captured. Abraham with three allies recaptured him after several raids at night. The five kinglets of Mesopotamia are unknown outside the Bible account. The writer keeps this story, handed down orally for about 1,000 years, to depict Abraham as a good and brave uncle who rescued his nephew, Lot.

the king of Seboim and the king of Bala—that is, Segor—we out, and they drew up in battle against them in the valley 9 Siddim: against Chodorlahomor king of Elam, Thadal king Goyyim, Amraphel king of Sennaar, and Arioch king of Ellas: 10 four kings against five. Now the valley of Siddim was full bitumen pits; and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorra fle 11 some fell there, but the rest fled to the mountain. The victo took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorra and all their pro 12 sions, and went their way; they also took Lot, Abram's nephe 13 and his goods, for he had been living in Sodom. Then came fugitive and reported to Abram the Hebrew, who was livir near the terebinths of Mamre the Amorrite, a kinsman of Esch and Aner; these were allies of Abram.

14 Abram Pursues and Defeats the Kings When Abra heard that his kinsman had been taken prisoner, he called ou three hundred and eighteen of his trained men, born in hi 15 house, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. He and his servant formed parties against them by night, defeated them and pur 16 sued them as far as Hoba, north of Damascus. He recovered al the goods; and his kinsman Lot and his goods he also recovered 17 besides the women and the people. When Abram returned fron the defeat of Chodorlahomor and the kings with him, the kin of Sodom went out to meet Abram in the valley Save, that is, i the king's valley.

18 Melchisedec Blesses Abram Then Melchisedec, the king of Salem, brought out bread and wine; for he was a priest of the 19 Most High God. He blessed Abram and said, "Blessed be Abram by the Most High God, creator of heaven and earth.
20 Blessed be the Most High God, who has delivered your enemies into your hand." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.
21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people, 22 keep the goods for yourself." But Abram answered him, "I raise my hand to the Lord God Most High, creator of heaven 23 and earth, that I will not take thread or sandalstrap or any-

14, 18-24: When Abraham returned from victory, he stopped over at Salem (Jerusalem most probably) where Melchisedec, king and pagan priest of the city, showed hospitality by serving bread and wine. The Hebrew writer wants his readers to know that, although Melchisedec did not know it, there is only one God, the God of the Hebrews. St. Cyprian was the first to call this a true sacrifice of bread and wine and a prefigurement of the Eucharistic sacrifice of bread and wine. This is the interpretation in the canon of the Mass where Melchisedec is presented as a priest of the one true God.

thing that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram 24 rich'; nothing but what the young men have eaten, and the share of those who accompanied me. Let Aner, Eschol and Mamre take their share."

15

1 After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, "Fear not, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall 2 be very great." And Abram said, "O Lord God, what will you give me? I am childless, and the steward of my house, Eliezer, 3 is my heir." Abram also said, "To me you have given no 4 descendants; the slave born in my house will be my heir." But the word of the Lord came to him, "He shall not be your heir; 5 your heir shall be one of your own flesh." Then the Lord led him outside and said, "Look at the heavens and, if you can, count the stars." And he said to him, "So shall your posterity be." 6 Abram believed the Lord, who credited the act to him as justice.
7 He said to him, "I am the Lord, who brought you from Ur in 8 Chaldea, to give you this land to possess." But he said, "O Lord God, how am I to know that I shall possess it?"

9 The Sign of the Covenant He answered him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a she-goat three years old, a ram three 10 years old, a turtledove and a young pigeon." He brought him all these and cut them in two, and laid each half opposite the 11 other; but the birds he did not cut in two. Birds of prey swooped 12 down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them off. As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep; and terror came upon 13 him, a great darkness. The Lord said to Abram, "Know for certain that your posterity will be strangers in a land not their own; they shall be subjected to slavery and shall be oppressed 14 four hundred years. But I will judge that nation which they shall serve, and afterward they shall go free with great pos-15 sessions. And you shall go to your fathers in peace, and be 15, 6: Abraham's faith and justice here mean that he had confidence in God's promise which seemed humanly impossible. His faith was not a belief in a supernatural truth. His justice was not a passage from the state of sin to the state of grace (in the Catholic sense) nor was he "declared" just (in the Lutheran sense).

15, 9-20: God renews His covenant and promises of land and offspring with Abraham according to an ancient ceremonial. Both parties were supposed to pass between the sacrificed pieces of animals to signify willingness to die before breaking their pact. God is represented as the "fiery torch" passing between the pieces (v. 17).

15, 13-16: These verses interrupt the ceremonial to explain the bad omen of v. 11. God tells Abraham that his descendants will be slaves

16 buried at a good old age. In the fourth generation they sh return here; for the wickedness of the Amorrites is not yet co plete."
17 Now when the sun had set and it was dark, a smokir 18 oven and a fiery torch passed between the pieces. On that d the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your po terity I will give this land, from the river of Egypt to th 19 Great River [the Euphrates], the land of the Cinites, Cenc
20 ites, Cedmonites, | Hethites, Pherezites, Raphaim, Amorrite Chanaanites, Gergesites and Jebusites."

16

1 Birth of Ismael Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no chi 2 dren. She had an Egyptian maid named Agar. Sarai said t Abram, "The Lord has kept me from bearing; go in to my maid perhaps I shall get children through her." Abram listened t 3 Sarai. | After Abram had lived ten years in the land of Cha naan, Sarai his wife took Agar, her Egyptian maid, and gav 4 her to Abram, her husband, to be his wife. | And he went ir to Agar, and she conceived. When she was aware that she hac 5 conceived, she looked with disdain on her mistress. Then Sara said to Abram, "The injury done me is your fault! I gave my maid to your embrace and when she was aware that she had conceived she looked on me with disdain. The Lord judge be-6 tween you and me!" Abram answered Sarai, "Your maid is in your power; do to her what seems good to you." Then Sarai 7 humiliated her, and she fled from her. Afterward an angel of the Lord found her beside a spring of water in the desert, the 8 spring on the road to Sur. He said, "Agar, maid of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?" She answered, 9 "I am fleeing from my mistress Sarai." The angel of the Lord said to her, "Return to your mistress and submit to her au-10 thority." The angel of the Lord added, "I will so multiply your 11 posterity that it shall be too many to count." The angel of the Lord also said to her: "You are with child, and shall bear a son; you shall call him Ismael, because the Lord has heard of in Egypt for about 400 years and then will be led to the Promised Land. Since God had not yet revealed the true nature of His justice and mercy the sacred writer describes them as he understands them. He pictures God waiting for the inhabitants of the Promised Land ("Amorrites") to sin some more till they deserved to be dispossessed of their land in favor of the Israelites.

---

16, 1-15: God's promise of the offspring must come through Sarai. Occasionally the angel of the Lord (v. 7) is used as a synonym for God under a visible form (v. 13).

12 your humiliation. He shall be a wild ass of a man, his hand against everyone, and everyone's hand against him; he shall 13 dwell apart, opposing all his kinsmen." She named the Lord, who spoke to her: "You are the God of vision"; for she said,
"Have I really seen God and remained alive after my vision?" 14 Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi. It is between Cades and Barad.
15 So Agar bore Abram a son; and Abram called his son 16 whom Agar bore, Ismael. Abram was eighty-six years old when Agar bore him Ismael.

17

1 Covenant of Circumcision When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to him and said, "I am God the 2 Almighty. Walk in my presence and be perfect. I will make my covenant between you and me, and will multiply you ex-3 ceedingly." Abram fell prostrate, and God spoke to him thus, 4 "This is my covenant with you: You shall be the father of a 5 multitude of nations; you shall no longer be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I will make you the 6 father of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; I will make nations of you, and kings shall descend 7 from you. I will establish my covenant between you and me and your descendants after you throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant, that I may be a God to you and to 8 your descendants after you. I will give you and your descendants after you this land in which you are immigrants, all the land of Chanaan as a perpetual possession; and I will be their God." 9 God also said to Abraham, "You shall keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their 10 generations. This is my covenant which you shall keep, between you and me and your descendants after you: Every male 11 among you shall be circumcised. You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; it shall be a token of the covenant between 12 you and me. He that is eight days old among you shall be circumcised, every male throughout your generations, including the slave born in your house, or bought with money from 13 any foreigner, not of your own race. Both he that is born in your house and he that is bought with your money must be circumcised. My covenant shall be in your flesh as a perpetual 14 covenant. If any male have not the flesh of his foreskin cir-

17, 1-14: A tradition of the sixth century B.C. presents another account of the Promise of the Covenant.

cumcised, that person shall be cut off from his people; he h broken my covenant."

15 Isaac's Birth Promised God said to Abraham, "Sarai yo 16 wife you shall not call Sarai but Sara. I will bless her, and w also give you a son by her; yes, I will bless her, and she shall b the mother of nations; kings of peoples shall descend from her 17 And as Abraham fell prostrate, he laughed and said to him self, "Shall a son be born to one who is a hundred years old 18 Shall Sara who is ninety bear a child?" Then Abraham said t 19 God, "Oh, that Ismael may live in your favor!" God answered
"No, but Sara your wife shall bear you a son, and you sha call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as a per petual covenant for his descendants after him.
20 "As for Ismael, I have heard you. I will bless him and mak him fruitful and multiply him exceedingly. He shall becom the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation 21 But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sara shal 22 bear to you at this time next year." And when he had finished talking with him, God left Abraham.

23 Abraham and His Household Circumcised Then Abraham took his son Ismael, and all who were born in his house, and all who had been bought with his money, every male in his household, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins 24 on that very day, as God had commanded him. Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of 25 his foreskin. Ismael his son was thirteen years old when he was 26 circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. That very day Abra-27 ham and his son Ismael were circumcised. All the male members of his household, including the slaves born in his house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

18

1 Isaac's Birth Announced Now the Lord appeared to him

17, 15: According to the ancient Israelites a change of name meant a change of destiny. See also v. 5.

17, 17: Abraham laughed more out of surprise than of disbelief.

17, 23-27: God adopted the current existing rite of circumcision. It was practiced by several ancient peoples perhaps as an initiation to marriage and into the clan. Circumcision became a sign of recalling the covenant (as the rainbow in 9, 6-17). By the circumcision of her husband, the wife participated in the symbolic act of recalling the covenant.

18, 1-33: In this story of Abraham's hospitality, God appears with by the terebinths of Mamre as he sat at the entrance of his tent 2 in the heat of the day. And when he raised his eyes he saw three men standing at a distance from him. As soon as he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent door to meet them, 3 and bowed down to the earth, | and said, "My Lord, if I find 4 favor with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought that you may wash your feet; and then rest your-5 selves under the tree. Since you have come to your servant, I will bring you a little food that you may refresh yourselves; then you may go on." They replied, "Do as you have said." 6 Then Abraham hastened into the tent to Sara and said, "Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it, and make 7 loaves." And he ran to the herd, picked out a good, tender bullock, and gave it to the servant who hastened to prepare it.

8 Then he took curds and milk and the bullock which had been prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under 9 the tree while they ate. They said to him, "Where is Sara your 10 wife?" He answered, "She is in the tent." | "I will surely return to you at this time next year," he said, "and Sara your wife shall have a son." Sara was listening inside the entrance of 11 the tent. Now Abraham and Sara were old, advanced in years; and Sara no longer had periods as is customary with women.
12 So Sara laughed to herself and said, "Now that I am grown old 13 and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?" The Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sara laugh, saying, 'Shall I indeed bear a 14 child, though I am old?' | Is anything too wonderful for the Lord? At this time next year I will return to you, and Sara shall 15 have a son." But Sara denied it, saying, "I did not laugh"; for she was afraid. But he said, "You did laugh."

16 Ruin of Sodom and Gomorra Foretold Then the men set out from there and looked toward Sodom; and Abraham 17 walked with them to escort them on their way. The Lord said, 18 "Can I keep from Abraham what I am about to do? For Abraham shall surely become a great and powerful nation, and all

---

two angels (v. 2). God ("Lord") is expressly mentioned in vv. 1, 3, 13. He Himself speaks from v. 10 onward. In v. 22 the Lord is distinguished from the two accompanying "men" who are two angels according to 19, 1.

18, 12-15: Since Sara did not know the guest's identity, her laugh expressed pleasure at what she assumed to be a polite flattering wish made to an old lady. Her laugh indicates that she does not know of God's promise of an heir made to Abraham in 15, 4 and 17, 15f, since these three are narratives independent of each other. Therefore Sara's laugh was not one of disbelief in God's power.

19 the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him. Indeed, I hav chosen him, that he may charge his sons and his household after him to observe the way of the Lord, doing what is goo and right, so that the Lord may fulfill for Abraham what h 20 has promised him." Then the Lord said, "Because the outcr against Sodom and Gomorra is great, and their sin is ver 21 grave, I will go down to see whether they have done all tha the outcry which has come to me indicates; if not, I will know." 22 So they turned from there, and went toward Sodom, while Abraham remained standing in the presence of the Lord.
23 Abraham drew near and said, "Will you destroy the good 24 with the wicked? If there be fifty just men in the city, will you then destroy the place and not spare it for the sake of the fifty 25 just men within it? Far be it from you to do such a thing as kill the just with the wicked, treating just and wicked alike! Far be 26 it from you! Shall not the judge of all the earth act justly?" And the Lord said, "If I find that there are fifty just men in the city, 27 I will spare the whole place for their sake." Abraham answered,
"I have ventured to speak to the Lord though I am but dust and 28 ashes. What if there be five less than fifty just men? Will you destroy the whole city on account of five?" He said, "I will not 29 destroy it if I find forty-five there." | And Abraham spoke to him again, "What if forty be found there?" He said, "I will not 30 do it for the sake of the forty." Then he said, "O Lord, be not angry if I speak; what if thirty be found there?" He answered, 31 "I will not do it if I find thirty there." Abraham said, "I have ventured to speak to the Lord, what if twenty be found there?"
And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the twenty." 32 Abraham said again, "O Lord, be not angry if I speak once more; what if ten be found there?" He said, "I will not destroy 33 it for the sake of the ten." The Lord departed after he had finished speaking to Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

19

1 Sinfulness of the Men of Sodom Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, while Lot was sitting at the 18, 20: The outcry of divine justice.

18, 23-33: This anthropomorphic bargaining scene brings out how Abraham considered himself insignificant before God but yet loved by Him! This love gave him the boldness to intercede for Sodom and Gomorra. Although sinners do not know it, God tolerates them because of the few good. See especially v. 25.

19, 1: "The two angels" here are the "men" of 18, 16 who leave God in 18, 2. The "angels" are called "men" in ch. 19, except in v. 15.

gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and 2 falling prostrate to the earth, | he said, "Come aside, my lords, into the house of your servant, stay overnight and bathe your feet; then you may arise early, and go on your way." They said, 3 "No, we shall pass the night in the public square." But he urged them so strongly that they turned aside and entered his house;
and he prepared a meal for them, and baked unleavened bread, 4 and they ate. They had not yet retired when the townsmen, the men of Sodom, all the people from every quarter, both young 5 and old, surrounded the house, | and called Lot, and said to him, "Where are the men who came to your house tonight?
6 Bring them out that we may abuse them." | Lot went out to 7 the men, and shut the door behind him, | and said, "I en-8 treat you, brethren, do not act wickedly. I have two daughters who have not known man. Let me bring them out to you; do as you please with them. Only do nothing to these men, for 9 they have come under the shelter of my roof." But they said, "Stand back! This fellow came in as a stranger, and he would play the judge! Why, we will treat you worse than we will them!" Then they pressed hard against Lot, and drew near 10 to break in the door. But the visitors reached out their hands, and drew Lot back into the house with them, and closed the 11 door. Those who were at the door of the house they struck with blindness, from the least to the greatest, so that they could not find the door.

12 Instructions to Lot Then they said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you 13 have in the city, take them out of the place; for we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against them has become so great before the Lord that he sent us to destroy it." 14 Lot went out therefore to speak to his intended sons-in-law, and said, "Come, leave this place; for the Lord shall destroy the city." But they thought he was jesting.
15 When morning came, the angels urged Lot on, saying, "Come,

They are referred to in the singular (v. 21) and plural as God's representatives.

19, 4: This shows that there were not even ten just men for whom Abraham asked in 18, 32. There was only one—Lot.

19, 5: The unnatural vice of sodomy receives its name from this account. It was punishable by death. See Lv 20, 13.

19, 7-8: The sacred writer is relating a story which reflects a time when hospitality among semi-nomads was valued higher than virginal honor. See 12, 10-20 n. The writer's repudiation of these sins underscores the Israelite religion's moral superiority to that of later classical authors who defended these acts as morally correct.

take your wife and your two daughters here, lest you perish 16 the punishment of the city." And as he lingered the visitors to him, his wife and his two daughters by the hand, through t mercy of the Lord toward him, and led him forth, and set hi 17 outside the city. When they had brought them forth, they sai "Flee for your life; do not look behind you nor stop anywhere i 18 the valley; flee to the hills, lest you perish." But Lot said t 19 them, "No, my lords; surely, your servant has found favor wit you, and great is the mercy which you have shown me in savin my life. I cannot flee to the hills, lest the disaster overtake m 20 and I die. But there is a city nearby to which I can flee; it is little one. Let me save myself there; it is a little one, is it not 21 So let me live." | He said to him, "I grant you this favor also 22 I will not destroy the city of which you speak. Make haste, sed safety there; for I can do nothing till you arrive there." There fore the city was called Segor.

23 Destruction of Sodom and Gomorra The sun had risen 24 on the earth when Lot entered Segor. The Lord poured down on Sodom and Gomorra sulphur and fire from the Lord out of 25 heaven. He overthrew those cities and the whole region, all the inhabitants of the cities and the plants of the soil.
26 But his wife who was behind him looked back, and became a pillar of salt.
27 Early in the morning Abraham came to the place where he 28 had stood before the Lord. He looked toward Sodom and Gomorra and toward the whole region and saw smoke rising from the earth as though from a furnace.
29 While God destroyed the cities of the region, he remembered Abraham, and led Lot away from the catastrophe, when the cities where Lot lived were overthrown.

30 Origin of the Moabites and Ammonites Lot went up from Segor, and lived in the hills with his two daughters; for 19, 24-25: The cities may have perished through an earthquake or fires ignited from bituminous gases. Archeologists believe that these cities now lie beneath the southern part of the Dead Sea.

19, 26: This is a popular explanation of the human-like salt formation. Lk 17, 32 shows that Lot's wife became a prototype of those who look behind because they are attached to earthly things.

19, 30-38: The Ammonites and Moabites may have told this story with pride because it illustrated the direct descent from the patriarchs. The Israelites could not deny the common descent from the patriarchs which they shared with their neighboring lifelong enemies. But the Israelites, since they outlawed and abhorred incest (Dt 27, 20. 23), tell the story here as a savage satire. In vv. 31-32 the daughters are not dehe was afraid to live in Segor. He and his daughters lived in 31 a cave. Then the elder said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to marry us as is the custom 32 everywhere. Let us give our father wine to drink, then lie 33 with him, that we may have offspring by our father." So they gave their father wine to drink that night, and the elder went in, and lay with her father; but he did not know of it when she 34 lay down, or when she arose. The next day the elder said to the younger, "Last night I lay with my father. Let us give him wine to drink tonight also; then you go in, lie with him that 35 we may have offspring by our father." So they gave their father wine to drink that night also, and the younger went and lay with him; but he did not know of it when she lay down, or 36 when she arose. Thus both daughters of Lot were with child 37 by their father. The elder bore a son, and called him Moab.

38 He is the father of the Moabites of the present day. The younger also bore a son, and called him Ben-ammi. He is the father of the Ammonites of the present day.

20

1 Abraham in Gerara Abraham journeyed from there toward the land of the Negeb, and dwelt between Cades and Sur. While 2 he lived in Gerara, | Abraham said of Sara his wife, "She is my sister." So Abimelech, king of Gerara, sent and took Sara.
3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, "You shall die because of the woman you have taken; 4 for she is married." Now Abimelech had not approached her; 5 so he said, "Lord, will you slay the innocent? Did not he himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? and did not she herself say,
'He is my brother'? With a sincere heart and with clean hands 6 I have done this." Then God said to him in the dream, "I know that you have done this with a sincere heart. It was I who kept you from sinning against me; therefore I did not allow 7 you to touch her. Therefore, restore the man's wife; since he is a prophet he will pray for you that you may live. But if you do not restore her, know that you will surely die, you and all 8 that are yours." So Abimelech rose early in the morning, and picted as lewd but as desirous of perpetuating the race. This was a sincere distinction for the ancient Orientals.

---

19, 37-38: The Hebrew puns support St. Jerome who said the Jewish interpreters, in his day (fourth century A.D.), did not believe that the Genesis writer meant the story historically.

20, 1-18: This is a repetitious story. See 12, 10-20 n. One minor difference is: Abraham's falsehood in the first story becomes a mental reservation here because Sara is his stepsister.

calling his servants, told them all these things. And the were very much afraid.
9 Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have done to us? And how have I offended you that you sho bring down on me and my kingdom a great sin? No one sho 10 be treated as you have treated me." Abimelech also said 11 Abraham, "What had you in mind in doing this thing?" Al ham answered, "I thought, 'Surely there is no fear of Go 12 this place; and they will kill me on account of my wife!' Besi she is indeed my sister, my father's daughter but not 13 mother's; and she became my wife. When God brought me of my father's house, I said to her, 'This favor you must do me: in every place to which we shall go, say of me that I your brother.' " 14 Then Abimelech took flocks and herds and cattle, men women servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored S 15 his wife to him, | and said, "My land is before you; se 16 wherever it pleases you." To Sara he said, "I am giving yo brother a thousand pieces of silver; it is your compensation the eyes of all who are with you; and before all men you 17 vindicated." Then Abraham prayed to God; and God cur Abimelech and his wife and maid-servants, and they bore ch 18 dren. For the Lord had closed the wombs of Abimelech's hou hold because of Sara, the wife of Abraham.

21

1 The Birth and Circumcision of Isaac The Lord look after Sara as he had said; the Lord did to Sara as he had pro 2 ised. Sara conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age 3 the time which God had promised. And Abraham called the s 4 whom Sara bore him, Isaac. When his son Isaac was eight da old, Abraham circumcised him as God had commanded hi 5 Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac w 6 born to him. Sara said, "God has given me cause for laughte 7 and whoever hears of it will laugh with me." Again she sai "Who would have said to Abraham that Sara would nur children? Yet I bore him a son in his old age."

20, 12: Only after Abraham's time was marriage between stepbrothe and stepsisters forbidden by law (Lv 18, 9).

20, 16: Abimelech compensates for his misconduct even though h did not commit adultery because he had only taken Sara to his harer In ancient Hebrew thinking, however, this external act was viewed the beginning of the sin.

20, 17-18: According to the law of solidarity at this time, subjec were thought to share in the punishment of their king's sins.

8 The child grew and was weaned; and Abraham gave a great feast on the day of his weaning.

9 Ismael and Agar Expelled Sara saw the son of Agar the Egyptian, whom she bore to Abraham, playing with her son 10 Isaac. She said to Abraham, "Cast out this slave-girl with her son; for the son of this slave-girl shall not be heir with my son 11 Isaac." The matter was very distressing to Abraham on ac-12 count of his son. But God said to Abraham, "Be not distressed on account of the boy and your slave-girl; heed all that Sara says to you; for through Isaac shall your descendants be called.
13 But I will also make the son of the slave-girl a great nation because he is your offspring." 14 Abraham rose early in the morning, took bread and a bottle of water, and gave them to Agar, placing them on her shoulder.
Then he dismissed her with the child. She departed, and wan-15 dered about in the desert of Bersabee. When the water in the 16 bottle was gone, she left the child under a bush. Then she went and sat opposite the place at about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, "Let me not see the child die." As she sat opposite 17 the spot, the child cried aloud. God heard the boy's cry, and the angel of God called to Agar from heaven, and said to her, "What is the matter, Agar? Fear not; for God has heard the boy's cry in 18 this plight of his. Rise up, take the boy, be assured in his regard; for I will make him a great nation." 19 Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well. She went and 20 filled the bottle with water and gave the boy a drink. | God was with the boy, and he grew up. He lived in the desert and became 21 an expert bowman. He lived in the desert of Pharan; and his mother chose a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

22 Abraham in Bersabee At that time Abimelech and Phichol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham, "God is with 23 you in everything you do. Therefore, swear to me by God that you will not deal falsely with me nor with my children nor with my descendants. As I have treated you with kindness, so must you treat me and the land in which you live as a stranger." 24.25 Abraham said, "I will swear." But he chided Abimelech 26 about a well which Abimelech's men had seized by force. Abim-

---

21, 10: Abraham is reluctant to dismiss Agar and her child, Ismael, because Ismael enjoyed the right of inheritance since he had been legally adopted. See 16, 2. Archeologists have found examples of this law among other people existing at the time of Abraham.

21, 17: Angel: see 16, 1-15 n.

elech said, "I do not know who did this; you did not tell me, did I hear of it till today." 27 Then Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them 28 Abimelech; and the two men made a covenant. Abraham 29 apart seven ewe lambs of the flock. But Abimelech said Abraham, "What do these seven ewe lambs mean which 30 have set apart?" He said, "Take these seven ewe lambs fr 31 me, to be proof for me that I dug this well." Therefore t place was called Bersabee, because both of them took an o 32 there. So they made a covenant at Bersabee. Then Abimel and Phichol, the commander of his army, returned to the la 33 of the Philistines. Abraham planted a tamarisk tree at Bersal where he called on the name of the Lord, the everlasting G 34 Abraham lived a long time in the land of the Philistines.

22

1 Sublime Obedience of Abraham After these events G put Abraham to a test. He said to him, "Abraham." He a 2 swered, "Here I am." | God said, "Take your only son Isa whom you love and go into the district of Moria, and the offer him as a holocaust on the hill which I shall point out 3 you." Early in the morning Abraham harnessed his ass, to with him two of his servants and his son Isaac, and cut wo for the holocaust. Then he set out on his journey to the pla 4 which God had indicated to him. On the third day he looked u 5 and saw the place at a distance. He said to his servants. "Sta here with the ass while the boy and I go there to worship; the 6 we shall come back to you." Abraham took the wood for t holocaust and put it upon his son Isaac while he himself carrie 7 the fire and the knife. As they walked together, | Isaac said t his father Abraham, "Father." He answered, "Yes, son!" H said, "You have the fire and the wood, but where is the shee 8 for the holocaust?" Abraham replied, "God himself will provid the sheep for the holocaust, my son." And they went on togethe

21, 32: Since the Philistines entered the land in the twelfth centur B.C., the place was not known as "the land of the Philistines" at the tim of Abraham in the nineteenth century B.C.

22, 1-19: Most modern Catholic biblical scholars say it is not abso lutely necessary to interpret this scene literally. They have arguments t show that, due to the influence of the neighboring Chanaanites wh practiced the sacrifice of the oldest son, Abraham may have though God wanted him to sacrifice his son. This thought was written up i the form of a command from God. Abraham ends up by sacrificing a ram in place of his son. Therefore the lesson is the rejection of chil sacrifice. The final editor places this story at the climax of Abraham's life to teach his great faith. See Heb 11, 17-20.

9 When they arrived at the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it.
Then he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the wood upon 10 the altar. Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife 11 to kill his son. But an angel of the Lord called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" He answered, "Here I am." | 12 He said, "Do not lay a hand on the boy; do nothing to him.
I know now that you fear God, since you have not withheld 13 your only son from me." Abraham looked about and saw a ram caught by its horns in the bush. He went and took it, and 14 offered it as a holocaust in place of his son. Abraham named the place, "Yahweh-yireh." Hence even to this day people say,
"On the mountain of the Lord provision will be made."
15 Again the angel of the Lord called from heaven to Abraham | 16 and said, "I swear by myself, says the Lord, since you have done 17 this and have not withheld your only son, | I will indeed bless you, and will surely multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens, as the sands on the seashore. Your descendants 18 shall possess the gates of their enemies. In your descendants all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have 19 obeyed me." Abraham returned to his servants, and together they went to Bersabee where Abraham made his home.

20 Abraham's Relatives After these events, Abraham was told, 21 "Melcha too has borne sons to your brother Nahor: Us, the first-born, Buz, his brother, Camuel, the father of Aram, | 22.23 Chased, Hazau, Pheldas, Jedlaph, and Bathuel." [Bathuel was the father of Rebecca.] Melcha bore these eight to Nahor, 24 Abraham's brother. As for his concubine, whose name was Roma, she brought forth Tabee, Gaham, Thahas and Maacha.

23

1 Death and Burial of Sara Sara lived one hundred and 2 twenty-seven years. She died in Cariath-arbe, that is, Hebron, in the land of Chanaan. Abraham prepared to mourn for Sara 3 and weep over her. He left the side of his dead wife and said to 4 the Hethites, "I am a stranger resident among you; give me 5 burial ground among you that I may bury my dead." The 6 Hethites answered Abraham, "Hear us, my lord, you are a mighty prince among us. Choose any of our tombs to bury your 7 dead. None of us will refuse you a tomb for your dead." Abraham rose and bowed low before the Hethites, the natives of 8 the land. He said to them, "If it is acceptable to you that I 22, 17: Gates: i.e., cities.

bury my dead, then hear me: ask Ephron, the son of Soh 9 in my behalf | to give me the cave of Machphela which he l at the end of his field. Let him sell it to me in your presence 10 its full value, as a burial ground." Now the Hethite Ephr sitting among the Hethites, answered Abraham in the hear 11 of all his fellow citizens, "No, my lord! Hear me: I give y the field and the cave that is in it. In the presence of my peo 12 do I give it; bury your dead." Abraham bowed low before t 13 natives of the land, | and in their hearing said to Ephron, ' you are really willing, hear me. I will give you money for t 14 field; accept it from me that I may bury my dead there." Ep 15 ron answered Abraham, | "Hear me, my lord! A piece of la worth four hundred shekels of silver, what is that betwe 16 you and me? Bury your dead in it." Abraham came to ter with Ephron and weighed out for him the sum he had me tioned in the hearing of the Hethites, four hundred shekels 17 silver of commercial standard. Thus Ephron's field in Mac phela, facing Mamre, that is, the field, the cave and all t
18 trees in the entire field, became | the property of Abraham 19 the presence of all the Hethites, his fellow citizens. After th Abraham buried his wife Sara in the cave of the field at Mac phela, facing Mamre, that is Hebron, in the land of Chanaa 20 Thus the field with its cave passed from the Hethites to Abr ham for use as a burial ground.

24

1 A Wife Sought for Isaac Abraham was now an old ma well advanced in years. The Lord had blessed him in ever 2 way. Abraham said to the oldest servant of his household who had charge of all his possessions, "Put your hand unde 3 my thigh | that I may adjure you by the Lord, the God o heaven and the God of earth, not to obtain a wife for my so 4 from the women of the Chanaanites among whom I live, but t go to my land and kindred to obtain a wife for my son Isaac.
5 The servant answered, "Perhaps the woman will not wish t follow me to this land; shall I then take your son back to th 6 land from which you came?" Abraham said to him, "Neve

23, 15: This is characteristic of protracted oriental business trans actions. At first the land is offered for nothing (vv. 6, 11), and then high price is asked.

23, 18: The author may have included this story here to illustrate tha God's repeated promises of giving Chanaan to Abraham were slowly materializing.

24, 2: This gesture of contacting the vital parts signified that th oath was not to be broken.

7 take my son back there. The Lord, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, from the land of my kindred, who spoke to me and swore to me, 'I will give this land to your descendants,' will send his angel ahead of you and you 8 will obtain a wife for my son there. If the woman does not wish to follow you, you will be released from this oath; but do 9 not take my son back there." So the servant put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him in this matter.

10 The servant then took ten of his master's camels and a variety of his master's treasures. He set out and journeyed to the city 11 where Nahor lived in Aram Naharaim. In the evening, at the time when the women came out to draw water, he made the 12 camels kneel near the well outside the city. Then he said, "Lord, God of my master Abraham, grant me success this day; be gra-13 cious to my master Abraham. I stand here at the spring, and the young women of the city are coming out to draw water.
14 Now if I say to a young woman, 'Lower your jar that I may drink,' and she answers, 'Drink, and I will also water your camels,' she it is whom you have chosen for your servant Isaac.
Thereby shall I know that you have shown your favor to my 15 master." He had not yet finished speaking when Rebecca came out, the daughter of Bathuel, son of Melcha, wife of Abraham's brother, Nahor. She came out with a jar on her shoulder.
16 The young woman was very beautiful, a virgin undefiled.
She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and as she came 17 up, the servant hastened to meet her and said, "If you please, 18 let me drink a little water from your jar." She answered, "Drink, sir," and quickly lowered the jar to her hand and 19 gave him a drink. When she had given him the drink, she said,
"I will draw water also for your camels until they have finished 20 drinking." She quickly emptied her jar into the trough, hastened again to the well, and drew water for all the camels.
21 All the while the man was watching her, waiting to learn whether or not the Lord had made his journey a success.
22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold ring, a half shekel in weight, and he put on her wrists 23 two gold bracelets weighing ten shekels. He said to her, "Tell me whose daughter you are! Is there room in your father's 24 house for us to stay overnight?" She answered him, "I am the daughter of Bathuel, a son of Nahor whom Melcha bore to 25 him." She added, "We have plenty of straw and fodder, and 24, 10: Aram Naharaim is on the border of modern southern Turkey and northern Syria, near Haran from which Abraham came. See 11, 31.

26 there is room to spend the night." Then the man bowed 27 worship to the Lord, | saying, "Blessed be the Lord, the G of my master Abraham, whose constant favor to my mas has not ceased. Me also the Lord has guided on my way 28 the house of my master's kinsmen." Meanwhile the maid hastened to inform her mother's household of what had ha pened.
29.30 Now Rebecca had a brother named Laban. As soon he saw the ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, a heard his sister Rebecca say, "Thus the man spoke to me Laban hastened to the man at the spring. When he reach the man he found him standing by the camels near th 31 spring. | He said, "Come in, blessed of the Lord! Why shou you stay outdoors when I have made ready the house, as we 32 as a place for the camels?" So the man went into the hous Laban unloaded the camels, and provided them with straw an fodder. Then he brought water for the man himself and fo 33 those who were with him, to wash their feet. Food was place before the men, but he said, "I will not eat before I have de livered my message." They answered, "Speak."

34 The Proposal of Marriage So he said, "I am Abraham' 35 servant. The Lord has blessed my master abundantly so tha he has become a rich man. He has given him flocks, herds, sil 36 ver, gold, men and women servants, camels and asses. M master's wife Sara bore a son to my master in her old age 37 and he has given him all his property. My master adjured me, 'You must not choose a wife for my son from the women 38 of the Chanaanites in whose country I live, but you shall go to my family and kindred to choose a wife for my son.
39 I answered my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow 40 me.' He said, 'The Lord in whose sight I have lived will send his angel with you and make your journey a success. You will 41 choose a wife for my son from my kindred and family; then will you be released from your oath to me. If you go to my kindred and they refuse you, you will be free from your oath to me.'
42 "Today when I came to the spring I said, 'Lord, God of my master Abraham, may you prosper the journey I am making!
43 Here I stand at the spring; if I say to a girl coming out to draw water: Give me a little water from your jar to drink, 44 | and she answers me: Drink, and I will also draw water for your camels, she is the wife whom the Lord has chosen for my master's son.'
45 "I had not yet finished planning this when Rebecca came with her jar on her shoulder, went down to the spring, and 46 drew water. I said to her, 'Give me a drink, please.' She quickly lowered her jar and said, 'Drink; and I will also water your 47 camels.' So I drank and she also watered the camels. Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?', and she replied, 'I am the daughter of Bathuel, son of Nahor and his wife Melcha.'

Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.
48 And I bowed and worshiped the Lord, blessing the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who guided me along the right road to choose the daughter of my master's kinsman for his 49 son. Now tell me whether my master can depend on your favor; if not, let me know, that I may determine my course."

50 Rebecca's Kinsfolk Agree Laban and his family answered,
"This comes from the Lord. We can say nothing at all to you.
51 Here before you is Rebecca; take her and go. Let her be married 52 to your master's son as the Lord has decided." When Abraham's servant heard their answer, he bowed to the ground before 53 the Lord. He brought out silver and gold jewelry, and clothing, and gave them to Rebecca. He also gave costly presents to her 54 brother and mother. Then he and the men with him had food and drink. They stayed overnight, and when they rose the next 55 morning he said, "Let me go to my master." Her brother and mother answered, "Let the girl stay with us some days, say 56 ten, and then she may go." But he said to them, "Do not detain me, because the Lord has prospered my journey; let me 57 go and return to my master." Then they said, "Let us call the girl and ask her in person." 58 They called Rebecca and asked her, "Will you go with this 59 man?" And she answered, "I will." | So they let their sister Rebecca and her nurse go with Abraham's servant and his men.
60 They blessed Rebecca and said, "May you, sister, become a thousand times ten thousand, and may your descendants con-61 quer the gates of their foes." Then Rebecca and her maids mounted camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebecca and departed.
62 Isaac had gone to the desert of Beer-lahai-roi; he was living 63 in the district of the Negeb. One day toward evening, when he went out in the field for a walk, he looked up and saw camels 64 approaching. Rebecca too looked up, and when she saw Isaac 65 she dismounted from the camel, | and asked the servant, "Who

---

24, 60: See 22, 17 n.

24, 65: The veil was worn till the evening of the marriage. See 29, 23-25.

is the man coming through the field toward us?" The serv said, "It is my master." Then she covered herself with her v 66.67 The servant told Isaac all he had done. Isaac led Rebe into the tent and took her to wife. Because he loved her, Isa was consoled for the loss of his mother.

25

1 Other Decendants of Abraham Abraham married anoth
2 wife whose name was Cetura. She bore him Zamran, Jecsa 3 Madian, Madan, Jesboc and Sue. Jecsan became the father Saba and Dedan. The descendants of Dedan were the Assuri 4 the Latusim and the Loommim. The descendants of Madi were Epha, Epher, Henoch, Abida and Eldaa. All these we the descendants of Cetura.
5.6 Abraham gave Isaac everything he had. Abraham gave pre ents to his children by his concubines, and while yet alive se them away eastward, to the land of the East apart from Isaa 7 Abraham's life span was one hundred and seventy-five yea 8 when he expired. He died at a good old age, an old man, aft 9 a full life, and was gathered to his kinsmen. His sons Isa and Ismael buried him in the cave of Machphela, facing Mamr 10 in the field of Ephron the Hethite, the son of Sohar. Abraha was buried with his wife Sara in the field which he had boug 11 from the Hethites. After the death of Abraham, God blessed hi son Isaac, who made his home near Beer-lahai-roi.
12 These are the descendants of Abraham's son Ismael, whon 13 Agar the Egyptian, Sara's maid, bore to Abraham. These ar the names of Ismael's sons, in the order of their birth: Nabaioth 14 the first-born of Ismael, Cedar, Adbeel, Mabsam, | Masma
15 Duma, Massa, | Hadad, Thema, Jetur, Naphis and Cedma 16 These were the sons of Ismael and these are their names ac cording to their villages and encampments; twelve princes ac cording to their tribes.
17 The length of Ismael's life was one hundred and thirty-seve years when he expired. He died, and was gathered to his kins 18 men. The Ismaelites dwelt from Hevila to Sur, on the border o Egypt on the way to Assur. He died in conflict with all his kins men.

25, 8: Gathered to his kinsmen in the family tomb. The same ex pression follows in v. 17.
25, 12: The tribes of northern Arabia are listed as Ismael's offspring.

III. THE PATRIARCHS ISAAC AND JACOB

19 Birth of Esau and Jacob This is the family history of Isaac, 20 the son of Abraham. Abraham was the father of Isaac. Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebecca, daughter of Bathuel, an Aramean of Phaddan-Aram, and sister of Laban 21 the Aramean. Isaac prayed to the Lord for his wife because she was barren. The Lord answered Isaac and his wife Rebecca 22 conceived. The children jostled each other within her, and she said, "If this be so, why am I pregnant?" Then she went to 23 consult the Lord. | He said to her, "Two nations are in your womb; two peoples shall stem from your body. One people shall be stronger than the other, and the elder shall serve the younger."
24 When the time of her delivery came, there were indeed 25 twins in her womb. | The first to come forth was red. His whole body was like a hairy garment, so they named him Esau.
26 Afterward his brother came forth, with his hand gripping Esau's heel; so he was called Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when they were born.

27 Esau Sells His Birthright When the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the open country, while 28 Jacob was a settled man who stayed among the tents. Isaac preferred Esau because he was fond of game, but Rebecca preferred Jacob.
29 Once when Jacob was cooking some food, Esau came in 30 from the field famished. Esau said to Jacob, "Let me have some of that red food, for I am famished." Hence he was 31 called Edom. But Jacob replied, "Sell me first your birth-32 right." Esau said, "I am dying; of what use to me is the 33 birthright?" | Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore

---

25, 20: Phaddan-Aram is practically the same place as Aram Naharaim. See 24, 10 n.

25, 22: Why am I pregnant?: literally in Hebrew: "Why this I?" It means: "Why does this happen to me?" Consult the Lord: probably at a sanctuary like Bersabee.

25, 23: The jostling is prophetically interpreted as the future enmity between the two brothers and their descendants. The Edomites will originate from Esau; the Israelites will originate from Jacob. David conquered the Edomites (2 Sm 8, 13-14).

25, 33: The oldest son had a claim to a double share of the inheritance from his father. This law (Dt 21, 15-17) was already a law in Mesopotamia at the time of the patriarchs.

34 to Jacob, and sold him his birthright. Then Jacob gave Es some bread and lentils. He ate and drank and went his w Thus lightly did Esau value his birthright.

26

1 Isaac in Gerara Now another famine occurred in the lar besides the earlier famine of the days of Abraham. And Isa went away to Gerara, to Abimelech, king of the Philistin 2 The Lord appeared to him and said, "Do not go down ir 3 Egypt, but dwell in the land which I shall point out to you. F side as a stranger in this land and I will be with you and ble you; for I will give all these lands to you and your descen ants. I will fulfill the oath which I swore to your father Abr 4 ham. I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars the heavens. I will give your descendants all these lands, an in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall be blesse 5 for Abraham obeyed me and heeded my charge [my cor mands, my ordinances and my laws]." 6.7 So Isaac dwelt in Gerara. When the men of the place i quired about his wife, he said, "She is my sister"; for I feared to call her his wife lest the men of the place shoul kill him on Rebecca's account, as she was beautiful.
8 When he had been there a long time, Abimelech kin of the Philistines happened to look out a window and sa 9 Isaac fondling his wife Rebecca. Abimelech summoned Isaa and said, "It is evident that she is your wife; why did yo say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac replied, "Because I feared tha 10 I should die on her account." Abimelech said, "Why did yo do this to us? How easily someone could have lain with you 11 wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us!" Then Abime lech warned all the people, saying, "Whoever touches thi man or his wife shall be put to death." 12 Isaac sowed a crop in that land, and harvested a hundred 13 fold the same year. The Lord blessed him; | he became rich, and 14 increased in riches until he was very wealthy. He had flock and herds and many beasts for plowing. The Philistines becam 15 envious of him. [They had stopped up and filled with dirt al the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days o

25, 34: In this chapter the Israelite writer draws a sarcastic caricature of Esau, the ancestor of the proverbial neighboring enemy, the Edomites. Esau is red, hairy, a poor bargainer because he sacrifices his future for the immediate advantage of a meal.

26, 1-11: This is the third presentation of the same theme. See 12 10-20 n. In this section the stories related about Isaac resemble those previously narrated of Abraham.

16 his father Abraham.] So Abimelech said to Isaac, "Depart 17 from us, for you have become much too strong for us." Isaac departed, camped in the valley of Gerara, and settled there.
18 [Isaac reopened the wells dug by the servants of his father Abraham which the Philistines had filled up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the same names which his 19 father had given them.] Isaac's servants dug in the valley and 20 found a well of running water, but the shepherds of Gerara disputed with Isaac's shepherds and said, "The water belongs to us." So he called the well Esec because they had wrangled 21 with him. They dug another well, but they quarreled over this 22 also, so he named it Sitna. He moved from there and dug still another well over which they did not dispute. He called it Rohoboth and said, "For now the Lord has made room for us; we shall prosper in the land."

23 Isaac in Bersabee From there he went up to Bersabee.
24 The Lord appeared to him that very night and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham; fear not, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of my 25 servant Abraham." He built an altar there, and invoked the name of the Lord. Isaac pitched his tent there, and his serv-26 ants dug a well. Then Abimelech came to him from Gerara with 27 Ochozath, his friend, and Phichol, the general of his army. Isaac said to them, "Why do you come to me? You hate me and 28 have driven me away from you." They answered, "We see clearly that the Lord is with you, so we say, let there be a sworn 29 agreement between you and us. Let us make a covenant with you; you shall do us no harm, as we have not harmed you, but have done only good to you and sent you away peacefully. You 30 are indeed the blessed of the Lord!" Isaac gave a feast for 31 them and they ate and drank. Early the next morning they exchanged oaths. Isaac sent them away and they departed 32 from him in peace. That same day the servants of Isaac came and informed him of the well they had dug. They said to him, 33 "We have found water." So he named it Siba. Therefore the name of the city is Bersabee to this day.

34 The Wives of Esau When Esau was forty years old he married Judith, daughter of Beeri the Hethite, and Basemath, 26, 23-25: One tradition related that Abraham founded the sanctuary of Bersabee (21, 25-33). According to this text, Isaac founded it. The final redactor wanted to preserve both traditions.

26, 34: The final redactor treasures all the scraps of traditions he can 35 daughter of Elon the Hethite. But they were a source of b terness to Isaac and Rebecca.

27

1 Jacob Receives His Father's Blessing When Isaac w old and his eyesight had failed, he called his elder son Esau, a 2 said to him, "Son!" | He replied, "Here I am!" He said, "Y 3 see I have grown old; I do not know when I may die. Ta your weapons, quiver and bow; go out into the fields to hu 4 me some game. Prepare for me some savory food such as like; bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I di 5 Rebecca listened while Isaac was talking to his son Esau. Wh Esau had gone out into the field to hunt some game for h 6 father, Rebecca said to her son Jacob, "I heard your fath 7 tell your brother Esau, 'Bring me some game; | prepare son savory food for me to eat, and then I will bless you in th 8 sight of the Lord before I die.' Now my son, do what I tell yo 9 Go to the flock and bring me two choice kids that I may mak 10 of them savory food for your father, such as he likes. The bring it to your father to eat, that he may bless you befor 11 he dies." Jacob said to his mother Rebecca, "But Esau m 12 brother is a hairy man, while I am smooth. If my fathe touches me, it will seem to him that I am mocking him. Thu I shall bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing." Hi 13 mother replied, | "Let the curse fall on me, my son! Do bu listen to me; go, get them for me." 14 He went, selected them, and brought them to his mother 15 who prepared savory food such as his father liked. Then Re becca took the best clothes of her elder son Esau, which she hac 16 in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob. She pu the skins of the kids on his hands and over the smooth parts o 17 his neck. Then she gave her son Jacob the savory food and 18 bread she had prepared. He went to his father and said, "Fa 19 ther!" He answered, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?" | And Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau, your first-born. I have done as you told me; sit up, please! Eat again of my game, that you 20 may bless me." Isaac replied, "How did you find it so quickly, my son?" He answered, "The Lord your God let me come upon find, without trying to reconcile the names of Esau's wives here with those on the genealogical tree of 36, 1-5.

27, 1-40: The inspired writer relates a story in which an unadorned falsehood is told, but he does not approve of it.

27, 20: It is characteristic and almost mechanical for the people of the Bible to attribute everything to God without realizing that in such attributions God may be cast in the role of a copartner in evil.

it." Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come close that I may touch you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not."
Jacob went close to his father; Isaac touched him and said,
"The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau." (He did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him.) Isaac said, "Are you really my son Esau?" Jacob answered,
"Yes, I am." | Isaac continued, "Set your game near me, my son, that I may eat it, and bless you." He set it before him and he ate of it, and he brought him some wine, which he drank. Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come close and kiss me, my son." He came close and kissed him. When he smelled the fragrance of his garments, he blessed him and said:
"The fragrance of my son is like the fragrance of a field which the Lord has blessed! God give you dew from heaven, and fruitfulness of the earth, abundance of grain and wine. Let nations serve you, peoples bow down to you. Be master of your brothers; may your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be those who curse you, blessed be those who bless you." Isaac had pronounced the blessing and Jacob had just left his father's presence, when his brother Esau returned from hunting. He also prepared savory food and brought it to his father, saying, "Sit up, father, and eat of your son's game, that you may bless me." His father Isaac said to him, "Who are you?" He answered, "I am Esau, your first-born son." Isaac was greatly disturbed, and asked, "Who was it then, that hunted game and brought it to me? Before you came I ate heartily and then blessed him; and he shall be blessed." On hearing his father's words, Esau uttered a very loud and bitter cry, and said to him, "Father, bless me too." | But he answered, "Your brother came deceitfully and received your blessing." Then he said, "Must he, true to his name Jacob, supplant me now a second time? He took my birthright and now he has taken my blessing." He added, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" Isaac answered Esau, "I have appointed him your lord, and have given him all his brothers as servants. I have enriched him with grain and wine; what then can I do for you, my son?" But Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, father? Bless me also, my father." And Esau wept aloud.
His father Isaac answered him: "Without the fruitfulness of the earth shall your dwelling be; without the dew of the heavens

27, 33b: Blessings (and curses) are irrevocable in Israelite thinking.

40 above. By your sword shall you live; you shall serve y brother. But when you become restive you shall shake his y from your neck."

41 Jacob Goes to Phaddam-Aram Esau bore Jacob a gru because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to hi self, "The time of mourning for my father is coming; the 42 will kill my brother Jacob." Rebecca was told of these wo of her elder son, Esau. She summoned her younger son, Jac and said to him, "Your brother Esau intends to revenge hi 43 self on you by killing you. Listen to me therefore, my son; f 44 to my brother Laban in Haran. Stay with him awhile un your brother's fury subsides [until your brother's wrath agai 45 you relents], | and he forgets what you have done to him. Th
I will send for you and bring you back. Why should I be b reaved of you both on the same day?" 46 Rebecca said to Isaac, "I am disgusted with life because the Hethite women; if Jacob should marry a Hethite wom like these, a native of the land, what would life mean to me

28

1 Isaac therefore called Jacob and having blessed him, charg 2 him, "Do not marry any Chanaanite woman; go then Phaddan-Aram, the home of Bathuel, your mother's fathe and there choose your wife from the daughters of your unc 3 Laban. May God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitfu may he multiply you so that you may become many nation 4 May he bestow on you, and your descendants also, the blessin of Abraham that you may inherit this land in which you a 5 immigrants, which God gave to Abraham." Isaac sent fort Jacob, who went to Phaddan-Aram to Laban, the son of th Aramean Bathuel, and brother of Rebecca, mother of Jacob an Esau.

6 Esau Marries a Descendant of Ismael Esau learned tha Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Phaddan-Aram to marry there, and while blessing him had charged him no

27, 40b: How different are the blessings of Isaac bestowed on Jaco (vv. 28-29) and on Esau (vv. 39-40) when compared with the blessing of offspring and land made by God to Abraham (12, 1-3) and renewe to Jacob (28, 13-15). For this and other reasons scholars tend to dat these blessings after the patriarchal age. V. 40b, e.g., was probabl added when Esau's descendants, the Edomites, liberated themselve from Jacob's descendants, the Israelites, in 4 Kgs 8, 20-22.

7 to marry a Chanaanite woman, and that Jacob had departed for Phaddan-Aram in obedience to his father and mother.
8 Since he realized his father Isaac's displeasure with Chanaanite 9 women, Esau went to Ismael, | and in addition to the wives he had, married Maheleth, daughter of Abraham's son Ismael and sister of Nabaioth.

10 Jacob's Vision at Bethel Meanwhile, Jacob left Bersabee 11 and journeyed toward Haran. He came to a place where he spent the night because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place, put it under his head, and went to sleep there.
12 He dreamed that a ladder was set up on the ground with its top reaching to heaven;' angels of God were ascending and 13 descending on it. The Lord stood beside him and said, "I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which 14 you lie. They shall be as the dust of the earth. You shall spread abroad to the west, to the east, to the north, and to the south; in you and in your descendants, all the nations of the earth 15 shall be blessed. I will be with you and protect you wherever you go. I will bring you back to this land; indeed I will not forsake you till I fulfill my promise." 16 When Jacob woke from his sleep he said, "Truly the Lord 17 is in this place and I did not know it." Reverently he continued, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house 18 of God; this is the gate of heaven." Jacob arose in the morning, took the stone which he had placed under his head, set it up as 19 a memorial pillar and poured oil over it. He called the place 20 Bethel; formerly the name of the city was Luza. Jacob also made a vow: "If the Lord is with me and protects me on my present journey, and gives me food to eat and clothing to wear, 21 and a safe return to my father's house, the Lord shall be my 22 God; and this stone which I have set up as a memorial pillar shall be the house of God. I will offer faithfully a tenth part of everything you give me."

28, 10-22: The message of this story is that God always watches over His chosen ones, e.g., Jacob. The ladder intimates the nearness of God because it connects heaven with earth.

28, 16-17: For a long time the Old Testament people thought that God was only in certain places. The omnipresence of God was not yet known.

28, 18-19: Jacob rededicates the Chanaanite sanctuary, Bethel, to the true God, much as Christian churches were built over pagan shrines in Roman days.

29

1 Jacob Meets Rachel Then Jacob continued his journey 2 came to the land of the people of the East. Looking about saw a well in the open country, and three flocks of sheep ly nearby, for the flocks were watered from this well. But 3 stone over the mouth of the well was large. | After all shepherds were gathered there, the stone was rolled back fr the mouth of the well and the flocks were watered. Th the stone was replaced over the mouth of the well.
4 Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from 5 And they answered, "We are from Haran." | Then he 6 quired, "Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?" And th said, "We do." He asked further, "Is he well?" They replie
"He is, and here comes his daughter Rachel with his flock 7 Then he said, "Much of the day is left; it is not yet time t the stock to be gathered; water the flock and lead them ba 8 to pasture." But they answered, "We cannot, until all t shepherds have assembled; then they remove the stone fro the mouth of the well and we water the flock." 9 While he was still talking with them, Rachel arrived wi 10 her father's flock; for it was her custom to tend them. Whe Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of his uncle Laban, with th flock, he drew near, rolled the stone from the mouth of th 11 well, and watered his uncle's flock. Then Jacob kissed Rach 12 and wept aloud. Jacob told Rachel that he was her father relative, a son of Rebecca, and she hastened to tell her fathe 13 When Laban heard about Jacob, his nephew, he hastened t meet him, received him with embraces and kisses, and brough 14 him to his dwelling. Jacob told Laban all these things, and La ban said to him, "You are indeed my flesh and bone." An 15 Jacob stayed with him a whole month. Then Laban said t Jacob, "Should you serve me for nothing because you are relative of mine? Tell me what your wages shall be."

16 Jacob Marries Lia Laban had two daughters. The elder wa 17 called Lia, and the younger Rachel. Lia's eyes were weak, but 18 Rachel was shapely and beautiful. | Jacob loved Rachel. He said therefore, "I will serve you seven years for your younger 19 daughter Rachel." Laban answered, "It is better to give her to 20 you than to another man; stay with me." So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days 21 because of his love for her. Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give 29, 16b: In Arab countries down to the present day, eyes play a major role in judging feminine beauty.

me my wife; for the time has come for me to go in to her."
22 Laban gathered all the men of the place and gave a feast.
23 That night he brought Lia, his daughter, to Jacob, who had 24 relations with her. Laban gave his servant Zelpha to his daugh-25 ter Lia to be her maid. In the morning, to Jacob's amazement, it was Lia. Then he said to Laban, "What have you done to me? Did I not serve you for Rachel? Why then have you 26 cheated me?" Laban replied, "It is not the custom in our country 27 to give the younger daughter before the first-born; complete the week of this one's nuptials and I will give you the other in return for another seven years of service with me." 28 Jacob did so; he completed her week. Then Laban gave 29 him his daughter Rachel in marriage. Laban gave his servant 30 Bala to his daughter Rachel to be her maid. So Jacob went in to Rachel also; he loved her more than Lia, and served Laban another seven years.
31 When the Lord saw that Lia was disliked, he made her 32 fruitful, while Rachel remained barren. Lia conceived and bore a son, naming him Ruben; "For," she said, "the Lord has had regard for my misery; now my husband will love me." 33 Again she conceived and bore a son saying, "The Lord has heard that I am disliked; therefore he has given me this one 34 also." She named him Simeon. | She conceived again and bore a son, saying, "This time my husband will become attached to me, for I have borne him three sons." Therefore she named him 35 Levi. Once more she conceived and bore a son, saying, "Now I will praise the Lord." Therefore she named him Juda. Then she ceased bearing.

30 1 Rivalry of Rachel and Lia When Rachel saw that she was not bearing children to Jacob, she became jealous of her sister 2 and said to Jacob, "Give me children or I shall die." Jacob became impatient with Rachel and answered her, "Can I take 3 the place of God, who has made you barren?" She replied, "Here is my slave-girl, Bala; go in to her that she may bear 4 on my knees, and I too may have children by her." She gave him Bala, her maid, in marriage, and Jacob had relations with 5.6 her. Bala conceived and bore Jacob a son. Then Rachel said, "God has pronounced judgment in my favor, for he has heard my prayer and given me a son." Therefore she named him Dan.

30, 3: Bear on my knees: see 16, 2. This expression refers to the rite of adoption according to which the babe is placed on or between the knees of the adopter.

7 Bala, Rachel's maid, conceived again and bore a second 8 to Jacob. Then Rachel said, | "I have used a clever de against my sister, and I have indeed prevailed." So she ca him Nephthali.
9 When Lia knew that she had ceased bearing, she 10 Zelpha her maid to Jacob in marriage. Zelpha, Lia's m 11 bore Jacob a son. | Lia said, "What good fortune!" And 12 named him Gad. Lia's maid Zelpha bore Jacob another 13 | And Lia said, "What happiness! Women will call me happ
So she named him Aser.
14 During the wheat harvest, Ruben went into the field, fo some mandrakes, and brought them to his mother Lia. Ra 15 said to Lia, "Give me some of your son's mandrakes."
answered her, "Is it a trivial matter to have taken my husba Will you also take my son's mandrakes?" Rachel said, "W well! In exchange for your son's mandrakes, Jacob shall 16 with you tonight." As Jacob was returning from the field evening, Lia went to meet him and said, "You are to come me; for I have bargained for you with my son's mandrake 17 So he slept with her that night. God heard Lia's prayer, 18 she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son. Then she said, "G has rewarded me because I gave my maid to my husban 19 She called him Issachar. Lia conceived again and bore a si 20 son to Jacob. She said, "God has made me an excellent g Now my husband will honor me; for I have borne him 21 sons." Therefore she named him Zabulon. | Afterward s bore a daughter whom she named Dina.

22 The Birth of Joseph But God remembered Rachel; 23 heard her prayer and made her fruitful. She conceived and bore 24 son, and she said, "God has taken away my reproach." S named him Joseph, saying, "May the Lord give me anoth son."

25 Jacob Outwits Laban When Rachel had given birth Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Let me return to my own hom 26 and country. Give me my wives for whom I served you, an my children; let me depart. You know well the service I ha 30, 14: Mandrakes: still popularly believed to be an aphrodisiac.

30, 25-43: The text is not always clear but the general sense is th the odd colored sheep and goats will belong to Jacob and the rest Laban. The odd colored ones were usually fewer. Jacob's trick of pr senting an object during conception to influence the color of the anima altered the usual course of events. Pliny and others in antiquity knew th stratagem.

27 given you." Laban said to him, "If you please, I surmise that 28 God blessed me because of you. Name your wages and I will 29 pay." He answered, "But you know well how I have served 30 you, how your stock fared under my care. Before I came you had little indeed, but now it has greatly increased. The Lord blessed you at my every step. And now, when shall I provide 31 for my own household?" He asked, "What shall I give you?"
But Jacob answered, "Give me nothing at all, if you agree to 32 this proposal: I shall again pasture and tend your flock, but today go through your entire flock and separate every speckled and spotted goat, and all black lambs; then every goat that is 33 spotted or speckled and every black lamb shall be my wages. In the future, when the time comes, I will stand self-condemned before you in the matter of my wages. Every goat that is not speckled or spotted, and every lamb that is not black, shall be 34 considered stolen." Laban said, "Let it be as you say." 35 That day Laban separated the striped and spotted he-goats, and all the speckled or spotted she-goats, every one with white on it, and all the lambs that were black, and he gave them 36 into the care of his sons. He put a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, who had charge of the 37 rest of Laban's flock. Jacob took green boughs of poplar, almond and plane and by laying bare the white in the boughs, 38 he peeled white stripes in them. Then he set the boughs he had peeled in front of the flock in the watering troughs where they came to be watered. And they mated when they came to be 39 watered. Since they mated in front of the boughs, they brought 40 forth young lambs that were striped, speckled and spotted. Jacob set these lambs apart, and the young animals were all speckled or black in a white flock. Thus he formed droves of his own 41 which he did not join to Laban's flock. Whenever the hardier sheep were breeding, Jacob placed the boughs in the troughs in front of the sheep so that they might mate in front of the 42 boughs, | but not so in the case of the weaker ones. The weaker 43 ones fell to Laban and the stronger to Jacob. Thus the man became exceedingly rich and had large flocks, male and female servants, camels and asses.

31

1 Jacob Leaves Phaddan-Aram Jacob learned that Laban's sons were saying, "Jacob has taken all our father had, and he has acquired all these riches from what belonged to our father." 2 Jacob perceived, too, that Laban's attitude toward him was 3 not what it had previously been. The Lord said to Jacob,

"Return to the land of your fathers and to your own 4 I will be with you." Jacob sent for Rachel and Lia, calling th 5 to his flock in the field, | and said to them, "I see that y father's attitude toward me is not what it was previously;
the God of my father has been with me.
6 "You yourselves know that I have served your father w 7 all my strength, yet your father cheated me and changed pay time after time; but God did not allow him to harm 8 Whenever he said, 'The spotted animals will be your pay,' entire flock had spotted young; but whenever he said, 'T striped ones will be your wages,' then the entire flock h 9 striped young. So God took away your father's stock and gav 10 to me. At breeding time of the flock, I saw in a dream that 11 he-goats mating were striped, spotted, and speckled. An an of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob!' and I answered, 'H 12 I am!' | Then he said, 'Look and take note: all the he-go mating are striped, spotted and speckled; I have seen all th 13 Laban has been doing to you. I am the God who appeared you at Bethel, where you anointed the memorial pillar a made a vow to me. Rise now, leave this land, and return the land of your kin.' " 14 Rachel and Lia answered him, "Have we any share 15 heritage left in our father's house? Are we not regarded strangers by him? For he has sold us, and entirely used u 16 the money he received through us. Surely all the property Go has taken away from our father belongs to us and our childre Do whatever God has told you."
17 Jacob began by mounting his children and wives on camel 18 Then he took away all his herds, all the property he had a quired [the stock he had obtained] in Phaddan-Aram, to g to his father Isaac in the land of Chanaan.
19 When Laban had gone to shear his flock, Rachel stole he 20 father's household idols; and Jacob outwitted Laban th Aramean by not mentioning to him his intended flight, an 21 fled with all that belonged to him. Jacob set out, crossed th River and made for the highlands of Galaad.
22 On the third day, Laban was informed of Jacob's flight 23 Taking his kinsmen with him, he pursued Jacob seven day

31, 8: The writer includes a tradition which is slightly different from the preceding one.

31, 11-13: To win over his wives against their father, Jacob claims that God sides with him. An "angel of God" (v. 11) is synonymous with God (v. 13). See 16, 1-15 n.

24 and overtook him in the highlands of Galaad. But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and cautioned him,
"Take care not to say anything at all to Jacob."

25 Compact of Jacob and Laban Jacob had pitched his tent in the highlands when Laban overtook him. Having pitched 26 his tent on Mount Galaad, Laban said to Jacob, "Why have you acted so, deceiving me and carrying off my daughters like 27 prisoners of war? Why did you flee secretly and steal away from me? You did not let me know, so that I could send you 28 off with rejoicing and song, with tambourine and lyre. You did not allow me to kiss my sons and daughters; you have 29 acted foolishly. It is in my power to do you harm; but last night the God of your father said to me, 'Take care not to say 30 anything at all to Jacob.' | If you had to leave because you longed so much for your father's home, why did you steal 31 my gods?" Jacob replied to Laban, "I was afraid, for I thought 32 you would take away your daughters from me by force. If you find your gods in anyone's possession, he shall not live. In the presence of our kinsmen, identify whatever of yours I may have, and take it." But Jacob did not know Rachel had stolen them.

33 Then Laban went through Jacob's tent, through Lia's and through those of both the maids without finding them. From 34 Lia's tent he went to Rachel's; | but Rachel had taken the household idols, put them in the camel's saddle, and was sitting on them. When Laban had felt around the whole tent 35 without finding them, | she said to her father, "Be not offended, my lord, that I cannot rise in your presence; I am having my periods." Though he searched, he did not find the household gods.

36 Then Jacob became angry and remonstrated with Laban.
"What is my offense or my crime," he said, "that you have 37 pursued me, and have ransacked all my belongings? What household article of yours have you found? Put it out here in the presence of your kinsmen and mine that they may 38 decide between us two. Twenty years now I have been with you; your ewes and your she-goats have never miscarried, 39 nor have I eaten the rams of your flock. I have not brought to you any torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. You 31, 24: This and v. 29 are most likely part of the dramatic machinery to express God's protection over Jacob.

31, 30: Why did you steal my gods?: monotheism only gradually wiped away these pagan beliefs which Rachel also held (vv. 19 and 34).

held me responsible for anything stolen by day or nig 40 The heat wasted me by day, the cold by night; sleep fled fr 41 my eyes. This has been my twenty years with you: I serv you fourteen years for your two daughters, six years for yo 42 flocks; you changed my pay time after time. If the God of father, the God of Abraham, and the God whom Isaac fea had not favored me, even now you would have sent me aw empty-handed. God saw my affliction and my toil, and l night he pronounced sentence." 43 Laban answered Jacob, "The daughters are mine, the gran children are mine, the flocks are mine, indeed all that you s is mine. What can I do today to these daughters of mine a 44 to the children they have borne? Come, then, let us make covenant, you and I; then the Lord shall be a witness betwe you and me."
45 Then Jacob took a stone and set it up as a memorial pilla 46 Jacob said to his kinsmen, "Gather some stones." And the gathered stones, made a heap, and ate there near the hea 47 Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha and Jacob named it Galaa 48 Laban said, "This heap is a witness between you and me toda
49 [Therefore he called it Galaad; | and Maspha, because he said
"May the Lord watch between you and me when we are awa 50 from each other."] You shall not mistreat my daughters, o marry others besides them; even though there be no man nea 51 us, remember, God is witness between you and me." Laba continued, "Note this heap and this memorial pillar I have se 52 up between you and me. This heap is a witness, and the me morial is a witness that I will not go beyond this heap toward you, and that you shall not go beyond this heap and me 53 morial toward me to do harm. The God of Abraham and the gods of Nahor [the gods of their father] judge between us.'
Jacob swore by him whom his father Isaac revered.
54 Jacob offered sacrifice in the highlands and invited his kinsmen to take food. When they had eaten they spent the night in the highlands.

32

1 Early in the morning, Laban kissed his grandchildren and 2 daughters, bade them farewell, and returned to his home. Jacob

---

31, 53: Gods of Nahor: even though Nahor is not known, the expression clearly shows Laban is a polytheist.

32, 2-3: The etymology of Mahanaim is attributed to a vision of angels.

also resumed his journey and God's angels met him. When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is the encampment of God"; and he named that place Mahanaim.

Jacob Sends an Embassy to Esau Then Jacob sent messengers ahead to his brother Esau in the region of Seir in the country of Edom, commanding them, "Thus shall you say to my lord Esau: Your servant Jacob sends you this message: 'I have been dwelling with Laban and stayed till now. I have acquired cattle, asses, flocks, men and women servants; so I am sending word to my lord that I may find favor with you.' "

The messengers returned to Jacob and said, "We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you with four hundred men." Filled with fear and anxiety, Jacob divided into two camps the people with him, as well as the flocks, the cattle, and the camels. He said, "Should Esau come on one camp and attack it, the other will be saved." Jacob prayed, "God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, Lord who said to me, 'Return to your land and to your kin, and I will deal well with you': I am not worthy of all the kindnesses and the constant solicitude which you have shown your servant. With only my staff I crossed this Jordan; now I have grown into two camps.

"Save me from my brother Esau; for I fear that he is coming to kill me and all my family. You have promised, 'I will surely deal well with you. I will make your descendants as the sands of the sea, too numerous to count.' "

After sleeping there that night, he chose a present for his brother Esau from what he had with him: two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, twenty rams, | thirty milch camels with their young, forty cows, ten bullocks, twenty she-asses and ten foals. He delivered these to his servants, in separate droves, instructing them, "Go ahead of me, but leave a space between one drove and the next." He charged the leaders, "If my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'To whom do you belong? where are you going? and whose animals are these before you?', | you shall answer, 'They belong to your servant Jacob; they are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and Jacob is just behind us.' " He also charged the second, the third and all who followed the droves, "Give this same message to Esau when you meet him, | and say also, 'Your servant Jacob is just behind us.' " He thought, "I will appease him with the gift that precedes me; then when I see him, perhaps he will be kind

22 Struggle with the Angel So the gifts went ahead of h 23 while he lodged that night in the camp. That same night arose, took his two wives, the two maids and his eleven sor 24 and forded the Jaboc. He took them and sent them across t 25 stream, with everything that belonged to him; | but Jac himself remained behind, all alone. Someone wrestled wi him until the break of dawn.
26 When he saw that he could not overcome Jacob, he touch the socket of Jacob's thigh so that it was dislocated while J 27 cob wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go; it is dawn But Jacob answered, "I will not let you go till you bless me 28 Then he asked Jacob, "What is your name?" and he answere
29 "Jacob." | He said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, bu Israel, because you have contended with God and men, an 30 have triumphed." Jacob asked, "What is your name?" H answered, "Why do you ask my name?" But he blessed hir 31 there. | Jacob named the place Phanuel, saying, "I have see a heavenly being face to face, yet my life has been spared.
32 The sun rose on him just as he passed Phanuel, limping be 33 cause of his thigh. To this day the Israelites do not eat the hip muscle on the socket of the thigh, because he touched th socket of Jacob's thigh on the hip-muscle.

32, 25-33: The meaning of this mysterious episode is: as Jacob pre pares to meet Esau, he fears that his brother may kill him. Then Jacol will not realize God's promises made to Abraham. The inspired write describes a physical wrestling match between Jacob and the angel synonymously used for God (v. 29). Jacob "triumphs." This is the turning point of Jacob's career. Up to now he relied on human sagacity: henceforth he will rely on divine help. Originally this old folklore spoke of the "genius" who guarded the ford (v. 23b). Our inspired story changed him to an angel of God. The anthropomorphism representing God or His angels overcome by a man is rare in the Bible.

32, 27: The storyteller has Jacob "force" God's blessing once Jacob recognized it was God. This is the symbolic way of saying that Jacob will be victorious in his forthcoming encounter with Esau.

32, 29: Henceforth the chosen people are no longer called Hebrews but Israelites, until only the tribe of Juda remains, after the exile in the sixth century B.C., when they will be called Jews.

32, 30: The being "before and after" refuses to give his name because man could not understand his nature.

32, 31: Phanuel means "face of God." The name of the place may be one reason why this story is told.

32, 31b: It is an often repeated biblical notion that one could not see God or His angel without dying. The origin of this belief was in the insignificance of man when compared with God.

32, 32: The limping proved to Jacob the reality of the event.

32, 33: An old dietary law not found elsewhere in the Scriptures.

33

1 Meeting of Jacob and Esau Jacob looked up and saw Esau approaching with four hundred men. So he divided the 2 children among Lia, Rachel and the two maids, putting the maids and their children in front, then Lia and her children, 3 with Rachel and Joseph in the rear. He himself went ahead of them, bowing to the ground seven times, until he reached his 4 brother. Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, fell on his neck and kissed him. And they wept.

5 When he looked up and saw the women and the children, he said, "What relation are they to you?" Jacob answered,
"They are the children whom God has graciously given your 6 servant." Then the maids and their children drew near and 7 bowed down. Lia and her children also drew near, made their bow, and lastly Joseph and Rachel drew near and bowed.
8 He said, "What do you mean by all this company which 9 I met?" Jacob answered, "To win favor with my lord." Esau 10 said, "I have plenty; keep what is yours, my brother." Jacob replied, "No, I beg you; if only I find favor with you, accept the gift from my hand, because I have come before you as before 11 God, and you have received me kindly. I beg you, accept the gift I have brought you, for God has been good to me, and I 12 have all I need." When he urged him, Esau accepted. | Then he said, "Let us break camp, and go on; I will march alongside 13 you." But Jacob replied, "My lord can see that the children are young, and the flocks and herds giving suck are a care to me; if overdriven for a single day, the whole flock will die.
14 Let my lord go on ahead of his servant and I shall proceed slowly at the pace of the stock I am driving and the pace of 15 the children, until I come to my lord at Seir." Esau answered, "Allow me to leave some of my men with you." But he said,
"Why all this trouble for me, my lord?"

16.17 That same day Esau started back on his way to Seir, | while Jacob went to Socchoth, and built a home for himself and made sheds for his stock. For this reason he named the place Socchoth.

18 During his journey from Phaddan-Aram Jacob came safely to the city of Sichem, in the land of Chanaan, and camped near 19 the city. For the price of one hundred pieces of money he bought the plot of ground on which he had pitched his tent, 33, 10: A flattering hyperbole which means that his meeting with Esau is as profitable as meeting with God.

33, 12-16: Esau's offer, if accepted, could make Jacob his vassal. Jacob feigns that he will join his brother. Esau settles in Edom, and the account of their rivalries ends.

20 from the sons of Hemor, the father of Sichem. There erected a memorial pillar and named it "El, God of Israel

34

1 Dina Is Violated Dina, the daughter whom Lia bore to J cob, went to present herself among the women of the regio 2 When Sichem, son of Hemor the Hevite, prince of the regio 3 saw her, he took her, and lay with her by force. He became a tached to Dina, Jacob's daughter, and fell in love with th 4 girl, speaking tenderly to her. Sichem said to his father Hemo 5 "Get me this girl as my wife." Now Jacob heard that Sichem had defiled his daughter; but his sons were out in the fields wit his stock, so he held his peace until their return.
6 Hemor, the father of Sichem, came out to Jacob to spea 7 with him. Now Jacob's sons came in from the field as soon a they heard the news. They were aroused and very angry be cause Sichem had committed a crime against Israel by lying 8 with Jacob's daughter—an intolerable crime. Hemor said t them, "My son Sichem has set his heart on your daughter; giv 9 her to him as wife. Intermarry with us; give us you daughter 10 in marriage and marry ours. Live with us, and the land wil 11 be yours; dwell and trade and settle here." Sichem, too, saic to her father and brothers, "Let me find favor with you; 12 will pay whatever you demand of me. Increase the marriage price and gifts as you will. I will give you whatever you de mand of me; only give me the girl as wife."

13 Revenge of Jacob's Sons The sons of Jacob answered Si-chem, who had defiled their sister Dina, and his father Hemor 14 and they spoke deceitfully. They said to them, "We cannot do this: give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised; for to 15 us that would be a disgrace. We will agree to you only on condition that you become like us, by having every male 16 among you circumcised. Then we will give you our daughters and take yours; we will live among you and become one peo-17 ple. But if you refuse to be circumcised, we will take our daughter and depart." 18.19 Their proposal pleased Hemor and his son Sichem. The young man carried out the proposal without delay because he was in love with Jacob's daughter; and he was the most 34, 1-31: Two accounts are woven together in this sordid story of a revenge exceeding the crime. The names represent collectivities, e.g., Sichem, the son, bears the name of the town. The story seems to come from an incident in patriarchal times when some Hebrews unsuccessfully tried to settle around Sichem.

20 distinguished member of his family. So Hemor and his son Sichem went to the gate of their city and spoke to their fellow 21 citizens. "These men," they said, "are friendly; let them dwell with us and trade in the land, since there is ample room for them. Let us marry their daughters and give them our daugh-22 ters to marry. Only on this condition will the men agree to live with us and form one people: all the males among us must be 23 circumcised as they are. Will not their stock, their property and all their beasts be to our advantage? Let us agree with them, so that they may dwell with us." 24 All their fellow citizens were persuaded by Hemor and his 25 son Sichem, and all the males were circumcised. On the third day, when they were in pain, the two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dina's brothers, took their swords, advanced boldly 26 against the city and slew all the males. They put Hemor and his son Sichem to the sword, and took Dina from Sichem's 27 house. Then the sons of Jacob went out, attacked the sick men, 28 and sacked the city, because their sister had been defiled. They took its flocks, herds and asses, whatever was in the city 29 and in the fields. All its wealth, its women and its children they carried off; and they looted whatever was in the houses.
30 Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me, making me loathsome to the inhabitants of the land, the Chanaanites and the Pherezites. I have but few men; if they unite against me and attack me, my family and I will be de-31 stroyed." They answered, "Should our sister have been treated as a harlot?"

35

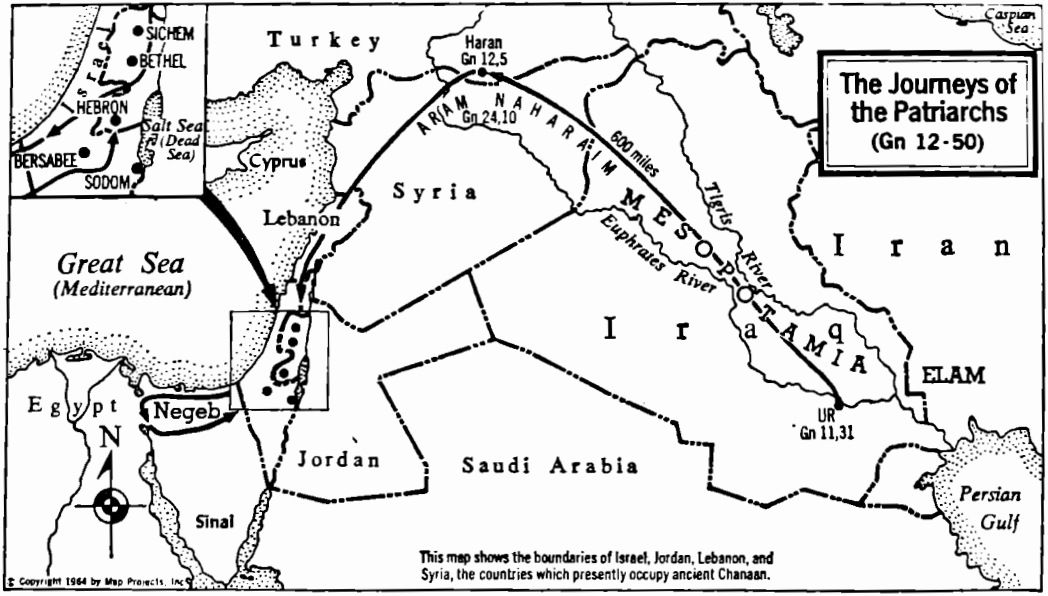
1 Jacob again in Bethel God said to Jacob, "Rise and go up to Bethel. Build there an altar to the God who appeared to 2 you as you fled from your brother Esau." So Jacob said to his family and to all who were with him, "Do away with the strange gods you have among you, purify yourselves, and 3 change your garments. Let us be on our way to Bethel, that I may build an altar there to the God who helped me in my 4 distress and was with me on my journey. They handed over to Jacob all the strange gods they had, with their earrings; Jacob 34, 20: Gate of their city: the favorite part of town for meeting strangers (19, 1), for the gathering of important townspeople and merchants, for discussing all types of affairs, for pleading cases, and for idling away the time.

35, 1-4: Instead of stating that the people fled to escape the revenge of the Sichemites and neighboring Chanaanites, the religious motive of a pilgrimage to Bethel is described.



5 buried them under the terebinth near Sichem, | and they d parted. But a great fear lay upon the cities in the vicinity, that they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.
6 So Jacob and all who were with him came to Luza [no 7 called Bethel] in the land of Chanaan. He built an altar the and named the place Bethel, because God had appeared 8 him there when he was fleeing from his brother. Debora, R becca's nurse, died and was buried below Bethel at the foot o an oak tree, so the place was called Allon-Bachuth.

9 God Renews the Promises As Jacob returned from Pha 10 dan-Aram, God appeared to him again and blessed him. Go said to him, "Your name is Jacob; no longer shall you b called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name." Thus he name 11 him Israel. | God said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be frui ful and multiply; a nation and many nations shall spring fro 12 you; kings shall stem from you. I will give you the land whic
I gave to Abraham and Isaac; this land will I give also to you 13 descendants." Then God departed from him at the place wher 14 he had spoken to him. But Jacob erected a memorial pillar i the place where God had spoken with him, a pillar of stone 15 and he poured out a libation and oil on it. The place wher God had spoken to him, Jacob named Bethel.

16 Death of Rachel They journeyed from Bethel, and wher they were still a distance from Ephratha, Rachel gave birth to a 17 child amid great pain. While she was in painful labor the mid wife said to her, "Fear not; for this time also you have a son." 18 As her soul was departing her—for she was at the point of death—she named him Benoni, but his father called him Ben-19 jamin. Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephratha, 20 that is, Bethlehem. Jacob erected a memorial over her grave; and this memorial marks Rachel's grave to this day.

21 Jacob's Children Israel moved on and pitched his tent be-22 yond Magdal-eder. While Israel was living in that region, Ruben went and lay with Bala, his father's concubine; and Israel heard of it. . . .
23 The sons of Jacob were twelve: | the sons of Lia: Ruben, Jacob's first-born, Simeon, Levi, Juda, Issachar and Zabulon; 24.25 | the sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin; | the sons of 35, 6: See 28, 19, where Bethel is named and repeated here and in the following v. 15.

35, 10: This is a doublet of 32, 29.

The Journeys of the Patriarchs (Gn 12-50)
Israel
SICHEM
BETHEL
HEBRON
Salt Sea (Dead Sea)
BERSABEE
SODOM
Turkey
Haran Gn 12,5 ARAM NAHARAIM Gn 24,10
600 miles
Cyprus
Syria
Lebanon
Great Sea (Mediterranean)
MESOPOTAMIA
Tigris River
Euphrates River
Iran
Iraq
ELAM
UR Gn 11,31
Egypt
Negeb
N Jordan
Saudi Arabia
Sinai
Persian Gulf
Caspian Sea
This map shows the boundaries of Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria, the countries which presently occupy ancient Chanaan.
© Copyright 1964 by Map Projects, Inc.

26 Bala, Rachel's maid: Dan and Nephthali; | the sons of Zelph Lia's maid: Gad and Aser. These were the sons of Jacob wl were born to him in Phaddan-Aram.
27 Jacob went to his father Isaac at Mamre in Cariath-arb 28 that is, Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned. Tl 29 lifetime of Isaac was one hundred and eighty years. Isa breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his kin, a old man who had lived a full life. His sons Esau and Jacc buried him.

36

1 Résumé of Esau's History These are the descendants o 2 Esau, that is, Edom. Esau married the Chanaanite women, Ad daughter of Elon the Hethite, and Oholibama, daughter o 3 Ana, son of Sebeon the Hevite; also Basemath, daughter o 4 Ismael and sister of Nabaioth. Ada bore Eliphaz to Esau, Base
5 math bore Raguel, | Oholibama bore Jehus, Jelom and Core These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the lan of Chanaan.
6 Esau took his wives, sons, daughters, and all the member of his household, his stock, all his beasts, and all he had ac quired in the land of Chanaan, and went to the land of Seir 7 out of the way of his brother Jacob; for their possessions were too great for them to live together, and the land where they sojourned could not support them because of their stock.
8 Esau settled in the highlands of Seir, that is, Edom.
9 These are the descendants of Esau, father of the Edomites in the highlands of Seir.
10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, son of Ada, Esau's wife, and Raguel, son of Basemath, the wife of Esau.
11 The sons of Eliphaz were Theman, Omar, Sepho, Gatham and 12 Cenez | [Thamna was a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz and bore Amalec to Eliphaz]; these are the descendants of Ada, Esau's wife.
13 The sons of Raguel were Nahath, Zara, Samma and Meza.
These are the descendants of Basemath, Esau's wife.
14 The following are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibama, daughter of Ana, son of Sebeon: she bore Jehus, Jelom and Core to Esau.
15 These are the chiefs of the descendants of Esau, the sons of Eliphaz, the first-born of Esau: the chiefs Theman, Omar, 36, 1-43: A collection of traditions without making them agree among themselves or with previously stated traditions. The wives of Esau in vv. 2-3, e.g., do not correspond with those in 26, 34; 28, 9.

16 Sepho, Cenez | [Core], Gatham, Amalec. These are the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; they are the descendants of Ada.
17 The following are the sons of Raguel, son of Esau: chiefs Nahath, Zara, Samma, Meza. They are the chiefs of Raguel in the land of Edom; they are the descendants of Basemath, Esau's wife.
18 The following are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibama: chiefs Jehus, Jelom and Core; these are the chiefs of Oholibama, 19 daughter of Ana, wife of Esau. These are the descendants of Esau, and these are their chiefs. Esau is Edom.
20 The following are the descendants of Seir the Horrite, the 21 aborigines of the land: Lotan, Sobal, Sebeon, Ana, | Dison, Eser and Disan. These are the chiefs of the Horrites, the de-22 scendants of Seir in the land of Edom. The sons of Lotan were 23 Hori and Heman; Thamna was the sister of Lotan. The following are the sons of Sobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Sepho 24 and Onam. The following are the sons of Sebeon: Aia and Ana. He is the Ana who discovered the hot springs in the desert 25 when he was pasturing the asses of his father Sebeon. The following are the children of Ana: Dison, the son of Ana, and 26 Oholibama, his daughter. The following are the sons of Dison: 27 Hamdan, Esban, Jethran and Charan. The following are the 28 sons of Eser: Balaan, Zavan and Acan. The sons of Disan were Us and Aran.
29 The following are the chiefs of the Horrites: chiefs Lotan, 30 Sobal, Sebeon, Ana, | Dison, Eser, Disan. These are the chiefs of the Horrites according to their clans in the land of Seir.
31 The kings who reigned in the land of Edom before they 32 had Israelite kings, were the following: Bala, son of Beor, 33 reigned in Edom and the name of his city was Denaba. When 34 Bala died, Jobab son of Zara of Bosra, succeeded him. When Jobab died, Husam from the land of the Themanites succeeded 35 him. Husam died and Adad, son of Badad, succeeded him.
He overthrew the Madianites in the country of Moab, and the 36 name of his city was Avith. Adad died and Semla of Masreca 37 succeeded him. Semla died and Saul from Rohoboth-Nahar 38 succeeded him. When Saul died, Baalhanan, son of Achobor suc-39 ceeded him. Baalhanan, son of Achobor, died and Adad succeeded him. The name of his city was Phau, and his wife's name was Meetebel. She was the daughter of Matred, who was the daughter of Mezaab.
40 These are the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families or their dwelling places, namely: the chiefs of 41.42 Thamna, Alva, Jetheth, | Oholibama, Ela, Phinon, | Cenez,

43 Theman, Mabsar, | Magdiel, Iram. These are the chiefs Edom, according to their settlements in the land they oc pied. Esau was the father of the Edomites.

IV. THE HISTORY OF JOSEPH

37

1 Early History of Joseph Jacob lived in the land of Chana 2 where his father had dwelt as a stranger. This is his family h tory. When Joseph was seventeen years old, still a mere you he was pasturing the flock with his brothers, the sons of Ba and Zelpha, his father's wives, and he brought a bad report his father concerning them.
3 Israel loved Joseph best of all his sons because he was bo 4 in his old age. He made him a long tunic. | When his brothe saw that their father loved him best of all his sons, they hat him and could not even greet him.

5 Joseph's Dreams Now Joseph had a dream, and when I 6 told it to his brothers, they hated him the more. He said 7 them, "Listen to this dream I had. We were binding sheaves the field: my sheaf rose up and remained standing, while you 8 sheaves gathered round and bowed down to my sheaf." H brothers answered, "Are you to be our king? Are you to rul over us?" And because of his dreams and words they hate him the more.
9 He had another dream which he also told to his brother
"I had another dream," he said. "The sun, the moon an 10 eleven stars were worshiping me." When he told that t his father and his brothers, his father reproved him. "Wha is this dream that you have had?" he said. "Can it be that I an your mother and your brothers will come to bow to the groun 11 before you?" So his brothers envied him, while his father pon dered the matter.
12 When his brothers had gone to pasture their father's flock

---

37: Chs. 37—50 are a biography of the patriarch Joseph, except fo chs. 38 and 49.

The religious message is that of divine Providence. Men intend evi (the killing of Joseph), but God turns it into good (the saving of th family by Joseph). This Providence is explained in 45, 5-8; 50, 20.

37, 5: The many dreams in the Joseph story represent premonitions (of the officers, ch. 40; of Pharao, ch. 41), not the divine apparitions as in 20, 3; 28, 12f; and 31, 11 and 24.

37, 10: Your mother: according to another tradition (35, 19) Rachel is already dead.

14 at Sichem, | Israel said to Joseph, "Your brothers are pasturing the flocks at Sichem; get ready, I will send you to them."
Joseph answered, "I am ready." | "Go then," said Israel, "and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flocks; and bring back a report to me." So he sent him from the valley of 15 Hebron, and he came to Sichem. A man found Joseph wandering about in the fields and asked him, "What are you looking 16 for?" | I am looking for my brothers," he answered. "Tell me, 17 please, where they are pasturing." The man said, "They have moved on from here because I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothain.' " So Joseph went after his brothers and found them 18 in Dothain. They saw him in the distance, and before he drew 19 near them, they plotted to kill him. They said to one another, 20 "Here comes that dreamer! | Let us therefore kill him and throw him into a cistern; we can say that a wild beast devoured him. Let us see then what becomes of his dreams." 21 But when Ruben heard of it, he tried to rescue him from 22 them saying, "We must not kill him." Then he continued, "Do not shed blood. Throw him into the cistern there in the desert, but do not lay a hand on him." His purpose was to rescue him from them and restore him to his father.
23 When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of 24 the long tunic he had on. They seized him and threw him into the cistern, which was empty and dry.

25 Joseph Sold into Egypt Then they sat down to eat. Looking up, they saw a caravan of Ismaelites coming from Galaad, their camels laden with gum, balm, and myrrh, with which they 26 were on their way down to Egypt. Then Juda said to his brothers, "What is to be gained by killing our brother and concealing his 27 blood? Let us sell him to the Ismaelites, and let us not lay hands on him; for he is our brother, our own flesh." His brothers agreed.
28 And when some Madianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up out of the cistern; they sold him to the Ismaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.
29 When Ruben went back to the cistern and saw that Joseph 37, 21-28: According to an eighth century tradition Ruben suggested that Joseph be thrown in a cistern (vv. 21-24). Some Madianite traders rescued him, without the brothers knowing it, and brought him to Egypt (v. 28a). According to a tenth century tradition Juda suggested that Joseph be sold to Ismaelite traders who were journeying to Egypt (vv. 25-27; v. 28b). Concealing his blood (v. 27): lest it cry out for vengeance. See 4, 10 n. Twenty pieces of silver (v. 28): the value of a boy from five to twenty years of age.

was not in it, he rent his garments, returned to his brothers 30 said, | "The boy is not there; and I, where shall I turn?"
31 Then they took Joseph's tunic and after killing a g 32 dipped the tunic in the blood. They sent someone who brou the long tunic to their father with the message: "We h 33 found this; see whether it is your son's tunic or not." recognized it and said, "It is my son's tunic. A wild beast 34 devoured him; Joseph has been torn to pieces!" Then Ja rent his garments, girded himself with sackcloth and mourn 35 his son many days. Though all his sons and daughters tried comfort him, he refused to be consoled, and said, "I will down mourning to my son in the nether world." So his fat 36 wept over him. Meanwhile the Madianites sold Joseph in Eg to one of Pharao's officers, Phutiphar, captain of the guard.

38

1 Events from the History of Juda About that time Ju went down from his relatives to tent near an Adullam 2 named Hiras. There Juda saw the daughter of Sue, a Char 3 anite. He married her and had relations with her. She conceiv 4 and bore a son, whom he named Her. Again she conceived a 5 bore a son, whom she named Onan. She bore still another s and named him Sela; she was at Chezib when she gave bir 6 to him. Juda took a wife named Thamar for his first-born, He 7 But Juda's first-born, Her, was wicked in the sight of the Lor so the Lord killed him.

8 The Sin of Onan Then Juda said to Onan, "Go to you brother's wife, perform your duty as brother-in-law, and rais 9 up descendants for your brother." Onan knew that the descend ants would not be his own, so whenever he had relations wit his brother's wife, he wasted his seed on the ground, in orde

38, 1: At an indefinite time in Juda's life, he separated from th Israelites and married among the Chanaanites west of the Dead Sea.

38, 7: The Lord killed him: most probably the writer is expressing th belief of ancient Israelites that an early death means God's punishmen for a sin of some kind.

38, 8: Among the ancient Israelites, and other Orientals, the brothe of a man who died without children had to marry the widow to per petuate his dead brother's posterity and name. This levirate law wa later mitigated when codified (Dt 25, 5-10). See Mt 22, 24.

38, 9a: The first born of a levirate marriage was the legal heir of th dead father's inheritance (Dt 25, 5).

38, 9b-10: God condemns Onan's selfishness, and his sin against the natural and divine law of marriage. The contraception called onanism receives its name from Onan. At this undeveloped stage of the moral 10 not to raise up descendants for his brother. What he did was 11 evil in the sight of the Lord, and he killed him also. Then Juda said to his daughter-in-law Thamar, "Remain a widow in your father's house until my son Sela grows up"; for Juda feared that Sela too would die as his brothers had. So she went away and dwelt in her father's house.

12 After a long time Juda's wife, the daughter of Sue, died. After the time of mourning, Juda went to Thamna with his friend Hiras, the Adullamite, to superintend the shearing of 13 his flock. When Thamar learned her father-in-law was on his 14 way up to Thamna to shear his flock, | she put off her widow's garments, put on a veil, wrapped herself up and sat at the gateway of Enaim on the road to Thamna; for she was aware that Sela had grown up, yet she had not been given to him in marriage.
15 When Juda saw her, he thought she was a harlot; for she 16 had covered her face. He went over to her at the roadside and said, "Come, let me have intercourse with you," not knowing that she was his daughter-in-law. She asked, "What will you 17 give me to have intercourse with me?" | He answered, "I will send you a kid from the flock." She responded, "Provided you 18 give a pledge until you send it." | Juda said, "What pledge shall I give you?" She replied, "Your signet and cord, with the staff that you are carrying." He gave them to her, and had re-19 lations with her, and she conceived by him. Afterward she arose and went away. She took off her veil and put on her widow's garments.
20 When Juda sent the kid by his friend, the Adullamite, to 21 recover the pledge from the woman, he did not find her. So he asked the men of the place, "Where is the témple-prostitute who was by the roadside at Enaim?" They answered, "No temple-prostitute has been here."

---

conscience, the people were more horrified at the sin against the family than against purity.

38, 14: Wrapped herself up: may mean: put on perfume.

38, 18: Signet and cord: an incised cylindrical seal imprinted a man's signature when rolled across a clay tablet. The cylinder was suspended from the neck by a cord which made it handy for immediate use.

38, 19: Thamar was motivated not so much by lust as by a typical savage desire of wanting a child from her defunct husband's line. According to the levirate law, and at the risk of death (v. 24), even though she was wrong in deceiving and seducing, Juda admits her claim (v. 26) and so does posterity (Ru 4, 12).

38, 21: Temple-prostitute: this is Chanaanite territory where relations with these women was considered a religious act honoring the goddess of fertility. Juda was moved more by lust than by idolatry.

22 He returned to Juda, saying, "I did not find her; moreo the men of the place told me, 'No temple-prostitute has b 23 here.' " Juda replied, "Let her keep the things; otherwise shall be ridiculed. I sent this kid, but you could not find he 24 About three months later Juda was told, "Your daught in-law, Thamar, has played the harlot and is pregnant as 25 result." Juda said, "Bring her out to be burned." But as s was being brought, she sent word to her father-in-law, "I a with child by the man to whom these things belong; look whe 26 signet, cord and staff these are." Juda recognized them a said, "She is more in the right than I; for I did not give her my son Sela!" But he had no further relations with her.
27 When the time of her delivery came, there were twins in h 28 womb. During the delivery one put out a hand. The midwi took a scarlet thread, tied it on his hand and said, "This one 29 born first." But as he drew back his hand, his brother w born. Then the woman said, "How have you made your wa 30 forth?" For this reason he was called Phares. Afterward h brother with the scarlet thread on his hand was born, and h was named Zara.

39

1 Joseph's Virtue in Temptation When Joseph was take down to Egypt, Phutiphar, an Egyptian, one of Pharao's of ficers, the captain of his bodyguard, bought him from th 2 Ismaelites who had taken him down there. The Lord was with Joseph so that he was successful. He lived in the house of hi 3 master, the Egyptian. When his master saw that the Lord wa 4 with him and prospered all his undertakings, | Joseph found favor with him and became his attendant. He placed him in charge of his household, and entrusted all his property to him 5 From the time he placed him in charge of his household and over all his property, the Lord blessed the Egyptian's house on account of Joseph. The Lord's blessing rested on everything 6 that was his, in house and field. He left everything he had in Joseph's charge, and having him, was concerned about nothing except the food he ate.
7 Now Joseph was well formed and handsome. | Some time afterward, the wife of his master cast her eyes on Joseph and 8 said, "Lie with me." But he refused, saying, "Because of me, my 38, 24: To be burned: the penalty was later changed to stoning (Dt 22, 23f; Jn 8, 5) except for daughters of priests (Lv 21, 9).

38, 29-30: Phares . . . Zara: Thamar and her two sons are listed as ancestors of Christ (Mt 1, 3; see Lk 3, 33).

master is not concerned about anything in the house, but has 9 put all that he owns in my care. He exercises no greater authority in this house than I, nor has he withheld a single thing from me, except yourself, because you are his wife. How then 10 can I commit this great crime, and sin against God?" She urged Joseph day after day, but he would not consent to lie with her, 11 or to be with her. On one such day, Joseph went into the house to do his work, while none of the household servants was at 12 hand. She seized him by his garment and said, "Lie with me."
But Joseph left his garment in her hand, and fled outdoors.

13 Joseph Cast into Prison When she saw that he had left 14 his cloak in her hand and had fled outside, she summoned the servants of her house and said to them, "Look! My husband has brought in a Hebrew to us to insult us. He came in to lie with 15 me but I screamed. When he heard me raise my voice and call 16 out, he left his garment beside me, and fled outdoors." She kept 17 the garment beside her until his master came home; | then she told him the same story: "The Hebrew slave whom you brought 18 to us came in to insult me, | but when I raised my voice and called out, he left his garment beside me and fled outside." 19 When the master heard his wife's story about how his slave had 20 treated her, he became angry. Then Joseph's master took him and committed him to the prison where the king's prisoners were kept; so he remained there in prison.

21 Joseph Put in Charge of the Prison But the Lord was with Joseph. He showed kindness to him and gave him favor 22 with the warden, | who put him in charge of all prisoners; and everything that was done there was done under his manage-23 ment. The warden did not concern himself with anything in Joseph's charge because the Lord was with him and prospered all that he did.

40

1 Joseph Interprets Two Dreams Some time after this the royal butler and baker both offended their lord, the king of 2 Egypt; and Pharao became angry with his two officials, the 3 chief butler and the chief baker, and had them put in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison where 39, 12: Joseph, a model of purity in face of trial, is a theme common to popular literature.

39, 23: A constant theme in the story is that God blesses all those who love Joseph.

4 Joseph was confined. The captain of the guard assigned Jose to them and he became their attendant. They remained custody for some time.
5 On one and the same night, the royal butler and baker Egypt, confined in prison, each had a dream of peculiar s 6 nificance to himself. When Joseph came to them in the morni 7 he saw they were disturbed; | so he asked Pharao's officials, custody with him in his master's house, "Why do you look s 8 today?" They answered him, "We each had a dream, but th is no one to interpret them." Joseph said to them, "Does r interpretation belong to God? Tell them to me, please." 9 So the chief butler told Joseph his dream. "In my drean 10 he said, "there was a vine in front of me. | Three branc were on the vine. It budded and blossomed, and its clusters 11 pened into grapes. Pharao's cup was in my hand and I took t grapes, squeezed them into his cup, and placed it in his hand 12 Joseph said to him, "This is its meaning: the three branches a 13 three days. Within three days Pharao will take up your case a restore you to your office. You will present Pharao's cup 14 him as formerly, when you were his butler. So if you think me when good fortune comes to you, do me the favor of me 15 tioning me to Pharao, and get me out of this house. I was ki naped from the land of the Hebrews, and here I have dor nothing for which I should have been put into a dungeon 16 When the chief baker saw that he had given a favorab interpretation, he said to Joseph, "I too had a dream: I ha 17 three wicker baskets on my head. In the top basket was ever kind of baked food for Pharao, but the birds were eatin 18 it out of the basket on my head." Joseph answered, "This is it 19 meaning: the three baskets are three days. Within three day Pharao will take up your case and hang you on a gibbet; an the birds will eat the flesh off your body." 20 On the third day, which was Pharao's birthday, he made feast for all his courtiers, and in their presence took up th 21 cases of the chief butler and the chief baker. He reinstated th chief butler in his office of presenting the cup into his hand 22 but the chief baker he hanged, as Joseph had interpreted t 23 them. The chief butler did not think of Joseph, but forgot him

41

1 Pharao's Dreams Two full years afterward, Pharao had 2 dream. He was standing by the Nile. Seven cows, sleek and fat came up out of the Nile and were browsing in the reed grass

40, 22: Joseph's interpretations are riddled with puns which are lost

3 After them, seven other cows, ugly and thin, came up out of 4 the Nile, and stood beside those on the bank of the Nile. The ugly, thin cows devoured the seven sleek, fat ones. Then 5 Pharao awoke. | But he fell asleep again and had another dream. Seven ears of grain, fat and fine, were growing on a 6 single stalk. After them sprouted seven other ears, thin and 7 blasted by the east wind. The thin ears swallowed up the seven fat, full ears. Then Pharao awoke to find it was a dream.
8 When morning came he was troubled; so he summoned all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharao related his dream to them, but there was no one who could interpret it for him.
9 Then the chief butler said to Pharao, "Today I must recall my 10 offenses. When Pharao was angry with his servants, and put me and the chief baker in custody in the house of the captain of 11 the guard, on the one same night he and I each had a dream of 12 peculiar significance to himself. A Hebrew youth was there with us, a slave of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams and he interpreted them for us. He gave each the proper inter-13 pretation of his dream; and it turned out just as he had interpreted to us: I was reinstated in my office, but the other was hanged."

14 Joseph Interprets the Dreams Then Pharao sent for Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon. After he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came into Pharao's 15 presence. Pharao said to Joseph, "I had a dream which no one can interpret; but I have heard it said of you that you know how 16 to interpret a dream." Joseph answered Pharao, "Who but God 17 shall give Pharao a favorable response!" Then Pharao said to Joseph, "I dreamed I was standing on the bank of the Nile, | 18 when seven cows, fat and sleek, came out of the Nile, and were 19 browsing in the reed grass. After them, seven other cows came up, lean, very ugly and scrawny. I have never seen such poor 20 cows as these in all the land of Egypt. The scrawny, ugly cows 21 devoured the first seven fat cows. But when they had consumed them, it was not apparent that they had done so, because they 22 were as ugly as before. Then I awoke. | Again I dreamed I saw seven ears of grain, full and fine, growing on a single stalk.
23 After them sprouted seven withered, thin ears, blasted by the 24 east wind. The thin ears swallowed up the seven fine ears. I told the magicians, but no one could explain it to me."

---

in English. A recently discovered Egyptian papyrus exemplifies this type of interpretation.

41, 17: The long repetitions are a clue to a previous stage when this story was told orally.

25 Joseph said to Pharao: "Pharao's dream is but one. God 26 has revealed to Pharao what he is about to do. | The seven fine cows are seven years, and the seven fine ears are seven years; 27 it is but one dream. The seven thin, ugly cows which came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted by the east wind are seven years. There will be seven years of 28 famine. It is as I told Pharao: God has revealed to Pharao what 29 he is about to do. Seven years of great plenty will come through 30 the land of Egypt, but there will follow seven years of famine, and then all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt.
31 The famine will devastate the land, and the plenty will not be discernible in the land, because of the famine which is to fol-32 low; for it will be very severe. The reason the dream was sent twice to Pharao is that the matter is determined by God, and 33 God will soon bring it about. Let Pharao select an intelligent and prudent man, and give him charge of the land of Egypt.
34 Let Pharao take action, appoint officials over the land, and prepare the land of Egypt through the seven years of plenty.
35 And let them collect all the food of these good years to come, and store up under the authority of Pharao food in the cities, 36 and preserve it. The food shall be a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt, so that the land will not perish by the famine."

37 Joseph Is Exalted The advice pleased Pharao and all his 38 courtiers; | so Pharao said to his court, "Can we find another 39 like him in whom is the spirit of God?" Then Pharao said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no 40 one as intelligent and prudent as you; you shall be in charge of my palace and all my people shall obey your commands; only as regards the royal throne will I be greater than you." 41 Pharao continued, "I give you charge of the whole land of 42 Egypt." Taking the signet-ring from his own hand, he put it on Joseph's. He dressed him in linen robes, and put a chain of 43 gold around his neck. | He had him ride in his second chariot.
And they cried out before him, "Bow down." In this way he 44 put him in charge of the whole land of Egypt. Pharao said to Joseph, "I am Pharao; without your command, no one shall move hand or foot in the whole land of Egypt." 45 Then Pharao changed Joseph's name to Saphaneth-phanee, and gave to him in marriage Aseneth, daughter of Phutiphare, the priest of On. [Joseph made a tour of the land of Egypt.] 46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of 41, 45: Priest of On: i.e., of Heliopolis, a holy city of the sun god.

Pharao, king of Egypt. He left Pharao and traversed the whole land of Egypt.

47 The Years of Plenty and of Famine During the seven 48 years of plenty the land produced abundant crops. So he collected all the food of the seven years of plenty in the land of Egypt, and stored it in the cities, placing in each city the food 49 from the neighboring fields. Joseph heaped up grain in great quantities like the sands of the sea until he ceased measuring it, for it could not be measured.

50 Before the years of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph by Aseneth, daughter of Phutiphare, the priest of On.
51 Joseph named the first-born Manasse; "Because," he said, "God has made me forget entirely my sufferings and my family."
52 He named the second one Ephraim and said, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

53 When the seven years of plenty in the land of Egypt had 54 passed, | the seven years of famine began, as Joseph had foretold. There was famine in all other countries, while in all Egypt
55 there was food. But when the whole land of Egypt also was famished, the people cried to Pharao for food. Pharao said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do what he tells you."
56 When the famine had spread throughout the land, Joseph opened all the store-houses and sold grain to the Egyptians; 57 for the famine gripped the land of Egypt. And all peoples came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, for the famine was grievous everywhere.

42

1 First Visit of Joseph's Brothers When Jacob learned that 2 there was grain for sale in Egypt, he said to his sons, | "Why do you look at one another? I have heard there is grain for sale in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, that we may live
3 and not perish." So ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy 4 grain in Egypt; but Benjamin, Joseph's full brother, Jacob did not send with his brothers, for he thought some harm might 5 befall him. Thus the sons of Israel went with the other purchasers, because of the famine in the land of Chanaan.

6 Now Joseph was the governor of the land; it was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers also came 7 and prostrated themselves before him. Though Joseph saw his brothers, and recognized them, he acted as a stranger toward 41, 54: Egypt's proverbial fertility and wealth made it the "America of antiquity," but even Egypt suffered from famine at times.

them and spoke harshly to them. "Where do you come from?
he asked. They replied, "From the land of Chanaan, to bu food."
8 Joseph knew his brothers, but they did not recognize hin 9 Remembering the dreams he had once had about them, he saic
"You are spies; you have come to discover the weak spots o 10 the land." But they said to him, "No, my lord; your servant 11 have come to buy food. We are all sons of the same man. W 12 are honest; your servants are not spies." But he said to them "Not so, but you have come to discover the weak spots of th 13 country." They replied, "We, your servants, were twelve broth ers, the sons of the same man in the land of Chanaan. The youngest is at present with our father; another is no more." 14.15 As for my saying you are spies," Joseph rejoined, | "this shall be your test: as Pharao lives, you shall not leave this place until 16 your youngest brother comes here! Send one of your number to bring your brother while you others remain in bonds. Thus shall your statements be tested for their truth; if they are 17 untrue, as Pharao lives, you are spies!" Then he consigned them to custody for three days.

18 Simeon Kept as Hostage On the third day Joseph said to them, "If you do this, you shall live. I am a God-fearing man.
19 If you are honest, let one of your brothers remain confined in your prison, while the rest go and carry food for the needs of 20 your families. You shall bring me your youngest brother. Thus your words will be verified, and you shall not die." And they 21 agreed. | They said to one another. "Alas! we are guilty regarding our brother, whose anguish of heart we witnessed.
When he pleaded with us we did not heed; therefore this 22 anguish has come upon us." Ruben remarked, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not sin against the boy'? But you would not listen.
23 Now comes the reckoning for his blood!" They did not know that Joseph understood them, for an interpreter was employed.
24 Then Joseph withdrew from them and wept. When he returned he spoke with them; and taking Simeon from them, he bound him before their eyes.
25 When their bags were filled with grain, Joseph gave orders to put back every man's money in his sack, and to give them 26 provisions for the journey. After this was done for them, | they 27 loaded their asses with their grain, and departed. At the stopping-place, when one of them opened his sack to give fodder to his ass, he saw his money in the mouth of his sack, and 28 said to his brothers, | "My money has been returned! Here it is in my sack!" Mystified, they turned to one another trembling and said, "What has God done to us!"

29 When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Chanaan, 30 they told him all that had happened to them. "The man who is lord of the land," they said, "spoke harshly to us and regarded 31 us as spies of the country. But we said to him, 'We are honest 32 men, not spies; | we were twelve brothers, sons of the same father. One is no more, and the youngest is at present with our 33 father in the land of Chanaan.' Then this man who is lord of the land said to us, 'Hereby I shall know whether you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, take grain for the 34 needs of your families, and go your way. Bring your youngest brother to me, that I may know you are not spies but honest men. Then I will restore your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.' "

35 Jacob's Grief When they were emptying their sacks, there in each man's sack was his own purse! At the sight of their 36 purses, they and their father were dismayed. Their father, Jacob, said to them, "It is I whom you bereave. Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and now you would take Benjamin.
37 It is I upon whom all this falls!" | Ruben said to his father, "Put him in my charge and I will bring him back to you. You 38 may kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you." But Jacob said, "My son shall not go down with you. His brother is dead, and he alone remains. If any harm should befall him on the journey you must make, you would bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave."

43

1.2 Now the famine in the land was severe, so when they had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said 3 to them, "Go back and buy us some food." But Juda answered, "The man strictly warned us, 'You shall not appear in my 4 presence unless your brother is with you.' If you will let our brother accompany us, we will go down to buy food for you.
5 But if you do not let him, we will not go, because the man said to us, 'You shall not appear in my presence unless your 6 brother is with you.' " Israel replied, "Why did you wrong me 7 by telling the man you had another brother?" They answered, "The man questioned us in detail about ourselves and our 42, 38b: A common belief was that one's disposition in the afterlife would be just as it was at the moment of death. Jacob would be in perpetual mourning. See 37, 35.

family: 'Is your father still living? Have you another brother What we told him was in response to these questions. Cou we possibly know that he would say, 'Bring your broth down'?"

8 Then Juda said to his father Israel, "Let the boy go wit me, that we may begin our journey and save from death bot 9 you and ourselves, as well as our children. I will be surety fo him. Hold me responsible for him. If I do not bring him back t you and place him before you, I shall be guilty of a crim 10 against you all my life. Had we not delayed, we could by no 11 have made the journey twice." Their father Israel said to them
"If it must be so, then do this: take some of the country's bes products in your bags and bring them down to the man for gift: some balsam, syrup, gum, laudanum, pistachio nuts an 12 almonds. Also take double the money along; for you must re turn the money placed in the mouths of your sacks, in case 13 mistake was made. Take your brother too, and go back to the 14 man. May Almighty God give you favor with the man so tha he will release to you your other brother as well as Benjamin As for me, if I must be bereft, let me be bereft."

15 Second Visit to Egypt So the men took their gift, and taking double the money with them, they went with Benjamin 16 to Egypt and came before Joseph. When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his steward, "Bring the men into the house, and have an animal slaughtered and made ready, for 17 the men are to dine with me at noon." He did as Joseph 18 ordered, bringing the men to Joseph's house. They became frightened on being led to Joseph's house, and said, "It is on account of the money put back in our sacks the first time that we are brought in, so that he may seek an excuse to 19 enslave us by treachery, and take our asses." So they went to Joseph's steward and spoke to him at the entrance of 20 the house. "If you please, sir," they said, "once before we came 21 down to buy food; but when we reached the stopping-place and opened our sacks, there in the mouth of his sack was each one's money in full. But we have brought it back with us, 22 and also other money to buy food. We do not know who put 23 the money in our sacks." "Be calm," he replied; "have no fear.
Your God, the God of your father, put treasure in your sacks for you. I received your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

24 Joseph's Brothers Dine with Him The man brought them into Joseph's house, gave them water to wash their feet, 25 and fodder for their asses. Then they set out the present for Joseph's arrival at noon; for they had heard that they were to dine there.

26 When Joseph came home, they presented him with the gift they had with them in the house, and prostrated themselves 27 before him. He inquired about their health, and said, "Is your father, the old man of whom you spoke, in good health? Is he 28 still living?" | "Your servant, our father, is well; he is still 29 living," they said, bowing low to him. Then Joseph looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, the son of his own mother, and said, "So this is your youngest brother of whom you spoke to 30 me? God be gracious to you, my son," he continued. Thereupon Joseph broke off and was on the verge of tears, for his heart yearned for his brother. He retired to his room and wept.
31 Then he bathed his face and came out. Restraining himself, 32 he said, "Serve the meal." It was served separately for him, for them, and for his Egyptian guests, because the Egyptians may not eat with the Hebrews; this is abhorrent to the Egyptians.
33 They were seated in his presence in the order of age, from the oldest to the youngest; and at this they looked at one another 34 in amazement. Joseph had portions brought to them from his own table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any other's. They drank and became merry with him.

44

1 The Cup Found in Benjamin's Sack Joseph gave orders to his steward, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they will hold, and put each one's money in the mouth 2 of his sack; but in that of the youngest put my cup, the silver 3 cup, together with his money for the grain." The steward carried out Joseph's instructions. At daybreak the men were sent 4 off together with their asses. They had not gone far out of the city when Joseph said to his steward, "Go, follow the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you 5 returned evil for good? | Why have you stolen the silver cup from me? It is the very one from which my master drinks. He will certainly guess where it is. This is an evil thing that you have done.' "
6,7 When he overtook them he repeated these words; but they replied, "Why does my lord speak this way? Far be it from 8 your servants to do such a thing! We even brought back to you from the land of Chanaan the money we found in the mouths of our sacks. Would we then steal silver or gold from your 9 master's house? If it is found with any one of us, he shall die, 10 and we will be my lord's slaves." He replied, "Though it ought to be as you suggest, the one with whom it is found shall be m slave; and the rest of you shall go free." 11 Then each one of them quickly lowered his sack to the groun 12 and opened it. A search was made beginning with the oldes and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Ben 13 jamin's sack. Then they tore their garments, and having re 14 loaded the asses, returned to the city. Juda and his brother arrived at Joseph's house while he was still there, so they fel 15 to the ground before him. Joseph said to them, "What is thi you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I would guess correctly?" 16 Juda replied, "What can we say to my lord? How can we explain matters so as to clear ourselves? God has discovered the guilt of your servants. We are indeed the slaves of my lord, 17 both we and the one with whom the cup was found." "Far be it from me to act thus," said Joseph. "The one with whom the cup was found shall be my slave; as for the rest, go in peace to your father."

18 Then Juda approached him and said, "I beg you, my lord, let your servants speak to my lord, and let not your anger be aroused against your servants; you are as Pharao him-19 self. My lord asked his servants, 'Have you a father or a 20 brother?' And we answered my lord, 'We have an aged father, and a young brother, a child of his old age; his brother is dead, so that he is the only one left of his mother's children, 21 and his father loves him.' Then you said to your servants, 'Bring 22 him to me that I may look after him.' We told my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father; his father would die if he were to 23 leave him.' But you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes with you, you shall not come into my presence 24 again.' When we returned to your servant, my father, we re-25 ported to him the words of my lord. Later our father said, 'Go 26 back and buy some food for us.' But we answered, 'We cannot go. If our youngest brother is with us, we will go down; for we may not see the man unless our youngest brother is with us.' 27 Then your servant, my father, said to us, 'You know that my 28 wife bore me two sons; | one is gone from me, and I said: He 29 has surely been torn to pieces; I have not seen him since. If you take this one also from me, and some harm befalls him, you 44, 13: Tore their garments: a gesture of grief.

44, 16: God has discovered the guilt of your servants: according to the mentality of the times, this misfortune happened because they were in a state of sin. They are not thinking of the sin of having sold their brother.

30 will bring down my gray hairs in sorrow to the grave.' Now if I go to your servant, my father, and the boy is not with us—his life is so bound up with the life of the boy—he will die as 31 soon as he sees that the boy is not with us; and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant, our father, in 32 sorrow to the grave. However, your servant became surety for the boy to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back to you, 33 I will be guilty of a crime against you all my life.' Therefore, let your servant remain in place of the boy as a slave of my lord, 34 but let the boy return with his brothers. How can I return to my father without the boy? Never could I witness the anguish that would come to my father!"

45

1 Joseph Makes Himself Known Joseph could not control himself before all his attendants, so he exclaimed, "Let everyone withdraw from me." No one was with Joseph when he made 2 himself known to his brothers. He wept aloud so that the Egyp-3 tians heard it, and the household of Pharao heard it. | Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?"
But his brothers could not answer him because they were terri-4 fied in his presence. Then he said to them, "Come closer to me."
When they drew near, he continued, "I am your brother Joseph, 5 whom you sold into Egypt. Do not be distressed nor angry with yourselves that you sold me here; for God sent me before 6 you to save life. For two years now the famine has been in the land, and for five more years there will be neither plowing nor 7 reaping. God sent me before you to preserve a remnant for you 8 in the land, and to deliver you in a striking way. Not you but God sent me here, and made me a father to Pharao, lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

9 Joseph's Message to Jacob "Go quickly to my father and say to him, 'Your son Joseph sends you this message: God has made me master of all Egypt; come down to me, and do not 10 delay. You shall live in the land of Gesen and be near me, you, your sons, your grandsons, your flocks, your herds, and all 11 that belongs to you. Five years of famine are still to come. I will provide for you there, that you, and your household, and all 12 who belong to you may not be impoverished.' You yourselves see, and my brother Benjamin sees, that it is I who speak to you.
13 Tell my father of my splendor in Egypt, and of all that you 14 have seen. Hurry now and bring my father here." | Then

45, 5-8: See 37 n.

Joseph fell on the neck of his brother Benjamin and wept; ar 15 Benjamin wept on his neck. Joseph kissed all his brother weeping over each, and after that his brothers conversed wi him.
16 When the news was received at Pharao's house that Joseph brothers had arrived, Pharao and his court were please 17 Pharao said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: loa 18 your animals, be off to the land of Chanaan; | then come to m with your father and your families, and I will give you the be of the land of Egypt so that you shall eat the fat of the land 19 Give them this command also: 'Take carts from the land o Egypt for your little ones and your wives. Bring your fathe 20 and come. | Do not be concerned about your goods, for th best of the whole land of Egypt is yours.' " 21 The sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them carts as Pharao 22 had commanded, and provisions for the journey. He gave each of them one festal garment, but to Benjamin he gave three 23 hundred pieces of silver and five festal garments. Likewise to his father he sent ten asses loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses loaded with grain, bread and provi-24 sions for his father on the journey. Then he sent his brothers on their way; and as they departed he said to them, "Do not 25 quarrel on the way." So they went up from Egypt and came to 26 their father Jacob in the land of Chanaan. They told him, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." 27 But he was unmoved because he did not believe them. However, when they related to him all that Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts Joseph had sent to convey him, their fa-28 ther Jacob revived. | "It is enough," said Israel. "My son Joseph is still alive; I will go and see him before I die."

46

1 Jacob Goes to Egypt Israel set out with all that belonged to him; and when he arrived at Bersabee he offered sacrifices 2 to the God of his father Isaac. At night in a vision God said to 3 Israel, "Jacob, Jacob." And he answered, "Here I am." | Then he said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not fear to go 4 down to Egypt, for there I will make you a great people. I will go down to Egypt with you, and will surely bring you up again, after Joseph's hand has closed your eyes." 5 Jacob departed from Bersabee. The sons of Israel conveyed their father Jacob, their little ones, and their wives in the carts 6 Pharao had sent to transport him. They also took their stock and the goods they had got in the land of Chanaan; and Jacob 7 and all his descendants migrated to Egypt. With him were his sons and grandsons, his daughters and granddaughters; with all his descendants Jacob migrated to Egypt.

8 These are the names of the Israelites, Jacob and his descend-9 ants, who migrated to Egypt: Ruben, Jacob's first-born, | and 10 the sons of Ruben: Henoch, Phallu, Hesron and Charmi; | the sons of Simeon: Jamuel, Jamin, Ahod, Jachin, Sohar and Saul, 11 the son of a Chanaanite woman; | the sons of Levi: Gerson,
12 Caath and Merari; | the sons of Juda: Her, Onan, Sela, Phares and Zara, of whom Her and Onan, however, died in the land of Chanaan; and the sons of Phares were Hesron and 13 Hamul. The sons of Issachar: Thola, Phua, Jasub and Semron; 14.15 | the sons of Zabulon: Sared, Elon and Jahelel. These are the sons whom Lia bore to Jacob in Phaddan-Aram, together with his daughter Dina. The total number of these descendants, male and female, was thirty-three.
16 The sons of Gad: Sephon, Haggi, Suni, Esebon, Heri, Arodi 17 and Ariel. The sons of Aser: Jemna, Jesua, Jesui and Baria, with their sister Sara; and Baria's sons were Heber and 18 Melchiel. These are the descendants of Zelpha, whom Laban gave to his daughter Lia; these she bore to Jacob, sixteen persons in all.
19 The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.
20 Sons were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt, Manasse and Ephraim, whom Aseneth, the daughter of Phutiphare, the priest 21 of On, bore to him. The sons of Benjamin: Bala, Bechor, Asbel, 22 Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Ros, Mopphim, Hopphim and Ared. These are the descendants of Rachel who were born to Jacob, fourteen persons in all.
23.24 The son of Dan: Husim. The sons of Nęphthali: Jaseel, 25 Guni, Jeser and Sellum. These were the descendants of Bala, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel; these she bore to Jacob, seven persons in all.
26 The total number of persons belonging to Jacob (except his sons' wives) who came to Egypt, his direct descendants, was 27 sixty-six. The sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt were two; the total number of Jacob's household who migrated to Egypt was seventy.

28 Meeting of Jacob and Joseph Israel sent Juda ahead of him to Joseph, so that he would meet him in Gesen. On their 29 arrival in the land of Gesen, | Joseph made ready his chariot

46, 8ff: This is not a list of those who actually came down to Egypt with Jacob because, e.g., the sons of Juda—Her and Onan in v. 12—had already died. This list draws from older lists, especially Nm 26.

and rode to meet his father Israel in Gesen. When he met hi 30 he fell on his neck, weeping long in his arms. Israel said to J seph, "Now I can die, after seeing you still alive." 31 Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, ' shall go and inform Pharao, and say to him, 'My brothers an my father's household, who lived in the land of Chanaan, hav 32 come to me. The men are shepherds, for they breed livestocl
They have brought their flocks and herds and all their po 33 sessions.' Accordingly, when he summons you and asks, 'Wh 34 is your occupation?' | you must answer, 'We your servant have bred livestock from our youth until now, both we an our ancestors,' in order that you may sojourn in the land o Gesen." For shepherds are all repugnant to the Egyptians.

47

1 Settlement in Gesen Joseph came and told Pharao, "M father and brothers have come from the land of Chanaan with their flocks and herds and all their possessions, and they ar 2 now in the land of Gesen." He had selected five of his brothers 3 whom he presented to Pharao. When Pharao asked them
"What is your occupation?" they answered, "Your servants, 4 both we and our ancestors, are shepherds. We have come to sojourn in your land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, and the famine is severe in the land of Chanaan. Permit 5 your servants to settle in the land of Gesen." Pharao said to 6 Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. The land of Egypt is at your disposal. Settle your father and your brothers in the choicest section of the land. Let them live in the land of Gesen, and if you know of any able men among them, place them in charge of my own stock." 7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob, and presented him to 8 Pharao. Jacob greeted Pharao, | who said to him, "How old
9 are you?" | Jacob answered Pharao, "The length of my pilgrim age has been one hundred and thirty years; short and wretched has been my life, nor does it compare with the years my 10 fathers lived during their pilgrimage." Then Jacob bade Pharao good-by and left his presence.
11 Joseph settled his father and brothers in the land of Egypt, giving them property in the choicest section of the land, in the 12 district of Rameses, as Pharao had ordered. Joseph provided his father and brothers and all his father's household with 13 food, according to the number of their dependents. There was no food in the entire land, for the famine was very severe;

47, 11: Rameses: this name originated at a later date.

Egypt and Chanaan were languishing because of the famine.
14 Joseph collected all the money he found in Egypt and in Chanaan as payment for the grain that was bought, and he brought it to Pharao's palace.

15 The People Become Slaves When there was no more money in Egypt and Chanaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph clamoring, "Give us food lest we die in your presence; 16 we have no money." Joseph replied, "If you have no money bring me your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange 17 for it." So they brought their stock to Joseph, who bartered 18 food for horses, flocks, herds and asses. The year ended, and they came again the next year and said: "We cannot hide from my lord that our money is gone, and our livestock has come into the possession of my lord. There is nothing left for my 19 lord but our bodies and our land. Why should we and our land perish before your eyes? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we and our land will be the property of Pharao. Give us seed that we may live and not perish, and the land may not become a waste." 20 Joseph therefore bought all the land of Egypt for Pharao, for everyone of the Egyptians sold his field because the famine was 21 unbearable for them. Thus the land became Pharao's, | and from one end of Egypt to the other Joseph made the people 22 slaves. But the priests' lands he did not buy, because they had a stated allowance from Pharao, and lived on the allowance which Pharao granted them. Therefore they did not sell their land.
23 Joseph said to the people: "Today, indeed, I have bought you and your land for Pharao. Here is your seed to sow the 24 land. Of the produce you must give a fifth part of the crops to Pharao; four fifths are for yourselves for seeding and for food 25 for yourselves, your families and your dependents." They answered, "You have kept us alive; let us win the favor of my 26 lord, and we will be slaves of Pharao." So Joseph made it an ordinance for the land of Egypt, which holds to this day, that one fifth is Pharao's. Only the land of the priests did not become Pharao's.

27 Jacob's Death Approaches Now Israel dwelt in Egypt, in 47, 15-26: This tradition attributes the nationalized economy of Egypt to Joseph. We may think Joseph was a tyrant but the freedom-loving nomadic Israelites telling the story see humor in their Joseph being responsible for the Egyptian slave state.

the land of Gesen. They acquired property there, were fruitf 28 and became very numerous. Jacob lived seventeen years in land of Egypt, and the length of his life was one hundred a 29 forty-seven years. As the time approached for Israel to die, summoned his son Joseph and said to him, "If I find favor w you, put your hand under my thigh, and act kindly and fai 30 fully toward me. Do not bury me in Egypt, | but let me r with my fathers; carry me out of Egypt and bury me in th 31 sepulcher." He answered, "I will do as you say." Then Jac said, "Swear to me"; and Joseph swore to him. Then Isr bowed toward the head of the bed.

48

1 Jacob Adopts Joseph's Sons After these events it was r ported to Joseph, "Your father is ill." So he came to see Jaco 2 bringing along his two sons, Manasse and Ephraim. Whe Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has come to see you," Isra 3 rallied his strength and sat up in bed. Jacob said to Josep
"God Almighty appeared to me at Luza in the land of Chanaa 4 He blessed me | and said, 'I will make you fruitful and nume ous; I will make you many nations, and I will give this land t 5 your descendants after you as a possession for all time.' Ther fore I adopt your two sons who were born to you in the lan of Egypt before I joined you here. Ephraim and Manasse sha 6 be mine even as Ruben and Simeon. The children born to yo after them shall be yours, and they shall be named after thei 7 brothers and included in their inheritance. And as for me, whe
I was returning from Phaddan, to my sorrow Rachel die during the journey in the land of Chanaan, a short distanc from the environs of Ephratha. And I buried her there on th road to Ephratha, that is, Bethlehem." 8 When Israel saw Joseph's sons and asked, "Who are these?"
9 | Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God ha given me here." Then he said, "Bring them to me that I may 10 bless them." Now Israel's eyes were dim from old age so that h could not see. Joseph brought them near him, and he kissed and 11 embraced them. Then Israel said to Joseph, "I had no hope o 47, 29: Under my thigh: see 24, 2 n.

47, 31: Toward the head of the bed: in an act of thanksgiving.

48, 1-22: The repetitions and abrupt breaks in this chapter indicate that this is a small mosaic of several different traditions. They want to explain why Joseph's two sons became fathers of two tribes thus acquiring the same dignity as Jacob's other sons, and why Ephraim surpassed Manasse in becoming the most important northern tribe.

48, 7: Phaddan: see 25, 20 n.

ever seeing you, and now God has allowed me to see your children as well."

Joseph took them away from his knees, and prostrated himself before him with his face to the ground. Afterward Joseph took the two of them, Ephraim on his right at Israel's left, Manasse on his left at Israel's right, and led them to him. But Israel stretched out his right hand and placed it on the head of Ephraim, though he was the younger, and his left hand on Manasse's head—thus crossing his hands—although Manasse was the first-born. Blessing Joseph, he said, "May the God in whose presence my fathers Abraham and Isaac lived, the God who had been my shepherd all my life until this day, | the angel who has delivered me from all evil, bless the boys; that my name and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac be preserved through them; and may they grow in numbers on the earth.

When Joseph saw that his father had placed his right hand on Ephraim's head, he was displeased, so he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to that of Manasse. He said to his father, "That is not right, father, for this one is the first-born; put your right hand on his head." | But his father refused. "I know, my son, I know," he said. "He too shall become a people; he too shall be great; but his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations." So he blessed them that day and said, "By you shall the people of Israel pronounce blessings, saying, 'God make you like Ephraim and Manasse' "; thus placing Ephraim ahead of Manasse.

Then Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die. But God will be with you, and will lead you back to the land of your fathers; I give you one more portion than your brothers, which I captured from the Amorrites with my sword and bow."

49

Jacob Prophesies of His Sons Then Jacob summoned his sons and said: "Come together, I will tell you what shall befall you in days to come.

48, 12: From his knees: see 30, 3 n.
48, 16: The angel: see 16, 1-15 n.
48, 22: One more portion: the tradition here pictures Jacob portioning the Promised Land. Which I captured: not mentioned elsewhere in Genesis. Amorrites: a synonymn for Chanaanites.
49, 1-33: The final edition dates from king David's time (1000-961 B.C.), about 700 years after Jacob died. There are uncertain meanings in this chapter because of archaic Hebrew words, because of enigmas

2 "Gather together and listen, you sons of Jacob, listen
3 Israel your father. | Ruben, you are my first-born, my stren the first-fruit of my manhood, exceedingly proud, exceedin 4 fierce. | Unstable as water, never first shall you be, for y father's bed you did ascend; him have I degraded who w up to my couch.
5 "Simeon and Levi, brothers indeed, weapons of violence 6 their swords. | My soul, never enter their company, never in their assembly, my spirit! Because in their fury they sl 7 men, in their willfulness they hamstrung oxen. | Cursed their fury because it is violent, their rage because it is cruel will disperse them in Jacob, I will scatter them in Israel.
8 "Juda, your brothers shall praise you; your hand shall on the neck of your enemies; the sons of your father shall b 9 down to you. | A lion's whelp is Juda; from the prey you ha gone up, my son. He crouches and couches as a lion; as lioness, and who will disturb him?
10 "The sceptre shall not depart from Juda, nor the staff fro between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs. To hi 11 shall be the obedience of nations. | He tethers his ass to t vine; his ass's colt to the choicest vine. He washes his garment 12 wine, his robe in the blood of grapes. | His eyes are dark than wine, his teeth whiter than milk.

---

characteristic of this prophetic type of literature, and because th Hebrew has not been well preserved. This chapter is often compare with the tribal lists in Jgs 5, 14-18, and especially Dt 33. See map
The Allotment of Chanaan to the Twelve Tribes, p. 381.

49, 4: See 35, 22.

49, 5-6: See 34, 25-31.

49, 7: The Simeon tribe was soon absorbed by Juda. The Levi trib dispersed as priests among the other tribes.

49, 8-9: These Hebraisms announce the superiority of the Juda trib

49, 10: This is a traditional Messianic text held by Christians an Jews. Nor the staff from between his feet: the ruler held the staff o authority in front of himself as he sat on his throne. Until he come Juda's power will not end when he, i.e., king David comes, but it wi continue after him. To whom it belongs: the political power belongs t David. On the occasion of David's rising ascendancy over the othe tribes and the increasing importance among surrounding nations, he i here referred to as a type of the Messia. The prophecy does not refe directly to Christ the Messia of one thousand years later. It refers t Christ only insofar as He is prefigured in the David from whose lin Christ will descend.

49, 11: Grapevines will be so abundant that they will be used to tie beast. Wine will be so plentiful that it will be used to wash clothes. Th material abundance of Messianic times is described by wine and milk

13 "Zabulon shall dwell by the seashore; and he shall be by the shore of ships, with his flank toward Sidon.
14 "Issachar is a sturdy ass, among the stock-pens he lies. | 15 He saw that settled life was good, and that the land was pleasant; he bowed his shoulder to bear burdens, and became a slave under taskwork.
16 "Dan shall achieve justice for his people, like any tribe of 17 Israel. | Dan shall be a serpent by the road, a viper by the path; biting at the hoofs of the horse, so that the rider tumbles backward.
18 "[Thy salvation, O Lord, I wait for!] 19 "Gad, raiders shall raid him; but he shall raid their rear.
20 "Aser, his food shall be rich; he shall provide dainties for kings.
21 "Nephthali is a deer set free, [that bears fair fawns].
22 "Joseph is a young fruit tree, a young fruit tree near the 23 spring, with branches climbing over the wall. | Against him in 24 bitterness they fought; archers assailed him. | but his bow remained firm, his strong arms supple, by the strength of the Mighty One of Jacob; by the name of the Shepherd, the Rock 25 of Israel; | by the God of your father, may he help you; by the God, the Omnipotent, may he bless you, with the blessings of the skies above, the blessings of the abyss couching beneath, 26 the blessings of the breasts and womb; | the blessings of your father surpass the blessings of my forebears to the limit of the timeless hills. May they rest on the head of Joseph, and on the brow of the prince among his brothers.
27 "Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; devouring prey in the morning, and at evening dividing spoil."

28 Jacob's Last Words: His Death All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them. He 29 blessed them, and gave each his proper blessing. He gave them

49, 13: This is not a prophecy about Zabulon because only its geographical site is mentioned.
49, 14-15: Issachar fell captive to the soft Chanaanite way of life.
49, 16: Dan obtained its independence through craftiness.
49, 19: Gad had to defend itself against the raids of the nomads.
49, 20: Aser: this tribe is situated in fertile territory.
49, 21-24: The Hebrew text and its meanings are uncertain. Joseph: represents the two tribes Ephraim and Manasse. Shepherd, the Rock of Israel: epithets of Yahweh, God.
49, 25: Blessings of the abyss couching beneath: the fertility of the waters beneath the earth are represented as a couched monster.
49, 27: Benjamin: was a warlike tribe.

this charge, "I am about to be gathered to my people. B me with my fathers in the cave which is in the field of Ephr 30 the Hethite, | the cave in the field of Machphela, facing Ma in the land of Chanaan. Abraham bought it from Ephron, Hethite, together with the field, for use as a burial grou 31 There Abraham and his wife Sara are buried; there Isaac his wife Rebecca are buried; and it was there I buried Li 32 [The field with its cave was purchased from the Hethites.] 33 When Jacob had finished giving directions to his sons, drew up his feet into the bed and expired. And he was gathe to his people.

50

1 Jacob Mourned in Egypt Joseph fell on his father's fa 2 weeping over him and kissing him. Then he ordered 3 physicians among his servants to embalm his father. Th embalmed Israel, spending forty days at it, for it takes th much time to embalm. And the Egyptians mourned Israel seventy days.

4 Buried in Chanaan When the days of mourning him h passed, Joseph said to Pharao's household, "If I find favor wi 5 you, say to Pharao | that my father at the point of dea made me promise on oath to bury him in the sepulcher that dug for himself in the land of Chanaan. Now therefore I b 6 to go up to bury my father, and I will return." Pharao replie "Go up, and bury your father as he made you swear." 7 So Joseph went up to bury his father, and all Pharao's ser ants, the elders of his household and all the elders of the lan 8 of Egypt went with him, together with all of Joseph's hous hold, his brothers, and all his father's household. They le only their children, their flocks and their herds in the land 9 Gesen. Chariots and charioteers too went up with him, so th there was a very large caravan.
10 When they arrived at Goren-Atad, which is beyond th Jordan, they held an exceedingly great lamentation ther 11 And Joseph mourned his father for seven days. | When th inhabitants of the land, the Chanaanites, noticed the mourn ing at Goren-Atad, they said, "That is a solemn mournin the Egyptians are observing." Therefore it was named Abel 12 Mesraim, which is beyond the Jordan. Jacob's sons did fo 13 him what he had commanded them. They carried him into th land of Chanaan, and buried him in the cave in the field o Machphela, facing Mamre. Both the cave and the field Abra ham had bought from Ephron, the Hethite, for use as a burial ground.

14 Joseph Reassures His Brothers After Joseph had buried his father, he returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who 15 had gone up with him to bury his father. Joseph's brothers were fearful after their father's death, and said, "What if Joseph should hate us, and pay us back for all the harm we 16 did him!" So they sent this message to Joseph, "Before he 17 died, your father gave us this command, | 'Thus shall you say to Joseph: Jacob begs you to forgive your brothers' crime, and the sin they committed in doing you harm.' Now we also pray that you forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your 18 father." Joseph wept over their message to him. Then his brothers came to him in person and prostrated themselves be-19 fore him, saying, "We are your slaves." | But Joseph said to 20 them, "Do not fear; can I take the place of God? You intended evil against me, but God intended it for good, to do as he has done today, namely, to save the lives of many people.
21 Therefore do not fear. I will provide for you and your dependents." Thus he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

22 Last Days and Death of Joseph Joseph remained in Egypt with all his father's household. He lived one hundred and ten 23 years. He saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The sons of Machir too, the son of Manasse, were born on Joseph's knees.

24 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will certainly come to you and lead you up from this land to the land which he promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and 25 Jacob." Joseph made the sons of Israel swear that, when God should come to them, they would carry his bones with them from that place.

26 Joseph died at the age of one hundred and ten years. He was embalmed and placed in a coffin in Egypt.

50, 20: See 37 n.

50, 22: One hundred and ten years: the Egyptian expression for a very happy life.

THE BOOK OF EXODUS

INTRODUCTION

Exodus owes its name to the first main theme of the book, tl Israelites' exit from Egypt under the leadership of Moses. The se ond theme is the making of the Covenant between God and H people at Mount Sinai.

The Book of Exodus is not compiled from eyewitness reports, nc from written accounts. The writers do not intend a verbatim repo when they put words on the Pharao's lips (1, 9-10) nor when the "quote" a conversation between Pharao and Moses. This is a dramati technique to enliven the narrative. Furthermore, Catholic scholars ar gradually rallying to the opinion that Ex 1—15 were written accordin to the way the liturgy commemorated the Exodus from Egypt.

Exodus is a knitting together of the Yahwist tradition (tenth cen tury B.C.), the Elohist tradition (eighth century B.C.), and th Priestly tradition (sixth century B.C.). See: Introduction to th Pentateuch. The Book of Exodus itself probably came together i the sixth century B.C. The events described happened in the thir teenth century B.C. Therefore the oldest account was written abou three hundred years after the event. The writer of this religious epi assembled his material guided by one all-surpassing idea—God savec His people. Although we can not prove the events of Exodus di rectly by showing the same events mentioned in writings other than the Bible, we do have indirect proof. First: we know that the events narrated in Exodus fit in very well with the contemporary customs and secular history of Egypt and Palestine of the thirteenth century B.C. Secondly, if these events and the existence of Moses were de nied, how could it be explained, then, why the people remained faithful to God through the law of Moses?

The events of Exodus made a deep impression on the Old Testa ment writers. Many New Testament writers interpreted the Exodus events as types of Baptism and the Holy Eucharist. The Fathers of the Church followed the New Testament leads in their catechetical instructions. Finally, the liturgy of the Church continues this tradition by using the Exodus theme, especially during the Easter season.

Main divisions of the Book of Exodus are:

1. The Israelites in Egypt, 1, 1—12, 36
2. The Exodus from Egypt and the Journey to Sinai, 12, 37—18, 27
3. The Covenant at Mount Sinai, 19, 1—24, 18
4. The Dwelling and Its Furnishings, 25, 1—40, 38

I. THE ISRAELITES IN EGYPT

1

1 Jacob's Descendants in Egypt These are the names of the sons of Israel who, accompanied by their households, mi-2 grated with Jacob into Egypt: | Ruben, Simeon, Levi and
3-4 Juda; | Issachar, Zabulon and Benjamin; | Dan and Neph-
5 thali; Gad and Aser. The total number of direct descendants 6 Now Joseph and all his brothers and that whole generation of Jacob was seventy. Joseph was already in Egypt.
7 died. But the Israelites were fruitful and prolific. They became so numerous and strong that the land was filled with them.

8 The Oppression Then a new king, who knew nothing of 9 Joseph, came to power in Egypt. He said to his subjects, "Look how numerous and powerful the Israelite people are growing, 10 more so than we ourselves! Come, let us deal shrewdly with them to stop their increase; otherwise, in time of war they too may join our enemies to fight against us, and so leave our country."
11 Accordingly, taskmasters were set over the Israelites to oppress them with forced labor. Thus they had to build for 12 Pharao the supply cities of Phithom and Rameses. Yet the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread.
13 The Egyptians, then, dreaded the Israelites | and reduced them 14 to cruel slavery, making life bitter for them with hard work in mortar and brick and all kinds of field work—the whole cruel fate of slaves.

15 Command to the Midwives The king of Egypt told the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was called Sephra and the 16 other Phua, "When you act as midwives for the Hebrew women and see them giving birth, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is 17 a girl, she may live." The midwives, however, feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt had ordered them, but 18 let the boys live. So the king summoned the midwives and 1, 8-10: The Semitic Hyksos people ruled Egypt from 1720 to 1560 B.C. It is generally believed among present-day scholars that the Hyksos were not a foreign unknown nation but that they were Palestinian petty chiefs seeking new lands who slowly infiltrated the Egyptian Delta. The Joseph story (Gn 37—50) fits in well during this period. But after Joseph's time, the Egyptians' hatred of the foreign Hyksos may have easily extended to the Israelites who lived in the northeastern Delta, the land of Gesen.

asked them, "Why have you acted thus, allowing the boys 19 live?" The midwives answered Pharao, "The Hebrew wom are not like the Egyptian women. They are robust and g 20 birth before the midwife arrives." Therefore God dealt w with the midwives. The people, too, increased and grew strong 21 And because the midwives feared God, he built up families f 22 them. Pharao then commanded all his subjects, "Throw in the river every boy that is born to the Hebrews, but you may all the girls live."

2

1 Birth and Adoption of Moses Now a certain man of t 2 house of Levi married a Levite woman, who conceived a bore a son. Seeing that he was a goodly child, she hid him f 3 three months. When she could hide him no longer, she took papyrus basket, daubed it with bitumen and pitch, and puttir the child in it, placed it among the reeds on the river ban 4 His sister stationed herself at a distance to find out wh would happen to him.
5 Pharao's daughter came down to the river to bathe, whi her maids walked along the river bank. Noticing the baske 6 among the reeds, she sent her handmaid to fetch it. On oper ing it, she looked, and lo, there was a baby boy, crying! Sh was moved with pity for him and said, "It is one of the He 7 brews' children." Then his sister asked Pharao's daughter "Shall I go and call one of the Hebrew women to nurse th 8 child for you?" "Yes, do so," she answered. So the maider 9 went and called the child's own mother. Pharao's daughter sai to her, "Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will repa 10 you." The woman therefore took the child and nursed it. Wher the child grew, she brought him to Pharao's daughter, wh adopted him as her son and called him Moses; for she said, " drew him out of the water."

11 Moses' Flight to Madian On one occasion, after Mose had grown up, when he visited his kinsmen and witnessed their forced labor, he saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one 12 of his own kinsmen. Looking about and seeing no one, he slew 13 the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. The next day he went out again, and now two Hebrews were fighting! So he asked

1, 22: According to another better opinion, the Pharao of the oppression was Sethi I (1308-1290 B.C.).

2, 1-10: There is a similar account of the birth of Sargon of Akkad about 2400 B.C. However, the Moses account does not seem to depend on it.

14 the culprit, "Why are you striking your fellow Hebrew?" But he replied, "Who has appointed you ruler and judge over us?
Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses became afraid and thought, "The affair must certainly be known."
15 Pharao, too, heard of the affair and sought to put him to death. But Moses fled from him and stayed in the land of 16 Madian. As he was seated there by a well, | seven daughters of a priest of Madian came to draw water and fill the troughs 17 to water their father's flock. But some shepherds came and drove them away. Then Moses got up and defended them 18 and watered their flock. When they returned to their father Raguel, he said to them, "How is it you have returned so 19 soon today?" They answered, "An Egyptian saved us from the interference of the shepherds. He even drew water for us 20 and watered the flock!" "Where is the man?" he asked his daughters. "Why did you leave him there? Invite him to have 21 something to eat." | Moses agreed to live with him, and the 22 man gave him his daughter Sepphora in marriage. She bore him a son, whom he named Gersam; for he said, "I am a stranger in a foreign land."

23 The Burning Bush A long time passed, during which the king of Egypt died. Still the Israelites groaned and cried out because of their slavery. As their cry for release went up to 24 God, he heard their groaning and was mindful of his cove-25 nant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. He saw the Israelites and knew. . . .

3

1 Meanwhile Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Madian. Leading the flock across the desert, 2 he came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There an angel of the Lord appeared to him in fire flaming out of a bush. As he 3 looked on, he was surprised to see that the bush, though on fire, was not consumed. So Moses decided, "I must go over to look at this remarkable sight, and see why the bush is not burned."

4 The Call of Moses When the Lord saw him coming over to look at it more closely, God called out to him from the 2, 15: Madian: near the Gulf of Aqaba, a refuge for outlaws.

3, 1: Jethro: according to 2, 18, his name is Raguel. The five thousand Druses, Islamic sectarians, of present-day Israel regard him as their ancestor.

3, 2: An angel of the Lord: the Lord. See Gn 16, 1-15 n.

bush, "Moses! Moses!" He answered, "Here I am." God s "Come no nearer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for place where you stand is holy ground. I am the God of y father," he continued, "the God of Abraham, the God Isaac, the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face, for he was afr to look at God. But the Lord said, "I have witnessed the aff tion of my people in Egypt and have heard their cry of co plaint against their slave drivers, so I know well what they suffering. Therefore I have come down to rescue them fr the hands of the Egyptians and lead them out of that la into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk a honey, the country of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorrit Pherezites, Hevites and Jebusites. So indeed the cry of t Israelites has reached me, and I have truly noted that t Egyptians are oppressing them. | Come, now! I will send you Pharao to lead my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."
But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go Pharao and lead the Israelites out of Egypt?" He answered, will be with you; and this shall be your proof that it is I wh have sent you: when you bring my people out of Egypt, yo will worship God on this very mountain." "But," said Mos to God, "when I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The Go of your fathers has sent me to you,' if they ask me, 'What his name?' what am I to tell them?" | God replied, "I a who am." Then he added, "This is what you shall tell th Israelites: I AM sent me to you."
God spoke further to Moses, "Thus shall you say to th Israelites: The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God o Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, has sent me t you. This is my name forever; this is my title for all generat tions.
"Go and assemble the elders of the Israelites, and tell them

3, 8: Milk and honey: this frequent expression means that in com parison with the rigid living conditions inflicted on them in Egyp Chanaan will give liberty and especially an abundance of good Hethites: the biblical term for Hittites.

3, 14: I am who am: there is no agreement among scholars on th meaning of the divine name Yahweh. One opinion is that the wor means "He who causes to be." Another opinion holds that God is reall saying "Never mind what my name is—I am Who am." When Go speaks of Himself He says "I am"; when others use His name it is in th third person—"He is" or in Hebrew YaHWeH. The four consonants i capital letters have become known as the Tetragrammaton (a Greek wor meaning four letters). The correct pronunciation is "Yahweh." Hebrew scholars agree that the mistaken pronunciation "Jehovah" erroneousl used by Jehovah's Witnesses dates from the early Middle Ages.

The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, has appeared to me and said: I am concerned about you and about the way you are being treated in Egypt; 17 so I have decided to lead you up out of the misery of Egypt into the land of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorrites, Pherezites, Hevites and Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.
18 "Thus they will heed your message. Then you and the elders of Israel shall go to the king of Egypt and say to him:
'The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, has sent us word. Permit us, then, to go a three days' journey in the desert, that we may offer sacrifice to the Lord, our God.
19 "Yet I know that the king of Egypt will not allow you to 20 go unless he is forced. I will stretch out my hand, therefore, and smite Egypt by doing all kinds of wondrous deeds there. After 21 that he will send you away. | I will even make the Egyptians so well-disposed toward this people that, when you leave, you 22 will not go empty-handed. Every woman shall ask her neighbor and her house guest for silver and gold articles and for clothing to put on your sons and daughters. Thus you will despoil the Egyptians."

4

1 Confirmation of Moses' Mission "But," objected Moses, "suppose they will not believe me, nor listen to my plea? For 2 they may say, 'The Lord did not appear to you.' " The Lord therefore asked him, "What is that in your hand?" "A staff," he 3 answered. The Lord then said, "Throw it on the ground." When he threw it on the ground it was changed into a serpent, and 4 Moses shied away from it. "Now, put out your hand," the Lord said to him, "and take hold of its tail." So he put out his hand and laid hold of it, and it became a staff in his hand.
5 "This will take place so that they may believe," he continued,
"that the Lord, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, did appear to you."

3, 18-20: Pharao will be asked by Moses for permission to lead the people "a three days' journey," i.e., a considerable march in the desert to sacrifice in thanksgiving for this visit of God to Moses as chief of the people. The request will ultimately be for a permanent leave.

4, 1-9: The best proof to the Israelites that their God sent Moses was to have Moses perform the same "tricks" as the Egyptian magicians, at least relative to the staff changed into a serpent. This trick will later be performed for the benefit of the Egyptians in 7, 8-13. This sign would convince the Israelites, according to the mentality of the day, that their God was not inferior to the Egyptian gods. Vv. 30-31 tell that the people did believe in these signs.

6 Again the Lord said to him, "Put your hand in your boson
He put it in his bosom, and when he withdrew it, to his su 7 prise his hand was leprous, like snow. The Lord then sai "Now, put your hand back in your bosom." Moses put his hai back in his bosom, and when he withdrew it, to his surprise 8 was again like the rest of his body. "If they will not believe yo nor heed the message of the first sign, they should believe th 9 message of the second. And if they will not believe even the two signs, nor heed your plea, take some water from the riv and pour it on the dry land. The water you take from th river will become blood on the dry land."

10 Aaron's Office as Assistant Moses, however, said to th Lord, "If you please, Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither i the past, nor recently, nor now that you have spoken to you 11 servant; but I am slow of speech and tongue." The Lord sai to him, "Who gives one man speech and makes another dea and dumb? Or who gives sight to one and makes another blind 12 Is it not I, the Lord? | Go, then! It is I who will assist you i 13 speaking and will teach you what you are to say." Yet he in 14 sisted, "If you please, Lord, send someone else!" Then the Lor became angry with Moses and said, "Have you not you brother, Aaron the Levite? I know that he is an eloquent 15 speaker. Besides, he is now on his way to meet you. You are to speak to him, then, and put the words in his mouth. I will assist both you and him in speaking and will teach the two of 16 you what you are to do. He shall speak to the people for you;
he shall be your spokesman, and you shall be as God to him.
17 Take this staff in your hand; with it you are to perform the signs."

18 Moses' Return to Egypt After this Moses returned to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, "Let me go back, please, to my kinsmen in Egypt, to see whether they are still living." 19 Jethro replied, "Go in peace." In Madian the Lord said to Moses, "Go back to Egypt, for all the men who sought your life 20 are dead." So Moses took his wife and his sons, and started back to the land of Egypt, with them riding the ass. The staff of 21 God he carried with him. The Lord said to him, "On your return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharao all the wonders I have put in your power. I will make him obstinate, how-22 ever, so that he will not let the people go. So you shall say to 23 Pharao: Thus says the Lord: Israel is my son, my first-born.

4, 6-7: Leprous: in Hebrew the word may also mean a skin disease.

Hence I tell you: Let my son go, that he may serve me. If you refuse to let him go, I warn you, I will kill your son, your first-born."
24 On the journey, at a place where they spent the night, the 25 Lord came upon Moses and would have killed him. But Sep-phora took a piece of flint and cut off her son's foreskin and touching his feet, she said, "You are a spouse of blood to me." 26 | Then God let Moses go. At that time she said, "A spouse of blood," in regard to the circumcision.
27 The Lord said to Aaron, "Go into the desert to meet Moses."
So he went, and when they met at the mountain of God, Aaron 28 kissed him. Moses informed him of all the Lord had said in sending him, and of the various signs he had enjoined upon 29 him. Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders 30 of the Israelites. Aaron told them everything the Lord had said 31 to Moses, and he performed the signs before the people. The people believed, and when they heard that the Lord was concerned about them and had seen their affliction, they bowed down in worship.

5

1 Pharao's Obduracy After that, Moses and Aaron went to Pharao and said, "Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Let my people go, that they may celebrate a feast to me in the des-2 ert." Pharao answered, "Who is the Lord, that I should heed his plea to let Israel go? I do not know the Lord; even if I did, I 3 would not let Israel go." They replied, "The God of the Hebrews has sent us word. Let us go a three days' journey in the desert, that we may offer sacrifice to the Lord, our God; otherwise he will punish us with pestilence or the sword." 4 The king of Egypt answered them, "What do you mean, Moses and Aaron, by taking the people away from their work?
5 Off to your labor! | Look how numerous the people of the land are already," continued Pharao, "and yet you would give them rest from their labor!"
6 That very day Pharao gave the taskmasters and foremen 7 of the people this order: "You shall no longer supply the people with straw for their brickmaking as you have previously

4, 24-26: This obscure episode may mean that God was going to kill Moses because he was not circumcised. You are a spouse of blood to me: i.e., in contrast to my son whom I really circumcised, you are circumcised through blood. Sepphora says this because she administered a substitute circumcision to Moses by touching his "feet" with the foreskin of her son. ("Feet" is a euphemism for the male organ.) Then God let Moses go: i.e., Moses' life was spared.

8 done. Let them go and gather straw themselves! Yet y shall levy upon them the same quota of bricks as they ha previously made. Do not reduce it. They are lazy; that is w 9 they are crying, 'Let us go to offer sacrifice to our God.' I crease the work for the men, so that they keep their mind on and pay no attention to lying words." 10 So the taskmasters and foremen of the people went out a told them, "Thus says Pharao: I will not provide you wi 11 straw. Go and gather the straw yourselves, wherever you c find it. Yet there must not be the slightest reduction in yo 12 work." The people, then, scattered throughout the land 13 Egypt to gather stubble for straw, while the taskmasters ke driving them on, saying, "Finish your work, the same dai amount as when your straw was supplied."

14 Complaint of the Foremen The foremen of the Israelite whom the taskmasters of Pharao had placed over them, wer beaten, and were asked, "Why have you not completed you prescribed amount of bricks yesterday and today, as before?
15 Then the Israelite foremen came and made this appeal t 16 Pharao: "Why do you treat your servants in this manner? N straw is supplied to your servants, and still we are told t make bricks. Look how your servants are beaten! It is yo 17 who are at fault." Pharao answered, "It is just because yo are lazy that you keep saying, 'Let us go and offer sacrifice t 18 the Lord.' | Off to work, then! Straw shall not be provide for you, but you must still deliver your quota of bricks." 19 The Israelite foremen knew they were in a sorry plight, havin 20 been told not to reduce the daily amount of bricks. When therefore, they left Pharao and came upon Moses and Aaron 21 who were waiting to meet them, | they said to them, "The Lord look upon you and judge! You have brought us into bad odor with Pharao and his servants and have put a sword in their hands to slay us."

22 Renewal of God's Promise Moses again had recourse to the Lord and said, "Lord, why do you treat this people so 23 badly? And why did you send me on such a mission? Ever since I went to Pharao to speak in your name, he has maltreated this people of yours, and you have done nothing to rescue them."

6 1 Then the Lord answered Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharao. Forced by my mighty hand, he will send them away; compelled by my outstretched arm, he will drive them from his land."

2 1 God also said to Moses, "I am the Lord. As God the Almighty I appeared to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, but my name, 4 Lord, I did not make known to them. I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Chanaan, the 5 land in which they were living as aliens. And now that I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are 6 treating as slaves, I am mindful of my covenant. Therefore, say to the Israelites: I am the Lord. I will free you from the forced labor of the Egyptians and will deliver you from their slavery.
I will rescue you by my outstretched arm and with mighty acts 7 of judgment. I will take you as my own people, and you shall have me as your God. You will know that I, the Lord, am your God when I free you from the labor of the Egyptians 8 and bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I will give it to you as your own posses-9 sion—I, the Lord!" But when Moses told this to the Israelites, they would not listen to him because of their dejection and hard slavery.

10 11 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Go and tell Pharao, king 12 of Egypt, to let the Israelites leave his land. But Moses protested to the Lord, "If the Israelites would not listen to me, how can it be that Pharao will listen to me, poor speaker 13 that I am!" Still, the Lord, to bring the Israelites out of Egypt, spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them his orders regarding both the Israelites and Pharao, king of Egypt.

Genealogy of Moses and Aaron These are the heads of 14 the ancestral houses. The sons of Ruben, the first-born of Israel, were Henoch, Phallu, Hesron and Charmi; these are the clans 15 of Ruben. The sons of Simeon were Jamuel, Jamin, Ahod, Jachin, Sohar and Saul, who was the son of a Chanaanite woman; 16 these are the clans of Simeon. The names of the sons of Levi, in their genealogical order, are Gerson, Caath and Merari.
Levi lived one hundred and thirty-seven years.

17 These sons of Gerson, as heads of clans, were Lebni and 18 Semei. The sons of Caath were Amram, Isaar, Hebron and 6, 1-13: This is another account of Moses' vocation, parallel to chs. 3 and 4. One difference is that in this text the purpose of the Exodus is not to offer sacrifice in the desert (3, 18), but to lead the people to the Promised Land (v. 8.).

6, 7: My own people . . . your God: this touching phrase is frequently found in the Pentateuch and in some later biblical prophets.

6, 14-27: See Gn 46, 8ff n.

19 Oziel. Caath lived one hundred and thirty-three years. | T sons of Merari were Moholi and Musi. These are the clans Levi in their genealogical order.
20 Amram married his aunt Jochabed, who bore him Aaro Moses and Mariam. Amram lived one hundred and thirt 21 seven years. The sons of Isaar were Core, Napheg and Zech 22 The sons of Oziel were Misael, Elisaphan and Sethr 23 Aaron married Amminadab's daughter, Elisabe, the sister Nahasson; she bore him Nadab, Abiu, Eleazar and Ithama 24 The sons of Core were Asir, Elcana and Abiasaph. These are th 25 clans of the Corites. Aaron's son, Eleazar, married one of Phu tiel's daughters, who bore him Phinees. These are the heads 26 the ancestral clans of the Levites. This is the Aaron and th the Moses to whom the Lord said, "Lead the Israelites fro 27 the land of Egypt, company by company." These are the one who spoke to Pharao, king of Egypt, to bring the Israelites ou of Egypt—the same Moses and Aaron.

28 Moses and Aaron before Pharao On the day the Lor 29 spoke to Moses in Egypt | he said, "I am the Lord. Repeat t 30 Pharao king of Egypt, all that I tell you." But Moses protested to the Lord, "Since I am a poor speaker, how can it be tha Pharao will listen to me?"

7

1 The Lord answered him, "See! I have made you as God t Pharao, and Aaron your brother shall act as your prophet 2 You shall tell him all that I command you. In turn, your brother Aaron shall tell Pharao to let the Israelites leave his 3 land. Yet I will make Pharao so obstinate that, despite the many signs and wonders that I will work in the land of Egypt, 4 | he will not listen to you. Therefore I will lay my hand on Egypt and by great acts of judgment I will bring the hosts of 5 my people, the Israelites, out of the land of Egypt, so that the Egyptians may learn that I am the Lord, as I stretch out my hand against Egypt and lead the Israelites out of their midst." 6 Moses and Aaron did as the Lord had commanded them.
7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharao.

8 The Staff Turned into a Snake The Lord told Moses and 9 Aaron, "If Pharao demands that you work a sign or wonder,

7, 8-13: Even today Egyptian snake charmers can still "charm" snakes into rigidity and release them. See 4, 1-9 n.

you shall say to Aaron: Take your staff and throw it down 10 before Pharao, and it will be changed into a snake." Then Moses and Aaron went to Pharao and did as the Lord had commanded. Aaron threw his staff down before Pharao and 11 his servants, and it was changed into a snake. Pharao, in turn, summoned wise men and sorcerers, and they also, the magi-12 cians of Egypt, did likewise by their magic arts. Each one threw down his staff, and it was changed into a snake. But 13 Aaron's staff swallowed their staffs. Pharao, however, was obstinate and would not listen to them, just as the Lord had foretold.

14 First Plague: Water Turned into Blood Then the Lord said to Moses, "Pharao is obdurate in refusing to let the people 15 go. Tomorrow morning, when he sets out for the water, go and present yourself by the river bank, holding in your hand 16 the staff that turned into a serpent. Say to him: The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you with the message: Let my people go to worship me in the desert. But as yet you have 17 not listened. | The Lord now says: This is how you shall know that I am the Lord. I will strike the water of the river with the 18 staff I hold, and it shall be changed into blood. The fish in the 7, 14—12, 36: Since this section is composed from three different traditional ways of narrating these plagues, each with the number of plagues differing, it is difficult to know their number and how they occurred. The authors knew that, historically, something extraordinary happened. Of absorbing interest, however, was the lesson or meaning of the plagues, namely, that they speak God's irresistible power and irresistible will in His favorable intervention to save His people. With this absorbing interest they cared precious little about evident discrepancies that inevitably resulted from the interweaving of three similar accounts. Examples are 7, 14-18, 20-21, 24; these verses say it was only the Nile River that turned into blood, yet v. 19 says all the water in Egypt turned into blood. A similar discrepancy is found in 9, 6, if compared with 9, 20. The biblical authors never distinguished between a natural phenomenon and a miracle, as we do. They would not have cared if told that all the plagues, except the last, were more or less natural phenomena. The first plague, e.g., refers to the Nile becoming red in July every year because it brings with it particles of the sediment rock from the Abyssinian Lake. The "darkness" of the ninth plague results from desert sandstorms. Moreover, the biblical author readily admitted the naturalness of at least some of these plagues by saying that even the Egyptian magicians reproduced them (7, 22; 8, 3). The people of God interpreted these plagues as extraordinary "miraculous" events because of their intensity and because they began and stopped precisely as Moses predicted. The story of these plagues was to be embellished more, e.g., in the Pss 77, 104.

---

river shall die, and the river itself shall become so polluted that the Egyptians will be unable to drink its water." 19 The Lord then said to Moses, "Say to Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, their streams and canals and pools, all their supplies of water, that they may become blood. Throughout the land of Egypt there shall be blood, even in the wooden pails and stone jars." 20 Moses and Aaron did as the Lord had commanded. Aaron raised his staff and struck the waters of the river in full view of Pharao and his servants, and all the water of the river was 21 changed into blood. The fish in the river died, and the river itself became so polluted that the Egyptians could not drink 22 its water. There was blood throughout the land of Egypt. But the Egyptian magicians did the same by their magic arts. So Pharao remained obstinate and would not listen to Moses and 23 Aaron, just as the Lord had foretold. He turned away and 24 went into his house, with no concern even for this. All the Egyptians had to dig in the neighborhood of the river for drinking water, since they could not drink the river water.

25 Second Plague: the Frogs Seven days passed after the Lord 26 had struck the river. Then the Lord said to Moses, "Go to Pharao and tell him: Thus says the Lord: Let my people go to wor-27 ship me. If you refuse to let them go, I warn you, I will send 28 a plague of frogs over all your territory. | The river will teem with frogs. They will come up into your palace and into your bedroom and onto your bed, into the houses of your servants, too, and your subjects, even into your ovens and your kneading 29 bowls. The frogs will swarm all over you and your subjects and your servants."

8

1 The Lord then told Moses, "Say to Aaron: Stretch out your hand and your staff over the streams and canals and 2 pools, to make frogs overrun the land of Egypt." Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the 3 frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. But the magicians did the same by their magic arts. They, too, made frogs overrun the land of Egypt.
4 Then Pharao summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray the Lord to remove the frogs from me and my subjects, and 5 I will let the people go to offer sacrifice to the Lord." Moses answered Pharao, "Do me the favor of appointing the time when I am to pray for you and your servants and your subjects, that the frogs may be taken away from you and your houses and be left only in the river." | "Tomorrow," said Pharao. Then Moses replied, "It shall be as you have said, so that you may learn that there is none like the Lord, our God.

The frogs shall leave you and your houses, your servants and your subjects; only in the river shall they be left." After Moses and Aaron left Pharao's presence, Moses implored the Lord to fulfill the promise he had made to Pharao about the frogs; and the Lord did as Moses had asked. The frogs in the houses and courtyards and fields died off. Heaps and heaps of them were gathered up, and there was a stench in the land. But when Pharao saw that there was a respite, he became obdurate and would not listen to them, just as the Lord had foretold.

Third Plague: the Gnats Thereupon the Lord said to Moses, "Tell Aaron to stretch out his staff and strike the dust of the earth, that it may be turned into gnats throughout the land of Egypt." | They did so. Aaron stretched out his hand, and with his staff he struck the dust of the earth, and gnats came upon man and beast. The dust of the earth was turned into gnats throughout the land of Egypt. Though the magicians tried to bring forth gnats by their magic arts, they could not do so. As the gnats infested man and beast, | the magicians said to Pharao, "This is the finger of God." Yet Pharao remained obstinate and would not listen to them, just as the Lord had foretold.

Fourth Plague: the Flies Again the Lord told Moses,
"Early tomorrow morning present yourself to Pharao when he goes forth to the water, and say to him: Thus says the Lord: Let my people go to worship me. If you will not let my people go, I warn you, I will loose swarms of flies upon you and your servants and your subjects and your houses. The houses of the Egyptians and the very ground on which they stand shall be filled with swarms of flies. But on that day I will make an exception of the land of Gesen: there shall be no flies where my people dwell, that you may know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth. I will make this distinction between my people and your people. This sign shall take place tomorrow." | This the Lord did. Thick swarms of flies entered the house of Pharao and the houses of his servants; throughout Egypt the land was infested with flies.
Then Pharao summoned Moses and Aaron and said to them, "Go and offer sacrifice to your God in this land." But Moses replied, "It is not right to do so, for the sacrifices we offer to the Lord, our God, are an abomination to the Egyptians If before their very eyes we offer sacrifices which are an abom-23 ination to them, will not the Egyptians stone us? We must go a three days' journey in the desert to offer sacrifice to the Lord 24 our God, as he commands us." "Well, then," said Pharao, "I will let you go to offer sacrifice to the Lord, your God, in the desert, provided that you do not go too far away and that you 25 pray for me." Moses answered, "As soon as I leave your presence I will pray to the Lord that the flies may depart tomorrow from Pharao and his servants and his subjects. Pharao, however must not play false again by refusing to let the people 26 go to offer sacrifice to the Lord." When Moses left Pharao's 27 presence, he prayed to the Lord; and the Lord did as Moses had asked. He removed the flies from Pharao and his servants 28 and subjects. Not one remained. | But once more Pharao became obdurate and would not let the people go.

9

1 Fifth Plague: the Pestilence Then the Lord said to Moses, "Go to Pharao and tell him: Thus says the Lord, the God of the 2 Hebrews: Let my people go to worship me. If you refuse to let 3 them go and persist in holding them, I warn you, the Lord will afflict all your livestock in the field—your horses, asses, camels, 4 herds and flocks—with a very severe pestilence. But the Lord will distinguish between the livestock of Israel and that of 5 Egypt, so that none belonging to the Israelites will die." And setting a definite time, the Lord added, "Tomorrow the Lord 6 shall do this in the land." And on the next day the Lord did so. All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but not one beast 7 belonging to the Israelites. But though Pharao's messengers informed him that not even one beast belonging to the Israelites had died, he still remained obdurate and would not let the people go.

8 Sixth Plague: the Boils Then the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "Take a double handful of soot from a furnace, and in 9 the presence of Pharao let Moses scatter it toward the sky. It will then turn into fine dust over the whole land of Egypt and cause festering boils on man and beast throughout the land." 10 So they took soot from a furnace and stood in the presence of Pharao. Moses scattered it toward the sky, and it caused 11 festering boils on man and beast. The magicians could not stand in Moses' presence, for there were boils on the magicians 12 no less than on the rest of the Egyptians. But the Lord made Pharao obstinate, and he would not listen to them, just as the Lord had foretold to Moses.

13 Seventh Plague: the Hail Then the Lord told Moses, "Early tomorrow morning present yourself to Pharao and say to him: Thus says the Lord, the God of the Hebrews: Let my 14 people go to worship me, or this time I will hurl all my blows upon you and your servants and your subjects, that you may 15 know that there is none like me anywhere on earth. For by now I would have stretched out my hand and struck you and your subjects with such pestilence as would wipe you from the earth.
16 But this is why I have spared you: to show you my power 17 and to make my name resound throughout the earth! Will you still block the way for my people by refusing to let them go?
18 I warn you, then, tomorrow at this hour I will rain down such fierce hail as there has never been in Egypt from the day the 19 nation was founded up to the present. Therefore, order all your livestock and whatever else you have in the open fields to be brought to a place of safety. Whatever man or beast remains in the fields and is not brought to shelter shall die 20 when the hail comes upon them." Some of Pharao's servants feared the warning of the Lord and hurried their servants and 21 livestock off to shelter. Others, however, did not take the warning of the Lord to heart and left their servants and livestock in the fields.

22 The Lord then said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that hail may fall upon the entire land of Egypt, on man and beast and every growing thing in the land of 23 Egypt." When Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, the Lord sent forth hail and peals of thunder. Lightning flashed toward the earth, and the Lord rained down hail upon the 24 land of Egypt: and lightning constantly flashed through the hail, such fierce hail as had never been seen in the land since 25 Egypt became a nation. It struck down every man and beast that was in the open throughout the land of Egypt; it beat down every growing thing and splintered every tree in the fields.
26 Only in the land of Gesen, where the Israelites dwelt, was there no hail.

27 Then Pharao summoned Moses and Aaron and said to them, "I have sinned again! The Lord is just; it is I and my subjects 28 who are at fault. Pray to the Lord, for we have had enough of God's thunder and hail. Then I will let you go; you need 29 stay no longer." Moses replied, "As soon as I leave the city I will extend my hands to the Lord; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail. Thus you shall learn that the earth

30 is the Lord's. But you and your servants, I know, do not ye fear the Lord God."
31 Now the flax and the barley were ruined, because the barle 32 was in ear and the flax in bud. But the wheat and the spel were not ruined, for they grow later.
33 When Moses had left Pharao's presence and had gone ou of the city, he extended his hands to the Lord. Then the thun der and the hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured dow 34 upon the earth. But Pharao, seeing that the rain and hail an thunder had ceased, sinned again: he with his servants becam 35 obdurate, and in his obstinacy he would not let the Israelite go, as the Lord had foretold through Moses.

10

1 Eighth Plague: the Locusts Then the Lord said to Moses,
"Go to Pharao, for I have made him and his servants obdurate in order that I may perform these signs of mine among them | 2 and that you may recount to your son and grandson how ruthlessly I dealt with the Egyptians and what signs I wrought among them, so that you may know that I am the Lord." 3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharao and told him, "Thus says the Lord, the God of the Hebrews: How long will you re-4 fuse to submit to me? Let my people go to worship me. If you refuse to let my people go, I warn you, tomorrow I will 5 bring locusts into your country. They shall cover the ground, so that the ground itself will not be visible. They shall eat up the remnant you saved unhurt from the hail, as well as all 6 the foliage that has since sprouted in your fields. They shall fill your houses and the houses of your servants and of all the Egyptians; such a sight your fathers or grandfathers have not seen from the day they first settled on this soil up to the present day." With that he turned and left Pharao.
7 But Pharao's servants said to him, "How long must he be a menace to us? Let the men go to worship the Lord, their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt is being destroyed?" 8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharao, who said to them, "You may go and worship the Lord, your God. But how 9 many of you will go?" | "Young and old must go with us," Moses answered, "our sons and daughters as well as our flocks and herds must accompany us. That is what a feast of the Lord 10 means to us." | "The Lord help you," Pharao replied, "if I ever let your little ones go with you! Clearly, you have some evil 11 in mind. | No, no! Just you men can go and worship the Lord.
After all, that is what you want." With that they were driven from Pharao's presence.

12 The Lord then said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt, that locusts may swarm over it and eat up 15 all the vegetation and whatever the hail has left." So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the Lord set an east wind blowing over the land all that day and all that 14 night. At dawn the east wind brought the locusts. They swarmed over the whole land of Egypt and settled down on every part of it. Never before had there been such a fierce 15 swarm of locusts, nor will there ever be. They covered the surface of the whole land, till it was black with them. They ate up all the vegetation in the land and the fruit of whatever trees the hail had spared. Nothing green was left on any tree or plant throughout the land of Egypt.
16 Hastily Pharao summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "I 17 have sinned against the Lord, your God, and against you. But now, do forgive me my sin once more, and pray the Lord, 18 your God, to take at least this deadly pest from me." When 19 Moses left the presence of Pharao, he prayed to the Lord, and the Lord changed the wind to a very strong west wind, which took up the locusts and hurled them into the Red Sea. But though not a single locust remained within the confines of 20 Egypt, the Lord made Pharao obstinate, and he would not let the Israelites go.

21 Ninth Plague: the Darkness Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that over the land of Egypt there may be such intense darkness that one can feel it." 22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there was dense darkness throughout the land of Egypt for three days.
23 Men could not see one another, nor could they move from where they were, for three days. But all the Israelites had light where they dwelt.
24 Pharao then summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go and worship the Lord. Your little ones, too, may go with you.
25 But your flocks and herds must remain." Moses replied, "You must also grant us sacrifices and holocausts to offer up to 26 the Lord, our God. Hence, our livestock also must go with us.
Not an animal must be left behind. Some of them we must sacrifice to the Lord, our God, but we ourselves shall not know which ones we must sacrifice to him until we arrive at the place 27 itself." But the Lord made Pharao obstinate, and he would not 28 let them go. "Leave my presence," Pharao said to him, "and see to it that you do not appear before me again! The day you ap-29 pear before me you shall die!" Moses replied, "Well said! I will never appear before you again."

11

1 Tenth Plague: the Death of the First-born Then t Lord told Moses, "One more plague will I bring upon Pharao a upon Egypt. After that he will let you depart. In fact, he w 2 not merely let you go; he will drive you away. Instruct yo people that every man is to ask his neighbor, and every wom her neighbor, for silver and gold articles and for clothing 3 The Lord indeed made the Egyptians well-disposed toward t people; Moses himself was very highly regarded by Pharac servants and the people in the land of Egypt.
4 Moses then said, "Thus says the Lord: At midnight I w 5 go forth through Egypt. Every first-born in this land shall d from the first-born of Pharao on the throne to the first-bo of the slave-girl at the handmill, as well as all the first-born 6 the animals. Then there shall be loud wailing throughout th land of Egypt, such as has never been, nor will ever be agai 7 But among the Israelites and their animals not even a dog sha growl, so that you may know how the Lord distinguish 8 between the Egyptians and the Israelites. All these servants yours shall then come down to me, and prostrate before m they shall beg me, 'Leave us, you and all your followers!' Onl then will I depart." With that he left Pharao's presence in h anger.
9 The Lord said to Moses, "Pharao refuses to listen to yo that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.
10 Thus, although Moses and Aaron performed these variou wonders in Pharao's presence, the Lord made Pharao obstinate and he would not let the Israelites leave his land.

11, 1—13, 16: Long before the Exodus the Hebrews and other no madic peoples celebrated a passover feast. It was an evening sacrific offered when they were about to go on a pilgrimage. The other feast that of unleavened bread (or feast of Azymes), originally may hav been a harvest feast. At the time of the Exodus and after it the Israe lites most probably joined these two feasts and reinterpreted the Exodu events as God's acts intervening to save His people. The biblica accounts here give evidence of added prescriptions after Exodus. Fo example, the time of sacrifice, the number of participants, the ritua garments, and the Exodus events are here retold as they were narrate in the liturgical celebration.

Besides, the Exodus is envisioned as a past event at the time of th writing. V. 19 speaks of Israelites born in the Promised Land. Similarly 12, 43-49, refer to the celebration of the feast when the people wer settled in Chanaan. Sts. Paul and John were to speak of Christ as th paschal lamb. Jn 19, 36 sees the prescription of 12, 46, or Nm 9, 12 applied to the treatment of Christ's body.

12

1 The Passover Ritual Prescribed The Lord said to Moses 4 and Aaron in the land of Egypt, "This month shall stand at the head of your calendar; you shall reckon it the first month of the 3 year. Tell the whole community of Israel: On the tenth of this month every one of your families must procure for itself a lamb, 4 one apiece for each household. If a family is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join the nearest household in procuring one and shall share in the lamb in proportion to the number of 5 persons who partake of it. The lamb must be a year-old male and without blemish. You may take it from either the sheep or 6 the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, and then, with the whole assembly of Israel present, 7 it shall be slaughtered during the evening twilight. They shall take some of its blood and apply it to the two doorposts and the 8 lintel of every house in which they partake of the lamb. That same night they shall eat its roasted flesh with unleavened 9 bread and bitter herbs. It shall not be eaten raw or boiled, but 10 roasted whole, with its head and shanks and inner organs. None of it must be kept beyond the next morning; whatever is left over in the morning shall be burned up.

11 "This is how you are to eat it: with your loins girt, sandals on your feet and your staff in hand, you shall eat like those who 12 are in flight. It is the Passover of the Lord. For on this same night I will go through Egypt, striking down every first-born of the land, both man and beast, and executing judgment on all 13 the gods of Egypt—I, the Lord! But the blood will mark the houses where you are. Seeing the blood, I will pass over you; thus, when I strike the land of Egypt, no destructive blow will come upon you.

14 "This day shall be a memorial feast for you, which all your generations shall celebrate with pilgrimage to the Lord, as a 15 perpetual institution. For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. From the very first day you shall have your houses clear of all leaven. Whoever eats leavened bread from the first day 16 to the seventh shall be cut off from Israel. On the first day you shall hold a sacred assembly, and likewise on the seventh. On these days you shall not do any sort of work, except to prepare the food that everyone needs.

17 "Keep, then, this custom of the unleavened bread. Since it was on this very day that I brought your ranks out of the land of Egypt, you must celebrate this day throughout your genera-18 tions as a perpetual institution. From the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month until the evening of the twenty-19 first day of this month you shall eat unleavened bread. For seven days no leaven may be found in your houses. Anyone, he a resident alien or a native, who eats leavened food shall 20 cut off from the community of Israel. Nothing leavened n you eat; wherever you dwell you may eat only unleaver bread."

21 Promulgation of the Passover Moses called all the eld of Israel and said to them, "Go and procure lambs for yc 22 families, and slaughter them as Passover victims. Then tak bunch of hyssop, and dipping it in the blood that is in the bas sprinkle the lintel and the two doorposts with this blood. I 23 none of you shall go outdoors until morning. For the Lord w go by, striking down the Egyptians. Seeing the blood on t lintel and the two doorposts, the Lord will pass over that dc and not let the destroyer come into your houses to strike y down.
24 "You shall observe this as a perpetual ordinance for you 25 selves and your descendants. Thus, you must also observe tl rite when you have entered the land which the Lord will gi 26 you as he promised. When your children ask you, 'What dc 27 this rite of yours mean?' | you shall reply, 'This is the Passov sacrifice of the Lord, who passed over the houses of the Israelit in Egypt; when he struck down the Egyptians, he spared o houses.' "
28 Then the people bowed down in worship, and the Israelit went and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaro

29 Death of the First-born At midnight the Lord slew eve first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Phar on the throne to the first-born of the prisoner in the dungeo 30 as well as all the first-born of the animals. Pharao arose in tl night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians; and the was loud wailing throughout Egypt, for there was not a hou without its dead.

31 Permission to Depart During the night Pharao sun moned Moses and Aaron and said, "Leave my people at onc you and the Israelites with you! Go and worship the Lord 32 you said. Take your flocks, too, and your herds, as you d manded, and begone; and you will be doing me a favor." 33 The Egyptians likewise urged the people on, to hasten the departure from the land; they thought that otherwise the 34 would all die. The people, therefore, took their dough before was leavened, in their kneading bowls wrapped in their cloal 35 on their shoulders. The Israelites did as Moses had commandec they asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold and for 36 clothing. The Lord indeed had made the Egyptians so well-disposed toward the people that they let them have whatever they asked for. Thus did they despoil the Egyptians.

II. THE EXODUS FROM EGYPT AND THE JOURNEY TO SINAI

37 Departure from Egypt The Israelites set out from Rameses for Socchoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, not 38 counting the children. A crowd of mixed ancestry also went up with them, besides their livestock, very numerous flocks and 39 herds. Since the dough they had brought out of Egypt was not leavened, they baked it into unleavened loaves. They had been rushed out of Egypt and had no opportunity even to prepare food for the journey.

40 The time the Israelites had stayed in Egypt was four hundred 41 and thirty years. At the end of four hundred and thirty years, all the hosts of the Lord left the land of Egypt on this very date.
42 This was a night of vigil for the Lord, as he led them out of the land of Egypt; so on this same night all the Israelites must keep a vigil for the Lord throughout their generations.

43 Passover Regulations The Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
"These are the regulations for the Passover. No foreigner may 44 partake of it. | However, any slave who has been bought for money may partake of it, provided you have first circumcised 45 him. But no transient alien or hired servant may partake of it.
46 It must be eaten in one and the same house; you may not take any of its flesh outside the house. You shall not break any of 47 its bones. | The whole community of Israel must keep this 48 feast. If any aliens living among you wish to celebrate the Passover of the Lord, all the males among them must first be circumcised, and then they may join in its observance just like the 49 natives. But no man who is uncircumcised may partake of it.

12, 37: About six hundred thousand men on foot, not counting the children: if taken literally this number would amount to two and a half or three millions when the number of women and children are estimated in proportion to the number of men. Not even at that time could Sinai supply enough food and water for so many. Between two thousand and six thousand people is a more reasonable number.

12, 38: Mixed ancestry: various Semitic peoples, some discontented Egyptians, and other peoples, joined the Israelites.

12, 40: Four hundred and thirty years: as with many figures in the Bible, scholars cannot fit this number in a biblical chronology. Often biblical numbers had symbolical meanings now lost.

The law shall be the same for the resident alien as for native."
50 All the Israelites did just as the Lord had commanded Mo 51 and Aaron. On that same day the Lord brought the Israeli out of Egypt company by company.

13

1 Consecration of the First-born The Lord spoke to Mo 2 and said, "Consecrate to me every first-born that opens t womb among the Israelites, both of man and beast, for it l longs to me."
3 Moses said to the people, "Remember this day on which y came out of Egypt, that place of slavery. It was with a stro hand that the Lord brought you away. Nothing made wi 4 leaven must be eaten. | This day of your departure is in t 5 month of Abib. Therefore, it is in this month that you mu celebrate this rite, after the Lord, your God, has brought yo into the land of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorrites, Hevit and Jebusites, which he swore to your fathers he would gi 6 you, a land flowing with milk and honey. For seven days yo shall eat unleavened bread, and the seventh day shall also be 7 festival to the Lord. Only unleavened bread may be eaten du ing the seven days; no leaven and nothing leavened may l 8 found in all your territory. On this day you shall explain t your son, 'This is because of what the Lord did for me when 9 came out of Egypt.' It shall be as a sign on your hand and as reminder on your forehead; thus the law of the Lord will ev be on your lips, because with a strong hand the Lord brough 10 you out of Egypt. Therefore, you shall keep this prescribed rit at its appointed time from year to year.
11 "When the Lord, your God, has brought you into the lan of the Chanaanites, which he swore to you and your fathers h 12 would give you, you shall dedicate to the Lord every son tha opens the womb; and all the male firstlings of your animal 13 shall belong to the Lord. Every first-born of an ass you shal redeem with a sheep. If you do not redeem it, you shal 14 break its neck. Every first-born son you must redeem. If you son should ask you later on, 'What does this mean?' you shal tell him, 'With a strong hand the Lord brought us out of Egypt 15 that place of slavery. When Pharao stubbornly refused to let u go, the Lord killed every first-born in the land of Egypt, ever first-born of man and of beast. That is why I sacrifice to th Lord everything of the male sex that opens the womb, and wh 16 I redeem every first-born of my sons.' Let this, then, be as sign on your hand and as a pendant on your forehead: with a strong hand the Lord brought us out of Egypt."

17 Toward the Red Sea Now, when Pharao let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the Philistines' land, though this was the nearest; for he thought, should the people see that they would have to fight, they might change their minds and 18 return to Egypt. Instead, he rerouted them toward the Red Sea by way of the desert road. In battle array the Israelites marched 19 out of Egypt. Moses also took Joseph's bones along, for Joseph had made the Israelites swear solemnly that, when God should come to them, they would carry his bones away with them.
20 Setting out from Socchoth, they camped at Etham near the edge of the desert.
21 The Lord preceded them, in the daytime by means of a column of cloud to show them the way, and at night by means of a column of fire to give them light. Thus they could travel 22 both day and night. Neither the column of cloud by day nor the column of fire by night ever left its place in front of the people.

14

1.2 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites to turn about and camp before Phi-hahiroth, between Magdol and the sea. You shall camp in front of Baal-Saphon, just opposite, by 3 the sea. Pharao will then say, 'The Israelites are wandering about aimlessly in the land. The desert has closed in on them.'
4 Thus will I make Pharao so obstinate that he will pursue them. Then I will receive glory through Pharao and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord."

13, 21-22: In the Pentateuch, God's protecting and saving presence is symbolized differently according to three distinct traditions. The column of cloud and the pillar of fire are according to the Yahwist tradition, in vv. 21-22. Chapter 14, 19b and 24, also speak of the column of cloud and pillar of fire hiding and protecting the Israelites. The Elohist tradition (20, 21) speaks of a dark cloud (Araphel in Hebrew). The Priestly tradition (24, 15-18) speaks of a cloud together with the glory of God (Kabod), a devouring fire which moves about like God Himself.

14, 4: The author constantly attributes Pharao's obstinacy to God because, in Semitic thinking, God is responsible for everything, but not to the extent that He forced Pharao to be so obstinate that the ruler lost his freedom of choice and therefore was not guilty. But, in fact, Pharao admits his sin in 9, 27. Thus the author considers him to be free. It also shows that the author does not see any apparent conflict between God's omnipotence and man's free will—a problem often discussed by modern thinkers.

5 This the Israelites did. | When it was reported to the k of Egypt that the people had fled, Pharao and his serva changed their minds about them. "What have we done!" t 6 exclaimed. "Why, we have released Israel from our service!" 7 Pharao made his chariots ready and mustered his soldiers—hundred first-class chariots and all the other chariots of Egy 8 with warriors on them all. So obstinate had the Lord ma Pharao that he pursued the Israelites even while they w 9 marching away in triumph. The Egyptians, then, pursued the Pharao's whole army, his horses, chariots and charioteer caught up with them as they lay encamped by the sea, at Pi hahiroth, in front of Baal-Saphon.

10 Crossing of the Red Sea Pharao was already near wh the Israelites looked up and saw that the Egyptians were on t march in pursuit of them. In great fright they cried out to t 11 Lord. And they complained to Moses, "Were there no buri places in Egypt that you had to bring us out here to die in t desert? Why did you do this to us? Why did you bring us o 12 of Egypt? Did we not tell you this in Egypt, when we sai 'Leave us alone. Let us serve the Egyptians'? Far better for us t 13 be the slaves of the Egyptians than to die in the desert." Bu Moses answered the people, "Fear not! Stand your ground, an you will see the victory the Lord will win for you today. Thes 14 Egyptians whom you see today you will never see again. Th Lord himself will fight for you; you have only to keep still.
15 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Why are you crying out t 16 me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. | And you, lift up you staff and, with hand outstretched over the sea, split the sea i 17 two, that the Israelites may pass through it on dry land. But will make the Egyptians so obstinate that they will go in afte them. Then I will receive glory through Pharao and all hi 18 army, his chariots and charioteers. The Egyptians shall know 14, 10: The better opinion holds that Rameses II (1290-1224 B.C.) was the Pharao of the Exodus.

14, 11-31: Since different traditions are artistically fused here in re counting the crossing of the sea, it is difficult to know exactly wha happened historically. Perhaps the clogging of the chariot wheel (v. 25) caused the defeat. The main point of the narrative is that Goc intervened to help His people at a critical moment. Divine Providence may have used the natural phenomenon of the wind lashing the water to a shallow depth allowing a fording. A similar natural phenomenon occurred to Scipio during his capture of New Carthage. The crossing of the sea left an indelible stamp on the pages of later Old Testament history. Paul (1 Cor 10, 1f) sees this crossing as a figure of Christian Baptism since both events are God's saving acts.

that I am the Lord, when I receive glory through Pharao and his chariots and charioteers."

19 The angel of God, who had been leading Israel's camp, now moved and went around behind them. The column of cloud 20 also, leaving the front, took up its place behind them, so that it came between the camp of the Egyptians and that of Israel. But the cloud now became dark, and thus the night passed without the rival camps coming any closer together all night long.
21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord swept the sea with a strong east wind throughout the night and so turned it into dry land. When the water was thus di-
22 vided, | the Israelites marched into the midst of the sea on dry land, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left.

23 Destruction of the Egyptians The Egyptians followed in pursuit; all Pharao's horses and chariots and charioteers went 24 after them right into the midst of the sea. In the night watch just before dawn the Lord cast through the column of the fiery cloud upon the Egyptian force a glance that threw it into a 25 panic; and he so clogged their chariot wheels that they could hardly drive. With that the Egyptians sounded the retreat before Israel, because the Lord was fighting for them against the Egyptians.

26 Then the Lord told Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may flow back upon the Egyptians, upon 27 their chariots and charioteers." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea flowed back to its normal depth. The Egyptians were fleeing head on toward the 28 sea, when the Lord hurled them into its midst. As the water flowed back, it covered the chariots and charioteers of Pharao's whole army which had followed the Israelites into the sea.
29 Not a single one of them escaped. But the Israelites had marched on dry land through the midst of the sea, with the 30 water like a wall to their right and to their left. Thus the Lord saved Israel on that day from the power of the Egyptians. When Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the seashore
31 | and beheld the great power that the Lord had shown against the Egyptians, they feared the Lord and believed in him and in his servant Moses.

14, 19: The column of cloud: see 13, 21-22 n.

14, 23: Scholars cannot pinpoint the crossing of the sea. The Hebrews speak of the crossing at the reed sea. This indicates the marshy area of the lakes. The southern route is considered by far as the more probable one though it is far from certain. (See map, p. 126).

14, 24: Cloud: see 13, 21-22 n.

The Route of the Exodus
Great Sea
(Mediterranean) Jericho
Salt Sea
(Dead Sea)
ISRAEL
MOAB
CADES
150 miles
250 miles
EDOM GESEN
Suez Canal
RAMESES
LAKE BALAH
LAKE TIMSAH
SUCCOTH
BITTER LAKES
Suez Canal
RED SEA REEDS
E G Y P T
N Nile River
Marah
Elim
SINAI
DESERT
MADIAN
Gulf of Suez
Gulf of Aqaba
MT. SINAI or HOREB (Jebel Mousa)
7500 ft.
SAUDI ARABIA
MADIAN
Red Sea
ALTERNATIVE CROSSINGS OF
"THE SEA OF REEDS"
This map shows the present-day boundaries

THE ROUTE OF THE EXODUS

When the Israelites departed from Rameses, they did not follow the shorter northern route along the Mediterranean coast (Ex 13, 17) because they would have had to fight Egyptian soldiers. The Israelites journeyed to Succoth, 32 miles south of Rameses (called Soan in the Bible and Tanis in classical literature).

Scholars dispute about the location of the "Sea of Reeds" or "marshes" which is the meaning of the Hebrew "Yam Suph," and not Red Sea as the Septuagint, the Greek Bible, translates. It is most likely that the people crossed the Gulf of Suez, the northwestern branch of the Red Sea. The text implies that the Reed Sea was near Succoth and the expression could apply to any of the lake or marsh regions along the present Suez Canal, which stretches some 65 miles from the Mediterranean Sea to the Gulf of Suez.

The crossing was either below the Bitter Lakes or above them; the latter route is traced on the map facing this page. The least probable was the crossing above Lake Balah.

15

1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lor I will sing to the Lord, for he is gloriously triumphant; ho and chariot he has cast into the sea.
2 My strength and my courage is the Lord, and he has be my savior. He is my God, I praise him; the God of my fath I extol him.
3.4 The Lord is a warrior, Lord is his name! Pharao's chari and army he hurled into the sea; the elite of his officers we 5 submerged in the Red Sea. | The flood waters covered the they sank into the depths like a stone.
6 Your right hand, O Lord, magnificent in power, your rig
7 hand, O Lord, has shattered the enemy. | In your great majes you overthrew your adversaries; you loosed your wrath to co 8 sume them like stubble. At a breath of your anger the wate piled up, the flowing waters stood like a mound, the floo waters congealed in the midst of the sea.
9 The enemy boasted, "I will pursue and overtake them; will divide the spoils and have my fill of them; I will dra 10 my sword; my hand shall despoil them!" When your win blew, the sea covered them; like lead they sank in the might waters.
11 Who is like to you among the gods, O Lord? Who is like t you, magnificent in holiness? O terrible in renown, worker o 12 wonders, | when you stretched out your right hand, the eart swallowed them!
13 In your mercy you led the people you redeemed; in you 14 strength you guided them to your holy dwelling. The nation heard and quaked; anguish gripped the dwellers in Philistia 15 Then were the princes of Edom dismayed; trembling seized th chieftains of Moab; all the dwellers in Chanaan melted away 16 | terror and dread fell upon them. By the might of your arm they were frozen like stone, while your people, O Lord, passe over, while the people you had made your own passed over 17 And you brought them in and planted them on the mountai of your inheritance—the place where you made your seat, O Lord, the sanctuary, O Lord, which your hands established 18 The Lord shall reign forever and ever.

15, 1-21: This Canticle of Moses (v. 1) or Mariam (v. 20) is the national anthem of ancient Israel or the Hebrew Te Deum. V. 21 is generally felt to have been written contemporaneously with the even it celebrates. There are clues (vv. 14 and 15) that the rest of the song (vv. 1-20) was written at a later date. Just as Haydn's oratorio, Creation, is the most expressive commentary on Gn 1-2, so is Handel's Israel in Egypt the most expressive commentary on Ex 15.

19 They sang thus because Pharao's horses and chariots and charioteers had gone into the sea, and the Lord made the waters of the sea flow back upon them, though the Israelites had 20 marched on dry land through the midst of the sea. So the prophetess Mariam, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand, while all the women went out after her with tambourines, 21 dancing; and she answered them with the refrain: Sing to the Lord, for he is gloriously triumphant; horse and chariot he has cast into the sea.

22 At Mara and Elim Then Moses led Israel forward from the Red Sea, and they marched out to the desert of Sur. After traveling for three days through the desert without finding 23 water, | they arrived at Mara, where they could not drink the water, because it was too bitter. Hence this place was called 24 Mara. As the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "What 25 are we to drink?" | he appealed to the Lord, who pointed out to him a certain piece of wood. When he threw this into the water, the water became fresh.

It was here that the Lord, in making rules and regulations 26 for them, put them to the test. "If you really listen to the voice of the Lord, your God," he told them, "and do what is right in his eyes: if you heed his commandments and keep all his precepts, I will not afflict you with any of the diseases with which I afflicted the Egyptians; for I, the Lord, am your healer." 27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there near the water.

16

1 The Desert of Sin Having set out from Elim, the whole Israelite community came into the desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month 2 after their departure from the land of Egypt. Here in the desert the whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and 3 Aaron. The Israelites said to them, "Would that we had died at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!"

4 The Quail and Manna Then the Lord said to Moses, "I

15, 25: Perhaps in the desert there was a species of wood with properties for sweetening bitter water. See Sir 38, 5.

16, 4-36: A doublet is found in Nm 11, 5-9. The natural desert food will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or 5 On the sixth day, however, when they prepare what they br in, let it be twice as much as they gather on the other day 6 So Moses and Aaron told all the Israelites, "At evening will know that it was the Lord who brought you out of 7 land of Egypt; and in the morning you will see the glory of Lord, as he heeds your grumbling against him. But what 8 we that you should grumble against us? When the Lord gi you flesh to eat in the evening," continued Moses, "and in t morning your fill of bread, as he heeds the grumbling y utter against him, what then are we? Your grumbling is against us, but against the Lord." 9 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Tell the whole Israelite co munity: Present yourselves before the Lord, for he has hea 10 your grumbling." When Aaron announced this to the wh Israelite community, they turned toward the desert, and lo, t 11 glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud! The Lord spoke 12 Moses and said, "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelit Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you m know that I, the Lord, am your God." 13 In the evening quail came up and covered the camp. In t 14 morning a dew lay all about the camp, | and when the de evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flak 15 like hoarfrost on the ground. On seeing it, the Israelites aske one another, "What is this?" for they did not know what it wa But Moses told them, "This is the bread which the Lord ha given you to eat.

16 Regulations Regarding the Manna "Now, this is wha the Lord has commanded. So gather it that everyone ha enough to eat, a gomor for each person, as many of you a 17 there are, each man providing for those of his own tent." Th Israelites did so. Some gathered a large and some a smal 18 amount. But when they measured it out by the gomor, he wh had gathered a large amount did not have too much, and h who had gathered a small amount did not have too little. They called manna is directly attributed as a wondrous gift from God. The manna may have been the "gum" from insects found on tamarisk trees in Sinai from May to July. However, the properties of manna (v. 31) do not accord well with any known food.

16, 18: Some scholars think that the gomor is six and one-half pints.

so gathered that everyone had enough to eat. Moses also told them, "Let no one keep any of it over until tomorrow morning." But they would not listen to him. When some kept a part of it over until the following morning, it became wormy and rotten. Therefore Moses was displeased with them.
Morning after morning they gathered it, till each had enough to eat; but when the sun grew hot, the manna melted away.
On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, two gomors for each person. When all the leaders of the community came and reported this to Moses, he told them, "That is what the Lord prescribed. Tomorrow is a day of complete rest, the Sabbath, sacred to the Lord. You may either bake or boil the manna, as you please; but whatever is left put away and keep for the morrow." When they put it away for the morrow, as Moses commanded, it did not become rotten or wormy. Moses then said, "Eat it today, for today is the Sabbath of the Lord.
On this day you will not find any of it on the ground. On the other six days you can gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, none of it will be there." Still, on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather it, although they did not find any. Then the Lord said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and laws? Take note! The Lord has given you the Sabbath. That is why on the sixth day he gives you food for two days. On the seventh day everyone is to stay home and no one is to go out." After that the people rested on the seventh day.
The Israelites called this food manna. It was like coriander seed, but white, and it tasted like wafers made with honey.
Moses said, "This is what the Lord has commanded. Keep a gomorful of manna for your descendants, that they may see what food I gave you to eat in the desert when I brought you out of the land of Egypt." Moses then told Aaron, "Take an urn and put a gomor of manna in it. Then place it before the Lord in safekeeping for your descendants." So Aaron placed it in front of the Commandments for safekeeping, as the Lord had commanded Moses.
The Israelites ate this manna for forty years, until they came to settled land; they ate manna until they reached the borders of Chanaan. [A gomor is one tenth of an epha.]

16, 35: The manna was not the only food the people ate (see "livestock" in 17, 3). The Sabbath regulations show that most of this chapter belongs to the Priestly tradition of the sixth century B.C. In Jn 6, 31-59, manna is spoken of as a type of the Holy Eucharist. The liturgy continues this typology.

17

1 Water from the Rock From the desert of Sin the whole Israelite community journeyed by stages, as the Lord directed, and encamped at Raphidim.
2 Here there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarreled, therefore, with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses replied, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do 3 you put the Lord to a test?" | Here, then, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here 4 of thirst with our children and our livestock?" So Moses cried out to the Lord, "What shall I do with this people? A little 5 more and they will stone me!" The Lord answered Moses:
"Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with 6 which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink." This Moses did, in the 7 presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massa and Meriba, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the Lord, saying, "Is the Lord in our midst or not?"

8 Battle with Amalec At Raphidim, Amalec came and waged 9 war against Israel. Moses, therefore, said to Josue, "Pick out certain men, and tomorrow go out and engage Amalec in battle. I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God 10 in my hand." So Josue did as Moses told him: he engaged Amalec in battle after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill 11 with Aaron and Hur. As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, 12 Amalec had the better of the fight. Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so they put a rock in place for him to sit on. Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other, so that his hands remained steady till 13 sunset. And Josue mowed down Amalec and his people with the edge of the sword.
14 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Write this down in a document as something to be remembered, and recite it in the ears of Josue: I will completely blot out the memory of Amalec from 15 under the heavens." Moses also built an altar there, which he 17, 1-7: See Nm 20, 1-13 n, for either a similar incident or a doublet.

17, 8-16: The people of Amalec are the descendants of Esau (Gn 36, 16). This episode teaches the necessity of perseverance in prayer.

16 called Yahweh-nissi; for he said, "The Lord takes in hand his banner; the Lord will war against Amalec through the centuries."

18

1 Meeting with Jethro Now Moses' father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Madian, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for his people Israel: how the Lord had brought Israel out 2 of Egypt. So his father-in-law Jethro took along Sepphora, 3 Moses' wife, whom Moses had sent back to him, | and her two sons. One of these was called Gersam; for he said, "I am a 4 stranger in a foreign land." The other was called Eliezer; for he said, "My father's God is my helper; he has rescued me from 5 Pharao's sword." Together with Moses' wife and sons, then, his father-in-law Jethro came to him in the desert where he was 6 encamped near the mountain of God, and he sent word to Moses, "I, Jethro, your father-in-law, am coming to you, along with your wife and her two sons." 7 Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down before him, and kissed him. Having greeted each other, they went into 8 the tent. Moses then told his father-in-law of all that the Lord had done to Pharao and the Egyptians for the sake of Israel, and of all the hardships they had had to endure on their jour-9 ney, and how the Lord had come to their rescue. Jethro rejoiced over all the goodness that the Lord had shown Israel in rescuing 10 them from the hands of the Egyptians. "Blessed be the Lord," he said, "who has rescued his people from the hands of Pharao 11 and the Egyptians. Now I know that the Lord is a deity great beyond any other; for he took occasion of their being dealt with insolently to deliver the people from the power of the Egyp-12 tians." Then Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, brought a holocaust and other sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to participate with Moses' father-in-law in the meal before God.

13 Appointment of Minor Judges The next day Moses sat in judgment for the people, who waited about him from morn-14 ing until evening. When his father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he inquired, "What sort of thing is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone while all the people have to stand about you from morning till eve-15 ning?" Moses answered his father-in-law, "The people come to 18, 3: Almost all the etymologies in the Pentateuch like those throughout the Bible are folk or popular etymologies not scientific ones.

16 me to consult God. Whenever they have a disagreement, the come to me to have me settle the matter between them an make known to them God's decisions and regulations." 17.18 "You are not acting wisely," his father-in-law replied. "Yo will surely wear yourself out, and not only yourself but als these people with you. The task is too heavy for you; yo 19 cannot do it alone. | Now, listen to me, and I will give you som advice, that God may be with you. Act as the people's repre sentative before God, bringing to him whatever they have to say 20 Enlighten them in regard to the decisions and regulations, show 21 ing them how they are to live and what they are to do. But yo should also look among all the people for able and God-fearing men, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain, and set them a officers over groups of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and o 22 tens. Let these men render decisions for the people in all ordi nary cases. More important cases they should refer to you but all the lesser cases they can settle themselves. Thus, your 23 burden will be lightened, since they will bear it with you. If you do this, when God gives you orders you will be able to stand the strain, and all these people will go home satisfied." 24 Moses followed the advice of his father-in-law and did all 25 that he had suggested. He picked out able men from all Israel and put them in charge of the people as officers over groups of 26 thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens. They rendered decisions for the people in all ordinary cases. The more difficult cases they referred to Moses, but all the lesser cases they set-27 tled themselves. Then Moses bade farewell to his father-in-law, who went off to his own country.

III. THE COVENANT AT MOUNT SINAI

19

1 Arrival at Sinai In the third month after their departure from the land of Egypt, on its first day, the Israelites came to 2 the desert of Sinai. After the journey from Raphidim to the desert of Sinai, they pitched camp.

While Israel was encamped here in front of the mountain,
3 | Moses went up the mountain to God. Then the Lord called 19—24: These six chapters comprise the essential part of the Old Testament, namely, the Covenant at Mount Sinai and the Code of the Alliance. These chapters are not presented just as the events happened, but as they were later theologically reinterpreted in the liturgy. Jos 24 is a good example of an account of the liturgical feast of the Covenant renewal.

19, 3-6: This is the explanation of the Covenant or berit in Hebrew.

to him and said, "Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob; 4 tell the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and 5 brought you here to myself. Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine.
6 You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. That 7 is what you must tell the Israelites." So Moses went and summoned the elders of the people. When he set before them all 8 that the Lord had ordered him to tell them, the people all answered together, "Everything the Lord has said, we will do." Then Moses brought back to the Lord the response of the people.
9 The Lord also told him, "I am coming to you in a dense cloud, so that when the people hear me speaking with you, they may always have faith in you also." When Moses, then, had 10 reported to the Lord the response of the people, | the Lord added, "Go to the people and have them sanctify themselves 11 today and tomorrow. Make them wash their garments | and be ready for the third day; for on the third day the Lord will come down on Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the people.
12 Set limits for the people all around the mountain, and tell them:
Take care not to go up the mountain, or even to touch its base.
13 If anyone touches the mountain he must be put to death. No hand shall touch him; he must be stoned to death or killed with arrows. Such a one, man or beast, must not be allowed to live.
Only when the ram's horn resounds may they go up to the 14 mountain." Then Moses came down from the mountain to the people and had them sanctify themselves and wash their gar-15 ments. He warned them, "Be ready for the third day. Have no intercourse with any woman."

16 The Great Theophany On the morning of the third day there were peals of thunder and lightning, and a heavy cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast, so that all 17 the people in the camp trembled. But Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stationed themselves at the

---

The people were to obey God as their King, and be as holy as a priest.

19, 9-19: May well be a parallel account of vv. 20-25. See 13, 21-22 n, for v. 9.

19, 16-19: Because these ancient biblical writers wrote to answer the question "what does this mean" rather than "did it really happen," it is difficult to separate the historical event from its literary embroidery. Miracles in our modern sense may very well have happened along the route of Exodus. They happen today at Lourdes. In this scene, most

18 foot of the mountain. Mount Sinai was all wrapped in smo for the Lord came down upon it in fire. The smoke rose fr it as though from a furnace, and the whole mountain tr 19 bled violently. The trumpet blast grew louder and louder, w Moses was speaking and God answering him with thun 20 When the Lord came down to the top of Mount Sinai, summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses w 21 up to him. Then the Lord told Moses, "Go down and warn people not to break through toward the Lord in order to 22 him; otherwise many of them will be struck down. The prie too, who approach the Lord must sanctify themselves; else 23 will vent his anger upon them." Moses said to the Lord, "T people cannot go up to Mount Sinai, for you yourself warr 24 us to set limits around the mountain to make it sacred." T Lord repeated, "Go down now! Then come up again along w Aaron. But the priests and the people must not break throu to come up to the Lord; else he will vent his anger upon them 25 So Moses went down to the people and told them this.

20

1 The Ten Commandments Then God delivered all the commandments:
2 "I, the Lord, am your God, who brought you out of the lan 3 of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other go 4 besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in th shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or

---

modern scholars understand the fire and cosmic disturbances as a re erent dramatic way of expressing the true presence and power of Go Scholars do not understand exactly how God made His presence felt how He intervened historically at the scene of the Ten Commandment But of all the extraordinary Exodus events the scholars hold that i this scene God must have certainly intervened with His Covenant. Th rest of Old Testament history would not make sense otherwise.

19, 18: Mount Sinai: it is the other name for Mount Horeb; th traditional and still most widely accepted site is Jebel Musa (Arabi name, meaning "mountain of Moses"). See map: The Route of th Exodus, p. 126.

19, 20: The Lord already descended according to v. 18.

20, 1-17: The Ten Commandments were originally very brief com mandments as in v. 13. They were probably originally written in th negative. The Hebrew is even more brief than the English. The Com mandments here are according to the Priestly tradition. The Command ments in Dt 5, 6-21 are according to the Deuteronomic tradition Both parallel accounts are enlarged. The Exodus account is older i content, the Deuteronomy account older in its literary fixation. Sinc the Scriptures speak of ten words, whence we derive the word Deca logue, all agree that there are ten commandments but scholars disagre on the enumeration.

5 the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the Lord, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers' wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth 6 generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation, on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments.
7 "You shall not take the name of the Lord, your God, in vain. For the Lord will not leave unpunished him who takes his name in vain.
8-9 "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days you may 10 labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, 11 or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the Lord has blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.
12 "Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you.
13 "You shall not kill.
14 "You shall not commit adultery.
15 "You shall not steal.
16 "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not

St. Augustine's enumeration has been adopted by the Church and by the Lutherans. He makes the worship of false gods and of images one commandment (the first commandment), while the coveting of another's wife and of another's goods are considered as two distinct commandments (the ninth and tenth, respectively).

On the other hand, the enumeration established by Philo, Josephus, and followed by the Jews, many Greek Fathers, and many Protestants today reverses the numbering. The worship of false gods and of images are two commandments (the first and the second), while the coveting of another's wife and of another's goods are considered as one commandment (the tenth). The divergence of opinion is a literary, not a doctrinal, question. None of the Ten Commandments goes beyond natural religion and the natural law; yet it is noteworthy that no other ancient religion ever expressed them so exactly.

20, 5: Jealous God: no pagan god of antiquity ever demanded such an exclusive love as did Yahweh, the god of the Hebrews.

20, 6: Thousandth generation: God's mercy goes further than his wrath.

20, 8: The Sabbath: has some traits that are original in Israel. It most likely goes back to the time of Moses. See 20, 1-17 n.

20, 17: The wife is subordinated to the house here, but Dt 5, 21 shows a higher consideration when it places the wife first.

covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

18 The Fear of God When the people witnessed the thun and lightning, the trumpet blast and the mountain smok they all feared and trembled. So they took up a position n 19 farther away | and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and will listen; but let not God speak to us, or we shall d 20 Moses answered the people, "Do not be afraid, for God come to you only to test you and put his fear upon you, 21 you should sin." Still the people remained at a distance, w Moses approached the cloud where God was.
22 The Lord told Moses, "Thus shall you speak to the Israelit
You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you fr 23 heaven. Do not make anything to rank with me; either g of silver nor gods of gold shall you make for yourselves.
24 "An altar of earth you shall make for me, and upon it y shall sacrifice your holocausts and peace offerings, your she and your oxen. In whatever place I choose for the remembran 25 of my name I will come to you and bless you. If you make altar of stone for me, do not build it of cut stone, for by putti 26 a tool to it you desecrate it. You shall not go up by steps my altar, on which you must not be indecently uncovered.

21

1 Laws Regarding Slaves "These are the rules you shall l

20, 19: Or we shall die: God is so holy that just to hear Him wou suffice to cause death. A different view is presented in Dt 5, 24.

20, 21: Cloud: see 13, 21-22.

20, 22—23, 19: This section is called the Code of the Alliance Covenant. It gets its name from 24, 7f. The Ten Commandments a the nerve center of this Code. The allusions to houses show that th Code as given here was made when the people were more sedentar than semi-nomadic. The Code is attributed to the eighth century B.C Elohist tradition. Yet, when stripped of its modernizations, there ar enough clues to make scholars believe that the Code goes back to Mose himself. The Code is a religious Code and it is placed after the Te Commandments to apply them to civil and criminal life.

Excavated codes of the Sumerians, Assyrians, Hittites, and that Hammurabi reveal that the biblical Code, though younger, did not bo row directly but drew from a common Near Eastern source. Th written formulation of the Code can be shown to be an adaptation o one type of Hittite treaty, in force about 1450-1200 B.C. Technicall and juridically the Code is inferior to the other oriental codes. Ethi cally and religiously, it is superior. Literarily, the Code of the Alli ance is composed of a series of prescriptions in the conditional style
"if you . . .," e.g., 21, 3-11. Another series of prescriptions is foun in the imperative style, "you shall . . ." as in the Decalogue, e.g., 20 22-24.

2 before them. When you purchase a Hebrew slave, he is to serve you for six years, but in the seventh year he shall be given 3 his freedom without cost. If he comes into service alone, he shall leave alone; if he comes with a wife, his wife shall leave 4 with him. But if his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall remain the master's property and the man shall leave alone.
5 If, however, the slave declares, 'I am devoted to my master 6 and my wife and children; I will not go free,' | his master shall bring him to God and there, at the door or doorpost, he shall pierce his ear with an awl, thus keeping him as his slave forever.

7 When a man sells his daughter as a slave, she shall not 8 go free as male slaves do. But if her master who had destined her for himself dislikes her, he shall let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to a foreigner, since he has broken 9 faith with her. If he destines her for his son, he shall treat 10 her like a daughter. If he takes another wife, he shall not 11 withhold her food, her clothing, or her conjugal rights. If he does not grant her these three things, she shall be given her freedom absolutely, without cost to her.

12 Personal Injury "Whoever strikes a man a mortal blow 13 must be put to death. He, however, who did not hunt a man down, but caused his death by an act of God, may flee to a 14 place which I will set apart for this purpose. But when a man kills another after maliciously scheming to do so, you must 15 take him even from my altar and put him to death. Whoever strikes his father or mother shall be put to death.

16 "A kidnaper, whether he sells his victim or still has him when caught, shall be put to death.

17 "Whoever curses his father or mother shall be put to death.

18 "When men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist, not mortally, but enough to put him in bed, 19 the one who struck the blow shall be acquitted, provided the other can get up and walk around with the help of his staff. Still, he must compensate him for his enforced idleness and provide for his complete cure.

20 "When a man strikes his male or female slave with a rod so hard that the slave dies under his hand, he shall be pun-21 ished. If, however, the slave survives for a day or two, he is not to be punished, since the slave is his own property.

22 "When men have a fight and hurt a pregnant woman, so that she suffers a miscarriage, but no further injury, the guilty one shall be fined as much as the woman's husband demands of him, and he shall pay in the presence of the judg 23.24 But if injury ensues, you shall give life for life, | eye

25 eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, | burn burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
26 "When a man strikes his male or female slave in the and destroys the use of the eye, he shall let the slave go free 27 compensation for the eye. If he knocks out a tooth of his m or female slave, he shall let the slave go free in compensati for the tooth.
28 "When an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the must be stoned; its flesh may not be eaten. The owner of t 29 ox, however, shall go unpunished. But if an ox was previou in the habit of goring people and its owner, though warne would not keep it in; should it then kill a man or a woma not only must the ox be stoned, but its owner also must 30 put to death. If, however, a fine is imposed on him, he mu pay in ransom for his life whatever amount is imposed on hi 31.32 This law applies if it is a boy or a girl that the ox gores. B if it is a male or a female slave that it gores, he must pay th owner of the slave thirty shekels of silver, and the ox must b stoned.

33 Property Damage "When a man uncovers or digs a cister and does not cover it over again, should an ox or an ass fa 34 into it, the owner of the cistern must make good by restorin the value of the animal to its owner; the dead animal, however he may keep.
35 "When one man's ox hurts another's ox so badly that i dies, they shall sell the live ox and divide this money as wel 36 as the dead animal equally between them. But if it was known that the ox was previously in the habit of goring and its owner would not keep it in, he must make full restitution an ox for an ox; but the dead animal he may keep.
37 "When a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters o sells it, he shall restore five oxen for the one ox, and four sheep for the one sheep.

22

1 [If a thief is caught in the act of housebreaking and beaten to 2 death, there is no bloodguilt involved. But if after sunrise he 21, 23-25: This is known as the law of retaliation. Its purpose was to mitigate revenge. The Israelites abided by this law together with several other peoples of the ancient Near East, long before the Code of Alliance was adopted. See Gn 4, 23; Lv 24, 20. However, the formulation "eye for eye . . ." was peculiar to the Israelites.

is thus beaten, there is bloodguilt.] He must make full restitution. If he has nothing, he shall be sold to pay for his theft.
3 If what he stole is found alive in his possession, be it an ox, an ass or a sheep, he shall restore two animals for each one stolen.
4 "When a man is burning over a field or a vineyard, if he lets the fire spread so that it burns in another's field, he must make restitution with the best produce of his own field or 5 vineyard. If the fire spreads further, and catches on to thorn bushes, so that shocked grain or standing grain or the field itself is burned up, the one who started the fire must make full restitution.

6 Trusts and Loans "When a man gives money or any article to another for safekeeping and it is stolen from the latter's 7 house, the thief, if caught, must make twofold restitution. If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house shall be brought to God, to swear that he himself did not lay hands on his 8 neighbor's property. In every question of dishonest appropriation, whether it be about an ox, or an ass, or a garment, or anything else that has disappeared, where another claims that the thing is his, both parties shall present their case before God; the one whom God convicts must make twofold restitution to the other.
9 "When a man gives an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any other animal to another for safekeeping, if it dies, or is maimed 10 or snatched away, without anyone witnessing the fact, the custodian shall swear by the Lord that he did not lay hands on his neighbor's property; the owner must accept the oath, and 11 no restitution is to be made. But if the custodian is really 12 guilty of theft, he must make restitution to the owner. If it has been killed by a wild beast, let him bring it as evidence, and he need not make restitution for the mangled animal.
13 "When a man borrows an animal from his neighbor, if it is maimed or dies while the owner is not present, the man must 14 make restitution. But if the owner is present, he need not make restitution. If it was hired, this was covered by the price of its hire.

15 Social Laws "When a man seduces a virgin who is not betrothed, and lies with her, he shall pay her marriage price and

---

22, 15: Joseph Smith, the founder of the Mormons, often referred to Jacob's polygamous marriages and to this text to justify polygamy. But this interpretation forgets the New Testament teaching, e.g., Christ's abolition of divorce in Mt 19, 3-12.

16 marry her. If her father refuses to give her to him, he n still pay him the customary marriage price for virgins.
17 "You shall not let a sorceress live.
18 "Anyone who lies with an animal shall be put to death.
19 "Whoever sacrifices to any god, except to the Lord al shall be doomed.
20 "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you w 21 once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall 22 wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them 23 they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your wives will be widows, and your children orphans.
24 "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors am my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward h 25 by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighb 26 cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. Wh else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear hi for I am compassionate.
27 "You shall not revile God, nor curse a prince of your peop 28 "You shall not delay the offering of your harvest and yo 29 press. You shall give me the first-born of your sons. You mu do the same with your oxen and your sheep; for seven da the firstling may stay with its mother, but on the eighth d you must give it to me.
30 "You shall be men sacred to me. Flesh torn to pieces in th field you shall not eat; throw it to the dogs.

23

1 "You shall not repeat a false report. Do not join the wicke 2 in putting your hand, as an unjust witness, upon anyone. Ne ther shall you allege the example of the many as an excuse fo doing wrong, nor shall you, when testifying in a lawsuit, sid 3 with the many in perverting justice. You shall not favor a poo man in his lawsuit.
4 "When you come upon your enemy's ox or ass going astray 5 see to it that it is returned to him. When you notice the ass o one who hates you lying prostrate under its burden, by n means desert him; help him, rather, to raise it up.
6 "You shall not deny one of your needy fellow men hi 7 rights in his lawsuit. You shall keep away from anything dis honest. The innocent and the just you shall not put to death 8 nor shall you acquit the guilty. Never take a bribe, for a brib blinds even the most clear-sighted and twists the words ever 9 of the just. You shall not oppress an alien; you well know how it feels to be an alien, since you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt.

10 Religious Laws "For six years you may sow your land and 11 gather in its produce. But the seventh year you shall let the land lie untilled and unharvested, that the poor among you may eat of it and the beasts of the field may eat what the poor leave. So also shall you do in regard to your vineyard and your olive grove.

12 "For six days you may do your work, but on the seventh day you must rest, that your ox and your ass may also have rest, and that the son of your maidservant and the alien may 13 be refreshed. Give heed to all that I have told you.

"Never mention the name of any other god; it shall not be heard from your lips.

14 "Three times a year you shall celebrate a pilgrim feast to 15 me. | You shall keep the feast of Unleavened Bread. As I have commanded you, you must eat unleavened bread for seven days at the prescribed time in the month of Abib, for it was then that you came out of Egypt. No one shall ap-16 pear before me empty-handed. You shall also keep the feast of the grain harvest with the first of the crop that you have sown in the field; and finally, the feast at the fruit harvest at the end of the year, when you gather in the produce from 17 the fields. Thrice a year shall all your men appear before the Lord God.

18 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; nor shall the fat of my feast be kept overnight till the 19 next day. The choicest first fruits of your soil you shall bring to the house of the Lord, your God.

"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

20 Reward of Fidelity "See, I am sending an angel before you, to guard you on the way and bring you to the place I have 21 prepared. Be attentive to him and heed his voice. Do not rebel against him, for he will not forgive your sin. My authority 22 resides in him. If you heed his voice and carry out all I tell you, I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes.
23 "My angel will go before you and bring you to the Amorrites, Hethites, Pherezites, Chanaanites, Hevites and Jebusites; and 24 I will wipe them out. Therefore, you shall not bow down in worship before their gods, nor shall you make anything like 23, 20-23: The angel means God Himself as in similar previous passages. See Gn 16. 1-15 n.

them; rather, you must demolish them and smash their sac 25 pillars. The Lord, your God, you shall worship; then I bless your food and drink, and I will remove all sickness fi 26 your midst; no woman in your land will be barren or miscai and I will give you a full span of life.
27 "I will have the fear of me precede you, so that I will thi into panic every nation you reach. I will make all your enen 28 turn from you in flight, and ahead of you I will send horr to drive the Hevites, Chanaanites and Hethites out of y 29 way. But not in one year will I drive them all out before y else the land will become so desolate that the wild beasts v 30 multiply against you. Instead, I will drive them out little little before you, until you have grown numerous enough 31 take possession of the land. I will set your boundaries from Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert the River; all who dwell in this land I will hand over to y 32 to be driven out of your way. You shall not make a covena 33 with them or their gods. They must not abide in your lar lest they make you sin against me by ensnaring you into w shiping their gods."

24

1 Ratification of the Covenant Moses himself was tol
"Come up to the Lord, you and Aaron, with Nadab, Abiu, ar seventy of the elders of Israel. You shall all worship at son 2 distance, but Moses alone is to come close to the Lord; th others shall not come too near, and the people shall not con up at all with Moses." 3 When Moses came to the people and related all the wor and ordinances of the Lord, they all answered with one voic 4 "We will do everything that the Lord has told us." Moses the wrote down all the words of the Lord and, rising early the ne day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar an 5 twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sen certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts an 6 sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the Lord, Moses tool half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half h 7 splashed on the altar. Taking the Book of the Covenant, h read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the Lor 8 has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood an sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of th covenant which the Lord has made with you in accordanc with all these words of his."

23, 28: Hornets: afflictions.

9 Moses then went up with Aaron, Nadab, Abiu, and seventy 10 elders of Israel, and they beheld the God of Israel. Under his feet there appeared to be sapphire tilework, as clear as the sky 11 itself. Yet he did not smite these chosen Israelites. After gazing on God, they could still eat and drink.

12 Moses on the Mountain The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and, while you are there, I will give you the stone tablets on which I have written the command-13 ments intended for their instruction." So Moses set out with 14 Josue, his aide, and went up to the mountain of God. The elders, however, had been told by him, "Wait here for us until we return to you. Aaron and Hur are staying with you. If anyone has a complaint, let him refer the matter to them." 15 After Moses had gone up, a cloud covered the mountain.
16 The glory of the Lord settled upon Mount Sinai. The cloud covered it for six days, and on the seventh day he called to 17 Moses from the midst of the cloud. To the Israelites the glory of the Lord was seen as a consuming fire on the mountaintop.
18 But Moses passed into the midst of the cloud as he went up on the mountain; and there he stayed for forty days and forty nights.

IV. THE DWELLING AND ITS FURNISHINGS

25

1 Collection of Materials This is what the Lord then said to 2 Moses: "Tell the Israelites to take up a collection for me. From every man you shall accept the contribution that his heart 3 prompts him to give me. These are the contributions you shall 4 accept from them: gold, silver and bronze; | violet, purple and 5 scarlet yarn; fine linen and goat hair; | rams' skins dyed red,
6 and thahas skins; acacia wood; | oil for the light; spices for the 7 anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; onyx stones and other gems for mounting on the ephod and the breastpiece.
8 "They shall make a sanctuary for me, that I may dwell in 9 their midst. This Dwelling and all its furnishings you shall make exactly according to the pattern that I will now show you.

24, 12: Laws in the ancient Near East were written on stone blocks, e.g., the Code of Hammurabi. The author may not necessarily mean that God Himself wrote on these two tablets; he may be following the example of the Egyptians who used to say that the finger of such and such a god wrote such and such an inscription. See 31, 18; 32, 16; 34, 1.

24, 15-18: See 13, 21-22.

10 Plan of the Ark "You shall make an ark of acacia woc two and a half cubits long, one and a half cubits wide, ar 11 one and a half cubits high. Plate it inside and outside wi 12 pure gold, and put a molding of gold around the top of it. Ca four gold rings and fasten them on the four supports of tl 13 ark, two rings on one side and two on the opposite side. Th 14 make poles of acacia wood and plate them with gold. The poles you are to put through the rings on the sides of the ar 15 for carrying it; they must remain in the rings of the ark ar 16 never be withdrawn. In the ark you are to put the Comman ments which I will give you.
17 "You shall then make a propitiatory of pure gold, two ci 18 bits and a half long, and one and a half cubits wide. Make tw cherubim of beaten gold for the two ends of the propitiator 19 fastening them so that one cherub springs direct from each en 20 The cherubim shall have their wings spread out above, cove ing the propitiatory with them; they shall be turned towar each other, but with their faces looking toward the propitiatory 21 This propitiatory you shall then place on top of the ark. I the ark itself you are to put the Commandments which I wil 22 give you. There I will meet you and there, from above the pro pitiatory between the two cherubim on the Ark of the Com mandments, I will tell you all the commands that I wish you t give the Israelites.

23 The Table "You shall also make a table of acacia wood 24 two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high. Plate 25 it with pure gold and make a molding of gold around it. Surround it with a frame, a handbreadth high, with a molding of 26 gold around the frame. You shall also make four rings of gold 27 for it and fasten them at the four corners, | one at each leg,

25—31: These seven chapters belong to the Priestly tradition. They were finally written after the end of the exile in 538 B.C. Some things mentioned here really go back to the time of Moses in the thirteenth century B.C., namely, the Ark of the Covenant, the tent, and other similar things with which Moses provided for the cult. But the main stress of the final redactor is that all these prescriptions of the construction of the sanctuary and of the cult, plus the whole development of the cult from Moses to the sixth century B.C., are authentically Mosaic. Therefore, these prescriptions are executed according to God's explicit will. To underscore this, the redactor makes God dictate the prescriptions to Moses. From many aspects, the tent in the Sinai desert is a miniature copy of Solomon's temple in Jerusalem built in the tenth century B.C., and as it was remembered in the sixth century B.C. In a sense these seven chapters speak of both the tent in Sinai and Solomon's temple.

on two opposite sides of the frame as holders for the poles 28 to carry the table. These poles for carrying the table you shall 29 make of acacia wood and plate with gold. Of pure gold you shall make its plates and cups, as well as its pitchers and 30 bowls for pouring libations. On the table you shall always keep showbread set before me.

31 The Lampstand "You shall make a lampstand of pure beaten gold—its shaft and branches—with its cups and knobs 32 and petals springing directly from it. Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand, three branches on one 33 side, and three on the other. On one branch there are to be three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, each with its knob and petals; on the opposite branch there are to be three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, each with its knob and petals; and so for 34 the six branches that extend from the lampstand. On the shaft there are to be four cups, shaped like almond blossoms, with 35 their knobs and petals, including a knob below each of the three 36 pairs of branches that extend from the lampstand. Their knobs and branches shall so spring from it that the whole will form 37 but a single piece of pure beaten gold. You shall then make seven lamps for it and so set up the lamps that they shed their 38 light on the space in front of the lampstand. These, as well as the trimming shears and trays, must be of pure gold.
39 Use a talent of pure gold for the lampstand and all its ap-40 purtenances. See that you make them according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

26

1 The Tent Cloth "The Dwelling itself you shall make out of sheets woven of fine linen twined and of violet, purple and 2 scarlet yarn, with cherubim embroidered on them. The length of each shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width four cubits;
3 all the sheets shall be of the same size. Five of the sheets are to be sewed together, edge to edge; and the same for the other 4 five. Make loops of violet yarn along the edge of the end 5 sheet in one set, and the same along the edge of the end sheet in the other set. There are to be fifty loops along the edge of the end sheet in the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the corresponding sheet in the second set, and so placed that the 6 loops are directly opposite each other. Then make fifty clasps of gold, with which to join the two sets of sheets, so that the Dwelling forms one whole.

7 "Also make sheets woven of goat hair, to be used as a 8 tent covering over the Dwelling. Eleven such sheets are to be made; the length of each shall be thirty cubits, and the wi 9 four cubits: all eleven sheets shall be of the same size. S five of the sheets, edge to edge, into one set, and the other sheets into another set. Use the sixth sheet double at the fr 10 of the tent. Make fifty loops along the edge of the end sheet one set, and fifty loops along the edge of the end sheet in 11 second set. Also make fifty bronze clasps and put them into 12 loops, to join the tent into one whole. There will be an ex half sheet of tent covering, which shall be allowed to hang do 13 over the rear of the Dwelling. Likewise, the sheets of the t will have an extra cubit's length to be left hanging down 14 either side of the Dwelling to protect it. Over the tent its you shall make a covering of rams' skins dyed red, and abo that, a covering of thahas skins.

15 The Wooden Walls "You shall make boards of aca 16 wood as walls for the Dwelling. The length of each board 17 to be ten cubits, and its width one and a half cubits. Each boa shall have two arms that shall serve to fasten the boards line. In this way all the boards of the Dwelling are to be mac 18 Set up the boards of the Dwelling as follows: twenty boar 19 on the south side, with forty silver pedestals under the twen boards, so that there are two pedestals under each boar 20 at its two arms; twenty boards on the other side of the Dwe
21 ing, the north side, | with their forty silver pedestals, two u
22 der each board; six boards for the rear of the Dwelling, to th 23 west; and two boards for the corners at the rear of the Dwel 24 ing. These two shall be double at the bottom, and likewi double at the top, to the first ring. That is how both boards i 25 the corners are to be made. Thus, there shall be in the rear eigh boards, with their sixteen silver pedestals, two pedestals unde 26 each board. Also make bars of acacia wood: five for the board 27 on one side of the Dwelling, five for those on the other side 28 and five for those at the rear, toward the west. The center bar at the middle of the boards, shall reach across from end to end 29 Plate the boards with gold, and make gold rings on them a holders for the bars, which are also to be plated with gold 30 You shall erect the Dwelling according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

31 The Veils "You shall have a veil woven of violet, purple and scarlet yarn, and of fine linen twined, with cherubim em 32 broidered on it. It is to be hung on four gold-plated columns of acacia wood, which shall have hooks of gold and shall res 33 on four silver pedestals. Hang the veil from clasps. The Ar of the Commandments you shall bring inside, behind this veil 34 which divides the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies. Set the propitiatory on the Ark of the Commandments in the Holy of Holies.

35 "Outside the veil you shall place the table and the lamp-stand, the latter on the south side of the Dwelling, opposite 36 the table, which is to be put on the north side. For the entrance of the tent make a variegated curtain of violet, purple and 37 scarlet yarn and of fine linen twined. Make five columns of acacia wood for this curtain; have them plated with gold, with their hooks of gold; and cast five bronze pedestals for them.

27

1 The Altar of Holocausts "You shall make an altar of acacia wood, on a square, five cubits long and five cubits wide; 2 it shall be three cubits high. At the four corners there are to be horns, so made that they spring directly from the altar.
3 You shall then plate it with bronze. | Make pots for removing the ashes, as well as shovels, basins, forks and fire pans, all 4 of which shall be of bronze. Make a grating of bronze network for it; this to have four bronze rings, one at each of its 5 four corners. Put it down around the altar, on the ground. This 6 network is to be half as high as the altar. You shall also make poles of acacia wood for the altar, and plate them with bronze.
7 These poles are to be put through the rings, so that they are 8 on either side of the altar when it is carried. Make the altar itself in the form of a hollow box, just at it was shown you on the mountain.

9 Court of the Dwelling "You shall also make a court for the Dwelling. On the south side the court shall have hang-10 ings a hundred cubits long, woven of fine linen twined, | with twenty columns and twenty pedestals of bronze; the hooks and 11 bands on the columns shall be of silver. On the north side there shall be similar hangings, a hundred cubits long, with twenty columns and twenty pedestals of bronze; the hooks 12 and bands on the columns shall be of silver. On the west side, across the width of the court, there shall be hangings, fifty 13 cubits long, with ten columns and ten pedestals. The width 14 of the court on the east side shall be fifty cubits. On one side there shall be hangings to the extent of fifteen cubits, with 15 three columns and three pedestals; on the other side there shall be hangings to the extent of fifteen cubits, with three columns and three pedestals.

16 "At the entrance of the court there shall be a variega curtain, twenty cubits long, woven of violet, purple and sca yarn and of fine linen twined. It shall have four columns four pedestals.
17 "All the columns around the court shall have bands 18 hooks of silver, and pedestals of bronze. The enclosure of court is to be one hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, five cubits high. Fine linen twined must be used, and the p 19 estals must be of bronze. All the fittings of the Dwelling, wh ever be their use, as well as all its tent pegs and all the t pegs of the court, must be of bronze.

20 Oil for the Lamps "You shall order the Israelites to br you clear oil of crushed olives, to be used for the light, so tl 21 you may keep lamps burning regularly. From evening to mo ing Aaron and his sons shall maintain them before the Lo in the Meeting Tent, outside the veil which hangs in front the Commandments. This shall be a perpetual ordinance the Israelites throughout their generations.

28

1 The Priestly Vestments "From among the Israelites ha your brother Aaron, together with his sons Nadab, Abiu, Ele zar and Ithamar, brought to you, that they may be my pries
2 For the glorious adornment of your brother Aaron you sh 3 have sacred vestments made. Therefore, to the various expe workmen whom I have endowed with skill, you shall gi instructions to make such vestments for Aaron as will s 4 him apart for his sacred service as my priest. These are tl vestments they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, brocaded tunic, a miter and a sash. In making these sacre vestments which your brother Aaron and his sons are to wear 5 serving as my priests, | they shall use gold, violet, purple an scarlet yarn and fine linen.

6 The Ephod and Breastpiece "The ephod they shall mak of gold thread and of violet, purple and scarlet yarn, embroi 7 dered on cloth of fine linen twined. It shall have a pair of shoul 8 der straps joined to its two upper ends. The embroidered bel on the ephod shall extend out from it and, like it, be made o gold thread, of violet, purple and scarlet yarn, and of fine linen twined.
9 "Get two onyx stones and engrave on them the names o
10 the sons of Israel: | six of their names on one stone, and th 11 other six on the other stone, in the order of their birth. As a gem cutter engraves a seal, so shall you have the two stones engraved with the names of the sons of Israel and then mounted 12 in gold filigree work. Set these two stones on the shoulder straps of the ephod as memorial stones of the sons of Israel. Thus Aaron shall bear their names on his shoulders as a re-13.14 minder before the Lord. Make filigree rosettes of gold, as well as two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords, and fasten the cordlike chains to the filigree rosettes.

15 "The breastpiece of decision you shall also have made, embroidered like the ephod with gold thread and violet, purple 16 and scarlet yarn on cloth of fine linen twined. It is to be square 17 when folded double, a span high and a span wide. On it you shall mount four rows of precious stones: in the first row, a 18 carnelian, a topaz and an emerald; | in the second row, a gar-
19 net, a sapphire and a beryl; in the third row, a jacinth, an agate 20 and an amethyst; in the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. These stones are to be mounted in gold filigree work, 21 twelve of them to match the names of the sons of Israel, each stone engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

22 "When the chains of pure gold, twisted like cords, have 23 been made for the breastpiece, you shall then make two rings of gold for it and fasten them to the two upper ends of the 24 breastpiece. The gold cords are then to be fastened to the two 25 rings at the upper ends of the breastpiece, the other two ends of the cords being fastened in front to the two filigree rosettes
26 which are attached to the shoulder straps of the ephod. Make two other rings of gold and put them on the two lower ends 27 of the breastpiece, on its edge that faces the ephod. Then make two more rings of gold and fasten them to the bottom of the shoulder straps next to where they join the ephod in front, just 28 above its embroidered belt. Violet ribbons shall bind the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod, so that the breastpiece will stay right above the embroidered belt of the ephod and not swing loose from it.

29 "Whenever Aaron enters the sanctuary, he will thus bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastpiece of decision over 30 his heart as a constant reminder before the Lord. In this breastpiece of decision you shall put the Urim and Thummim, that they may be over Aaron's heart whenever he enters the presence of the Lord. Thus he shall always bear the decisions for the Israelites over his heart in the Lord's presence.

31 Other Vestments "The robe of the ephod you shall make 32 entirely of violet material. It shall have an opening for the head in the center, and around this opening there shall be selvage, woven as at the opening of a shirt, to keep it fro 33 being torn. All around the hem at the bottom you shall ma pomegranates, woven of violet, purple and scarlet yarn a 34 fine linen twined, with gold bells between them; first a go bell, then a pomegranate, and thus alternating all around t 35 hem of the robe. Aaron shall wear it when ministering, th its tinkling may be heard as he enters and leaves the Lord presence in the sanctuary; else he will die.

36 "You shall also make a plate of pure gold and engra 37 on it, as on a seal engraving, "Sacred to the Lord." Th plate is to be tied over the miter with a violet ribbon in suc 38 a way that it rests on the front of the miter, over Aaron's for head. Since Aaron bears whatever guilt the Israelites ma incur in consecrating any of their sacred gifts, this plate mu always be over his forehead, so that they may find favor wit
the Lord.
39 "The tunic of fine linen shall be brocaded. The miter shall b made of fine linen. The sash shall be of variegated work.
40 "Likewise, for the glorious adornment of Aaron's sons yo 41 shall have tunics and sashes and turbans made. With these yo shall clothe your brother Aaron and his sons. Anoint and or 42 dain them, consecrating them as my priests. You must als make linen drawers for them, to cover their naked flesh fro 43 their loins to their thighs. Aaron and his sons shall wear then whenever they go into the Meeting Tent or approach the alta to minister in the sanctuary, lest they incur guilt and die. Thi shall be a perpetual ordinance for him and for his descendants

29

1 Consecration of the Priests "This is the rite you shall perform in consecrating them as my priests. Procure a young bull 2 and two unblemished rams. With fine wheat flour make unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread 3 with oil, | and put them in a basket. Take the basket of them 4 along with the bullock and the two rams. Aaron and his sons you shall also bring to the entrance of the Meeting Tent, and 5 there wash them with water. Take the vestments and clothe Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself, and the breastpiece, fastening the embroidered belt of the 6 ephod around him. Put the miter on his head, the sacred dia-7 dem on the miter. Then take the anointing oil and anoint 8 him with it, pouring it on his head. Bring forward his sons 9 also and clothe them with the tunics, | gird them with the sashes, and tie the turbans on them. Thus shall the priesthood be theirs by perpetual law, and thus shall you ordain Aaron and his sons.

Ordination Sacrifices "Now bring forward the bullock in front of the Meeting Tent. There Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head. Then slaughter the bullock before the Lord, at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Take some of its blood and with your finger put it on the horns of the altar. All the rest of the blood you shall pour out at the base of the altar. All the fat that covers its inner organs, as well as the lobe of its liver and its two kidneys, together with the fat that is on them, you shall take and burn on the altar. But the flesh and hide and offal of the bullock you must burn up outside the camp, since this is a sin offering.

"Then take one of the rams, and after Aaron and his sons have laid their hands on its head, | slaughter it. The blood you shall take and splash on all the sides of the altar. Cut the ram into pieces; its inner organs and shanks you shall first wash, and then put them with the pieces and with the head. The entire ram shall then be burned on the altar, since it is a holocaust, a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.

"After this take the other ram, and when Aaron and his sons have laid their hands on its head, slaughter it. Some of its blood you shall take and put on the tip of Aaron's right ear and on the tips of his sons' right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and the great toes of their right feet. Splash the rest of the blood on all the sides of the altar. Then take some of the blood that is on the altar, together with some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle this on Aaron and his vestments, as well as on his sons and their vestments, that his sons and their vestments may be sacred.

"Now, from this ram you shall take its fat: its fatty tail, the fat that covers its inner organs, the lobe of its liver, its two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and its right thigh, since this is the ordination ram; then, out of the basket of unleavened food that you have set before he Lord, you shall take one of the loaves of bread, one of the cakes made with oil, and one of the wafers. All these things you shall put into the hands of Aaron and his sons, so that they may wave them as a wave offering before the Lord. After you have received them back from their hands, you shall burn them on top of the holocaust on the altar as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord. Finally, take the breast of Aaron's ordination ram and wave it as a wave offering before the Lord; this is to be your own portion.

"Thus shall you set aside the breast of whatever wave offering is waved, as well as the thigh of whatever raised offe is raised up, whether this be the ordination ram or anytl 28 else belonging to Aaron or to his sons. Such things are du Aaron and his sons from the Israelites by a perpetual o nance as a contribution. From their peace offerings, too, Israelites shall make a contribution, their contribution to Lord.

29 "The sacred vestments of Aaron shall be passed dowr his descendants, that in them they may be anointed and 30 dained. The descendant who succeeds him as priest and v is to enter the Meeting Tent to minister in the sanctu shall be clothed with them for seven days.
31 "You shall take the flesh of the ordination ram and l 32 it in a holy place. At the entrance of the Meeting Tent Aa and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread t 33 is in the basket. They themselves are to eat of these thi by which atonement was made at their ordination and cor cration; but no layman may eat of them, since they are sacr 34 If some of the flesh of the ordination sacrifice or some the bread remains over on the next day, this remnant must 35 burned up; it is not to be eaten, since it is sacred. Carry out these orders in regard to Aaron and his sons just as I ha given them to you.
36 "Seven days you shall spend in ordaining them, | sacrifici a bullock each day as a sin offering, to make atonement. Th also shall you purge the altar in making atonement for 37 you shall anoint it in order to consecrate it. Seven da you shall spend in making atonement for the altar and in co secrating it. Then the altar will be most sacred, and whatev touches it will become sacred.
38 "Now, this is what you shall offer on the altar: two yearli 39 lambs as the sacrifice established for each day; one lamb 40 the morning and the other lamb at the evening twilight. W the first lamb there shall be a tenth of an epha of fine flo mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil of crushed olives and, 41 its libation, a fourth of a hin of wine. The other lamb y shall offer at the evening twilight, with the same cereal offeri and libation as in the morning. You shall offer this as a swe 42 smelling oblation to the Lord. Throughout your generations th established holocaust shall be offered before the Lord at t entrance of the Meeting Tent, where I will meet you and spe to you.
43 "There, at the altar, I will meet the Israelites; hence, 44 will be made sacred by my glory. Thus I will consecrate t Meeting Tent and the altar, just as I also consecrate Aar

45 and his sons to be my priests. I will dwell in the midst of the 46 Israelites and will be their God. They shall know that I, the Lord, am their God who brought them out of the land of Egypt, so that I, the Lord, their God, might dwell among them.

30

1 Altar of Incense "For burning incense you shall make an 2 altar of acacia wood, with a square surface, a cubit long, a cubit wide, and a cubit high, with horns that spring directly 3 from it. Its grate on top, its walls on all four sides, and its horns you shall plate with pure gold. Put a gold molding 4 around it. Underneath the molding you shall put gold rings, two on one side and two on the opposite side, as holders for 5 the poles used in carrying it. Make the poles, too, of acacia 6 wood and plate them with gold. This altar you are to place in front of the veil that hangs before the Ark of the Commandments where I will meet you.
7 "On it Aaron shall burn fragrant incense. Morning after 8 morning, when he prepares the lamps, | and again in the evening twilight, when he lights the lamps, he shall burn incense.
Throughout your generations this shall be the established 9 incense offering before the Lord. On this altar you shall not offer up any profane incense, or any holocaust or cereal offer-10 ing; nor shall you pour out a libation upon it. Once a year Aaron shall perform the atonement rite on its horns. Throughout your generations this atonement is to be made once a year with the blood of the atoning sin offering. This altar is most sacred to the Lord."

11-12 Census Tax The Lord also said to Moses, "When you take a census of the Israelites who are to be registered, each one, as he is enrolled, shall give the Lord a forfeit for his life, so that 13 no plague may come upon them for being registered. Everyone who enters the registered group must pay a half-shekel, according to the standard of the sanctuary shekel, twenty geras to the shekel. This payment of a half-shekel is a contribution to 14 the Lord. Everyone of twenty years or more who enters the 15 registered group must give this contribution to the Lord. The rich need not give more, nor shall the poor give less, than a halfshekel in this contribution to the Lord to pay the forfeit for 16 their lives. When you receive this forfeit money from the Israelites, you shall donate it to the service of the Meeting Tent, that there it may be the Israelites' reminder before the Lord, of the forfeit paid for their lives."

17.18 The Laver The Lord said to Moses, "For ablutions shall make a bronze laver with a bronze base. Place it betw 19 the Meeting Tent and the altar, and put water in it. Aa and his sons shall use it in washing their hands and f 20 When they are about to enter the Meeting Tent, they m wash with water, lest they die. Likewise when they appro the altar in their ministry, to offer an oblation to the Lor 21 they must wash their hands and feet, lest they die. This sl be a perpetual ordinance for him and his descendants throu out their generations."

22.23 The Anointing Oil The Lord said to Moses, "Take finest spices: five hundred shekels of free-flowing myrrh; h that amount, that is, two hundred and fifty shekels, of f grant cinnamon; two hundred and fifty shekels of fragr 24 cane; | five hundred shekels of cassia—all according to standard of the sanctuary shekel; together with a hin of ol 25 oil; and blend them into sacred anointing oil, perfumed oi 26 ment expertly prepared. With this sacred anointing oil y shall anoint the Meeting Tent and the Ark of the Commar 27 ments, the table and all its appurtenances, the lampstand a 28 its appurtenances, the altar of incense | and the altar of ho causts with all its appurtenances, and the laver with its ba 29 When you have consecrated them, they shall be most sacre 30 whatever touches them shall be sacred. Aaron and his sons y 31 shall also anoint and consecrate as my priests. To the Israeli you shall say: As sacred anointing oil this shall belong 32 me throughout your generations. It may not be used in a ordinary anointing of the body, nor may you make any oth oil of a like mixture. It is sacred, and shall be treated as sacr 33 by you. Whoever prepares a perfume like this, or whoev puts any of this on a layman, shall be cut off from his kin men."

34 The Incense The Lord told Moses, "Take these aromat substances: storax and onycha and galbanum, these and pu 35 frankincense in equal parts; and blend them into incense. Th fragrant powder, expertly prepared, is to be salted and so ke 36 pure and sacred. Grind some of it into fine dust and put th before the Commandments in the Meeting Tent where I w meet you. This incense shall be treated as most sacred by yo 37 You may not make incense of a like mixture for yourselve 38 you must treat it as sacred to the Lord. Whoever makes i incense like this for his own enjoyment of its fragrance, sha be cut off from his kinsmen."

31

1.2 Choice of Artisans The Lord said to Moses, "See, I have chosen Beseleel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Juda, 3 and I have filled him with a divine spirit of skill and under-4 standing and knowledge in every craft: in the production of 5 embroidery, in making things of gold, silver or bronze, | in cutting and mounting precious stones, in carving wood, and 6 in every other craft. As his assistant I have appointed Oholiab, son of Achisamach, of the tribe of Dan. I have also endowed all the experts with the necessary skill to make all the things 7 I have ordered you to make: the Meeting Tent, the Ark of the Commandments with the propitiatory on top of it, all the 8 furnishings of the Tent, | the table with its appurtenances, the pure gold lampstand with all its appurtenances, the altar of
9 incense, | the altar of holocausts with all its appurtenances,
10 the laver with its base, | the service cloths, the sacred vestments for Aaron the priest, the vestments for his sons in their 11 ministry, | the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense for the sanctuary. All these things they shall make just as I have commanded you."

12.13 Sabbath Laws The Lord said to Moses, "You must also tell the Israelites: Take care to keep my Sabbaths, for that is to be the token between you and me throughout the generations, to 14 show that it is I, the Lord, who make you holy. Therefore, you must keep the Sabbath as something sacred. Whoever desecrates it shall be put to death. If anyone does work on that day, 15 he must be rooted out of his people. Six days there are for doing work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of complete rest, sacred to the Lord. Anyone who does work on the Sabbath day 16 shall be put to death. So shall the Israelites observe the Sabbath, keeping it throughout their generations as a perpetual cove-17 nant. Between me and the Israelites it is to be an everlasting token; for in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, but on the seventh day he rested at his ease."

18 When the Lord had finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the Commandments, the stone tablets inscribed by God's own finger.

32

1 The Golden Calf When the people became aware of Moses' delay in coming down from the mountain, they gath-

31, 18: See 24, 12 n.

32, 1-24: The pagans represented their gods on the back of an animal ered around Aaron and said to him, "Come, make us a god w will be our leader; as for the man Moses who brought us out the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to hin 2 Aaron replied, "Have your wives and sons and daughters ta off the golden earrings they are wearing, and bring them 3 me." So all the people took off their earrings and brought th 4 to Aaron, who accepted their offering, and fashioning this g with a graving tool, made a molten calf. Then they cried o

"This is your God, O Israel, who brought you out of the la 5 of Egypt." On seeing this, Aaron built an altar before the c 6 and proclaimed, "Tomorrow is a feast of the Lord." Early t next day the people offered holocausts and brought pe offerings. Then they sat down to eat and drink, and rose up revel.
7 With that, the Lord said to Moses, "Go down at once your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, 8 they have become depraved. They have soon turned aside fr the way I pointed out to them, making for themselves a molt calf and worshiping it, sacrificing to it and crying out, 'This your God, O Israel, who brought you out of the land of Egyp 9 I see how stiff-necked this people is," continued the Lord 10 Moses. "Let me alone, then, that my wrath may blaze against them to consume them. Then I will make of you great nation."
11 But Moses implored the Lord, his God, saying, "Why, Lord, should your wrath blaze up against your own peop whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with such gr 12 power and with so strong a hand? Why should the Egypti say, 'With evil intent he brought them out, that he might k them in the mountains and exterminate them from the face the earth'? Let your blazing wrath die down; relent in puni 13 ing your people. Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac a Israel, and how you swore to them by your own self, sayi
'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in t sky; and all this land that I promised, I will give your 14 scendants as their perpetual heritage.' " So the Lord relent in the punishment he had threatened to inflict on his peop 15 Moses then turned and came down the mountain with t two tablets of the Commandments in his hands, tablets tl 16 were written on both sides, front and back; tablets that w used as a pedestal. Scholars believe that the calf was only the ped tal. There was no image of God nor any other image placed on top the pedestal-calf. Archeologists have never found an image of Yahw

32, 16: See 24, 12 n.

made by God, having inscriptions on them that were engraved 17 by God himself. Now, when Josue heard the noise of the people shouting, he said to Moses, "That sounds like a battle in the 18 camp." But Moses answered, "It does not sound like cries of victory, nor does it sound like cries of defeat; the sounds that 19 I hear are cries of revelry." As he drew near the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. With that, Moses' wrath flared up, so that he threw the tablets down and broke them on the base 20 of the mountain. Taking the calf they had made, he fused it in the fire and then ground it down to powder, which he scattered on the water and made the Israelites drink.
21 Moses asked Aaron, "What did this people ever do to you 22 that you should lead them into so grave a sin?" Aaron replied, "Let not my lord be angry. You know well enough how prone 23 the people are to evil. They said to me, 'Make us a god to be our leader; as for the man Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' 24 So I told them, 'Let anyone who has gold jewelry take it off.'
They gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and this calf came out."
25 When Moses realized that, to the scornful joy of their foes, 26 Aaron had let the people run wild, | he stood at the gate of the camp and cried, "Whoever is for the Lord, let him come 27 to me!" All the Levites then rallied to him, | and he told them, "Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Put your sword on your hip, every one of you! Now go up and down the camp, from gate to gate, and slay your own kinsmen, your friends 28 and neighbors!" The Levites carried out the command of Moses, and that day there fell about three thousand of the 29 people. Then Moses said, "Today you have been dedicated to the Lord, for you were against your own sons and kinsmen, to bring a blessing upon yourselves this day."

30 The Atonement On the next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a grave sin. I will go up to the Lord, then; perhaps I may be able to make atonement for your sin." 31 So Moses went back to the Lord and said, "Ah, this people 32 has indeed committed a grave sin in making a god of gold for themselves! If you would only forgive their sin! If you will not, then strike me out of the book that you have written."

32, 20: This seems to refer to an ordeal that would prove fatal to ne guilty. Dt 9, 21 renders this account differently.
32, 28: Three thousand: most likely an exaggerated number.
32, 29: Because of their zeal the Levites afterward became the riests of Yahweh.

33 The Lord answered, "Him only who has sinned against me 34 I strike out of my book. Now, go and lead the people whi I have told you. My angel will go before you. When it is t for me to punish, I will punish them for their sin." 35 Thus the Lord smote the people for having had Aaron m the calf for them.

33

1 The Lord told Moses, "You and the people whom you h brought up from the land of Egypt, are to go up from her the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob I wo 2 give to their descendants. Driving out the Chanaanites, An rites, Hethites, Pherezites, Hevites and Jebusites, I will send 3 angel before you | to the land flowing with milk and hon
But I myself will not go up in your company, because y are a stiff-necked people; otherwise I might exterminate y 4 on the way." When the people heard this bad news, they w into mourning, and no one wore his ornaments.
5 The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites: You are a st necked people. Were I to go up in your company even fo moment, I would exterminate you. Take off your ornamer 6 therefore; I will then see what I am to do with you." So, fr Mount Horeb onward, the Israelites laid aside their ornamer

7 Moses' Intimacy with God The Tent, which was called t Meeting Tent, Moses used to pitch at some distance aw outside the camp. Anyone who wished to consult the Lo 8 would go to this Meeting Tent outside the camp. Whenev Moses went out to the Tent, the people would all rise a stand at the entrance of their own tents, watching Moses un 9 he entered the Tent. As Moses entered the Tent, the column cloud would come down and stand at its entrance while t 10 Lord spoke with Moses. On seeing the column of cloud sta at the entrance of the Tent, all the people would rise a 11 worship at the entrance of their own tents. The Lord used speak to Moses face to face, as one man speaks to anothe Moses would then return to the camp, but his young assistan Josue, son of Nun, would not move out of the Tent.
12 Moses said to the Lord, "You, indeed, are telling me to le this people on; but you have not let me know whom you w send with me. Yet you have said, 'You are my intimate frien 13 and also, 'You have found favor with me.' Now, if I ha found favor with you, do let me know your ways so that, knowing you, I may continue to find favor with you. The 14 too, this nation is, after all, your own people." "I myself," t

15 Lord answered, "will go along, to give you rest." Moses replied, "If you are not going yourself, do not make us go up 16 from here. For how can it be known that we, your people and I, have found favor with you, except by your going with us? Then we, your people and I, will be singled out from every 17 other people on the earth." The Lord said to Moses, "This request, too, which you have just made, I will carry out, because you have found favor with me and you are my intimate friend."

18.19 Then Moses said, "Do let me see your glory!" He answered, "I will make all my beauty pass before you, and in your presence I will pronounce my name, 'Lord'; I who show 20 favors to whom I will, I who grant mercy to whom I will. But my face you cannot see, for no man sees me and still lives.
21 Here," continued the Lord, "is a place near me where you 22 shall station yourself on the rock. When my glory passes I will set you in the hollow of the rock and will cover you with my 23 hand until I have passed by. Then I will remove my hand, so that you may see my back; but my face is not to be seen."

34

1 Renewal of the Tablets The Lord said to Moses, "Cut two stone tablets like the former, that I may write on them the Commandments which were on the former tablets that you
2 broke. Get ready for tomorrow morning, when you are to go up Mount Sinai and there present yourself to me on the top 3 of the mountain. No one shall come up with you, and no one is even to be seen on any part of the mountain; even the flocks and the herds are not to go grazing toward this moun-4 tain." Moses then cut two stone tablets like the former, and early the next morning he went up Mount Sinai as the Lord had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets.

5 Having come down in a cloud, the Lord stood with him 6 there and proclaimed his name, "Lord." Thus the Lord passed before him and cried out, "The Lord, the Lord, a merciful and

---

33, 23: Seems to be a correction of "face to face" in v. 11, in Nm 12, 8; and in Dt 34, 10.

34, 1: See 24, 12 n.

34, 5-8: God fulfills the promise He made in 33, 19-23. In pronouncing His name, He also reveals His attributes, especially His mercy and justice. Kindness: is the translation of the Hebrew hesed. Since it is so rich in meaning, it is untranslatable. Often it is rendered "Covenant love." Hesed means the attribute of those who are bound by the Covenant ("berit") with God. See 19, 3-6 n; 20, 6 n. The verses 5 to 8 are often quoted in the Old Testament.

gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelit 7 continuing his kindness for a thousand generations, and fo giving wickedness and crime and sin; yet not declaring th guilty guiltless, but punishing children and grandchildren the third and fourth generation for their fathers' wickedness 8,9 Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then h said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardo our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own."

10 Religious Laws "Here, then," said the Lord, "is the co enant I will make. Before the eyes of all your people I wi work such marvels as have never been wrought in any natio anywhere on earth, so that this people among whom you liv may see how awe-inspiring are the deeds which I, the Lor 11 will do at your side. But you, on your part, must keep th commandments I am giving you today.

"I will drive out before you the Amorrites, Chanaanite 12 Hethites, Pherezites, Hevites and Jebusites. Take care, there fore, not to make a covenant with these inhabitants of th land that you are to enter; else they will become a snare amon 13 you. Tear down their altars; smash their sacred pillars, an 14 cut down their sacred poles. You shall not worship any othe 15 God, for the Lord is 'the Jealous One'; a jealous God is he. D not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land; else when they render their wanton worship to their gods an sacrifice to them, one of them may invite you and you ma 16 partake of his sacrifice. Neither shall you take their daughter as wives for your sons; otherwise, when their daughters ren der their wanton worship to their gods, they will make you sons do the same.

17 "You shall not make for yourselves molten gods.

18 "You shall keep the feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days at the prescribed time in the month of Abib you are to eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you; for in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

19 "To me belongs every first-born male that opens the womb among all your livestock, whether in the herd or in the flock.
20 The firstling of an ass you shall redeem with one of the flock; if you do not redeem it, you must break its neck. The first-born among your sons you shall redeem.

"No one shall appear before me empty-handed.

21 "For six days you may work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; on that day you must rest even during the seasons of plowing and harvesting.

22 "You shall keep the feast of Weeks with the first of the wheat harvest; likewise, the feast at the fruit harvest at the 23 close of the year. Three times a year all your men shall ap-24 pear before the Lord, the Lord God of Israel. Since I will drive out the nations before you to give you a large territory, there will be no one to covet your land when you go up three times a year to appear before the Lord, your God.
25 "You shall not offer me the blood of sacrifice with leavened bread, nor shall the sacrifice of the Passover feast be kept overnight for the next day.
26 "The choicest first fruits of your soil you shall bring to the house of the Lord, your God.
"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk."

27 Radiance of Moses' Face Then the Lord said to Moses, "Write down these words, for in accordance with them I have 28 made a covenant with you and with Israel." So Moses stayed there with the Lord for forty days and forty nights, without eating any food or drinking any water, and he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.
29 As Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Commandments in his hands, he did not know that the skin of his face had become radiant while he conversed 30 with the Lord. When Aaron, then, and the other Israelites saw Moses and noticed how radiant the skin of his face had 31 become, they were afraid to come near him. Only after Moses called to them did Aaron and all the rulers of the community 32 come back to him. Moses then spoke to them. Later on, all the Israelites came up to him, and he enjoined on them all 33 that the Lord had told him on Mount Sinai. When he finished 34 speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. Whenever Moses entered the presence of the Lord to converse with him, he removed the veil until he came out again. On coming out, he would tell the Israelites all that had been commanded.
35 Then the Israelites would see that the skin of Moses' face was radiant; so he would again put the veil over his face until he went in to converse with the Lord.

35 1 Sabbath Regulations Moses assembled the whole Israelite community and said to them, "This is what the Lord has com-

34, 29-35: Moses' face reflected God's glory.

34, 29: Radiant: Michelangelo's Moses has two horns on his head because the sculptor followed the Vg., which instead of "radiant," gives a literal translation: "His face was horned."

manded to be done. On six days work may be done, but th seventh day shall be sacred to you as the Sabbath of complet rest to the Lord. Anyone who does work on that day shall b put to death. You shall not even light a fire in any of you dwellings on the Sabbath day."

Collection of Materials Moses told the whole Israelit community, "This is what the Lord has commanded: Take u among you a collection for the Lord. Everyone, as his hear prompts him, shall bring, as a contribution to the Lord, gold silver and bronze; violet, purple and scarlet yarn; fine linen and goat hair; rams' skins dyed red, and thahas skins; acacia wood; | oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and fo the fragrant incense; onyx stones and other gems for mount ing on the ephod and on the breastpiece.

Call for Artisans "Let every expert among you come and make all that the Lord has commanded: the Dwelling, with its tent, its covering, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its columns and its pedestals; the ark, with its poles, the propitiatory, and the curtain veil; the table, with its poles and all its appurtenances, and the showbread; the lampstand, with its appurtenances, the lamps, and the oil for the light; | the altar of incense, with its poles; the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense; the entrance curtain for the entrance of the Dwelling; the altar of holocausts, with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its appurtenances; the laver, with its base; | the hangings of the court, with their columns and pedestals; the curtain for the entrance of the court; the tent pegs for the Dwelling and for the court, with their ropes; the service cloths for use in the sanctuary; the sacred vestments for Aaron, the priest, and the vestments worn by his sons in their ministry."

The Contribution When the whole Israelite community left Moses' presence, | everyone, as his heart suggested and his spirit prompted, brought a contribution to the Lord for the construction of the Meeting Tent, for all its services, and for the sacred vestments. Both the men and the women, all as their heart prompted them, brought brooches, earrings, rings, necklaces and various other gold articles. Everyone who could presented an offering of gold to the Lord. Everyone who happened to have violet, purple or scarlet yarn, fine linen or goat 35—40: The last part of Exodus relates the execution of the orders given in 25—31. There are many repetitions.

hair, rams' skins dyed red or thahas skins, brought them.
24 Whoever could make a contribution of silver or bronze offered it to the Lord; and everyone who happened to have acacia 25 wood for any part of the work, brought it. All the women who were expert spinners brought hand-spun violet, purple 26 and scarlet yarn and fine linen thread. All the women who 27 possessed the skill, spun goat hair. The princes brought onyx stones and other gems for mounting on the ephod and on the 28 breastpiece; as well as spices, and oil for the light, anointing 29 oil, and fragrant incense. Every Israelite man and woman brought to the Lord such voluntary offerings as they thought best, for the various kinds of work which the Lord had commanded Moses to have done.

30 The Artisans Moses said to the Israelites, "See, the Lord has chosen Beseleel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of 1 Juda, | and has filled him with a divine spirit of skill and 2 understanding and knowledge in every craft: in the production 3 of embroidery, in making things of gold, silver or bronze, | in cutting and mounting precious stones, in carving wood, and in 4 every other craft. He has also given both him and Oholiab, son of Achisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others.
5 He has endowed them with skill to execute all types of work: engraving, embroidering, the making of variegated cloth of violet, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen thread, weaving, and all other arts and crafts.

6

1 "Beseleel, therefore, will set to work with Oholiab and with all the experts whom the Lord has endowed with skill and understanding in knowing how to execute all the work for the service of the sanctuary, just as the Lord has commanded." 2 Moses then called Beseleel and Oholiab and all the other experts whom the Lord had endowed with skill, men whose 3 hearts moved them to come and take part in the work. They received from Moses all the contributions which the Israelites had brought for establishing the service of the sanctuary. Still, morning after morning the people continued to bring their voluntary offerings to Moses. Thereupon the experts who were executing the various kinds of work for the sanctuary, all left the work they were doing, | and told Moses, "The people are bringing much more than is needed to carry out the work which the Lord has commanded us to do." Moses, therefore, ordered a proclamation to be made throughout the camp: "Let neither man nor woman make any more contributions for the sanc-7 tuary." So the people stopped bringing their offerings; the was already enough at hand, in fact, more than enough, complete the work to be done.

8 The Tent Cloth and Coverings The various experts wl were executing the work, made the Dwelling with its t sheets woven of fine linen twined, having cherubim embr 9 dered on them with violet, purple and scarlet yarn. The leng of each sheet was twenty-eight cubits, and the width fo 10 cubits; all the sheets were of the same size. Five of the shee were sewed together, edge to edge; and the same for the oth 11 five. Loops of violet yarn were made along the edge of tl end sheet in the first set, and the same along the edge of th 12 end sheet in the second set. Fifty loops were thus put on or inner sheet, and fifty loops on the inner sheet in the other se 13 with the loops directly opposite each other. Then fifty clasp of gold were made, with which the sheets were joined so tha the Dwelling formed one whole.
14 Sheets of goat hair were also woven as a tent over th 15 Dwelling. Eleven such sheets were made. | The length o each sheet was thirty cubits and the width four cubits; a 16 eleven sheets were of the same size. Five of these sheets wer sewed edge to edge into one set; and the other six sheets int 17 another set. Fifty loops were made along the edge of the en sheet in one set, and fifty loops along the edge of the corres 18 ponding sheet in the other set. Fifty bronze clasps were mad with which the tent was joined so that it formed one whole 19 A covering for the tent was made of rams' skins dyed red, an above that, a covering of thahas skins.

20 The Boards Boards of acacia wood were made as walls fo 21 the Dwelling. The length of each board was ten cubits, anc 22 the width one and a half cubits. Each board had two arms, fastening them in line. In this way all the boards of the Dwell-23 ing were made. They were set up as follows: twenty boards on 24 the south side, | with forty silver pedestals under the twenty boards, so that there were two pedestals under each board, at 25 its two arms; twenty boards on the other side of the Dwelling, 26 the north side, | with their forty silver pedestals, two under 27 each board; six boards at the rear of the Dwelling, to the west; 28 and two boards at the corners in the rear of the Dwelling.
29 These were double at the bottom, and likewise double at the top, to the first ring. That is how both boards in the corners 30 were made. Thus, there were in the rear eight boards, with their sixteen silver pedestals, two pedestals under each board.

31 Bars of acacia wood were also made, five for the boards on one 32 side of the Dwelling, | five for those on the other side, and 33 five for those at the rear, to the west. The center bar, at the middle of the boards, was made to reach across from end to 34 end. The boards were plated with gold, and gold rings were made on them as holders for the bars, which were also plated with gold.

35 The Veil The veil was woven of violet, purple and scarlet yarn, and of fine linen twined, with cherubim embroidered 36 on it. Four gold-plated columns of acacia wood, with gold hooks, were made for it, and four silver pedestals were cast for them.
37 The curtain for the entrance of the tent was made of violet, purple and scarlet yarn, and of fine linen twined, woven in 38 a variegated manner. Its five columns, with their hooks as well as their capitals and bands, were plated with gold; their five pedestals were of bronze.

37 1 The Ark Beseleel made the ark of acacia wood, two and a half cubits long, one and a half cubits wide, and one and a 2 half cubits high. The inside and outside were plated with 3 gold, and a molding of gold was put around it. Four gold rings were cast and put on its four supports, two rings for 4 one side and two for the opposite side. Poles of acacia wood 5 were made and plated with gold; these were put through the rings on the sides of the ark, for carrying it.
6 The propitiatory was made of pure gold, two and a half 7 cubits long and one and a half cubits wide. Two cherubim of beaten gold were made for the two ends of the propitiatory, 8 | one cherub fastened at one end, the other at the other end, 9 springing directly from the propitiatory at its two ends. The cherubim had their wings spread out above, covering the pro-pitiatory with them. They were turned toward each other, but with their faces looking toward the propitiatory.

10 The Table The table was made of acacia wood, two cubits 11 long, one cubit wide, and one and a half cubits high. It was plated with pure gold, and a molding of gold was put around 12 it. A frame a handbreadth high was also put around it, with 13 a molding of gold around the frame. Four rings of gold were 14 cast for it and fastened, one at each of the four corners. The rings were alongside the frame as holders for the poles to 15 carry the table. These poles were made of acacia wood and 16 plated with gold. The vessels that were set on the table, i plates and cups, as well as its pitchers and bowls for pourir libations, were of pure gold.

17 The Lampstand The lampstand was made of pure beate gold—its shaft and branches as well as its cups and knobs an 18 petals springing directly from it. Six branches extended fro 19 its sides, three branches on one side and three on the other. O one branch there were three cups, shaped like almond blo soms, each with its knob and petals; on the opposite branc there were three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, each wit its knob and petals; and so for the six branches that e 20 tended from the lampstand. On the shaft there were fou cups, shaped like almond blossoms, with their knobs and pe 21 als, | including a knob below each of the three pairs of branche 22 that extended from the lampstand. The knobs and branche sprang so directly from it that the whole formed but a singl 23 piece of pure beaten gold. Its seven lamps, as well as its trim 24 ming shears and trays, were made of pure gold. A talent o pure gold was used for the lampstand and its various appur tenances.

25 The Altar of Incense The altar of incense was made o acacia wood, on a square, a cubit long, a cubit wide, and tw 26 cubits high, having horns that sprang directly from it. It grate on top, its walls on all four sides, and its horns wer plated with pure gold; and a molding of gold was put aroun 27 it. Underneath the molding gold rings were placed, two on one side and two on the opposite side, as holders for the poles to 28 carry it. The poles, too, were made of acacia wood and plated with gold.
29 The sacred anointing oil and the fragrant incense were prepared in their pure form by a perfumer.

38

1 The Altar of Holocausts The altar of holocausts was made of acacia wood, on a square, five cubits long and five cubits 2 wide; its height was three cubits. At the four corners horns were made that sprang directly from the altar. The whole 3 was plated with bronze. All the utensils of the altar, the pots, shovels, basins, forks and fire pans, were likewise made of 4 bronze. A grating of bronze network was made for the altar and placed round it, on the ground, half as high as the 5 altar itself. Four rings were cast for the four corners of the 6 bronze grating, as holders for the poles, | which were made of 7 acacia wood and plated with bronze. The poles were put through the rings on the sides of the altar for carrying it. The altar was made in the form of a hollow box.

8 The bronze laver, with its bronze base was made from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.

9 The Court The court was made as follows. On the south side of the court there were hangings, woven of fine linen 10 twined, a hundred cubits long, with twenty columns and twenty pedestals of bronze, the hooks and bands of the columns 11 being of silver. On the north side there were similar hangings, one hundred cubits long, with twenty columns and twenty pedestals of bronze, the hooks and bands of the columns being 12 of silver. On the west side there were hangings, fifty cubits long, with ten columns and ten pedestals, the hooks and bands 13 of the columns being of silver. On the east side the court was 14 fifty cubits long. Toward one side there were hangings to the extent of fifteen cubits, with three columns and three pedestals; 15 toward the other side, beyond the entrance of the court, there were likewise hangings to the extent of fifteen cubits, with 16 three columns and three pedestals. The hangings on all sides 17 of the court were woven of fine linen twined. The pedestals of the columns were of bronze, while the hooks and bands of the columns were of silver; the capitals were silver-plated, and all the columns of the court were banded with silver.
18 At the entrance of the court there was a variegated curtain, woven of violet, purple and scarlet yarn and of fine linen twined, twenty cubits long and five cubits wide, in keeping 19 with the hangings of the court. There were four columns and four pedestals of bronze for it, while their hooks were of sil-10 ver. All the tent pegs for the Dwelling and for the court around it were of bronze.

11 Amount of Metal Used The following is an account of the various amounts used on the Dwelling, the Dwelling of the Testimony, drawn up at the command of Moses by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.
2 However, it was Beseleel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Juda, who made all that the Lord commanded Moses, | 3 and he was assisted by Oholiab, son of Achisamach, of the tribe of Dan, who was an engraver, and embroiderer, and a weaver of variegated cloth of violet, purple and scarlet yarn and of fine linen.
4 All the gold used in the entire construction of the sanctuary.

having previously been given as an offering, amounted t twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, ac 25 cording to the standard of the sanctuary shekel. The amour of the silver received from the community was one hundre talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five she 26 kels, according to the standard of the sanctuary shekel; one bec apiece, that is, a half-shekel apiece, according to the standard o the sanctuary shekel, was received from every man of twent years or more who entered the registered group; the number o these was six hundred and three thousand five hundred an 27 fifty men. One hundred talents of silver were used for castin the pedestals of the sanctuary and the pedestals of the veil one talent for each pedestal, or one hundred talents for th 28 one hundred pedestals. The remaining one thousand seve hundred and seventy-five shekels were used for making th hooks on the columns, for plating the capitals, and for bandin 29 them with silver. The bronze, given as an offering, amounte to seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels 30 With this were made the pedestals at the entrance of the Meet ing Tent, the bronze altar with its bronze gratings and all the 31 appurtenances of the altar, | the pedestals around the court, the pedestals at the entrance of the court, and all the tent pegs for the Dwelling and for the court around it.

39

1 The Vestments With violet, purple and scarlet yarn were woven the service cloths for use in the sanctuary, as well as the sacred vestments for Aaron, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2 The ephod was woven of gold thread and of violet, purple 3 and scarlet yarn of fine linen twined. Gold was first hammered into gold leaf and then cut up into threads, which were woven with violet, purple and scarlet yarn into an embroidered pat-4 tern on the fine linen. Shoulder straps were made for it and 5 joined to its two upper ends. The embroidered belt on the ephod extended out from it, and like it, was made of gold thread, of violet, purple and scarlet yarn, and of fine linen 6 twined, as the Lord had commanded Moses. The onyx stones were prepared and mounted in gold filigree work; they were engraved like seal engravings with the names of the sons of 7 Israel. These stones were set on the shoulder straps of the ephod as memorial stones of the sons of Israel, just as the Lord had commanded Moses.

8 The breastpiece was embroidered like the ephod, with gold thread and violet, purple and scarlet yarn on cloth of fine linen

9 twined. It was square and folded double, a span high and a 10 span wide in its folded form. Four rows of precious stones were mounted on it: in the first row a carnelian, a topaz and 11 an emerald; in the second row, a garnet, a sapphire and a beryl; 12.13 in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst; in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. They were 14 mounted in gold filigree work. These stones were twelve, to match the names of the sons of Israel, and each stone was engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.
Chains of pure gold, twisted like cords, were made for the 6 breastpiece, together with two gold filigree rosettes and two gold rings. The two rings were fastened to the two upper 7 ends of the breastpiece. The two gold chains were then fas-8 tened to the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece. The other two ends of the two chains were fastened in front to the two filigree rosettes, which were attached to the shoulder straps 9 of the ephod. Two other gold rings were made and put on the two lower ends of the breastpiece, on the edge facing the 0 ephod. Two more gold rings were made and fastened to the bottom of the two shoulder straps next to where they joined the 1 ephod in front, just above its embroidered belt. Violet ribbons bound the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod, so that the breastpiece stayed right above the embroidered belt of the ephod and did not swing loose from it. All this was just as the Lord had commanded Moses.

The Other Vestments The robe of the ephod was woven entirely of violet yarn, with an opening in its center like the opening of a shirt, with selvage around the opening to keep it from being torn. At the hem of the robe pomegranates were made of violet, purple and scarlet yarn and of fine linen twined; bells of pure gold were also made and put between the pomegranates all around the hem of the robe: first a bell, then a pomegranate, and thus alternating all around the hem of the robe which was to be worn in performing the ministry—all this, just as the Lord had commanded Moses.

For Aaron and his sons there were also woven tunics of fine linen; | the miter of fine linen; the ornate turbans of fine linen; drawers of linen [of fine linen twined]; | and sashes of variegated work made of fine linen twined and of violet, purple and scarlet yarn, as the Lord had commanded Moses. The plate of the sacred diadem was made of pure gold and inscribed, as on a seal engraving: "Sacred to the Lord." It was tied over the miter with a violet ribbon, as the Lord had com-

32 Presentation of the Work to Moses Thus the ent work of the Dwelling of the Meeting Tent was completed. T Israelites did the work just as the Lord had commanded Mos 33 They then brought to Moses the Dwelling, the tent with its appurtenances, the clasps, the boards, the bars, the colum 34 the pedestals, | the covering of rams' skins dyed red, the c 35 ering of thahas skins, the curtain veil; the Ark of the Co 36 mandments with its poles, the propitiatory, the table with all 37 appurtenances and the showbread, the pure gold lampsta with its lamps set up on it and with all its appurtenances, t 38 oil for the light, | the golden altar, the anointing oil, the fi
39 grant incense; the curtain for the entrance of the Tent, | t altar of bronze with its bronze grating, its poles and all 40 appurtenances, the laver with its base, | the hangings of t court with their columns and pedestals, the curtain for the e trance of the court with its ropes and tent pegs, all the equi ment for the service of the Dwelling of the Meeting Ter 41 the service cloths for use in the sanctuary, the sacred vestmen for Aaron the priest, and the vestments to be worn by his so 42 in their ministry. The Israelites had carried out all the wo 43 just as the Lord had commanded Moses. So when Moses sa that all the work was done just as the Lord had commande he blessed them.

40

1 Erection of the Dwelling Then the Lord said to Mose 2 "On the first day of the first month you shall erect the Dwellin 3 of the Meeting Tent. Put the Ark of the Commandments in i 4 and screen off the ark with the veil. Bring in the table and set i 5 Then bring in the lampstand and set up the lamps on it. Pu the golden altar of incense in front of the Ark of the Com mandments, and hang the curtain at the entrance of the Dwell 6 ing. Put the altar of holocausts in front of the entrance o 7 the Dwelling of the Meeting Tent. Place the laver betwee 8 the Meeting Tent and the altar, and put water in it. Set up the court round about, and put the curtain at the entrance o the court.
9 "Take the anointing oil and anoint the Dwelling and every thing in it, consecrating it and all its furnishings, so that i 10 will be sacred. Anoint the altar of holocausts and all its ap purtenances, consecrating it, so that it will be most sacred 11 Likewise, anoint the laver with its base, and thus consecrate it 12 "Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the 13 Meeting Tent, and there wash them with water. Clothe Aaron with the sacred vestments and anoint him, thus consecrating him as my priest. Bring forward his sons also, and clothe them with the tunics. As you have anointed their father, anoint them also as my priests. Thus, by being anointed, shall they receive a perpetual priesthood throughout all future generations."

16.17 Moses did exactly as the Lord had commanded him. On the first day of the first month of the second year the Dwelling was erected. It was Moses who erected the Dwelling. He placed its pedestals, set up its boards, put in its bars, and set up its columns. He spread the tent over the Dwelling and put the covering on top of the tent, as the Lord had commanded him. He took the Commandments and put them in the ark; he placed poles alongside the ark and set the propitiatory upon it. He brought the ark into the Dwelling and hung the curtain veil, thus screening off the Ark of the Commandments, as the Lord had commanded him. He put the table in the Meeting Tent, on the north side of the Dwelling, outside the veil, and arranged the bread on it before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded him. He placed the lampstand in the Meeting Tent, opposite the table, on the south side of the Dwelling, and he set up the lamps before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded him. He placed the golden altar in the Meeting Tent, in front of the veil, | and on it he burned fragrant incense, as the Lord had commanded him. He hung the curtain at the entrance of the Dwelling. He put the altar of holocausts in front of the entrance of the Dwelling of the Meeting Tent, and offered holocausts and cereal offerings on it, as the Lord had commanded him. He placed the laver between the Meeting Tent and the altar, and put water in it for washing. Moses and Aaron and his sons used to wash their hands and feet there, for they washed themselves whenever they went into the Meeting Tent or approached the altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses. Finally, he set up the court around the Dwelling and the altar and hung the curtain at the entrance of the court.
Thus Moses finished all the work.

God's Presence in the Dwelling Then the cloud covered the Meeting Tent, and the glory of the Lord filled the Dwelling. Moses could not enter the Meeting Tent, because the cloud settled down upon it and the glory of the Lord filled the Dwelling. Whenever the cloud rose from the Dwelling, the Israelites would set out on their journey. But if the cloud did not lift, they would not go forward; only when it lifted did they go forward. In the daytime the cloud of the Lord was seen over the Dwelling; whereas at night, fire was seen in the cloud by the whole house of Israel in all the stages of their journey.

THE BOOK OF LEVITICUS

INTRODUCTION

Leviticus belongs to the Priestly tradition of the sixth century B
The name of the book comes from the Levitical priests (see 32, 29 n). It is Israel's book of worship.

This book encompasses the ten months and nineteen days in t valley of Mount Sinai where the people had pitched camp. T author has God dictate the liturgical laws to Moses. The sacr purpose of this dramatic literary device is to teach that these mode laws are exactly what Moses, were he still alive, would legisla Therefore, they are explicitly decreed by God Himself. It is in th way that the Israelite readers of the sixth century have understood thi biblical authors. (See Ex 25-31 n.)

The general theme of Leviticus is "You shall be holy, because I, th Lord, am holy." It is the basic reason for the liturgical laws, whi govern the people to keep themselves liturgically pure as a sign intimate union with God. Just as our ritual presumes internal di positions of adoration, thanksgiving, etc., so did these Levitic rubrics.

Many of the liturgical precepts laid down in Leviticus are observe by orthodox Jews today. For Catholics the levitical sacrifices ar precepts have been replaced by, and fulfilled in, the one sacrifice Christ, renewed daily at Mass.

Main divisions of the Book of Leviticus are:

1. Ritual of Sacrifices, 1—7
2. Ceremony of Ordination, 8—10
3. Laws regarding Legal Purity, 11—16
4. Code of Legal Holiness, 17—26
5. Redemption of Offerings, 27

1. RITUAL OF SACRIFICES

1

1 Holocausts The Lord called Moses, and from the Meetin 2 Tent gave him this message: "Speak to the Israelites and te them: When any one of you wishes to bring an animal offe ing to the Lord, such an offering must be from the herd or fror the flock.

1, 2: From the herd or from the flock: the only animals whic could be used as sacrificial victims were either of the bovine clas (bulls, cows and calves) or the ovine class (sheep and lambs, goat and kids). Excluded, therefore, were not only all wild animals, bu also such "unclean" domestic animals as the camel and the ass.

3 "If his holocaust offering is from the herd, it must be a male without blemish. To find favor with the Lord, he shall 4 bring it to the entrance of the Meeting Tent | and there lay his hand on the head of the holocaust, so that it may be ac-5 ceptable to make atonement for him. He shall then slaughter the bull before the Lord, but Aaron's sons, the priests, shall offer up its blood by splashing it on the sides of the altar 6 which is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Then he shall 7 skin the holocaust and cut it up into pieces. After Aaron's sons, the priests, have put some burning embers on the altar 8 and laid some wood on them, | they shall lay the pieces of meat, together with the head and the suet, on top of the wood 9 and embers on the altar. The inner organs and the shanks, however, the offerer shall first wash with water. The priest shall then burn the whole offering on the altar as a holocaust, a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.
10 "If his holocaust offering is from the flock, that is, a sheep 11 or a goat, he must bring a male without blemish. This he shall slaughter before the Lord at the north side of the altar. Then Aaron's sons, the priests, shall splash its blood on the sides 12 of the altar. When the offerer has cut it up into pieces, the priest shall lay these, together with the head and suet, on top 13 of the wood and the fire on the altar. The inner organs and the shanks, however, the offerer shall first wash with water.
The priest shall offer them up and then burn the whole offering on the altar as a holocaust, a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.
14 "If he offers a bird as a holocaust to the Lord, he shall 15 choose a turtledove or a pigeon as his offering. Having brought it to the altar where it is to be burned, the priest shall snap its head loose and squeeze out its blood against the side of the 16 altar. Its crop and feathers shall be removed and thrown on 17 the ash heap at the east side of the altar. Then, having split the bird down the middle without separating the halves, the priest shall burn it on the altar, over the wood on the fire, as a holocaust, a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.

2

1 Cereal Offerings "When anyone wishes to bring a cereal

1, 3: Holocaust: from the Greek word meaning "wholly burned," this is the technical term for the special type of sacrifice in which an entire animal except its hide was consumed in the fire on the altar. The primary purpose of this complete gift was to render glory and praise to God.

1, 5: The essence of the sacrifice of the victim takes place when the offering to the Lord, his offering must consist of fine flour. He 2 shall pour oil on it and put frankincense over it. When he has brought it to Aaron's sons, the priests, one of them shall take a handful of this fine flour and oil, together with all the frankincense, and this he shall burn on the altar as a token offering, 3 a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord. The rest of the cereal offering belongs to Aaron and his sons. It is a most sacred oblation to the Lord.

4 "When the cereal offering you present is baked in an oven, it must be in the form of unleavened cakes made of fine flour 5 mixed with oil, or of unleavened wafers spread with oil. If you present a cereal offering that is fried on a griddle, it must be 6 of fine flour mixed with oil and unleavened. Such a cereal offering must be broken into pieces, and oil must be poured 7 over it. If you present a cereal offering that is prepared in a 8 pot, it must be of fine flour, deep-fried in oil. A cereal offering that is made in any of these ways you shall bring to the Lord, offering it to the priest, who shall take it to the altar.
9 Its token offering the priest shall then lift from the cereal offering and burn on the altar as a sweet-smelling oblation to 10 the Lord. The rest of the cereal offering belongs to Aaron and his sons. It is a most sacred oblation to the Lord.
11 "Every cereal offering that you present to the Lord shall be unleavened, for you shall not burn any leaven or honey as an 12 oblation to the Lord. Such you may indeed present to the Lord in the offering of first fruits, but they are not to be placed 13 on the altar for a pleasing odor. However, every cereal offering that you present to the Lord shall be seasoned with salt.
Do not let the salt of the covenant of your God be lacking from your cereal offering. On every offering you shall offer salt.
14 "If you present a cereal offering of first fruits to the Lord, you shall offer it in the form of fresh grits of new ears of 15 grain, roasted by fire. On this cereal offering you shall put 16 oil and frankincense. For its token offering the priest shall then burn some of the grits and oil, together with all the frankincense, as an oblation to the Lord.

3

1 Peace Offerings "If someone in presenting a peace offering makes his offering from the herd, he may offer before the blood is offered since it represents life. The altar represents God who receives the victim.

2, 13: The salt of the covenant of your God: the partaking in common of salt by those seated together at table was an ancient symbol of friendship and alliance.

Lord either a male or a female animal, but it must be without 7 blemish. He shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and then slaughter it at the entrance of the Meeting Tent; but Aaron's sons, the priests, shall splash its blood on the sides 8 of the altar. From the peace offering he shall offer as an oblation to the Lord the fatty membrane over the inner organs, and 9 all the fat that adheres to them, | as well as the two kidneys, with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, 10 which he shall sever above the kidneys. All this Aaron's sons shall then burn on the altar with the holocaust, on the wood over the fire, as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.
6 "If the peace offering he presents to the Lord is from the flock, he may offer either a male or a female animal, but it 7 must be without blemish. If he presents a lamb as his offering, 8 he shall bring it before the Lord, | and after laying his hand on the head of his offering, he shall slaughter it before the Meeting Tent; but Aaron's sons shall splash its blood on the 9 sides of the altar. As an oblation to the Lord he shall present the fat of the peace offering: the whole fatty tail, which he must sever close to the spine, the fatty membrane over the inner 10 organs, and all the fat that adheres to them, | as well as the two kidneys, with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he must sever above the kidneys.
11 All this the priest shall burn on the altar as the food of the Lord's oblation.
12 "If he presents a goat, he shall bring it before the Lord, | 13 and after laying his hand on its head, he shall slaughter it before the Meeting Tent; but Aaron's sons shall splash its blood on 14 the sides of the altar. From it he shall offer as an oblation to the Lord the fatty membrane over the inner organs, and all the 15 fat that adheres to them, | as well as the two kidneys, with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which 16 he must sever above the kidneys. All this the priest shall burn on the altar as the food of the sweet-smelling oblation. All 17 the fat belongs to the Lord. This shall be a perpetual ordinance for your descendants wherever they may dwell. You shall not partake of any fat or any blood."

4

1.2 Sin Offerings: For Priests The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites: When a person inadvertently commits a sin

4, 2: A sin: not necessarily a moral fault; included are all the cases of ritual uncleanness which people necessarily incurred in certain unavoidable circumstances.

against some command of the Lord by doing one of the for 3 bidden things, if it is the anointed priest who thus sins and thereby makes the people also become guilty, he shall presen to the Lord a young, unblemished bull as a sin offering for 4 the sin he committed. Bringing the bullock to the entrance of the Meeting Tent, before the Lord, he shall lay his hand 5 on its head and slaughter it before the Lord. The anointed priest shall then take some of the bullock's blood and bring 6 it into the Meeting Tent, where, dipping his finger in the blood, he shall sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, toward 7 the veil of the sanctuary. The priest shall also put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense which is before the Lord in the Meeting Tent. The rest of the bullock's blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of holocausts 8 which is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. From the sin-offering bullock he shall remove all the fat: the fatty membrane 9 over the inner organs, and all the fat that adheres to them, | as well as the two kidneys, with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he must sever above the kid-10 neys. This is the same as is removed from the ox of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn it on the altar of holocausts.
11 The hide of the bullock and all its flesh, with its head, legs, 12 inner organs and offal, | in short, the whole bullock, shall be brought outside the camp to a clean place where the ashes are deposited and there be burned up in a wood fire. At the place of the ash heap, there it must be burned.

13 For the Community "If the whole community of Israel inadvertently and without even being aware of it does something that the Lord has forbidden and thus makes itself guilty, 14 should it later on become known that the sin was committed, the community shall present a young bull as a sin offering.
15 They shall bring it before the Meeting Tent, | and here, before the Lord, the elders of the community shall lay their hands on the bullock's head. When the bullock has been slaugh-16 tered before the Lord, the anointed priest shall bring some of 17 its blood into the Meeting Tent, | and dipping his finger in the blood, he shall sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, to-18 ward the veil. He shall also put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense which is before the Lord in the Meeting Tent. The rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of holocausts which is at the entrance of 19 the Meeting Tent. All of its fat he shall take from it and burn 20 on the altar, doing with this bullock just as he did with the other sin-offering bullock. Thus the priest shall make atone-21 ment for them, and they will be forgiven. This bullock must also be brought outside the camp and burned, just as has been prescribed for the other one. This is the sin offering for the community.

22 For the Princes "Should a prince commit a sin inadvertently by doing one of the things which are forbidden by some commandment of the Lord, his God, and thus become guilty, 23 if later on he learns of the sin he committed, he shall bring as 24 his offering an unblemished male goat. Having laid his hands on its head, he shall slaughter the goat as a sin offering before the Lord, in the place where the holocausts are slaugh-25 tered. The priest shall then take some of the blood of the sin offering on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of holocausts. The rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base 26 of this altar. All of the fat he shall burn on the altar like the fat of the peace offering. Thus the priest shall make atonement for the prince's sin, and it will be forgiven.

27 For Private Persons "If a private person commits a sin inadvertently by doing one of the things which are forbidden by the commandments of the Lord, and thus becomes guilty, 28 should he later on learn of the sin he committed, he shall 29 bring an unblemished she-goat as the offering for his sin. Having laid his hand on the head of the sin offering, he shall 30 slaughter it at the place of the holocausts. The priest shall then take some of its blood on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of holocausts. The rest of the blood he shall pour 31 out at the base of the altar. All the fat shall be removed, just as the fat is removed from the peace offering, and the priest shall burn it on the altar for an odor pleasing to the Lord.
Thus the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

32 "If, however, for his sin offering he presents a lamb, he 33 shall bring an unblemished female. Having laid his hand on its head, he shall slaughter this sin offering in the place where 34 the holocausts are slaughtered. The priest shall then take some of the blood of the sin offering on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of holocausts. The rest of the blood he 35 shall pour out at the base of the altar. All the fat shall be removed, just as the fat is removed from the peace-offering lamb, and the priest shall burn it on the altar with the other oblations of the Lord. Thus the priest shall make atonement for the man's sin, and it will be forgiven.

5

1 For Special Cases "If any person refuses to give the in formation which, as a witness of something he has seen o learned, he has been adjured to give, and thus commits a sir 2 and has guilt to bear; or if someone, without being aware o it, touches any unclean thing, as the carcass of an unclear wild animal, or that of an unclean domestic animal, or tha of an unclean swarming creature, and thus becomes unclear 3 and guilty; or if someone, without being aware of it, touches some human uncleanness, whatever kind of uncleanness this 4 may be, and then recognizes his guilt; or if someone, without being aware of it, rashly utters an oath to do good or evil, such as men are accustomed to utter rashly, and then recog-5 nizes that he is guilty of such an oath; then whoever is guilty in any of these cases shall confess the sin he has incurred, 6 and as his sin offering for the sin he has committed he shall bring to the Lord a female animal from the flock, a ewe lamb or a she-goat. The priest shall then make atonement for his sin.

7 "If, however, he cannot afford an animal of the flock, he shall bring to the Lord as the sin offering for his sin two turtle-doves or two pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a 8 holocaust. He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer the one for the sin offering first. Snapping its head loose at the 9 neck, yet without breaking it off completely, he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering against the side of the altar. The rest of the blood shall be squeezed out against the base 10 of the altar. Such is the offering for sin. The other bird shall be offered as a holocaust in the usual way. Thus the priest shall make atonement for the sin the man committed, and it will be forgiven.

11 "If he is unable to afford even two turtledoves or two pigeons, he shall present as a sin offering for his sin one tenth of an epha of fine flour. He shall not put oil or frankincense on it, 12 because it is a sin offering. When he has brought it to the priest, the latter shall take a handful of this flour as a token offering, and this he shall burn as a sin offering on the altar with the 13 other oblations of the Lord. Thus the priest shall make atonement for the sin that the man committed in any of the above cases, and it will be forgiven. The rest of the flour, like the cereal offerings, shall belong to the priest."

14.15 Guilt Offerings The Lord said to Moses, "If someone commits a sin by inadvertently cheating in the Lord's sacred dues, he shall bring to the Lord as his guilt offering an unblemished ram from the flock, valued at two silver shekels according 16 to the standard of the sanctuary shekel. He shall also restore what he has sinfully withheld from the sanctuary, adding to it a fifth of its value. This is to be given to the priest, who shall then make atonement for him with the guilt-offering ram, and he will be forgiven.

17 "If someone, without being aware of it, commits such a sin by doing one of the things which are forbidden by some commandment of the Lord, that he incurs guilt for which he must 18 answer, he shall bring as a guilt offering to the priest an unblemished ram of the flock of the established value. The priest shall then make atonement for the fault which was unwittingly 19 committed, and it will be forgiven. Such is the offering for guilt; the penalty of the guilt must be paid to the Lord." 20.21 The Lord said to Moses, "If someone commits a sin of dishonesty against the Lord by denying his neighbor a deposit or a pledge or a stolen article, or by otherwise retaining his 22 neighbor's goods unjustly, | or if, having found a lost article, he denies the fact and swears falsely about it with any of 23 sinful oaths that men make in such cases, | he shall therefore, since he has incurred guilt by his sin, restore the thing that was stolen or unjustly retained by him or the deposit left with 24 him or the lost article he found | or whatever else he swore falsely about; on the day of his guilt offering he shall make full restitution of the thing itself, and in addition, give the 25 owner one fifth of its value. As his guilt offering he shall bring to the Lord an unblemished ram of the flock of the established value. When he has presented this as his guilt offering to the 26 priest, the latter shall make atonement for him before the Lord, and he will be forgiven whatever guilt he may have incurred."

6

1.2 The Daily Holocaust The Lord said to Moses, "Give Aaron and his sons the following command: This is the ritual for holocausts. The holocaust is to remain on the hearth of the altar all night until the next morning, and the fire is to be kept burn-3 ing on the altar. The priest, clothed in his linen robe and wearing linen drawers on his body, shall take away the ashes to 4 which the fire has reduced the holocaust on the altar, and lay them at the side of the altar. Then, having taken off these garments and put on other garments, he shall carry the ashes to a 5 clean place outside the camp. The fire on the altar is to be 5, 17: Without being aware of it: the case naturally presupposes that later on the offender learns of his mistake.

kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the prie shall put firewood on it. On this he shall lay out the holocau 6 and burn the fat of the peace offerings. The fire is to be kep burning continuously on the altar; it must not go out.

7 Daily Cereal Offering "This is the ritual of the cereal o fering. One of Aaron's sons shall first present it before the Lorc 8 in front of the altar. Then he shall take from it a handful c its fine flour and oil, together with all the frankincense that i on it, and this he shall burn on the altar as its token offering 9 a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord. The rest of it Aaro and his sons may eat; but it must be eaten in the form of un leavened cakes and in a sacred place: in the court of the Meet 10 ing Tent they shall eat it. | It shall not be baked with leaven
I have given it to them as their portion from the oblations o the Lord; it is most sacred, like the sin offering and the guil 11 offering. All the male descendants of Aaron may partake of it a their rightful share in the oblations of the Lord perpetually throughout your generations. Whatever touches the oblation becomes sacred."

12.13 The Lord said to Moses, "This is the offering that Aaror and his sons shall present to the Lord [on the day he is anointed]: one tenth of an epha of fine flour for the established 14 cereal offering, half in the morning and half in the evening. It shall be well kneaded and fried in oil on a griddle when you bring it in. Having broken the offering into pieces, you shall pre-15 sent it as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord. Aaron's descendant who succeeds him as the anointed priest shall do likewise. This is a perpetual ordinance: for the Lord the whole 16 offering shall be burned. Every cereal offering of a priest shall be a whole burnt offering; it may not be eaten."

17.18 Sin Offerings The Lord said to Moses, "Tell Aaron and his sons: This is the ritual for sin offerings. At the place where holocausts are slaughtered, there also, before the Lord, shall the 19 sin offering be slaughtered. It is most sacred. The priest who presents the sin offering may partake of it; but it must be 20 eaten in a sacred place, in the court of the Meeting Tent. Whatever touches its flesh shall become sacred. If any of its blood is spilled on a garment, the stained part must be washed in a 21 sacred place. A clay vessel in which it has been cooked shall thereafter be broken; if it is cooked in a bronze vessel, this 22 shall be scoured afterward and rinsed with water. All the males of the priestly line may partake of the sin offering, since 23 it is most sacred. But no one may partake of any sin offering of which some blood has been brought into the Meeting Tent to make atonement in the sanctuary; such an offering must be burned up in the fire.

1 Guilt Offerings "This is the ritual for guilt offerings, which 2 are most sacred. At the place where holocausts are slaughtered, there also shall the guilt offering be slaughtered. Its 3 blood shall be splashed on the sides of the altar. All of its fat shall be taken from it and offered up: the fatty tail, the fatty 4 membrane over the inner organs, as well as the two kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, 5 which must be severed above the kidneys. All this the priest shall burn on the altar as an oblation to the Lord. This is the 6 guilt offering. All the males of the priestly line may partake of it; but it must be eaten in a sacred place, since it is most sacred.
7 "Because the sin offering and the guilt offering are alike, both having the same ritual, the guilt offering likewise be-8 longs to the priest who makes atonement with it. Similarly, the priest who offers a holocaust for someone may keep for him-9 self the hide of the holocaust that he has offered. Also, every cereal offering that is baked in an oven or deep-fried in a pot or fried on a griddle shall belong to the priest who offers it, 10 whereas all cereal offerings that are offered up dry or mixed with oil shall belong to all of Aaron's sons without distinction.

1 Peace Offerings "This is the ritual for the peace offerings 2 that are presented to the Lord. When anyone makes a peace offering in thanksgiving, together with his thanksgiving sacrifice he shall offer unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes made of fine flour mixed 3 with oil and well kneaded. His offering shall also include loaves of leavened bread along with the victim of his peace 4 offering for thanksgiving. From each of his offerings he shall present one portion as a contribution to the Lord; this shall belong to the priest who splashes the blood of the peace offering.
5 "The flesh of the thanksgiving sacrifice shall be eaten on the day it is offered; none of it may be kept till the next day.
6 However, if the sacrifice is a votive or a free-will offering, it should indeed be eaten on the day the sacrifice is offered, but 7 what is left over may be eaten on the next day. Should any flesh from the sacrifice be left over on the third day, it must be 8 burned up in the fire. If, therefore, any of the flesh of the peace offering is eaten on the third day, it shall not win favor for him nor shall it be reckoned to his credit; rather, it shall be considered as refuse, and anyone who eats of it shall have his 19 guilt to bear. Should the flesh touch anything unclean, it may not be eaten, but shall be burned up in the fire.

20 "All who are clean may partake of this flesh. | If, however, someone while in a state of uncleanness eats any of the flesh of a peace offering belonging to the Lord, that person 21 shall be cut off from his people. Likewise, if someone touches anything unclean, whether the uncleanness be of human or of animal origin or from some loathsome crawling creature, and then eats of a peace offering belonging to the Lord, that person, too, shall be cut off from his people."

22 Prohibition against Blood and Fat The Lord said to 23 Moses, "Tell the Israelites: You shall not eat the fat of any ox or 24 sheep or goat. Although the fat of an animal that has died a natural death or has been killed by wild beasts may be put to any 25 other use, you may not eat it. If anyone eats the fat of an animal from which an oblation is made to the Lord, such a one shall 26 be cut off from his people. Wherever you dwell, you shall not 27 partake of any blood, be it of bird or of animal. Every person who partakes of any blood shall be cut off from his people."

28.29 The Portions for Priests The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites: He who presents a peace offering to the Lord 30 shall bring a part of it as his special offering to him, carrying in with his own hands the oblations to the Lord. The fat is to be brought in, together with the breast, which is to be waved 31 as a wave offering before the Lord. The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons.
32 Moreover, from your peace offering you shall give to the 33 priest the right leg as a raised offering. The descendant of Aaron who offers up the blood and fat of the peace offering 34 shall have the right leg as his portion, for from the peace offerings of the Israelites I have taken the breast that is waved and the leg that is raised up, and I have given them to Aaron, the priest, and to his sons by a perpetual ordinance as a contribution from the Israelites."
35 This is the priestly share from the oblations of the Lord, allotted to Aaron and his sons on the day he called them to 36 be the priests of the Lord; on the day he anointed them the Lord ordered the Israelites to give them this share by a perpetual ordinance throughout their generations.
37 This is the ritual for holocausts, cereal offerings, sin offerings, guilt offerings, [ordination offerings] and peace offerings, which the Lord enjoined on Moses at Mount Sinai at the time when he commanded the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai to bring their offerings to the Lord.

II. CEREMONY OF ORDINATION

8

1 Ordination of Aaron and His Sons The Lord said to 2 Moses, "Take Aaron and his sons, together with the vestments, the anointing oil, the bullock for a sin offering, the two rams, 3 and the basket of unleavened food. Then assemble the whole 4 community at the entrance of the Meeting Tent." And Moses did as the Lord had commanded. When the community had 5 assembled at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, Moses told them 6 what the Lord had ordered to be done. Bringing forward Aaron 7 and his sons, he first washed them with water. Then he put the tunic on Aaron, girded him with the sash, clothed him with the robe, placed the ephod on him, and girded him with the em-8 broidered belt of the ephod, fastening it around him. He then set the breastpiece on him, with the Urim and Thummim in 9 it, | and put the miter on his head, attaching the gold plate, the sacred diadem, over the front of the miter, at his forehead, as the Lord had commanded him to do.
10 Taking the anointing oil, Moses anointed and consecrated 11 the Dwelling, with all that was in it. Then he sprinkled some of this oil seven times on the altar, and anointed the altar, with all its appurtenances, and the laver, with its base, thus con-12 secrating them. He also poured some of the anointing oil on 13 Aaron's head, thus consecrating him. Moses likewise brought forward Aaron's sons, clothed them with tunics, girded them with sashes, and put turbans on them, as the Lord had commanded him to do.

14 Ordination Sacrifices When he had brought forward the bullock for a sin offering, Aaron and his sons laid their hands

8, 1—9, 21: Though presented in the form of a narrative, this description of Aaron's ordination was intended to serve as a guide for all future ordinations.

8, 8: The Urim and Thummim: these objects were used by the priest or high priest (and originally the priest-king) to give a decision in God's name. There is no adequate explanation of the meaning of these two terms, nor of the makeup of the objects themselves. Maybe they were small stones or small sticks. They were no longer in use after David's time. They are mentioned in Ex 28, 30; Nm 27, 21; Dt 33, 8.

15 on its head. Then Moses slaughtered it, and taking some of i blood, with his finger he put it on the horns around the alta thus purifying the altar. He also made atonement for the alt by pouring out the blood at its base when he consecrated 16 Taking all the fat that was over the inner organs, as well the lobe of the liver and the two kidneys with their fat, Mos 17 burned them on the altar. The bullock, however, with its hi and flesh and offal he burned in the fire outside the camp, as t Lord had commanded him to do.
18 He next brought forward the holocaust ram, and Aaro 19 and his sons laid their hands on its head. When he had slaug 20 tered it, Moses splashed its blood on all sides of the altar. Aft cutting up the ram into pieces, he burned the head, the cut u 21 pieces and the suet; then, having washed the inner organs an the shanks with water, he also burned these remaining part of the ram on the altar as a holocaust, a sweet-smelling oblatio to the Lord, as the Lord had commanded him to do.
22 Then he brought forward the second ram, the ordinatio 23 ram, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head. Whe he had slaughtered it, Moses took some of its blood and put i on the tip of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand 24 and on the big toe of his right foot. Moses had the sons o Aaron also come forward, and he put some of the blood on th tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, an on the big toes of their right feet. The rest of the blood h 25 splashed on the sides of the altar. He then took the fat: th fatty tail and all the fat over the inner organs, the lobe of th liver and the two kidneys with their fat, and likewise the righ 26 leg; from the basket of unleavened food that was set before th Lord he took one unleavened cake, one loaf of bread made wit oil, and one wafer; these he placed on top of the portions o 27 fat and the right leg. He then put all these things into the hand of Aaron and his sons, whom he had wave them as a wave 28 offering before the Lord. When he had received them back, Moses burned them with the holocaust on the altar as the ordination offering, a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.
29 He then took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before the Lord; this was Moses' own portion of the ordination ram.
All this was in keeping with the Lord's command to Moses.
30 Taking some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar, Moses sprinkled with it Aaron and his vestments, as well as his sons and their vestments, thus consecrat-ing both Aaron and his vestments and his sons and their vestments.
31 Finally, Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the flesh at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of the ordination offering, in keeping with the command I have received: 'Aaron and his sons shall eat of 2 it.' What is left over of the flesh and the bread you shall burn 3 up in the fire. Moreover, you are not to depart from the entrance of the Meeing Tent for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed; for your ordination is to last for 4 seven days. The Lord has commanded that what has been done 5 today be done to make atonement for you. Hence you must remain at the entrance of the Meeting Tent day and night for seven days, carrying out the prescriptions of the Lord; otherwise you shall die; for this is the command I have received." 6 So Aaron and his sons did all that the Lord had commanded through Moses.

1 Octave of the Ordination On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons, together with the elders of Israel, 2 | and said to Aaron, "Take a calf for a sin offering and a ram for a holocaust, both without blemish, and offer them before 3 the Lord. Tell the elders of Israel, too: Take a he-goat for a sin offering, a calf and a lamb, both unblemished yearlings, for 4 a holocaust, | and an ox and a ram for a peace offering, to sacrifice them before the Lord, along with a cereal offering mixed with oil; for today the Lord will reveal himself to you." 5 So they brought what Moses had ordered. When the whole community had come forward and stood before the Lord, | 6 Moses said, "This is what the Lord orders you to do, that the 7 glory of the Lord may be revealed to you. Come up to the altar," Moses then told Aaron, "and offer your sin offering and your holocaust in atonement for yourself and for your family; then present the offering of the people in atonement for them, as the Lord has commanded." 8 Going up to the altar, Aaron first slaughtered the calf that 9 was his own sin offering. When his sons presented the blood to him, he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar. The rest of the blood he poured out at the base of 10 the altar. He then burned on the altar the fat, the kidneys and the lobe of the liver that were taken from the sin offering, as 11 the Lord had commanded Moses; but the flesh and the hide 8, 34: The sense is not quite clear. Either the verse gives merely the reason why God ordered this ceremony, or it contains God's command that the same ceremony be used in all future ordinations, or it decrees repetition of the entire ceremony on each of the seven days.

12 he burned up in the fire outside the camp. Then Aaron slau tered his holocaust. When his sons brought him the blood, 13 splashed it on all sides of the altar. They then brought h the pieces and the head of the holocaust, and he burned th 14 on the altar. Having washed the inner organs and the shan he burned these also with the holocaust on the altar.
15 Thereupon he had the people's offering brought up. Taki the goat that was for the people's sin offering, he slaughter 16 it and offered it up for sin as before. Then he brought forwa the holocaust, other than the morning holocaust, and offer 17 it in the usual manner. He then presented the cereal offerin 18 taking a handful of it, he burned it on the altar. Finally slaughtered the ox and the ram, the peace offering of t people. When his sons brought him the blood, Aaron splash 19 it on all sides of the altar. The portions of fat from the ox a from the ram, the fatty tail, the fatty membrane over the inn organs, the two kidneys, with the fat that is on them, and th 20 lobe of the liver, he placed on top of the breasts and burn 21 them on the altar, having first waved the breasts and the rig legs as a wave offering before the Lord, in keeping with th Lord's command to Moses.

22 Revelation of the Lord's Glory Aaron then raised h hands over the people and blessed them. When he came dow from offering the sin offering and holocaust and peace offerin 23 Moses and Aaron went into the Meeting Tent. On coming ou they again blessed the people. Then the glory of the Lord wa 24 revealed to all the people. Fire came forth from the Lord presence and consumed the holocaust and the remnants of th fat on the altar. Seeing this, all the people cried out and fe prostrate.

10

1 Nadab and Abiu During this time Aaron's sons Nada and Abiu took their censers and, strewing incense on the fir they had put in them, they offered up before the Lord profan 2 fire, such as he had not authorized. Fire therefore came fort from the Lord's presence and consumed them, so that they die 3 in his presence. Moses then said to Aaron, "This is as the Lor said: Through those who approach me I will manifest m sacredness; in the sight of all the people I will reveal my glory.

10, 1-2: The precise nature of their crime is not clear in the Hebrew text.

10, 2: Fire: perhaps after the manner of lightning.

4 But Aaron said nothing. | Then Moses summoned Misael and Elisaphan, the sons of Aaron's uncle Oziel, with the order,
"Come, remove your kinsmen from the sanctuary and carry 5 them to a place outside the camp." So they went in and took them, in their tunics, outside the camp, as Moses had commanded.

6 Conduct of the Priests Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not bare your heads or tear your garments, lest you bring not only death on yourselves but God's wrath also on the whole community. Your kinsmen, the rest of the house of Israel, shall mourn for those whom the Lord's 7 fire has smitten; but do not you go beyond the entry of the Meeting Tent, else you shall die; for the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you." So they did as Moses told them.
8 9 The Lord said to Aaron, "When you are to go to the Meeting Tent, you and your sons are forbidden under pain of death, by a perpetual ordinance throughout your generations, to drink 10 any wine or strong drink. You must be able to distinguish between what is sacred and what is profane, between what is 11 clean and what is unclean; you must teach the Israelites all the laws that the Lord has given them through Moses."

12 The Eating of the Priestly Portions Moses said to Aaron and his surviving sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the cereal offering left over from the oblations of the Lord, and eat it beside the altar in the form of unleavened cakes. Since it is 13 most sacred, you must eat it in a sacred place. This is your due from the oblations of the Lord, and that of your sons; such is 14 the command I have received. With your sons and daughters you shall also eat the breast of the wave offering and the leg of the raised offering, in a clean place; for these have been assigned to you and your children as your due from the peace 15 offerings of the Israelites. The leg of the raised offering and the breast of the wave offering shall first be brought in with the oblations, the fatty portions, that are to be waved as a wave offering before the Lord. Then they shall belong to you and your children by a perpetual ordinance, as the Lord has commanded."

10, 6: Bare your heads: go without the customary head covering, as sign of mourning. Some interpreters, however, understand it as the utting off of one's hair, which ordinarily all the Israelites, men as well s women, let grow long. Still others understand the verb to mean to let one's hair hang loose and wild."

16 When Moses inquired about the goat of the sin offering, he discovered that it had all been burned. So he was angry with the surviving sons of Aaron, Eleazar and Ithamar, and said 17 | "Why did you not eat the sin offering in the sacred place since it is most sacred? It has been given to you that you might bear the guilt of the community and make atonement for them 18 before the Lord. If its blood was not brought into the inmost part of the sanctuary, you should certainly have eaten the offering in the sanctuary, in keeping with the command I had 19 received." Aaron answered Moses, "Even though they presented their sin offering and holocaust before the Lord today, yet this misfortune has befallen me. Had I then eaten of the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing to the Lord?" 20 On hearing this, Moses was satisfied.

III. LEGAL PURITY

11

1 Clean and Unclean Food The Lord said to Moses and 2 Aaron, "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: Of all land ani-3 mals these are the ones you may eat: any animal that has hoofs you may eat, provided it is cloven-footed and chews the cud.
4 But you shall not eat any of the following that only chew the cud or only have hoofs: the camel, which indeed chews the cud, but does not have hoofs and is therefore unclean for you; 5 the rock badger, which indeed chews the cud, but does not have 6 hoofs and is therefore unclean for you; the hare, which indeed chews the cud, but does not have hoofs and is therefore unclean 7 for you; and the pig, which does indeed have hoofs and is cloven-footed, but does not chew the cud and is therefore 11—15: The people of God assumed that He is concerned with every aspect of human life. Therefore, religion should include procedures about hygiene, medicine, eating habits. Many of the purities were customs and taboos observed by other ancient Near Eastern peoples before and during the time of the Hebrews.

11, 1ff: These distinctions between edible and inedible meats were probably based on traditional ideas of hygiene, but they are here given a moral, religious basis: the inedible varieties are classified as "unclean" to remind the Israelites that they are to be a pure and holy people, dedicated to the Lord.

11, 5f: According to modern zoology, the rock badger (hyrax Syriacus is classified as an ungulate, and the hare as a rodent; neither is a ruminant. They appear to chew their food as the true ruminants do, and it is upon this appearance that the classification in the text is based.

11, 3-19, 30: The identification of the various Hebrew names for these birds and reptiles is in many cases uncertain.

8 unclean for you. Their flesh you shall not eat, and their dead bodies you shall not touch; they are unclean for you.
9 "Of the various creatures that live in the water, you may eat the following: whatever in the seas or in river waters has 10 both fins and scales you may eat. But of the various creatures that crawl or swim in the water, whether in the sea or in the rivers, all those that lack either fins or scales are loathsome for 11 you, and you shall treat them as loathsome. Their flesh you 12 shall not eat, and their dead bodies you shall loathe. Every water creature that lacks fins or scales is loathsome for you.
13 "Of the birds, these you shall loathe and, as loathsome, they 14 shall not be eaten: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, | the kite,
15 the various species of falcons, | the various species of crows, 16 | the ostrich, the nightjar, the gull, the various species of 17.18 hawks, | the owl, the cormorant, the screech owl, | the barn
19 owl, the desert owl, the buzzard, | the stork, the various species of herons, the hoopoe, and the bat.
20 "The various winged insects that walk on all fours are 21 loathsome for you. But of the various winged insects that walk on all fours you may eat those that have jointed legs for leap-22 ing on the ground; hence of these you may eat the following:
the various kinds of locusts, the various kinds of grasshoppers, the various kinds of katydids, and the various kinds of crickets.
23 All other winged insects that have four legs are loathsome for you.
24 "Such is the uncleanness that you contract, that everyone who touches their dead bodies shall be unclean until evening, 25 and everyone who picks up any part of their dead bodies shall 26 wash his garments and be unclean until evening. All hoofed animals that are not cloven-footed or do not chew the cud are unclean for you; everyone who touches them becomes unclean.
27 Of the various quadrupeds, all those that walk on paws are unclean for you; everyone who touches their dead bodies shall 28 be unclean until evening, and everyone who picks up their dead

11, 19: The bat: actually a mammal, but listed here with the birds because of its wings.

11, 22: The Hebrew distinguishes four classes of edible locust-like insects, but the difference between them is quite uncertain.

11, 24-28: This paragraph sharpens the prohibition against unclean animals: not only is their meat unfit for food, but contact with their dead bodies makes a person ritually unclean.

11, 26: All hoofed animals that are not cloven-footed: such as the horse and the ass.

11, 27: All those that walk on paws: such as dogs and cats.

bodies shall wash his garments and be unclean until evening Such is their uncleanness for you.
29 "Of the creatures that swarm on the ground, the following are unclean for you: the rat, the mouse, the various kinds of 30 lizards, | the gecko, the chameleon, the agama, the skink, and 31 the mole. Among the various swarming creatures, these are unclean for you. Everyone who touches them when they are 32 dead shall be unclean until evening. Everything on which one of them falls when dead becomes unclean. Any such article that men use, whether it be an article of wood, cloth, leather or goat hair, must be put in water and remain unclean until 33 evening, when it again becomes clean. Should any of these creatures fall into a clay vessel, everything in it becomes un-34 clean, and the vessel itself you must break. Any solid food that was in contact with water, and any liquid that men drink, in 35 any such vessel become unclean. Any object on which one of their dead bodies falls, becomes unclean; if it is an oven or a jar-stand, this must be broken to pieces; they are unclean and 36 shall be treated as unclean by you. However, a spring or a cistern for collecting water remains clean; but whoever touches 37 the dead body becomes unclean. Any sort of cultivated grain remains clean even though one of their dead bodies falls on it; 38 but if the grain has become moistened, it becomes unclean when one of these falls on it.
39 "When one of the animals that you could otherwise eat, dies of itself, anyone who touches its dead body shall be un-40 clean until evening; and anyone who eats of its dead body shall wash his garments and be unclean until evening; so also, anyone who removes its dead body shall wash his garments and be unclean until evening.
41 "All the creatures that swarm on the ground are loathsome 42 and shall not be eaten. Whether it crawls on its belly, goes on all fours, or has many legs, you shall eat no swarming creature: 43 they are loathsome. Do not make yourselves loathsome or unclean with any swarming creature through being contaminated 44 by them. For I, the Lord, am your God; and you shall make and keep yourselves holy, because I am holy. You shall not make yourselves unclean, then, by any swarming creature that 45 crawls on the ground. Since I, the Lord, brought you up from the land of Egypt that I might be your God, you shall be holy, because I am holy.
46 "This is the law for animals and birds and for all the crea-

11, 36: Whoever touches the dead body: to remove the dead insect from the water supply.

tures that move about in the water or swarm on the ground, 47 that you may distinguish between the clean and the unclean, between creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten."

12

1 Uncleanness of Childbirth The Lord said to Moses, 2 "Tell the Israelites: When a woman has conceived and gives birth to a boy, she shall be unclean for seven days, with the same 3 uncleanness as at her menstrual period. On the eighth day, 4 the flesh of the boy's foreskin shall be circumcised, and then she shall spend thirty-three days more in becoming purified of her blood; she shall not touch anything sacred nor enter 5 the sanctuary till the days of her purification are fulfilled. If she gives birth to a girl, for fourteen days she shall be as unclean as at her menstruation, after which she shall spend sixty-six days in becoming purified of her blood.
6 "When the days of her purification for a son or for a daughter are fulfilled, she shall bring to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent a yearling lamb for a holocaust and a pigeon 7 or a turtledove for a sin offering. The priest shall offer them up before the Lord to make atonement for her, and thus she will be clean again after her flow of blood. Such is the law for 8 the woman who gives birth to a boy or a girl child. If, however, she cannot afford a lamb, she may take two turtledoves or two pigeons, the one for a holocaust and the other for a sin offering. The priest shall make atonement for her, and thus she will again be clean."

13

1-2 Leprosy The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, 3 or to one of the priests among his descendants, | who shall examine the sore on his skin. If the hair on the sore has turned white and the sore itself shows that it has penetrated below the 12, 2f: The uncleanness of the woman was more serious during the first period, the seven days after the birth of a boy or the fourteen days after the birth of a girl; only during this period would the rules given in 15, 19-24 apply.

13, 2ff: Various kinds of skin blemishes are treated here which were not contagious but simply disqualified their subjects from association with others, especially in public worship, until they were declared ritually clean. The Hebrew term used does not refer to Hansen's disease, currently called leprosy.

skin, it is indeed the sore of leprosy; the priest, on seeing thi 4 shall declare the man unclean. If, however, the blotch on th skin is white, but does not seem to have penetrated below th skin, nor has the hair turned white, the priest shall quarantin 5 the stricken man for seven days. On the seventh day the pries shall again examine him. If he judges that the sore has re mained unchanged and has not spread on the skin, the pries 6 shall quarantine him for another seven days, and once mor examine him on the seventh day. If the sore is now dying ou and has not spread on the skin, the priest shall declare the ma clean; it was merely eczema. The man shall wash his garment 7 and so become clean. But if, after he has shown himself to th priest to be declared clean, the eczema spreads at all on hi 8 skin, he shall once more show himself to the priest. Shoulc the priest, on examining it, find that the eczema has indeec spread on the skin, he shall declare the man unclean; it i leprosy.

9 "When someone is stricken with leprosy, he shall be brought 10 to the priest. Should the priest, on examining him, find that there is a white scab on the skin which has turned the hair 11 white and that there is raw flesh in it, it is skin leprosy that has long developed. The priest shall declare the man unclean without first quarantining him, since he is certainly unclean.
12 If leprosy breaks out on the skin and, as far as the priest can see, covers all the skin of the stricken man from head to foot, 13 should the priest then, on examining him, find that the leprosy does cover his whole body, he shall declare the stricken man 14 clean; since it has all turned white, the man is clean. But as 15 soon as raw flesh appears on him, he is unclean; on observing the raw flesh, the priest shall declare him unclean, because raw 16 flesh is unclean; it is leprosy. If, however, the raw flesh again 17 turns white, he shall return to the priest; should the latter, on examining him, find that the sore has indeed turned white, he shall declare the stricken man clean, and thus he will be clean.

18 "If a man who had a boil on his skin which later healed, 19 should now in the place of the boil have a white scab or a pink 20 blotch, he shall show himself to the priest. If the latter, on examination, sees that it is deeper than the skin and that the hair has turned white, he shall declare the man unclean; it is 21 the sore of leprosy that has broken out in the boil. But if the priest, on examining him, finds that there is no white hair in it 13, 12ff: If leprosy breaks out on the skin: the symptoms described here point to a form of skin disease which is merely on the surface and therefore easily cured.

and that it is not deeper than the skin and is already dying out, 22 the priest shall quarantine him for seven days. If it has then spread on the skin, the priest shall declare him unclean; the 23 man is stricken. But if the blotch remains in its place without spreading, it is merely the scar of the boil; the priest shall therefore declare him clean.
24 "If a man had a burn on his skin, and the proud flesh of the 25 burn now becomes a pink or a white blotch, the priest shall examine it. If the hair has turned white on the blotch and this seems to have penetrated below the skin, it is leprosy that has broken out in the burn; the priest shall therefore declare him 26 unclean and stricken with leprosy. But if the priest, on examining it, finds that there is no white hair on the blotch and that this is not deeper than the skin and is already dying out, the 27 priest shall quarantine him for seven days. Should the priest, when examining it on the seventh day, find that it has spread at all on the skin, he shall declare the man unclean and stricken 28 with leprosy. But if the blotch remains in its place without spreading on the skin and is already dying out, it is merely the scab of the burn; the priest shall therefore declare the man clean, since it is only the scar of the burn.
29 "When a man or a woman has a sore on the head or cheek, 30 | should the priest, on examining it, find that the sore has penetrated below the skin and that there is fine yellow hair on it, the priest shall declare the person unclean, for this is scall, a 31 leprous disease of the head or cheek. But if the priest, on examining the scall sore, finds that it has not penetrated below the skin, though the hair on it may not be black, the priest shall 32 quarantine the person with scall sore for seven days, and on the seventh day again examine the sore. If the scall has not spread and has no yellow hair on it and does not seem to have 33 penetrated below the skin, | the man shall shave himself, but not on the diseased spot. Then the priest shall quarantine him 34 for another seven days. If the priest, when examining the scall on the seventh day, finds that it has not spread on the skin and that it has not penetrated below the skin, he shall declare the man clean; the latter shall wash his garments, and thus he 35 will be clean. But if the scall spreads at all on his skin after he 36 has been declared clean, the priest shall again examine it. If the scall has indeed spread on the skin, he need not look for 37 yellow hair; the man is surely unclean. If, however, he judges that the scall has remained in its place and that black hair has 13, 30: Scall: according to some, "ringworm."

grown on it, the disease has been healed; the man is clean, and the priest shall declare him clean.

38 "When the skin of a man or a woman is spotted with white 39 blotches, | the priest shall make an examination. If the blotches on the skin are white and already dying out, it is only tetter that has broken out on the skin, and the person therefore is clean.

40 "When a man loses the hair of his head, he is not unclean 41 merely because of his bald crown. So too, if he loses the hair on the front of his head, he is not unclean merely because of his 42 bald forehead. But when there is a pink sore on his bald crown or bald forehead, it is leprosy that is breaking out there.
43 The priest shall examine him; and if the scab on the sore of the bald spot has the same pink appearance as that of skin
44 leprosy of the fleshy part of the body, | the man is leprous and unclean, and the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head.

45 "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he 46 shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp.

47 Leprosy of Clothes "When a leprous infection is on a gar-48 ment of wool or of linen, or on woven or knitted material of 49 linen or wool, or on a hide or anything made of leather, if the infection on the garment or hide, or on the woven or knitted material, or on any leather article is greenish or reddish, the thing is indeed infected with leprosy and must be shown to the 50 priest. Having examined the infection, the priest shall quarantine the infected article for seven days.

51 "On the seventh day the priest shall again examine the infection. If it has spread on the garment, or on the woven or knitted material, or on the leather, whatever be its use, the in-52 fection is malignant leprosy, and the article is unclean. He shall therefore burn up the garment, or the woven or knitted material of wool or linen, or the leather article, whatever it may be, which is infected; since it has malignant leprosy, it 53 must be destroyed by fire. But if the priest, on examining the infection, finds that it has not spread on the garment, or on the 54 woven or knitted material, or on the leather article, he shall 13, 39: Tetter: vitiligo, a harmless form of skin disease.

13, 47: A leprous infection: some mold or fungus growth resembling human leprosy.

give orders to have the infected article washed and then quarantined for another seven days.

55 "Then the priest shall again examine the infected article after it has been washed. If the infection has not changed its appearance, even though it may not have spread, the article is 56 unclean and shall be destroyed by fire. But if the priest, on examining the infection, finds that it is dying out after the washing, he shall tear the infected part out of the garment, or 57 the leather, or the woven or knitted material. If, however, the infection again appears on the garment, or on the woven or knitted material, or on the leather article, it is still virulent and 58 the thing infected shall be destroyed by fire. But if, after the washing, the infection has left the garment, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather article, the thing shall be washed 59 a second time, and thus it will be clean. This is the law for leprous infection on a garment of wool or linen, or on woven or knitted material, or on any leather article, to determine whether it is clean or unclean."

14

1,2 Purification after Leprosy The Lord said to Moses, "This is the law for the victim of leprosy at the time of his purification. He shall be brought to the priest, who is to go outside the 3 camp to examine him. If the priest finds that the sore of leprosy 4 has healed in the leper, he shall order the man who is to be purified, to get two live, clean birds, as well as some cedar 5 wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop. The priest shall then order him to slay one of the birds over an earthen vessel with spring 6 water in it. Taking the living bird with the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn and the hyssop, the priest shall dip them all in the 7 blood of the bird that was slain over the spring water, and then sprinkle seven times the man to be purified from his leprosy. When he has thus purified him, he shall let the living bird fly 8 away over the countryside. The man being purified shall then wash his garments and shave off all his hair and bathe in water; only when he is thus made clean may he come inside the camp; but he shall still remain outside his tent for seven days.
9 On the seventh day he shall again shave off all the hair of his head, his beard, his eyebrows, and any other hair he may have, and also wash his garments and bathe his body in water; and so he will be clean.

14, 5: Spring water: literally, "living water," taken from some source of running water, not from a cistern.

10 Purification Sacrifices "On the eighth day he shall take two unblemished male lambs, one unblemished yearling ewe lamb, three tenths of an epha of fine flour mixed with oil for 11 a cereal offering, and one log of oil. The priest who performs the purification ceremony shall place the man who is being purified, as well as all these offerings, before the Lord at the 12 entrance of the Meeting Tent. Taking one of the male lambs, the priest shall present it as a guilt offering, along with the log of oil, waving them as a wave offering before the Lord.
13 (This lamb he shall slaughter in the sacred place where the sin offering and the holocaust are slaughtered; because, like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest and is 14 most sacred.) Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the man's right ear, the thumb of his right hand, and the big toe of his right foot.
15 The priest shall also take the log of oil and pour some of it 16 into the palm of his own left hand; then, dipping his right forefinger in it, he shall sprinkle it seven times before the Lord.
17 Of the oil left in his hand the priest shall put some on the tip of the man's right ear, the thumb of his right hand, and the big toe of his right foot, over the blood of the guilt offering.
18 The rest of the oil in his hand the priest shall put on the head of the man being purified. Thus shall the priest make atone-19 ment for him before the Lord. Only after he has offered the sin offering in atonement for the man's uncleanness shall the 20 priest slaughter the holocaust | and offer it, together with the cereal offering, on the altar before the Lord. When the priest has thus made atonement for him, the man will be clean.

21 Poor Leper's Sacrifice "If a man is poor and cannot afford so much, he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering, to be used as a wave offering in atonement for himself, one tenth of an epha of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering, a log 22 of oil, | and two turtledoves or pigeons, which he can more easily afford, the one as a sin offering and the other as a holo-23 caust. On the eighth day of his purification he shall bring them to the priest, at the entrance of the Meeting Tent before the 24 Lord. Taking the guilt-offering lamb, along with the log of oil, the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the Lord.
25 When he has slaughtered the guilt-offering lamb, he shall take some of its blood, and put it on the tip of the right ear of the man being purified, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the 14, 22: Two turtledoves: substitutes for the two additional lambs, similar to the offering of a poor woman after childbirth.

big toe of his right foot. The priest shall then pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand | and with his right forefinger sprinkle it seven times before the Lord. Some of the oil in his hand the priest shall also put on the tip of the man's right ear, the thumb of his right hand, and the big toe of his right foot, over the blood of the guilt offering. The rest of the oil in his hand the priest shall put on the man's head. Thus shall he make atonement for him before the Lord. Then, of the turtledoves or pigeons, such as the man can afford, | the priest shall offer up one as a sin offering and the other as a holocaust, along with the cereal offering. Thus shall the priest make atonement before the Lord for the man who is to be purified. This is the law for one afflicted with leprosy who has insufficient means for his purification."

Leprosy of Houses The Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
"When you come into the land of Chanaan, which I am giving you to possess, if I put a leprous infection on any house of the land you occupy, the owner of the house shall come and report to the priest, 'It looks to me as if my house were infected.'
The priest shall then order the house to be cleared out before he goes in to examine the infection, lest everything in the house become unclean. Only after this is he to go in to examine the house. | If the priest, on examining it, finds that the infection on the walls of the house consists of greenish or reddish de-pressions which seem to go deeper than the surface of the wall, he shall close the door of the house behind him and quarantine the house for seven days. On the seventh day the priest shall return to examine the house again. If he finds that the infection has spread on the walls, he shall order the infected stones to be pulled out and cast in an unclean place outside the city. The whole inside of the house shall then be scraped, and the mortar that has been scraped off shall be dumped in an unclean place outside the city. Then new stones shall be brought and put in the place of the old stones, and new mortar shall be made and plastered on the house.

If the infection breaks out once more after the stones have been pulled out and the house has been scraped and replastered, | the priest shall come again; and if he finds that the infection has spread in the house, it is corrosive leprosy, and the house is unclean. It shall be pulled down, and all its stones, beams and mortar shall be hauled away to an unclean place outside the city. Whoever enters a house while it is quarantined shall be unclean until evening. Whoever sleeps or eats in such a house shall also wash his garments. If the priest finds, when he comes to examine the house, that the infection has in fact not sprea after the plastering, he shall declare the house clean, since th 49 infection has been healed. To purify the house, he shall tak two birds, as well as cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop 50 One of the birds he shall slay over an earthen vessel with sprin 51 water in it. Then, taking the cedar wood, the hyssop and th scarlet yarn, together with the living bird, he shall dip them a in the blood of the slain bird and the spring water, and sprinkl 52 the house seven times. Thus shall he purify the house with th bird's blood and the spring water, along with the living bir 53 the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet yarn. He shall the let the living bird fly away over the countryside outside th city. When he has thus made atonement for it, the house wil be clean.

54 "This is the law for every kind of human leprosy and scall 55.56 for leprosy of garments and houses, as well as for scabs
57 pustules and blotches, | so that it may be manifest when ther is a state of uncleanness and when a state of cleanness. Thi is the law for leprosy."

15

1 Personal Uncleanness The Lord said to Moses and Aaron 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: Every man who i afflicted with a chronic flow from his private parts is thereby 3 unclean. Such is his uncleanness from this flow that it make no difference whether the flow drains off or is blocked up 4 his uncleanness remains. Any bed on which the man afflicted with the flow lies, is unclean, and any piece of furniture on 5 which he sits, is unclean. Anyone who touches his bed shall wash his garments, bathe in water, and be unclean until 6 evening. Whoever sits on a piece of furniture on which the afflicted man was sitting, shall wash his garments, bathe in 7 water, and be unclean until evening. Whoever touches the body of the afflicted man shall wash his garments, bathe in water, 8 and be unclean until evening. If the afflicted man spits on a clean man, the latter shall wash his garments, bathe in water, 9 and be unclean until evening. Any saddle on which the afflicted 10 man rides, is unclean. Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening; whoever lifts up any such thing shall wash his garments, bathe in water, and 11 be unclean until evening. Anyone whom the afflicted man touches with unrinsed hands shall wash his garments, bathe 12 in water, and be unclean until evening. Earthenware touched by the afflicted man shall be broken; and every wooden article shall be rinsed with water.

13 "When a man who has been afflicted with a flow becomes free of his affliction, he shall wait seven days for his purification. Then he shall wash his garments and bathe his body in 14 fresh water, and so he will be clean. On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons, and going before the Lord, to the entrance of the Meeting Tent, he shall give them to the 15 priest, | who shall offer them up, the one as a sin offering and the other as a holocaust. Thus shall the priest make atonement before the Lord for the man's flow.
16 "When a man has an emission of seed, he shall bathe his 17 whole body in water and be unclean until evening. Any piece of cloth or leather with seed on it shall be washed with water and be unclean until evening.
18 "If a man lies carnally with a woman, they shall both bathe in water and be unclean until evening.
19 "When a woman has her menstrual flow, she shall be in a state of impurity for seven days. Anyone who touches her 20 shall be unclean until evening. Anything on which she lies or 21 sits during her impurity shall be unclean. Anyone who touches her bed shall wash his garments, bathe in water, and be un-22 clean until evening. Whoever touches any article of furniture on which she was sitting, shall wash his garments, bathe in 23 water, and be unclean until evening. But if she is on the bed or on the seat when he touches it, he shall be unclean until 24 evening. If a man dares to lie with her, he contracts her impurity and shall be unclean for seven days; every bed on which he then lies also becomes unclean.
25 "When a woman is afflicted with a flow of blood for several days outside her menstrual period, or when her flow continues beyond the ordinary period, as long as she suffers this unclean flow she shall be unclean, just as during her menstrual period.
26 Any bed on which she lies during such a flow becomes unclean, as it would during her menstruation, and any article of furniture on which she sits becomes unclean just as during her 27 menstruation. Anyone who touches them becomes unclean; he shall wash his garments, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
28 "If she becomes freed from her affliction, she shall wait 29 seven days, and only then is she to be purified. On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and bring 30 them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. The priest shall offer up one of them as a sin offering and the other 15, 23: What is added to the legislation by this verse is uncertain in both the Hebrew and the Greek.

as a holocaust. Thus shall the priest make atonement befo the Lord for her unclean flow.
31 "You shall warn the Israelites of their uncleanness, lest I defiling my Dwelling, which is in their midst, their unclea ness be the cause of their death.
32 "This is the law for the man who is afflicted with a chron flow, or who has an emission of seed, and thereby becom 33 unclean; as well as for the woman who has her menstru period, or who is afflicted with a chronic flow; the law fo male and female; and also for the man who lies with an u clean woman."

16

1 The Day of Atonement After the death of Aaron's tw sons, who died when they approached the Lord's presence, th 2 Lord spoke to Moses | and said to him, "Tell your brother Aaro that he is not to come whenever he pleases into the sanctuary inside the veil, in front of the propitiatory on the ark; other wise, when I reveal myself in a cloud above the propitiatory 3 he will die. Only in this way may Aaron enter the sanctuary He shall bring a young bullock for a sin offering and a ram for a holocaust. He shall wear the sacred linen tunic, with th linen drawers next to his flesh, gird himself with the linen 4 sash and put on the linen miter. But since these vestments ar sacred, he shall not put them on until he has first bathed hi 5 body in water. From the Israelite community he shall receiv two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a holocaust 6 "Aaron shall bring in the bullock, his sin offering to atone 7 for himself and for his household. Taking the two male goats and setting them before the Lord at the entrance of the Meet-8 ing Tent, he shall cast lots to determine which one is for the 9 Lord and which for Azazel. The goat that is determined by lot for the Lord Aaron shall bring in and offer up as a sin 10 offering. But the goat determined by lot for Azazel he shall set alive before the Lord, so that with it he may make atonement by sending it off to Azazel in the desert.
11 "Thus shall Aaron offer up the bullock, his sin offering, to atone for himself and for his family. When he has slaugh-

16, 2: The sanctuary, inside the veil: the innermost part of the sanctuary, known as "the Holy of Holies." Here the high priest was allowed to enter only once a year, on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

16, 8: Azazel: perhaps a name for Satan, used only in this chapter. The ancient versions translated this word as "the escaping goat," whence the English word "scapegoat."

12 tered it, he shall take a censer full of glowing embers from the altar before the Lord, as well as a double handful of finely ground fragrant incense, and bringing them inside the veil, 13 there before the Lord he shall put incense on the fire, so that a cloud of incense may cover the propitiatory over the Com-14 mandments; else he will die. Taking some of the bullock's blood, he shall sprinkle it with his finger on the fore part of the propitiatory and likewise sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times in front of the propitiatory.

15 "Then he shall slaughter the people's sin-offering goat, and bringing its blood inside the veil, he shall do with it as he did with the bullock's blood, sprinkling it on the propitiatory and 16 before it. Thus he shall make atonement for the sanctuary because of all the sinful defilements and faults of the Israelites.
He shall do the same for the Meeting Tent, which is set up 17 among them in the midst of their uncleanness. No one else may be in the Meeting Tent from the time he enters the sanctuary to make atonement until he departs. When he has made atonement for himself and his household, as well as for the 18 whole Israelite community, he shall come out to the altar before the Lord and make atonement for it also. Taking some of the bullock's and the goat's blood, he shall put it on the horns 19 around the altar, and with his finger sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times. Thus he shall render it clean and holy, purged of the defilements of the Israelites.

20 The Scapegoat "When he has completed the atonement rite for the sanctuary, the Meeting Tent and the altar, Aaron shall 21 bring forward the live goat. Laying both hands on its head, he shall confess over it all the sinful faults and transgressions of the Israelites, and so put them on the goat's head. He shall 22 then have it led into the desert by an attendant. Since the goat is to carry off their iniquities to an isolated region, it must be sent away into the desert.

23 "After Aaron has again gone into the Meeting Tent, he shall strip off and leave in the sanctuary the linen vestments 24 he had put on when he entered there. After bathing his body with water in a sacred place, he shall put on his vestments, and 16, 13: Else he will die: this indicates the popular idea that no living being can see God without dying. See Ex 33, 20.

16, 21-22: This is a symbolic ceremony of removing sin from the community.

16, 23: This verse is best read after v. 25. According to later Jewish practice the high priest again went into the Holy of Holies to remove then come out and offer his own and the people's holocau 25 in atonement for himself and for the people, and also bu the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26 "The man who has led away the goat for Azazel shall wa his garments and bathe his body in water; only then may 27 enter the camp. The sin-offering bullock and goat whose blo was brought into the sanctuary to make atonement, shall taken outside the camp, where their hides and flesh and off 28 shall be burned up in the fire. The one who burns them sh wash his garments and bathe his body in water; only then m he enter the camp.

29 The Fast "This shall be an everlasting ordinance for yo on the tenth day of the seventh month every one of you, whet er a native or a resident alien, shall mortify himself and sha 30 do no work. Since on this day atonement is made for you make you clean, so that you may be cleansed of all your sin 31 before the Lord, by everlasting ordinance it shall be a mo solemn sabbath for you, on which you must mortify yourselve 32 "This atonement is to be made by the priest who has bee anointed and ordained to the priesthood in succession to h father. He shall wear the linen garments, the sacred vestment 33 and make atonement for the sacred sanctuary, the Meetin Tent and the altar, as well as for the priests and all the peo 34 ple of the community. This, then, shall be an everlasting o dinance for you: once a year atonement shall be made for a the sins of the Israelites."

Thus was it done, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

IV. LEGAL HOLINESS

17

1.2 Sacredness of Blood The Lord said to Moses, "Speak t Aaron and his sons, as well as to all the Israelites, and te 3 them: This is what the Lord has commanded. Any Israelit who slaughters an ox or a sheep or a goat, whether in th 4 camp or outside of it, without first bringing it to the entranc of the Meeting Tent to present it as an offering to the Lord i 16, 29: Mortify: that is, fast from food. The only fast day in the la of Moses was this Day of Atonement, the holiest feast day of the yea Some scholars believe that besides fasting the people were obliged t abstain from the use of perfume, sandals, from bathing, and from th use of marriage. See 23, 26-32.

17—26: The primitive idea of holiness meant unapproachablene (Ex 33, 20). Unapproachableness in turn became associated with a front of his Dwelling, shall be judged guilty of bloodshed; and for this, such a man shall be cut off from among his people.

5 Therefore, such sacrifices as they used to offer up in the open field the Israelites shall henceforth offer to the Lord, bringing them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent and 6 sacrificing them there as peace offerings to the Lord. The priest shall splash the blood on the altar of the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent and there burn the fat for an odor pleas-7 ing to the Lord. No longer shall they offer their sacrifices to the satyrs to whom they used to render their wanton worship.
This shall be an everlasting ordinance for them and their descendants.

8 "Tell them, therefore: Anyone, whether of the house of Israel or of the aliens residing among them, who offers a holo-9 caust or sacrifice | without bringing it to the entrance of the Meeting Tent to offer it to the Lord, shall be cut off from his 10 kinsmen. And if anyone, whether of the house of Israel or of the aliens residing among them, partakes of any blood, I will set myself against that one who partakes of blood and will 11 cut him off from among his people. Since the life of a living body is in its blood, I have made you put it on the altar, so that atonement may thereby be made for your own lives, because 12 it is the blood, as the seat of life, that makes atonement. That is why I have told the Israelites: No one among you, not even a resident alien, may partake of blood.

13 "Anyone hunting, whether of the Israelites or of the aliens residing among them, who catches an animal or a bird that may be eaten, shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth.
14 Since the life of every living body is its blood, I have told the Israelites: You shall not partake of the blood of any meat.

---

hat was consecrated to God, such as persons and notably priests (Lv 1, 6), places, and objects. Hence objects used in the liturgy were eparated from profane use and were therefore considered holy or pure. The law of holiness in Lv 17-23 is also a law of ritual purity. Gradually hese ideas were spiritualized when separation from profane use be- ame abstinence from sin, and ritual purity became purity of conscience.

17, 3ff: The ancients considered blood the source and sign of life, nd therefore something sacred, even in animals. Hence, even the rdinary butchering of an animal for meat was looked upon as having sacrificial character, so that it should be performed at the sanctuary. his law, however, could not be carried out without great difficulty hen the Israelites were scattered throughout Palestine, and so was odified in Dt 12, 20ff.

17, 11: This is the basis of why "kosher" laws are ritual acts, be- use to take blood (or life) belongs to God and because the victim epresents the offerer.

Since the life of every living body is its blood, anyone who p takes of it shall be cut off.
15 "Everyone, whether a native or an alien, who eats of animal that died of itself or was killed by a wild beast, sh wash his garments, bathe in water, and be unclean un 16 evening, and then he will be clean. If he does not wash does not bathe his body, he shall have the guilt to bear."

18

1,2 The Sanctity of Sex The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to t 3 Israelites and tell them: I, the Lord, am your God. You sh not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you once live nor shall you do as they do in the land of Chanaan, where 4 am bringing you; do not conform to their customs. My d crees you shall carry out, and my statutes you shall take ca 5 to follow. I, the Lord, am your God. Keep, then, my statut and decrees, for the man who carries them out will find li through them. I am the Lord.
6 "None of you shall approach a close relative to have sexu 7 intercourse with her. I am the Lord. | You shall not disgra your father by having intercourse with your mother. Beside since she is your own mother, you shall not have intercour 8 with her. You shall not have intercourse with your father 9 wife, for that would be a disgrace to your father. You sha not have intercourse with your sister, your father's daughter your mother's daughter, whether she was born in your ow 10 household or born elsewhere. You shall not have intercours with your son's daughter or with your daughter's daughte 11 for that would be a disgrace to your own family. You sha not have intercourse with the daughter whom your father' 12 wife bore to him, since she, too, is your sister. You shall no have intercourse with your father's sister, since she is you 13 father's relative. You shall not have intercourse with you 14 mother's sister, since she is your mother's relative. You sha not disgrace your father's brother by being intimate with hi 15 wife, since she, too, is your aunt. You shall not have intercours with your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife, and therefor 16 you shall not disgrace her. You shall not have intercourse wit your brother's wife, for that would be a disgrace to you 17 brother. You shall not have intercourse with a woman an also her daughter, nor shall you marry and have intercours with her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter; this woul

18, 1-30: The spelling out of such sins was necessitated by the im moral practices of the Egyptians and principally by the Chanaanites.

18 be shameful, because they are related to her. While your wife is still living you shall not marry her sister as her rival; for thus you would disgrace your first wife.
19 "You shall not approach a woman to have intercourse with 20 her while she is unclean from menstruation. You shall not have carnal relations with your neighbor's wife, defiling your-21 self with her. You shall not offer any of your offspring to be immolated to Moloch, thus profaning the name of your 22 God. I am the Lord. | You shall not lie with a male as with 23 a woman; such a thing is an abomination. You shall not have carnal relations with an animal, defiling yourself with it; nor shall a woman set herself in front of an animal to mate with it;
such things are abhorrent.
24 "Do not defile yourselves by any of these things by which the nations whom I am driving out of your way have defiled 25 themselves. Because their land has become defiled, I am punishing it for its wickedness, by making it vomit out its inhabi-26 tants. You, however, whether natives or resident aliens, must keep my statues and decrees forbidding all such abominations 27.28 | by which the previous inhabitants defiled the land; otherwise the land will vomit you out also for having defiled it, just 29 as it vomited out the nations before you. Everyone who does any of these abominations shall be cut off from among his 30 people. Heed my charge, then, not to defile yourselves by observing the abominable customs that have been observed before you. I, the Lord, am your God."

19

1.2 Various Rules of Conduct The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to the whole Israelite community and tell them: Be holy, for 3 I, the Lord, your God, am holy. Revere your mother and father, and keep my Sabbaths. I, the Lord am your God.
4 "Do not turn aside to idols, nor make molten gods for yourselves. I, the Lord, am your God.
5 "When you sacrifice your peace offering to the Lord, if 6 you wish it to be acceptable, | it must be eaten on the very day of your sacrifice or on the following day. Whatever is left 7 over until the third day shall be burned up in the fire. If any of it is eaten on the third day, the sacrifice will be unacceptable 8 as refuse; whoever eats of it then shall pay the penalty for having profaned what is sacred to the Lord. Such a one shall be cut off from his people.
9 "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not be so thorough that you reap the field to its very edge, nor 10 shall you glean the stray ears of grain. Likewise, you shall not pick your vineyard bare, nor gather up the grapes tha have fallen. These things you shall leave for the poor and th alien. I, the Lord, am your God.

11 "You shall not steal. You shall not lie or speak falsel 12 to one another. You shall not swear falsely by my name, thu profaning the name of your God. I am the Lord.
13 "You shall not defraud or rob your neighbor. You shall no 14 withhold overnight the wages of your day laborer. You shal not curse the deaf, or put a stumbling block in front of th blind, but you shall fear your God. I am the Lord.
15 "You shall not act dishonestly in rendering judgment. Show neither partiality to the weak nor deference to the mighty 16 but judge your fellow men justly. You shall not go abou spreading slander among your kinsmen; nor shall you stanc by idly when your neighbor's life is at stake. I am the Lord 17 "You shall not bear hatred for your brother in your heart Though you may have to reprove your fellow man, do not in-18 cur sin because of him. Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against your fellow countrymen. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord.
19 "Keep my statutes: do not breed any of your domestic animals with others of a different species; do not sow a field of yours with two different kinds of seed; and do not put on a garment woven with two different kinds of thread.
20 "If a man has carnal relations with a female slave who has already been living with another man but has not yet been redeemed or given her freedom, they shall be punished but not 21 put to death, because she is not free. The man, moreover, shall bring to the entrance of the Meeting Tent a ram as his 22 guilt offering to the Lord. With this ram the priest shall make atonement before the Lord for the sin he has committed, and it will be forgiven him.
23 "When you come into the land and plant any fruit tree there, first look upon its fruit as if it were uncircumcised. For three years, while its fruit remains uncircumcised, it may not 24 be eaten. In the fourth year, however, all of its fruit shall be 19, 18: You shall love your neighbor as yourself: cited by our Lord as the second of the two most important commandments of God. (See Mt 22, 38; Mk 12, 31.) Although in the present context the word "neighbor" is restricted to "fellow countrymen," in Lk 10, 29-37 Christ extends its meaning to embrace all men, even enemies. (See Mt 5, 43ff.)

19, 23ff: Uncircumcised: by analogy with a newborn boy, the newly planted tree was considered impure until it was "circumcised" by offering to the Lord all the fruit of its third bearing.

25 sacred to the Lord as a thanksgiving feast to him. | Not until the fifth year may you eat its fruit. Thus it will continue its yield for you. I, the Lord, am your God.
26 "Do not eat meat with the blood still in it. Do not practice 27 divination or soothsaying. Do not clip your hair at the tem-28 ples, nor trim the edges of your beard. Do not lacerate your bodies for the dead, and do not tattoo yourselves. I am the Lord.
29 "You shall not degrade your daughter by making a prostitute of her; else the land will become corrupt and full of 30 lewdness. Keep my Sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary. I am the Lord.
31 "Do not go to mediums or consult fortune tellers, for you will be defiled by them. I, the Lord, am your God.
32 "Stand up in the presence of the aged, and show respect for the old; thus shall you fear your God. I am the Lord.
33 "When an alien resides with you in your land, do not 34 molest him. You shall treat the alien who resides with you no differently than the natives born among you; have the same love for him as for yourself; for you too were once aliens in the land of Egypt. I, the Lord, am your God.
35 "Do not act dishonestly in using measures of length or 36 weight or capacity. You shall have a true scale and true weights, an honest epha and an honest hin. I, the Lord, am your God, 37 who brought you out of the land of Egypt. Be careful, then, to observe all my statutes and decrees. I am the Lord."

20

1.2 Penalties for Various Sins The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites: Anyone, whether an Israelite or an alien residing in Israel, who gives any of his offspring to Moloch shall be 3 put to death. Let his fellow citizens stone him. I myself will turn against such a man and cut him off from the body of his people; for in giving his offspring to Moloch, he has defiled 4 my sanctuary and profaned my holy name. Even if his fellow citizens connive at such a man's crime of giving his offspring to 5 Moloch, and fail to put him to death, I myself will set my face against that man and his family and will cut off from their people both him and all who join him in his wanton 6 worship of Moloch. Should anyone turn to mediums and for-tunetellers and follow their wanton ways, I will turn against 7 such a one and cut him off from his people. Sanctify your-8 selves, then, and be holy; for I, the Lord, your God, am holy. Be careful, therefore, to observe what I, the Lord, who make you holy, have prescribed.

9 "Anyone who curses his father or mother shall be put t death; since he has cursed his father or mother, he has fo 10 feited his life. If a man commits adultery with his neighbor wife, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to deatl 11 If a man disgraces his father by lying with his father's wif both the man and his stepmother shall be put to death; the 12 have forfeited their lives. If a man lies with his daughter-in-law both of them shall be put to death; since they have committe 13 an abhorrent deed, they have forfeited their lives. If a ma lies with a male as with a woman, both of them shall be put t death for their abominable deed; they have forfeited their live 14 If a man marries a woman and her mother also, the man an the two women as well shall be burned to death for thei shameful conduct, so that such shamefulness may not b 15 found among you. If a man has carnal relations with an animal the man shall be put to death, and the animal shall be slain 16 If a woman goes up to any animal to mate with it, the woma and the animal shall be slain; let them both be put to death 17 their lives are forfeit. If a man consummates marriage witl his sister or his half-sister, they shall be publicly cut off from their people for this shameful deed; the man shall pay the 18 penalty of having had intercourse with his own sister. If a man lies in sexual intercourse with a woman during her men strual period, both of them shall be cut off from their people because they have laid bare the flowing fountain of her blood 19 You shall not have intercourse with your mother's sister or your father's sister; whoever does so shall pay the penalty of 20 incest. If a man disgraces his uncle by having intercourse with his uncle's wife, the man and his aunt shall pay the penalty 21 by dying childless. If a man marries his brother's wife and thus disgraces his brother, they shall be childless because of this incest.

22 "Be careful to observe all my statutes and all my decrees; otherwise the land where I am bringing you to dwell will 23 vomit you out. Do not conform, therefore, to the customs of the nations whom I am driving out of your way, because all these things that they have done have filled me with disgust 24 for them. But to you I have said: Their land shall be your possession, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am giving it to you as your own, I, the Lord, your God, who have set you 25 apart from the other nations. You, too, must set apart, then, the clean animals from the unclean, and the clean birds from the unclean, so that you may not be contaminated with the uncleanness of any beast or bird or of any swarming creature 26 in the land that I have set apart for you. To me, therefore, you shall be sacred; for I, the Lord, am sacred, I, who have set you apart from the other nations to be my own.

27 "A man or a woman who acts as a medium or fortune-teller shall be put to death by stoning; they have no one but themselves to blame for their death."

21

1 Sanctity of the Priesthood The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to Aaron's sons, the priests, and tell them: None of you shall make himself unclean for any dead person among his 2 people, except for his nearest relatives, his mother or father,
3 his son or daughter, his brother | or his maiden sister, who is of his own family while she remains unmarried; for these 4 he may make himself unclean. But for a sister who has married out of his family he shall not make himself unclean; this would be a profanation.

5 "The priests shall not make bare the crown of the head, 6 nor shave the edges of the beard, nor lacerate the body. To their God they shall be sacred and not profane his name; since they offer up the oblations of the Lord, the food of their God, they must be holy.

7 "A priest shall not marry a woman who has been a prostitute or has lost her honor, nor a woman who has been divorced 8 by her husband; for the priest is sacred to his God. Honor him as sacred who offers up the food of your God; treat him as sacred, because I, the Lord, who have consecrated him, am sacred.

9 "A priest's daughter who loses her honor by committing fornication and thereby dishonors her father also, shall be burned to death.

10 "The most exalted of the priests, upon whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been ordained to wear the special vestments, shall not bare his head or rend 11 his garments, nor shall he go near any dead person. Not even 12 for his father or mother may he thus become unclean | or leave the sanctuary; otherwise he will profane the sanctuary of his God, for with the anointing oil upon him, he is dedicated to his God, to me, the Lord.

13.14 "The priest shall marry a virgin. Not a widow or a woman who has been divorced or a woman who has lost her honor as

---

20, 27: This verse is best read immediately after v. 6.

21, 1: Unclean for any dead person: by preparing the corpse for burial.

21, 5: Such mourning customs of the Chanaanites were forbidden to all the Israelites, but especially to the priests.

a prostitute, but a virgin, taken from his own people, sha 15 he marry; otherwise he will have base offspring among h people. I, the Lord, have made him sacred."

16.17 Irregularities The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to Aar and tell him: None of your descendants, of whatever gener tion, who has any defect shall come forward to offer up th 18 food of his God. Therefore, he who has any of the following de fects may not come forward: he who is blind, or lame, o 19 who has any disfigurement or malformation, or a cripple 20 foot or hand, or who is humpbacked or weakly or wall-eyed 21 or who is afflicted with eczema, ringworm or hernia. No de scendant of Aaron the priest who has any such defect ma draw near to offer up the oblations of the Lord; on account o his defect he may not draw near to offer up the food of his God 22 He may, however, partake of the food of his God: of what i 23 most sacred as well as what is sacred. Only, he may not ap proach the veil nor go up to the altar on account of his defect he shall not profane these things that are sacred to me, for i is I, the Lord, who make them sacred." 24 Moses, therefore, told this to Aaron and his sons and to al the Israelites.

22

1.2 Sacrificial Banquets The Lord said to Moses, "Tell Aaron and his sons to respect the sacred offerings which the Israelites consecrate to me; else they will profane my holy name. I am the Lord.
3 "Tell them: If any one of you, or of your descendants in any future generation, dares, while he is in a state of uncleanness, to draw near the sacred offerings which the Israelites consecrate to the Lord, such a one shall be cut off from my presence. I am the Lord.
4 "No descendant of Aaron who is stricken with leprosy, or who suffers from a flow, may eat of these sacred offerings, unless he again becomes clean. Moreover, if anyone touches a person who has become unclean by contact with a corpse, or 5 if anyone has had an emission of seed, | or if anyone touches any swarming creature or any man whose uncleanness, of what-6 ever kind it may be, is contagious, the one who touches such as these shall be unclean until evening and may not eat of the 7 sacred portions until he has first bathed his body in water; then, when the sun sets, he again becomes clean. Only then may he 8 eat of the sacred offerings, which are his food. He shall not make himself unclean by eating of any animal that has died of itself or has been killed by wild beasts. I am the Lord.

9 "They shall keep my charge and not do wrong in this matter; else they will die for their profanation. I am the Lord who have consecrated them.

10 "Neither a lay person nor a priest's tenant or hired serv-11 ant may eat of any sacred offering. But a slave whom a priest acquires by purchase or who is born in his house may 12 eat of his food. A priest's daughter who is married to a lay-13 man may not eat of the sacred contributions. But if a priest's daughter is widowed or divorced and, having no children, returns to her father's house, she may then eat of her father's food as in her youth. No layman, however, may eat of it.
14 If such a one eats of a sacred offering through inadvertence, 15 he shall make restitution to the priest for the sacred offering, with an increment of one fifth of the amount. The sacred offerings which the Israelites contribute to the Lord the priests shall 16 not allow to be profaned | nor in the eating of the sacred offering shall they bring down guilt that must be punished; it is I, the Lord, who make them sacred."

7.18 Unacceptable Victims The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites, and tell them. When anyone of the house of Israel, or any alien residing in Israel, who wishes to offer a sacrifice, brings a holocaust as a
9 votive offering or as a free-will offering to the Lord, | if it is to be acceptable, the ox or sheep or goat that he offers must be 0 an unblemished male. You shall not offer one that has any 1 defect, for such a one would not be acceptable for you. When anyone presents a peace offering to the Lord from the herd or the flock in fulfillment of a vow, or as a free-will offering, if it is to find acceptance, it must be unblemished; it shall not 2 have any defect. One that is blind or crippled or maimed, or one that has a running sore or mange or ringworm, you shall not offer to the Lord; do not put such an animal on the altar
3 as an oblation to the Lord. An ox or a sheep that is in any way ill-proportioned or stunted you may indeed present as a free-will offering, but it will not be acceptable as a votive offering.
4 One that has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn out or cut off you shall not offer to the Lord. You shall neither do this
5 in your own land | nor receive from a foreigner any such animals to offer up as the food of your God; since they are deformed or defective, they will not be acceptable for you."

5.27 The Lord said to Moses, "When an ox or a lamb or a goat is born, it shall remain with its mother for seven days; only from the eighth day onward will it be acceptable, to be offered 28 as an oblation to the Lord. You shall not slaughter an ox or a 29 sheep on one and the same day with its young. Whenever you offer a thanksgiving sacrifice to the Lord, so offer it that it may 30 be acceptable for you; it must, therefore, be eaten on the same day; none of it shall be left over until the next day. I am the Lord.

31 "Be careful to observe the commandments which I, the Lord, 32 give you, | and do not profane my holy name; in the midst of the Israelites I, the Lord, must be held as sacred. It is I who 33 made you sacred | and led you out of the land of Egypt, that I, the Lord, might be your God."

23

1.2 Holy Days The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: The following are the festivals of the Lord, my feast days, which you shall celebrate with a sacred assembly.
3 "For six days work may be done; but the seventh day is the sabbath rest, a day for sacred assembly, on which you shall do no work. The Sabbath shall belong to the Lord wherever you dwell.

4 Passover "These, then, are the festivals of the Lord which you shall celebrate at their proper time with a sacred assembly.
5 The Passover of the Lord falls on the fourteenth day of the 6 first month, at the evening twilight. The fifteenth day of this month is the Lord's feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days
7 you shall eat unleavened bread. | On the first of these days you 8 shall hold a sacred assembly and do no sort of work. On each of the seven days you shall offer an oblation to the Lord. Then on the seventh day you shall again hold a sacred assembly and do no sort of work."

9.10 The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you come into the land which I am giving you, and reap your harvest, you shall bring a sheaf of the first 11 fruits of your harvest to the priest, who shall wave the sheaf before the Lord that it may be acceptable for you. On the day
12 after the Sabbath the priest shall do this. | On this day, when your sheaf is waved, you shall offer to the Lord for a holo-13 caust an unblemished yearling lamb. Its cereal offering shall be two tenths of an epha of fine flour mixed with oil, as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord; and its libation shall be 14 a fourth of a hin of wine. Until this day, when you bring your God this offering, you shall not eat any bread or roasted grain or fresh kernels. This shall be a perpetual statute for you and your descendants wherever you dwell.

15 Pentecost "Beginning with the day after the Sabbath, the day on which you bring the wave-offering sheaf, you shall 16 count seven full weeks, and then on the day after the seventh week, the fiftieth day, you shall present the new cereal offer-17 ing to the Lord. For the wave offering of your first fruits to the Lord, you shall bring with you from wherever you live two loaves of bread made of two tenths of an epha of fine flour and 18 baked with leaven. Besides the bread, you shall offer to the Lord a holocaust of seven unblemished yearling lambs, one young bull, and two rams, along with their cereal offering and 19 libations, as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord. One male goat shall be sacrificed as a sin offering, and two yearling 20 lambs as a peace offering. The priest shall wave the bread of the first fruits and the two lambs as a wave offering before the Lord; these shall be sacred to the Lord and belong to the 21 priest. On this same day you shall by proclamation have a sacred assembly, and no sort of work may be done. This shall be a perpetual statute for you and your descendants wherever you dwell.

22 "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not be so thorough that you reap the field to its very edge, nor shall you glean the stray ears of your grain. These things you shall leave for the poor and the alien. I, the Lord, am your God."

23.24 New Year's Day The Lord said to Moses: "Tell the Israelites: On the first day of the seventh month you shall keep a sabbath rest, with a sacred assembly and with the trumpet 25 blasts as a reminder; you shall then do no sort of work, and you shall offer an oblation to the Lord."

26.27 The Day of Atonement The Lord said to Moses, "The tenth of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement, when you shall hold a sacred assembly and mortify yourselves and 28 offer an oblation to the Lord. On this day you shall not do any work, because it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is 29 made for you before the Lord, your God. Anyone who does not mortify himself on this day shall be cut off from his peo-30 ple; and if anyone does any work on this day, I will remove 31 him from the midst of his people. This is a perpetual statute

23, 16: The fiftieth: from the Greek word for this we have the name "Pentecost."

for you and your descendants wherever you dwell: you shall 32 do no work, | but shall keep a sabbath of complete rest and mortify yourselves. Beginning on the evening of the ninth of the month, you shall keep this sabbath of yours from evening to evening.

33.34 The Feast of Booths The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites: The fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Lord's 35 feast of Booths, which shall continue for seven days. On the first day there shall be a sacred assembly, and you shall do 36 no sort of work. For seven days you shall offer an oblation to the Lord, and on the eighth day you shall again hold a sacred assembly and offer an oblation to the Lord. On that solemn closing you shall do no sort of work.
37 "These, therefore, are the festivals of the Lord on which you shall proclaim a sacred assembly, and offer as an oblation to the Lord holocausts and cereal offerings, sacrifices and 38 libations, as prescribed for each day, | in addition to those of the Lord's Sabbaths, your donations, your various votive offerings and the freewill offerings that you present to the Lord.
39 "On the fifteenth day, then, of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall celebrate a pilgrim feast of the Lord for a whole week. The first 40 and the eighth day shall be days of complete rest. On the first day you shall gather foliage from majestic trees, branches of palms and boughs of myrtles and of valley poplars, and then for a week you shall make merry before the Lord, your God.
41 By perpetual statute for you and your descendants you shall keep this pilgrim feast of the Lord for one whole week in 42 the seventh month of the year. During this week every native 43 Israelite among you shall dwell in booths, that your descendants may realize that, when I led the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, I made them dwell in booths. I, the Lord, am your God."

23, 34: Feast of Booths: the joyful observance of the vintage and fruit harvest. During the seven days of the feast the Israelites camped in booths of branches, erected on the roofs of their houses or in the streets, in commemoration of their wanderings in the desert, where they dwelt in booths.

23, 40: Foliage: literally, "fruit," but here probably used in the general sense of "produce, growth." These branches were used for constructing the "booths" or huts in which the people lived during the feast. However, from about the time of Christ on, the Jews have understood this of "fruit" in the strict sense; hence, branches of lemons and oranges were carried with the other branches in joyous procession.

44 Thus did Moses announce to the Israelites the festivals of the Lord.

24

1.2 The Sanctuary Light The Lord said to Moses, "Order the Israelites to bring you clear oil of crushed olives for the light, 3 so that you may keep lamps burning regularly. In the Meeting Tent, outside the veil that hangs in front of the Commandments, Aaron shall set up the lamps to burn before the Lord regularly, from evening till morning. Thus, by a per-
4 petual statute for you and your descendants, | the lamps shall be set up on the pure gold lampstand, to burn regularly before the Lord.

5 The Showbread "You shall take fine flour and bake it into twelve cakes, using two tenths of an epha of flour for each 6 cake. These you shall place in two piles, six in each pile, on 7 the pure gold table before the Lord. On each pile put some pure frankincense, which shall serve as an oblation to the 8 Lord, a token offering for the bread. Regularly on each Sabbath day this bread shall be set out afresh before the Lord, offered on the part of the Israelites by an everlasting agreement.
9 It shall belong to Aaron and his sons, who must eat it in a sacred place, since, as something most sacred among the various oblations to the Lord, it is his by perpetual right."

10 Punishment of Blasphemy Among the Israelites there was a man born of an Israelite mother (Salomith, daughter of Dab-11 ri, of the tribe of Dan) and an Egyptian father. This man quarreled publicly with another Israelite and cursed and blasphemed the Lord's name. So the people brought him to Moses, 12 who kept him in custody till a decision from the Lord should 13 settle the case for them. The Lord then said to Moses, 14 "Take the blasphemer outside the camp, and when all who heard him have laid their hands on his head, let the whole 15 community stone him. Tell the Israelites: Anyone who curses 16 his God shall bear the penalty of his sin; whoever blasphemes the name of the Lord shall be put to death. The whole community shall stone him; alien and native alike must be put to death for blaspheming the Lord's name.
17 "Whoever takes the life of any human being shall be put 18 to death; whoever takes the life of an animal shall make 19 restitution of another animal. A life for a life! Anyone who inflicts an injury on his neighbor shall receive the same in re-

20 turn. Limb for limb, eye for eye, tooth for tooth! The sam injury that a man gives another shall be inflicted on him in re 21 turn. Whoever slays an animal shall make restitution, bu 22 whoever slays a man shall be put to death. You shall hav but one rule, for alien and native alike. I, the Lord, am you God."
23 When Moses told this to the Israelites, they took the blas phemer outside the camp and stoned him; they carried out th command that the Lord had given Moses.

25

1 The Sabbatical Year The Lord said to Moses on Moun 2 Sinai, "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you ente the land that I am giving you, let the land, too, keep a sabbath 3 for the Lord. For six years you may sow your field, and for 4 six years prune your vineyard, gathering in their produce. But during the seventh year the land shall have a complete rest, a sabbath for the Lord, when you may neither sow your field 5 nor prune your vineyard. The aftergrowth of your harvest you shall not reap, nor shall you pick the grapes of your untrimmed 6 vines in this year of sabbath rest for the land. While the land has its sabbath, all its produce will be food equally for you yourself and for your male and female slaves, for your hired 7 help and the tenants who live with you, and likewise for your livestock and for the wild animals on your land.

8 The Jubilee Year "Seven weeks of years shall you count — seven times seven years—so that the seven cycles amount to 9 forty-nine years. Then, on the tenth day of the seventh month let the trumpet resound; on this, the Day of Atonement, the 10 trumpet blast shall re-echo throughout your land. This fiftieth year you shall make sacred by proclaiming liberty in the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, when every 24, 20: See Ex 21, 23-25 n.

25, 1-22: It is not clear whether the particulars of the Sabbatical and Jubilee Years were meant to be observed. The Christian Jubilee or Holy Year spiritualizes this Old Testament institution.

25, 5ff: As long as the produce of the Sabbatical year remains on the field, it remains available to everyone.

25, 10: Fiftieth year: to arrive at this number, both the first and the last year of the series are counted, and therefore this is more exactly the forty-ninth year, the seventh Sabbatical year. Liberty: Israelite slaves were set free (v. 50) and landed property was returned to its original owner (v. 13): two important laws for preserving the social and economic equilibrium. Jubilee: derived from the Hebrew word "yobel" (ram's horn), which was blown on this occasion.

one of you shall return to his own property, every one to his 11 own family estate. In this fiftieth year, your year of jubilee, you shall not sow, nor shall you reap the aftergrowth or pick 12 the grapes from the untrimmed vines. Since this is the jubilee, which shall be sacred for you, you may not eat of its produce, except as taken directly from the field.
13 "In this year of jubilee, then, everyone of you shall return 14 to his own property. Therefore, when you sell any land to your neighbor or buy any from him, do not deal unfairly.
15 On the basis of the number of years since the last jubilee shall you purchase the land from him; and so also, on the basis of 16 the number of years for crops, shall he sell it to you. When the years are many, the price shall be so much the more; when the years are few, the price shall be so much the less. For it is 17 really the number of crops that he sells you. Do not deal unfairly, then; but stand in fear of your God. I, the Lord, am your God.
18 "Observe my precepts and be careful to keep my regulations, 19 for then you will dwell securely in the land. The land will yield its fruit and you will have food in abundance, so that 20 you may live there without worry. Therefore, do not say, 'What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we do not then sow 21 or reap our crop?' I will bestow such blessings on you in the sixth year that there will then be crop enough for three years.
22 When you sow in the eighth year, you will continue to eat from the old crop; and even into the ninth year, when the crop comes in, you will still have the old to eat from.

23 Redemption of Property "The land shall not be sold in perpetuity; for the land is mine, and you are but aliens who 24 have become my tenants. Therefore, in every part of the country that you occupy, you must permit the land to be redeemed.
25 When one of your countrymen is reduced to poverty and has to sell some of his property, his closest relative, who has the right to redeem it, may go and buy back what his kinsman has 26 sold. If, however, the man has no relative to redeem his land, but later on acquires sufficient means to buy it back in his own 27 name, he shall make a deduction from the price in proportion to the number of years since the sale, and then pay back the balance to the one to whom he sold it, so that he may thus re-28 gain his own property. But if he does not acquire sufficient means to buy back his land, what he has sold shall remain in the possession of the purchaser until the jubilee, when it must be released and returned to its original owner.
29 "When someone sells a dwelling in a walled town, he has the right to buy it back during the time of one full year fron 30 its sale. But if such a house in a walled town has not been re deemed at the end of a full year, it shall belong in perpetuit to the purchaser and his descendants; nor shall it be releasec 31 in the jubilee. However, houses in villages that are not en circled by walls shall be considered as belonging to the sur rounding farm land; they may be redeemed at any time, anc in the jubilee they must be released.

32 "In Levitical cities the Levites shall always have the righ 33 to redeem the town houses that are their property. Any town house of the Levites in their cities that had been sold and not redeemed, shall be released in the jubilee; for the town houses of the Levites are their hereditary property in the midst of the 34 Israelites. Moreover, the pasture land belonging to their cities shall not be sold at all; it must always remain their hereditary property.
35 "When one of your fellow countrymen is reduced to poverty and is unable to hold out beside you, extend to him the privileges of an alien or a tenant, so that he may continue to live 36 with you. Do not exact interest from your countryman either in money or in kind, but out of fear of God let him live with 37 you. You are to lend him neither money at interest nor food 38 at a profit. I, the Lord, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Chanaan and to be your God.
39 "When, then, your countryman becomes so impoverished beside you that he sells you his services, do not make him 40 work as a slave. Rather, let him be like a hired servant or like 41 your tenant, working with you until the jubilee year, | when he, together with his children, shall be released from your service and return to his kindred and to the property of his an-42 cestors. Since those whom I brought out of the land of Egypt are servants of mine, they shall not be sold as slaves to any 43 man. Do not lord it over them harshly, but stand in fear of your God.
44 "Slaves, male and female, you may indeed possess, provided 45 you buy them from among the neighboring nations. You may also buy them from among the aliens who reside with you and from their children who are born and reared in your land. Such 46 slaves you may own as chattels, | and leave to your sons as their hereditary property, making them perpetual slaves. But you shall not lord it harshly over any of the Israelites, your kinsmen.
47 "When one of your countrymen is reduced to such poverty that he sells himself to a wealthy alien who has a permanent or a temporary residence among you, or to one of the descend-48 ants of an immigrant family, even after he has thus sold his services he still has the right of redemption; he may be re-49 deemed by one of his own brothers, | or by his uncle or cousin, or by some other relative or fellow clansman; or, if he ac-50 quires the means, he may redeem himself. With his purchaser he shall compute the years from the sale to the jubilee, distributing the sale price over these years as though he had been 51 hired as a day laborer. The more such years there are, the 52 more of the sale price he shall pay back as ransom; the fewer years there are left before the jubilee year, the more he has to his credit; in proportion to his years of service shall he pay 53 his ransom. The alien shall treat him as a servant hired on an annual basis, and he shall not lord it over him harshly under 54 your very eyes. If he is not thus redeemed, he shall nevertheless be released, together with his children, in the jubilee year.

55 For to me the Israelites belong as servants; they are servants of mine, because I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I, the Lord, your God.

26

1 The Reward of Obedience "Do not make false gods for yourselves. You shall not erect an idol or a sacred pillar for yourselves, nor shall you set up a stone figure for worship in 2 your land; for I, the Lord, am your God. Keep my Sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary. I am the Lord.
3 "If you live in accordance with my precepts and are careful 4 to observe my commandments, I will give you rain in due season, so that the land will bear its crops, and the trees their 5 fruit; your threshing will last till vintage time, and your vintage till the time for sowing, and you will have food to eat in 6 abundance, so that you may dwell securely in your land. I will establish peace in the land, that you may lie down to rest without anxiety. I will rid the country of ravenous beasts, and keep 7 the sword of war from sweeping across your land. You will 8 rout your enemies and lay them low with your sword. Five of you will put a hundred of your foes to flight, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand of them, till they are cut down by 9 your sword. I will look with favor upon you, and make you fruitful and numerous, as I carry out my covenant with you.
10 So much of the old crops will you have stored up for food that you will have to discard them to make room for the new.

26, 3-45: The rewards and punishments are of a temporal nature but they were interpreted spiritually in New Testament times.

11 I will set my Dwelling among you, and will not disdain you 12 Ever present in your midst, I will be your God, and you wil 13 be my people; for it is I, the Lord, your God, who brough you out of the land of the Egyptians and freed you from thei slavery, breaking the yoke they had laid upon you and let ting you walk erect.

14 Punishment of Disobedience "But if you do not heed m 15 and do not keep all these commandments, if you reject m precepts and spurn my decrees, refusing to obey all my com-16 mandments and breaking my covenant, | then I, in turn, wil give you your deserts. I will punish you with terrible woes—with wasting and fever to dim the eyes and sap the life. You will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will consume the 17 crop. I will turn against you, till you are beaten down before your enemies and lorded over by your foes. You will take to flight though no one pursues you.
18 "If even after this you do not obey me, I will increase the 19 chastisement for your sins sevenfold, to break your haughty confidence. I will make the sky above you as hard as iron, 20 and your soil as hard as bronze, | so that your strength will be spent in vain; your land will bear no crops, and its trees no fruit.
21 "If then you become defiant in your unwillingness to obey me, I will multiply my blows another sevenfold, as your sins 22 deserve. I will unleash the wild beasts against you, to rob you of your children and wipe out your livestock, till your population dwindles away and your roads become deserted.
23 "If, with all this, you still refuse to be chastened by me
24 and continue to defy me, | I, too, will defy you and will smite 25 you for your sins seven times harder than before. I will make the sword, the avenger of my covenant, sweep over you.
Though you then huddle together in your walled cities, I will send in pestilence among you, till you are forced to surrender 26 to the enemy. And as I cut off your supply of bread, ten women will need but one oven for baking all the bread they dole out to you in rations—not enough food to still your hunger.
27 "If, despite all this, you still persist in disobeying and de-28 fying me, | I, also, will meet you with fiery defiance and will chastise you with sevenfold fiercer punishment for your sins, 29 till you begin to eat the flesh of your own sons and daughters.

26, 29: Eat the flesh of your own sons and daughters: extreme famine in cities under siege often forced their inhabitants to such dire means of subsistence. See 4 Kgs 6, 28f.

30 I will demolish your high places, overthrow your incense stands, and cast your corpses on those of your idols. In my 31 abhorrence of you, | I will lay waste your cities and devastate your sanctuaries, refusing to accept your sweet-smelling offer-32 ings. So devastated will I leave the land that your very enemies 33 who come to live there will stand aghast at the sight of it. You yourselves I will scatter among the nations at the point of my drawn sword, leaving your countryside desolate and your cities 34 deserted. Then shall the land retrieve its lost sabbaths during all the time it lies waste, while you are in the land of your enemies; then shall the land have rest and make up for its sab-35 baths | during all the time that it lies desolate, enjoying the rest that you would not let it have on the sabbaths when you lived there.

36 "Those of you who survive in the lands of their enemies I will make so fainthearted that, if leaves rustle behind them, they will flee headlong, as if from the sword, though no one 37 pursues them; stumbling over one another as if to escape a weapon, while no one is after them—so helpless will you be 38 to take a stand against your foes! You will be lost among the 39 Gentiles, swallowed up in your enemies' country. Those of you who survive in the lands of their enemies will waste away for their own and their fathers' guilt.

40 "Thus they will have to confess that they and their fathers were guilty of having rebelled against me and of having de-41 fied me, | so that I, too, had to defy them and bring them into their enemies' land. Then, when their uncircumcised hearts are 42 humbled and they make amends for their guilt, I will remember my covenant with Jacob, my covenant with Isaac, and my covenant with Abraham; and of the land, too, I will be mind-43 ful. But the land must first be rid of them, that in its desolation it may make up its lost sabbaths, and that they, too, may make good the debt of their guilt for having spurned my precepts 44 and abhorred my statutes. Yet even so, even while they are in their enemies' land, I will not reject or spurn them, lest, by wiping them out, I make void my covenant with them; for I, 45 the Lord, am their God. I will remember them because of the covenant I made with their forefathers, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt under the very eyes of the Gentiles, that I, the Lord, might be their God."

46 These are the precepts, decrees and laws which the Lord 26, 46: The Book of Leviticus seems originally to have ended here; the following chapter is an appendix.

had Moses promulgate on Mount Sinai in the pact betwee himself and the Israelites.

V. REDEMPTION OF OFFERINGS

27

1 Redemption of Votive Offerings The Lord said to Mose:
2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When anyone fulfill a vow of offering one or more persons to the Lord, who are t 3 be ransomed at a fixed sum of money, for persons between th ages of twenty and sixty, the fixed sum, in sanctuary shekels 4 shall be fifty silver shekels for a man, and thirty shekels for 5 woman; for persons between the ages of five and twenty, th fixed sum shall be twenty shekels for a youth, and ten for 6 maiden; for persons between the ages of one month and fiv years, the fixed sum shall be five silver shekels for a boy, anc
7 three for a girl; for persons of sixty or more, the fixed sur 8 shall be fifteen shekels for a man, and ten for a woman. How· ever, if the one who took the vow is too poor to meet the fixed sum, the person must be set before the priest, who shall determine the sum for his ransom in keeping with the means of the one who made the vow.
9 "If the offering vowed to the Lord is an animal that may be sacrificed, every such animal, when vowed to the Lord, becomes 10 sacred. The offerer shall not present a substitute for it by ex· changing either a better for a worse one or a worse for a better one. If he attempts to offer one animal in place of another, both 11 the original and its substitute shall be treated as sacred. If the animal vowed to the Lord is unclean and therefore unfit for 12 sacrifice, it must be set before the priest, who shall determine its value in keeping with its good or bad qualities, and the value 13 set by the priest shall stand. If the offerer wishes to redeem the animal, he shall pay one fifth more than this valuation.
14 "When someone dedicates his house as sacred to the Lord, the priest shall determine its value in keeping with its good or 15 bad points, and the value set by the priest shall stand. If the one who dedicated his house wishes to redeem it, he shall pay one fifth more than the price thus established, and then it will again be his.

27, 12: Determine its value: fix the price at which the animal may be sold to someone else. Only the original owner must pay the twenty percent tax, as a penalty for buying back what he had vowed to God. So also for houses and fields that are vowed to the Lord, as treated of in the following verses. The money from the sale or from the redemption of such vowed property naturally goes to the sanctuary.

16 "If the object which someone dedicates to the Lord is a piece of his hereditary land, its valuation shall be made according to the amount of seed required to sow it, the acreage sown with a 17 homor of barley seed being valued at fifty silver shekels. If the dedication of a field is made at the beginning of a jubilee period, 18 the full valuation shall hold; but if it is some time after this, the priest shall estimate its money value according to the number of years left until the next jubilee year, with a corresponding 19 rebate on the valuation. If the one who dedicated his field wishes to redeem it, he shall pay one fifth more than the price thus 20 established, and so reclaim it. If, instead of redeeming such a field, he sells it to someone else, it may no longer be redeemed; 21 but at the jubilee it shall be released as sacred to the Lord; like a field that is doomed, it shall become priestly property.
22 "If the field that some man dedicates to the Lord is one he 23 had purchased and not a part of his hereditary property, the priest shall compute its value in proportion to the number of years until the next jubilee, and on the same day the price thus 24 established shall be given as sacred to the Lord; at the jubilee, however, the field shall revert to the hereditary owner of this land from whom it had been purchased.
25 "Every valuation shall be made according to the standard of of the sanctuary shekel. There are twenty geras to the shekel.

26 Offerings Not to Be Redeemed "Note that a first-born animal, which as such already belongs to the Lord, may not be dedicated by vow to him. If it is an ox or a sheep, it shall be 27 ceded to the Lord; but if it is an unclean animal, it may be redeemed by paying one fifth more than its fixed value. If it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at its fixed value.
28 "Note, also, that any one of his possessions which a man vows as doomed to the Lord, whether it is a human being or an animal or a hereditary field, shall be neither sold nor ransomed; everything that is thus doomed becomes most sacred to the 29 Lord. All human beings that are doomed lose the right to be redeemed; they must be put to death.

27, 27: An unclean animal: such as the first-born of an ass, which was unfit for sacrifice. According to Ex 13, 13; 34, 20, a first-born ass was to be redeemed by offering a sheep in its stead, or was to have its neck broken. The present law is probably a later modification of the earlier one.

27, 29: All human beings that are doomed: according to some interpreters, this drastic law was enacted for the purpose of discouraging private persons from rashly vowing their slaves or other dependants as offerings to God.

30 "All tithes of the land, whether in grain from the fields or in fruit from the trees, belong to the Lord, as sacred to him 31 If someone wishes to buy back any of his tithes, he shall pay 32 one fifth more than their value. The tithes of the herd and the flock shall be determined by ceding to the Lord as sacred every 33 tenth animal as they are counted by the herdsman's rod. It shall not matter whether good ones or bad ones are thus chosen, and no exchange may be made. If any exchange is attempted, both the original animal and its substitute shall be treated as sacred, without the right of being bought back." 34 These are the commandments which the Lord gave Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

THE BOOK OF NUMBERS

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Numbers derives its name from the two censuses recorded in chapters 1 and 26, and for the special attention given to numbers throughout the book. The Priestly tradition runs through most of the book (24 chapters). The remaining 12 chapters are composed from the Yahwist and Elohist traditions. (See Introduction to the Pentateuch.)

The book proposes to illustrate the organization of the newborn community according to their tribes and leaders, as well as the organization of the land, and the divisions of authority. It covers a period of thirty-eight years, beginning with the departure from Sinai to the arrival at the entrance to the Promised Land, giving an account of the battles against hostile tribes during the journey. The historical events date from different periods of Israelite history. Many laws, not all, which were enacted after the time of the journey through Sinai, are projected back to that time.

Main divisions of the Book of Numbers are:

1. Preparation for the Departure from Sinai, 1, 1—10, 10
2. From Sinai to the Plains of Moab, 10, 11—22, 1
3. On the Plains of Moab, 22, 2—36, 13

I. PREPARATION FOR THE DEPARTURE FROM SINAI

1

1 The Census In the year following that of the Israelites' departure from the land of Egypt, on the first day of the second month, the Lord said to Moses in the Meeting Tent in the 2 desert of Sinai: "Take a census of the whole community of the Israelites, by clans and ancestral houses, registering each male 3 individually. You and Aaron shall enroll in companies all the men in Israel of twenty years or more who are fit for military service.

4 Moses' Assistants "To assist you there shall be a man from 5 each tribe, the head of his ancestral house. These are the names of those who are to assist you: from Ruben: Elisur, son of 5.7 Sedeur; | from Simeon: Salamiel, son of Surisaddai; | from 8 Juda: Nahasson, son of Amminadab; | from Issachar: Na-
9 thanael, son of Suar; | from Zabulon: Eliab, son of Helon; |
10 from Ephraim: Elisama, son of Ammiud, and from Manasse: Gamaliel, son of Phadasur, for the descendants of Joseph; |
11.12 from Benjamin: Abidan, son of Gedeoni; | from Dan:
13 Ahiezer, son of Ammisaddai; | from Aser: Phagiel, son of 14.15 Ochran; | from Gad: Eliasaph, son of Raguel; | from Nephthali: Ahira, son of Enan." 16 These were councilors of the community, princes of their 17 ancestral tribes, chiefs of the troops of Israel. So Moses and 18 Aaron took these men who had been designated, and assembled the whole community on the first day of the second month.

Every man of twenty years or more then declared his name and 19 lineage according to clan and ancestral house, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Count of the Twelve Tribes This is their census as taken 20 in the desert of Sinai. | Of the descendants of Ruben, the first-born of Israel, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or more who were 21 fit for military service were polled, forty-six thousand five hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Ruben.
22 Of the descendants of Simeon, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or 23 more who were fit for military service were polled, fifty-nine thousand three hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Simeon.
24 Of the descendants of Gad, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or more 25 who were fit for military service were polled, forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty were enrolled in the tribe of Gad.
26 Of the descendants of Juda, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or 27 more who were fit for military service were polled, seventy-four thousand six hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Juda.
28 Of the descendants of Issachar, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or 29 more who were fit for military service were polled, fifty-four thousand four hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Issachar.
30 Of the descendants of Zabulon, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or 31 more who were fit for military service were polled, fifty-seven thousand four hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Zabulon.
32 Of the descendants of Joseph—Of the descendants of Ephraim, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years 33 or more who were fit for military service were polled, forty thousand five hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Ephraim.
34 Of the descendants of Manasse, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years 35 or more who were fit for military service were polled, thirty-two thousand two hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Manasse.

36 Of the descendants of Benjamin, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years 37 or more who were fit for military service were polled, thirty-five thousand four hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Benjamin.
38 Of the descendants of Dan, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or 39 more who were fit for military service were polled, sixty-two thousand seven hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Dan.
40 Of the descendants of Aser, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years or 41 more who were fit for military service were polled, forty-one thousand five hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Aser.
42 Of the descendants of Nephthali, registered by lineage in clans and ancestral houses: when all the males of twenty years 43 or more who were fit for military service were polled, fifty-three thousand four hundred were enrolled in the tribe of Nephthali.
44 It was these who were registered, each according to his ancestral house, in the census taken by Moses and Aaron and the 45 twelve princes of Israel. The total number of the Israelites of twenty years or more who were fit for military service, regis-46 tered by ancestral houses, | was six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

47 Levites Omitted in the Census The Levites, however, were 48 were not registered by ancestral tribe with the others. For the 49 Lord had told Moses, "The tribe of Levi alone you shall not enroll nor include in the census along with the other Israelites.
50 You are to give the Levites charge of the Dwelling of the Commandments with all its equipment and all that belongs to it. It is they who shall carry the Dwelling with all its equipment and who shall be its ministers. They shall therefore camp 51 around the Dwelling. When the Dwelling is to move on, the Levites shall take it down; when the Dwelling is to be pitched, it is the Levites who shall set it up. Any layman who comes 52 near it shall be put to death. While the other Israelites shall 53 camp by companies, each in his own division of the camp, | the Levites shall camp around the Dwelling of the Commandments. Otherwise God's wrath will strike the Israelite community. The Levites, then, shall have charge of the Dwelling of the Com-

1, 46: Six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty: a more probable number is five thousand five hundred and fifty.

54 mandments." All this the Israelites fulfilled as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2

1 Arrangement of the Tribes The Lord said to Moses and 2 Aaron: "The Israelites shall camp, each in his own division under the ensigns of their ancestral houses. They shall camp around the Meeting Tent, but at some distance from it.
3 "Encamped on the east side, toward the sunrise, shall be the divisional camp of Juda, arranged in companies. [The 4 prince of the Judaites was Nahasson, son of Amminadab, and his soldiers amounted in the census to seventy-four thousand 5 six hundred.] With Juda shall camp the tribe of Issachar 6 [Their prince was Nathanael, son of Suar, | and his soldiers amounted in the census to fifty-four thousand four hundred.] | 7 and the tribe of Zabulon. [Their prince was Eliab, son of 8 Helon, | and his soldiers amounted in the census to fifty-seven 9 thousand four hundred. The total number of those registered by companies in the camp of Juda was one hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred.] These shall be first on the march.
10 "On the south side shall be the divisional camp of Ruben, arranged in companies. [Their prince was Elisur, son of Sedeur, 11 | and his soldiers amounted in the census to forty-six thousand 12 five hundred.] Beside them shall camp the tribe of Simeon 13 [Their prince was Salamiel, son of Surisaddai, and his soldiers amounted in the census to fifty-nine thousand three hundred.] 14 and next the tribe of Gad. [Their prince was Eliasaph, son of 15 Raguel, | and his soldiers amounted in the census to forty-five 16 thousand six hundred and fifty. The total number of those registered by companies in the camp of Ruben was one hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty.] These shall be second on the march.
17 "Then the Meeting Tent and the camp of the Levites shall set out in the middle of the line. As in camp, so also on the march, every man shall be in his proper place, with his own division.
18 "On the west side shall be the divisional camp of Ephraim, arranged in companies. [Their prince was Elisama, son of 19 Ammiud, | and his soldiers amounted in the census to forty 20 thousand five hundred.] Beside them shall camp the tribe of 21 Manasse [Their prince was Gamaliel, son of Phadasur, and his soldiers amounted in the census to thirty-two thousand 22 two hundred.] and the tribe of Benjamin. [Their prince was 23 Abidan, son of Gedeoni, | and his soldiers amounted in the census to thirty-five thousand four hundred. The total number of those registered by companies in the camp of Ephraim was one hundred and eight thousand one hundred.] These shall be third on the march.

"On the north side shall be the divisional camp of Dan, arranged in companies. [Their prince was Ahiezer, son of Ammisaddai, and his soldiers amounted in the census to sixty-two thousand seven hundred.] Beside them shall camp the tribe of Aser [Their prince was Phagiel, son of Ochran, and his soldiers amounted in the census to forty-one thousand five hundred.] and next the tribe of Nephthali. [Their prince was Ahira, son of Enan, | and his soldiers amounted in the census to fifty-three thousand four hundred. The total number of those registered by companies in the camp of Dan was one hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred.] These shall be the last of the divisions on the march."

This was the census of the Israelites taken by ancestral houses. The total number of those registered by companies in the camps was six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty. The Levites, however, were not registered with the other Israelites, for so the Lord had commanded Moses. The Israelites did just as the Lord had commanded Moses; both in camp and on the march they were in their own divisions, every man according to his clan and his ancestral house.

The Sons of Aaron The following were the descendants of Aaron and Moses at the time that the Lord spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai. The sons of Aaron were Nadab his first-born, Abiu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests who were ordained to exercise the priesthood. But when Nadab and Abiu offered profane fire before the Lord in the desert of Sinai, they met death in the presence of the Lord, and left no sons. Thereafter only Eleazar and Ithamar performed the priestly functions under the direction of their father Aaron.

Levites in Place of the First-born Now the Lord said to Moses: "Summon the tribe of Levi and present them to Aaron the priest, as his assistants. They shall discharge his obligations and those of the whole community before the Meeting Tent by serving at the Dwelling. They shall have custody of all the furnishings of the Meeting Tent and discharge the duties of the Israelites in the service of the Dwelling. You shall give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they have been set aside from 10 among the Israelites as dedicated to me. But only Aaron and hi descendants shall you appoint to have charge of the priestl functions. Any layman who comes near shall be put to death." 11.12 The Lord said to Moses, "It is I who have chosen th Levites from the Israelites in place of every first-born that open the womb among the Israelites. The Levites, therefore, ar 13 mine, | because every first-born is mine. When I slew all th first-born in the land of Egypt, I made all the first-born ir Israel sacred to me, both of man and of beast. They belong tc me; I am the Lord."

14 Census of the Levites The Lord said to Moses in the desert 15 of Sinai, "Take a census of the Levites by ancestral houses and 16 clans, registering every male of a month or more." Moses, therefore, took their census in accordance with the command the Lord had given him.
17 The sons of Levi were named Gerson, Caath and Merari.
18 The descendants of Gerson, by clans, were named Lebni and 19 Semei. The descendants of Caath, by clans, were Amram, Isaar, 20 Hebron and Oziel. The descendants of Merari, by clans, were Moholi and Musi. These were the clans of the Levites by ancestral houses.

21 Duties of the Levitical Clans To Gerson belonged the clan of the Lebnites and the clan of the Semeites; these were the 22 clans of the Gersonites. When all their males of a month or more were registered, they numbered seven thousand five hun-23 dred. The clans of the Gersonites camped behind the Dwelling, 24 to the west. The prince of their ancestral house was Eliasaph, 25 son of Lael. At the Meeting Tent they had charge of whatever pertained to the Dwelling, the tent and its covering, the curtain 26 at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, | the hangings of the court, the curtain at the entrance of the court enclosing both the Dwelling and the altar, and the ropes.
27 To Caath belonged the clans of the Amramites, the Isaarites, the Hebronites, and the Ozielites; these were the clans of the 28 Caathites. When all their males of a month or more were 29 registered, they numbered eight thousand three hundred. They had charge of the sanctuary. | The clans of the Caathites 30 camped at the south side of the Dwelling. The prince of their 31 ancestral house was Elisaphan, son of Oziel. They had charge of whatever pertained to the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils with which the ministry of the sanctuary 32 was exercised, and the veil. The chief prince of the Levites, however, was Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest; he was supervisor over those who had charge of the sanctuary.

33 To Merari belonged the clans of the Moholites and the 34 Musites; these were the clans of Merari. When all their males of a month or more were registered, they numbered six thou-35 sand two hundred. The prince of the ancestral house of the clans of Merari was Suriel, son of Abihajil. They camped at 36 the north side of the Dwelling. | The Merarites were charged with the care of whatever pertained to the boards of the 37 Dwelling, its bars, columns, pedestals, and all its fittings, | as well as the columns of the surrounding court with their pedestals, pegs and ropes.

38 East of the Dwelling, that is, in front of the Meeting Tent, toward the sunrise, were camped Moses and Aaron and the latter's sons. They discharged the obligations of the sanctuary for the Israelites. Any layman who came near was to be put to death.

39 The total number of male Levites a month old or more whom Moses had registered by clans in keeping with the Lord's command, was twenty-two thousand.

40 Census and Ransom of First-born The Lord then said to Moses, "Take a census of all the first-born males of the Israelites 41 a month old or more, and compute their total number. Then assign the Levites to me, the Lord, in place of all the first-born of the Israelites, as well as their cattle in place of all the first-42 born among the cattle of the Israelites." So Moses took a census of all the first-born of the Israelites, as the Lord had 43 commanded him. When all the first-born males of a month or more were registered, they numbered twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

44.45 The Lord said to Moses: "Take the Levites in place of all the first-born of the Israelites, and the Levites' cattle in place of their cattle, that the Levites may belong to me. I am the 46 Lord. | As ransom for the two hundred and seventy-three 47 first-born of the Israelites who outnumber the Levites, you shall take five shekels for each individual, according to the standard 48 of the sanctuary shekel, twenty geras to the shekel. Give this silver to Aaron and his sons as ransom for the extra number."
49 So Moses took the silver as ransom from those who were left 50 when the rest had been redeemed by the Levites. From the first-born of the Israelites he received in silver one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels according to the sanctuary 51 standard. He then gave this ransom silver to Aaron and his sons, as the Lord had commanded him.

4

1 Duties Further Defined The Lord said to Moses and Aar 2 "Among the Levites take a total of the Caathites, by clans a 3 ancestral houses, all the men of the Caathites | between thi and fifty years of age; these are to undertake obligatory tasks the Meeting Tent.
4 "The service of the Caathites in the Meeting Tent concer 5 the most sacred objects. In breaking camp, Aaron and his so shall go in and take down the screening curtain and cover t 6 Ark of the Commandments with it. Over these they shall p a cover of thahas skin, and on top of this spread an all-viol 7 cloth. They shall then put the poles in place. On the table the Presence they shall spread a violet cloth and put on it tl plates and cups, as well as the bowls and pitchers for libation 8 the established bread offering shall remain on the table. Ov these they shall spread a scarlet cloth and cover all this wi 9 thahas skin. They shall then put the poles in place. | Th shall use a violet cloth to cover the lampstand with its lamp trimming shears, and trays, as well as the various containers 10 oil from which it is supplied. The lampstand with all i utensils they shall then enclose in a covering of thahas ski 11 and place on a litter. Over the golden altar they shall sprea a violet cloth, and cover this also with a covering of thaha 12 skin. They shall then put the poles in place. Taking the utensil of the sanctuary service, they shall wrap them all in violet clot and cover them with thahas skin. They shall then place ther 13 on a litter. | After cleansing the altar of its ashes, they shal 14 spread a purple cloth over it. On this they shall put all th utensils with which it is served: the fire pans, forks, shovels basins, and all the utensils of the altar. They shall then spreac a covering of thahas skin over this, and put the poles in place 15 "Only after Aaron and his sons have finished covering th sacred objects and all their utensils on breaking camp, shall th Caathites enter to carry them. But they shall not touch th sacred objects; if they do they will die. These, then, are th objects in the Meeting Tent that the Caathites shall carry.
16 "Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, shall be in charge of th oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the established cereal offering, and the anointing oil. He shall be in charge of the whole Dwelling with all the sacred objects and utensils that are in it."

4, 11: The golden altar: the altar of incense.
4, 13: The altar: the bronze altar of holocausts.
4, 14: Forks: used in turning over the sacrificial animal on the fire of the altar. Basins: to receive the sacrificial blood.

17.18 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron: "Do not let the group 19 of Caathite clans perish from the body of the Levites. That they may live and not die when they approach the most sacred objects, this is what you shall do for them: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign to each of them his task and what he 20 must carry; but the Caathites shall not go in to look upon the sacred objects, even for an instant; if they do, they will die." 21.22 The Lord said to Moses, "Take a total among the Ger-23 sonites also, by ancestral houses and clans, | of all the men between thirty and fifty years of age; these are to undertake 24 obligatory tasks in the Meeting Tent. This is the task of the clans of the Gersonites, what they must do and what they must 25 carry: they shall carry the sheets of the Dwelling, the Meeting Tent with its covering and the outer wrapping of thahas skin, 26 the curtain at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, | the hangings of the court, the curtain at the entrance of the court that encloses both the Dwelling and the altar, together with their ropes and all other objects necessary in their use. Whatever is to be 27 done with these things shall be their task. The service of the Gersonites shall be entirely under the direction of Aaron and his sons, with regard to what they must do and what they must carry; you shall make each man of them responsible for what 28 he is to carry. This, then, is the task of the Gersonites in the Meeting Tent; and they shall be under the supervision of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.
29 "Among the Merarites, too, you shall enroll by clans and 30 ancestral houses | all their men between thirty and fifty years of age; these are to undertake obligatory tasks in the Meeting 31 Tent. This is what they shall be responsible for carrying, all the years of their service in the Meeting Tent: the boards of the 32 Dwelling with its bars, columns and pedestals, and the columns of the surrounding court with their pedestals, pegs and ropes.
You shall designate for each man of them all the objects connected with his service, which he shall be responsible for carrying.
33 This, then, is the task of the clans of the Merarites during all their service in the Meeting Tent under the supervision of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest."

34 Number of Adult Levites So Moses and Aaron and the princes of the community made a registration among the 35 Caathites, by clans and ancestral houses, | of all the men between thirty and fifty years of age. These were to undertake 36 obligatory tasks in the Meeting Tent; as registered by clans, 37 they numbered two thousand seven hundred and fifty. Such was the census of all the men of the Caathite clans who were to serve in the Meeting Tent, which Moses took, together wi Aaron, as the Lord bade him.

38 The registration was then made among the Gersonites, 39 clans and ancestral houses, | of all the men between thirty a fifty years of age. These were to undertake obligatory tasks 40 the Meeting Tent; as registered by clans and ancestral hous 41 they numbered two thousand six hundred and thirty. Su was the census of all the men of the Gersonite clans who we to serve in the Meeting Tent, which Moses took, together wi Aaron, at the Lord's bidding.
42 Then the registration was made among the Merarites, l
43 clans and ancestral houses, | of all the men from thirty up
fifty years of age. These were to undertake obligatory tasks 44 the Meeting Tent; as registered by clans, they numbered thr 45 thousand two hundred. Such was the census of the men of tl Merarite clans which Moses took, together with Aaron, as tl Lord bade him.
46 Therefore, when Moses and Aaron and the Israelite princ had completed the registration among the Levites, by clans an 47 ancestral houses, | of all the men between thirty and fifty yea of age who were to undertake tasks of service or transport a 48 the Meeting Tent, the total number registered was eight thou 49 sand five hundred and eighty. According to the Lord's biddin to Moses, they gave them their individual assignments fo service and for transport; so the Lord had commanded Mose

5

1.2 The Unclean Expelled The Lord said to Moses: "Orde the Israelites to expel from camp every leper, and everyon suffering from a discharge, and everyone who has becom 3 unclean by contact with a corpse. Male and female alike, you shall compel them to go out of the camp; they are not to defil 4 the camp in which I dwell." The Israelites obeyed the command that the Lord had given Moses; they expelled them from the camp.

5.6 Unjust Possession The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites: If a man (or woman) commits a fault against his fellow man and wrongs him, thus breaking faith with the 7 Lord, | he shall confess the wrong he has done, restore his ill-gotten goods in full, and in addition give one fifth of their 8 value to the one he has wronged. However, if the latter has no next of kin to whom restoration of the ill-gotten goods can be made, the goods to be restored shall be the Lord's and shall fall to the priest; this is apart from the atonement ram with which 9 the priest makes amends for the guilty man. Likewise, every sacred contribution that the Israelites are bound to make shall 10 fall to the priest. Each Israelite man may dispose of his own sacred contributions; they become the property of the priest to whom he gives them."

11 Ordeal for a Suspected Adulteress The Lord said to 12 Moses, "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: If a man's wife 13 goes astray and becomes unfaithful to him | by having intercourse with another man, though her husband has not sufficient evidence of the fact, so that her impurity remains unproved for 14 lack of a witness who might have caught her in the act; or if a man is overcome by a feeling of jealousy that makes him suspect 15 his wife, whether she was actually impure or not: he shall bring his wife to the priest and shall take along as an offering for her a tenth of an epha of barley meal. However, he shall not pour oil on it nor put frankincense over it, since it is a cereal offering of jealousy, a cereal offering for an appeal in a question of guilt.
16 "The priest shall first have the woman come forward and 17 stand before the Lord. In an earthen vessel he shall meanwhile put some holy water, as well as some dust that he has taken 18 from the floor of the Dwelling. Then, as the woman stands before the Lord, the priest shall uncover her head and place in her hands the cereal offering of her appeal, that is, the cereal offering of jealousy, while he himself shall hold the bitter water 19 that brings a curse. Then he shall adjure the woman, saying to her, 'If no other man has had intercourse with you, and you have not gone astray by impurity while under the authority of your husband, be immune to the curse brought by this bitter 20 water. But if you have gone astray while under the authority of your husband and have acted impurely by letting a man 21 other than your husband have intercourse with you'—so shall the priest adjure the woman with this oath of imprecation—
'may the Lord make you an example of malediction and impre-cation among your people by causing your thighs to waste away 22 and your belly to swell! May this water, then, that brings a curse, enter your body to make your belly swell and your thighs 23 waste away!' And the woman shall say, 'Amen, amen!' The priest shall put these imprecations in writing and shall then 24 wash them off into the bitter water, | which he is to have the 5, 11-31: The sacred writer "baptizes" or legitimizes this magical ordeal with an orthodox ritual. V. 21 exemplifies this orthodoxy by attributing the penalty to God and not to magic. The ordeal was known in the Middle Ages and survives today in Africa.

woman drink, so that it may go into her with all its bitter curs 25 But first he shall take the cereal offering of jealousy from th woman's hand, and having waved this offering before the Lor 26 shall put it near the altar, | where he shall take a handful o
the cereal offering as its token offering and burn it on the alta 27 Only then shall he have the woman drink the water. Once sh has done so, if she has been impure and unfaithful to he husband, this bitter water that brings a curse will go into he and her belly will swell and her thighs will waste away, s that she will become an example of imprecation among he 28 people. If, however, the woman has not defiled herself, but i still pure, she will be immune and will still be able to bea children.
29 "This, then, is the law for jealousy: When a woman goe astray while under the authority of her husband and act 30 impurely, or when such a feeling of jealousy comes over a man that he becomes suspicious of his wife, he shall have he stand before the Lord, and the priest shall apply this law in 31 full to her. The man shall be free from guilt, but the woman shall bear such guilt as she may have."

6

1.2 Laws concerning Nazirites The Lord said to Moses:
"Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When a man (or a woman) solemnly takes the Nazirite vow to dedicate himself to 3 the Lord, he shall abstain from wine and strong drink; he may neither drink wine vinegar, other vinegar, or any kind of grape 4 juice, nor eat either fresh or dried grapes. As long as he is a Nazirite he shall not eat anything of the produce of the vine; 5 not even unripe grapes or grapeskins. While he is under the Nazirite vow, no razor shall touch his hair. Until the period of his dedication to the Lord is over, he shall be sacred, and shall 6 let the hair of his head grow freely. As long as he is dedicated 7 to the Lord, he shall not enter where a dead person is. Not even for his father or mother, his sister or brother, should they die, may he become unclean, since his head bears his dedication to 8 God. As long as he is a Nazirite he is sacred to the Lord.
9 "If someone dies very suddenly in his presence, so that his dedicated head becomes unclean, he shall shave his head on 10 the day of his purification, that is, on the seventh day. On the 6, 1-21: Samson, Samuel, John the Baptist, and many early Christians were Nazirites. They were the forerunners of the Christian monks. The offering of the hair signified the offering of the person himself (v. 5).

eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two pigeons to the 11 priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. The priest shall offer up the one as a sin offering and the other as a holocaust, thus making atonement for him for the sin he has committed by reason of the dead person. On the same day he shall reconse-12 crate his head | and begin anew the period of his dedication to the Lord as a Nazirite, bringing a yearling lamb as a guilt offering. The previous period is not valid, because his dedicated head became unclean.

13 "This is the ritual for the Nazirite: On the day he completes the period of his dedication he shall go to the entrance of the 14 Meeting Tent, bringing as his offering to the Lord one unblemished yearling lamb for a holocaust, one unblemished yearling ewe lamb for a sin offering, one unblemished ram as a peace 15 offering, along with their cereal offerings and libations, and a basket of unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil and of 16 unleavened wafers spread with oil. The priest shall present them before the Lord, and shall offer up the sin offering and the holo-17 caust for him. He shall then offer up the ram as a peace offering to the Lord, with its cereal offering and libation, and the basket 18 of unleavened cakes. Then at the entrance of the Meeting Tent the Nazirite shall shave his dedicated head, collect the hair, 19 and put it in the fire that is under the peace offering. After the Nazirite has shaved off his dedicated hair, the priest shall take a boiled shoulder of the ram, as well as one unleavened cake and one unleavened wafer from the basket, and shall place 20 them in the hands of the Nazirite. The priest shall then wave them as a wave offering before the Lord. They become sacred and shall belong to the priest, along with the breast of the wave offering and the leg of the raised offering. Only after this may the Nazirite drink wine.

21 "This, then, is the law for the Nazirite; this is the offering to the Lord which is included in his vow of dedication apart from anything else which his means may allow. Thus shall he carry out the law of his dedication in keeping with the vow he has taken."

22-23 The Priestly Blessing The Lord said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless 24 the Israelites. Say to them: The Lord bless you and keep you!
25 The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

6, 22-26: This blessing of material and spiritual things is used today by Jews and Catholics. To the latter it is known as the Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi.

26.27 The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace! So shal they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them.

7

1 Offerings of Princes Now, when Moses had completed th erection of the Dwelling and had anointed and consecrated i with all its equipment (as well as the altar with all its equip 2 ment), an offering was made by the princes of Israel, who wer heads of ancestral houses; the same princes of the tribes wh 3 supervised the census. The offering they brought before th Lord consisted of six baggage wagons and twelve oxen, that is a wagon for every two princes, and an ox for every prince These they presented as their offering before the Dwelling 4.5 The Lord then said to Moses, "Accept their offering, that these things may be put to use in the service of the Meeting Tent. Assign them to the Levites, to each group in proportion 6 to its duties." So Moses accepted the wagons and oxen, and 7 assigned them to the Levites. He gave two wagons and four 8 oxen to the Gersonites in proportion to their duties, and four wagons and eight oxen to the Merarites in proportion to their duties, under the supervision of Ithamar, son of Aaron the 9 priest. He gave none to the Caathites, because they had to carry on their shoulders the sacred objects which were their charge.
10 For the dedication of the altar also, the princes brought 11 offerings before the altar on the day it was anointed. But the Lord said to Moses, "Let one prince a day present his offering for the dedication of the altar." 12 The one who presented his offering on the first day was Nahasson, son of Amminadab, prince of the tribe of Juda.
13 His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour 14 mixed with oil for a cereal offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' 15 weight filled with incense; one young bull, one ram, and one 16 yearling lamb for a holocaust; one goat for a sin offering; 17 and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Nahasson, son of Amminadab.
18 On the second day Nathanael, son of Suar, prince of 19 Issachar, made his offering. He presented as his offering one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 20 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
21 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holocaust;

22.23 one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Nathanael, son of Suar.

24 On the third day it was the turn of Eliab, son of Helon, 25 prince of the Zabulonites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 26 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
27 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holocaust;
28.29 one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Eliab, son of Helon.

30 On the fourth day it was the turn of Elisur, son of Sedeur, 31 prince of the Rubenites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 32 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
33 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holo-34.35 caust; one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Elisur, son of Sedeur.

36 On the fifth day it was the turn of Salamiel, son of Surisaddai, 37 prince of the Simeonites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 38 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
39 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holo-
40.41 caust; one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Salamiel, son of Surisaddai.

42 On the sixth day it was the turn of Eliasaph, son of Raguel, 43 prince of the Gadites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both 44 filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering; one 45 gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense; one young 46 bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holocaust; one 47 goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Eliasaph, son of Raguel.

48 On the seventh day it was the turn of Elisama, son of 49 Ammiud, prince of the Ephraimites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels accor ing to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighin seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for 50 cereal offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled wit 51 incense; one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb fo 52.53 a holocaust; one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, fiv rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering This was the offering of Elisama, son of Ammiud.

54 On the eighth day it was the turn of Gamaliel, son o 55 Phadasur, prince of the Manasseites. His offering consiste of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekel according to the sanctuary standard, one silver basin weighin seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil fo 56 a cereal offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight fille 57 with incense; one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lam 58.59 for a holocaust; one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering This was the offering of Gamaliel, son of Phadasur.
60 On the ninth day it was the turn of Abidan, son of Gedeoni 61 prince of the Benjaminites. His offering consisted of one silve plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 62 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
63 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holocaust;
64.65 one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Abidan, son of Gedeoni.
66 On the tenth day it was the turn of Ahiezer, son of Ammi-67 saddai, prince of the Danites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 68 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
69 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holocaust;
70.71 one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Ahiezer, son of Ammisaddai.
72 On the eleventh day it was the turn of Phagiel, son of 73 Ochran, prince of the Aserites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing one hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 74 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
75 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holocaust;

76.77 one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Phagiel, son of Ochran.

78 On the twelfth day it was the turn of Ahira, son of Enan, 79 prince of the Nephthalites. His offering consisted of one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels according to the sanctuary standard and one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal 80 offering; one gold cup of ten shekels' weight filled with incense;
81 one young bull, one ram, and one yearling lamb for a holocaust;
82.83 one goat for a sin offering; and two oxen, five rams, five goats, and five yearling lambs for a peace offering. This was the offering of Ahira, son of Enan.

84 These were the offerings for the dedication of the altar, given by the princes of Israel on the occasion of its anointing: twelve 85 silver plates, twelve silver basins, and twelve gold cups. Each silver plate weighed a hundred and thirty shekels, and each silver basin seventy, so that all the silver of these vessels amounted to two thousand four hundred shekels, according to 86 the sanctuary standard. The twelve gold cups that were filled with incense weighed ten shekels apiece, according to the sanctuary standard, so that all the gold cups amounted to one 87 hundred and twenty shekels. The animals for the holocausts were, in all, twelve young bulls, twelve rams, and twelve yearling lambs, with their cereal offerings; those for the sin 88 offerings were twelve goats. The animals for the peace offerings were, in all, twenty-four oxen, sixty rams, sixty goats, and sixty yearling lambs. These, then, were the offerings for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

89 The Voice When Moses entered the Meeting Tent to speak with him, he heard the voice addressing him from above the propitiatory on the Ark of the Commandments, from between the two cherubim; and it spoke to him. . . .

8

1 The Lamps Set Up The Lord spoke to Moses, and said, 2 "Give Aaron this command: When you set up the seven lamps, have them throw their light toward the front of the lampstand." 3 Aaron did so, setting up the lamps to face toward the front of 4 the lampstand, just as the Lord had commanded Moses. The lampstand was made of beaten gold in both its shaft and its branches, according to the pattern which the Lord had shown

5 Purification of the Levites The Lord said to Mose 6 "Take the Levites from among the Israelites and purify ther 7 This is what you shall do to them to purify them. Sprink them with the water of remission; then have them shave the whole bodies and wash their clothes, and so purify themselve 8 They shall take a young bull, along with its cereal offering c fine flour mixed with oil; you shall take another young bull fc 9 a sin offering. Then have the Levites come forward in front c the Meeting Tent, where you shall assemble also the whol 10 community of the Israelites. While the Levites are present befor 11 the Lord, the Israelites shall lay their hands upon them. Lc Aaron then offer the Levites before the Lord as a wave offerin from the Israelites, thus devoting them to the service of th 12 Lord. The Levites in turn shall lay their hands on the head of the bullocks, which shall then be immolated, the one as a sir offering and the other as a holocaust to the Lord, in atonemen 13 for the Levites. Thus, then, shall you have the Levites stanc before Aaron and his sons, to be offered as a wave offering tc 14 the Lord; and thus shall you set aside the Levites from the res of the Israelites, that they may be mine.
15 "Only then shall the Levites enter upon their service in the Meeting Tent. You shall purify them and offer them as a wave 16 offering; because they, among the Israelites, are strictly dedicated to me; I have taken them for myself in place of every 17 first-born that opens the womb among the Israelites. Indeed, all the first-born among the Israelites, both of man and of beast, belong to me; I consecrated them to myself on the day I 18 slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt. But in place of all 19 the first-born Israelites I have taken the Levites; and I have given these dedicated Israelites to Aaron and his sons to discharge the duties of the Israelites in the Meeting Tent and to make atonement for them, so that no plague may strike among the Israelites should they come near the sanctuary." 20 Thus, then, did Moses and Aaron and the whole community of the Israelites deal with the Levites, carrying out exactly the command which the Lord had given Moses con-21 cerning them. When the Levites had cleansed themselves of sin and washed their clothes, Aaron offered them as a wave

8, 6: Purify them: in the language of the Pentateuch, only the priests were "consecrated," that is, made sacred or set aside for the Lord, in an elaborate ceremony. The Levites were merely "purified," that is, made ritually clean for their special work.

8, 7: Water of remission: this means: for the remission of sins.

8, 21: Cleansed themselves of sin: by having the "water of remission" sprinkled on them as prescribed in v. 7.

offering before the Lord, and made atonement for them to 22 purify them. Only then did they enter upon their service in the Meeting Tent under the supervision of Aaron and his sons.
The command which the Lord had given Moses concerning the Levites was carried out.

23 Age Limits for Levitical Service The Lord said to Moses: 24 "This is the rule for the Levites. Each from his twenty-fifth year onward shall perform the required service in the Meeting 25 Tent. When he is fifty years old, he shall retire from the 26 required service and work no longer. His service with his fellow Levites shall consist in sharing their responsibilities in the Meeting Tent, but he shall not do the work. This, then, is how you are to regulate the duties of the Levites."

9

1 Second Passover In the first month of the year following their departure from the land of Egypt, the Lord said to Moses 2 in the desert of Sinai, "Tell the Israelites to celebrate the Pass-3 over at the prescribed time. The evening twilight of the fourteenth day of this month is the prescribed time when you shall 4 celebrate it, observing all its rules and regulations." Moses, 5 therefore, told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover. And they did so, celebrating the Passover in the desert of Sinai during the evening twilight of the fourteenth day of the first month, just as the Lord had commanded Moses.

6 There were some, however, who were unclean because of a human corpse and so could not keep the Passover that day.
7 These men came up to Moses and Aaron that same day | and said, "Although we are unclean because of a corpse, why should we be deprived of presenting the Lord's offering at its proper time along with the other Israelites?" Moses answered 8 them, "Wait until I learn what the Lord will command in your regard."

9,10 The Lord then said to Moses: "Speak to the Israelites and say: If any one of you or of your descendants is unclean because of a corpse, or if he is absent on a journey, he may still 11 keep the Lord's Passover. But he shall keep it in the second month, during the evening twilight of the fourteenth day of that month, eating it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs, 12 and not leaving any of it over till morning, nor breaking any 13 of its bones, but observing all the rules of the Passover. However, anyone who is clean and not away on a journey, who yet fails to keep the Passover, shall be cut off from his people, because he did not present the Lord's offering at the prescribe time. That man shall bear the consequences of his sin.

14 "If an alien who lives among you wishes to keep the Lord Passover, he too shall observe the rules and regulations for tl Passover. You shall have the same law for the resident alie as for the native of the land."

15 The Fiery Cloud On the day when the Dwelling w: erected, the cloud covered the Dwelling, the Tent of the Con mandments; but from evening until morning it took on the ap 16 pearance of fire over the Dwelling. It was always so: durin the day the Dwelling was covered by the cloud, which at nigl 17 had the appearance of fire. Whenever the cloud rose from th Tent, the Israelites would break camp; wherever the cloud cam 18 to rest, they would pitch camp. At the bidding of the Lord th Israelites moved on, and at his bidding they encamped. As lon as the cloud stayed over the Dwelling, they remained in camp 19 Even when the cloud tarried many days over the Dwelling 20 the Israelites obeyed the Lord and would not move on; ye sometimes the cloud was over the Dwelling only for a few days. It was at the bidding of the Lord that they stayed in camp 21 and it was at his bidding that they departed. Sometimes th cloud remained there only from evening until morning; anc when it rose in the morning, they would depart. Or if the cloud lifted during the day, or even at night, they would then 22 set out. Whether the cloud tarried over the Dwelling for two days or a month or longer, the Israelites remained in camp 23 and did not depart; but when it lifted, they moved on. Thus, it was always at the bidding of the Lord that they encamped, and at his bidding that they set out; ever heeding the charge of the Lord, as he had bidden them through Moses.

10

1.2 The Silver Trumpets The Lord said to Moses: "Make two trumpets of beaten silver, which you shall use in assem-3 bling the community and in breaking camp. When both are blown, the whole community shall gather round you at the 4 entrance of the Meeting Tent; but when one of them is blown, only the princes, the chiefs of the troops of Israel, shall gather 5 round you. When you sound the first alarm, those encamped 6 on the east side shall set out; when you sound the second alarm, those encamped on the south side shall set out; when 10—21: The author teaches obedience by listing a series of sad episodes in which the people disobey their leaders and are punished.

you sound the third alarm, those encamped on the west side shall set out; when you sound the fourth alarm, those encamped on the north side shall set out. Thus shall the alarm 7 be sounded for them to depart. But in calling forth an assembly you are to blow an ordinary blast, without sounding the alarm.
8 "It is the sons of Aaron, the priests, who shall blow the trumpets; and the use of them is prescribed by perpetual statute for 9 you and your descendants. When in your own land you go to war against an enemy that is attacking you, you shall sound the alarm on the trumpets, and the Lord, your God, will re-10 member you and save you from your foes. On your days of celebration, your festivals, and your new-moon feasts, you shall blow the trumpets over your holocausts and your peace offerings; this will serve as a reminder of you before your God. I, the Lord, am your God."

II. FROM SINAI TO THE PLAINS OF MOAB

11 Departure from Sinai In the second year, on the twentieth day of the second month, the cloud rose from the Dwelling of 12 the Commandments. The Israelites moved on from the desert of Sinai by stages, until the cloud came to rest in the desert of Pharan.
13 The first time that they broke camp at the bidding of the 14 Lord through Moses, | the camp of the Judaites, under its own standard and arranged in companies, was the first to set
15 out. Nahasson, son of Amminadab, was over their host, | and Nathanael, son of Suar, over the host of the tribe of Issachar,
16 | and Eliab, son of Helon, over the host of the tribe of Zabulon.
17 Then, after the Dwelling was dismantled, the clans of Gerson 18 and Merari set out, carrying the Dwelling. The camp of the Rubenites, under its own standard and arranged in companies, was the next to set out, with Elisur, son of Sedeur, over their 19 host, | and Salamiel, son of Surisaddai, over the host of the 20 tribe of Simeon, | and Eliasaph, son of Raguel, over the host 21 of the tribe of Gad. The clan of Caath then set out, carrying the sacred objects for the Dwelling, which was to be erected 22 before their arrival. The camp of the Ephraimites next set out, under its own standard and arranged in companies, with 23 Elisama, son of Ammiud, over their host, | and Gamaliel, son
24 of Phadasur, over the host of the tribe of Manasse, | and Abidan, son of Gedeoni, over the host of the tribe of Benjamin.
25 Finally, as rear guard for all the camps, the camp of the Danites set out, under its own standard and arranged in com-

26 panies, with Ahiezer, son of Ammisaddai, over their host, | ar
27 Phagiel, son of Ochran, over the host of the tribe of Aser, | ar
Ahira, son of Enan, over the host of the tribe of Nephtha 28 This was the order of departure for the Israelites, company company.

29 Hobab as Guide As they were setting out, | Moses said his brother-in-law Hobab, son of Raguel the Madianite, "W are setting out for the place which the Lord has promised give us. Come with us, and we will be generous toward yo 30 for the Lord has promised prosperity to Israel." But he a swered, "No, I will not come. I am going instead to my ow 31 country and to my own kindred." Moses said, "Please, do n leave us; you know where we can camp in the desert, and yc 32 will serve as eyes for us. If you come with us, we will sha with you the prosperity the Lord will bestow on us."

33 Into the Desert They moved on from the mountain of th Lord, a three days' journey, and the Ark of the Covenant c the Lord which was to seek out their resting place went th 34 three days' journey with them. And when they set out fro camp, the cloud of the Lord was over them by day.
35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses would say, "Arise, O Lorc that your enemies may be scattered, and those who hate yo 36 may flee before you." And when it came to rest, he would say "Return, O Lord, you who ride upon the clouds, to the troop of Israel."

11

1 Discontent of the People Now the people complained in the hearing of the Lord; and when he heard it his wrath flarec up so that the fire of the Lord burned among them and con 2 sumed the outskirts of the camp. But when the people cried 3 out to Moses, he prayed to the Lord and the fire died out. Hence that place was called Thabera, because there the fire of the Lord burned among them.
4 The foreign elements among them were so greedy for meat that even the Israelites lamented again, "Would that we had 5 meat for food! We remember the fish we used to eat without 11, 1-3: The deep faith of the sacred authors often interprets events as divine, though they are natural, e.g., a probable lightning storm which caused a fire. Because of the fire the author called the place "Thabera," a Hebrew word having some connection with the meaning "to burn." This is an example of a popular etymology.

11, 5-9: See Ex 16, 4-36 n.

cost in Egypt, and the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the 16 onions, and the garlic. But now we are famished; we see nothing before us but this manna." 17 Manna was like coriander seed and had the appearance of 18 bdellium. When they had gone about and gathered it up, the people would grind it between millstones or pound it in a mortar, then cook it in a pot and make it into loaves, which 19 tasted like cakes made with oil. At night, when the dew fell upon the camp, the manna also fell.
10 When Moses heard the people, family after family, crying at the entrance of their tents, so that the Lord became very 1 angry, he was grieved. "Why do you treat your servant so badly?" Moses asked the Lord. "Why are you so displeased 2 with me that you burden me with all this people? Was it I who conceived all this people? or was it I who gave them birth, that you tell me to carry them at my bosom, like a foster father carrying an infant, to the land you have promised under 3 oath to their fathers? Where can I get meat to give to all this people? For they are crying to me, 'Give us meat for our food.' 4 I cannot carry all this people by myself, for they are too heavy 5 for me. If this is the way you will deal with me, then please do me the favor of killing me at once, so that I need no longer face this distress."

16 The Seventy Elders Then the Lord said to Moses, "Assemble for me seventy of the elders of Israel, men you know for true elders and authorities among the people, and bring them 17 to the Meeting Tent. When they are in place beside you, I will come down and speak with you there. I will also take some of the spirit that is on you and will bestow it on them, that they may share the burden of the people with you. You will then not have to bear it by yourself.
18 "To the people, however, you shall say: Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, when you shall have meat to eat. For in the hearing of the Lord you have cried, 'Would that we had meat for food! Oh, how well off we were in Egypt!' Therefore the Lord 19 will give you meat for food, | and you will eat it, not for one 20 day, or two days, or five, or ten, or twenty days, | but for a whole month—until it comes out of your very nostrils and becomes loathsome to you. For you have spurned the Lord who is in your midst, and in his presence you have wailed, 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?' " 21 But Moses said, "The people around me include six hundred thousand soldiers; yet you say, 'I will give them meat to 22 eat for a whole month.' Can enough sheep and cattle be slau tered for them? If all the fish of the sea were caught for th 23 would they have enough?" The Lord answered Moses, this beyond the Lord's reach? You shall see now whether not what I have promised you takes place."

24 The Spirit on the Elders So Moses went out and told people what the Lord had said. Gathering seventy elders of 25 people, he had them stand around the tent. The Lord t came down in the cloud and spoke to him. Taking some of spirit that was on Moses, he bestowed it on the seventy elde and as the spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied.
26 Now two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, w not in the gathering but had been left in the camp. They had been on the list, but had not gone out to the tent; yet spirit came to rest on them also, and they prophesied in 27 camp. So, when a young man quickly told Moses, "Eldad a 28 Medad are prophesying in the camp," | Josue, son of Nu who from his youth had been Moses' aide, said, "Moses, 29 lord, stop them." But Moses answered him, "Are you jealo for my sake? Would that all the people of the Lord we prophets! Would that the Lord might bestow his spirit on the 30 all!" Then Moses retired to the camp, along with the elders Israel.

31 The Quail There arose a wind sent by the Lord, that dro in quail from the sea and brought them down over the can site at a height of two cubits from the ground for the distan 32 of a day's journey all around the camp. All that day, all nigh and all the next day the people gathered in the quail. Even t one who got the least gathered ten homors of them. Then the 33 spread them out all around the camp. But while the meat wa still between their teeth, before it could be consumed, the Lord wrath flared up against the people, and he struck them with 34 very great plague. So that place was named Cibroth-Hatthaav because it was there that the greedy people were buried.
35 From Cibroth-Hatthaava the people set out for Haseroth

11, 31-35: This seems to be the same event as in Ex 16, 13. Annually during March to April, quails migrated from Arabia and from other southern countries to Europe. During September to October they returned from Europe to the south. They are easily captured. The sacred writers interpret the appearance of the quails as a proof of God's protection. The intensity and timeliness of this occurrence and other similar events may be miraculous.

12

Jealousy of Aaron and Mariam While they were in Haseroth, | Mariam and Aaron spoke against Moses on the pretext of the marriage he had contracted with a Chusite woman. They complained, "Is it through Moses alone that the Lord speaks? Does he not speak through us also?" And the Lord heard this. Now, Moses himself was by far the meekest man on the face of the earth. So at once the Lord said to Moses and Aaron and Mariam, "Come out, you three, to the Meeting Tent." And the three of them went. Then the Lord came down in the column of cloud, and standing at the entrance of the tent, called Aaron and Mariam. When both came forward, | he said, "Now listen to the words of the Lord:

Should there be a prophet among you, in visions will I reveal myself to him, in dreams will I speak to him; | not so with my servant Moses! Throughout my house he bears my trust: | face to face I speak to him, plainly and not in riddles. The presence of the Lord he beholds. Why, then, did you not fear to speak against my servant Moses?"

Mariam's Leprosy So angry was the Lord against them that when he departed, and the cloud withdrew from the Tent, there was Mariam, a snow-white leper! When Aaron turned and saw her a leper, "Ah, my lord!" he said to Moses, "please do not charge us with the sin that we have foolishly committed." Let her not thus be like the stillborn babe that comes forth from its mother's womb with its flesh half consumed." Then Moses cried to the Lord, "Please, not this! Pray, heal her!" | But the Lord answered Moses, "Suppose her father had spit in her face, would she not hide in shame for seven days? Let her be confined outside the camp for seven days; only then may she be brought back." So Mariam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not start out again until she was brought back.

After that the people set out from Haseroth and encamped in the desert of Pharan.

13

The Twelve Scouts The Lord said to Moses, "Send men to reconnoiter the land of Chanaan, which I am giving the Israelites. You shall send one man from each ancestral tribe, all of them princes." So Moses dispatched them from the desert of 12, 10: Snow-white leper: king Ozias (2 Par 26, 20) was similarly punished for violating the cult.

Pharan, as the Lord had ordered. All of them were lead 4 among the Israelites; by name they were: Sammua, son 5 Zacchur, of the tribe of Ruben; | Saphat, son of Huri, of 6 tribe of Simeon; | Caleb, son of Jephonne, of the tribe of Ju
7.10 | Igal [son of Joseph], of the tribe of Issachar; | Gadd
11 son of Sodi, of the tribe of Zabulon; | Gaddi, son of Susi,
8 the tribe of Manasse, for the Josephites, with | Osee, son 9 Nun, of the tribe of Ephraim; | Phalti, son of Raphu, of 12 tribe of Benjamin; | Ammiel, son of Gemalli, of the tribe
13 Dan; | Sathur, son of Michael, of the tribe of Aser
14.15 Nahabi, son of Vaphsi, of the tribe of Nephthali; | Gu 16 son of Machi, of the tribe of Gad. These are the names of t men whom Moses sent out to reconnoiter the land. But Os son of Nun, Moses called Josue.

17 In sending them to reconnoiter the land of Chanaan, Mo said to them, "Go up here in the Negeb, up into the highlan 18 | and see what kind of land it is. Are the people living the 19 strong or weak, few or many? Is the country in which they li good or bad? Are the towns in which they dwell open or for 20 fied? Is the soil fertile or barren, wooded or clear? And do yo best to get some of the fruit of the land." It was then the se son for early grapes.

21 So they went up and reconnoitered the land from the dese 22 of Sin as far as Rohob, at the entrance to Hamath. Going by way of the Negeb, they reached Hebron, where Ahima Sesai and Tholmai, descendants of the Enacim, were livin [Hebron had been built seven years before Soan in Egypt 23 They also reached the Wadi Eschol, where they cut down branch with a single cluster of grapes on it, which two of the 24 carried on a pole, as well as some pomegranates and figs.
was because of the cluster the Israelites cut there that the called the place Wadi Eschol.

25 Their Return After reconnoitering the land for forty da 26 they returned, met Moses and Aaron and the whole communit of the Israelites in the desert of Pharan at Cades, made a repo 27 to them all, and showed them the fruit of the country. The told Moses: "We went into the land to which you sent u It does indeed flow with milk and honey, and here is its frui 28 However, the people who are living in the land are fierce, an the towns are fortified and very strong. Besides, we saw de 29 scendants of the Enacim there. Amalecites live in the regio of the Negeb; Hethites, Jebusites and Amorrites dwell in th highlands, and Chanaanites along the seacoast and the bank of the Jordan."

30 Caleb, however, to quiet the people toward Moses, said, "We ought to go up and seize the land, for we can certainly do so." 31 But the men who had gone up with him said, "We cannot 32 attack these people; they are too strong for us." So they spread discouraging reports among the Israelites about the land they had scouted, saying, "The land that we explored is a country that consumes its inhabitants. And all the people we saw there 33 are huge men, | veritable giants [the Enacim were a race of giants]; we felt like mere grasshoppers, and so we must have seemed to them."

14

1 Threats of Revolt At this, the whole community broke out 2 with loud cries, and even in the night the people wailed. All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron, the whole community saying to them, "Would that we had died in the land 3 of Egypt, or that here in the desert we were dead! Why is the Lord bringing us into this land only to have us fall by the sword? Our wives and little ones will be taken as booty. Would 4 it not be better for us to return to Egypt?" So they said to one another, "Let us appoint a leader and go back to Egypt." 5 But Moses and Aaron fell prostrate before the whole assem-6 bled community of the Israelites; while Josue, son of Nun, and Caleb, son of Jephonne, who had been in the party that scouted 7 the land, tore their garments | and said to the whole community of the Israelites, "The country which we went through 8 and explored is a fine, rich land. If the Lord is pleased with us, he will bring us in and give us that land, a land flowing with 9 milk and honey. | But do not rebel against the Lord! You need not be afraid of the people of that land; they are but food for us! Their defense has left them, but the Lord is with us. Therefore, do not be afraid of them." In answer, the whole community threatened to stone them.

10 The Lord's Sentence But then the glory of the Lord ap-1 peared at the Meeting Tent to all the Israelites. And the Lord said to Moses, "How long will this people spurn me? How long will they refuse to believe in me, despite all the signs I 2 have performed among them? I will strike them with pestilence and wipe them out. Then I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."
3 But Moses said to the Lord: "Are the Egyptians to hear of this? For by your power you brought out this people from 4 among them. And are they to tell of it to the inhabitants of this land? It has been heard that you, O Lord, are in the midst of this people; you, Lord, who plainly reveal yourself! You cloud stands over them, and you go before them by day in 14.13 column of cloud and by night in a column of fire. If now you slay this whole people, the nations who have heard such re-14.16 ports of you will say, 'The Lord was not able to bring the people into the land he swore to give them; that is why he 14.17 slaughtered them in the desert.' Now then, let the power of my Lord be displayed in its greatness, even as you have said 14.18 'The Lord is slow to anger and rich in kindness, forgiving wickedness and crime; yet not declaring the guilty guiltless; but punishing children to the third and fourth generation for 14.19 their fathers' wickedness.' Pardon, then, the wickedness of this people in keeping with your great kindness, even as you have forgiven them from Egypt until now."

14.20 The Lord answered: "I pardon them as you have asked.
14.21 Yet, by my life and the Lord's glory that fills the whole earth, 14.22 of all the men who have seen my glory and the signs I worked in Egypt and in the desert, and who nevertheless have put me to the test ten times already and have failed to heed my voice, 14.23 not one shall see the land which I promised on oath to their 14.24 fathers. None of these who have spurned me shall see it. But because my servant Caleb has a different spirit and follows me unreservedly, I will bring him into the land where he has 14.25 just been, and his descendants shall possess it. But now, since the Amalecites and Chanaanites are living in the valleys, turn away tomorrow and set out in the desert on the Red Sea road."

14.26,27 The Lord also said to Moses and Aaron: "How long will this wicked community grumble against me? I have heard the 14.28 grumblings of the Israelites against me. Tell them: By my life, says the Lord, I will do to you just what I have heard you say.
14.29 Here in the desert shall your dead bodies fall. Of all your men of twenty years or more, registered in the census, who grumbled 14.30 against me, | not one shall enter the land where I solemnly swore to settle you, except Caleb, son of Jephonne, and Josue, 14.31 son of Nun. Your little ones, however, who you said would be taken as booty, I will bring in, and they shall appreciate the 14.32 land you spurned. But as for you, your bodies shall fall here in 14.33 the desert, here where your children must wander for forty years, suffering for your faithlessness, till the last of you lies 14.34 dead in the desert. Forty days you spent in scouting the land; forty years shall you suffer for your crimes: one year for each 14.35 day. Thus you will realize what it means to oppose me. I, the Lord, have sworn to do this to all this wicked community that conspired against me: here in the desert they shall die to the last man."

36 And so it happened to the men whom Moses had sent to reconnoiter the land and who on returning had set the whole community grumbling against him by spreading discouraging 37 reports about the land; these men who had given out the bad report about the land were struck down by the Lord and died.
38 Of all the men who had gone to reconnoiter the land, only Josue, son of Nun, and Caleb, son of Jephonne, survived.

39 Unsuccessful Invasion When Moses repeated these words 40 to all the Israelites, the people felt great remorse. Early the next morning they started up into the foothills, saying, "Here we are, ready to go up to the place that the Lord spoke of: 41 for we were indeed doing wrong." But Moses said, "Why are you again disobeying the Lord's orders? This cannot succeed.
42 Do not go up, because the Lord is not in your midst; if you go, 43 you will be beaten down before your enemies. For there the Amalecites and Chanaanites face you, and you will fall by the sword. You have turned back from following the Lord; therefore the Lord will not be with you." 44 Yet they dared to go up into the foothills, even though neither the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord nor Moses left 45 the camp. And the Amalecites and Chanaanites who dwelt in that hill country came down and defeated them, beating them back as far as Horma.

15

1.2 Secondary Offerings The Lord said to Moses, "Give the Israelites these instructions: When you have entered the land 3 that I will give you for your homesteads, if you make to the Lord a sweet-smelling oblation from the herd or from the flock, in holocaust, in fulfillment of a vow, or as a freewill offering, 4 or for one of your festivals, | whoever does so shall also present to the Lord a cereal offering consisting of a tenth of an 5 epha of fine flour mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil, as well as a libation of a fourth of a hin of wine, with each lamb sac-6 rificed in holocaust or otherwise. With each sacrifice of a ram you shall present a cereal offering of two tenths of an epha 7 of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil, and a libation of a third of a hin of wine, thus making a sweet-smelling offering 8 to the Lord. When you sacrifice an ox as a holocaust, or in 9 fulfillment of a vow, or as a peace offering to the Lord, | with it you shall present a cereal offering of three tenths of an epha 10 of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil, and a libation of half 11 a hin of wine, as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord. The 12 same is to be done for each ox, ram, lamb or goat. Whatev the number you offer, do the same for each of them.

13 "All the native-born shall make these offerings in the sam way, whenever they present a sweet-smelling oblation to th 14 Lord. Likewise, in any future generation, any alien residin with you permanently or for a time, who presents a swee 15 smelling oblation to the Lord, shall do as you do. There is bu one rule for you and for the resident alien, a perpetual rule fo all your descendants. Before the Lord you and the alien ar 16 alike, with the same law and the same application of it for th alien residing among you as for yourselves." 17.18 The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to the Israelites and tel them: When you enter the land into which I will bring you 19 and begin to eat of the food of that land, you shall offer th 20 Lord a contribution | consisting of a cake of your first batch o dough. You shall offer it just as you offer a contribution from 21 the threshing floor. Throughout your generations you shall giv a contribution to the Lord from your first batch of dough.

22 Sin Offerings "When through inadvertence you fail to carr out any of these commandments which the Lord gives to Moses 23 and through Moses to you, from the time the Lord first issue 24 the commandment down through your generations: if th community itself unwittingly becomes guilty of the fault of in advertence, the whole community shall offer the holocaust o one young bull as a sweet-smelling oblation pleasing to th Lord, along with its prescribed cereal offering and libation, a 25 well as one he-goat as a sin offering. Then the priest shall make atonement for the whole Israelite community; thus they will be forgiven the inadvertence for which they have brought their 26 holocaust as an oblation to the Lord. Not only the whole Israelite community, but also the aliens residing among you shall be forgiven, since the fault of inadvertence affects all the people.
27 "However, if it is an individual who sins inadvertently, he 28 shall bring a yearling she-goat as a sin offering, and the priest shall make atonement before the Lord for him who sinned inadvertently; when atonement has been made for him, he will 29 be forgiven. You shall have but one law for him who sins inadvertently, whether he be a native Israelite or an alien residing with you.
30 "But anyone who sins defiantly, whether he be a native or an alien, insults the Lord, and shall be cut off from among his 31 people. Since he has despised the word of the Lord and has broken his commandment, he must be cut off. He has only himself to blame."

32 The Sabbath-breaker While the Israelites were in the desert, a man was discovered gathering wood on the Sabbath day.
33 Those who caught him at it brought him to Moses and Aaron 34 and the whole assembly. But they kept him in custody, for there was no clear decision as to what should be done with him.
35 Then the Lord said to Moses, "This man shall be put to death; 36 let the whole community stone him outside the camp." So the whole community led him outside the camp and stoned him to death as the Lord had commanded Moses.

37-38 Tassels on the Cloak The Lord said to Moses, "Speak to the Israelites and tell them that they and their descendants must put tassels on the corners of their garments, fastening 39 each corner tassel with a violet cord. When you use these tassels, let the sight of them remind you to keep all the commandments of the Lord, without going wantonly astray after the 40 desires of your hearts and eyes. Thus you will remember to 41 keep all my commandments and be holy to your God. I, the Lord, am your God who, as God, brought you out of Egypt that I, the Lord, may be your God."

16

1 Rebellion of Core Core, son of Isaar, son of Caath, son of Levi, [and Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, son of Phallu, 2 son of Ruben] took | two hundred and fifty Israelites who were leaders in the community, members of the council and men of
3 note. They stood before Moses, | and held an assembly against Moses and Aaron, to whom they said, "Enough from you! The whole community, all of them, are holy; the Lord is in their midst. Why then should you set yourselves over the Lord's congregation?"
4-5 When Moses heard this, he fell prostrate. Then he said to Core and to all his band, "May the Lord make known tomorrow morning who belongs to him and who is the holy one and whom he will have draw near to him! Whom he chooses, he 6 will have draw near /him. Do this: take your censers [Core 7 and all his band] | and put fire in them and place incense in 15, 37-41: Jesus observed this practice (Mt 9, 20), but he warned against affectation (Mt 23, 5). See Dt 22, 12.

16, 1—17, 15: Two rebellions, as told by three traditions, are fused in this section.

them before the Lord tomorrow. He whom the Lord ther chooses is the holy one. Enough from you Levites!" 8.9 Moses also said to Core, "Listen to me, you Levites! | Is it too little for you that the God of Israel has singled you out from the community of Israel, to have you draw near him for the service of the Lord's Dwelling and to stand before the com-10 munity to minister for them? He has allowed you and your kinsmen, the descendants of Levi, to approach him, and yet you 11 now seek the priesthood too. It is therefore against the Lord that you and all your band are conspiring. For what has Aaron done that you should grumble against him?"

12 Rebellion of Dathan and Abiram Moses summoned Da-than and Abiram, sons of Eliab, but they answered, "We will 13 not go. Are you not satisfied with having led us here away from a land flowing with milk and honey, to make us perish in 14 the desert, that you must now lord it over us? Far from bringing us to a land flowing with milk and honey, or giving us fields and vineyards for our inheritance, will you also gouge out our eyes? No, we will not go." 15 Then Moses became very angry and said to the Lord, "Pay no heed to their offering. I have never taken a single ass from them, nor have I wronged any one of them."

16 Core Moses said to Core, "You and all your band shall appear before the Lord tomorrow—you and they and Aaron too.
17 Then each of your two hundred and fifty followers shall take his own censer, put incense in it, and offer it to the Lord; and you and Aaron, each with his own censer, shall do the same." 18 So they all took their censers, and laying incense on the fire they had put in them, they took their stand by the entrance of the 19 Meeting Tent along with Moses and Aaron. Then, when Core had assembled all his band against them at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, the glory of the Lord appeared to the entire com-20.21 munity, and the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, | "Stand 22 apart from this band, that I may consume them at once." But they fell prostrate and cried out, "O God, God of the spirits of all mankind, will one man's sin make you angry with the whole 23.24 community?" The Lord answered Moses, "Speak to the community and tell them: Withdraw from the space around the Dwelling" [of Core, Dathan and Abiram].

25 Punishment of Dathan and Abiram Moses, followed by the elders of Israel, arose and went to Dathan and Abiram.
26 Then he warned the community, "Keep away from the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that is theirs:

otherwise you too will be swept away because of all their sins." 27 When Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing at the entrances of their tents with their wives and sons and 28 little ones, Moses said, "This is how you shall know that it was the Lord who sent me to do all I have done, and that it was 29 not I who planned it: If these men die an ordinary death, merely suffering the fate common to all mankind, then it was 30 not the Lord who sent me. But if the Lord does something entirely new, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them alive down into the nether world, with all belonging to them, then you will know that these men have defied the Lord." 31 No sooner had he finished saying all this than the ground be-32 neath them split open, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their families [and all of Core's men] 33 and all their possessions. They went down alive to the nether world with all belonging to them; the earth closed over them, 34 and they perished from the community. But all the Israelites near them fled at their shrieks, saying, "The earth might swallow us too!"

35 Punishment of Core So they withdrew from the space around the Dwelling [of Core, Dathan and Abiram]. And fire from the Lord came forth which consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering the incense.

17

1.2 The Lord said to Moses, "Tell Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, to remove the censers from the embers; and scatter the 3 fire some distance away, for these sinners have consecrated the censers at the cost of their lives. Have them hammered into plates to cover the altar, because in being presented before the Lord they have become sacred. In this way they shall serve as 4 a sign to the Israelites." So Eleazar the priest had the bronze censers of those burned during the offering hammered into a 5 covering for the altar, | in keeping with the orders which the Lord had given him through Moses. This cover was to be a 16, 32: The earth opened its mouth: perhaps an earthquake is interpreted as God's vengeance. And their families: God did not really punish entire families because of the sins of individual members, but the ancient Semites thought so.

16, 33: They went down alive to the nether world: it is not clear from the Hebrew just what these words mean.

16, 35: Continues from v. 24. Perhaps a miraculous fire destroyed them.

reminder to the Israelites that no layman, no one who was not a descendant of Aaron, should approach the altar to offer incense before the Lord, lest he meet the fate of Core and his band.

6 The next day the whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, "It is you who have slain 7 the Lord's people." But while the community was deliberating against them, Moses and Aaron turned toward the Meeting Tent, and the cloud now covered it and the glory of the Lord 8 appeared. Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the 9.10 Meeting Tent, and the Lord said to them, "Depart from this community, that I may consume them at once." But they fell prostrate.

11 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, put fire from the altar in it, lay incense on it, and bring it quickly to the community to make atonement for them; for wrath has come 12 forth from the Lord and the blow is falling." Obeying the orders of Moses, Aaron took his censer and ran in among the community, where the blow was already falling on the people. Then, as he offered the incense and made atonement for the 13 people, standing there between the living and the dead, the 14 scourge was checked. Yet fourteen thousand seven hundred died from the scourge, in addition to those who died because 15 of Core. When the scourge had been checked, Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.

16.17 Aaron's Staff The Lord now said to Moses, "Speak to the Israelites and get one staff from them for each ancestral house, twelve staffs in all, one from each of their tribal princes. Mark 18 each man's name on his staff; and mark Aaron's name on Levi's staff, for the head of Levi's ancestral house shall also have a 19 staff. Then lay them down in the Meeting Tent, in front of 20 the Commandments, where I meet you. There the staff of the man of my choice shall sprout. Thus will I suppress from my my presence the Israelites' grumbling against you."

21 So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and their princes gave him staffs, twelve in all, one from each tribal prince; and Aaron's 22 staff was with them. Then Moses laid the staffs down before 23 the Lord in the Tent of the Commandments. The next day, when Moses entered the Tent, Aaron's staff, representing the house of Levi, had sprouted and put forth not only shoots, but 24 blossoms as well, and even bore ripe almonds! Moses thereupon brought out all the staffs from the Lord's presence to the Israelites. After each prince identified his own staff and took it, 25 the Lord said to Moses, "Put back Aaron's staff in front of the Commandments, to be kept there as a warning to the rebellious, so that their grumbling may cease before me; if it does not, they 26 will die." And Moses did as the Lord had commanded him.

---

17, 16-26: Jewish and Christian legends of blossoming rods or spears, e.g., the legend of St. Joseph's rod, had developed from this account of Aaron's rod. These legends do not necessarily prove that this passage also narrates a complete legend.

41 Charge of the Sacred Things Then the Israelites cried out to Moses, "We are perishing; we are lost, we are all lost!
28 Every time anyone approaches the Dwelling of the Lord, he dies! Are we to perish to the last man?"

18

1 The Lord said to Aaron, "You and your sons as well as the other members of your ancestral house shall be responsible for the sanctuary; but the responsibility of the priesthood shall 2 rest on you and your sons alone. Bring with you also your other kinsmen of the tribe of Levi, your ancestral tribe, as your associates and assistants, while you and your sons are in 3 front of the Tent of the Commandments. They shall look after your persons and the whole Tent; however, they shall not come near the sacred vessels or the altar, lest both they and 4 you die. As your associates they shall have charge of all the work connected with the Meeting Tent. But no layman shall 5 come near you. | You shall have charge of the sanctuary and of the altar, that wrath may not fall again upon the Israelites.
6 "Remember, it is I who have taken your kinsmen, the Levites, from the body of the Israelites; they are a gift to you, dedi-7 cated to the Lord for the service of the Meeting Tent. But only you and your sons are to have charge of performing the priestly functions in whatever concerns the altar and the room within the veil. I give you the priesthood as a gift. Any layman who draws near shall be put to death."

8 The Priests' Share of the Sacrifices The Lord said to Aaron, "I myself have given you charge of the contributions made to me in the various sacred offerings of the Israelites; by 18, 4: Layman: here, "one who is not a Levite," in v. 7, "one who is not a priest."

18, 8ff: Two classes of offerings are here distinguished: the most sacred offering, which only the male members of the priestly families could eat (vv. 8ff), and the other offerings, which even the women of the priestly families could eat (vv. 11-19).

perpetual ordinance I have assigned them to you and to your 9 sons as your priestly share. You shall have the right to share in the oblations that are most sacred, in whatever they offer me as cereal offerings or sin offerings or guilt offerings; these 10 shares shall accrue to you and to your sons. In eating them you shall treat them as most sacred; every male among you may partake of them. As sacred, they belong to you.
11 "You shall also have what is removed from the gift in every wave offering of the Israelites; by perpetual ordinance I have assigned it to you and to your sons and daughters. All in your 12 family who are clean may partake of it. | I have also assigned to you all the best of the new oil and of the new wine and grain 13 that they give to the Lord as their first fruits; and likewise, of whatever grows on their land, the first products that they bring in to the Lord shall be yours; all of your family who are clean 14 may partake of them. Whatever is doomed in Israel shall be 15 yours. Every living thing that opens the womb, whether of man or of beast, such as are to be offered to the Lord, shall be yours;
but you must let the first-born of man, as well as of unclean 16 animals, be redeemed. The ransom for a boy is to be paid when he is a month old; it is fixed at five silver shekels according to the sanctuary standard, twenty geras to the shekel.
17 But the first-born of cattle, sheep or goats shall not be redeemed; they are sacred. Their blood you must splash on the altar and their fat you must burn as a sweet-smelling oblation 18 to the Lord. Their meat, however, shall be yours, just as the breast and the right leg of the wave offering belong to you.
19 By perpetual ordinance I have assigned to you and to your sons and daughters all the contributions from the sacred gifts which the Israelites make to the Lord; this is an inviolable covenant to last forever before the Lord, for you and for your 20 descendants." Then the Lord said to Aaron, "You shall not have any heritage in the land of the Israelites nor hold any portion among them; I will be your portion and your heritage among them.

21 Tithes Due the Levites "To the Levites, however, I hereby assign all tithes in Israel as their heritage in recompense for 22 the service they perform in the Meeting Tent. The Israelites may no longer approach the Meeting Tent; else they will incur 23 guilt deserving death. Only the Levites are to perform the service of the Meeting Tent, and they alone shall be held responsible; this is a perpetual ordinance for all your generations. The Levites, therefore, shall not have any heritage among the Is-24 raelites, for I have assigned to them as their heritage the tithes which the Israelites give as a contribution to the Lord. That is why I have ordered that they are not to have any heritage among the Israelites."

18.25.26 Tithes Paid by the Levites The Lord said to Moses, "Give the Levites these instructions: When you receive from the Israelites the tithes I have assigned you from them as your heritage, you are to make a contribution from them to the Lord, a 27 tithe of the tithes; and your contribution will be credited to you as if it were grain from the threshing floor or new wine from the 28 press. Thus you too shall make a contribution from all the tithes you receive from the Israelites, handing over to Aaron 29 the priest the part to be contributed to the Lord. From all the gifts that you receive, and from the best parts, you are to consecrate to the Lord your own full contribution.
30 "Tell them also: Once you have made your contribution from the best part, the rest of the tithes will be credited to you Levites as if it were produce of the threshing floor or of 31 the wine press. Your families, as well as you, may eat them anywhere, since they are your recompense for service at the 32 Meeting Tent. You will incur no guilt so long as you make a contribution of the best part. Do not profane the sacred gifts of the Israelites and so bring death on yourselves."

19

1 Ashes of the Red Heifer The Lord said to Moses and 2 Aaron: "This is the regulation which the law of the Lord prescribes. Tell the Israelites to procure for you a red heifer that is free from every blemish and defect and on which no yoke has 3 ever been laid. This is to be given to Eleazar the priest, to be 4 led outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence. Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle 5 it seven times toward the front of the Meeting Tent. Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight, with its hide and flesh, 6 its blood and offal; and the priest shall take some cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet yarn and throw them into the fire in which 7 the heifer is being burned. The priest shall then wash his garments and bathe his body in water. He remains unclean until the evening, and only afterward may he return to the camp.
8 Likewise, he who burned the heifer shall wash his garments, 9 bathe his body in water, and be unclean until evening. Finally, a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them in a clean place outside the camp. There they are to be kept for preparing lustral water for the Israelite com-10 munity. The heifer is a sin offering. He who has gathered up the ashes of the heifer shall also wash his garments and be unclean until evening. This is a perpetual ordinance, both for the Israelites and for the aliens residing among them.

11 Use of the Ashes "Whoever touches the dead body of any 12 human being shall be unclean for seven days; he shall purify himself with the water on the third and on the seventh day, and then he will be clean again. But if he fails to purify himself on the third and on the seventh day, he will not become clean.
13 Everyone who fails to purify himself after touching the body of any deceased person, defiles the Dwelling of the Lord and shall be cut off from Israel. Since the lustral water has not been splashed over him, he remains unclean: his uncleanness still clings to him.
14 "This is the law: When a man dies in a tent, everyone who enters the tent, as well as everyone already in it, shall be un-15 clean for seven days; likewise, every vessel that is open, or 16 with its lid unfastened, shall be unclean. Moreover, everyone who in the open country touches a dead person, whether he was slain by the sword or died naturally, or who touches a hu-17 man bone or a grave, shall be unclean for seven days. For anyone who is thus unclean, ashes from the sin offering shall be put in a vessel, and spring water shall be poured on them.
18 Then a man who is clean shall take some hyssop, dip it in this water, and sprinkle it on the tent and on all the vessels and persons that were in it, or on him who touched a bone, a slain
19 person or other dead body, or a grave. The clean man shall sprinkle the unclean on the third and on the seventh day; thus purified on the seventh day, he shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water, and in the evening he will be clean 20 again. Any unclean man who fails to have himself purified shall be cut off from the community, because he defiles the sanctuary of the Lord. As long as the lustral water has not been 21 splashed over him, he remains unclean. This shall be a perpetual ordinance for you.

"One who sprinkles the lustral water shall wash his garments, and anyone who comes in contact with this water shall 22 be unclean until evening. Moreover, whatever the unclean person touches becomes unclean itself, and anyone who touches it becomes unclean until evening."

20

1 Death of Mariam The whole Israelite community arrived in 20, 1-13: See Ex 17, 1-7. In the description of this miracle there the desert of Sin in the first month, and the people settled at Cades. It was here that Mariam died, and here that she was buried.

2 Water Famine at Cades As the community had no water, 3 they held a council against Moses and Aaron. The people contended with Moses, exclaiming, "Would that we too had 4 perished with our kinsmen in the Lord's presence! Why have you brought the Lord's community into this desert where 5 we and our livestock are dying? Why did you lead us out of Egypt, only to bring us to this wretched place which has neither grain nor figs nor vines nor pomegranates? Here there is 6 not even water to drink!" But Moses and Aaron went away from the assembly to the entrance of the Meeting Tent, where they fell prostrate.

7 Sin of Moses and Aaron Then the glory of the Lord ap-8 peared to them, and the Lord said to Moses, | "Take the staff and assemble the community, you and your brother Aaron, and in their presence order the rock to yield its waters. From the rock you shall bring forth water for the community and 9 their livestock to drink." So Moses took the staff from its place 10 before the Lord, as he was ordered. He and Aaron assembled the community in front of the rock, where he said to them, "Listen to me, you rebels! Are we to bring water for you out 11 of this rock?" Then, raising his hand, Moses struck the rock twice with his staff, and water gushed out in abundance for 12 the community and their livestock to drink. But the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you were not faithful to me in showing forth my sanctity before the Israelites, you shall not lead this community into the land I will give them."
13 These are the waters of Meriba, where the Israelites contended against the Lord, and where he revealed his sanctity among them.

14 Edom's Refusal From Cades Moses sent men to the king of Edom with the message: "Your brother Israel has this to say: 15 You know of all the hardships that have befallen us, how our fathers went down to Egypt, where we stayed a long time, how are several conjectures to show what Moses and Aaron did wrong (v. 12). One conjecture is: instead of making this a peaceful occasion to illustrate God's power, they remonstrated with the people. Another conjecture is: Moses doubted God's power or mercy. In 1 Cor 10, 4, Paul alludes to a Jewish legend about the rock of this episode.

---

16 the Egyptians maltreated us and our fathers, | and how, when we cried to the Lord, he heard our cry and sent an angel who led us out of Egypt. Now here we are at the town of Cades 17 at the edge of your territory. | Kindly let us pass through your country. We will not cross any fields or vineyards, nor drink any well water, but we will go straight along the royal road without turning to the right or to the left, until we have passed through your territory." 18 But Edom answered him, "You shall not pass through here; 19 if you do, I will advance against you with the sword." The Israelites insisted, "We want only to go up along the highway.
If we or our livestock drink any of your water, we will pay for it. Surely there is no harm in merely letting us march 20 through." But Edom still said, "No, you shall not pass through," and advanced against them with a large and heavily 21 armed force. Therefore, since Edom refused to let them pass through their territory, Israel detoured around them.

22 Death of Aaron Setting out from Cades, the whole Israelite 23 community came to Mount Hor. There at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom, the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 24 "Aaron is about to be taken to his people; he shall not enter the land I am giving to the Israelites, because you both rebelled 25 against my commandment at the waters of Meriba. Take Aaron 26 and his son Eleazar and bring them up on Mount Hor. Then strip Aaron of his garments and put them on his son Eleazar; for there Aaron shall be taken in death." 27 Moses did as the Lord commanded. When they had climbed Mount Hor in view of the whole community, Moses stripped 28 Aaron of his garments and put them on his son Eleazar. Then Aaron died there on top of the mountain. When Moses and 29 Eleazar came down from the mountain, all the community understood that Aaron had passed away; and for thirty days the whole house of Israel mourned him.

21

1 Victory over Arad When the Chanaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb, heard that the Israelites were coming along the way of Atharim, he engaged them in battle and took 2 some of them captive. Israel then made this vow to the Lord:
"If you deliver this people into my hand, I will doom their cit-3 ies." Later, when the Lord heeded Israel's prayer and delivered up the Chanaanites, they doomed them and their cities.
Hence that place was named Horma.

4 The Bronze Serpent From Mount Hor they set out on the Red Sea road, to by-pass the land of Edom. But with their pa-5 tience worn out by the journey, the people complained against God and Moses, "Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in this desert, where there is no food or water? We are disgusted with this wretched food!" 6 In punishment the Lord sent among the people saraph ser-7 pents, which bit the people so that many of them died. Then the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned in complaining against the Lord and you. Pray the Lord to take the 8 serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people, | and the Lord said to Moses, "Make a saraph and mount it on a pole, and if anyone who has been bitten looks at it, he will re-9 cover." Moses accordingly made a bronze serpent and mounted it on a pole, and whenever anyone who had been bitten by a serpent looked at the bronze serpent, he recovered.

10 Journey around Moab The Israelites moved on and en-11 camped in Oboth. Setting out from Oboth, they encamped in 12 Ijeabarim in the desert fronting Moab on the east. Setting out 13 from there, they encamped in the Wadi Zared. Setting out from there, they encamped on the other side of the Arnon, in the desert that extends from the territory of the Amorrites; for 14 the Arnon forms Moab's boundary with the Amorrites. Hence it is said in the "Book of the Wars of the Lord": "Vaheb in 15 Supha and the wadies, Arnon and the wadi gorges that reach back toward the site of Ar and slant to the border of Moab." 16 From there they went to Beer, where there was the well of which the Lord said to Moses, "Bring the people together, and 17 I will give them water." Then it was that Israel sang this song: 18 "Spring up, O well!—so sing to it— | the well that the princes sank, that the nobles of the people dug, with their scepters and their staffs."
19 From Beer they went to Matthana, | from Matthana to Na-
20 haliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, | from Bamoth to the cleft in the plateau of Moab at the headland of Phasga that overlooks Jesimon.

21, 4-5: Complaining is perhaps the most accurate description of the people's conduct during the journey.

21, 6-9: The sacred writers interpret the snakebites of the numerous serpents found in southern Palestine as a divine punishment. Regardless of what the people considered the reason for their cure, the writer wants his readers in his day to attribute the cure to God. Wis 16, 5ff; Jn 3, 14f interprets this bronze serpent spiritually (v. 9).

21 Victory over Sehon Now Israel sent men to Sehon, king o 22 the Amorrites, with the message, "Let us pass through your country. We will not turn aside into any field or vineyard, nor will we drink any well water, but we will go straight along the 23 royal road until we have passed through your territory." Sehon, however, would not let Israel pass through his territory, but mustered all his forces and advanced into the desert against Israel. When he reached Jahas, he engaged Israel in battle.
24 But Israel defeated him at the point of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jaboc and as far as the country of the Ammonites, whose boundary was at Ja-25 zer. Israel seized all the towns here and settled in these towns 26 of the Amorrites, in Hesebon and all its dependencies. Now, Hesebon was the capital of Sehon, king of the Amorrites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had seized 27 all his land from Jazer to the Arnon. That is why the poets say: "Come to Hesebon, let it be rebuilt, let Sehon's capital be 28 firmly constructed. For fire went forth from Hesebon and a blaze from the city of Sehon; it consumed the cities of Moab 29 and swallowed up the high places of the Arnon. | Woe to you, O Moab! You are ruined, O people of Chamos! He let his sons become fugitives and his daughters be taken captive by the 30 Amorrite king Sehon. | Their plowland is ruined from Hesebon to Dibon; Ar is laid waste; fires blaze as far as Medaba."
31 When Israel had settled in the land of the Amorrites, |
32 Moses sent spies to Jazer; Israel then captured it with its dependencies and dispossessed the Amorrites who were there.

33 Victory over Og Then they turned and went up along the road to Basan. But Og, king of Basan, advanced against them 34 with all his people to give battle at Edrai. The Lord, however, said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him; for into your hand I will deliver him with all his people and his land. Do to him as you did to Sehon, king of the Amorrites, who lived in Hese-35 bon." So they struck him down with his sons and all his people, until not a survivor was left to him, and they took possession of his land.

22

1 Then the Israelites moved on and encamped in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jericho stretch of the Jordan.

III. ON THE PLAINS OF MOAB

2 Balaam Summoned Now Balac, son of Sepphor, saw all

3 that Israel did to the Amorrites. Indeed, Moab feared the Israelites greatly because of their numbers, and detested them.
4 So Moab said to the elders of Madian, "Soon this horde will devour all the country around us as an ox devours the grass of the field." And Balac, Sepphor's son, who was king of Moab 5 at that time, sent messengers to Balaam, son of Beor, at Phathur on the Euphrates, in the land of the Amauites, summoning him with these words, "A people has come here from Egypt who now cover the face of the earth and are settling down op-6 posite us! Please come and curse this people for us; they are stronger than we are. We may then be able to defeat them and drive them out of the country. For I know that whoever you 7 bless is blessed and whoever you curse is cursed." Then the elders of Moab and of Madian left with the divination fee in hand and went to Balaam. When they had given him Balac's 8 message, | he said to them in reply, "Stay here overnight, and I will give you whatever answer the Lord gives me." So the princes of Moab lodged with Balaam.
9 Then God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men
10 visiting you?" | Balaam answered God, "Balac, son of Sep-11 phor, king of Moab, sent me the message: 'This people that came here from Egypt now cover the face of the earth. Please come and lay a curse on them for us; we may then be able to 12 give them battle and drive them out.'" But God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them and do not curse this people, for 13 they are blessed." The next morning Balaam arose and told the princes of Balac, "Go back to your own country, for the Lord 14 has refused to let me go with you." So the princes of Moab went back to Balac with the report, "Balaam refused to come with us."

15 Second Appeal to Balaam Balac again sent princes, who were more numerous and more distinguished than the others.
16 On coming to Balaam they told him, "This is what Balac, son of Sepphor, has to say: Please do not refuse to come to me.
17 I will reward you very handsomely and will do anything you ask of me. Please come and lay a curse on this people for me." 18 But Balaam replied to Balac's officials, "Even if Balac gave me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything, small or great, contrary to the command of the Lord, my God.

22, 5: In the land of the Amauites: northern Syria, close to the Euphrates River.

22, 8: The Lord: the sacred writer knows that Balaam did not believe in Yahweh, but this is a device to say that even a pagan's decisions are ruled by God.

19 But, you too shall stay here overnight, till I learn what else the Lord may tell me." 20 That night God came to Balaam and said to him, "If these men have come to summon you, you may go with them; yet 21 only on the condition that you do exactly as I tell you." So the next morning when Balaam arose, he saddled his ass, and went off with the princes of Moab.

22 The Talking Ass But now the anger of God flared up at him for going, and the angel of the Lord stationed himself on the road to hinder him as he was riding along on his ass, accom-23 panied by two of his servants. When the ass saw the angel of the Lord standing on the road with sword drawn, she turned off the road and went into the field, and Balaam had to beat 24 her to bring her back on the road. Then the angel of the Lord took his stand in a narrow lane between vineyards with a 25 stone wall on each side. When the ass saw the angel of the Lord there, she shrank against the wall; and since she squeezed 26 Balaam's leg against it, he beat her again. The angel of the Lord then went ahead, and stopped next in a passage so narrow that there was no room to move either to the right or to the left.
27 When the ass saw the angel of the Lord there, she cowered under Balaam. So, in anger, he again beat the ass with his stick.
28 But now the Lord opened the mouth of the ass, and she asked Balaam, "What have I done to you that you should beat 29 me these three times?" "You have acted so willfully against me," said Balaam to the ass, "that if I but had a sword at 30 hand, I would kill you here and now." But the ass said to Balaam, "Am I not your own beast, and have you not always ridden upon me until now? Have I been in the habit of treating you this way before?" "No," replied Balaam.
31 Then the Lord removed the veil from Balaam's eyes, so that he too saw the angel of the Lord standing on the road with sword drawn; and he fell on his knees and bowed to the 32 ground. But the angel of the Lord said to him, "Why have you beaten your ass these three times? It is I who have come armed to hinder you because this rash journey of yours is di-33 rectly opposed to me. When the ass saw me, she turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away from me, 22, 22-35: The writer does not believe in the talking ass and the obstructing angel. He humorously dubbed in this folktale to illustrate the power of God's word. It is so forceful that it can be heard through the mouth of an animal. This example is in preparation for God's blessings later in the narrative. We would not now use such an example to illustrate the power of God's words.

34 I would have killed you; her I would have spared." Then Balaam said to the angel of the Lord, "I have sinned. Yet I did not know that you stood against me to oppose my journey.
35 Since it has displeased you, I will go back home." But the angel of the Lord said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but you may say only what I tell you." So Balaam went on with the princes of Balac.
36 When Balac heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at he boundary city Ir-Moab on the Arnon at the 37 end of the Moabite territory. And he said to Balaam, "I sent an urgent summons to you! Why did you not come to me? Did 38 you think I could not reward you?" | Balaam answered him, "Well, I have come to you after all. But what power have I to say anything? I can speak only what God puts in my mouth." 39 Then Balaam went with Balac, and they came to Cariath-Hu-40 soth. Here Balac slaughtered oxen and sheep, and sent portions to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.

41 The First Oracle The next morning Balac took Balaam up on Bamoth-Baal, and from there he saw some of the clans.

23

1 Then Balaam said to Balac, "Build me seven altars, and 2 prepare seven bullocks and seven rams for me here." So he did as Balaam had ordered, offering a bullock and a ram on 3 each altar. And Balac said to him, "I have erected the seven 4 altars, and have offered a bullock and a ram on each." Balaam then said to him, "Stand here by your holocaust while I go over there. Perhaps the Lord will meet me, and then I will tell you whatever he lets me see." He went out on the barren height, 5 and God met him. When he had put an utterance in Balaam's mouth, the Lord said to him, "Go back to Balac, and speak 6 accordingly." So he went back to Balac, who was still standing 7 by his holocaust together with all the princes of Moab. Then Balaam gave voice to his oracle:

From Aram has Balac brought me here, Moab's king, from the Eastern Mountains: "Come and lay a curse for me on Ja-8 cob, come and denounce Israel." How can I curse whom God has not cursed? How denounce whom the Lord has not de-9 nounced? For from the top of the crags I see him, from the heights I behold him. Here is a people that lives apart and 10 does not reckon itself among the nations. Who has ever counted

---

22, 38: The writer stresses here that Yahweh decrees the destiny of peoples; prophets are only His instruments.

the dust of Jacob, or numbered Israel's wind-borne particles?
May I die the death of the just, may my descendants be as many as theirs!
11 "What have you done to me?" cried Balac to Balaam. "It was to curse my foes that I brought you here; instead, you 12 have even blessed them." Balaam replied, "Is it not what the Lord puts in my mouth that I must repeat with care?"

13 The Second Oracle Then Balac said to him, "Please come with me to another place from which you can see only some 14 and not all of them, and from there curse them for me." So he brought him to the lookout field on the top of Phasga, where he built seven altars and offered a bullock and a ram on each of 15 them. Balaam then said to Balac, "Stand here by your holo-16 caust, while I seek a meeting over there." Then the Lord met Balaam, and having put an utterance in his mouth, he said to 17 him, "Go back to Balac, and speak accordingly." So he went back to Balac, who was still standing by his holocaust together with the princes of Moab. When Balac asked him, 18 "What did the Lord say?" Balaam gave voice to his oracle:

Be aroused, O Balac, and hearken; give ear to my testimony, 19 O son of Sepphor! God is not man that he should speak falsely, nor human, that he should change his mind. Is he one to speak 20 and not act, to decree and not fulfill? It is a blessing I have been 21 given to pronounce; a blessing which I cannot restrain. Misfortune is not observed in Jacob, nor misery seen in Israel. The Lord, his God, is with him; with him is the triumph of his King.
22 It is God who brought him out of Egypt, a wild bull of tower-23 ing might. | No, there is no sorcery against Jacob, nor omen against Israel. It shall yet be said of Jacob, and of Israel, "Be-24 hold what God has wrought!" Here is a people that springs up like a lioness, and stalks forth like a lion; it rests not till it has devoured its prey and has drunk the blood of the slain.
25 "Even though you cannot curse them," said Balac to Ba-26 laam, "at least do not bless them." But Balaam answered Ba-lac, "Did I not warn you that I must do all that the Lord tells me?"

27 The Third Oracle Then Balac said to Balaam, "Come, let me bring you to another place; perhaps God will approve of 23, 13: To another place: Balac thought that if Balaam would view Israel from a different site, he could forecast a different kind of omen.

23, 22: A wild bull of towering might: the reference is to Israel, rather than to God.

28 your cursing them for me from there." So he took Balaam to 29 the top of Phogor, that overlooks Jesimon. Balaam then said to him, "Here build me seven altars; and here prepare for me 30 seven bullocks and seven rams." And Balac did as Balaam had ordered, offering a bullock and a ram on each altar.

24

1 Balaam, however, perceiving that the Lord was pleased to bless Israel, did not go aside as before to seek omens, but 2 turned his gaze toward the desert. When he raised his eyes and saw Israel encamped, tribe by tribe, the spirit of God 3 came upon him, and he gave voice to his oracle:

The utterance of Balaam, son of Beor, the utterance of the 4 man whose eye is true, | the utterance of one who hears what God says, and knows what the Most High knows, of one who sees what the Almighty sees, enraptured, and with 5 eyes unveiled: How goodly are your tents, O Jacob; your en-6 campments, O Israel! They are like gardens beside a stream, 7 like the cedars planted by the Lord. His wells shall yield free-flowing waters, he shall have the sea within reach; his king shall rise higher than . . . and his royalty shall be exalted.
8 It is God who brought him out of Egypt, a wild bull of towering might. He shall devour the nations like grass, their bones 9 he shall strip bare. He lies crouching like a lion, or like a lioness; who shall arouse him? Blessed is he who blesses you, and cursed is he who curses you!

10 Balac beat his palms together in a blaze of anger at Balaam and said to him, "It was to curse my foes that I summoned you here; yet three times now you have even blessed them instead!
11 Be off at once, then, to your home. I promised to reward you 12 richly, but the Lord has withheld the reward from you!" Balaam replied to Balac, "Did I not warn the very messengers 13 whom you sent to me, 'Even if Balac gave me his house full of silver and gold, I could not of my own accord do anything, good or evil, contrary to the command of the Lord'? Whatever the Lord says I must repeat.

14 The Fourth Oracle "But now that I am about to go to my own people, let me first warn you what this people will do to 15 your people in the days to come." Then Balaam gave voice to his oracle:

The utterance of Balaam, son of Beor, the utterance of the 16 man whose eye is true, | the utterance of one who hears what God says, and knows what the Most High knows, of one who sees what the Almighty sees, enraptured and with eyes unveiled.

17 I see him, though not now; I behold him, though not near: A star shall advance from Jacob, and a staff shall rise from Is rael, that shall smite the brows of Moab, and the skulls of al 18 the Suthites, | till Edom is dispossessed, and no fugitive is 19 left in Seir. Israel shall do valiantly | and Jacob shall overcome his foes.
20 Upon seeing Amalec, Balaam gave voice to his oracle: First of the peoples was Amalec, but his end is to perish forever.
21 Upon seeing the Cinites, he gave voice to his oracle: Your abode is enduring, O smith, and your nest is set on a cliff; | 22 yet destined for burning—even as I watch—are your inhabitants.
23 Upon seeing . . . he gave voice to his oracle: Alas, who shall 24 survive of Ismael, | to deliver his people from the hands of the Chittim? When they have conquered Assur and conquered Heber, he too shall perish forever.
25 Then Balaam set out on his journey home; and Balac also went his way.

25

1 Worship of Baal-Phogor While Israel was living at Sattim, the people degraded themselves by having illicit relations with 2 the Moabite women. These then invited the people to the sacrifices of their god, and the people ate of the sacrifices and 3 worshiped their god. When Israel thus submitted to the rites 4 of Baal-Phogor, the Lord's anger flared up against Israel, | and he said to Moses, "Gather all the leaders of the people, and hold a public execution of the guilty ones before the Lord, that 5 his blazing wrath may be turned away from Israel." So Moses told the Israelite judges, "Each of you shall kill those of his men who have submitted to the rites of Baal-Phogor."

6 Zeal of Phinees Yet a certain Israelite came and brought in a Madianite woman to his family in the view of Moses and of the whole Israelite community, while they were weeping at 24, 17: The writer puts on the lips of Balaam the "star" and "staff," royal emblems, as alluding to David's conquest of Moab and Edom. All four oracles were probably written during David's reign (1000-961 B.C.). However, some scholars translate: "When the stars of Jacob shall prevail, and the tribes of Israel shall arise," and give the thirteenth or twelfth century as the date for this verse. If this be so, then the verse does not refer to any king or monarchy.

24, 18-24: Prophecies of the ruin of Israel's enemies. A frequent biblical notion is that the enemies of the people are likewise the enemies of God.

the entrance of the Meeting Tent. When Phinees, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw this, he left the assembly, and taking a lance in hand, | followed the Israelite into his retreat where he pierced the pair of them, the Israelite and the woman. Thus the slaughter of Israelites was checked; but only after twenty-four thousand had died.

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Phinees, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned my anger from the Israelites by his zeal for my honor among them; that is why I did not put an end to the Israelites for the offense to my honor. Announce, therefore, that I hereby give him my pledge of friendship, which shall be for him and for his descendants after him the pledge of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous on behalf of his God and thus made amends for the Israelites."

The Israelite slain with the Madianite woman was Zamri, son of Salu, prince of an ancestral house of the Simeonites. The slain Madianite woman was Chozbi, daughter of Sur, who was head of a clan, an ancestral house, in Madian.

Vengeance on the Madianites The Lord then said to Moses, "Treat the Madianites as enemies and crush them, for they have been your enemies by their wily dealings with you as regards Phogor and as regards their kinswoman Chozbi, the daughter of a Madianite prince, who was killed at the time of the slaughter because of Phogor."

6

The Second Census After the slaughter the Lord said to Moses and Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, "Take a census, by ancestral houses, throughout the community of the Israelites of all those of twenty years or more who are fit for military service in Israel." So on the plains of Moab along the Jericho stretch of the Jordan, Moses and the priest Eleazar registered | those of twenty years or more, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

The Israelites who came out of the land of Egypt were as follows:

Of Ruben, the first-born of Israel, the Rubenites by clans were: through Henoch the clan of the Henochites, through Phallu the clan of the Phalluites, | through Hesron the clan of the Hesronites, through Charmi the clan of the Charmites. These were the clans of the Rubenites, of whom forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty men were registered.

From Phallu descended Eliab, and the descendants of Eliab were Dathan and Abiram—the same Dathan and Abiram councilors of the community, who revolted against Moses and 10 Aaron [like Core's band when it rebelled against the Lord]. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them as a warning [Core too and the band that died when the fire consumed two hun-11 dred and fifty men. The descendants of Core, however, did not die out].

12 The Simeonites by clans were: through Namuel the clan of the Namuelites, through Jamin the clan of the Jaminites, 13 through Jachin the clan of the Jachinites, | through Sohar the clan of the Soharites, through Saul the clan of the Saulites.
14 These were the clans of the Simeonites, of whom twenty-two thousand two hundred men were registered.
15 The Gadites by clans were: through Sephon the clan of the Sephonites, through Haggi the clan of the Haggites, through 16 Suni the clan of the Sunites, | through Ozni the clan of the 17 Oznites, through Heri the clan of the Herites, | through Arod the clan of the Arodites, through Ariel the clan of the Arielites.
18 These were the clans of the Gadites, of whom forty thousand five hundred men were registered.
19 The sons of Juda who died in the land of Chanaan were Her 20 and Onan. The Judaites by clans were: through Sela the clan of Selaites, through Phares the clan of the Pharesites, through 21 Zara the clan of the Zaraites. The Pharesites were: through Hesron the clan of the Hesronites, through Hamul the clan of 22 the Hamulites. These were the clans of Juda, of whom seventy-six thousand five hundred men were registered.
23 The Issacharites by clans were: through Thola the clan of 24 the Tholaites, through Phua the clan of the Phuaites, | through Jasub the clan of the Jasubites, through Semron the clan of the 25 Semronites. These were the clans of Issachar, of whom sixty-four thousand three hundred men were registered.
26 The Zabulonites by clans were: through Sared the clan of the Saredites, through Elon the clan of the Elonites, through 27 Jahelel the clan of the Jahelelites. These were the clans of the Zabulonites, of whom sixty thousand five hundred men were registered.
28.29 The sons of Joseph were Manasse and Ephraim. The Ma-nasseites by clans were: through Machir the clan of the Machirites, through Galaad, a descendant of Machir, the clan of 30 the Galaadites. The Galaadites were: through Abiezer the clan of the Abiezerites, through Helec the clan of the Helecites, 31 through Esriel the clan of the Esrielites, through Sichem the 32 clan of the Sichemites, | through Semida the clan of the Semidaites, through Hepher the clan of the Hepherites. Salphahad, son of Hepher, had no sons, but only daughters, whose names were Mahala, Noa, Hegla, Melcha and Thersa. These were the clans of Manasse, of whom fifty-two thousand seven hundred men were registered.

The Ephraimites by clans were: through Suthala the clan of the Suthalaites, through Becher the clan of the Becherites, through Thahan the clan of the Thahanites. The Suthalaites were: through Heran the clan of the Heranites. These were the clans of the Ephraimites, of whom thirty-two thousand five hundred men were registered.

These were the descendants of Joseph by clans.

The Benjaminites by clans were: through Bala the clan of the Balaites, through Asbel the clan of the Asbelites, through Ahiram the clan of the Ahiramites, | through Supham the clan of the Suphamites, through Hupham the clan of the Hu-phamites. The descendants of Bala were Arad and Naaman: through Arad the clan of the Aradites, through Naaman the clan of the Naamanites. These were the Benjaminites by clans, of whom forty-five thousand six hundred men were registered.

The Danites by clans were: through Suham the clan of the Suhamites. These were the clans of Dan, | of whom sixty-four thousand four hundred men were registered.

The Aserites by clans were: through Jemna the clan of the Jemnaites, through Jesui the clan of the Jesuites, through Baria the clan of the Bariaites, through Heber the clan of the Heberites, through Melchiel the clan of the Melchielites. The name of Aser's daughter was Sara. These were the clans of Aser, of whom fifty-three thousand four hundred men were registered.

The Nephthalites by clans were: through Jahesel the clan of the Jaheselites, through Guni the clan of the Gunites, | through Jeser the clan of the Jeserites, through Sellum the clan of the Sellumites. These were the clans of Nephthali, of whom forty-five thousand four hundred men were registered.

These six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty were the Israelites who were registered.

Allotment of the Land The Lord said to Moses, "Among these groups the land shall be divided as their heritage in keeping with the number of individuals in each group. To a large group you shall assign a large heritage, to a small group a small heritage, each group receiving its heritage in proportion to the number of men registered in it. But the land shall be divided by lot, as the heritage of the various ancestral tribes 56 As the lot falls shall each group, large or small, be assigned its heritage."

57 Census of the Levites The Levites registered by clans were through Gerson the clan of the Gersonites, through Caath the clan of the Caathites, through Merari the clan of the Merarites 58 These also were clans of Levi: the clan of the Lebnites, the clan of the Hebronites, the clan of the Moholites, the clan of the Musites, the clan of the Coreites.
59 Among the descendants of Caath was Amram, | whose wife was named Jochabed. She also was of the tribe of Levi, born to the tribe in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron and Moses 60 and their sister Mariam. To Aaron were born Nadab and 61 Abiu, Eleazar and Ithamar. But Nadab and Abiu died when they offered profane fire before the Lord.
62 The total number of male Levites one month or more of age, who were registered, was twenty-three thousand. They were not registered with the other Israelites, however, for no heritage was given them among the Israelites.
63 These, then, were the men registered by Moses and the priest Eleazar in the census of the Israelites taken on the plains of 64 Moab along the Jericho stretch of the Jordan. Among them there was not a man of those who had been registered by Moses and the priest Aaron in the census of the Israelites tak-65 en in the desert of Sinai. For the Lord had told them that they would surely die in the desert, and not one of them was left except Caleb, son of Jephonne, and Josue, son of Nun.

27

1 Salphahad's Daughters Salphahad, son of Hepher, son of Galaad, son of Machir, son of Manasse, son of Joseph, had daughters named Mahala, Noa, Hegla, Melcha and Thersa.
2 They came forward, and standing in the presence of Moses, the priest Eleazar, the princes, and the whole community at the 3 entrance of the Meeting Tent, said: "Our father died in the desert. Although he did not join those who banded together against the Lord [in Core's band], he died for his own sin 4 without leaving any sons. But why should our father's name be withdrawn from his clan merely because he had no son? Let us, therefore, have property among our father's kinsmen."

5 Laws concerning Heiresses When Moses laid their case 6.7 before the Lord, | the Lord said to him, | "The plea of Salphahad's daughters is just; you shall give them hereditary property among their father's kinsmen, letting their father's 8 heritage pass on to them. Therefore, tell the Israelites: If a man dies without leaving a son, you shall let his heritage pass 9 on to his daughter; if he has no daughter, you shall give his 10 heritage to his brothers; if he has no brothers, you shall give 11 his heritage to his father's brothers; if his father had no brothers, you shall give his heritage to his nearest relative in his clan, who shall then take possession of it." This is the legal norm for the Israelites, as the Lord commanded Moses.

12 Josue to Succeed Moses The Lord said to Moses, "Go up here into the Abarim Mountains and view the land that I am 13 giving to the Israelites. When you have viewed it, you too shall 14 be taken to your people, as was your brother Aaron, because in the rebellion of the community in the desert of Sin you both rebelled against my order to manifest my sanctity to them by means of the water." [This is the water of Meribath-Cades in the desert of Sin.] 15.16 Then Moses said to the Lord, "May the Lord, the God of 17 the spirits of all mankind, set over the community | a man who shall act as their leader in all things, to guide them in all their actions; that the Lord's community may not be like sheep
18 without a shepherd." And the Lord replied to Moses, "Take Josue, son of Nun, a man of spirit, and lay your hand upon 19 him. Have him stand in the presence of the priest Eleazar and of the whole community, and commission him before their eyes.
20 Invest him with some of your own dignity, that the whole Is-21 raelite community may obey him. He shall present himself to the priest Eleazar, to have him seek out for him the decisions of the Urim in the Lord's presence; and as he directs, Josue, all the Israelites with him, and the community as a whole shall perform all their actions."
22 Moses did as the Lord had commanded him. Taking Josue and having him stand in the presence of the priest Eleazar and 23 of the whole community, he laid his hands on him and gave him his commission, as the Lord had directed through Moses.

28
2 General Sacrifices The Lord said to Moses, "Give the Israelites this commandment: At the times I have appointed, you shall be careful to present to me the food offerings that are offered to me as sweet-smelling oblations.

27, 21: Urim: see Lv 8, 8 n.

3 Each Morning and Evening "You shall tell them therefore: This is the oblation which you shall offer to the Lord, two unblemished yearling lambs each day as the established 4 holocaust, offering one lamb in the morning and the other dur-5 ing the evening twilight, each with a cereal offering of one tenth of an apha of fine flour mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil of 6 crushed olives. This is the established holocaust that was offered at Mount Sinai as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.
7 And as the libation for the first lamb, you shall pour out to 8 the Lord in the sanctuary a fourth of a hin of wine. The other lamb, to be offered during the evening twilight, you shall offer with the same cereal offering and the same libation as in the morning, as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.

9 On the Sabbath "On the Sabbath day you shall offer two unblemished yearling lambs, with their cereal offering, two tenths of an epha of fine flour mixed with oil, and with their 10 libations. Each Sabbath there shall be the Sabbath holocaust in addition to the established holocaust and its libation.

11 At the New Moon Feast "On the first of each month you shall offer as a holocaust to the Lord two bullocks, one ram, 12 and seven unblemished yearling lambs, with three tenths of an epha of fine flour mixed with oil as the cereal offering for each bullock, two tenths of an epha of fine flour mixed with oil as 13 the cereal offering for the ram, and one tenth of an epha of fine flour mixed with oil as the cereal offering for each lamb, that the holocaust may be a sweet-smelling oblation to the 14 Lord. Their libations shall be half a hin of wine for each bullock, a third of a hin for the ram, and a fourth of a hin for each lamb. This is the new moon holocaust for every new moon of 15 the year. Moreover, one goat shall be sacrificed as a sin offering to the Lord. These are to be offered in addition to the established holocaust and its libation.

16 At the Passover "On the fourteenth day of the first month 17 falls the Passover of the Lord, and the fifteenth day of this month is the pilgrimage feast. For seven days unleavened 18 bread is to be eaten. On the first of these days you shall hold 19 a sacred assembly, and do no sort of work. As an oblation you shall offer a holocaust to the Lord, which shall consist of two bullocks, one ram, and seven yearling lambs that you are sure 20 are unblemished, with their cereal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil; offering three tenths of an epha for each bullock, 21 two tenths for the ram, | and one tenth for each of the seven

22 lambs; and offer one goat as a sin offering in atonement for 23 yourselves. These offerings you shall make in addition to the 24 established morning holocaust: you shall make exactly the same offerings each day for seven days as food offerings, in addition to the established holocaust with its libation, for a 25 sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord. On the seventh day you shall hold a sacred assembly, and do no sort of work.

26 At Pentecost "On the day of first fruits, on your feast of Weeks, when you present to the Lord the new cereal offering, 27 you shall hold a sacred assembly, and do no sort of work. You shall offer as a sweet-smelling holocaust to the Lord two bul-locks, one ram, and seven yearling lambs that you are sure 28 are unblemished, with their cereal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil; offering three tenths of an epha for each bullock,
29 two tenths for the ram, | and one tenth for each of the seven 30 lambs. Moreover, one goat shall be offered as a sin offering in 31 atonement for yourselves. You shall make these offerings, together with their libations, in addition to the established holocaust with its cereal offering.

29

1 On New Year's Day "On the first day of the seventh month you shall hold a sacred assembly, and do no sort of work; it 2 shall be a day on which you sound the trumpet. You shall offer as a sweet-smelling holocaust to the Lord one bullock, one 3 ram, and seven unblemished yearling lambs, with their cereal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil; offering three tenths of 4 an epha for the bullock, two tenths for the ram, and one tenth 5 for each of the seven lambs. Moreover, one goat shall be of-6 fered as a sin offering in atonement for yourselves. These are to be offered in addition to the ordinary new moon holocaust with its cereal offering, and in addition to the established holocaust with its cereal offering, together with the libations prescribed for them, as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord.

7 On the Day of Atonement "On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall hold a sacred assembly, and mortify your-8 selves, and do no sort of work. You shall offer as a sweet-smelling holocaust to the Lord one bullock, one ram, and seven 9 yearling lambs that you are sure are unblemished, with their cereal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil; offering three tenths of an epha for the bullock, two tenths for the ram, | 10.11 and one tenth for each of the seven lambs. Moreover, one goat shall be sacrificed as a sin offering. These are to be offered in addition to the atonement sin offering, the establishe holocaust with its cereal offering, and their libations.

12 On the Feast of Booths "On the fifteenth day of the sev enth month you shall hold a sacred assembly, and do no sor of work; then, for seven days following, you shall celebrate 13 pilgrimage feast to the Lord. You shall offer as a sweet-smell ing holocaust to the Lord thirteen bullocks, two rams, an 14 fourteen yearling lambs that are unblemished, | with thei cereal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil; offering thre 15 tenths of an epha for each of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth for each of the two rams, | and one tenth for each of th 16 fourteen lambs. Moreover, one goat shall be sacrificed as a sir offering. These are to be offered in addition to the establishec holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.
17 "On the second day you shall offer twelve bullocks, twc 18 rams, and fourteen unblemished yearling lambs, | with thei cereal offerings and libations as prescribed for the bullocks, 19 rams and lambs in proportion to their number, | as well as one goat for a sin offering, besides the established holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.
20 "On the third day you shall offer eleven bullocks, two rams,
21 and fourteen unblemished yearling lambs, | with their cereal offerings and libations as prescribed for the bullocks, rams and 22 lambs in proportion to their number, | as well as one goat for a sin offering, besides the established holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.
23 "On the fourth day you shall offer ten bullocks, two rams,
24 and fourteen unblemished yearling lambs, | with their cereal
offerings and libations as prescribed for the bullocks, rams and 25 lambs in proportion to their number, | as well as one goat
for a sin offering, besides the established holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.
26 "On the fifth day you shall offer nine bullocks, two rams,
27 and fourteen unblemished yearling lambs, | with their cereal offerings and libations as prescribed for the bullocks, rams 28 and lambs in proportion to their number, | as well as one goat
for a sin offering, besides the established holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.
29 "On the sixth day you shall offer eight bullocks, two rams,
30 and fourteen unblemished yearling lambs, | with their cereal
offerings and libations as prescribed for the bullocks, rams and 31 lambs in proportion to their number, | as well as one goat
for a sin offering, besides the established holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.

32 "On the seventh day you shall offer seven bullocks, two 33 rams, and fourteen unblemished yearling lambs, | with their cereal offerings and libations as prescribed for the bullocks, 34 rams and lambs in proportion to their number, | as well as one goat for a sin offering, besides the established holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.
35 "On the eighth day you shall hold a solemn meeting, and 36 do no sort of work. You shall offer up in holocaust as a sweet-smelling oblation to the Lord one bullock, one ram, and seven 37 unblemished yearling lambs, | with their cereal offerings and libations as prescribed for the bullocks, rams and lambs in 38 proportion to their number, as well as one goat for a sin offering, besides the established holocaust with its cereal offering and libation.
39 "These are the offerings you shall make to the Lord on your festivals, besides whatever holocausts, cereal offerings, libations, and peace offerings you present as your votive or freewill offerings."

30

1 Moses then gave the Israelites these instructions, just as the Lord had ordered him.

2 Validity and Annulment of Vows Moses said to the heads of the Israelite tribes, "This is what the Lord has commanded: 3 When a man makes a vow to the Lord or binds himself under oath to a pledge of abstinence, he shall not violate his word, but must fulfill exactly the promise he has uttered.
4 "When a woman, while still a maiden in her father's house, 5 makes a vow to the Lord, or binds herself to a pledge, if her father learns of her vow or the pledge to which she bound herself and says nothing to her about it, then any vow or any 6 pledge she has made remains valid. But if on the day he learns of it her father expresses to her his disapproval, then any vow or any pledge she has made becomes null and void; and the Lord releases her from it, since her father has expressed to her his disapproval.
7 "If she marries while under a vow or under a rash pledge to 8 which she bound herself, and her husband learns of it, yet says nothing to her that day about it, then the vow or pledge she 9 had made remains valid. But if on the day he learns of it her

---

29, 35: A solemn meeting: the Hebrew word is the technical term for the closing celebration of the three major feasts of the Passover, Pentecost, and Booths, or of other special feasts that lasted for a week.

husband expresses to her his disapproval, he thereby annul the vow she had made or the rash pledge to which she ha 10 bound herself, and the Lord releases her from it. The vo of a widow or of a divorced woman, or any pledge to whic such a woman binds herself, is valid.
11 "If it is in her husband's house that she makes a vow o 12 binds herself under oath to a pledge, and her husband learns o it yet says nothing to express to her his disapproval, then an 13 vow or any pledge she has made remains valid. But if on th day he learns of them her husband annuls them, then whateve she has expressly promised in her vow or in her pledge be comes null and void; since her husband has annulled them, th Lord releases her from them.
14 "Any vow or any pledge that she makes under oath to mor tify herself, her husband can either allow to remain valid o 15 render null and void. But if her husband, day after day, says nothing at all to her about them, he thereby allows as valid any vow or any pledge she has made; he has allowed them to remain valid, because on the day he learned of them he said 16 nothing to her about them. If, however, he countermands them some time after he first learned of them, he is responsible for her guilt."
17 These are the statutes which the Lord prescribed through Moses concerning the relationship between a husband and his wife, as well as between a father and his daughter while she is still a maiden in her father's house.

31

1 Extermination of the Madianites The Lord said to Moses, 2 "Avenge the Israelites on the Madianites, and then you shall 3 be taken to your people." So Moses told the people, "Select men from your midst and arm them for war, to attack the Madian-4 ites and execute the Lord's vengeance on them. From each of the tribes of Israel you shall send a band of one thousand men 5 to war." From the clans of Israel, therefore, a thousand men of each tribe were levied, so that there were twelve thousand 6 men armed for war. Moses sent them out on the campaign, a thousand from each tribe, with Phinees, son of Eleazar, the priest for the campaign, who had with him the sacred vessels 7 and the trumpets for sounding the alarm. They waged war against the Madianites, as the Lord had commanded Moses,

31, 1-54: The sacred writer wants to attribute the victory to God. In so doing he also ascribes to God the command of the massacre and the barbarous rules of the holy war.

8 and killed every male among them. Besides those slain in battle, they killed the five Madianite kings: Evi, Recem, Sur, Hur and Rebe; and they also executed Balaam, son of Beor, with 9 the sword. But the Israelites kept the women of the Madianites with their little ones as captives, and all their herds and flocks 10 and wealth as spoil, while they set on fire all the towns where 11 they had settled and all their encampments. Then they took all the booty, with the people and beasts they had captured, and brought the captives, together with the spoils and booty, 12 to Moses and the priest Eleazar and to the Israelite community at their camp on the plains of Moab, along the Jericho stretch of the Jordan.

13 Treatment of the Captives When Moses and the priest Eleazar, with all the princes of the community, went outside the 14 camp to meet them, Moses became angry with the officers of the army, the clan and company commanders, who were re-15 turning from combat. "So you have spared all the women!" 16 he exclaimed. "Why, they are the very ones who on Balaam's advice prompted the unfaithfulness of the Israelites toward the Lord in the Phogor affair, which began the slaughter of the 17 Lord's community. Slay, therefore, every male child and every 18 woman who has had intercourse with a man. But you may spare and keep for yourselves all girls who had no intercourse with a man.

19 Purification after Combat "Moreover, you shall stay outside the camp for seven days, and those of you who have slain anyone or touched anyone slain in battle shall purify yourselves on the third and on the seventh day. This applies 20 both to you and to your captives. You shall also purify every article of cloth, leather, goats' hair, or wood." 21 Eleazar the priest told the soldiers who had returned from combat: "This is what the law, as prescribed by the Lord to 22 Moses, ordains: Whatever can stand fire, such as gold, silver, 23 bronze, iron, tin and lead, | you shall put into the fire, that it may become clean; however, it must also be purified with lustral water. But whatever cannot stand fire you shall put 24 into the water. On the seventh day you shall wash your clothes, and then you will again be clean. After that you may enter the camp."

25.26 Division of the Booty The Lord said to Moses: "With the help of the priest Eleazar and of the heads of the ancestral houses, count up all the human captives and the beasts that 27 have been taken; then divide them evenly, giving half to those who took active part in the war by going out to combat, and 28 half to the rest of the community. You shall levy a tax for the Lord on the warriors who went out to combat: one out of 29 every five hundred persons, oxen, asses and sheep | in their half of the spoil you shall turn over to the priest Eleazar as a 30 contribution to the Lord. From the Israelites' half you shall take one out of every fifty persons, and the same from the different beasts, oxen, asses and sheep, and give them to the 31 Levites, who have charge of the Lord's Dwelling." So Moses and the priest Eleazar did this, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 Amount of Booty This booty, what was left of the loot which the soldiers had taken, amounted to six hundred and 33.34 seventy-five thousand sheep, seventy-two thousand oxen, sixty-35 one thousand asses, and thirty-two thousand girls who were still virgins.
36 The half that fell to those who had gone out to combat was: three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred 37 sheep, of which six hundred and seventy-five fell as tax to 38 the Lord; thirty-six thousand oxen, of which seventy-two 39 fell as tax to the Lord; thirty thousand five hundred asses, 40 of which sixty-one fell as tax to the Lord; and sixteen thousand 41 persons, of whom thirty-two fell as tax to the Lord. The taxes contributed to the Lord, Moses gave to the priest Eleazar, as the Lord had commanded him.
42 The half for the other Israelites, which fell to the community 43 when Moses had taken it from the soldiers, was: three hundred 44 and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep, thirty-six thou-45.46 sand oxen, thirty thousand five hundred asses, and sixteen 47 thousand persons. From this, the Israelites' share, Moses, as the Lord had ordered, took one out of every fifty, both of persons and of beasts, and gave them to the Levites, who had charge of the Lord's Dwelling.

48 Gifts of the Officers Then the officers who had been clan and company commanders of the army came up to Moses | 49 and said to him, "Your servants have counted up the soldiers 50 under our command, and not one is missing. So, to make atonement for ourselves before the Lord, each of us will bring as an offering to the Lord some gold article he has picked up, such as 51 an anklet, a bracelet, a ring, an earring, or a necklace." Moses and the priest Eleazar accepted this gold from them, all of it 52 in well-wrought articles. The gold that they gave as a contribution to the Lord amounted in all to sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. This was from the clan and company

53 commanders; | what the common soldiers had looted each 54 one kept for himself. Moses, then, and the priest Eleazar accepted the gold from the clan and company commanders, and put it in the Meeting Tent as a memorial for the Israelites before the Lord.

32

1 Request of Gad and Ruben Now the Rubenites and Gadites had a very large number of livestock. Noticing that the 2 land of Jazer and of Galaad was grazing country, they came to Moses and the priest Eleazar and to the princes of the com-3 munity and said, "The region of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nemra, 4 Hesebon, Eleale, Sabama, Nebo and Baal-Maon, which the Lord has laid low before the community of Israel, is grazing
5 country. Now, since your servants have livestock," | they continued, "if we find favor with you, let this land be given to your servants as their property. Do not make us cross the Jordan."

6 Moses' Rebuke But Moses answered the Gadites and Rubenites: "Are your kinsmen, then, to engage in war, while you re-7 main here? Why do you wish to discourage the Israelites from 8 crossing to the land the Lord has given them? That is just what your fathers did when I sent them from Cadesbarne to 9 reconnoiter the land. They went up to the Wadi Eschol and reconnoitered the land, then so discouraged the Israelites that 10 they would not enter the land the Lord had given them. At 11 that time the wrath of the Lord flared up, and he swore, 'Because they have not followed me unreservedly, none of these men of twenty years or more who have come up from Egypt shall ever see this country I promised under oath to Abraham
12 and Isaac and Jacob, | except the Cenezite Caleb, son of Jephonne, and Josue, son of Nun, who have followed the Lord
13 unreservedly.' So in his anger with the Israelites the Lord made them wander in the desert forty years, until the whole generation that had done evil in the sight of the Lord had died out.
14 And now here you are, a brood of sinners, rising up in your fathers' place to add still more to the Lord's blazing wrath 15 against the Israelites. If you turn away from following him, he will make them stay still longer in the desert, and so you will bring about the ruin of this whole nation."

16 Counter Proposal But they were insistent with him: "We wish only to build sheepfolds here for our flocks, and towns 17 for our families; but we ourselves will march as troops in the van of the Israelites, until we have led them to their destination.

Meanwhile our families can remain here in the fortified towns, 18 safe from attack by the natives. We will not return to our homes until every one of the Israelites has taken possession of 19 his heritage, and will not claim any heritage with them once we cross the Jordan, so long as we receive a heritage for ourselves on this eastern side of the Jordan."

20 Agreement Reached Moses said to them in reply: "If you keep your word to march as troops in the Lord's vanguard | 21 and to cross the Jordan in full force before the Lord until he 22 has driven his enemies out of his way | and the land is subdued before him, then you may return here, quit of every obligation to the Lord and to Israel, and this region shall be 23 your possession before the Lord. But if you do not do this, you will sin against the Lord, and you can be sure that you will 24 not escape the consequences of your sin. Build the towns, then, for your families, and the folds for your flocks, but also fulfill your express promise."

25 The Gadites and Rubenites answered Moses, "Your serv-26 ants will do as you command, my lord. While our wives and children, our herds and other livestock remain in the towns of 27 Galaad, all your servants will go across as armed troops to battle before the Lord, just as your lordship says."

28 Moses, therefore, gave this order in their regard to the priest Eleazar, to Josue, son of Nun, and to the heads of the an-29 cestral tribes of the Israelites: "If all the Gadites and Rubenites cross the Jordan with you as combat troops before the Lord, you shall give them Galaad as their property when the land 30 has been subdued before you. But if they will not go across with you as combat troops before the Lord, you shall bring their wives and children and livestock across before you into Chanaan, and they shall have their property with you in the land of Chanaan."

31 To this the Gadites and Rubenites replied, "We will do 32 what the Lord has commanded us, your servants. We ourselves will go across into the land of Chanaan as troops before the Lord, but we will retain our hereditary property on this 33 side of the Jordan." So Moses gave them [the Gadites and Rubenites, as well as half the tribe of Manasse, son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sehon, king of the Amorrites, and the kingdom of Og, king of Basan,] the land with its towns and the districts that surrounded them.

34 The Gadites rebuilt the fortified towns of Dibon, Ataroth, 35,36 Aroer, | Ataroth-sophan, Jazer, Jegbaa, | Beth-Nemra and 37 Beth-Haran, and they built sheepfolds. The Rubenites rebuilt 38 Hesebon, Eleale, Cariathaim, | Nebo, Baal-Maon [names to be changed!], and Sabama. These towns, which they rebuilt, they called by their old names.

39 Other Conquests The descendants of Machir, son of Manasse, invaded Galaad and captured it, driving out the Amorrites who 40 were there. [Moses gave Galaad to Machir, son of Manasse, 41 and he settled there.] Jair, a Manasseite clan, campaigned against the tent villages, captured them and called them Ha-42 voth-Jair. Nobe also campaigned against Canath, captured it with its dependencies and called it Nobe after his own name.

33

1 Stages on the Journey The following are the stages by which the Israelites journeyed up by companies from the land of 2 Egypt under the guidance of Moses and Aaron. By the Lord's command Moses recorded the starting places of the various stages. The starting places of the successive stages were:
3 They set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the Passover morrow the 4 Israelites went forth in triumph, in view of all Egypt, | while the Egyptians buried their first-born all of whom the Lord had struck down; on their gods, too, the Lord executed judgments.

5 From Egypt to Sinai Setting out from Rameses, the Isra-6 elites camped at Socchoth. Setting out from Socchoth, they 7 camped at Etham near the edge of the desert. Setting out from Etham, they turned back to Phi-hahiroth, which is opposite 8 Baal-Saphon, and they camped opposite Magdol. Setting out from Phi-hahiroth, they crossed over through the sea into the desert, and after a three days' journey in the desert of Etham, 9 they camped at Mara. Setting out from Mara, they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy 10 palm trees, and they camped there. Setting out from Elim, 11 they camped beside the Red Sea. Setting out from the Red 12 Sea, they camped in the desert of Sin. Setting out from the 13 desert of Sin, they camped at Dephca. Setting out from Dephca, 14 they camped at Alus. Setting out from Alus, they camped at Raphidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.
15 Setting out from Raphidim, they camped in the desert of Sinai.

16 From Sinai to Cades Setting out from the desert of Sinai, 17 they camped at Cibroth-Hatthaava. Setting out from Cibroth-18 Hatthaava, they camped at Haseroth. Setting out from Hase-19 roth, they camped at Rethma. Setting out from Rethma, they 20 camped at Remmon-Phares. Setting out from Remmon-Phares, 21 they camped at Lebna. Setting out from Lebna, they camped at 22 Ressa. Setting out from Ressa, they camped at Ceelatha.
23 Setting out from Ceelatha, they camped at Mount Sepher.
24 Setting out from Mount Sepher, they camped at Harada.
25.26 Setting out from Harada, they camped at Maceloth. Setting 27 out from Maceloth, they camped at Thahath. Setting out from 28 Thahath, they camped at Thare. Setting out from Thare, they 29 camped at Methca. Setting out from Methca, they camped at 30 Hesmona. Setting out from Hesmona,—

From Mount Hor to Asiongaber They camped at Mose-31 roth. | Setting out from Moseroth, they camped at Bene-32 Jaacan. Setting out from Bene-Jaacan, they camped at Mount 33 Gadgad. Setting out from Mount Gadgad, they camped at 34 Jetabatha. Setting out from Jetabatha, they camped at He-35 brona. Setting out from Hebrona, they camped at Asiongaber.
36 Setting out from Asiongaber,—

From Cades to Mount Hor They camped in the desert of 37 Sin, at Cades. Setting out from Cades, | they camped at Mount 38 Hor on the border of the land of Edom. [Aaron ascended Mount Hor at the Lord's command, and there he died in the fortieth year from the departure of the Israelites from the land 39 of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month. Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount 40 Hor. Now, when the Chanaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb in the land of Chanaan, heard that the Israelites were 41 coming . . . .] Setting out from Mount Hor,—

From Asiongaber to the Plains of Moab They camped
42 at Salmona. | Setting out from Salmona, they camped at Phinon.
43.44 Setting out from Phinon, they camped at Oboth. Setting out from Oboth, they camped at Ijeabarim on the border of Moab.
45 Setting out from Ijeabarim, they camped at Dibon-Gad.
46 Setting out from Dibon-Gad, they camped at Helmon-Debla-47 thaim. Setting out from Helmon-Deblathaim, they camped in 48 the Abarim Mountains opposite Nebo. Setting out from the Abarim Mountains, they camped on the plains of Moab along 49 the Jericho stretch of the Jordan. Their camp along the Jordan on the plains of Moab extended from Beth-Jesimoth to Abel-Sattim.

50 Conquest and Division of Chanaan The Lord spoke to Moses on the plains of Moab beside the Jericho stretch of the 51 Jordan and said to him: "Tell the Israelites: When you go 52 across the Jordan into the land of Chanaan, drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you; destroy all their stone figures and molten images, and demolish all their high places.
53 "You shall take possession of the land and settle in it, for 54 I have given you the land as your property. You shall apportion the land among yourselves by lot, clan by clan, assigning a large heritage to a large group and a small heritage to a small group. Whenever anyone's lot falls, there shall his property be within the heritage of his ancestral tribe.
55 "But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land before you, those whom you allow to remain will become as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they will harass 56 you in the country where you live, and I will treat you as I had intended to treat them."

34

1-2 The Boundaries The Lord said to Moses, "Give the Israelites this order: When you enter the land of Chanaan, this is the territory that shall fall to you as your heritage—the land of Chanaan with its boundaries: 3 "Your southern boundary shall be at the desert of Sin along the border of Edom; on the east it shall begin at the end of the 4 Salt Sea, and turning south of the Acrabbim Pass, it shall cross Sin, and extend south of Cadesbarne to Hasar-Addar; thence 5 it shall cross to Asemon, | and turning from Asemon to the Wadi of Egypt, shall terminate at the Sea.
6 "For your western boundary you shall have the Great Sea with its coast; this shall be your western boundary.
7 "The following shall be your boundary on the north: from the Great Sea you shall draw a line to Mount Hor, and shall 8 continue it from Mount Hor to the entrance of Hamath, with 9 the boundary extending through Sedada. Thence the boundary shall reach to Zephrona and terminate at Hasar-Enan. This shall be your northern boundary.
10 "For your eastern boundary you shall draw a line from Ha-11 sar-Enan to Sepham. From Sepham the boundary shall go down to Ar-Baal, east of Ain, and descending further, shall strike 12 the ridge on the east side of the Sea of Chenereth; thence the boundary shall continue along the Jordan and terminate with the Salt Sea.
"This is the land that shall be yours, with the boundaries that surround it."

13 Moses also gave this order to the Israelites: "This is the land to be apportioned among you by lot, which the Lord has com 14 manded to be given to the nine and one half tribes. For al the ancestral houses of the tribe of Ruben, and the ancestra houses of the tribe of Gad, as well as half of the tribe of 15 Manasse, have already received their heritage; these two and one half tribes have received their heritage on the eastern side of the Jericho stretch of the Jordan, toward the sunrise."

16 Supervisors of the Allotment The Lord said to Moses, 17 "These are the names of the men who shall apportion the land 18 among you: Eleazar the priest, and Josue, son of Nun, | and one prince from each of the tribes whom you shall designate for 19 this task. These shall be as follows: from the tribe of Juda:
20 Caleb, son of Jephonne; | from the tribe of Simeon: Samuel,
21 son of Ammiud; | from the tribe of Benjamin: Elidad, son of 22 Chaslon; | from the tribe of Dan: Bocci, son of Jogli; | 23.24 from the tribe of Manasse: Hanniel, son of Ephod; | and from the tribe of Ephraim: Camuel, son of Sephtan, for the 25 descendants of Joseph; | from the tribe of Zabulon: Elisa-26 phan, son of Pharnach; | from the tribe of Issachar: Phaltiel,
27 son of Ozan; | from the tribe of Aser: Ahiud, son of Salomi;
28 | from the tribe of Nephthali; Phedael, son of Ammiud." 29 These are they whom the Lord commanded to assign the Israelites their heritage in the land of Chanaan.

35

1 Cities for the Levites The Lord gave these instructions to Moses on the plains of Moab beside the Jericho stretch of the 2 Jordan: "Tell the Israelites that out of their hereditary property they shall give the Levites cities for homes, as well as 3 pasture lands around the cities. The cities shall serve them to dwell in, and the pasture lands shall serve their herds and 4 flocks and other animals. The pasture lands of the cities to be assigned the Levites shall extend a thousand cubits from the 5 city walls in each direction. Thus you shall measure out two thousand cubits outside the city along each side—east, south, west and north—with the city lying in the center. This shall serve them as the pasture lands of their cities.
6 "Now these are the cities you shall give to the Levites: the six cities of asylum which you must establish as places where a homicide can take refuge, and in addition forty-two other 7 cities—a total of forty-eight cities with their pasture lands to 8 be assigned the Levites. In assigning the cities from the property of the Israelites, take more from a larger group and fewer from a smaller one, so that each group will cede cities to the Levites in proportion to its own heritage."

9.10 Cities of Asylum The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites: When you go across the Jordan into the land of Cha-11 naan, select for yourselves cities to serve as cities of asylum, where a homicide who has killed someone unintentionally may 12 take refuge. These cities shall serve you as places of asylum from the avenger of blood, so that a homicide shall not be put 13 to death unless he is first tried before the community. Six cities 14 of asylum shall you assign: three beyond the Jordan, and 15 three in the land of Chanaan. These six cities of asylum shall serve not only the Israelites but all the resident or transient aliens among them, so that anyone who has killed another unintentionally may take refuge there.

16 Murder and Manslaughter "If a man strikes another with an iron instrument and causes his death, he is a murderer and 17 shall be put to death. If a man strikes another with a death-dealing stone in his hand and causes his death, he is a murderer 18 and shall be put to death. If a man strikes another with a death-dealing club in his hand and causes his death, he is a murderer 19 and shall be put to death. The avenger of blood may execute the murderer, putting him to death on sight.
20 "If a man pushes another out of hatred, or after lying in wait for him throws something at him, and causes his death, 21 or if he strikes another out of enmity and causes his death, he shall be put to death as a murderer. The avenger of blood may execute the murderer on sight.
22 "However, if a man pushes another accidentally and not out of enmity, or if without lying in wait for him he throws some 23 object at him, or without seeing him throws a death-dealing stone which strikes him and causes his death, although he was 24 not his enemy nor seeking to harm him: then the community, deciding the case between the slayer and the avenger of blood 25 in accordance with these norms, shall free the homicide from the avenger of blood and shall remand him to the city of asylum where he took refuge; and he shall stay there until the death of the high priest who has been anointed with sacred oil.
26 If the homicide of his own accord leaves the bounds of the 27 city of asylum where he has taken refuge, and the avenger of blood finds him beyond these bounds and kills him, the aven-28 ger incurs no bloodguilt; the homicide was bound to stay in his city of asylum until the death of the high priest. Only after the death of the high priest may the homicide return to his own district.

29 "These shall be norms for you and all your descendants wherever you live, for rendering judgment.

30 Witnesses "Whenever someone kills another, the evidence of witnesses is required for the execution of the murderer. The evidence of a single witness is not sufficient for putting a person to death.

31 No Indemnity "You shall not accept indemnity in place of the life of a murderer who deserves the death penalty; he must 32 be put to death. Nor shall you accept indemnity to allow a refugee to leave his city of asylum and again dwell elsewhere 33 in the land before the death of the high priest. You shall not desecrate the land where you live. Since bloodshed desecrates the land, the land can have no atonement for the blood shed 34 on it except through the blood of him who shed it. Do not defile the land in which you live and in the midst of which I dwell; for I am the Lord who dwells in the midst of the Israelites."

36

1 Property of Heiresses The heads of the ancestral houses in the clan of descendants of Galaad, son of Machir, son of Manasse—one of the Josephite clans—came up and laid this plea before Moses and the priest Eleazar and before the princes who were the heads of the ancestral houses of the other Israelites.
2 They said: "The Lord commanded you, my lord, to apportion the land by lot among the Israelites; and you, my lord, were also commanded by the lord to give the heritage of our kinsman 3 Salphahad to his daughters. But if they marry into one of the other Israelite tribes, their heritage will be withdrawn from our ancestral heritage and will be added to that of the tribe into which they marry; thus the heritage that fell to us by lot will 4 be diminished. When the Israelites celebrate the jubilee year, the heritage of these women will be permanently added to that of the tribe into which they marry and will be withdrawn from that of our ancestral tribe."

5 So Moses gave this regulation to the Israelites according to the instructions of the Lord: "The tribe of the Josephites are 6 right in what they say. This is what the Lord commands with regard to the daughters of Salphahad: They may marry anyone they please, provided they marry into a clan of their an-7 cestral tribe, so that no heritage of the Israelites will pass from one tribe to another, but all the Israelites will retain their own

8 ancestral heritage. Therefore, every daughter who inherits property in any of the Israelite tribes shall marry someone belonging to a clan of her own ancestral tribe, in order that all the Israelites may remain in possession of their own ancestral 9 heritage. Thus, no heritage can pass from one tribe to another, but all the Israelite tribes will retain their own ancestral heritage."
10 The daughters of Salphahad obeyed the command which the 11 Lord had given to Moses. Mahala, Thersa, Hegla, Melcha and Noa, Salphahad's daughters, married relatives on their father's 12 side | within the clans of the descendants of Manasse, son of Joseph; hence their heritage remained in the tribe of their father's clan.

13 Conclusion These are the commandments and decisions which the Lord prescribed for the Israelites through Moses, on the plains of Moab beside the Jericho stretch of the Jordan.

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

INTRODUCTION

"Deuteronomy," literally "second law," refers to the first law given at Sinai, which is here recast in an exhortatory mold. The law is enshrined within three extensive speeches of Moses. Naturally, the book bears an oratorical stamp in its urging to observe the original Mosaic Law. This exhortation is the chief purpose of Deuteronomy. The frequent expressions, "Hear, O Israel," "attaching oneself to God," "Yahweh, your God," "to love God," etc., illustrate the affectionate vocabulary of the book. Hence, Deuteronomy sets the spiritual tone of the Pentateuch by expressing God's love and demanding that the people return His love. Although there is no agreement among scholars on the time of Deuteronomy's composition, it probably underwent two editions: the first edition may date from before king Josia's religious reform in 622 B.C. or the same time; the second edition seems to have appeared after the Babylonian exile in the sixth century B.C.

Main divisions of the Book of Deuteronomy are:

1. Historical Review and Exhortation, 1, 1—4, 43
2. God and His Covenant, 4, 44—11, 32
3. Exposition of the Law, 12, 1—26, 19
4. Final Words of Moses, 27, 1—34, 12

I. HISTORICAL REVIEW AND EXHORTATION

1

1 Introduction These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan [in the desert, in the Araba, opposite Supha, between Pharan and Thophel, Laban, Haseroth 2 and Dizahab; | it is a journey of eleven days from Horeb to Cadesbarne by way of the highlands of Seir].
3 In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the Israelites all the commands that the Lord 4 had given him in their regard. After he had defeated Sehon, king of the Amorrites, who lived in Hesebon, and Og, king of 5 Basan, who lived in Astharoth and in Edrai, Moses began to explain the law in the land of Moab beyond the Jordan, as follows:

6 Departure from Horeb "The Lord, our God, said to us at 7 Horeb, 'You have stayed long enough at this mountain. Leave here and go to the hill country of the Amorrites and to all the surrounding regions, the land of the Chanaanites in the Araba, the mountains, the foothills, the Negeb and the seacoast; to 8 Lebanon, and as far as the Great River [the Euphrates]. I have given that land over to you. Go now and occupy the land I swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, I would give to them and to their descendants.'

9 Appointment of Elders "At that time I said to you, 'Alone, 10 I am unable to carry you. The Lord, your God, has so multiplied you that you are now as numerous as the stars in the 11 sky. May the Lord, the God of your fathers, increase you a 12 thousand times over, and bless you as he promised! But how can I alone bear the crushing burden that you are, along with 13 your bickering? Choose wise, intelligent and experienced men from each of your tribes, that I may appoint them as your 14 leaders.' You answered me, 'We agree to do as you have pro-15 posed.' So I took outstanding men of your tribes, wise and experienced, and made them your leaders as officials over thousands, over hundreds, over fifties and over tens, and other tri-16 bal officers. I charged your judges at that time, 'Listen to complaints among your kinsmen, and administer true justice to 17 both parties even if one of them is an alien. In rendering judgment, do not consider who a person is; give ear to the lowly and to the great alike, fearing no man, for judgment is God's.
Refer to me any case that is too hard for you and I will hear it.' 18 Thereupon I gave you all the commands you were to fulfill.

19 The Twelve Scouts "Then, in obedience to the command of the Lord, our God, we set out from Horeb and journeyed through the whole desert, vast and fearful as you have seen, in the direction of the hill country of the Amorrites. We had 20 reached Cadesbarne | when I said to you, 'You have come to the hill country of the Amorrites, which the Lord, our God, is 21 giving us. The Lord, your God, has given this land over to you.
Go up and occupy it, as the Lord, the God of your fathers, 22 commands you. Do not fear or lose heart.' Then all of you came up to me and said, 'Let us send men ahead to reconnoiter the land for us and report to us on the road we must follow and 23 the cities we must take.' Agreeing with the proposal, I chose 24 twelve men from your number, one from each tribe. They set out into the hill country as far as the Wadi Eschol, and ex-25 plored it. Then, taking along some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and reported, 'The land which the Lord, our God, gives us is good.'

1, 19-46: For an expanded account see Nm 13—14.

26 Threats of Revolt "But you refused to go up, and after 27 fying the command of the Lord, your God, | you set to m muring in your tents, 'Out of hatred for us the Lord has brou us up out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hands of 28 Amorrites and destroy us. What shall we meet with up the Our kinsmen have made us fainthearted by reporting that people are stronger and taller than we, and their cities large and fortified to the sky; besides, they saw the Enac there.'
29 "But I said to you, 'Have no dread or fear of the 30 The Lord, your God, who goes before you, will himself fig for you, just as he took your part before your very eyes 31 Egypt, | as well as in the desert, where you saw how the Lo your God, carried you, as a man carries his child, all along yo 32 journey until you arrived a this place.' Despite this, you wou 33 not trust the Lord, your God, | who journeys before you find you a resting place—by day in the cloud, and by night 34 the fire, to show the way you must go. When the Lord hea 35 your words, he was angry; and he swore, 'Not one man of th evil generation shall look upon the good land I swore to give 36 your fathers, | except Caleb, son of Jephonne; he shall see For to him and to his sons I will give the land he trod upo because he has followed the Lord unreservedly.' 37 "The Lord was angered against me also on your accour
38 and said, 'Not even you shall enter there, | but your ai Josue, son of Nun, shall enter. Encourage him, for he is 39 give Israel its heritage. Your little ones, who you said wou become booty, and your children, who as yet do not know goc from bad—they shall enter; to them I will give it, and the 40 shall occupy it. But as for yourselves: turn about and proce into the desert on the Red Sea road.'

41 Unsuccessful Invasion "In reply you said to me, 'We hav sinned against the Lord. We will go up ourselves and figh just as the Lord, our God, commanded us.' And each of yo girded on his weapons, making light of going up into the hi 42 country. But the Lord said to me, 'Warn them: Do not go u and fight, lest you be beaten down before your enemies, for 43 will not be in your midst.' I gave you this warning but yo would not listen. In defiance of the Lord's command you a 1, 28: Enacim: the Enacim and other peoples (see 2, 10f. 20; 3, 11 represent the prehistoric peoples of Chanaan and Transjordan.

1, 37: See 32, 50-52, and Nm 20, 11-12, for a very different reasc why Moses was excluded from the Promised Land. The sacred write wanted to preserve these precious different traditions.

44 rogantly marched off into the hill country. Then the Amor-45 rites living there came out against you, and, like bees, chased you, cutting you down in Seir as far as Horma. On your re-46 turn you wept before the Lord, but he did not listen to your cry or give ear to you. That is why you had to stay as long as you did at Cades.

2

1 Northward along Edom "When we did turn and proceed into the desert on the Red Sea road, as the Lord had commanded me, we circled around the highlands of Seir for a 2-3 long time. Finally the Lord said to me, | 'You have wandered 4 round these highlands long enough; turn and go north. Give this order to the people: You are now about to pass through the territory of your kinsmen, the descendants of Esau, who live 5 in Seir. Though they are afraid of you, be very careful | not to come in conflict with them, for I will not give you so much as a foot of their land, since I have already given Esau pos-6 session of the highlands of Seir. You shall purchase from them 7 with silver the food you eat and the well water you drink. The Lord, your God, has blessed you in all your undertakings; he has been concerned about your journey through this vast desert.
It is now forty years that he has been with you, and you have never been in want.'

8 Along Moab "Then we left behind us the Araba route, Elath, Asiongaber, and Seir, where our kinsmen, the descendants 9 of Esau, live; and we went on toward the desert of Moab. And the Lord said to me, 'Do not show hostility to the Moabites or engage them in battle, for I will not give you possession of any of their land, since I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as 10 their own. (Formerly the Emim lived there, a people strong and 11 numerous and tall like the Enacim; | like them they were considered Raphaim. It was the Moabites who called them Emim.
12 In Seir, however, the former inhabitants were the Horrites; the descendants of Esau dispossessed them, clearing them out of the way and taking their place, just as the Israelites have done in the land of their heritage which the Lord has given them.) 13 | Get ready, then, to cross the Wadi Zared.' So we crossed it.
14 Thirty-eight years had elapsed between our departure from Cadesbarne and that crossing; in the meantime the whole generation of soldiers had perished from the camp, as the Lord had 15 sworn they should. For it was the Lord's hand that was against them, till he wiped them out of the camp completely.

16 Along Ammon "When at length death had put an end 17.18 all the soldiers among the people, the Lord said to me, 'Yo are now about to leave Ar and the territory of Moab behin 19 As you come opposite the Ammonites, do not show hostility come in conflict with them, for I will not give you possession any land of the Ammonites, since I have given it to the descen 20 ants of Lot as their own. [This also was considered a counti of the Raphaim from its former inhabitants, whom the Am 21 monites called Zomzommim, | a people strong and numerou and tall like the Enacim. But these, too, the Lord cleared out the way for the Ammonites, who ousted them and took the 22 place. He had done the same for the descendants of Esau, wh dwell in Seir, by clearing the Horrites out of their way, so th the descendants of Esau have taken their place down to th 23 present. So also the Caphthorim, migrating from Caphtho cleared away the Avvim, who once dwelt in villages as far a Gaza, and took their place.]

24 Defeat of Sehon "'Advance now across the Wadi Arnon
I now deliver into your hands Sehon, the Amorrite king o Hesebon, and his land. Begin the occupation; engage him i 25 battle. This day I will begin to put a fear and dread of you in to every nation under the heavens, so that at the mention o your name they will quake and tremble before you.' 26 "So I sent messengers from the desert of Cedemoth to Se 27 hon, king of Hesebon, with this offer of peace: 'Let me pas through your country by the highway; I will go along it with 28 out turning aside to the right or to the left. For the food I ea which you will supply, and for the water you give me to drink 29 you shall be paid in silver. Only let me march through, as the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir and the Moabites who dwell in Ar have done, until I cross the Jordan into the lanc 30 which the Lord, our God, is about to give us.' But Sehon, king of Hesebon, refused to let us pass through his land, becaus the Lord, your God, made him stubborn in mind and obstin ate in heart that he might deliver him up to you, as indeed he has now done.
31 "Then the Lord said to me, 'Now that I have already begun to hand over to you Sehon and his land, begin the actual oc

2, 23: Caphthorim: members of one of the groups of Philistines who invaded the coast of Egypt and the southern part of Palestine about 1200 B.C. Caphthor: the ancient name of the island of Crete.

2, 30: Stubborn . . . obstinate: see Ex 14, 4 n. The Semitic mentality does not distinguish between what God allows to happen by respecting man's free will (as in the text here), and what He actually prefers.

32 cupation.' So Sehon and all his people advanced against us 33 to join battle at Jahas; but since the Lord, our God, had delivered him to us, we defeated him and his sons and all his 34 people. At that time we seized all his cities and doomed them all, with their men, women and children; we left no survivor.
35 Our only booty was the livestock and the loot of the captured 36 cities. From Aroer on the edge of the Wadi Arnon and from the city in the wadi itself, as far as Galaad, no city was too well 37 fortified for us to whom the Lord had delivered them up. However, in obedience to the command of the Lord, our God, you did not encroach upon any of the Ammonite land, neither the region bordering on the Wadi Jaboc, nor the cities of the highlands.

3

1 Defeat of Og "Then we turned and proceeded toward Ba-san. But Og, king of Basan, advanced against us with all his 2 people to give battle at Edrai. The Lord, however, said to me, 'Do not be afraid of him, for I have delivered him into your hand with all his people and his land. Do to him as you did to 3 Sehon, king of the Amorrites, who lived in Hesebon.' And thus the Lord, our God, delivered into our hands Og, king of Basan, with all his people. We defeated him so completely that we 4 left him no survivor. At that time we captured all his cities, none of them eluding our grasp, the whole region of Argob, 5 the kingdom of Og in Basan: sixty cities in all, | to say nothing of the great number of unwalled towns. All the cities 6 were fortified with high walls and gates and bars. As we had done to Sehon, king of Hesebon, so also here we doomed all 7 the cities, with their men, women and children; but all the livestock and the loot of each city we took as booty for ourselves.
8 "And so at that time we took from the two kings of the Amorrites beyond the Jordan the territory from the Wadi Ar-9 non to Mount Hermon [which is called Sarion by the Sidonians 10 and Sanir by the Amorrites], comprising all the cities of the plateau and all Galaad and all the cities of the kingdom of 11 Og in Basan including Salecha and Edrai. [Og, king of Basan, was the last remaining survivor of the Raphaim. He had a bed of iron, nine regular cubits long and four wide, which is still preserved in Rabba of the Ammonites.]

12 Allotment of the Conquered Lands "When we occupied the land at that time, I gave Ruben and Gad the territory from Aroer, on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, halfway up into 13 the highlands of Galaad, with the cities therein. The rest of Galaad and all of Basan, the kingdom of Og, the whole Argob region, I gave to the half-trihe of Manasse. [All this region 14 of Basan was once called a land of the Raphaim. Jair, a Manasseite clan, took all the region of Argob as far as the border of the Gessurites and Maachathites, and called it after his own 15 name Basan Havoth-Jair, the name it bears today.] To Ma-

16 chir I gave Galaad, | and to Ruben and Gad the territory from Galaad to the Wadi Arnon—including the wadi bed and its banks—and to the Wadi Jaboc, which is the border of the Am-17 monites, as well as the Araba with the Jordan and its eastern banks from Chenereth to the Salt Sea of the Araba, under the slopes of Phasga.

18 "At that time I charged them as follows: 'The Lord, your God, has given you this land as your own. But all you troops equipped for battle must cross over in the vanguard of your 19 brother Israelites. Only your wives and children, as well as your livestock, of which I know you have a large number, shall 20 remain behind in the towns I have given you, until the Lord has settled your kinsmen as well, and they too possess the land which the Lord, your God, will give them on the other side of the Jordan. Then you may all return to the possessions I have given you.'

21 "It was then that I instructed Josue, 'Your eyes have seen all that the Lord, your God, has done to both these kings; so, too, will the Lord do to all the kingdoms which you will en-22 counter over there. Fear them not, for the Lord, your God, will fight for you.'

23 Refusal to Moses "And it was then that I besought the Lord, 24 'O Lord God, you have begun to show to your servant your greatness and might. For what God in heaven or on earth can 25 perform deeds as mighty as yours? Ah, let me cross over and see this good land beyond the Jordan, this fine hill country, and 26 the Lebanon!' But the Lord was angry with me on your account and would not hear me. 'Enough!' the Lord said to me.
27 'Speak to me no more of this. Go up to the top of Phasga and look out to the west, and to the north, and to the south, and 28 to the east. Look well, for you shall not cross this Jordan. Commission Josue, and encourage and strengthen him, for he shall cross at the head of this people and shall put them in posses-29 sion of the land you are to see.' This was while we were in the ravine opposite Beth-Phogor.

4

1 Advantages of Fidelity "Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live, and may enter in and take possession of the land which 2 the Lord, the God of your fathers, is giving you. In your observance of the commandments of the Lord, your God, which I enjoin upon you, you shall not add to what I command you 3 nor subtract from it. You have seen with your own eyes what the Lord did at Baal-Phogor: the Lord, your God, destroyed from your midst everyone that followed the Baal of Phogor; 4 but you, who clung to the Lord, your God, are all alive today.

5 Therefore, I teach you the statutes and decrees as the Lord, my God, has commanded me, that you may observe them in the 6 land you are entering to occupy. Observe them carefully, for thus will you give evidence of your wisdom and intelligence to the nations, who will hear of all these statutes and say, 'This 7 great nation is truly a wise and intelligent people.' For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the Lord, 8 our God, is to us whenever we call upon him? Or what great nation has statutes and decrees that are as just as this whole Law which I am setting before you today?

9 Revelation at Horeb "However, take care and be earnestly on your guard not to forget the things which your own eyes have seen, nor let them slip from your memory as long as you live, but teach them to your children and to your children's 10 children: There was the day on which you stood before the Lord, your God, at Horeb, and he said to me, 'Assemble the people for me; I will have them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me as long as they live in the land and may so 11 teach their children.' You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, which blazed to the very sky with fire and was 12 enveloped in a dense black cloud. Then the Lord spoke to you from the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words, 13 but saw no form; there was only a voice. He proclaimed to you his covenant, which he commanded you to keep: the Ten 14 Commandments, which he wrote on two tablets of stone. The Lord charged me at that time to teach you the statutes and decrees which you are to observe over in the land you will occupy.

15 Danger of Idolatry "You saw no form at all on the day the Lord spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire. Be 16 strictly on your guard, therefore, | not to degrade yourselves by fashioning an idol to represent any figure, whether it be the 17 form of a man or of a woman, of any animal on the earth or 18 of any bird that flies in the sky, of anything that crawls on the 19 ground or of any fish in the waters under the earth. And when you look up to the heavens and behold the sun or the moon or any star among the heavenly hosts, do not be led astray in adoring them and serving them. These the Lord, your Go has let fall to the lot of all other nations under the heaven 20 but you he has taken and led out of that iron foundry, Egyp 21 that you might be his very own people, as you are today. Sinc the Lord was angered against me on your account and swo that I should not cross the Jordan nor enter the good land whic 22 he is giving you as a heritage, I myself shall die in this countr without crossing the Jordan; but you will cross over and tak 23 possession of that good land. Take heed, therefore, lest, fo getting the covenant which the Lord, your God, has made wit you, you fashion for yourselves against his command an idc 24 in any form whatsoever. For the Lord, your God, is a con suming fire, a jealous God.

25 God's Fidelity "When you have children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, should you then degrade your selves by fashioning an idol in any form and by this evil don 26 in his sight provoke the Lord, your God, I call heaven and earth this day to witness against you, that you shall all quickly perish from the land which you will occupy when you cross th Jordan. You shall not live in it for any length of time but shall 27 be promptly wiped out. The Lord will scatter you among th nations, and there shall remain but a handful of you among th 28 nations to which the Lord will lead you. There you shall serv gods fashioned by the hands of man out of wood and stone gods which can neither see nor hear, neither eat nor smell 29 Yet there too you shall seek the Lord, your God; and you shall indeed find him when you search after him with your whole 30 heart and your whole soul. In your distress, when all these things shall have come upon you, you shall finally return to 31 the Lord, your God, and heed his voice. Since the Lord, your God, is a merciful God, he will not abandon and destroy you nor forget the covenant which under oath he made with your fathers.

32 Proofs of God's Love "Ask now of the days of old, be fore your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great 33 ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? | Did a people

4, 20: Egypt is called an iron foundry, or furnace for smelting iron because God allowed the Israelites to be afflicted there for the sake of their spiritual purification. The same expression for Egypt occurs also in 3 Kgs 8, 51; Jer 11, 4.

ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as 34 you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with his strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the Lord, your 35 God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? All this you were allowed to see that you might know the Lord is God and 36 there is no other. Out of the heavens he let you hear his voice to discipline you; on earth he let you see his great fire, and you 37 heard him speaking out of the fire. For love of your fathers he chose their descendants and personally led you out of Egypt 38 by his great power, driving out of your way nations greater and mightier than you, so as to bring you in and to make their land 39 your heritage, as it is today. This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the Lord is God in the heavens above 40 and on earth below, and that there is no other. You must keep his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you forever."

41 Cities of Refuge Then Moses set apart three cities in the 42 region east of the Jordan, that a homicide might take refuge there if he unwittingly killed his neighbor to whom he had previously borne no malice, and that he might save his life by 43 fleeing to one of these cities: Bosor in the desert, in the region of the plateau, for the Rubenites; Ramoth in Galaad for the Gadites; and Golan in Basan for the Manasseites.

II. GOD AND HIS COVENANT

44 Introduction This is the law which Moses set before the 45 Israelites. These are the ordinances, statutes and decrees which he proclaimed to them when they had come out of Egypt | 46 and were beyond the Jordan in the ravine opposite Beth-Phogor, in the land of Sehon, king of the Amorrites, who dwelt in Hesebon and whom Moses and the Israelites defeated after 47 coming out of Egypt. They occupied his land and the land of Og, king of Basan, as well—the land of these two kings of the 48 Amorrites in the region east of the Jordan: from Aroer on the edge of the Wadi Arnon to Mount Sion (that is Hermon) |

4, 48: Sion: for other synonyms of Sion see those mentioned in 3, 9. In Hebrew the "S" of this word is different from the "S" in the "Sion" of Jerusalem.

49 and all the Araba east of the Jordan, as far as the Araba Se under the slopes of Phasga.

5

1 The Covenant at Horeb Moses summoned all Israel an said to them, "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and decrees whic I proclaim in your hearing this day, that you may learn then 2 and take care to observe them. The Lord, our God, made 3 covenant with us at Horeb; not with our fathers did he mak this covenant, but with us, all of us who are alive here thi 4 day. The Lord spoke with you face to face on the mountai 5 from the midst of the fire. Since you were afraid of the fir and would not go up the mountain, I stood between the Lor and you at that time, to announce to you these words of th Lord:

6 The Decalogue 'I, the Lord, am your God, who brough 7 you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall 8 not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the 9 earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the Lord, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishments for their fathers' wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to 10 the third and fourth generation | but bestowing mercy, down to the thousandth generation, on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments.
11 'You shall not take the name of the Lord, your God, in vain.
For the Lord will not leave unpunished him who takes his name in vain.
12 'Take care to keep holy the Sabbath day as the Lord, your 13 God, commanded you. Six days you may labor and do all

5, 6-21: See Ex 20, 1-17 n.

5, 7: During the time of the patriarchs, Abraham and his people did not share our modern clearer notion of monotheism, even though God revealed Himself to Abraham. They may have considered God as a personal mysterious superhuman force. However, the Pentateuch writers stress that, regardless of the vague notion about God, Abraham was always communicating with Him. In the thirteenth century B.C., Moses and his followers held monotheism as verse 7 teaches, namely: acceptance of only one God to the exclusion of others. The prophets, from the eighth century onward, emphatically taught monotheism even more clearly.

5, 9f: God does not punish us for another's sins, but because of the solidarity of human society, the good or evil deeds of one generation may make their effects felt even on later generations. See Ex 20, 6 n.

14 your work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord, your God. No work may be done then, whether by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or ass or any of your beasts, or the alien who lives with you.
15 Your male and female slave should rest as you do. For remember that you too were once slaves in Egypt, and the Lord, your God, brought you from there with his strong hand and outstretched arm. That is why the Lord, your God, has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.
16 'Honor your father and your mother, as the Lord, your God, has commanded you, that you may have a long life and prosperity in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you.
17 'You shall not kill.
18 'You shall not commit adultery.
19 'You shall not steal.
20 'You shall not bear dishonest witness against your neighbor.
21 'You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
'You shall not desire your neighbor's house or field, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything that belongs to him.'

22 Moses as Mediator "These words, and nothing more, the Lord spoke with a loud voice to your entire assembly on the mountain from the midst of the fire and the dense cloud. He wrote them upon two tablets of stone and gave them to me.
23 But when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was ablaze with fire, you came to me in 24 the person of all your tribal heads and elders, | and said,
'The Lord, our God, has indeed let us see his glory and his majesty! We have heard his voice from the midst of the fire and have found out today that a man can still live after God 25 has spoken with him. But why should we die now? Surely this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of the Lord, our 26 God, any more, we shall die. For what mortal has heard, as we have, the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of 27 fire, and survived? Go closer, you, and hear all that the Lord, our God, will say, and then tell us what the Lord, our God, tells you; we will listen and obey.' 28 "The Lord heard your words as you were speaking to me and said to me, 'I have heard the words these people have spo-29 ken to you, which are all well said. Would that they might always be of such a mind, to fear me and to keep all my commandments! Then they and their descendants would prosper D 31 forever. Go, tell them to return to their tents. Then you wait here near me and I will give you all the commandments, the statutes and decrees you must teach them, that they may observe them in the land which I am giving them to possess.' 32 "Be careful, therefore, to do as the Lord, your God, has commanded you, not turning aside to the right or to the left 33 but following exactly the way prescribed for you by the Lord your God, that you may live and prosper, and may have long life in the land which you are to occupy.

6
1 "These then are the commandments, the statutes and decrees which the Lord, your God, has ordered that you be taught to observe in the land into which you are crossing for conquest, 2 so that you and your son and your grandson may fear the Lord, your God, and keep, throughout the days of your lives, all his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you, and thus 3 have long life. Hear then, Israel, and be careful to observe them, that you may grow and prosper the more, in keeping with the promise of the Lord, the God of your fathers, to give you a land flowing with milk and honey.

4 The Great Commandment "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is 5 our God, the Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and 6 with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I 7 enjoin on you today. Drill them into your children. Speak of 8 them at home and abroad, whether you are busy or at rest. Bind them at your wrist as a sign and let them be as a pendant on 9 your forehead. Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

10 Fidelity in Prosperity "When the Lord, your God, brings you into the land which he swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, that he would give you, a land with fine, large 11 cities that you did not build, with houses full of goods of all sorts that you did not garner, with cisterns that you did not

---

6, 4: This is Israel's credo of monotheism. It was to become the opening of the Shema, a prayer of the later Jews.

6, 5: Only the Book of Deuteronomy explicitly contains this commandment (see also 6, 13; 10, 12-13; 11,1) of the love of God. Jesus quoted this verse (Mt 22,37) to express that the love of God is the greatest commandment. Love summarizes all the commandments (Rom 13, 8-10).

6, 8: Later Jews interpreted this literally. Even today they strap phylacteries (boxes containing parchments with these words) on their wrists and foreheads when at prayer. See Mt 23, 5.

dig, with vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant; 12 and when, therefore, you eat your fill, | take care not to forget the Lord, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that 13 place of slavery. The Lord, your God, shall you fear; him 14 shall you serve, and by his name shall you swear. You shall not follow other gods, such as those of the surrounding nations, 15 lest the wrath of the Lord, your God, flare up against you and be destroy you from the face of the land; for the Lord, your God, who is in your midst, is a jealous God.
16 "You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test, as you 17 did at Massa. But keep the commandments of the Lord, your God, and the ordinances and statutes he has enjoined on you.
18 Do what is right and good in the sight of the Lord, that you may, according to his word, prosper, and may enter in and possess the good land which the Lord promised on oath to your 19 fathers, thrusting all your enemies out of your way.

20 Instruction to Children "Later on, when your son asks you what these ordinances, statutes and decrees mean which 21 the Lord, our God, has enjoined on you, | you shall say to your son, 'We were once slaves of Pharao in Egypt, but the 22 Lord brought us out of Egypt with his strong hand | and wrought before our eyes signs and wonders, great and dire, 23 against Egypt and against Pharao and his whole house. He brought us from there to lead us into the land he promised on 24 oath to our fathers, and to give it to us. Therefore, the Lord commanded us to observe all these statutes in fear of the Lord, our God, that we may always have as prosperous and happy 25 a life as we have today; and our justice before the Lord, our God, is to consist in carefully observing all these commandments he has enjoined on us.'

7

1 Destruction of Pagans "When the Lord, your God, brings you into the land which you are to enter and occupy, and dis-lodges great nations before you—the Hethites, Gergesites, Amorrites, Chanaanites, Pherezites, Hevites and Jebusites: 2 seven nations more numerous and powerful than you—and when the Lord, your God, delivers them up to you and you defeat them, you shall doom them. Make no covenant with 3 them and show them no mercy. You shall not intermarry with them, neither giving your daughters to their sons nor taking 4 their daughters for your sons. For they would turn your sons from following me to serving other gods, and then the wrath of the Lord would flare up against you and quickly destroy you.

5 "But this is how you must deal with them: Tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, chop down their sacred poles, 6 and destroy their idols by fire. For you are a people sacred to the Lord, your God; he has chosen you from all the nations 7 on the face of the earth to be a people peculiarly his own. It was not because you are the largest of all nations that the Lord set his heart on you and chose you, for you are really the 8 smallest of all nations. It was because the Lord loved you and because of his fidelity to the oath he had sworn to your fathers, that he brought you out with his strong hand from the place of slavery, and ransomed you from the hand of Pharao, king 9 of Egypt. Understand, then, that the Lord, your God, is God indeed, the faithful God who keeps his merciful covenant down to the thousandth generation toward those who love him and 10 keep his commandments, but who repays with destruction the person who hates him; he does not dally with such a one, 11 but makes him personally pay for it. You shall therefore carefully observe the commandments, the statutes and the decrees which I enjoin on you today.

12 Blessings of Obedience "As your reward for heeding these decrees and observing them carefully, the Lord, your God, will keep with you the merciful covenant which he promised on 13 oath to your fathers. He will love and bless and multiply you; he will bless the fruit of your womb and the produce of your soil, your grain and wine and oil, the issue of your herds and the young of your flocks, in the land which he swore to your 14 fathers he would give you. You will be blessed above all peoples; no man or woman among you shall be childless nor shall 15 your livestock be barren. The Lord will remove all sickness from you; he will not afflict you with any of the malignant diseases that you know from Egypt, but will leave them with all your enemies.
16 "You shall consume all the nations which the Lord, your God, will deliver up to you. You are not to look on them with 17 pity, lest you be ensnared into serving their gods. Perhaps you will say to yourselves, 'These nations are greater than we.
18 How can we dispossess them?' | But do not be afraid of them.
Rather, call to mind what the Lord, your God, did to Pharao 19 and to all Egypt: the great testings which your own eyes have seen, the signs and wonders, his strong hand and outstretched arm with which the Lord, your God, brought you out. The same 7, 8: This is perhaps the most lucid text in the entire Bible on why God chose the Jews.

also will he do to all the nations of whom you are now afraid.
20 Moreover, the Lord, your God, will send hornets among them, until the survivors who have hidden from you are destroyed.
21 Therefore, do not be terrified by them, for the Lord, your God, 22 who is in your midst, is a great and awesome God. He will dislodge these nations before you little by little. You cannot exterminate them all at once, lest the wild beasts become too 23 numerous for you. The Lord, your God, will deliver them up to you and will rout them utterly until they are annihilated.
24 He will deliver their kings into your hand, that you may make their names perish from under the heavens. No man will be able 25 to stand up against you, till you have put an end to them. The images of their gods you shall destroy by fire. Do not covet the silver or gold on them, nor take it for yourselves, lest you be ensnared by it; for it is an abomination to the Lord, your God.
26 You shall not bring any abominable thing into your house, lest you be doomed with it; loathe and abhor it utterly as a thing that is doomed.

8

1 God's Care "Be careful to observe all the commandments I enjoin on you today, that you may live and increase, and may enter in and possess the land which the Lord promised on oath 2 to your fathers. Remember how for forty years now the Lord, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was 3 your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that 4 comes forth from the mouth of the Lord. The clothing did not fall from you in tatters, nor did your feet swell these forty years.
5 So you must realize that the Lord, your God, disciplines you even as a man disciplines his son.

6 Danger of Prosperity "Therefore, keep the commandments of the Lord, your God, by walking in his ways and fearing 7 him. For the Lord, your God, is bringing you into a good coun-

7, 20: Hornets: afflictions, as in Ex 23, 28.

8, 3: Not by bread alone . . . mouth of the Lord: since God provided the wondrous manna, it should be evident that the nourishment which man obtains through natural means can sometimes fail him. In such circumstances he must appeal to God who can aid him by a mere word. This truth is frequently recalled in the Bible. See especially Mt 4, 4, where Christ Himself recalls it at the scene of the temptation.

try, a land with streams of water, with springs and fountains 8 welling up in the hills and valleys, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, of olive trees and of 9 honey, | a land where you can eat bread without stint and where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones contain iron 10 and in whose hills you can mine copper. But when you have eaten your fill, you must bless the Lord, your God, for the good 11 country he has given you. Be careful not to forget the Lord, your God, by neglecting his commandments and decrees and 12 statutes which I enjoin on you today: lest, when you have eaten your fill, and have built fine houses and lived in them, | 13 and have increased your herds and flocks, your silver and 14 gold, and all your property, | you then become haughty of heart and unmindful of the Lord, your God, who brought you 15 out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who 16 brought forth water for you from the flinty rock | and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers, that he might afflict you and test you, but also make you pros-17 perous in the end. Otherwise, you might say to yourselves, 'It is my own power and the strength of my own hand that has 18 obtained for me this wealth.' Remember then, it is the Lord, your God, who gives you the power to acquire wealth, by fulfilling, as he has now done, the covenant which he swore to 19 your fathers. But if you forget the Lord, your God, and follow other gods, serving and worshiping them, I forewarn you this 20 day that you will perish utterly. Like the nations which the Lord destroys before you, so shall you too perish for not heeding the voice of the Lord, your God.

9

1 Unmerited Success "Hear, O Israel! You are now about to cross the Jordan to enter in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than yourselves, having large cities fortified to the 2 sky, | the Enacim, a people great and tall. You know of them and have heard it said of them, 'Who can stand up against the 3 Enacim?' Understand, then, today that it is the Lord, your God, who will cross over before you as a consuming fire; he it is who will reduce them to nothing and subdue them before you, so that you can drive them out and destroy them quickly, as 4 the Lord promised you. After the Lord, your God, has thrust

8, 15: Saraph serpents: see Nm 21, 6-9 n.
9, 2: Enacim: see 1, 28 n.

them out of your way, do not say to yourselves, 'It is because of my merits that the Lord has brought me in to possess this land'; for it is really because of the wickedness of these na-5 tions that the Lord is driving them out before you. No, it is not because of your merits or the integrity of your heart that you are going in to take possession of their land; but the Lord, your God, is driving these nations out before you on account of their wickedness and in order to keep the promise which he made on oath to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
6 Understand this, therefore: it is not because of your merits that the Lord, your God, is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.

7 The Golden Calf "Bear in mind and do not forget how you angered the Lord, your God, in the desert. From the day you left the land of Egypt until you arrived in this place, you have 8 been rebellious toward the Lord. At Horeb you so provoked 9 the Lord that he was angry enough to destroy you, when I had gone up the mountain to receive the stone tablets of the covenant which the Lord made with you. Meanwhile I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights without eating or drink-10 ing, till the Lord gave me the two tablets of stone inscribed, by God's own finger, with a copy of all the words that the Lord spoke to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the 11 day of the assembly. Then, at the end of the forty days and forty nights, when the Lord had given me the two stone tab-12 lets of the covenant, | he said to me, 'Go down from here now, quickly, for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have become depraved; they have already turned aside from the way I pointed out to them and have made for themselves a 13 molten idol. I have seen now how stiff-necked this people is,' the 14 Lord said to me. 'Let me be, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under the heavens. I will then make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.' 15 "When I had come down again from the blazing, fiery mountain, with the two tablets of the covenant in both my hands, 16 I saw how you had sinned against the Lord, your God: you had already turned aside from the way which the Lord had pointed out to you by making for yourselves a molten calf!
17 Raising the two tablets with both hands I threw them from me 18 and broke them before your eyes. Then, as before, I lay prostrate before the Lord for forty days and forty nights without eating or drinking, because of all the sin you had committed in the sight of the Lord and the evil you had done to provoke him.
19 For I dreaded the fierce anger of the Lord against you: his wrath would destroy you. Yet once again the Lord listened to 20 me. With Aaron, too, the Lord was deeply angry, and would have killed him had I not prayed for him also at that time.

21 Then, taking the calf, the sinful object you had made, and fusing it with fire, I ground it down to powder as fine as dust, which I threw into the wadi that went down the mountainside.
22 "At Thabera, at Massa, and at Cibroth-Hatthaava likewise, 23 you provoked the Lord to anger. And when he sent you up from Cadesbarne to take possession of the land he was giving you, you rebelled against this command of the Lord, your God, and 24 would not trust or obey him. Ever since I have known you, you have been rebels against the Lord.
25 "Those forty days, then, and forty nights, I lay prostrate before the Lord, because he had threatened to destroy you. | 26 This was my prayer to him: O Lord God, destroy not your people, the heritage which your majesty has ransomed and brought 27 out of Egypt with your strong hand. | Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Look not upon the stubborn-28 ness of this people nor upon their wickedness and sin, lest the people from whose land you have brought us say, 'The Lord was not able to bring them into the land he promised them'; or 'Out of hatred for them, he brought them out to slay them in 29 the desert.' They are, after all, your people and your heritage, whom you have brought out by your great power and with your outstretched arm.

10

1 "At that time the Lord said to me, 'Cut two tablets of stone like the former; then come up the mountain to me. Also make an 2 ark of wood. | I will write upon the tablets the commandments that were on the former tablets that you broke, and you shall 3 place them in the ark.' So I made an ark of acacia wood, and cut two tablets of stone like the former, and went up the moun-4 tain carrying the two tablets. The Lord then wrote on them, as he had written before, the Ten Commandments which he spoke to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day 5 of the assembly. After the Lord had given them to me, | I turned and came down the mountain, and placed the tablets in the ark I had made. There they have remained, in keeping with the command the Lord gave me.
6 [The Israelites set out from Beroth Bene-Jaacan for Moser, where Aaron died and was buried, his son Eleazar succeeding 7 him in the priestly office. From there they set out for Gadgad, and from Gadgad for Jetabatha, a region where there is water in the wadies.]

8 "At that time the Lord set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, to be in attendance before the Lord and minister to him, and to give blessings in his name, as 9 they have done to this day. For this reason, Levi has no share in the heritage with his brothers; the Lord himself is his heritage, as the Lord, your God, has told him.
10 "After I had spent these other forty days and forty nights on the mountain, and the Lord had once again heard me and de-11 cided not to destroy you, he said to me, 'Go now and set out at the head of your people, that they may enter in and occupy the land which I swore to their fathers I would give them.'

12 The Lord's Majesty "And now, Israel, what does the Lord, your God, ask of you but to fear the Lord, your God, and follow his ways exactly, to love and serve the Lord, your God, 13 with all your heart and all your soul, to keep the commandments and statutes of the Lord which I enjoin on you today 14 for your own good? | Think! The heavens, even the highest heavens, belong to the Lord, your God, as well as the earth 15 and everything on it. Yet in his love for your fathers the Lord was so attached to them as to choose you, their descendants, in preference to all other peoples, as indeed he has now done.
16 Circumcise your hearts, therefore, and be no longer stiff-necked.
17 For the Lord, your God, is the God of gods, the Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who has no favorites, ac-18 cepts no bribes; who executes justice for the orphan and the wid-19 ow, and befriends the alien, feeding and clothing him. So you too must befriend the alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in 20 the land of Egypt. The Lord, your God, shall you fear, and him 21 shall you serve; hold fast to him and swear by his name. He is your glory, he, your God, who has done for you those great 22 and terrible things which your own eyes have seen. Your ancestors went down to Egypt seventy strong, and now the Lord, your God, has made you as numerous as the stars of the sky.

11

1 The Wonders of the Lord "Love the Lord, your God, therefore, and always heed his charge: his statutes, decrees 2 and commandments. It is not your children, who have not known it from experience, but you yourselves who must now understand the discipline of the Lord, your God; his majesty, his 3 strong hand and outstretched arm; the signs and deeds he wrought among the Egyptians, on Pharao, king of Egypt, and 4 on all his land; what he did to the Egyptian army and to their horses and chariots, engulfing them in the water of the Red

Sea as they pursued you, and bringing ruin upon them even 5 to this day; what he did for you in the desert until you ar
6 rived in this place; and what he did to the Rubenites Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, when the ground opened its mouth and swallowed them up out of the midst of Israel, with their families and tents and every living thing that belonged to them
7 With your own eyes you have seen all these great deeds tha 8 the Lord has done. Keep all the commandments, then, which I enjoin on you today, that you may be strong enough to enter in and take possession of the land into which you are crossing 9 and that you may have long life on the land which the Lord swore to your fathers he would give to them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 The Gift of Rain "For the land which you are to enter and occupy is not like the land of Egypt from which you have come, where you would sow your seed and then water it by 11 hand, as in a vegetable garden. No, the land into which you are crossing for conquest is a land of hills and valleys that drinks 12 in rain from the heavens, a land which the Lord, your God, looks after; his eyes are upon it continually from the beginning 13 of the year to the end. If, then, you truly heed my commandments which I enjoin on you today, loving and serving the Lord, 14 your God, with all your heart and all your soul, I will give the seasonal rain to your land, the early rain and the late rain, that 15 you may have your grain, wine and oil to gather in; and I will bring forth grass in your fields for your animals. Thus you may 16 eat your fill. But be careful lest your heart be so lured away 17 that you serve other gods and worship them. For then the wrath of the Lord will flare up against you and he will close up the heavens, so that no rain will fall, and the soil will not yield its crops, and you will soon perish from the good land he is giving you.

18 Reward of Fidelity "Therefore, take these words of mine into your heart and soul. Bind them at your wrist as a sign, 19 and let them be a pendant on your forehead. Teach them to your children, speaking of them at home and abroad, whether 20 you are busy or at rest. And write them on the doorposts of 21 your houses and on your gates, so that, as long as the heavens are above the earth, you and your children may live on in the land which the Lord swore to your fathers he would give them.

11, 18-21: See 6, 8 n.

22 "For if you are careful to observe all these commandments I enjoin on you, loving the Lord, your God, and following his 23 ways exactly, and holding fast to him, | the Lord will drive all these nations out of your way, and you will dispossess na-24 tions greater and mightier than yourselves. Every place where you set foot shall be yours: from the desert and from Lebanon, from the Euphrates River to the Western Sea, shall be your 25 territory. None shall stand up against you; the Lord, your God, will spread the fear and dread of you through any land where you set foot, as he promised you.

26 A Blessing and a Curse "I set before you here, this day, 27 a blessing and a curse: a blessing for obeying the command-28 ments of the Lord, your God, which I enjoin on you today; a curse if you do not obey the commandments of the Lord, your God, but turn aside from the way I ordain for you today, to 29 follow other gods, whom you have not known. When the Lord, your God, brings you into the land which you are to enter and occupy, then you shall pronounce the blessing on Mount Gari-30 zim, the curse on Mount Ebal. [Are they not beyond the Jordan, on the other side of the western road in the country of the Cha-naanites who live in the Araba, opposite Galgal, beside the 31 terebinth of More?] For you are about to cross the Jordan to enter and occupy the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you. When, therefore, you take possession of it and settle 32 there, be careful to observe all the statutes and decrees that I set before you today.

III. EXPOSITION OF THE LAW

12

1 One Sanctuary "These are the statutes and decrees which you must be careful to observe in the land which the Lord, the God of your fathers, has given you to occupy, as long as you 2 live on its soil. Destroy without fail every place on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every leafy tree where the 3 nations you are to dispossess worship their gods. Tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, destroy by fire their sacred poles, and shatter the idols of their gods, that you may stamp out the remembrance of them in any such place.

11, 24: Western Sea: the Mediterranean.
11, 26-32: See chs. 27—28.
12, 3: Sacred pillars: free standing slabs of stone connected with burial services. Sacred poles: wooden posts representing the mother goddess, Asherah.

4 "That is not how you are to worship the Lord, your God 5 Instead, you shall resort to the place which the Lord, your God chooses out of all your tribes and designates as his dwelling 6 | and there you shall bring your holocausts and sacrifices, your tithes and personal contributions, your votive and freewill of-7 ferings, and the firstlings of your herds and flocks. There, too, before the Lord, your God, you and your families shall eat and make merry over all your undertakings, because the Lord, 8 your God, has blessed you. You shall not do as we are now 9 doing; here, everyone does what seems right to himself, since you have not yet reached your resting place, the heritage which 10 the Lord, your God, will give you. But after you have crossed the Jordan and dwell in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you as a heritage, when he has given you rest from all 11 your enemies round about and you live there in security, | then to the place which the Lord, your God, chooses as the dwelling place for his name you shall bring all the offerings I command you: your holocausts and sacrifices, your tithes and personal contributions, and every special offering you have vowed to 12 the Lord. You shall make merry before the Lord, your God, with your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, as well as with the Levite who belongs to your community but 13 has no share of his own in your heritage. Take care not to of-14 fer up your holocausts in any place you fancy, but offer them up in the place which the Lord chooses from among your tribes; there you shall make whatever offerings I enjoin upon
you.

15 Profane and Sacred Meals "However, in any of your communities you may slaughter and eat to your heart's desire as much meat as the Lord, your God, has blessed you with; and the unclean as well as the clean may eat it, as they do the gazelle 16 or the deer. Only, you shall not partake of the blood, but must 17 pour it out on the ground like water. Moreover, you shall not, in your own communities, partake of your tithe of grain or wine or oil, of the first-born of your herd or flock, of any offering you have vowed, of your freewill offerings, or of your 18 personal contributions. These you must eat before the Lord, your God, in the place he chooses, along with your son and daughter, your male and female slave, and the Levite who be-12, 4-7: The people must worship God at only one sanctuary and not at pagan shrines. Dt never identifies the sanctuary geographically, but it was at Jerusalem. This centralized cult was not practiced at the times of the Judges (Jgs 6, 28; 13, 16), nor at the time of Solomon (3 Kgs 3, 4).

longs to your community; and there, before the Lord, you shall 19 make merry over all your undertakings. Take care, also, that you do not neglect the Levite as long as you live in the land.
20 "After the Lord, your God, has enlarged your territory, as he promised you, when you wish meat for food, you may eat it 21 at will, to your heart's desire; and if the place which the Lord, your God, chooses for the abode of his name is too far, you may slaughter in the manner I have told you any of your herd or flock that the Lord has given you, and eat it to your heart's desire in your own community. You may eat it as you would the gazelle or the deer: the unclean and the clean eating it alike.
23 But make sure that you do not partake of the blood; for blood is life, and you shall not consume this seat of life with the 24 flesh. Do not partake of the blood, therefore, but pour it out 25 on the ground like water. Abstain from it, that you and your children after you may prosper for doing what is right in the 26 sight of the Lord. However, any sacred gifts or votive offerings that you may have, you shall bring with you to the place 27 which the Lord chooses, and there you must offer both the flesh and the blood of your holocausts on the altar of the Lord, your God; of your other sacrifices the blood indeed must be poured out against the altar of the Lord, your God, but their 28 flesh may be eaten. Be careful to heed all these commandments I enjoin on you, that you and your descendants may always prosper for doing what is good and right in the sight of the Lord, your God.

29 Pagan Rites "When the Lord, your God, removes the nations from your way as you advance to dispossess them, be on your guard! Otherwise, once they have been wiped out before you and you have replaced them and are settled in their land, | 30 you will be lured into following them. Do not inquire regarding their gods, 'How did these nations worship their gods? I, too, 31 would do the same.' | You shall not thus worship the Lord, your God, because they offered to their gods every abomination that the Lord detests, even burning their sons and daughters to their gods.

13

1 Penalties for Idolatry "Every command that I enjoin on you, you shall be careful to observe, neither adding to it nor subtracting from it.
2 "If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer who 3 promises you a sign or wonder, urging you to follow other gods, whom you have not known, and to serve them: even though the 4 sign or wonder he has foretold you comes to pass, pay no attention to the words of that prophet or that dreamer; for the Lord, your God, is testing you to learn whether you really love 5 him with all your heart and with all your soul. The Lord, your God, shall you follow, and him shall you fear; his commandment shall you observe, and his voice shall you heed, 6 serving him and holding fast to him alone. But that prophet or that dreamer shall be put to death, because, in order to lead you astray from the way which the Lord, your God, has directed you to take, he has preached apostasy from the Lord, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and ransomed you from that place of slavery. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst.

7 "If your own full brother, or your son or daughter, or your beloved wife, or your intimate friend, entices you secretly to serve other gods, whom you and your fathers have not known,
8 | gods of any other nation, near at hand or far away, from 9 one end of the earth to the other: do not yield to him or listen to him, nor look with pity upon him, to spare or shield him, |
10 but kill him. Your hand shall be the first raised to slay him; 11 the rest of the people shall join in with you. You shall stone him to death, because he sought to lead you astray from the Lord, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, 12 that place of slavery. And all Israel, hearing of it, shall fear and never again do such evil as this in your midst.

13 "If, in any of the cities which the Lord, your God, gives you 14 to dwell in, you hear it said | that certain scoundrels have sprung up among you and have led astray the inhabitants of 15 their city to serve other gods whom you have not known, you must inquire carefully into the matter and investigate it thoroughly. If you find that it is true and an established fact that 16 this abomination has been committed in your midst, you shall put the inhabitants of that city to the sword, dooming the city 17 and all life that is in it, even its cattle, to the sword. Having heaped up all its spoils in the middle of its square, you shall burn the city with all its spoils as a whole burnt offering to the Lord, your God. Let it be a heap of ruins forever, never to be
18 rebuilt. | You shall not retain anything that is doomed, that the blazing wrath of the Lord may die down and he may show you mercy and in his mercy for you may multiply you as he prom-19 ised your fathers on oath; because you have heeded the voice of the Lord, your God, keeping all his commandments which I enjoin on you today, doing what is right in his sight.

14 1 Pagan Mourning Rites "You are children of the Lord, your God. You shall not gash yourselves nor shave the hair 2 above your foreheads for the dead. For you are a people sacred to the Lord, your God, who has chosen you from all the nations on the face of the earth to be a people peculiarly his own.

4 Clean and Unclean Animals "You shall not eat any abominable thing. These are the animals you may eat: the ox, 5 the sheep, the goat, | the red deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the 6 ibex, the addax, the oryx, and the mountain sheep. Any animal that has hoofs you may eat, provided it is cloven-footed and 7 chews the cud. But you shall not eat any of the following that only chew the cud or only have cloven hoofs: the camel, the hare and the rock badger, which indeed chew the cud, but do 8 not have hoofs and are therefore unclean for you; and the pig, which indeed has hoofs and is cloven-footed, but does not chew the cud and is therefore unclean for you. Their flesh you shall not eat, and their dead bodies you shall not touch.
9 "Of the various creatures that live in the water, whatever 10 has both fins and scales you may eat, but all those that lack either fins or scales you shall not eat; they are unclean for you.
11,12 "You may eat all clean birds. But you shall not eat any of 13 the following: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, | the various 14,15 kites and falcons, all the various species of crows, | the ostrich,
16 the nightjar, the gull, the various species of hawks, | the owl, 17 the screech owl, the ibis, | the desert owl, the buzzard, the 18 cormorant, | the stork, the various species of herons, the hoo-19 poe, and the bat. All winged insects, too, are unclean for you 20 and shall not be eaten. But you may eat any clean winged creatures.
21 "You must not eat any animal that has died of itself, for you are a people sacred to the Lord, your God. But you may give it to an alien who belongs to your community, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner.
"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

22 Tithes "Each year you shall tithe all the produce that grows 23 in the field you have sown; then in the place which the Lord, your God, chooses as the dwelling place of his name you shall 14, 19: The apparent contradiction is to be resolved in the light of Lv 11, 20-23; the unclean winged insects are those that walk on the ground; the clean winged creatures are those that leap on the ground, such as certain species of locusts.

---

eat in his presence your tithe of the grain, wine and oil, as well as the firstlings of your herd and flock, that you may learn al-24 ways to fear the Lord, your God. If, however, the journey is too much for you and you are not able to bring your tithe, because the place which the Lord, your God, chooses for the abode of his name is too far for you, considering how the Lord 25 has blessed you, | you may exchange the tithe for money and, with the purse of money in hand, go to the place which the 26 Lord, your God, chooses. You may then exchange the money for whatever you desire; oxen or sheep, wine or strong drink, or anything else you would enjoy, and there before the Lord, your God, you shall partake of it and make merry with your 27 family. But do not neglect the Levite who belongs to your community, for he has no share in the heritage with you.
28 "At the end of every third year you shall bring out all the tithes of your produce for that year and deposit them in com-29 munity stores, that the Levite who has no share in the heritage with you, and also the alien, the orphan and the widow who belong to your community, may come and eat their fill; so that the Lord, your God, may bless you in all that you undertake.

15

1 Debts and the Poor "At the end of every seven-year period
2 you shall have a relaxation of debts, | which shall be observed as follows. Every creditor shall relax his claim on what he has loaned his neighbor; he must not press his neighbor, his kinsman, because a relaxation in honor of the Lord has been pro-3 claimed. You may press a foreigner, but you shall relax the 4 claim on your kinsman for what is yours. Nay, more! since the Lord, your God, will bless you abundantly in the land he will give you to occupy as your heritage, there should be no one of 5 you in need. If you but heed the voice of the Lord, your God, and carefully observe all these commandments which I enjoin 6 on you today, | you will lend to many nations, and borrow from none; you will rule over many nations, and none will rule over you, since the Lord, your God, will bless you as he prom-7 ised. If one of your kinsmen in any community is in need in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you, you shall not harden your heart nor close your hand to him in his need.
8 Instead, you shall open your hand to him and freely lend him 9 enough to meet his need. Be on your guard lest, entertaining the mean thought that the seventh year, the year of relaxation, is near, you grudge help to your needy kinsman and give him nothing; else he will cry to the Lord against you and you will 10 be held guilty. When you give to him, give freely and not with ill will; for the Lord, your God, will bless you for this in all 11 your works and undertakings. The needy will never be lacking in the land; that is why I command you to open your hand to your poor and needy kinsman in your country.

12 Hebrew Slaves "If your kinsman, a Hebrew man or woman, sells himself to you, he is to serve you for six years, but in the seventh year you shall dismiss him from your service, a 13 free man. When you do so, you shall not send him away empty-14 handed, but shall weight him down with gifts from your flock and threshing floor and wine press, in proportion to the blessing 15 the Lord, your God, has bestowed on you. For remember that you too were once slaves in the land of Egypt, and the Lord, your God, ransomed you. That is why I am giving you this 16 command today. If, however, he tells you that he does not wish to leave you, because he is devoted to you and your household, 17 since he fares well with you, | you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear into the door, and he shall then be your slave forever. Your female slave, also, you shall treat in the same 18 way. You must not be reluctant to let your slave go free, since the service he has given you for six years was worth twice a hired man's salary; then also the Lord, your God, will bless you in everything you do.

19 Firstlings "You shall consecrate to the Lord, your God, all the male firstlings of your herd and of your flock. You shall not work the firstlings of your cattle, nor shear the firstlings 20 of your flock. Year after year you and your family shall eat them 21 before the Lord, your God, in the place he chooses. If, however, a firstling is lame or blind or has any other serious defect, you 22 shall not sacrifice it to the Lord, your God, but in your own communities you may eat it, the unclean and the clean eating 23 it alike, as you would a gazelle or a deer. Only, you shall not partake of its blood, which must be poured out on the ground like water.

16

1 Feast of the Passover "Observe the month of Abib by keeping the Passover of the Lord, your God, since it was in the 2 month of Abib that he brought you by night out of Egypt. You

16, 1: Abib: the name of the month in which the barley harvest fell, corresponding to our March and April; at a later period this month received the Babylonian name of "Nisan."

shall offer the Passover sacrifice from your flock or your herd to the Lord, your God, in the place which he chooses as the 3 dwelling place of his name. You shall not eat leavened bread with it. For seven days you shall eat with it only unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, that you may remember as long as you live the day of your departure from the land of Egypt; 4 for in frightened haste you left the land of Egypt. Nothing leavened may be found in all your territory for seven days, and none of the meat which you sacrificed on the evening of the first day shall be kept overnight for the next day.
5 "You may not sacrifice the Passover in any of the commun-6 ities which the Lord, your God, gives you; only at the place which he chooses as the dwelling place of his name, and in the evening at sunset, on the anniversary of your departure from 7 Egypt, shall you sacrifice the Passover. You shall cook and eat it at the place the Lord, your God, chooses; then in the morn-8 ing you may return to your tents. For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh there shall be a solemn meeting in honor of the Lord, your God; on that day you shall not do any sort of work.

9 Feast of Weeks "You shall count off seven weeks, computing them from the day when the sickle is first put to the 10 standing grain. You shall then keep the feast of Weeks in honor of the Lord, your God, and the measure of your own freewill offering shall be in proportion to the blessing the Lord, your 11 God, has bestowed on you. In the place which the Lord, your God, chooses as the dwelling place of his name, you shall make merry in his presence together with your son and daughter, your male and female slave, and the Levite who belongs to your community, as well as the alien, the orphan and the 12 widow among you. Remember that you too were once slaves in Egypt, and carry out these statutes carefully.

13 Feast of Booths "You shall celebrate the feast of Booths for seven days, when you have gathered in the produce from 14 your threshing floor and wine press. You shall make merry at your feast, together with your son and daughter, your male and female slave, and also the Levite, the alien, the orphan and 15 the widow who belong to your community. For seven days you shall celebrate this pilgrim feast in honor of the Lord, your God, in the place which he chooses; since the Lord, your God, has blessed you in all your crops and in all your undertakings, you shall do naught but make merry.
16 "Three times a year, then, every male among you shall appear before the Lord, your God, in the place which he chooses: at the feast of Unleavened Bread, at the feast of Weeks, and at the feast of Booths. No one shall appear before the Lord 17 empty-handed, but each of you with as much as he can give, in proportion to the blessings which the Lord, your God, has bestowed on you.

18 Judges "You shall appoint judges and officials throughout your tribes to administer true justice for the people in all the 19 communities which the Lord, your God, is giving you. You shall not distort justice; you must be impartial. You shall not take a bribe; for a bribe blinds the eyes even of the wise and twists 20 the words even of the just. Justice and justice alone shall be your aim, that you may have life and may possess the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you.

21 Pagan Worship "You shall not plant a sacred pole of any kind of wood beside the altar of the Lord, your God, which you 22 will build; nor shall you erect a sacred pillar, such as the Lord, your God, detests.

17
1 "You shall not sacrifice to the Lord, your God, from the herd or from the flock an animal with any serious defect; that would be an abomination to the Lord, your God.
2 "If there is found among you, in any one of the communities which the Lord, your God, gives you, a man or a woman who does evil in the sight of the Lord, your God, and transgresses 3 his covenant, | by serving other gods, or by worshiping the sun or the moon or any of the host of the sky, against my 4 command; and if, on being informed of it, you find by careful investigation that it is true and an established fact that this abom-5 ination has been committed in Israel: you shall bring the man (or woman) who has done the evil deed out to your city gates 6 and stone him to death. The testimony of two or three witnesses is required for putting a person to death; no one shall 7 be put to death on the testimony of only one witness. At the execution, the witnesses are to be the first to raise their hands against him; afterward all the people are to join in. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst.

16, 21—17, 7: This section seems to be out of its proper place, since interrupts the natural sequence of the laws for the judges (16, 18-20 nd 17, 8-13). It probably belongs to the similar section, 12, 29—14, 2.

8 Judges "If in your own community there is a case at issue which proves too complicated for you to decide, in a matter of bloodshed or of civil rights or of personal injury, you shall then 9 go up to the place which the Lord, your God, chooses, | to the Levitical priests or to the judge who is in office at that time.
They shall study the case and then hand down to you their de-10 cision. According to this decision that they give you in the place which the Lord chooses, you shall act, being careful to do ex-11 actly as they direct. You shall carry out the directions they give you and the verdict they pronounce for you, without turning aside to the right or to the left from the decision they hand 12 down to you. Any man who has the insolence to refuse to listen to the priest who officiates there in the ministry of the Lord, your God, or to the judge, shall die. Thus shall you purge the 13 evil from your midst. And all the people, on hearing of it, shall fear, and never again be so insolent.

14 The King "When you have come into the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you, and have occupied it and settled in it, should you then decide to have a king over you like all 15 the surrounding nations, you shall set that man over you as your king whom the Lord, your God, chooses. He whom you set over you as king must be your kinsman; a foreigner, who is 16 no kin of yours, you may not set over you. But he shall not have a great number of horses; nor shall he make his people go back again to Egypt to acquire them, against the Lord's warning that 17 you must never go back that way again. Neither shall he have a great number of wives, lest his heart be estranged, nor shall 18 he accumulate a vast amount of silver and gold. When he is enthroned in his kingdom, he shall have a copy of this law made from the scroll that is in the custody of the Levitical 19 priests. He shall keep it with him and read it all the days of his life that he may learn to fear the Lord, his God, and to heed 20 and fulfill all the words of this law and these statutes. Let him not become estranged from his countrymen through pride, nor turn aside to the right or to the left from these commandments.
Then he and his descendants will enjoy a long reign in Israel

18

1 Priests "The whole priestly tribe of Levi shall have no share in the heritage with Israel; they shall live on the obla-2 tions of the Lord and the portions due to him. Levi shall have no heritage among his brothers; the Lord himself is his heritage, 3 as he has told him. The priests shall have a right to the following things from the people: from those who are offering a sacrifice, whether the victim is from the herd or from the flock, the priest shall receive the shoulder, the jowls and the stomach.

4 You shall also give him the first fruits of your grain and wine and oil, as well as the first fruits of the shearing of your flock;
5 for the Lord, your God, has chosen him and his sons out of all your tribes to be always in attendance to minister in the name of the Lord.
6 "When a Levite goes from one of your communities anywhere in Israel in which he ordinarily resides, to visit, as his 7 heart may desire, the place which the Lord chooses, | he may minister there in the name of the Lord, his God, like all his 8 fellow Levites who are in attendance there before the Lord. He shall then receive the same portions to eat as the rest, along with his monetary offerings and heirlooms.

9 Prophets "When you come into the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you, you shall not learn to imitate the 10 abominations of the peoples there. Let there not be found among you anyone who immolates his son or daughter in the fire, nor a fortuneteller, soothsayer, charmer, diviner, | or caster of spells, nor one who consults ghosts and spirits or seeks oracles from the dead. Anyone who does such things is an abomination to the Lord, and because of such abominations the Lord, your God, is driving these nations out of your way. You, however, must be altogether sincere toward the Lord, your God. Though these nations whom you are to dispossess listen to their soothsayers and fortunetellers, the Lord, your God, will not permit you to do so.

"A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you from among your own kinsmen; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the Lord, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let us not again hear the voice of the Lord, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.' And the Lord said to me, 'This was well said. | I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kinsmen, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. If any man will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in 18, 15-20: The people must not have recourse to pagan means to rn God's will (v. 11), but to a series of prophets whom God will ovide for His people. The New Testament saw this text realized in rist. See Acts 3, 22-26; 7, 37; Jn 1, 21.

my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.' 21 "If you say to yourselves, 'How can we recognize an oracle 22 which the Lord has spoken?', | know that, even though a prophet speaks in the name of the Lord, if his oracle is not fulfilled or verified, it is an oracle which the Lord did not speak.
The prophet has spoken it presumptuously, and you shall have no fear of him.

19

1 Cities of Refuge "When the Lord, your God, removes the nations whose land he is giving you, and you have taken their 2 place and are settled in their cities and houses, you shall set apart three cities in the land which the Lord, your God, is 3 giving you to occupy. You shall thereby divide into three regions the land which the Lord, your God, will give you as a heritage, and so arrange the routes that every homicide will be able to find a refuge.
4 "It is in the following case that a homicide may take refuge in such a place to save his life: when someone unwittingly kills 5 his neighbor to whom he had previously borne no malice. For example, if he goes with his neighbor to a forest to cut wood, and as he swings his ax to fell a tree, its head flies off the handle and hits his neighbor a mortal blow, he may take refuge in 6 one of these cities to save his life. Should the distance be too great, the avenger of blood may in the heat of his anger pursue the homicide and overtake him and strike him dead, even though he does not merit death since he had previously borne 7 the slain man no malice. That is why I order you to set apart three cities.
8 "But if the Lord, your God, enlarges your territory, as he swore to your fathers, and gives you all the land he promised 9 your fathers he would give | in the event that you carefully observe all these commandments which I enjoin on you today, loving the Lord, your God, and ever walking in his ways: then 10 add three cities to these three. Thus, in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you as a heritage, innocent blood will not be shed and you will not become guilty of bloodshed.
11 "However, if someone lies in wait for his neighbor out of hatred for him, and rising up against him, strikes him mortally, 12 and then takes refuge in one of these cities, | the elders of his own city shall send for him and have him taken from there, and shall hand him over to be slain by the avenger of blood.
13 Do not look on him with pity, but purge from Israel the stain of shedding innocent blood, that you may prosper.

14 Removal of Landmarks "You shall not move your neighbor's landmarks erected by your forefathers in the heritage you receive in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you to occupy.

15 False Witnesses "One witness alone shall not take the stand against a man in regard to any crime or any offense of which he may be guilty; a judicial fact shall be established only on the testimony of two or three witnesses.
16 "If an unjust witness takes the stand against a man to ac-17 cuse him of a defection from the law, the two parties in the dispute shall appear before the Lord in the presence of the 18 priests or judges in office at that time; and if after a thorough investigation the judges find that the witness is a false witness 19 and has accused his kinsman falsely, you shall do to him as he planned to do to his kinsman. Thus shall you purge the evil 20 from your midst. The rest, on hearing of it, shall fear, and never 21 again do a thing so evil among you. | Do not look on such a man with pity. Life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, and foot for foot!

20

1 Courage in War "When you go out to war against your enemies and you see horses and chariots and an army greater than your own, do not be afraid of them, for the Lord, your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, will be with you.
2 "When you are about to go into battle, the priest shall come 3 forward and say to the soldiers: 'Hear, O Israel! Today you are going into battle against your enemies. Be not weakhearted or 4 afraid; be neither alarmed nor frightened by them. For it is the Lord, your God, who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies and give you victory.
5 "Then the officials shall say to the soldiers, 'Is there anyone who has built a new house and not yet had the housewarming? Let him return home, lest he die in battle and another dedicate 6 it. Is there anyone who has planted a vineyard and never yet enjoyed its fruits? Let him return home, lest he die in battle 7 and another enjoy its fruits in his stead. Is there anyone who has betrothed a woman and not yet taken her as his wife? Let him return home, lest he die in battle and another take her to 8 wife.' In fine, the officials shall say to the soldiers, 'Is there anyone who is afraid and weakhearted? Let him return home, lest he make his fellows as fainthearted as himself.'

9 "When the officials have finished speaking to the soldier military officers shall be appointed over the army.

10 Cities of the Enemy "When you march up to attack 11 city, first offer it terms of peace. If it agrees to your terms o peace and opens its gates to you, all the people to be found i 12 it shall serve you in forced labor. But if it refuses to mak peace with you and instead offers you battle, lay siege to it 13 | and when the Lord, your God, delivers it into your hand 14 put every male in it to the sword; but the women and childre and livestock and all else in it that is worth plundering yo may take as your booty, and you may use this plunder of you enemies which the Lord, your God, has given you.
15 "That is how you shall deal with any city at a considerabl distance from you, which does not belong to the peoples of thi 16 land. But in the cities of those nations which the Lord, you God, is giving you as your heritage, you shall not leave a singl 17 soul alive. You must doom them all—the Hethites, Amorrites Chanaanites, Pherezites, Hevites and Jebusites—as the Lord 18 your God, has commanded you, lest they teach you to make any such abominable offerings as they make to their gods, and you thus sin against the Lord, your God.

19 Trees of a Besieged City "When you are at war with a city and have to lay siege to it for a long time before you capture it, you shall not destroy its trees by putting an ax to them.
You may eat their fruit, but you must not cut down the trees.
After all, are the trees of the field men, that they should be 20 included in your siege? However, those trees which you know are not fruit trees you may destroy, cutting them down to build siegeworks with which to reduce the city that is resisting you.

21

1 Expiation of Untraced Murder "If the corpse of a slain man is found lying in the open on the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you to occupy, and it is not known who killed him,
2 | your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distances 3 to the cities that are in the neighborhood of the corpse. When it is established which city is nearest the corpse, the elders of 21, 1-9: These verses are best read immediately after 19, 21. The slain man may not necessarily have been murdered; he may have been killed by a wild beast. But the blood of the slain cries out to God from the soil where it was shed (see Gn 4, 10). In order to avert God's anger on the community, a religious ceremony of propitiation is therefore here prescribed.

that city shall take a heifer that has never been put to work 4 as a draft animal under a yoke, and bringing it down to a wadi with an ever-flowing stream at a place that has not been plowed or sown, they shall cut the heifer's throat there in the 5 wadi. The priests, the descendants of Levi, shall also be present, for the Lord, your God, has chosen them to minister to him and to give blessings in his name, and every case of dispute or 6 violence must be settled by their decision. Then all the elders of that city nearest the corpse shall wash their hands over the 7 heifer whose throat was cut in the wadi, and shall declare,
'Our hands did not shed this blood, and our eyes did not see 8 the deed. Absolve, O Lord, your people Israel, whom you have ransomed, and let not the guilt of shedding innocent blood remain in the midst of your people Israel.' Thus they shall be 9 absolved from the guilt of bloodshed, and you shall purge from your midst the guilt of innocent blood, that you may prosper for doing what is right in the sight of the Lord.

10 Marriage with a Female Captive "When you go out to war against your enemies and the Lord, your God, delivers 11 them into your hand, so that you take captives, if you see a comely woman among the captives and become so enamored 12 of her that you wish to have her as wife, you may take her home to your house. But before she may live there, she must 13 shave her head and pare her nails | and lay aside her captive's garb. After she has mourned her father and mother for a full month, you may have relations with her, and you shall be her 14 husband and she shall be your wife. However, if later on you lose your liking for her, you shall give her her freedom, if she wishes it; but you shall not sell her or enslave her, since she was married to you under compulsion.

15 Rights of the First-born "If a man with two wives loves one and dislikes the other; and if both bear him sons, but the 16 first-born is of her whom he dislikes: when he comes to bequeath his property to his sons he may not consider as his first-born the son of the wife he loves, in preference to his true first-17 born, the son of the wife whom he dislikes. On the contrary, he shall recognize as his first-born the son of her whom he dislikes, giving him a double share of whatever he happens to 21, 6: Wash their hands: a symbolic gesture in protestation of one's own innocence when human blood is unjustly shed. (See Mt 27, 24.) 21, 7: This blood: the blood of the slain man as symbolized by the own, since he is the first fruits of his manhood, and to him belong the rights of the first-born.

18 The Incorrigible Son "If a man has a stubborn and unruly son who will not listen to his father or mother, and will 19 not obey them even though they chastise him, his father and mother shall have him apprehended and brought out to the
20 elders at the gate of his home city, | where they shall say to those city elders, 'This son of ours is a stubborn and unruly fellow who will not listen to us; he is a glutton and a drunkard.
21 Then all his fellow citizens shall stone him to death. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst, and all Israel, on hearing of it, shall fear.

22 Corpse of a Criminal "If a man guilty of a capital of-23 fense is put to death and his corpse hung on a tree, it shall not remain on the tree overnight. You shall bury it the same day; otherwise, since God's curse rests on him who hangs on a tree, you will defile the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you as an inheritance.

22

1 Care for Lost Animals "You shall not see your kinsman's ox or sheep driven astray without showing concern about 2 it; see to it that it is returned to your kinsman. If this kinsman does not live near you, or you do not know who he may be, take it to your own place and keep it with you until he claims it; then 3 give it back to him. You shall do the same with his ass, or his garment, or anything else which your kinsman loses and you 4 happen to find; you may not be unconcerned about them. You shall not see your kinsman's ass or ox foundering on the road without showing concern about it; see to it that you help him lift it up.

5 Various Precepts "A woman shall not wear an article proper to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's dress; for anyone who does such things is an abomination to the Lord, your God.

6 "If, while walking along, you chance upon a bird's nest with 21, 22: Hang on a tree: some understand, "impaled on a stake." In any case the hanging or impaling was not the means used to execute the criminal; he was first put to death by the ordinary means, stoning, and his corpse was then exposed on high as a warning for others.

21, 23: God's curse rests on him who hangs on a tree: St. Paul cites these words in Gal 3, 13 where he applies them to the crucified Savior, who "redeemed us from the curse of the Law, becoming a curse for us."

young birds or eggs in it, in any tree or on the ground, and the mother bird is sitting on them, you shall not take away the 7 mother bird along with her brood; you shall let her go, although you may take her brood away. It is thus that you shall have prosperity and a long life.
8 "When you build a new house, put a parapet around the roof; otherwise, if someone falls off, you will bring bloodguilt upon your house.
9 "You shall not sow your vineyard with two different kinds of seed; if you do, its produce shall become forfeit, both the 10 crop you have sown and the yield of the vineyard. You shall 11 not plow with an ox and an ass harnessed together. You shall not wear cloth of two different kinds of thread, wool and linen, woven together.
12 "You shall put twisted cords on the four corners of the cloak that you wrap around you.

13 Crimes against Marriage "If a man, after marrying a woman and having relations with her, comes to dislike her, and 14 makes monstrous charges against her and defames her by saying, 'I married this woman, but when I first had relations with 15 her I did not find her a virgin,' the father and mother of the girl shall take the evidence of her virginity and bring it to the 16 elders at the city gate. There the father of the girl shall say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man in marriage, but he 17 has come to dislike her, | and now brings monstrous charges against her, saying: I did not find your daughter a virgin. But here is the evidence of my daughter's virginity!' And they shall 18 spread out the cloth before the elders of the city. Then these 19 city elders shall take the man and chastise him, besides fining him one hundred silver shekels, which they shall give to the girl's father, because the man defamed a virgin in Israel. Moreover, she shall remain his wife, and he may not divorce her as long as he lives.
20 "But if this charge is true, and evidence of the girl's virginity 21 is not found, they shall bring the girl to the entrance of her father's house and there her townsmen shall stone her to death, because she committed a crime against Israel by her unchasteness in her father's house. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst.
22 "If a man is discovered having relations with a woman who is married to another, both the man and the woman with whom 22, 12: See Nm 15, 37-41 n.

22, 18: Chastise him: flog him, as prescribed in 25, 1-3.

he has had relations shall die. Thus shall you purge the e from your midst.
23 "If within the city a man comes upon a maiden who is b 24 trothed, and has relations with her, | you shall bring them bo out to the gate of the city and there stone them to death: t girl because she did not cry out for help though she was in t city, and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. Th shall you purge the evil from your midst.
25 "If, however, it is in the open fields that a man comes upc such a betrothed maiden, seizes her and has relations with he 26 the man alone shall die. You shall do nothing to the maide since she is not guilty of a capital offense. This case is like th of a man who rises up against his neighbor and murders hin 27 it was in the open fields that he came upon her, and though t betrothed maiden may have cried out for help, there was r one to come to her aid.
28 "If a man comes upon a maiden that is not betrothed, take 29 her and has relations with her, and their deed is discovered, t man who had relations with her shall pay the girl's father fift silver shekels and take her as his wife, because he has deflow ered her. Moreover, he may not divorce her as long as he live

23

1 "A man shall not marry his father's wife, nor shall he di honor his father's bed.

2 Membership in the Community "No one whose testicle have been crushed or whose penis has been cut off, may be ad 3 mitted into the community of the Lord. No child of an incestu ous union may be admitted into the community of the Lord, no 4 any descendant of his even to the tenth generation. No Ammo nite or Moabite may ever be admitted into the community of th Lord, nor any descendants of theirs even to the tenth generatior 5 because they would not succor you with food and water on you journey after you left Egypt, and because Moab hired Balaam son of Beor, from Phathur in Aram-Naharaim, to curse you 6 though the Lord, your God, would not listen to Balaam an turned his curse into a blessing for you, because he loves you 7 Never promote their peace and prosperity as long as you live 8 But do not abhor the Edomite, since he is your brother, nor th 9 Egyptian, since you were an alien in his country. Children born to them may in the third generation be admitted into the com munity of the Lord.

10 Cleanliness in Camp "When you are in camp during a expedition against your enemies, you shall keep yourselves from everything offensive. If one of you becomes unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he shall go outside the camp, and not return until, | toward evening, he has bathed in water; then, when the sun has set, he may come back into the camp. Outside the camp you shall have a place set aside to be used as a latrine.

You shall also keep a trowel in your equipment and with it, when you go outside to ease nature, you shall first dig a hole and afterward cover up your excrement. Since the Lord, your God, journeys along within your camp to defend you and to put your enemies at your mercy, your camp must be holy; otherwise, if he sees anything indecent in your midst, he will leave your company.

Various Precepts "You shall not hand over to his master a slave who has taken refuge from him with you. Let him live with you wherever he chooses, in any one of your communities that pleases him. Do not molest him.
"There shall be no temple harlot among the Israelite women, nor a temple prostitute among the Israelite men. You shall not offer a harlot's fee or a dog's price as any kind of votive offering in the house of the Lord, your God; both these things are an abomination to the Lord, your God.
"You shall not demand interest from your countrymen on a loan of money or of food or of anything else on which interest is usually demanded. You may demand interest from a foreigner, but not from your countryman, so that the Lord, your God, may bless you in all your undertakings on the land you are to enter and occupy.
"When you make a vow to the Lord, your God, you shall not delay in fulfilling it; otherwise you will be held guilty, for the Lord, your God, is strict in requiring it of you. Should you refrain from making a vow, you will not be held guilty. But you must keep your solemn word and fulfill the votive offering you have freely promised to the Lord.
"When you go through your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat as many of his grapes as you wish, but do not put them in your basket. When you go through your neighbor's grainfield, you may pluck some of the ears with your hand, but do not put a sickle to your neighbor's grain.

24

Marriage Laws "When a man, after marrying a woman and having relations with her, is later displeased with her be-

24, 1-4: This law is directly concerned only with forbidding divorced cause he finds in her something indecent, and therefore h writes out a bill of divorce and hands it to her, thus dismissin 2 her from his house: if on leaving his house she goes and b 3 comes the wife of another man, and the second husband, to comes to dislike her and dismisses her from his house by hand ing her a written bill of divorce; or if this second man who ha 4 married her, dies; then her former husband, who dismisse her, may not again take her as his wife after she has becom defiled. That would be an abomination before the Lord, and yo shall not bring such guilt upon the land which the Lord, you God, is giving you as a heritage.

5 "When a man is newly wed, he need not go out on a militar expedition, nor shall any public duty be imposed on him. H shall be exempt for one year for the sake of his family, to brin joy to the wife he has married.

6 Justice, Equity and Charity "No one shall take a hand mill or even its upper stone as a pledge for debt, for he would be taking the debtor's sustenance as a pledge.
7 "If any man is caught kidnaping a fellow Israelite in order to enslave him and sell him, the kidnaper shall be put to death Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst.
8 "In an attack of leprosy you shall be careful to observe exactly and to carry out all the directions of the Levitical priests.
Take care to act in accordance with the instructions I have given 9 them. Remember what the Lord, your God, did to Mariam on the journey after you left Egypt.
10 "When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, you 11 shall not enter his house to receive a pledge from him, but shall wait outside until the man to whom you are making the loan 12 brings his pledge outside to you. If he is a poor man, you shall 13 not sleep in the mantle he gives as a pledge, but shall return it to him at sunset that he himself may sleep in it. Then he will bless you, and it will be a good deed of yours before the Lord, your God.
14 "You shall not defraud a poor and needy hired servant, whether he be one of your own countrymen or one of the aliens 15 who live in your communities. You shall pay him each day's couples to remarry each other, and indirectly with checking hasty divorces, by demanding sufficient cause and certain legal formalities. Divorce itself is taken for granted and tolerated as an existing custom whose evils this law seeks to lessen. (See 22, 19. 29; Mal 2, 14ff.) Christ gave the authentic interpretation of this law: "Moses by reason of the hardness of your heart, permitted you to put away your wives; but it was not so from the beginning" (Mt 19, 8f).

---

wages before sundown on the day itself, since he is poor and looks forward to them. Otherwise he will cry to the Lord against you, and you will be held guilty.

16 "Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children for their fathers; only for his own guilt shall a man be put to death.

17 "You shall not violate the rights of the alien or of the or-18 phan, nor take the clothing of a widow as a pledge. For, remember, you were once slaves in Egypt, and the Lord, your God, ransomed you from there; that is why I command you to observe this rule.

19 "When you reap the harvest in your field and overlook a sheaf there, you shall not go back to get it; let it be for the alien, the orphan or the widow, that the Lord, your God, may 20 bless you in all your undertakings. When you knock down the fruit of your olive trees, you shall not go over the branches a second time; let what remains be for the alien, the orphan and 21 the widow. When you pick your grapes, you shall not go over the vineyard a second time; let what remains be for the alien, 22 the orphan, and the widow. For remember that you were once slaves in Egypt; that is why I command you to observe this rule.

25

1 "When men have a dispute and bring it to court, and a decision is handed down to them acquitting the innocent party and 2 condemning the guilty party, if the latter deserves stripes, the judge shall have him lie down and in his presence receive the 3 number of stripes his guilt deserves. Forty stripes may be given him, but no more; lest, if he were beaten with more stripes than these, your kinsman should be looked upon as disgraced because of the severity of the beating.

4 "You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out grain.

5 Levirate Marriage "When brothers live together and one of them dies without a son, the widow of the deceased shall not marry anyone outside the family; but her husband's brother shall go to her and perform the duty of a brother-in-law by 6 marrying her. The first-born son she bears shall continue the line of the deceased brother, that his name may not be blotted 7 out from Israel. If, however, a man does not care to marry his brother's wife, she shall go up to the elders at the gate and declare, 'My brother-in-law does not intend to perform his duty toward me and refuses to perpetuate his brother's name in Is-8 rael.' Thereupon the elders of his city shall summon him and admonish him. If he persists in saying, 'I am not willing to

9 marry her,' | his sister-in-law, in the presence of the elder shall go up to him and strip his sandal from his foot and sp in his face, saying publicly, 'This is how one should be treate 10 who will not build up his brother's family!' And his lineag shall be spoken of in Israel as 'the family of the man stripp of his sandal.'

11 Various Precepts "When two men are fighting and th wife of one intervenes to save her husband from the blows o his opponent, if she stretches out her hand and seizes the latte 12 by his private parts, you shall chop off her hand without pit 13 "You shall not keep two differing weights in your bag, or 14 large and the other small; nor shall you keep two differer 15 measures in your house, one large and the other small. But us a true and just weight, and a true and just measure, that yo may have a long life on the land which the Lord, your God, i 16 giving you. Everyone who is dishonest in any of these matter is an abomination to the Lord, your God.
17 "Bear in mind what Amalec did to you on the journey afte 18 you left Egypt, how without fear of any god he harassed yo along the way, weak and weary as you were, and cut off at th 19 rear all those who lagged behind. Therefore, when the Lord your God, gives you rest from all your enemies round about i the land which he is giving you to occupy as your heritage, yo shall blot out the memory of Amalec from under the heavens Do not forget!

26.

1 Thanksgiving for the Harvest "When you have com into the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you as a 2 heritage, and have occupied it and settled in it, you shall take some first fruits of the various products of the soil which you harvest from the land which the Lord, your God, gives you, and putting them in a basket, you shall go to the place which the Lord, your God, chooses for the dwelling place of his name 3 There you shall go to the priest in office at that time and say to him, 'Today I acknowledge to the Lord, my God, that I have indeed come into the land which he swore to our fathers he 4 would give us.' The priest shall then receive the basket from you and shall set it in front of the altar of the Lord, your God

25, 17-49: This attack on Israel by Amalec is not mentioned elsewhere in the Old Testament, although it probably was connected with the battle mentioned in Ex 17, 8. The extermination of Amalec was carried out by Saul (see 1 Sm 15).

5 Then you shall declare before the Lord, your God, 'My father was a wandering Aramean who went down to Egypt with a small household and lived there as an alien. But there he be-6 came a nation great, strong and numerous. When the Egyptians maltreated and oppressed us, imposing hard labor upon us, 7 | we cried to the Lord, the God of our fathers, and he heard our 8 cry and saw our affliction, our toil and our oppression. He brought us out of Egypt with his strong hand and outstretched 9 arm, with terrifying power, with signs and wonders; and bringing us into this country, he gave us this land flowing with milk 10 and honey. Therefore, I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given me.' And having set them before the Lord, your God, you shall bow down 11 in his presence. Then you and your family, together with the Levite and the aliens who live among you, shall make merry over all these good things which the Lord, your God, has given you.

12 Prayer with the Tithes "When you have finished setting aside all the tithes of your produce in the third year, the year of the tithes, and you have given them to the Levite, the alien, the orphan and the widow, that they may eat their fill in your 13 own community, you shall declare before the Lord, your God,
'I have purged my house of the sacred portion and I have given it to the Levite, the alien, the orphan and the widow, just as you have commanded me. In this I have not broken or forgotten any 14 of your commandments: I have not eaten any of the tithe as a mourner; I have not brought any of it out as one unclean; I have not offered any of it to the dead. I have thus hearkened to the voice of the Lord, my God, doing just as you have com-15 manded me. Look down, then, from heaven, your holy abode, and bless your people Israel and the soil you have given us in the land flowing with milk and honey which you promised on oath to our fathers.'

16 The Covenant "This day the Lord, your God, commands you to observe these statutes and decrees. Be careful, then, to 17 observe them with all your heart and with all your soul. Today you are making this agreement with the Lord: he is to be your God and you are to walk in his ways and observe his statutes, 18 commandments and decrees, and to hearken to his voice. And

---

26, 5: Aramean: either in reference to the origin of the patriarchs from Aram Naharaim, or merely in the sense of "nomad," in the same way as "Arab" was later used (see Jer 3, 2).

today the Lord is making this agreement with you: you are t be a people peculiarly his own, as he promised you; and pr 19 vided you keep all his commandments, he will then raise yo high in praise and renown and glory above all other nations h has made, and you will be a people sacred to the Lord, you God, as he promised."

IV. FINAL WORDS OF MOSES

27

1 Ceremonies Then Moses, with the elders of Israel, gav the people this order: "Keep all these commandments which 2 enjoin on you today. On the day you cross the Jordan into th land which the Lord, your God, is giving you, set up som 3 large stones and coat them with plaster. Also write on them at the time you cross, all the words of this law, that you ma thus enter into the land flowing with milk and honey, which th Lord, your God, and the God of your fathers, is giving you a 4 he promised you. When, moreover, you have crossed the Jor dan, besides setting up on Mount Ebal these stones concernin which I command you today, and coating them with plaster 5 | you shall also build to the Lord, your God, an altar made o 6 stones that no iron tool has touched. You shall make this alta of the Lord, your God, with undressed stones, and shall offe 7 on it holocausts to the Lord, your God. You shall also sacrifice peace offerings and eat them there, making merry before the 8 Lord, your God. On the stones you shall inscribe all the words of this law very clearly."

9 Moses, with the Levitical priests, then said to all Israel: "Be silent, O Israel, and listen! This day you have become the people 10 of the Lord, your God. You shall therefore hearken to the voice of the Lord, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes which I enjoin on you today."

11.12 That same day Moses gave the people this order: "When you cross the Jordan, Simeon, Levi, Juda, Issachar, Joseph and Benjamin shall stand on Mount Garizim to pronounce blessings 13 over the people, | while Ruben, Gad, Aser, Zabulon, Dan and Nephthali shall stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses.

14 The Twelve Curses "The Levites shall proclaim aloud to 15 all the men of Israel: 'Cursed be the man who makes a carved or molten idol—an abomination to the Lord, the product of a 27, 14-26: Perhaps these twelve random curses derive from an older but more complete collection of curses.

craftsman's hands—and sets it up in secret!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

16 'Cursed be he who dishonors his father or his mother!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

17 'Cursed be he who moves his neighbor's landmarks!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

18 'Cursed be he who misleads a blind man on his way!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

19 'Cursed be he who violates the rights of the alien, the orphan or the widow!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

20 'Cursed be he who has relations with his father's wife, for he dishonors his father's bed!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

21 'Cursed be he who has relations with any animal!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

22 'Cursed be he who has relations with his sister or his half-sister!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

23 'Cursed be he who has relations with his mother-in-law!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

24 'Cursed be he who slays his neighbor in secret!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

25 'Cursed be he who accepts payment for slaying an innocent man!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

26 'Cursed be he who fails to fulfill any of the provisions of this law!' And all the people shall answer, 'Amen!'

28

1 Blessings for Obedience "Thus, then, shall it be: if you continue to heed the voice of the Lord, your God, and are careful to observe all his commandments which I enjoin on you today, the Lord, your God, will raise you high above all the 2 nations of the earth. When you hearken to the voice of the Lord, your God, all these blessings will come upon you and overwhelm you:

3 "May you be blessed in the city, and blessed in the country!
4 Blessed be the fruit of your womb, the produce of your soil and the offspring of your livestock, the issue of your herds and 5 the young of your flocks! Blessed be your grain bin and your 28: This chapter would read better immediately after ch. 26.

28, 3-68: The six blessings (3-6) are elaborated on (7-14). The corresponding six curses (16-19) are also elaborated on (20-68). The curses and blessings deal with material prosperity. They were an effective pedagogical method of inculcating obedience to God's law. They are a liturgical ceremony of taking possession of the Promised Land.

6 kneading bowl! May you be blessed in your coming in, and blessed in your going out!

7 Victory and Prosperity "The Lord will beat down before you the enemies that rise up against you; though they come out against you from but one direction, they will flee before 8 you in seven. The Lord will affirm his blessing upon you, on your barns and on all your undertakings, blessing you in the 9 land that the Lord, your God, gives you. Provided that you keep the commandments of the Lord, your God, and walk in his ways, he will establish you as a people sacred to himself 10 as he swore to you; so that, when all the nations of the earth see you bearing the name of the Lord, they will stand in awe of 11 you. The Lord will increase in more than goodly measure the fruit of your womb, the offspring of your livestock, and the produce of your soil, in the land which he swore to your fathers 12 he would give you. The Lord will open up for you his rich treasure house of the heavens, to give your land rain in due season, blessing all your undertakings, so that you will lend to 13 many nations and borrow from none. The Lord will make you the head, not the tail, and you will always mount higher and not decline, as long as you obey the commandments of the Lord, your God, which I order you today to observe carefully; 14 not turning aside to the right or to the left from any of the commandments which I now give you, in order to follow other gods and serve them.

15 Curses for Disobedience "But if you do not hearken to the voice of the Lord, your God, and are not careful to observe all his commandments which I enjoin on you today, all these curses shall come upon you and overwhelm you: 16 "May you be cursed in the city, and cursed in the country!
17.18 Cursed be your grain bin and your kneading bowl! Cursed be the fruit of your womb, the produce of your soil and the offspring of your livestock, the issue of your herds and the young 19 of your flocks! May you be cursed in your coming in, and cursed in your going out!

20 Sickness and Defeat "The Lord will put a curse on you, defeat and frustration in every enterprise you undertake, until you are speedily destroyed and perish for the evil you have done

28, 6: Coming in . . . going out: a frequent expression wishing a blessing either in everything or at the beginning and end of every action.
28, 13: The head, not the tail: in the honorable position as leader.

21 in forsaking me. The Lord will bring a pestilence upon you that will persist until he has exterminated you from the land you 22 are entering to occupy. The Lord will strike you with wasting and fever, with scorching, fiery drought, with blight and sear-23 ing wind, that will plague you until you perish. The sky over your heads will be like bronze and the earth under your feet 24 like iron. For rain the Lord will give your land powdery dust, which will come down upon you from the sky until you are 25 destroyed. The Lord will let you be beaten down before your enemies; though you advance against them from one direction, you will flee before them in seven, so that you will become a 26 terrifying example to all the kingdoms of the earth. Your carcasses will become food for all the birds of the air and for the 27 beasts of the field, with no one to frighten them off. The Lord will strike you with Egyptian boils and with tumors, eczema 28 and the itch, until you cannot be cured. And the Lord will 29 strike you with madness, blindness and panic, so that even at midday you will grope like a blind man in the dark, unable to find your way.

Despoilment "You will be oppressed and robbed contin-30 ually, with no one to come to your aid. | Though you betroth a wife, another man will have her. Though you build a house, you will not live in it. Though you plant a vineyard, you will 31 not enjoy its fruits. Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, and you will not eat of its flesh. Your ass will be stolen in your presence, but you will not recover it. Your flocks will 32 be given to your enemies, with no one to come to your aid. Your sons and daughters will be given to a foreign nation while you 33 look on and grieve for them in constant helplessness. A people whom you do not know will consume the fruit of your soil and of all your labor, and you will be oppressed and crushed 34 at all times without surcease, until you are driven mad by what 35 your eyes must look upon. The Lord will strike you with malignant boils of which you cannot be cured, on your knees and legs, and from the soles of your feet to the crown of your head.

36 Exile "The Lord will bring you, and your king whom you have set over you, to a nation which you and your fathers have not known, and there you will serve strange gods of wood 37 and stone, | and will call forth amazement, reproach and barbed scorn from all the nations to which the Lord will lead you.

28, 35: This verse is best read with v. 27.

38 Fruitless Labors "Though you spend much seed on yo field, you will harvest but little, for the locusts will devour t 39 crop. Though you plant and cultivate vineyards, you will n drink or store up the wine, for the grubs will eat the vin 40 clean. Though you have olive trees throughout your countr you will have no oil for ointment, for your olives will drop o 41 unripe. Though you beget sons and daughters, they will n 42 remain with you, but will go into captivity. Buzzing insects wi 43 infest all your trees and the crops of your soil. The alien resi ing among you will rise higher and higher above you, whil 44 you sink lower and lower. He will lend to you, not you to hi He will become the head, you the tail.

45 "All these curses will come upon you, pursuing you an overwhelming you, until you are destroyed, because you woul not hearken to the voice of the Lord, your God, nor keep th 46 commandments and statutes he gave you. They will light o you and your descendants as a sign and a wonder for a 47 time. Since you would not serve the Lord, your God, with jo 48 and gratitude for abundance of every kind, | therefore in hun ger and thirst, in nakedness and utter poverty, you will serv the enemies whom the Lord will send against you. He will pu an iron yoke on your neck, until he destroys you.

49 Invasion and Siege "The Lord will raise up against you nation from afar, from the end of the earth, that swoops dow 50 like an eagle, a nation whose tongue you do not understand, nation of stern visage, that shows neither respect for the age 51 nor pity for the young. They will consume the offspring o your livestock and the produce of your soil, until you are de stroyed; they will leave you no grain or wine or oil, no issue o your herds or young of your flocks, until they have brough 52 about your ruin. They will besiege you in each of your com munities, until the great, unscalable walls you trust in com tumbling down all over your land. They will so besiege you i every community throughout the land which the Lord, you 53 God, has given you, | that in the distress of the siege to whic your enemy subjects you, you will eat the fruit of your womb the flesh of your own sons and daughters whom the Lord, you 54 God, has given you. The most refined and fastidious man among you will begrudge his brother and his beloved wife an 55 his surviving children | any share in the flesh of his childre that he himself is using for food when nothing else is left hi in the straits of the siege to which your enemy will subject yo 56 in all your communities. The most refined and delicate woma among you, so delicate and refined that she would not ventur to set the sole of her foot on the ground, will begrudge her be-57 loved husband and her son and daughter | the afterbirth that issues from her womb and the infant she brings forth when she secretly uses them for food for want of anything else, in the straits of the siege to which your enemy will subject you in your communities.

58 Plagues "If you are not careful to observe every word of the Law which is written in this book, and to revere the glorious 59 and awesome name of the Lord, your God, | he will smite you and your descendants with severe and constant blows, malig-60 nant and lasting maladies. He will again afflict you with all the diseases of Egypt which you dread, and they will persist among 61 you. Should there be any kind of sickness or calamity not mentioned in this Book of the Law, that too the Lord will bring 62 upon you until you are destroyed. Of you who were numerous as the stars in the sky, only a few will be left, because you would not hearken to the voice of the Lord, your God.

63 Exile "Just as the Lord once took delight in making you grow and prosper, so will he now take delight in ruining and destroying you, and you will be plucked out of the land you are 64 now entering to occupy. The Lord will scatter you among all the nations from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve strange gods of wood and stone, such as you and 65 your fathers have not known. Among these nations you will find no repose, not a foot of ground to stand upon, for there the Lord will give you an anguished heart and wasted eyes and 66 a dismayed spirit. You will live in constant suspense and stand 67 in dread both day and night, never sure of your existence. In the morning you will say, 'Would that it were evening!' and in the evening you will say, 'Would that it were morning!' for the dread that your heart must feel and the sight that your eyes 68 must see. The Lord will send you back in galleys to Egypt, to the region I told you that you were never to see again; and there you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer."

69 These are the words of the covenant which the Lord ordered Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant which he made with them at Horeb.

29

1 Past Favors Recalled Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "You have seen all that the Lord did in the land of Egypt before your very eyes to Pharao and all his servants and to all his land; the great testings your own eyes have seen and those great signs and wonders. But not even at the present day has the Lord yet given you a mind to understand, or eyes to see, or ears to hear. 'I led you for forty years in the desert.

Your clothes did not fall from you in tatters nor your sandals from your feet; bread was not your food, nor wine or beer your drink. Thus you should know that I, the Lord, am your God.
When we came to this place, Sehon, king of Hesebon, and Og, king of Basan, came out to engage us in battle, but we defeated them | and took over their land, which we then gave as heritage to the Rubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasse. Keep the terms of this covenant, therefore, and fulfil them, that you may succeed in whatever you do.

All Israel Bound to the Covenant "You are all now standing before the Lord, your God—your chiefs and judges, your elders and officials, and all of the men of Israel, together with your wives and children and the aliens who live in your camp, down to those who hew wood and draw water for you—that you may enter into the covenant of the Lord, your God, which he concluded with you today under this sanction of a curse; so that he may now establish you as his people and he may be your God, as he promised you and as he swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. But it is not with you alone that I am making this covenant, under this sanction of a curse;
it is just as much with those who are not here among us today as it is with those of us who are now here present before the Lord, our God.

Warning against Idolatry "You know in what surroundings we lived in the land of Egypt and what we passed by in the nations we traversed, and you saw the loathsome idols of wood and stone, of gold and silver, that they possess. Let there be, then, no man or woman, no clan or tribe among you, who would now turn away their hearts from the Lord, our God, to go and serve these pagan gods! Let there be no root that would bear such poison and wormwood among you! If any such person, upon hearing the words of this curse, should beguile himself into thinking that he can safely persist in his stubbornness of heart, as though to sweep away both the watered soil and the parched ground, the Lord will never consent to pardon him. Instead, the Lord's wrath and jealousy will flare up against that 29, 13-14: This Covenant sanctioned with curses holds good even for future generations.

man, and every curse mentioned in this book will alight on him.
20 The Lord will blot out his name from under the heavens | and will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for doom, in keeping with all the curses of the covenant inscribed in this Book of the Law.

21 Punishment for Infidelity "Future generations, your own descendants who will rise up after you, as well as the foreigners who will come here from far-off lands, when they see the calamities of this land and the ills with which the Lord has smit-22 ten it—all its soil being nothing but sulphur and salt, a burnt-out waste, unsown and unfruitful, without a blade of grass, destroyed like Sodom and Gomorra, Adama and Seboim, which 23 the Lord overthrew in his furious wrath—they and all the nations will ask, 'Why has the Lord dealt thus with this land?
24 Why this fierce outburst of wrath?' And the answer will be,
'Because they forsook the covenant which the Lord, the God of their fathers, had made with them when he brought them out 25 of the land of Egypt, and they went and served other gods and adored them, gods whom they did not know and whom he had 26 not let fall to their lot: that is why the Lord was angry with this land and brought on it all the imprecations listed in this 27 book; in his furious wrath and tremendous anger the Lord uprooted them from their soil and cast them out into a strange 28 land, where they are today.' [Both what is still hidden and what has already been revealed concern us and our descendants forever, that we may carry out all the words of this Law.]

30

1 Mercy for the Repentant "When all these things which I have set before you, the blessings and the curses, are fulfilled in you, and from among whatever nations the Lord, your God 2 may have dispersed you, you ponder them in your heart: then, provided that you and your children return to the Lord, your God, and heed his voice with all your heart and all your soul, 3 just as I now command you, | the Lord, your God, will change your lot; and taking pity on you, he will again gather you from 4 all the nations wherein he has scattered you. Though you may have been driven to the farthest corner of the world, even from there will the Lord, your God, gather you; even from there will 5 he bring you back. The Lord, your God, will then bring you into the land which your fathers once occupied, that you too

30, 3-5: The Babylonian exile of the sixth century B.C. is supposed may occupy it, and he will make you more prosperous and n 6 merous than your fathers. The Lord, your God, will circumci your hearts and the hearts of your descendants, that you m love the Lord, your God, with all your heart and all your sou 7 and so may live. But all those curses the Lord, your God, w 8 assign to your enemies and the foes who persecuted you. Yo however, must again heed the Lord's voice and carry out all h 9 commandments which I now enjoin on you. Then the Lor your God, will increase in more than goodly measure the r turns from all your labors, the fruit of your womb, the offsprin of your livestock, and the produce of your soil; for the Lor your God, will again take delight in your prosperity, even as h 10 took delight in your fathers', if only you heed the voice of th Lord, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes tha are written in this Book of the Law, when you return to th Lord, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.

11 God's Command Clear "For this command which I er join on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you 12 | It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go u in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carr 13 it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who wi cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carr 14 it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in you mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out.

15 The Choice before Israel "Here, then, I have today se 16 before you life and prosperity, death and doom. If you obey th commandments of the Lord, your God, which I enjoin on yo today, loving him, and walking in his ways, and keeping hi commandments, statutes and decrees, you will live and grov numerous, and the Lord, your God, will bless you in the lan 17 you are entering to occupy. If, however, you turn away you hearts and will not listen, but are led astray and adore and serv 18 other gods, I tell you now that you will certainly perish; you will not have a long life on the land which you are crossing th 19 Jordan to enter and occupy. I call heaven and earth today to witness against you: I have set before you life and death, th blessing and the curse. Choose life, then, that you and you 20 descendants may live, | by loving the Lord, your God, heedin his voice, and holding fast to him. For that will mean life fo

30, 6: Circumcise your hearts: this means that the observance of th commandment is more important than carnal circumcision. See 10, 16
This thought is taken up in Jer 4, 4; Rom 2, 29; 1 Cor 7, 19.

you, a long life for you to live on the land which the Lord swore he would give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."

31

1 The Lord's Leadership When Moses had finished speak-
2 ing these words to all Israel, | he said to them, "I am now one hundred and twenty years old and am no longer able to move about freely; besides, the Lord has told me that I shall not cross
3 this Jordan. It is the Lord, your God, who will cross before you; he will destroy these nations before you, that you may supplant them. [It is Josue who will cross before you, as the Lord prom-4 ised.] The Lord will deal with them just as he dealt with Sehon and Og, the kings of the Amorrites whom he destroyed, and 5 with their country. When, therefore, the Lord delivers them up to you, you must deal with them exactly as I have ordered you.
6 Be brave and steadfast; have no fear or dread of them, for it is the Lord, your God, who marches with you; he will never fail you or forsake you."

7 Encouragement of Josue Then Moses summoned Josue and in the presence of all Israel said to him, "Be brave and steadfast, for you must bring this people into the land which the Lord swore to their fathers he would give them; you must 8 put them in possession of their heritage. It is the Lord who marches before you; he will be with you and will never fail you or forsake you. So do not fear or be dismayed."

9 The Reading of the Law When Moses had written down this law, he entrusted it to the Levitical priests who carry the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, and to all the elders of Israel,
10 | giving them this order: "On the feast of Booths, at the pre-11 scribed time in the year of relaxation which comes at the end of every seven-year period, when all Israel goes to appear before the Lord, your God, in the place which he chooses, you shall 12 read this law aloud in the presence of all Israel. Assemble the people—men, women and children, as well as the aliens who live in your communities—that they may hear it and learn it, and so fear the Lord, your God, and carefully observe all the 13 words of this law. Their children also, who do not know it yet, must hear it and learn it, that they too may fear the Lord, your God, as long as you live on the land which you will cross the Jordan to occupy."

14 Commission of Josue The Lord said to Moses, "The time is now approaching for you to die. Summon Josue, and present yourselves at the Meeting Tent that I may give him his commis sion." So Moses and Josue went and presented themselves a 15 the Meeting Tent. And the Lord appeared at the Tent in a col umn of cloud, which stood still at the entrance of the Tent

16 A Command to Moses The Lord said to Moses, "Soon you will be at rest with your fathers, and then this people wil take to rendering wanton worship to the strange gods among whom they will live in the land they are about to enter. They will forsake me and break the covenant which I have made with 17 them. At that time my anger will flare up against them; I will forsake them and hide my face from them, so that they will become a prey to be devoured, and many evils and troubles will befall them. At that time they will indeed say, 'Is it not because our God is not among us that these evils have befallen 18 us?' Yet I will be hiding my face from them at that time only because of all the evil they have done in turning to other gods.
19 Write out this song, then, for yourselves. Teach it to the Israelites and have them recite it, so that this song may be a wit-20 ness for me against the Israelites. For when I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey which I promised on oath to their fathers, and they have eaten their fill and grown fat, if they turn to other gods and serve them, despising 21 me and breaking my covenant; then, when many evils and troubles befall them, this song, which their descendants will not have forgotten to recite, will bear witness against them. For I know what they are inclined to do even at the present time, before I have brought them into the land which I promised on 22 oath to their fathers." So Moses wrote this song that same day, and he taught it to the Israelites.

23 Commission of Josue Then the Lord commissioned Josue, son of Nun, and said to him, "Be brave and steadfast, for it is you who must bring the Israelites into the land which I promised them on oath. I myself will be with you."

24 The Law Placed in the Ark When Moses had finished 25 writing out on a scroll the words of the law in their entirety, he gave the Levites who carry the Ark of the Covenant of the 26 Lord this order: "Take this scroll of the law and put it beside the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, your God, that there it 27 may be a witness against you. For I already know how rebel-31, 23: This verse is best read immediately after v. 15; perhaps the original order was vv. 7-8, 14-15, 23.

lious and stiff-necked you will be. Why, even now, while I am alive among you, you have been rebels against the Lord! How 28 much more, then, after I am dead! Therefore, assemble all your tribal elders and your officials before me, that I may speak these words for them to hear, and so may call heaven and earth to 29 witness against them. For I know that after my death you are sure to become corrupt and to turn aside from the way along which I directed you, so that evil will befall you in some future age because you have done evil in the Lord's sight, and provoked him by your deeds."

30 The Song of Moses Then Moses recited the words of this song from beginning to end, for the whole assembly of Israel to hear:

32

A

1 Give ear, O heavens, while I speak; let the earth hearken to 2 the words of my mouth! May my instruction soak in like the rain, and my discourse permeate like the dew, like a downpour upon the grass, like a shower upon the crops:
3 For I will sing the Lord's renown. Oh, proclaim the great-4 ness of our God! The Rock—how faultless are his deeds, how right all his ways! A faithful God, without deceit, how just and upright he is!
5 Yet basely has he been treated by his degenerate children, a 6 perverse and crooked race! | Is the Lord to be thus repaid by you, O stupid and foolish people? Is he not your father who created you? Has he not made you and established you?
7 Think back on the days of old, reflect on the years of age upon age. Ask your father and he will inform you, ask your elders and they will tell you:
8 When the Most High assigned the nations their heritage, when he parceled out the descendants of Adam, he set up the boundaries of the peoples after the number of the sons of God;
9 | while the Lord's own portion was Jacob, his hereditary share was Israel.
10 He found them in a wilderness, a wasteland of howling desert. He shielded them and cared for them, guarding them as the apple of his eye.

32, 1-43: This poetic sermon is one of the most beautiful passages of the Bible. It is ascribed to Moses to stress that the doctrine is according to his teaching. Many of its ideas and images are found in Is 40—55 and Ez.

32, 8: The sons of God: the angels.

11 As an eagle incites its nestlings forth by hovering over it brood, so he spread his wings to receive them and bore them u on his pinions.
12 The Lord alone was their leader, no strange god was with him
13 | He had them ride triumphant over the summits of the lan and live off the products of its fields, giving them honey to suc 14 from its rocks and olive oil from its hard, stony ground; | but ter from its cows and milk from its sheep, with the fat of it lambs and rams; its Basan bulls and its goats, with the crean of its finest wheat; and the foaming blood of its grapes yo drank.

B

15 So Jacob ate his fill, the darling grew fat and frisky; you became fat and gross and gorged. They spurned the God wh 16 made them and scorned their saving Rock. They provoked him with strange gods and angered him with abominable idols.
17 They offered sacrifice to demons, to "no-gods," to gods whom they had not known before, to newcomers just arrived, of 18 whom their fathers had never stood in awe. You were unmindful of the Rock that begot you, you forgot the God who gave you birth.
19 When the Lord saw this, he was filled with loathing and 20 anger toward his sons and daughters. "I will hide my face from them," he said, "and see what will then become of them. What a fickle race they are, sons with no loyalty in them!
21 "Since they have provoked me with their 'no-god' and angered me with their vain idols, I will provoke them with a 'no-people'; with a foolish nation I will anger them.
22 "For by my wrath a fire is enkindled that shall rage to the depths of the nether world, consuming the earth with its yield, 23 and licking with flames the roots of the mountains. | I will spend on them woe upon woe and exhaust all my arrows against them: 24 "Emaciating hunger and consuming fever and bitter pestilence, and the teeth of wild beasts I will send among them, with the venom of reptiles gliding in the dust.
25 "Snatched away by the sword in the street and by sheer terror at home shall be the youth and the maiden alike, the nursing babe as well as the hoary old man.

32, 13: The land: Chanaan.
32, 14: Basan: a fertile grazing land east of the Jordan, famous for its strong cattle.
32, 15: The darling: a probable meaning of the Hebrew word is a term of endearment for "Israel."

"I would have said, 'I will make an end of them and blot out their name from men's memories,' | had I not feared the insolence of their enemies, feared that these foes would mistakenly boast, 'Our own hand won the victory; the Lord had nothing to do with it.' "
For they are a people devoid of reason, having no understanding. | If they had insight they would realize what happened, they would understand their success and say, c

"How could one man rout a thousand, or two men put ten thousand to flight, unless it was because their Rock sold them and the Lord delivered them up?" Indeed, their "rock" is not like our Rock, and our foes are under condemnation.
They are a branch of Sodom's vinestock, from the vineyards of Gomorra. Poisonous are their grapes and bitter their clusters.
| Their wine is the venom of dragons and the cruel poison of cobras.
"Is not this preserved in my treasury, sealed up in my storehouse, | against the day of vengeance and requital, against the time they lose their footing?" Close at hand is the day of their disaster, and their doom is rushing upon them!
Surely, the Lord shall do justice for his people; on his servants he shall have pity. When he sees their strength failing, and their protected and unprotected alike disappearing, He will say, "Where are their gods whom they relied on as their 'rock'? | Let those who ate the fat of your sacrifices and drank the wine of your libations rise up now and help you! Let them be your protection!
"Learn then that I, I alone, am God, and there is no god besides me. It is I who bring both death and life, I who inflict wounds and heal them, and from my hand there is no rescue.
"To the heavens I raise my hand and swear: As surely as I live forever, | I will sharpen my flashing sword, and my hand shall lay hold of my quiver.
"With vengeance I will repay my foes and requite those who hate me. | I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall gorge itself with flesh—with the blood of the slain and the captured, flesh from the heads of the enemy leaders." Exult with him, you heavens, glorify him, all you angels of 32, 28-35: The reference is to the pagan nations, not to Israel.

32, 36: Their protected and unprotected: the meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain; according to some, the idea is "slaves and freemen."

God; for he avenges the blood of his servants and purges hi people's land.
44 So Moses, together with Josue, son of Nun, went and re cited all the words of this song for the people to hear.

45 Final Appeal When Moses had finished speaking all thes 46 words to all Israel, | he said, "Take to heart all the warning which I have now given you and which you must impress or your children, that you may carry out carefully every word of 47 this law. For this is no trivial matter for you; rather, it means your very life, since it is by this means that you are to enjoy a long life on the land which you will cross the Jordan to occupy."

48 Moses to View Chanaan On that very day the Lord 49 said to Moses, "Go up on Mount Nebo, here in the Abarim Mountains [it is in the land of Moab facing Jericho], and view the land of Chanaan, which I am giving to the Israelites as their 50 possession. Then you shall die on the mountain you have climbed, and shall be taken to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and there was taken to his people; 51 because both of you broke faith with me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribath-Cades in the desert of Sin by failing 52 to manifest my sanctity among the Israelites. You may indeed view the land at a distance, but you shall not enter that land which I am giving to the Israelites."

33

1 Blessing upon the Tribes This is the blessing which Moses, the man of God, pronounced upon the Israelites before he died.
2 He said: "The Lord came from Sinai and dawned on his people from Seir; he shone forth from Mount Pharan and advanced from Meribath-Cades, while at his right hand a fire 3 blazed forth and his wrath devastated the nations. | But all his holy ones were in his hand; they followed at his feet and he 4 bore them up on his pinions. | A law he gave to us; he made 5 the community of Jacob his domain, | and he became king of his darling, when the chiefs of the people assembled and the tribes of Israel came together.
6 "May Ruben live and not die out, but let his men be few."

33, 1-29: Moses blesses each tribe just as Jacob did (Gn 49).
33, 2: God is pictured as a star leading His people.
33, 3: His holy ones were in his hands: the Israelites were protected by the Lord.
33, 6: In keeping with the other blessings, probably this verse was 7 The following is for Juda. He said: "The Lord hears the cry of Juda; you will bring him to his people. His own hands defend his cause and you will be his help against his foes." 8 Of Levi he said: "To Levi belong your Thummim, to the man of your favor your Urim; for you put him to the test at Massa and you contended with him at the waters of Meriba.

9 | He said of his father, 'I regard him not'; his brothers he would not acknowledge, and his own children he refused to recognize. Thus the Levites keep your words, and your cove-10 nant they uphold. | They promulgate your decisions to Jacob and your law to Israel. They bring the smoke of sacrifice to your 11 nostrils, and burnt offerings to your altar. | Bless, O Lord, his possessions and accept the ministry of his hands. Break the backs of his adversaries and of his foes, that they may not rise." 12 Of Benjamin he said: "Benjamin is the beloved of the Lord, who shelters him all the day, while he abides securely at his breast." 13 Of Joseph he said: "Blessed by the Lord is his land with the best of the skies above and of the abyss crouching beneath; 14 | with the best of the produce of the year, and the choicest
15 sheaves of the months; | with the finest gifts of the age-old
16 mountains and the best from the timeless hills; | with the best of the earth and its fullness, and the favor of him who dwells in the bush. These shall come upon the head of Joseph and 17 upon the brow of the prince among his brothers, | the majestic bull, his father's first-born, whose horns are those of the wild ox with which to gore the nations, even those at the ends of the earth." [These are the myriads of Ephraim, and these the thousands of Manasse.]
18 Of Zabulon he said: "Rejoice, O Zabulon, in your pursuits, 19 and you, Issachar, in your tents! | You who invite the tribes to the mountains where feasts are duly held, because you suck up the abundance of the seas and the hidden treasures of the sand." 20 Of Gad he said: "Blessed be he who has made Gad so vast!
He lies there like a lion that has seized the arm and head of the 21 prey. | He saw that the best should be his when the princely portion was assigned, while the heads of the people were gath-

---

nce introduced by the phrase, "Of Ruben he said." It is to be noted that ere is no blessing here for Simeon.

33, 7: Bring him to his people: this probably refers to the separation etween Juda and Israel during the conquest of the Promised Land or uring the schism of the divided kingdom.

33, 8: Thummim . . . Urim: see Lv 8, 8 n.

33, 16: Him who dwells in the bush: a title given to the Lord because f His appearance to Moses in the burning bush (Ex 3).

ered. He carried out the justice of the Lord and his decrees respecting Israel."

22 Of Dan he said: "Dan is a lion's whelp, that springs forth from Basan!"

23 Of Nephthali he said: "Nephthali is enriched with favors and filled with the blessings of the Lord; the lake and south of it are his possession!"

24 Of Aser he said: "More blessed than the other sons be Aser! May he be the favorite among his brothers, as the oil of his 25 olive trees runs over his feet! | May your bolts be of iron and bronze; may your strength endure through all your days!"

26 "There is no god like the God of the darling, who rides the 27 heavens in his power, and rides the skies in his majesty; | he spread out the primeval tent; he extended the ancient canopy. He drove the enemy out of your way and the Amorrite he de-
28 stroyed. | Israel has dwelt securely, and the fountain of Jacob has been undisturbed in a land of grain and wine, where the 29 heavens drip with dew. | How fortunate you are, O Israel! Where else is a nation victorious in the Lord? The Lord is your saving shield, and his sword is your glory. Your enemies fawn upon you, as you stride upon their heights."

34

1 Death and Burial of Moses Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, the headland of Phasga which faces Jericho, and the Lord showed him all the land
2 —Galaad, and as far as Dan, | all Nephthali, the land of Ephraim and Manasse, all the land of Juda as far as the West-
3 ern Sea, | the Negeb, the circuit of the Jordan with the low-4 lands at Jericho, city of palms, and as far as Segor. The Lord then said to him, "This is the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that I would give to their descendants. I have let you feast your eyes upon it, but you shall not cross over."
5 So there, in the land of Moab, Moses, the servant of the Lord, 6 died as the Lord had said; and he was buried in the ravine opposite Beth-Phogor in the land of Moab, but to this day no 7 one knows the place of his burial. Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were undimmed 8 and his vigor unabated. For thirty days the Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab, till they had completed the period of grief and mourning for Moses.

9 Now Josue, son of Nun, was filled with the spirit of wisdom, 33, 23: The Lake: the Lake of Chenereth (also: Sea of Cheneroth) on which the land of this tribe bordered.

since Moses had laid his hands upon him; and so the Israelites gave him their obedience, thus carrying out the Lord's command to Moses.

10 Since then no prophet has arisen in Israel like Moses, whom 11 the Lord knew face to face. He had no equal in all the signs and wonders the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt against Pharao and all his servants and against all his land, 12 and for the might and the terrifying power that Moses exhibited in the sight of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSUE

INTRODUCTION

Josue begins a series of books that contain what scholars call Deuteronomic history. These books are: Josue, Judges, 1 and 2 Samuel, 3 and 4 Kings. Their general theme is that Israel's triumphs are rewards for her fidelity to the Covenant with God, her failures are punishments for her infidelity. Since Deuteronomy teaches this theme best, the term "Deuteronomic history" is used. Jos 23, 12-16 patently expresses this Deuteronomic historical viewpoint. The specific purpose of the Book of Josue is to show that the promise of God, which the writers of the Pentateuch repeatedly emphasized, was fulfilled: the giving of the land to His people. This purpose colors the authors' manner of writing. Hence, an idealized or epic conquest is described as the best way to teach that Yahweh gave the Israelites the Promised Land. Accordingly, Josue is represented as the great leader who swept through the country in a complete, fast, and lasting conquest. However, not the glory of the nation is underscored, but the glory of Yahweh. Jgs, ch. 1, and clues within Josue, show that, historically, the conquest was less complete, and slower. On account of this religious manner of writing it is not surprising to note traits which reveal the writers to be preachers as well as historians. Many events are attributed to Josue, even though, historically, they belong to other periods. Little distinction is made between events of the remote past and those of later times. There is no chronology of events, and numbers are exaggerated. Moral and religious values are intermingled with historical events. Theological discourses are put on the lips of Josue and of Yahweh after the manner of ancient historical writers. Victories are attributed to Yahweh.

About half of the Book of Josue was first written in the tenth century B.C., three hundred years after the events described in it. Other parts of the book were added later, up to its final edition which appeared in the sixth century B.C. The unknown authors and editors account for the multiple styles. The book describes the conquest and the allotment of Chanaan to the twelve tribes.

Josue, the successor of Moses, leads the victorious invasion from Sattim, northeast of the Dead Sea, across the Jordan River, and pitches his temporary headquarters at Galgal. The southern campaign is succeeded by the northern campaign. Silo, twenty miles north of Jerusalem, becomes the capital town.

The militarily undisciplined Israelites were no match for the Chanaanite chariotry. The invaders engaged in guerrilla warfare along sparsely settled areas (Judea and Galilee). Some of the twelve tribes, who had never emigrated to Egypt, joined their invading Israelite kinsmen.

Main divisions of the Book of Josue are:

1. Conquest of Chanaan, 1, 1—12, 24
2. Division of the Land, 13, 1—21, 45
3. Return of the Transjordan Tribes and Josue's Farewell, 22, 1—24, 33

I. CONQUEST OF CHANAAN

1

1 Divine Promise of Assistance After Moses, the servant of the Lord, had died, the Lord said to Moses' aide Josue, son 2 of Nun: "My servant Moses is dead. So prepare to cross the Jordan here, with all the people, into the land I will give the 3 Israelites. As I promised Moses, I will deliver to you every place 4 where you set foot. Your domain is to be all the land of the Hethites, from the desert and from Lebanon east to the great 5 river Euphrates and west to the Great Sea. No one can withstand you while you live. I will be with you as I was with Moses:
6 I will not leave you nor forsake you. Be firm and steadfast, so that you may give this people possession of the land which I 7 swore to their fathers I would give them. Above all, be firm and steadfast, taking care to observe the entire Law which my servant Moses enjoined on you. Do not swerve from it either to the right or to the left, that you may succeed wherever you go.
8 Keep this Book of the Law on your lips. Recite it by day and by night, that you may observe carefully all that is written in it;
9 then you will successfully attain your goal. I command you: be firm and steadfast! Do not fear nor be dismayed, for the Lord, your God, is with you wherever you go."

10.11 So Josue commanded the officers of the people: "Go through the camp and instruct the people, 'Prepare your provisions, for three days from now you shall cross the Jordan here, to march in and take possession of the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you.' "

12 The Transjordan Tribes Josue reminded the Rubenites, 13 the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasse: "Remember what Moses, the servant of the Lord, commanded you when he said, 'The Lord, your God, will permit you to settle in this land.'
14 Your wives, your children, and your livestock shall remain in the land Moses gave you here beyond the Jordan. But all the warriors among you must cross over armed ahead of your kins-15 men and you must help them | until the Lord has settled your kinsmen, and they like you possess the land which the Lord, your God, is giving them. Afterward you may return and occupy your own land, which Moses, the servant of the Lord, has 16 given you east of the Jordan." "We will do all you have commanded us," they answered Josue, "and we will go wherever 17 you send us. | We will obey you as completely as we obeyed Moses. But may the Lord, your God, be with you as he was 18 with Moses. If anyone rebels against your orders and does not obey every command you give him, he shall be put to death.

But be firm and steadfast."

2

1 Spies Saved by Rahab Then Josue, son of Nun, secretly sent out two spies from Sattim, saying, "Go, reconnoiter the land and Jericho." When the two reached Jericho, they went into the house of a harlot named Rahab, where they lodged.
2 But a report was brought to the king of Jericho that some 3 Israelites had come there that night to spy out the land. So the king of Jericho sent Rahab the order, "Put out the visitors who have entered your house, for they have come to spy out the 4 entire land." The woman had taken the two men and hidden them, so she said, "True, the men you speak of came to me, but 5 I did not know where they came from. At dark, when it was time for the gate to be shut, they left, and I do not know where they went. You will have to pursue them immediately to over-6 take them." Now, she had led them to the roof, and hidden 7 them among her stalks of flax spread out there. But the pursuers set out along the way to the fords of the Jordan, and once they had left, the gate was shut.
8 Before the spies fell asleep, Rahab came to them on the roof 9 | and said: "I know that the Lord has given you the land, that a dread of you has come upon us, and that all the inhabitants 10 of the land are overcome with fear of you. For we have heard how the Lord dried up the waters of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and how you dealt with Sehon and Og, the two kings of the Amorrites beyond the Jordan, 11 whom you doomed to destruction. At these reports, we are disheartened; everyone is discouraged because of you, since the Lord, your God, is God in heaven above and on earth below.
12 Now then, swear to me by the Lord that, since I am showing

2—10: The stories of these nine chapters most likely originated in the tribe of Benjamin and were kept orally alive at the shrine of Galgal, about five miles southwest of Jericho.

2, 4-5: The sacred writers do not seem to pass any judgment on Rahab's lie. (For similar "lies" see Gn 12, 10-20 n; Gn 27, 1-40 n.)

2, 9-11: The authors do not mean to quote the exact words of Rahab. It is their way of illustrating the great achievements of Yahweh by describing terror in the hearts of the Chanaanites. See 6, 22-25 for the happy ending of Rahab's conversion, which squares well with Mt 1, 5 where she is listed as an ancestress of Christ.

kindness to you, you in turn will show kindness to my family; 13 and give me an unmistakable token | that you are to spare my father and mother, brothers and sisters, and all their kin, and 14 save us from death." "We pledge our lives for yours," the men answered her. "If you do not betray this errand of ours, we will be faithful in showing kindness to you when the Lord gives us the land."
15 Then she let them down through the window with a rope; 16 for she lived in a house built into the city wall. "Go up into the hill country," she suggested to them, "that your pursuers may not find you. Hide there for three days, until they return; then 17 you may proceed on your way." The men answered her, "This 18 is how we will fulfill the oath you made us take: When we come into the land, tie this scarlet cord in the window through which you are letting us down; and gather your father and mother, your brothers and all your family into your house.
19 Should any of them pass outside the doors of your house, he will be responsible for his own death, and we shall be guiltless.
But we shall be responsible if anyone in the house with you is 20 harmed. If, however, you betray this errand of ours, we shall be 21 quit of the oath you have made us take." "Let it be as you say," she replied, and bade them farewell. When they were gone, she tied the scarlet cord in the window.
22 They went up into the hills, where they stayed three days until their pursuers, who had sought them all along the road 23 without finding them, returned. Then the two came back down from the hills, crossed the Jordan to Josue, son of Nun, and 24 reported all that had befallen them. They assured Josue, "The Lord has delivered all this land into our power; indeed, all the inhabitants of the land are overcome with fear of us."

3

1 Preparations for Crossing the Jordan Early the next morning, Josue moved with all the Israelites from Sattim to the 2 Jordan, where they lodged before crossing over. Three days later 3 the officers went through the camp | and issued these instructions to the people: "When you see the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, your God, which the Levitical priests will carry, you 4 must also break camp and follow it, | that you may know the 3—4: There is no satisfactory explanation for the apparent disorder n these two chapters. Arabic chroniclers report that in 1267 A.D. a land-lide stopped the Jordan River from flowing. A similar phenomenon ıccurred in 1927 which lasted twenty-one hours. Scholars believe that ;od's providence could have used such a natural phenomenon at a time nost opportune for the Israelites.

way to take, for you have not gone over this road before. But le there be a space of two thousand cubits between you and th 5 Ark. Do not come nearer to it." Josue also said to the peopl "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will perform wor 6 ders among you." And he directed the priests to take up the Ar of the Covenant and go on ahead of the people; and they did so 7 Then the Lord said to Josue, "Today I will begin to exal you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know I am with you 8 as I was with Moses. Now command the priests carrying th Ark of the Covenant to come to a halt in the Jordan when the reach the edge of the waters." 9 So Josue said to the Israelites, "Come here and listen to th 10 words of the Lord, your God." He continued: "This is how you will know that there is a living God in your midst, who at you approach will dispossess the Chanaanites, Hethites, Hevites 11 Pherezites, Gergesites, Amorrites and Jebusites. The Ark of th 12 Covenant of the Lord of the whole earth will precede you into the Jordan. [Now choose twelve men, one from each of th 13 tribes of Israel.] When the soles of the feet of the priests carrying the Ark of the Lord, the Lord of the whole earth, touch the water of the Jordan, it will cease to flow; for the water flowing down from upstream will halt in a solid bank."

14 The Crossing Begun The people struck their tents to cross the Jordan, with the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant 15 ahead of them. No sooner had these priestly bearers of the Ark waded into the waters at the edge of the Jordan, which over-16 flows all its banks during the entire season of the harvest, than the waters flowing from upstream halted, backing up in a solid mass for a very great distance indeed, from Adama, a city in the direction of Sarthan; while those flowing downstream toward the Salt Sea of the Araba disappeared entirely. Thus 17 the people crossed over opposite Jericho. While all Israel crossed over on dry ground, the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord remained motionless on dry ground in the bed of the Jordan until the whole nation had completed the passage.

4

1 Memorial Stones After the entire nation had crossed the 2 Jordan, the Lord said to Josue, "Choose twelve men from the 3 people, one from each tribe, and instruct them to take up twelve stones from this spot in the bed of the Jordan where the priests have been standing motionless. Carry them over with you, and place them where you are to stay tonight." 4 Summoning the twelve men whom he had selected from 5 among the Israelites, one from each tribe, | Josue said to them:

"Go to the bed of the Jordan in front of the Ark of the Lord, your God; lift to your shoulders one stone apiece, so that they will 6 equal in number the tribes of the Israelites. | In the future, these are to be a sign among you. When your children ask you what 7 these stones mean to you, you shall answer them, 'The waters of the Jordan ceased to flow before the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord when it crossed the Jordan.' Thus these stones are to serve 8 as a perpetual memorial to the Israelites." The twelve Israelites did as Josue had commanded: they took up as many stones from the bed of the Jordan as there were tribes of the Israelites, and carried them along to the camp site, where they placed 9 them. According to the Lord's direction, Josue also had twelve stones set up in the bed of the Jordan on the spot where the priests stood who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant. They are there to this day.
10 The priests carrying the Ark remained in the bed of the Jordan until everything had been done that the Lord had commanded Josue to tell the people. The people crossed over 11 quickly, | and when all had reached the other side, the Ark of the Lord, borne by the priests, also crossed to its place in front 12 of them. The Rubenites, Gadites, and half-tribe of Manasse, armed, marched in the vanguard of the Israelites, as Moses had 13 ordered. About forty thousand troops equipped for battle passed over before the Lord to the plains of Jericho.
14 That day the Lord exalted Josue in the sight of all Israel, and thenceforth during his whole life they respected him as they had respected Moses.
15.16 Then the Lord said to Josue, "Command the priests carrying the Ark of the Commandments to come up from the Jor-17.18 dan." Josue did so, and when the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord had come up from the bed of the Jordan, as the soles of their feet regained the dry ground, the waters of the Jordan resumed their course and as before overflowed all its banks.
19 The people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and camped in Galgal on the eastern limits of 20 Jericho. At Galgal Josue set up the twelve stones which had 21 been taken from the Jordan, saying to the Israelites, "In the future, when the children among you ask their fahers what 22 these stones mean, you shall inform them, 'Israel crossed the 23 Jordan here on dry ground.' For the Lord, your God, dried up the waters of the Jordan in front of you until you crossed over, just as the Lord, your God, had done at the Red Sea, which he 24 dried up in front of us until we crossed over: in order that all the peoples of the earth may learn that the hand of the Lord mighty, and that you may fear the Lord, your God, forever

5

1 Rites at Galgal When all the kings of the Amorrites to t west of the Jordan and all the kings of the Chanaanites by t sea heard that the Lord had dried up the waters of the Jord before the Israelites until they crossed over, they were di heartened and lost courage at their approach.
2 On this occasion the Lord said to Josue, "Make flint kniv 3 and circumcise the Israelite nation for the second time." So Jos made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites at Gabaat 4 haaraloth, under these circumstances: Of all the people wh came out of Egypt, every man of military age had died in t 5 desert during the journey after they left Egypt. Though all t men who came out were circumcised, none of those born in t desert during the journey after the departure from Egypt wer 6 circumcised. Now the Israelites had wandered forty years in t desert, until all the warriors among the people that came fort from Egypt died off because they had not obeyed the comman of the Lord. For the Lord swore that he would not let them se the land flowing with milk and honey which he had promise 7 their fathers he would give us. It was the children whom h raised up in their stead whom Josue circumcised, for these wer yet with foreskins, not having been circumcised on the journey 8 When the rite had been performed, the whole nation remaine 9 in camp where they were, until they recovered. Then the Lor said to Josue, "Today I have removed the reproach of Egyp from you." Therefore the place is called Galgal to the presen day.
10 While the Israelites were encamped at Galgal on the plain of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover on the evening of th 11 fourteenth of the month. On the day after the Passover they at of the produce of the land in the form of unleavened cakes and 12 parched grain. On that same day | after the Passover on whic they ate of the produce of the land, the manna ceased. No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate o the yield of the land of Chanaan.

13 Siege at Jericho While Josue was near Jericho, he raise

5, 3: Gabaath-haaraloth: "hill of the foreskins."
5, 10: The month: the first month of the year, later called Nisan. The crossing of the Jordan occurred therefore about the same time of the year as did the crossing of the Red Sea (see Ex 12—14).
5, 13-15: The meaning of this passage is the call of a hero, Josue, at his eyes and saw one who stood facing him, drawn sword in hand. Josue went up to him and asked, "Are you one of us or of 14 our enemies?" | He replied, "Neither. I am the captain of the host of the Lord and I have just arrived." Then Josue fell prostrate to the ground in worship, and said to him, "What has 15 my lord to say to his servant?" The captain of the host of the Lord replied to Josue, "Remove your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy." And Josue obeyed.

6

1 Now Jericho was in a state of siege because of the presence 2 of the Israelites, so that no one left or entered. And to Josue the Lord said, "I have delivered Jericho and its king into your 3 power. Have all the soldiers circle the city, marching once 4 around it. Do this for six days, | with seven priests carrying rams' horns ahead of the Ark. On the seventh day march around the city seven times, and have the priests blow the

---

the solemn beginning of the siege of Jericho. "The captain" (v. 14) becomes Yahweh in 6, 2ff. (This is similar to the angel of the Lord, used as a synonym for the Lord.) Analogous passages are found in the Pentateuch (e.g., Gn 16, 1-15 n) and are commonly explained thus: either God appeared in the form of an angel, or these appearances and their concomitant conversations are true internal experiences, which are externalized dramatically in most perfect conformity with inspired writing of biblical history.

6, 1-25: The account is not precise on the time for the blowing of the horns and on the signal for the people to shout. The ceremony of the ban or herem consisted of circling the city and shouting, among other procedures. To place a city under the ban meant to destroy it totally (Dt 13, 16-19) or partially (Dt 20, 14).

Since Josue was their leader, his command was considered to come directly from God (just as for many commands of Moses). At the time of Josue and the writers of this book, the ban was a normal and recognized institution of a holy war. The purpose of the ban was to destroy persons, places, or things lest they contaminate the monotheism of the people. It was also practiced by other peoples, e.g., the Moabites. God never commanded this barbaric practice, but the writers and the people interpreted it to be in accordance with the spirit of Moses' law (Dt 20, 16-18) and, therefore, also in accordance with God's command. See Dt 2, 34-36; 3, 3-7. God did not yet reveal that this herem was an immoral practice.

From 1952 on, Miss Kathleen Kenyon has progressively proven that the excavated city walls at Jericho (the size of St. Peter's Square), which were thought to date from the time of Josue in the thirteenth century B.C., actually date from prior to 2,000 B.C. Archeologists ask: can the Jericho of Josue be some other place in the vicinity? Nevertheless, Josue did capture a city of Jericho, perhaps with the aid of an earthquake.

5 horns. When they give a long blast on the ram's horn and you hear that signal, all the people shall shout aloud. The wall of the city will collapse, and they will be able to make a frontal attack."
6 Summoning the priests, Josue, son of Nun, then ordered them to take up the Ark of the Covenant with seven of the priests carrying rams' horns in front of the Ark of the Lord.
7 And he ordered the people to proceed in a circle around the city, with the picked troops marching ahead of the Ark of the 8 Lord. At this order they proceeded, with the seven priests who carried the rams' horns before the Lord blowing their horns 9 and the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord following them. In front of the priests with the horns marched the picked troops; the rear guard followed the Ark, and the blowing of horns was 10 kept up continually as they marched. But the people had been commanded by Josue not to shout or make any noise or outcry 11 until he gave the word: only then were they to shout. So he had the Ark of the Lord circle the city, going once around it, after which they returned to camp for the night.
12 Early the next morning, Josue had the priests take up the 13 Ark of the Lord. The seven priests bearing the rams' horns marched in front of the Ark of the Lord, blowing their horns.
Ahead of these marched the picked troops, while the rear guard followed the Ark of the Lord, and the blowing of horns was 14 kept up continually. On this second day they again marched around the city once before returning to camp; and for six days in all they did the same.
15 On the seventh day, beginning at daybreak, they marched around the city seven times in the same manner; on that day 16 only did they march around the city seven times. The seventh time around, the priests blew the horns and Josue said to the 17 people, "Now shout, for the Lord has given you the city | and everything in it. It is under the Lord's ban. Only the harlot Rahab and all who are in the house with her are to be spared, 18 because she hid the messengers we sent. But be careful not to take, in your greed, anything that is under the ban; else you will bring upon the camp of Israel this ban and the misery of it.
19 All silver and gold, and the articles of bronze or iron, are sacred to the Lord. They shall be put in the treasury of the Lord."

20 The Fall of Jericho As the horns blew, the people began to shout. When they heard the signal horn, they raised a tremendous shout. The wall collapsed, and the people stormed the 21 city in a frontal attack and took it. They observed the ban by putting to the sword all living creatures in the city: men and women, young and old, as well as oxen, sheep and asses.

22 Josue directed the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the harlot's house and bring out the woman with all her 23 kin, as you swore to her you would do." The spies entered and brought out Rahab, with her father, mother, brothers, and all her kin. Her entire family they led forth and placed them out-24 side the camp of Israel. The city itself they burned with all that was in it, except the silver, gold, and articles of bronze and iron, which were placed in the treasury of the house of the Lord.
25 Because Rahab the harlot had hidden the messengers whom Josue had sent to reconnoiter Jericho, Josue spared her with her family and all her kin, who continue in the midst of Israel to this day.
26 On that occasion Josue imposed the oath: Cursed before the Lord be the man who attempts to rebuild this city, Jericho. He shall lose his first-born when he lays its foundation, and he shall 27 lose his youngest son when he sets up its gates. Now, though the Lord was with Josue so that his fame spread throughout the land, the Israelites violated the ban.

7

1 Achan, son of Charmi, Son of Zabdi, son of Zara of the tribe of Juda, took goods that were under the ban, and the anger of the Lord flared up against the Israelites.

2 Defeat at Hai Josue next sent men from Jericho to Hai, which is near Bethel on its eastern side, with instructions to go up and reconnoiter the land. When they had explored Hai, 3 they returned to Josue and advised, "Do not send all the people up; if only about two or three thousand go up, they can overcome Hai. The enemy there are few; you need not call for an 4 effort from all the people." About three thousand of the people 5 made the attack, but they were defeated by those at Hai, who killed some thirty-six of them. They pressed them back across the clearing in front of the city gate till they broke ranks, and defeated them finally on the descent, so that the confidence of the people melted away like water.
6 Josue, together with the elders of Israel, rent his garments

6, 26: Josue's curse is that the rebuilder of Jericho be punished by the loss of all his sons from the youngest to the oldest. In the interpretation given by the author of 3 Kgs 16, 34, this curse was fulfilled in Hiel who followed the Chanaanite custom of sacrificing his oldest son when he laid the foundation of Jericho, and his youngest son when he built the gates of the city.

and lay prostrate before the Ark of the Lord until evening; and 7 they threw dust on their heads. "Alas, O Lord God," Josue prayed, "why did you ever allow this people to pass over the Jordan, delivering us into the power of the Amorrites, that they might destroy us? Would that we had been content to dwell on 8 the other side of the Jordan. Pray, Lord, what can I say, now 9 that Israel has turned its back to its enemies? When the Chanaanites and the other inhabitants of the land hear of it, they will close in around us and efface our name from the earth.
What will you do for your great name?" 10 The Lord replied to Josue: "Stand up. Why are you lying 11 prostrate? Israel has sinned: they have violated the covenant which I enjoined on them. They have stealthily taken goods subject to the ban, and have deceitfully put them in their bag-12 gage. If the Israelites cannot stand up to their enemies, but must turn their back to them, it is because they are under the ban. I will not remain with you unless you remove from among you 13 whoever has incurred the ban. | Rise, sanctify the people. Tell them to sanctify themselves before tomorrow, for the Lord, the God of Israel, says: You are under the ban, O Israel. You cannot stand up to your enemies until you remove from among 14 you whoever has incurred the ban. In the morning you must present yourselves by tribes. The tribe which the Lord designates shall come forward by clans; the clan which the Lord designates shall come forward by families; the family which the 15 Lord designates shall come forward one by one. He who is designated as having incurred the ban shall be destroyed by fire, with all that is his, because he has violated the covenant of the Lord and has committed a shameful crime in Israel."

16 Achan's Guilt and Punishment Early the next morning Josue had Israel come forward by tribes, and the tribe of Juda 17 was designated. Then he had the clans of Juda come forward, and the clan of Zara was designated. He had the clan of Zara 18 come forward by families, and Zabdi was designated. Finally he had that family come forward one by one, and Achan, son of Charmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zara of the tribe of Juda, was 19 designated. Josue said to Achan, "My son, give to the Lord, the God of Israel, glory and honor by telling me what you have done; 20 do not hide it from me." Achan answered Josue, "I have indeed sinned against the Lord, the God of Israel. This is what I have 21 done: | Among the spoils, I saw a beautiful Babylonian mantle,

7, 14: Note the structure of nomadic society still with us today, namely: tribes, clans, families, individuals.

two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold fifty shekels in weight; in my greed I took them. They are now hidden in the 22 ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath." The messengers whom Josue sent hastened to the tent and found them 23 hidden there, with the silver underneath. They took them from the tent, brought them to Josue and all the Israelites, and spread them out before the Lord.
24 Then Josue and all Israel took Achan, son of Zara, with the silver, the mantle, and the bar of gold, and with his sons and daughters, his ox, his ass and his sheep, his tent, and all his 25 possessions, and led them off to the Valley of Achor. Josue said,
"The Lord bring upon you today the misery with which you 26 have afflicted us!" And all Israel stoned him to death | and piled a great heap of stones over him, which remains to the present day. Then the anger of the Lord relented. That is why the place is called the Valley of Achor to this day.

8

1 Capture of Hai The Lord then said to Josue, "Do not be afraid or dismayed. Take all the army with you and prepare to attack Hai. I have delivered the king of Hai into your power, 2 with his people, city, and land. | Do to Hai and its king what you did to Jericho and its king; except that you may take its 3 spoil and livestock as booty. Set an ambush behind the city." So Josue and all the soldiers prepared to attack Hai. Picking out 4 thirty thousand warriors, Josue sent them off by night | with these orders: "See that you ambush the city from the rear, at 5 no great distance; then all of you be on the watch. The rest of the people and I will come up to the city, and when they make a sortie against us as they did the last time, we will flee from 7, 24-25: According to the nomadic law of solidarity, an individual is so intimately connected with his family that all the family shares in his honor or guilt. See Nm 16, 31-35.

7, 26: The burial of a criminal as in 8, 29; 10, 27.

8, 1-29: These verses continue from 7, 2-5. Ordinarily, archeology facilitates the understanding of a text. Jericho and Hai are two rare examples of archeology raising a host of new problems about the text. Archeologists show with certainty that Hai was not inhabited during Josue's conquest in the thirteenth century B.C. There is no satisfactory explanation to date on how to reconcile this archeological truth with the biblical account of Josue's capture of Hai. One possibility is that the conquest of Hai took place at another era but was attributed to Josue (see Introduction to the Book of Josue). Another possibility is that the story originally referred to Bethel, one and one-half miles from Hai. Bethel was destroyed in the thirteenth century B.C. People later transferred the story to Hai to explain the word's meaning, namely, "The them. They will keep coming out after us until we have draw them away from the city, for they will think we are fleeing fror them as we did the last time. When this occurs, | rise fror ambush and take possession of the city, which the Lord, you God, will deliver into your power. When you have taken th city, set it afire in obedience to the Lord's command. These ar my orders to you." Then Josue sent them away. They went t the place of ambush, taking up their position to the west of Hai toward Bethel. Josue, however, spent that night in the plain Early the next morning Josue mustered the army and wen up to Hai at its head, with the elders of Israel. When all th troops he led were drawn up in position before the city, they pitched camp north of Hai, on the other side of the ravine [He took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Hai, west of the city.] Thus the people took up their stations, with the main body north of the city and the ambush west of it, and Josue waited overnight among his troops. The king of Hai saw this, and he and all his army came out very early in the morning to engage Israel in battle at the descent toward the Araba, not knowing that there was an ambush behind the city. Josue and the main body of the Israelites fled in seeming defeat toward the desert, till the last of the soldiers in the city had been called out to pursue them. Since they were drawn away from the city, with every man engaged in this pursuit of Josue and the Israelites, not a soldier remained in Hai [or Bethel], and the city was open and unprotected.

Then the Lord directed Josue, "Stretch out the javelin in your hand toward Hai, for I will deliver it into your power." Josue stretched out the javelin in his hand toward the city, | and as soon as he did so, the men in ambush rose from their post, rushed in, captured the city, and immediately set it on fire. By the time the men of Hai looked back, the smoke from the city was already sky-high. Escape in any direction was impossible, because the Israelites retreating toward the desert now turned on their pursuers; for when Josue and the main body of Israelites saw that the city had been taken from ambush and was going up in smoke, they struck back at the men of Hai. Since those in the city came out to intercept them, the men of Hai were hemmed in by Israelites on either side, who cut them down without any fugitives or survivors | except the king, whom they took alive and brought to Josue.
All the inhabitants of Hai who had pursued the Israelites

8, 18: Javelin: a difficult Hebrew word to translate, which, according to the Dead Sea Scrolls, is some kind of a sword or scimitar.

into the desert were slain by the sword there in the open, down 25 to the last man. Then all Israel returned and put to the sword those inside the city. There fell that day a total of twelve thou-26 sand men and women, the entire population of Hai. Josue kept the javelin in his hand stretched out until he had fulfilled the 27 doom on all the inhabitants of Hai. However, the Israelites took for themselves as booty the livestock and the spoil of that city, 28 according to the command of the Lord issued to Josue. Then Josue destroyed the place by fire, reducing it to an everlasting 29 mound of ruins, as it remains today. He had the king of Hai hanged on a tree until evening; then at sunset Josue ordered the body removed from the tree and cast at the entrance of the city gate, where a great heap of stones was piled up over it, which remains to the present day.

30 Altar on Mount Ebal Later Josue built an altar to the 31 Lord, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, | of unhewn stones on which no iron tool had been used, in keeping with the command to the Israelites of Moses, the servant of the Lord, as recorded in the Book of the Law. On this altar they offered holocausts 32 and peace offerings to the Lord. There, in the presence of the Israelites, Josue inscribed upon the stones a copy of the law 33 written by Moses. And all Israel, stranger and native alike, with their elders, officers and judges, stood on either side of the Ark facing the Levitical priests who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord. Half of them were facing Mount Garizim and half Mount Ebal, thus carrying out the instructions of Moses, the servant of the Lord, for the blessing of the 34 people of Israel on this first occasion. Then were read aloud all the words of the law, the blessings and the curses, exactly as 35 written in the Book of the Law. Every single word that Moses had commanded, Josue read aloud to the entire community, including the women and children, and the strangers who had accompanied Israel.

9

1 Confederacy against Israel When the news reached the kings west of the Jordan, in the mountain regions and in the foothills, and all along the coast of the Great Sea as far as Lebanon: Hethites, Amorrites, Chanaanites, Pherezites, Hevites 2 and Jebusites, they all formed an alliance to launch a common attack against Josue and Israel.

8, 30-35: See a more elaborate description of these ceremonies in Dt 11, 29; 27, 1-26.

3 The Gabaonite Deception On learning what Josue had 4 done to Jericho and Hai, the inhabitants of Gabaon | put into effect a device of their own. They chose provisions for a journey, making use of old sacks for their asses, and old wineskins, 5 torn and mended. They wore old, patched sandals and shabby garments; and all the bread they took was dry and crumbly.
6 Thus they journeyed to Josue in the camp at Galgal, where they said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant land to propose that you make an alliance with us." 7 But the men of Israel replied to the Hevites, "You may be living in land that is ours. How, then, can we make an alliance with 8 you?" | But they answered Josue, "We are your servants." Then Josue asked them, "Who are you? Where do you come from?"
9 | They answered him, "Your servants have come from a far-off land, because of the fame of the Lord, your God. For we have 10 heard reports of all that he did in Egypt | and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorrites beyond the Jordan, Sehon, king of Hesebon, and Og, king of Basan, who lived in Astharoth.
11 So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, 'Take along provisions for the journey and go to meet them.
Say to them: We are your servants; we propose that you make 12 an alliance with us.' This bread of ours was still warm when we brought it from home as provisions the day we left to come to 13 you, but now it is dry and crumbled. Here are our wineskins, which were new when we filled them, but now they are torn.
Look at our garments and sandals, which are worn out from the 14 very long journey." Then the Israelite princes partook of their 15 provisions, without seeking the advice of the Lord. So Josue made an alliance with them and entered into an agreement to spare them, which the princes of the community sealed with an oath.

16 Gabaonites Made Vassals Three days after the agreement was entered into, the Israelites learned that these people were 17 from nearby, and would be living in Israel. The third day on the road, the Israelites came to their cities of Gabaon, Caphira, 18 Beroth and Cariath-jarim, | but did not attack them, because the princes of the community had sworn to them by the Lord, the God of Israel. When the entire community grumbled against 19 the princes, these all remonstrated with the people, "We have sworn to them by the Lord, the God of Israel, and so we cannot 20 harm them. Let us therefore spare their lives and so deal with them that we shall not be punished for the oath we have sworn 21 to them." Thus the princes recommended that they be let live, as hewers of wood and drawers of water for the entire community; and the community did as the princes advised them.

22 Josue summoned the Gabaonites and said to them, "Why did you lie to us and say that you lived at a great distance from us, 23 when you will be living in our very midst? For this are you accursed: every one of you shall always be a slave [hewers of 24 wood and drawers of water] for the house of my God." They answered Josue, "Your servants were fully informed of how the Lord, your God, commanded his servant Moses that you be given the entire land and that all its inhabitants be destroyed before you. Since, therefore, at your advance, we were in great 25 fear for our lives, we acted as we did. And now that we are in 26 your power, do with us what you think fit and right." Josue did what he had decided: while he saved them from being killed by 27 the Israelites, | at the same time he made them, as they still are, hewers of wood and drawers of water for the community and for the altar of the Lord, in the place of the Lord's choice.

10

1 The Siege of Gabaon Now Adonisedec, king of Jerusalem, heard that, in the capture and destruction of Hai, Josue had done to that city and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king. He heard also that the inhabitants of Gabaon had made 2 their peace with Israel, remaining among them, | and that there was great fear abroad, because Gabaon was large enough for a royal city, larger even than the city of Hai, and all its men were 3 brave. So Adonisedec, king of Jerusalem, sent for Oham, king of Hebron, Pharam, king of Jerimoth, Japhia, king of Lachis, and 4 Dabir, king of Eglon, | to come to his aid for an attack on Gabaon, since it had concluded peace with Josue and the Israel-5 ites. The five Amorrite kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jerimoth, Lachis and Eglon, united all their forces and marched against 6 Gabaon, where they took up siege positions. Thereupon, the men of Gabaon sent an appeal to Josue in his camp at Galgal:
"Do not abandon your servants. Come up here quickly and save us. Help us, because all the Amorrite kings of the mountain country have joined forces against us."

7 Josue's Victory So Josue marched up from Galgal with 8 his picked troops and the rest of his soldiers. Meanwhile the Lord said to Josue, "Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your power. Not one of them will be able to with-9 stand you." And when Josue made his surprise attack upon 10, 1: This is the first biblical mention of Jerusalem.

10 them after an all-night march from Galgal, the Lord threw them into disorder before him. The Israelites inflicted a great slaughter on them at Gabaon and pursued them down the Beth Horon slope, harassing them as far as Azeca and Maceda.
11 While they fled down before Israel along the descent from Beth-Horon, the Lord hurled great stones from the sky above them all the way to Azeca, killing many. More died from these 12 hailstones than the Israelites slew with the sword. On this day when the Lord delivered up the Amorrites to the Israelites Josue prayed to the Lord, and said in the presence of Israel:
Stand still, O sun, at Gabaon, O moon, in the valley of Aialon 13 | And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, while the nation took vengeance on its foes. Is this not recorded in the Book of Jashar? The sun halted in the middle of the sky; not for a whole 14 day did it resume its swift course. Never before or since was there a day like this, when the Lord obeyed the voice of a man; 15 for the Lord fought for Israel. [Then Josue and all Israel returned to the camp at Galgal.]

16 Execution of Amorrite Kings Meanwhile the five kings 17 who had fled, hid in a cave at Maceda. When Josue was told that the five kings had been discovered hiding in a cave at 18 Maceda, he said, "Roll large stones to the mouth of the cave 19 and post men over it to guard them. But do not remain there yourselves. Pursue your enemies, and harry them in the rear.
Do not allow them to escape to their cities, for the Lord, your God, has delivered them into your power." 20 Once Josue and the Israelites had finally inflicted the last blows in this very great slaughter, and the survivors had es-21 caped from them into the fortified cities, all the army returned safely to Josue and the camp at Maceda, no man uttering a 22 sound against the Israelites. Then Josue said, "Open the mouth 23 of the cave and bring out those five kings to me." Obediently, 10, 11: A victory through Yahweh's help in the form of a hailstorm is sketched in epic grandeur.

10, 12-14: Scholars today do not interpret this text literally; e.g., the sun stood still (an astronomical interpretation). Some attempt to explain continued daylight by attributing it to a refraction of light (an atmospherical interpretation). The metaphorical interpretation is commonly accepted today. Josue hoped for an extension of daylight to crush his enemies. He crushed them. The event is described in prose (vv. 7-11) and in poetry (vv. 13-14). The latter account is taken from the Book of Jashar, a collection of patriotic songs.

The Roman theologians were wrong in their disciplinary (not doctrinal) decree of 1564 against Galileo by saying that the Copernican theory of heliocentricity militated against the scriptural text.

they brought out to him from the cave the five kings, of Jeru-24 salem, Hebron, Jerimoth, Lachis and Eglon. When they had done so, Josue summoned all the men of Israel and said to the commanders of the soldiers who had marched with him, "Come forward and put your feet on the necks of these kings." They 25 came forward and put their feet upon their necks. Then Josue said to them, "Do not be afraid or dismayed, be firm and steadfast. This is what the Lord will do to all the enemies against 26 whom you fight." Thereupon Josue struck and killed them, and hanged them on five trees, where they remained hanging until 27 evening. At sunset they were removed from the trees at the command of Josue and cast into the cave where they had hidden; over the mouth of the cave large stones were placed, which remain until this very day.

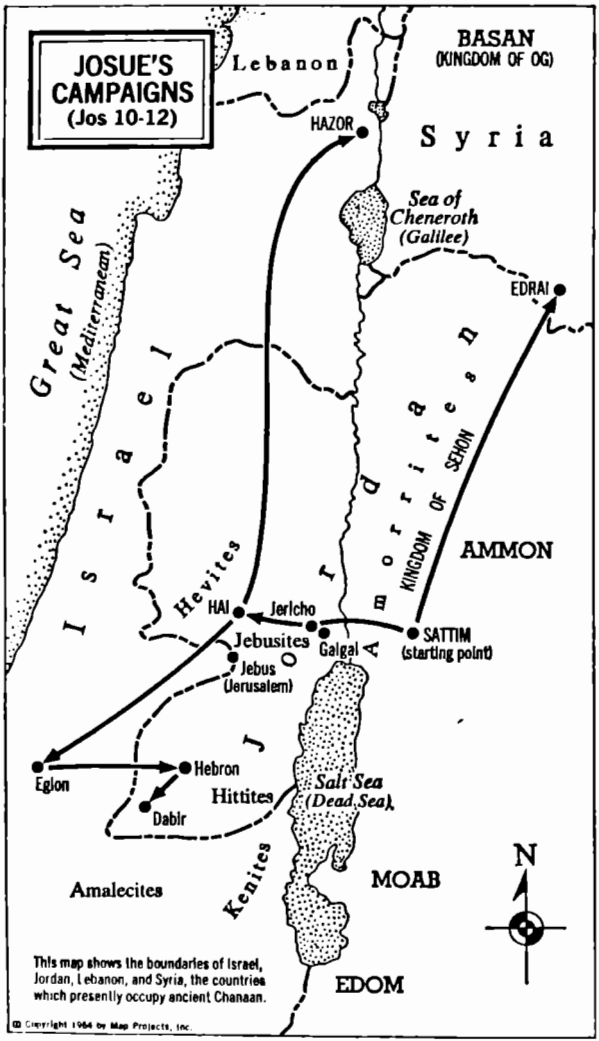
28 Conquest of Southern Chanaan Maceda, too, Josue captured and put to the sword at that time. He fulfilled the doom on the city, on its king, and on every person in it, leaving no survivors. Thus he did to the king of Maceda what he had done 29 to the king of Jericho. Josue then passed on with all Israel from 30 Maceda to Lebna, which he attacked. Lebna also, with its king, the Lord delivered into the power of Israel. He put it to the sword with every person there, leaving no survivors. Thus he 31 did to its king what he had done to the king of Jericho. Josue next passed on with all Israel from Lebna to Lachis, where they 32 set up a camp during the attack. The Lord delivered Lachis into the power of Israel, so that on the second day Josue captured it and put it to the sword with every person in it, just as 33 he had done to Lebna. At that time Horam, king of Gazer, came up to help Lachis, but Josue defeated him and his people, leav-34 ing him no survivors. From Lachis, Josue passed on with all 35 Israel to Eglon; encamping near it, they attacked it | and captured it the same day, putting it to the sword. He fulfilled the doom that day on every person in it, just as he had done at 36 Lachis. From Eglon, Josue went up with all Israel to Hebron, 37 which they attacked | and captured. They put it to the sword with its king, all its towns, and every person there, leaving no survivors, just as Josue had done to Eglon. He fulfilled the 10, 24: Put their feet upon their necks: this was a common gesture of victory in the ancient Near East at that era.



10, 28-39: Archeologists show evidence of the destruction of several of these southern towns in the thirteenth century B.C., which accords well with Josue's campaign. However, the description of the rapid and facile way of the fall of these cities to Josue is an example of the writers' manner of praising God's bestowal of the Promised Land.

38 doom on it and on every person there. Then Josue and all I 39 rael turned back to Dabir and attacked it, capturing it with i king and all its towns. They put them to the sword and fulfille the doom on every person there, leaving no survivors. Thus w done to Dabir and its king what had been done to Hebron, a well as to Lebna and its king.
40 Josue conquered the entire country; the mountain region the Negeb, the foothills, and the mountain slopes, with all the kings. He left no survivors, but fulfilled the doom on all wh lived there, just as the Lord, the God of Israel, had commande 41 Josue conquered from Cadesbarne to Gaza, and all the land c 42 Gosen to Gabaon. All these kings and their lands Josue capture in a single campaign, for the Lord, the God of Israel, fought fo 43 Israel. Thereupon Josue with all Israel returned to the camp a Galgal.

11

1 Northern Confederacy When Jabin, king of Hasor, learne of this, he sent a message to Jobab, king of Madon, to the kin 2 of Semron, to the king of Achsaph, and to the northern king in the mountain regions and in the Araba near Cheneroth, in 3 the foothills, and in Naphath-Dor to the west. These were Chanaanites to the east and west, Amorrites, Hethites, Pherez ites and Jebusites in the mountain regions, and Hevites at the 4 foot of Hermon in the land of Maspha. They came out with al their troops, an army numerous as the sands on the seashore, and 5 with a multitude of horses and chariots. All these kings joined forces and marched to the waters of Merom, where they en camped together to fight against Israel.
6 The Lord said to Josue, "Do not fear them, for by this time tomorrow I will stretch them slain before Israel. You must ham-7 string their horses and burn their chariots." Josue with his whole army came upon them at the waters of Merom in a sur-8 prise attack. The Lord delivered them into the power of the Israelites, who defeated them and pursued them to Greater Sidon, to Masrephoth-maim, and eastward to the valley of 9 Maspha. They struck them all down, leaving no survivors. Josue did to them as the Lord had commanded: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

10 Conquest of Northern Chanaan At that time Josue, turning back, captured Hasor and slew its king with the sword; for 11 Hasor formerly was the chief of all those kingdoms. He also fulfilled the doom by putting every person there to the sword, 12 till none was left alive. Hasor itself he burned. Josue thus cap-

JOSUE'S CAMPAIGNS
(Jos 10-12)
Lebanon
BASAN (KINGDOM OF OG) HAZOR
Syria
Sea of Chenereth (Galilee) EDRAI
Great Sea (Mediterranean)
Israel
Jordan
Amorites
KINGDOM OF SEHON AMMON
Hevites
HAI Jericho
Jebusites
Galgal
SATTIM
(starting point)
Jebus (Jerusalem)
Judea
Egion
Hebron
Hittites
Salt Sea (Dead Sea)
Dabir
Kenites
Amalecites MOAB
N EDOM
This map shows the boundaries of Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria, the countries which presently occupy ancient Chanaan.
© Copyright 1964 by Map Projects, Inc.

tured all those kings with their cities and put them to the sword fulfilling the doom on them, as Moses, the servant of the Lord 13 had commanded. However, Israel did not destroy by fire any of the cities built on raised sites, except Hasor, which Josue burned.
14 The Israelites took all the spoil and livestock of these cities as their booty; but the people they put to the sword, until they 15 had exterminated the last of them, leaving none alive. As the Lord had commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Josue, and Josue acted accordingly. He left nothing undone that the Lord had commanded Moses should be done.

16 Survey of the Conquest So Josue captured all this land:
the mountain regions, the entire Negeb, all the land of Gosen, the foothills, the Araba, as well as the mountain regions and 17 foothills of Israel, from Mount Halac that rises toward Seir as far as Baal-Gad in the Lebanon valley at the foot of Mount 18 Hermon. All their kings he captured and put to death. Josue 19 waged war against all these kings for a long time. With the exception of the Hevites who lived in Gabaon, no city made 20 peace with the Israelites; all were taken in battle. For it was the design of the Lord to encourage them to wage war against Israel, that they might be doomed to destruction and thus receive no mercy, but be exterminated, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 At that time Josue penetrated the mountain regions and exterminated the Enacim in Hebron, Dabir, Anab, the entire mountain region of Juda, and the entire mountain region of 22 Israel. Josue fulfilled the doom on them and on their cities, so that no Enacim were left in the land of the Israelites. However, 23 some survived in Gaza, in Geth, and in Azotus. Thus Josue captured the whole country, just as the Lord had foretold to Moses. Josue gave it to Israel as their heritage, apportioning it among the tribes. And the land enjoyed peace.

12

1 Lists of Conquered Kings The kings of the land east of the Jordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon, including all the eastern section of the Araba, whom the Israelites con-2 quered and whose lands they occupied, were: First, Sehon, king of the Amorrites, who lived in Hesebon. His domain extended from Aroer, which is on the bank of the Wadi Arnon, to include

11, 20: See 6, 1-25 n.

11, 21ff: Most of the land assigned to the tribe of Juda was not conquered by it till the early period of the Judges.

the wadi itself, and the land northward through half of Galaad 3 to the Wadi Jaboc, as well as the Araba from the eastern side of Sea of Chenereth, as far south as the eastern side of the Salt Sea of the Araba in the direction of Beth-jesimoth, to a point under 4 the slopes of Phasga. Secondly, Og, king of Basan, a survivor of 5 the Raphaim, who lived at Astharoth and Edrai. He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecha, and all Basan as far as the boundary of the Gessurites and Maachathites, and over half of Galaad as 6 far as the territory of Sehon, king of Hesebon. After Moses, the servant of the Lord, and the Israelites conquered them, he assigned their land to the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasse, as their property.
7 This is a list of the kings whom Josue and the Israelites conquered west of the Jordan and whose land, from Baal-Gad in the Lebanon valley to Mount Halac which rises toward Seir, 8 Josue apportioned to the tribes of Israel. It included the mountain regions and foothills, the Araba, the slopes, the desert, and the Negeb, belonging to the Hethites, Amorrites, Chanaanites, 9 Pherezites, Hevites and Jebusites. They were the kings of Jeri-10.11 cho, Hai (which is near Bethel), | Jerusalem, Hebron, | Jeri-
12 14 moth, Lachis, | Eglon, Gazer, | Dabir, Gader, | Horma,
15.17 Arad, | Lebna, Adullam, | Maceda, Bethel, | Thapphua,
16.20 Hepher, | Aphec, Saron, | Madon, Hasor, | Semron, Ach-
21.22 saph, | Thaanach, Mageddo, | Cades, Jecnaam (at Car-
23 mel), | and Dor (in Naphath-Dor), the foreign king at Gal-24 gal, | and the king of Thersa: thirty-one kings in all.

II. DIVISION OF THE LAND

13

1 Division of Land Commanded When Josue was old and advanced in years, the Lord said to him: "Though now you are old and advanced in years, a very large part of the land still 2 remains to be conquered. This additional land includes all Ges-3 sur and all the districts of the Philistines (from the stream adjoining Egypt to the boundary of Accaron in the north is reckoned Chanaanite territory, though held by the five lords of the Philistines in Gaza, Azotus, Ascalon, Geth and Accaron); also 4 where the Avvites are in the south; all the land of the Chanaanites from Ara of the Sidonians to Aphec, and the 13—21: These nine chapters are monotonous to us, but we can be sympathetic if we recall that the Israelites had been semi-nomads and now they own their own land. Besides, it is the Promised Land, for God had kept His promise.

5 boundaries of the Amorrites; | and the Giblite territory; and all the Lebanon on the east, from Baal-Gad at the foot of 6 Mount Hermon to the entrance to Hamath. At the advance of the Israelites I will drive out all the Sidonian inhabitants of the mountain regions between Lebanon and Masrephoth-maim; at least include these areas in the division of the Israelite her-7 itage, just as I have commanded you. Now, therefore, apportion among the nine tribes and the half-tribes of Manasse the land which is to be their heritage."

8 The Eastern Tribes Now the other half of the tribe of Manasse, as well as the Rubenites and Gadites, had received their heritage which Moses, the servant of the Lord, had given 9 them east of the Jordan: from Aroer on the bank of the Wadi Arnon and the city in the wadi itself, through the tableland 10 of Medaba and Dibon, with the rest of the cities of Sehon, king of the Amorrites, who reigned in Hesebon, to the boundary of 11 the Ammonites; also Galaad and the territory of the Gessurites and Maachathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Basan as far as 12 Salecha, | the entire kingdom in Basan of Og, a survivor of the Raphaim, who reigned at Astharoth and Edrai. Though Moses 13 conquered and occupied these territories, the Israelites did not dislodge the Gessurites and Maachathites, so that Gessur and 14 Maacha survive in the midst of Israel to this day. However, to the tribe of Levi Moses assigned no heritage since, as the Lord had promised them, the Lord, the God of Israel, is their heritage.

15.16 Ruben What Moses gave to the Rubenite clans: Their territory reached from Aroer, on the bank of the Wadi Arnon, and the city in the wadi itself, through the tableland about 17 Medaba, to include Hesebon and all its towns which are on the 18 tableland, Dibon, Bamoth-Baal, Beth-Baal-maon, | Jahas, Ce-19 demoth, Mephaath, | Cariathaim, Sabama, Sarath-sahar on the 20 knoll within the valley, | Beth-Phogor, the slopes of Phasga, 21 Beth-jesimoth, | and the other cities of the tableland and, generally, of the kingdom of Sehon. This Amorrite king, who reigned in Hesebon, Moses had killed, with his vassals, the princes of Madian, who were settled in the land: Evi, Recem, 22 Sur, Hur and Rebe; | and among their slain followers the Israelites put to the sword also the soothsayer Balaam, son of 23 Beor. The boundary of the Rubenites was the bank of the Jordan. These cities and their villages were the heritage of the clans of the Rubenites.

24.25 Gad What Moses gave to the Gadite clans: Their territory

THE ALLOTMENT OF CHANAAN TO THE TWELVE TRIBES
(Jos 13-21)
Lebanon
Syria NEPHTHALI
ASER
ZABULON
Sea of Cheneroth (Galilee)
ISSACHAR
MANASSE
Great Sea
Mediterranean
MANASSE
EPHRAIM
GAD
DAN BENJAMIN
RUBEN
Salt Sea
(Dead Sea)
JUDA
SIMEON
N
This map shows the boundaries of Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria, the countries which presently occupy ancient Chanaan.
© Copyright 1984 by Map Projects, Inc.

included Jazer, all the cities of Galaad, and half the land of the 26 Ammonites as far as Aroer, toward Rabba (that is, from Hesebon to Ramoth-Maspha and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to 27 the boundary of Lodebar); and in the Jordan valley: Beth-haram, Beth-nemra, Socchoth, Saphon, the other part of the kingdom of Sehon, king of Hesebon, with the bank of the Jor-28 dan to the southeastern tip of the Sea of Cheneroth. These cities and their villages were the heritage of the clans of the Gadites.

29 Manasse What Moses gave to the clans of the half-tribe of 30 Manasse: Their territory included Mahanaim, all of Basan, the entire kingdom of Og, king of Basan, and all the villages of 31 Jair, which are sixty cities in Basan. Half of Galaad, with Astharoth and Edrai, once the royal cities of Og in Basan, fell to the descendants of Machir, son of Manasse, for half the clans descended from Machir.
32 These are the portions which Moses gave when he was in the 33 plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan east of Jericho. However, Moses gave no heritage to the tribe of Levi, since the Lord himself, the God of Israel, is their heritage, as he promised.

14

1 The Western Tribes Here follow the portions which the Israelites received in the land of Chanaan. Eleazar the priest, Josue, son of Nun, and the heads of families in the tribes of 2 the Israelites determined | their heritage by lot, in accordance with the instructions the Lord had given through Moses 3 concerning the remaining nine and a half tribes. For to two and a half tribes Moses had already given a heritage beyond the Jordan; and though the Levites were given no heritage among 4 the tribes, the descendants of Joseph formed two tribes, Ma-nasse and Ephraim. The Levites themselves received no share of the land except cities to live in, with their pasture lands for the cattle and flocks.
5 Thus, in apportioning the land, did the Israelites carry out the instructions of the Lord to Moses.

6 Caleb's Portion When the Judaites came up to Josue in Galgal, the Cenezite Caleb, son of Jephonne, said to him: "You know what the Lord said to the man of God, Moses, about you 7 and me in Cadesbarne. I was forty years old when the servant of the Lord, Moses, sent me from Cadesbarne to reconnoiter the 8 land; and I brought back to him a conscientious report. My fellow scouts who went up with me discouraged the people, but 9 I was completely loyal to the Lord, my God. On that occasion

Moses swore this oath, 'The land where you have set foot shall become your heritage and that of your descendants forever, because you have been completely loyal to the Lord, my God.'
10 Now, as he promised, the Lord had preserved me while Israel was journeying through the desert, for the forty-five years since the Lord spoke thus to Moses; and although I am now eighty-11 five years old, I am still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me forth, with no less vigor whether for war or for ordi-12 nary tasks. Give me, therefore, this mountain region which the Lord promised me that day, as you yourself heard. True, the Enacim are there, with large fortified cities, but if the Lord is with me I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord promised."
13 Josue blessed Caleb, son of Jephonne, and gave him Hebron 14 as his heritage. Therefore Hebron remains the heritage of the Cenezite Caleb, son of Jephonne, to the present day, because he 15 was completely loyal to the Lord, the God of Israel. Hebron was formerly called Cariath-Arbe, for Arbe, the greatest among the Enacim. And the land enjoyed peace.

15

1 Boundaries of Juda The lot for the clans of the Judaite tribe fell in the extreme south toward the boundary of Edom, 2 the desert of Sin in the Negeb. | The boundary there ran from 3 the bay that forms the southern end of the Salt Sea, | southward below the pass of Acrabbim, across through Sin, up to a point south of Cadesbarne, across to Hesron, and up to Addar;
4 from there, looping around Carcaa, | it crossed to Asemon and then joined the Wadi of Egypt before coming out at the sea.
5 [This is your southern boundary.] The eastern boundary was the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan.
6 The northern boundary climbed from the bay where the Jordan meets the sea, up to Beth-Hagla, and ran north of Beth-7 Arba, up to Eben-Boen-ben-Ruben. Thence it climbed to Dabir, north of the vale of Achor, in the direction of the Galgal that faces the pass of Adommim, on the south side of the wadi; from there it crossed to the waters of En-Sames and emerged at En-8 Rogel. Climhing again to the valley of Ben-Hennom on the southern flank of the Jebusites [that is, Jerusalem], the boundary rose to the top of the mountain at the northern end of the valley of Raphaim, which bounds the valley of Hennom on the 9 west. From the top of the mountain it ran to the fountain of waters of Nephthoa, extended to the cities of Mount Ephron, 10 and continued to Baala, or Cariath-jarim. From Baala the boundary curved westward to Mount Seir and passed north of the ridge of Mount Jarim (that is, Chesalon); thence it de 11 scended to Beth-Sames, and ran across to Thamna. It then ex tended along the northern flank of Accaron, continued throug Sechrona, and across to Mount Baala, thence to include Jebnee 12 before it came out at the sea. The western boundary was th Great Sea and its coast. This was the complete boundary of th clans of the Judaites.

13 Conquest by Caleb As the Lord had commanded, Josu gave Caleb, son of Jephonne, a portion among the Judaites namely, Cariath-Arbe (Arbe was the father of Enac), that is 14 Hebron. And Caleb drove out from there the three Enacim 15 the descendants of Enac: Sesai, Ahiman and Tholmai. From there he marched up against the inhabitants of Dabir, whicl 16 was formerly called Cariath-sepher. Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Achsa in marriage to the one who attacks Cariath-17 sepher and captures it." Othoniel, son of Caleb's brother Cenez, captured it, and so Caleb gave him his daughter Achsa in 18 marriage. On the day of her marriage to Othoniel, she induced him to ask her father for some land. Then, as she alighted 19 from the ass, Caleb asked her, "What is troubling you?" She answered, "Give me an additional gift! Since you have assigned to me land in the Negeb, give me also pools of water." So he gave her the upper and lower pools.

20 Cities of Juda This is the heritage of the clans of the tribe 21 of Judaites: The cities of the tribe of the Judaites in the extreme southern district toward Edom were: Cabseel, Eder, 22.23 Jagur, | Cina, Dimona, Adada, | Cades, Hasor and Jethnan;
24.25 Ziph, Telem, Baaloth, | Hasor-haddattha, and Carioth-
26.27 Hesron (that is, Hasor); Amam, Sama, Molada, | Hasar-28 gadda, Hassemon, Beth-Phelet, | Hasar-sual, Bersabee and 29.30 Baziothia; Baala, Iim, Esem, | Eltholad, Chesil, Horma, |
31.32 Siceleg, Medemena, Sensenna, | Lebaoth, Selhim and Ain Remmon; a total of twenty-nine cities with their villages.
33.34 In the foothills: Esthaol, Saraa, Asna, | Zanoe, En-gan-
35 nim, Thapphua, Enaim, | Jerimoth, Adullam, Socho, Azeca,
36 | Saaraim, Adithaim, Gadera and Gaderothaim; fourteen cities
37.38 and their villages. Sanan, Hadassa, Magdal-Gad | Delean,
39.40 Maspha, Jecthel, | Lachis, Bascath, Eglon, | Chebbon, Le-
41 hemas, Chethlis, | Gaderoth, Beth-Dagon, Naama and Mace-42 da; sixteen cities and their villages. Lebna, Ether, Asan, |
43.44 Jephtha, Asna, Nesib, | Ceila, Achzib and Maresa; nine 45 cities and their villages. Accaron and its towns and villages; 46 from Accaron to the sea, all the towns that lie alongside Azotus, 47 and their villages; Azotus and its towns and villages; Gaza and its towns and villages, as far as the Wadi of Egypt and the coast of the Great Sea.

48.49 In the mountain regions: Samir, Jether, Socchoth, | Dan-
50 na, Cariath-senna (that is, Dabir), | Anab, Esthemo, Anim,
51 | Gosen, Holon and Gilo; eleven cities and their villages.
52.53 Arab, Ruma, Esaan, | Janum, Beth-Thapphua, Aphec, |
54 Humta, Cariath-Arbe (that is, Hebron), and Sior; nine cities
55.56 and their villages. Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Jetta, | Jezrael, 57 Jecdaam, Zanoe, | Accain, Gabaa and Thamna; ten cities and 58 their villages. Halhul, Beth-Sur, Gedor, Mareth, Beth-Anoth 59 and Elthecon; six cities and their villages. Thecue, Ephratha (that is, Bethlehem), Phogor, Etam, Culom, Tatam, Sores, Karim, Gallim, Bether and Manocho; eleven cities and their 60 villages. Cariath-Baal (that is, Cariath-jarim) and Arabba; two cities and their villages.
61.62 In the desert: Beth-araba, Meddin, Sachacha, | Nebsan, 63 Ir-hamelah and En-gaddi; six cities and their villages. [But the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem the Judaites could not drive out; so the Jebusites dwell in Jerusalem beside the Judaites to the present day.]

16

1 The Joseph Tribes The lot that fell to the Josephites extended from the Jordan at Jericho to the waters of Jericho east of the desert; then the boundary went up from Jericho to the 2 heights at Bethel. Leaving Bethel for Luz, it crossed the ridge 3 to the border of the Archites at Ataroth, and descended westward to the border of the Jephletites, to that of Lower Beth-Horon, and to Gazer, ending thence at the sea.

4 Ephraim Within the heritage of Manasse and Ephraim, 5 sons of Joseph, | the dividing line for the heritage of the clans of the Ephraimites ran from east of Ataroth-addar to Upper 6 Beth-Horon | and thence to the sea. From Machmethath on the north, their boundary curved eastward around Thaanath-7 Silo, and continued east of it to Janoe; from there it descended to Ataroth and Naara, and skirting Jericho, it ended at the 8 Jordan. From Thapphua the boundary ran westward to the Wadi Cana and ended at the sea. This was the heritage of the 9 clans of the Ephraimites, including the villages that belonged to each city set aside for the Ephraimites within the territory of 10 the Manasseites. But they did not drive out the Chanaanites living in Gazer, who live on within Ephraim to the present day, though they have been impressed as laborers.

17

1 Manasse Now as for the lot that fell to the tribe of Manasse as the first-born of Joseph: since his eldest son, Machir, the father of Galaad, was a warrior, who had already obtained 2 Galaad and Basan, the allotment was now made to the other descendants of Manasse, the clans of Abiezer, Helec, Esriel, Sichem, Hepher and Semida, the other male children of Ma-nasse, son of Joseph.
3 Furthermore, Salphahad, son of Hepher, son of Galaad, son of Machir, son of Manasse, had had no sons, but only daughters, whose names were Mahala, Noa, Hegla, Melcha, and 4 Thersa. These presented themselves to Eleazar the priest, to Josue, son of Nun, and to the princes, saying, "The Lord commanded Moses to give us a heritage among our kinsmen." So in obedience to the command of the Lord a heritage was given 5 to each of them among their father's kinsmen. Thus ten shares fell to Manasse apart from the land of Galaad and Basan be-6 yond the Jordan, since these female descendants of Manasse received each a portion among his sons. The land of Galaad fell to the rest of the Manasseites.
7 Manasse bordered on Aser. From Machmethath near Sichem, another boundary ran southward to include the natives of En-8 Thapphua, because the district of Thapphua belonged to Ma-nasse, although Thapphua itself was an Ephraimite city on the 9 border of Manasse. This same boundary continued down to the Wadi Cana. The cities that belonged to Ephraim from among the cities in Manasse were those to the south of that wadi; thus the territory of Manasse ran north of the wadi and ended at the 10 sea. The land on the south belonged to Ephraim and that on the north to Manasse; with the sea as their common boundary, they reached Aser on the north and Issachar on the east.
11 Moreover, in Issachar and in Aser Manasse was awarded Beth-San and its towns, Jeblaam and its towns, Dor and its towns and the natives there, Endor and its towns and natives, Thaanach and its towns and natives, and Mageddo and its 12 towns and natives [the third is Naphath-Dor]. Since the Ma-nasseites could not conquer these cities, the Chanaanites per-13 sisted in this region. When the Israelites grew stronger they impressed the Chanaanites as laborers, but they did not drive them out.

14 Protest of Joseph Tribes The descendants of Joseph said to Josue, "Why have you given us only one lot and one share as our heritage? Our people are too many, because of the extent 15 to which the Lord has blessed us." Josue answered them, "If you are too many, go up to the forest and clear out a place for yourselves there in the land of the Pherezites and Raphaim, 16 since the mountain regions of Ephraim are so narrow." For the Josephites said, "Our mountain regions are not enough for us; on the other hand, the Chanaanites living in the valley region all have iron chariots, in particular those in Beth-San and its 17 towns, and those in the valley of Jezrael." Josue therefore said to Ephraim and Manasse, the house of Joseph, "You are a numerous people and very strong. You shall have not merely one 18 share, for the mountain region which is now forest shall be yours when you clear it. Its adjacent land shall also be yours if, despite their strength and iron chariots, you drive out the Chanaanites."

18

1 After they had subdued the land, the whole community of the Israelites assembled at Silo, where they set up the Meeting Tent.

2 The Seven Remaining Portions Seven tribes among the 3 Israelites had not yet received their heritage. Josue therefore said to the Israelites, "How much longer will you put off taking 4 steps to possess the land which the Lord, the God of your fathers, has given you? Choose three men from each of your tribes; I will commission them to begin a survey of the land, 5 which they shall describe for purposes of inheritance. When they return to me, you shall divide it into seven parts. Juda is to retain its territory in the south, and the house of Joseph its 6 territory in the north. You shall bring here to me the description of the land in seven sections. I will then cast lots for you here 7 before the Lord, our God. For the Levites have no share among you, because the priesthood of the Lord is their heritage; while Gad, Ruben, and the half-tribe of Manasse have already received the heritage east of the Jordan which Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave them."
8 When those who were to map out the land were ready for the journey, Josue instructed them to survey the land, prepare a description of it, and return to him; then he would cast lots 9 for them there before the Lord in Silo. So they went through the land, listed its cities in writing in seven sections, and re-10 turned to Josue in the camp at Silo. Josue then divided up the land for the Israelites into their separate shares, casting lots for them before the Lord in Silo.

11 Benjamin One lot fell to the clans of the tribe of Ben-jaminites. The territory allotted them lay between the descend-12 ants of Juda and those of Joseph. Their northern boundary began at the Jordan and went over the northern flank of Jericho, up westward into the mountains, till it reached the desert 13 of Beth-Aven. From there it crossed over to the southern flank of Luza (that is, Bethel). Then it ran down to Ataroth-addar 14 on the mountaintop south of Lower Beth-Horon. For the western border, the boundary line swung south from the mountaintop opposite Beth-Horon till it reached Cariath-Baal (that is Cariath-jarim), which city belonged to the Judaites. This was 15 the western boundary. The southern boundary began at the limits of Cariath-jarim and projected to the spring at Nephthoa 16 It went down to the edge of the mountain on the north of the valley of Raphaim, where it faces the valley of Ben-Hennom and continuing down the valley of Hennom along the southern 17 flank of the Jebusites, reached En-Rogel. Inclining to the north it extended to En-Sames, and thence to Galiloth, opposite the pass of Adommim. Then it dropped to Eben-Boen-ben-Ruben 18 across the northern flank of the Araba overlook, down into 19 the Araba. From there the boundary continued across the northern flank of Beth-Hagla and extended to the northern tip of the Salt Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan. This was the 20 southern boundary. | The Jordan bounded it on the east. This was how the heritage of the clans of the Benjaminites was bounded on all sides.

21 Now the cities belonging to the clans of the tribe of the Benjaminites, were: Jericho, Beth-Hagla, Emec-Casis, 22.23 Beth-Araba, Samaraim, Bethel, | Avvim, Phara, Ophera, 24 Chephar-Ammoni, Ophni and Geba; twelve cities and their 25.26 villages. Also Gabaon, Rama, Beroth, | Maspha, Chephira,
27.28 Mosa, | Recem, Jerphael, Tharala, | Sela, Eleph, the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gabaath and Cariath; fourteen cities and their villages. This was the heritage of the clans of Benjaminites.

19

1 Simeon | The second lot fell to Simeon. The heritage of the clans of the tribe of Simeonites lay within that of the Judaites.
2 For their heritage they received Bersabee, Sama, Molada, |
3-5 Hasar-sual, Balaa, Asem, | Eltholad, Bethul, Horma, | Sice-
6 leg, Bethmarchaboth, Hasar-Susa, | Beth-Lebaoth and Sarohen; 7 thirteen cities and their villages. Also Ain, Remmon, Ether and 8 Asan; four cities and their villages, besides all the villages around these cities as far as Baalath-Beer (that is, Ramoth-negeb). This was the heritage of the clans of the tribe of the 9 Simeonites. This heritage of the Simeonites was within the confines of the Judaites; for since the portion of the latter was too large for them, the Simeonites obtained their heritage within it.

10 Zabulon The third lot fell to the clans of the Zabulonites.
11 The limit of their heritage was at Sarid. Their boundary went up west . . . and through Marala, reaching Debbaseth and the 12 wadi that is near Jecnaam. From Sarid eastward it ran to the district of Chaseleth-Thabor, on to Dabereth, and up to Japhia.
From there it continued eastward to Geth-hepher and to Eth-14 Casin, extended to Remmon, and turned to Noa. Skirting north of Hannathon, the boundary ended at the valley of Jephthael.
15 Thus, with Cateth, Naalol, Semeron, Jedala and Bethlehem, 16 there were twelve cities and their villages | to comprise the heritage of the clans of the Zabulonites.

17 Issachar The fourth lot fell to Issachar. The territory of the 18 clans of the Issacharites | included Jesrael, Chasaloth, Sunem,
19 20 | Hapharaim, Seon, Anaharath, | Rabboth, Cesion, Abes, |
21 22 Ramoth, En-gannim and Beth-Phasses. The boundary reached Thabor, Sehesima and Beth-Sames, ending at the Jordan. These 23 sixteen cities and their villages | were the heritage of the clans of the Issacharites.

24 Aser The fifth lot fell to the clans of the tribe of the 25 Aserites. Their territory included Halcath, Chale, Beten, 26 Achsaph, | Elmelech, Amaad and Messal, and reached Carmel 27 on the west, and Sihor-Labanath. In the other direction, it ran eastward of Beth-Dagon, reached Zabulon and the valley of Jephthael; then north of Beth-Emec and Neiel, it extended 28 to Cabul, | Masal, Abdon, Rohob, Hammon and Cana, near 29 Greater Sidon. Then the boundary turned back to Rama and to the fortress city of Tyre; thence it cut back to Hosa and 30 ended at the sea. Thus, with Mahaleb, Achzib, | Amma, Aphec 31 and Rohob, there were twenty-two cities and their villages | to comprise the heritage of the clans of the tribe of the Aserites.

32 Nephthali The sixth lot fell to the Nephthalites. The bound-33 ary of the clans of the Nephthalites | extended from Heleph, from the oak at Saananim to Lecum, including Adami-Neceb 34 and Jebneel, and ended at the Jordan. In the opposite direction, westerly, it ran through Aznoth-Thabor and from there extended to Hucoc; it touched Zabulon on the south, Aser on the west, 35 and the Jordan on the east. The fortified cities were Seddim,
36 Ser, Hamath, Reccath, Chenereth, | Adama, Rama, Hasor, |

37.38 Cedes, Edrai, En-Hasor, | Jeron, Magdal-El, Horem, Beth Anath and Beth-Sames; nineteen cities and their villages, 39 to comprise the heritage of the clans of the tribe of th Nephthalites.

40 Dan The seventh lot fell to the clans of the tribe o 41 Danites. Their heritage was the territory of Saraa, Esthaol, Ir 42.43 Sames, | Saalebim, Aialon, Jethla, | Elon, Thamna, Acron
44.45 | Eltheco, Gebbethon, Baalath, | Jud, Bene-Barac, Geth
46 Remmon, | Me-Jarcon and Reccon, with the coast at Joppe 47 But the territory of the Danites was too small for them; so th Danites marched up and attacked Lesem, which they capture and put to the sword. Once they had taken possession of Lesem 48 they renamed the settlement after their ancestor Dan. Thes cities and their villages were the heritage of the clans of th tribe of the Danites.

49 Josue's City When the last of them had received the por tions of the land they were to inherit, the Israelites assigned 50 heritage in their midst to Josue, son of Nun. In obedience to th command of the Lord, they gave him the city which he re quested, Thamnath-Sare in the mountain region of Ephraim He rebuilt the city and made it his home.
51 These are the final portions into which Eleazar the priest Josue, son of Nun, and the heads of families in the tribes of th Israelites divided the land by lot in the presence of the Lord, a the door of the Meeting Tent in Silo.

20

1.2 Cities of Asylum The Lord said to Josue: "Tell the Israel ites to designate the cities of which I spoke to them through 3 Moses, to which one guilty of accidental and unintended homi 4 cide may flee for asylum from the avenger of blood. To one o these cities the killer shall flee, and standing at the entrance o the city gate, he shall plead his case before the elders, who must receive him and assign him a place in which to live among 5 them. Though the avenger of blood pursues him, they are not to deliver up the homicide who slew his fellow man unintent 6 tionally and not out of previous hatred. Once he has stood judgment before the community, he shall live on in that city till the death of the high priest who is in office at the time. Then the killer may go home to his own city from which he fled."

20, 1-6: Cities of asylum were known in many ancient countries. See Dt 19, 1-13 for more information on this institution.

7 List of Cities So they set apart Cedes in Galilee in the mountain region of Nephthali, Sichem in the mountain region of Ephraim, and Cariath-Arbe (that is, Hebron) in the moun-8 tain region of Juda. And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho they designated Bosor on the open tableland in the tribe of Ruben, Ramoth in Galaad in the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Basan in 9 the tribe of Manasse. These were the designated cities to which any Israelite or stranger living among them who had killed a person accidentally might flee to escape death at the hand of the avenger of blood, until he could appear before the community.

21

1 Levitical Cities The heads of the Levite families came up to Eleazar the priest, to Josue, son of Nun, and to the heads of 2 families of the other tribes of the Israelites | at Silo in the land of Chanaan, and said to them, "The Lord commanded, through Moses, that cities be given us to dwell in, with pasture lands 3 for our livestock." Out of their own heritage, in obedience to this command of the Lord, the Israelites gave the Levites the following cities with their pasture lands.
4 When the first lot among the Levites fell to the clans of the Caathites, the descendants of Aaron the priest obtained thirteen cities by lot from the tribes of Juda, Simeon and Benjamin.
5 The rest of the Caathites obtained ten cities by lot from the clans of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from 6 the half-tribe of Manasse. The Gersonites obtained thirteen cities by lot from the clans of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Aser, from the tribe of Nephthali, and from the half-tribe of 7 Manasse. The clans of the Merarites obtained twelve cities from 8 the tribes of Ruben, Gad and Zabulon. These cities with their pasture lands the Israelites allotted to the Levites in obedience to the Lord's command through Moses.

9 Cities of the Priests From the tribes of the Judaites and 10 Simeonites they designated the following cities, and assigned them to the descendants of Aaron in the Caathite clan of the 11 Levites, since the first lot fell to them: first, Cariath-Arbe (Arbe was the father of Enac), that is, Hebron, in the mountain 12 region of Juda, with the adjacent pasture lands, although the open country and villages belonging to the city had been given 13 to Caleb, son of Jephonne, as his property. Thus to the descendants of Aaron the priest were given the city of asylum for 21, 3ff: The Levites did not actually own the forty-eight cities, but they enjoyed certain rights in them. See Nm 35, 1-15.

homicides at Hebron, with its pasture lands; also, Lobna with 14 its pasture lands, | Jether with its pasture lands, Esthemo with 15 its pasture lands, | Holon with its pasture lands, Dabir with its 16 pasture lands, | Asan with its pasture lands, Jetta with its pasture lands, and Beth-Sames with its pasture lands: nine 17 cities from the two tribes mentioned. From the tribe of Benjamin they obtained the four cities of Gabaon with its pasture lands, 18 Gaba with its pasture lands, | Anathoth with its pasture lands, 19 and Almon with its pasture lands. These cities which with their pasture lands belonged to the priestly descendants of Aaron, were thirteen in all.

20 Cities of the Other Caathites The rest of the Caathite clans among the Levites obtained by lot, from the tribe of 21 Ephraim, four cities. They were assigned, with its pasture lands, the city of asylum for homicides at Sichem in the mountain 22 region of Ephraim; also Gazer with its pasture lands, | Cibsaim with its pasture lands, and Beth-Horon with its pasture lands.
23 From the tribe of Dan they obtained the four cities of Eltheco with its pasture lands, Gebbethon with its pasture lands, | 24 Aialon with its pasture lands, and Geth-Remmon with its 25 pasture lands; and from the half-tribe of Manasse the two cities of Thaanach with its pasture lands and Jeblaam with its 26 pasture lands. These cities which with their pasture lands belonged to the rest of the Caathite clans were ten in all.

27 Cities of the Gersonites The Gersonite clan of the Levites received from the half-tribe of Manasse two cities: the city of asylum for homicides at Golan, with its pasture lands; and also 28 Beth-Astharoth with its pasture lands. From the tribe of Issachar they obtained the four cities of Cesion with its pasture 29 lands, Dabereth with its pasture lands, | Jerimoth with its 30 pasture lands, and En-gannim with its pasture lands; from the tribe of Aser, the four cities of Messal with its pasture lands, 31 Abdon with its pasture lands, | Halcath with its pasture lands, and Rohob with its pasture lands; and from the tribe of 32 Nephthali, three cities: the city of asylum for homicides at Cedes in Galilee, with its pasture lands; also Emath with its 33 pasture lands, and Reccath with its pasture lands. These cities which with their pasture lands belonged to the Gersonite clans were thirteen in all.

34 Cities of the Merarites The Merarite clans, the last of the Levites, received from the tribe of Zabulon the four cities of Jecnaam with its pasture lands, Cartha with its pasture lands, | Remmon with its pasture lands, and Naalol with its pasture lands; also, across the Jordan, from the tribe of Ruben, four cities: the city of asylum for homicides at Bosor with its pasture lands, Jahas with its pasture lands, | Cedemoth with its pasture lands, and Mephaath with its pasture lands; and from the tribe of Gad a total of four cities: the city of asylum for homicides at Ramoth in Galaad with its pasture lands, also Mahanaim with its pasture lands, | Hesebon with its pasture lands, and Jazer with its pasture lands. The cities which were allotted to the Merarite clans, the last of the Levites, were therefore twelve in all.

Thus the total number of cities within the territory of the Israelites which, with their pasture lands, belonged to the Levites, was forty-eight. With each and every one of these cities went the pasture lands round about it.

And so the Lord gave Israel all the land he had sworn to their fathers he would give them. Once they had conquered and occupied it, the Lord gave them peace on every side, just as he had promised their fathers. Not one of their enemies could withstand them; the Lord brought all their enemies under their power. Not a single promise that the Lord made to the house of Israel was broken; every one was fulfilled.

III. RETURN OF THE TRANSJORDAN TRIBES AND JOSUE'S FAREWELL

2

The Eastern Tribes Dismissed At that time Josue summoned the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasse
| and said to them: "You have done all that Moses, the servant of the Lord, commanded you, and have obeyed every command I gave you. For many years now you have not once abandoned your kinsmen, but have faithfully carried out the commands of the Lord, your God. Since, therefore, the Lord, your God, has settled your kinsmen as he promised them, you may now return to your tents beyond the Jordan; to your own land, which Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave you. But be very careful to observe the precept and Law which Moses, the servant of the Lord, enjoined upon you: love the Lord, your God; follow him faithfully; keep his commandments; remain loyal to him; and serve him with your whole heart and soul." Josue then blessed them and sent them away to their own tents.

(For, to half the tribe of Manasse Moses had assigned land in Basan; and to the other half Josue had given a portion along with their kinsmen west of the Jordan.) What Josue said them when he sent them off to their tents with his blessing w 8 "Now that you are returning to your own tents with gre wealth, with very numerous livestock, with silver, gold, bron and iron, and with a very large supply of clothing, divide the 9 spoils of your enemies with your kinsmen there." So t Rubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasse left t other Israelites at Silo in the land of Chanaan and returned the land of Galaad, their own property, which they had receiv according to the Lord's command through Moses.

10 The Altar beside the Jordan When the Rubenites, t Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasse came to the region the Jordan in the land of Chanaan, they built there at t 11 Jordan a conspicuously large altar. The other Israelites hea the report that the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe Manasse had built an altar in the region of the Jordan faci 12 the land of Chanaan, across from them, and therefore th assembled their whole community at Silo to declare war
them.

13 Accusation of the Western Tribes First, however, th sent to the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Mana in the land of Galaad an embassy consisting of Phinees, s 14 of Eleazar the priest, | and ten princes, one from every tribe Israel, each one being both prince and military leader of 15 ancestral house. When these came to the Rubenites, the Gadit and the half-tribe of Manasse in the land of Galaad, they s 16 to them: "The whole community of the Lord sends this m sage: What act of treachery is this you have committed agai the God of Israel? You have seceded from the Lord this d 17 and rebelled against him by building an altar of your own! I the sin of Phogor, a plague came upon the community of t 18 Lord. We are still not free of that; must you now add to You are rebelling against the Lord today and by tomorrow 19 will be angry with the whole community of Israel! If y consider the land you now possess unclean, cross over to t land the Lord possesses, where the Dwelling of the Lord stan and share that with us. But do not rebel against the Lord, n involve us in rebellion, by building an altar of your own 20 addition to the altar of the Lord, our God. When Achan, s of Zara, violated the ban, did not wrath fall upon the ent

22, 20: See 7, 24-25 n.

community of Israel? Though he was but a single man, he did not perish alone for his guilt!"

11 Reply of the Eastern Tribes The Rubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasse replied to the military leaders of 22 the Israelites: "The Lord is the God of gods. The Lord, the God of gods, knows and Israel shall know. If now we have acted out of rebellion or treachery against the Lord, our God, | 23 and if we have built an altar of our own to secede from the Lord, or to offer holocausts, grain offerings or peace offerings 24 upon it, the Lord himself will exact the penalty. We did it rather out of our anxious concern lest in the future your children should say to our children: 'What have you to do with 25 the Lord, the God of Israel? For the Lord has placed the Jordan as a boundary between you and us. You descendants of Ruben and Gad have no share in the Lord.' Thus your children would 26 prevent ours from revering the Lord. So we decided to guard our interests by building this altar of our own: not for holo-27 causts or for sacrifices, but as evidence for you on behalf of ourselves and our descendants, that we have the right to worship the Lord in his presence with our holocausts, sacrifices, and peace offerings. Now in the future your children cannot say to 28 our children, 'You have no share in the Lord.' Our thought was, that if in the future they should speak thus to us or to our descendants, we could answer: 'Look at the model of the altar of the Lord which our fathers made, not for holocausts or for 29 sacrifices, but to witness between you and us.' Far be it from us to rebel against the Lord or to secede now from the Lord by building an altar for holocaust, grain offering, or sacrifice in addition to the altar of the Lord, our God, which stands before his Dwelling."

30 When Phinees the priest and the princes of the community, the military leaders of the Israelites, heard what the Rubenites, the Gadites and the Manasseites had to say, they were satisfied.
31 Phinees, son of Eleazar the priest, said to the Rubenites, the Gadites and the Manasseites, "Now we know that the Lord is with us. Since you have not committed this act of treachery against the Lord, you have kept the Israelites free from punishment by the Lord."

32 Phinees, son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes returned from the Rubenites and the Gadites in the land of Galaad to the Israelites in the land of Chanaan, and reported the matter 33 to them. The report satisfied the Israelites, who blessed God and decided against declaring war on the Rubenites and Gadites or ravaging the land they occupied.

34 The Rubenites and the Gadites gave the altar its name as witness among them that the Lord is God.

23

1 Josue's Final Plea Many years later, after the Lord ha given the Israelites rest from all their enemies round about ther 2 and when Josue was old and advanced in years, he summone all Israel (including their elders, leaders, judges and officers 3 and said to them: "I am old and advanced in years. You ha seen all that the Lord, your God, has done for you against a these nations; for it has been the Lord, your God, himself wh 4 fought for you. Bear in mind that I have apportioned amor your tribes as their heritage the nations that survive [as we as those I destroyed] between the Jordan and the Great Sea 5 the west. The Lord, your God, will drive them out and dislod them at your approach, so that you will take possession of the 6 land as the Lord, your God, promised you. Therefore stri hard to observe and carry out all that is written in the Book 7 the Law of Moses, not straying from it in any way, | or mi gling with these nations while they survive among you. Yo must not invoke their gods, or swear by them, or serve thei 8 or worship them, | but you must remain loyal to the Lord, yo 9 God, as you have been to this day. At your approach the Lo has driven out large and strong nations, and to this day no o 10 has withstood you. One of you puts to flight a thousand, becau it is the Lord, your God, himself who fights for you, as 11 promised you. Take great care, however, to love the Lord, yo 12 God. For if you ever abandon him and ally yourselves with t remnant of these nations while they survive among you, by inte 13 marrying and intermingling with them, know for certain th the Lord, your God, will no longer drive these nations out your way. Instead they will be a snare and a trap for you, scourge for your sides and thorns for your eyes, until you peri from this good land which the Lord, your God, has given yo 14 "Today, as you see, I am going the way of all men. So nc acknowledge with your whole heart and soul that not one all the promises the Lord, your God, made to you has remain unfulfilled. Every promise has been fulfilled for you, with n 15 one single exception. But just as every promise the Lord, yo God, made to you has been fulfilled for you, so will he full 23—24: These two chapters are two conclusions to the Book of Jos ch. 24 being the older conclusion.

23, 12-16: See Introduction to the Book of Josue for the Deuteronom theme.

every threat, even so far as to exterminate you from this good 6 land which the Lord, your God, has given you. If you transgress the covenant of the Lord, your God, which he enjoined on you, serve other gods and worship them, the anger of the Lord will flare up against you and you will quickly perish from the good land which he has given you."

24 1 Reminder of the Divine Goodness Josue gathered together all the tribes of Israel at Sichem, summoning their elders, their leaders, their judges and their officers. When they stood 2 in ranks before God, | Josue addressed all the people: "Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: In times past your fathers, down to Thare, father of Abraham and Nahor, dwelt beyond 3 the River and served other gods. But I brought your father Abraham from the region beyond the River and led him through the entire land of Chanaan. I made his descendants numerous,
4 and gave him Isaac. | To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau
I assigned the mountain region of Seir in which to settle, while Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.
5 "Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and smote Egypt with the 6 prodigies which I wrought in her midst. Afterward I led you out of Egypt, and when you reached the sea, the Egyptians pursued your fathers to the Red Sea with chariots and horse-7 men. Because they cried out to the Lord, he put darkness between your people and the Egyptians, upon whom he brought the sea so that it engulfed them. After you witnessed what I 8 did to Egypt, and dwelt a long time in the desert, I brought you into the land of the Amorrites who lived east of the Jordan.
They fought against you, but I delivered them into your power.
You took possession of their land, and I destroyed them [the 9 two kings of the Amorrites] before you. Then Balac, son of Sepphor, king of Moab, prepared to war against Israel. He 10 summoned Balaam, son of Beor, to curse you; but I would not listen to Balaam. On the contrary, he had to bless you and I 11 saved you from him. Once you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho, the men of Jericho fought against you, but I delivered 12 them also into your power. And I sent the hornets ahead of you which drove them [the Amorrites, Pherezites, Chanaanites, 24, 2-15: This may be an oratorical development of an ancient profession of faith as found in Dt 6, 21-24 and Dt 26, 3-9. This oratorical development appears in about eight other places in the Bible. Its literary structure is a history of Israel adapted to the occasion, ending with a prayer, a lesson, or a call to faith.

24, 12: Hornets: affliction.

Hethites, Gergesites, Hevites and Jebusites] out of your way it was not your sword or your bow.
13 "I gave you a land which you had not tilled and citi which you had not built, to dwell in; you have eaten of vin yards and olive groves which you did not plant.
14 "Now, therefore, fear the Lord and serve him complete and sincerely. Cast out the gods your fathers served beyond th 15 River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. If it does not please yo to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve, the go your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amo rites in whose country you are dwelling. As for me and m household, we will serve the Lord."

16 Renewal of the Covenant But the people answered, "F be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other god 17 For it was the Lord, our God, who brought us and our fathe up out of the land of Egypt, out of a state of slavery. He pe formed those great miracles before our very eyes and protecte us along our entire journey and among all the peoples throu 18 whom we passed. At our approach the Lord drove out [all th peoples, including] the Amorrites who dwelt in the land. Ther fore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God." 19 Josue in turn said to the people, "You may not be able serve the Lord, for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God wh 20 will not forgive your transgressions or your sins. If, after t good he has done for you, you forsake the Lord and ser strange gods, he will do evil to you and destroy you." 21 But the people answered Josue, "We will still serve the Lord 22 Josue therefore said to the people, "You are your own witness that you have chosen to serve the Lord." They replied, "We ar 23 indeed!" | "Now, therefore, put away the strange gods that a among you and turn your hearts to the Lord, the God of Israel 24 Then the people promised Josue, "We will serve the Lord, o God, and obey his voice."
25 So Josue made a covenant with the people that day and ma 26 statutes and ordinances for them at Sichem, which he record in the Book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone an set it up there under the oak that was in the sanctuary of t

24, 14: The River: a frequent biblical reference to the Euphrat River in present-day Iraq.

24, 15: The gods your fathers served: Abraham's ancestors we polytheists. Beyond the River: east of the Euphrates.

24, 16-28: The renewal of the Covenant seems to follow the patte of the Hittite suzerainty (sovereignty) treaty which was in vogue the second millennium.

Lord. And Josue said to all the people, "This stone shall be our witness, for it has heard all the words which the Lord spoke to us. It shall be a witness against you, should you wish to deny your God." Then Josue dismissed the people, each to his own heritage.

Death of Josue After these events Josue, son of Nun, servant of the Lord, died at the age of a hundred and ten. He was buried within the limits of his heritage at Thamnath-Sare in the mountain region of Ephraim north of Mount Gaas. Israel served the Lord during the entire lifetime of Josue and that of the elders who outlived Josue and knew all that the Lord had done for Israel. The bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried in Sichem in the plot of ground Jacob had bought from the sons of Hemor, father of Sichem, for a hundred pieces of money. This was a heritage of the descendants of Joseph. When Eleazar, son of Aaron, also died, he was buried on the hill which had been given to his son Phinees in the mountain region of Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Judges unfolds the epic stories of twelve patriotic hero whom God inspired to save the people from danger. The judges wh are treated more in detail are called major judges; those mentioned i brief are called minor judges. There are six of each class. The deliverers were hardly magistrates, much less saints. They lived betwee 1200 and 1025 B.C., i.e., from the death of Josue to the birth of Samue A mathematical count of all the dates given in the book would sum u to 400 years. Since they are often round numbers, and for other reason scholars rely on other biblical and secular data for a chronology of t book.

The Deuteronomic theme of temporal reward and punishment in th book is expressed in a historical rhythmic cycle: disobedience to t Covenant, oppression by the enemy; repentance, and a victorious deli erance. With consummate pedagogy, God inspired writers to interpr history this way. Jgs 2, 11-19 expresses this cycle in words; Jgs 3— expresses it in action through the lives of the judges. Consequently, t method of writing this meditated or theologically interpreted history about the same as that of Josue. (See Introduction to the Book of Josue

Socially, the Israelites were in a stage of transition. They were aba doning the tents of the semi-nomadic life for the permanent dwellin of a semi-sedentary life and an agricultural life. These were the nec sary stages before becoming a monarchical nation.

Politically, the Promised Land of Chanaan was far from conquer The twelve tribes, living as a loose confederacy, were settled in Tra jordan, Galilee, central Palestine, and south of Jerusalem. The rest the land was mostly in the hands of the Chanaanites and Philistin Many big cities, e.g., Jerusalem, were occupied by the Chanaanites, t mountainous regions were held by the invaders, the Israelites. T allotment of the land to the twelve tribes in The Book of Josue w often theoretical because the Chanaanites remained entrenched the

The Israelite judges were not leaders of the united nation, but or of variant parts. They often fought among themselves, and only some them would group together to fight against an enemy. The nati Chanaanites and the newly arrived Philistines (the monopolizers iron) were the greatest enemies from among the Moabites, the Amm ites, and the Madianites. At this time Egypt, Assyria, and Babyl were not fighting among themselves to possess the land of Chana Religiously, the Israelites were strongly attracted by the lecher idolatrous rites of the sophisticated Chanaanite fertility cult to the g Baal. Although Yahwism was "Chanaanized," i.e., fused with Chanaan religion to some extent, the nation, especially the elite of it, remain faithful to the Covenant. Levites, Nazirites, and Prophets did much preserve the true religion. Silo was Israel's national shrine, which u fied the people religiously by the Ark of the Covenant, the symbol the Sinai Covenant. For this reason, the federacy of the tribes is oft called an "amphictyony" (a Greek term used to describe a group communities united by a common shrine). In spite of the many grievous immoral crimes that were committed, faith in Yahweh was at the rock bottom of the life of the judges as even Heb 11, 32-34 attest.

The composition of The Book of Judges by many authors and perhaps by five editors took about eight hundred years. It began in the twelfth century B.C., from oral traditions of scattered heroic deeds, and ended perhaps in the fifth century B.C. with a final edition. Therefore, as with many Old Testament books, Judges is the work of an inspired tradition, not of a single author.

Main divisions of the Book of Judges are:

1. Palestine after the Death of Josue, 1, 1—3, 6
2. Stories of the Judges, 3, 7—16, 31
3. The Tribes of Dan and Benjamin in the Days of the Judges, 17, 1—21, 25

I. PALESTINE AFTER THE DEATH OF JOSUE

1

1 Pagan Survivors in Palestine After the death of Josue the Israelites consulted the Lord, asking, "Who shall be first among us to attack the Chanaanites and to do battle with 2 them?" The Lord answered, "Juda shall attack: I have delivered 3 the land into his power." Juda then said to his brother Simeon, "Come up with me into the territory allotted to me, and let us engage the Chanaanites in battle. I will likewise accompany you into the territory allotted to you." So Simeon went with him.

4 When the forces of Juda attacked, the Lord delivered the Chanaanites and Pherezites into their power, and they slew ten 5 thousand of them in Bezec. It was in Bezec that they came upon Adonibezec and fought against him. When they defeated the 6 Chanaanites and Pherezites, | Adonibezec fled. They set out in pursuit, and when they caught him, cut off his thumbs and

---

1, 1—2, 5: This is an overall view of the slow occupation of Chanaan after Josue's death when each tribe tried to conquer its allotted land. Sometimes it was a hopeless endeavor. The favorite role of Juda (vv. 1-2, 18-19) forecasts Juda's future glory as the tribe from which David's dynasty will come.

1, 1: The consultation of the Lord was often carried out through the Thummim and Urim. See Lv 8, 8 n.

1, 3: Juda: . . . Simeon: frequently the tribes are personified by the names of their ancestors.

1, 4: Pherezites: a non-Semitic people who may be connected with the Hittites.

1, 6: This cruel mutilation, common in antiquity, prevents a warrior from using his bow and spear.

his big toes. At this Adonibezec said, "Seventy kings, with their thumbs and big toes cut off, used to pick up scraps under my table. As I have done, so has God repaid me." He was brought to Jerusalem, and there he died. [The Judaites fought against Jerusalem and captured it, putting it to the sword; then they destroyed the city by fire.] Afterward the Judaites went down to fight against the Chanaanites who lived in the mountain region, in the Negeb and in the foothills. Juda also marched against the Chanaanites who dwelt in Hebron, which was formerly called Cariath Arbe, and defeated Sesai, Ahiman and Tholmai. From there they marched against the inhabitants of Dabir, which was formerly called Cariath-sepher. And Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Achsa in marriage to the one who attacks Cariath sepher and captures it." Othoniel, son of Caleb's younger brother Cenez, captured it; so Caleb gave him his daughter Achsa in marriage. On the day of her marriage to Othoniel she induced him to ask her father for some land. Then, as she alighted from the ass, Caleb asked her, "What is troubling you?" | "Give me an additional gift," she answered. "Since you have assigned land in the Negeb to me, give me also pools of water." So Caleb gave her the upper and the lower pool. The descendants of the Cinite, Moses' father-in-law, came up with the Judaites from the city of palms to the desert at Arad [which is in the Negeb]
But they later left and settled among the Amalecites.
Juda then went with his brother Simeon, and they defeated the Chanaanites who dwelt in Sephath. After having doomed the city to destruction, they renamed it Horma. Juda, however did not occupy Gaza with its territory, Ascalon with its territory, or Accaron with its territory. Since the Lord was with Juda, he gained possession of the mountain region. Yet he could not dislodge those who lived on the plain, because they had iron chariots. As Moses had commanded, Hebron was given to Caleb, who then drove from it the three sons of Enac.
The Benjaminites did not dislodge the Jebusites who dwelt in Jerusalem, with the result that the Jebusites live in Jerusalem beside the Benjaminites to the present day.
The house of Joseph, too, marched up against Bethel, and the Lord was with them. The house of Joseph had a reconnaissance made of Bethel, which formerly was called Luza. The scouts saw a man coming out of the city and said to him, "Show

1, 19: Iron chariots: the first mention of them in the Bible (see 4, 13) 1, 21: Even after king David conquered Jerusalem the Jebusite continued to live there.

25 us a way into the city, and we will spare you." He showed them a way into the city, which they then put to the sword; 26 but they let the man and his whole clan go free. He then went to the land of the Hethites, where he built a city and called it Luza, as it is still called.
27 Manasse did not take possession of Beth-San with its towns or of Thaanach with its towns. Neither did he dislodge the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, those of Jeblaam and its towns, or those of Mageddo and its towns. The Chanaanites kept their 28 hold in this district. When the Israelites grew stronger, they impressed the Chanaanites as laborers, but did not drive them 29 out. Similarly, the Ephraimites did not drive out the Chanaanites living in Gezer, and so the Chanaanites live in Gezer in their midst.
30 Zabulon did not dislodge the inhabitants of Cetron or those of Naalol; the Chanaanites live among them, but have become forced laborers.
31 Nor did Aser drive out the inhabitants of Accho or those of Sidon, or take possession of Mahaleb, Achzib, Helba, Aphec 32 or Rohob. The Aserites live among the Chanaanite natives of the land, whom they have not dislodged.
33 Nephthali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-Sames or those of Beth-Anath, and so they live among the Chanaanite natives of the land. However, the inhabitants of Beth-Sames and Beth-Anath have become forced laborers for them.
34 The Amorrites hemmed in the Danites in the mountain re-35 gion, not permitting them to go down into the plain. The 35 Amorrites had a firm hold in Har-Hares, Aialon and Saalebim, but as the house of Joseph gained the upper hand, they were impressed as laborers.
36 The territory of the Amorrites extended from the Acrabbim pass to Sela and beyond.

2

1 Infidelities of the Israelites An angel of the Lord went up from Galgal to Bochim and said, "It was I who brought

2, 1-4: The angel of the Lord: the angel sent by God to lead the people to the Promised Land (Ex 23, 20-23; 33, 2) is presented as Yahweh's double.

Many scholars believe that often the texts which couple the angel of the Lord with God were first written with only "the Lord." Later, lest God appear too human, the "angel" was added to carry out human activity for God. However, after the exile, the Bible makes a clearer distinction than in the text here between God and the angel whom He you up from Egypt and led you into the land which I promised on oath to your fathers. I said that I would never break

2 my convenant with you, | but that you were not to make a pact with the inhabitants of this land, and you were to pull down their altars. Yet you have not obeyed me. What did you
3 mean by this? | For now I tell you, I will not clear them out of your way; they shall oppose you and their gods shall become a snare for you."
4 When the angel of the Lord had made these threats to all 5 the Israelites, the people wept aloud; and so that place came to be called Bochim. They offered sacrifice there to the Lord.
6 When Josue dismissed the people, each Israelite went to take 7 possession of his own hereditary land. The people served the Lord during the entire lifetime of Josue, and of those elders who outlived Josue and who had seen all the great work which the 8 Lord had done for Israel. Josue, son of Nun, the servant of the 9 Lord, was a hundred and ten years old when he died; and they buried him within the borders of his heritage at Thamnath-Sare in the mountain region of Ephraim north of Mount Gaas.
10 But once the rest of that generation were gathered to their fathers, and a later generation arose that did not know the 11 Lord, or what he had done for Israel, | the Israelites offended 12 the Lord by serving the Baals. Abandoning the Lord, the God of their fathers, who had led them out of the land of Egypt, they followed the other gods of the various nations around them, and by their worship of these gods provoked the Lord.
13 Because they had thus abandoned him and served Baal and 14 the Astharthes, the anger of the Lord flared up against Israel, and he delivered them over to plunderers who despoiled them. He allowed them to fall into the power of their enemies round 15 about whom they were no longer able to withstand. Whatever they undertook, the Lord turned into disaster for them, as in his warning he had sworn he would do, till they were in great 16 distress. Even when the Lord raised up judges to deliver them
17 from the power of their despoilers, | they did not listen to their judges, but abandoned themselves to the worship of other gods. They were quick to stray from the way their fathers had taken, and did not follow their example of obedience to the command-18 ments of the Lord. Whenever the Lord raised up judges for them, he would be with the judge and save them from the power of their enemies as long as the judge lived; it was thus the Lord took pity on their distressful cries of affliction under

2, 11-19: These verses express the Deuteronomic theme. See Introduction to the Book of Judges.

19 their oppressors. But when the judge died, they would relapse and do worse than their fathers, following other gods in service and worship, relinquishing none of their evil practices or stubborn conduct.
20 In his anger toward Israel the Lord said, "Inasmuch as this nation has violated my covenant which I enjoined on their fa-21 thers, and has disobeyed me, | I for my part will not clear away for them any more of the nations which Josue left when he 22 died." Through these nations the Israelites were to be made to prove whether or not they would keep to the way of the Lord 23 and continue in it as their fathers had done; therefore the Lord allowed them to remain instead of expelling them immediately, or delivering them into the power of Israel.

3

1 The following are the nations which the Lord allowed to remain, so that through them he might try all those Israelites who 2 had no experience of the battles with Chanaan [just to instruct, by training them in battle, those generations only of the Israel-3 ites who would not have had that previous experience]: the five lords of the Philistines; and all the Chanaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hevites who dwell in the mountain region of Lebanon between Baal-Hermon and the entrance to Hamath.
4 These served to put Israel to the test, to determine whether they would obey the commandments the Lord had enjoined on their 5 fathers through Moses. Besides, the Israelites were living among the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorrites, Pherezites, Hevites and 6 Jebusites. In fact, they took their daughters in marriage, and gave their own daughters to their sons in marriage, and served their gods.

II. STORIES OF THE JUDGES

7 Othoniel Because the Israelites had offended the Lord by forgetting the Lord, their God, and serving the Baals and the 8 Asheras, the anger of the Lord flared up against them, and he

3, 7-11: About all that can be salvaged from this obscure passage is probably that a king (from what is now southern Turkey and northern Syria) was defeated in the twelfth century B.C. The Baals and the Asheras (v. 7) are the male and female Chanaanite divinities of fertility. The spirit of the Lord came upon him: this "charism" constituted a judge or a "charismatic" leader. The charism (v. 10) was a gift from God which suddenly gave energy above one's natural ability together with prudence and ingenuity. Forty years: this figure (v. 10) is a stereotyped round number which will reappear three more times in Judges.

allowed them to fall into the power of Chusan-Rasathaim, king of Aram Naharaim, whom they served for eight years.
9 But when the Israelites cried out to the Lord, he raised up for them a savior, Othoniel, son of Caleb's younger brother Cenez, 10 who rescued them. The spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel. When he went out to war, the Lord delivered Chusan-Rasathaim, king of Aram, into his power, so that he 11 made him subject. The land then was at rest for forty years, until Othoniel, son of Cenez, died.

12 Aod Again the Israelites offended the Lord, who because of 13 this offense strengthened Eglon, king of Moab, against Israel.
In alliance with the Ammonites and Amalecites, he attacked 14 and defeated Israel, taking possession of the city of palms. The Israelites then served Eglon, king of Moab, for eighteen years.
15 But when the Israelites cried out to the Lord, he raised up for them a savior, the Benjaminite Aod, son of Gera, who was left-handed. It was by him that the Israelites sent their tribute 16 to Eglon, king of Moab. Aod made himself a two-edged dagger a foot long, and wore it under his clothes over his right thigh.
17 He presented the tribute to Eglon, king of Moab, who was very 18 fat, | and after the presentation went off with the tribute 19 bearers. He returned, however, from where the idols are, near Galgal, and said, "I have a private message for you, O king."
And the king said, "Silence!" Then when all his attendants had 20 left his presence, and Aod went in to him where he sat alone in his cool upper room, Aod said, "I have a message from God 21 for you." So the king rose from his chair, | and then Aod with his left hand drew the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust 22 it into Eglon's belly. The hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade because he did not withdraw the dagger from his body.
23 Then Aod went out into the hall, shutting the doors of the 24 upper room on him and locking them. When Aod had left and the servants came, they saw that the doors of the upper room were locked, and thought, "He must be easing himself in the 25 cool chamber." They waited until they finally grew suspicious.
Since he did not open the doors of the upper room, they took the key and opened them. There on the floor, dead, lay their lord!
26 During their delay Aod made good his escape and, passing 27 the idols, took refuge in Seira. On his arrival he sounded the horn in the mountain region of Ephraim, and the Israelites 28 went down from the mountains with him as their leader. "Follow me," he said to them, "for the Lord has delivered your

© Copyright 1984 by Map Projects, Inc.

enemies the Moabites into your power." So they followed hi down and seized the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, pe 29 mitting no one to cross. On that occasion they slew about te thousand Moabites, all of them strong and valiant men. Not 30 man escaped. | Thus was Moab brought under the power Israel at that time; and the land had rest for eighty years.

31 Samgar After him there was Samgar, son of Anath, wh slew six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad. He, too, rescue Israel.

4

1 Debora and Barac After Aod's death, however, the Israe 2 ites again offended the Lord. So the Lord allowed them to fa into the power of the Chanaanite king, Jabin, who reigned i Hasor. The general of his army was Sisara, who dwelt i 3 Haroseth-Goim. But the Israelites cried out to the Lord; fo with his nine hundred iron chariots he sorely oppressed th Israelites for twenty years.
4 At this time the prophetess Debora, wife of Laphidoth, wa 5 judging Israel. She used to sit under Debora's palm tree situated between Rama and Bethel in the mountain region o Ephraim, and there the Israelites came up to her for judgment 6 She sent and summoned Barac, son of Abinoem, from Cedes o Nephthali. "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, com mands," she said to him; "go, march on Mount Thabor, and 7 take with you ten thousand Nephthalites and Zabulonites. will lead Sisara, the general of Jabin's army, out to you at the Wadi Cison, together with his chariots and troops, and will de-8 liver them into your power." But Barac answered her, "If you come with me, I will go; if you do not come with me, I will not 9 go." "I will certainly go with you," she replied, "but you shall not gain the glory in the expedition on which you are setting out, for the Lord will have Sisara fall into the power of a woman." So Debora joined Barac and journeyed with him to Cedes.
10 Barac summoned Zabulon and Nephthali to Cedes, and ten

3, 31: Oxgoad: an instrument with a metal tip.

4, 2: King: Chanaan was never politically united under one king. Jabin was a local ruler of Hasor, one of Galilee's most important cities. Excavations, begun in 1955, confirm that Hasor was destroyed in Josue's time. It is not clear for scholars how this squares with the account of Josue defeating Jabin of Hasor (Jos 11, 1-15).

4, 6: Mount Thabor: the traditional site of Our Lord's transfiguration in Galilee.

thousand men followed him. Debora also went up with him.
11 Now the Cinite Heber had detached himself from his own people, the descendants of Hobab, Moses' brother-in-law, and had pitched his tent by the terebinth of Saananim, which was near Cedes.
12 It was reported to Sisara that Barac, son of Abinoem, had 13 gone up to Mount Thabor. So Sisara assembled from Haroseth-Goim at the Wadi Cison all nine hundred of his iron chariots 14 and all his forces. Debora then said to Barac. "Be off, for this is the day on which the Lord has delivered Sisara into your power. The Lord marches before you." So Barac went down 15 Mount Thabor, followed by his ten thousand men. And the Lord put Sisara and all his chariots and all his forces to rout before Barac. Sisara himself dismounted from his chariot and 16 fled on foot. Barac, however, pursued the chariots and the army as far as Haroseth-Goim. The entire army of Sisara fell beneath the sword, not even one man surviving.
17 Sisara, in the meantime, had fled on foot to the tent of Jahel, wife of the Cinite Heber, since Jabin, king of Hasor, and the 18 family of the Cinite Heber were at peace with one another. Jahel went out to meet Sisara and said to him, "Come in, my lord, come in with me; do not be afraid." So he went into her tent, 19 and she covered him with a rug. He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink. I am thirsty." But she opened a jug 20 of milk for him to drink, and then covered him over. "Stand at the entrance of the tent," he said to her. "If anyone comes and 21 asks, 'Is there someone here?' say, 'No!' " Instead Jahel, wife of Heber, got a tent peg and took a mallet in her hand. While Sisara was sound asleep, she stealthily approached him and drove the peg through his temple down into the ground, so that 22 he perished in death. Then when Barac came in pursuit of Sisara, Jahel went out to meet him and said to him, "Come, I will show you the man you seek." So he went in with her, and there lay Sisara dead, with the tent peg through his temple.
23 Thus on that day God humbled the Chanaanite king, Jabin, 24 before the Israelites; their power weighed ever heavier upon him, till at length they destroyed the Chanaanite king, Jabin.

5

1 Canticle of Debora On that day Debora [and Barac, son 2 of Abinoem,] sang this song: | Of chiefs who took the lead in Israel, of noble deeds by the people who bless the Lord,

5, 1-31: The song of Debora, the Old Testament's Joan of Arc, says in poetry what ch. 4 says in prose. Ch. 5 is not only older than ch. 4, 3 Hear, O kings! Give ear, O princes! I to the Lord will sin my song, my hymn to the Lord, the God of Israel.

4 O Lord, when you went out from Seir, when you marche from the land of Edom, the earth quaked and the heavens wei 5 shaken, while the clouds sent down showers. | Mountains trem bled in the presence of the Lord: [This is Sinai.] in the pre ence of the Lord, the God of Israel.
6 In the days of Samgar, son of Anath, in the days of slaver caravans ceased; those who traveled the roads went by round 7 about paths. | Gone was freedom beyond the walls, gone indee from Israel.
8 When I, Debora, rose, when I rose, a mother in Israel, | nev gods were their choice; then the war was at their gates. Not shield could be seen, nor a lance, among forty thousand i Israel!
9 My heart is with the leaders of Israel, nobles of the peopl 10 who bless the Lord; | they who ride on white asses, seated or 11 saddlecloths as they go their way; | sing of them to the strain of the harpers at the wells, where men recount the just deed of the Lord, his just deeds that brought freedom to Israel.
12 Awake, awake, Debora! awake, awake, strike up a song Strength! arise, Barac, make despoilers your spoil, son of Abin 13 oem. | Then down came the fugitives with the mighty, the people of the Lord came down for me as warriors.
14 From Ephraim, princes were in the valley; behind you wa Benjamin, among your troops. From Machir came down com manders, and from Zabulon wielders of the marshal's staff 15 | With Debora were the princes of Issachar; Barac, too, was in the valley, his course unchecked.
Among the clans of Ruben great were the searchings of 16 heart. | Why do you stay beside your hearths listening to the lowing of the herds? Among the clans of Ruben great were the searchings of heart!

---

but it is generally considered to be contemporaneous with the events it describes, and the oldest extensive piece of Hebrew literature. (See Ex 15, 1-21 n.) In this triumphal ode, victory is attributed to Yahweh, the national God, not to Debora. The ode illustrates how keenly Yahweh united the tribes. The astonishing facet of this poem is that Israel, so young and bellicose, and so given to the fear of God, was also able to experience and express such a deep sentiment of the love of God. Many believe that Debora did not compose this poem, for v. 12 invokes her. The pages of the Old Testament re-echo this victory song of northern Israel.

5, 4: From Seir: in poetry it means Sinai. The ancient Israelites thought of Yahweh living especially at Sinai because He made the Covenant there.

17 Galaad, beyond the Jordan, rests; why does Dan spend his time in ships? Aser, who dwells along the shore, is resting in his 18 coves. | Zabulon is the people defying death; Nephthali, too, on the open heights!
19 The kings came and fought; then they fought, those kings of Chanaan, at Thaanach by the waters of Mageddo; no silver 20 booty did they take. | From the heavens the stars, too, fought;
from their courses they fought against Sisara.
21 The Wadi Cison swept them away; a wadi . . . , the Cison.
22 | Then the hoofs of the horses pounded, with the dashing, dashing of his steeds.
23 "Curse Meroz," says the Lord, "hurl a curse at its inhabitants! For they came not to my help, as warriors to the help of the Lord."
24 Blessed among women be Jahel, blessed among tent-dwelling
25 women. | He asked for water, she gave him milk; in a princely 26 bowl she offered curds. | With her left hand she reached for the peg, with her right, for the workman's mallet.
She hammered Sisara, crushed his head; she smashed, stove 27 in his temple. | At her feet he sank down, fell, lay still; down at her feet he sank and fell; where he sank down, there he fell, slain.
28 From the window peered down and wailed the mother of Sisara, from the lattice: "Why is his chariot so long in coming?
29 why are the hoofbeats of his chariots delayed?" | The wisest of her princesses answers her, and she, too, keeps answering herself:
30 "They must be dividing the spoil they took: there must be a damsel or two for each man, spoils of dyed cloth as Sisara's spoil, an ornate shawl or two for me in the spoil." 31 May all your enemies perish thus, O Lord! but your friends be as the sun rising in its might!
And the land was at rest for forty years.

6

1 The Call of Gedeon The Israelites offended the Lord, who therefore delivered them into the power of Madian for 5, 20: The poetic harmony of nature with the affairs of men is a characteristic theme found in the Bible and in Homer.

5, 21: The overflowing waters of the Cison bogged down the Chanaanite chariots in swampy terrain.

5, 28: Compare Darius' wife in The Persians, by Aeschylus.

5, 31: The Israelites considered their enemies to be, by the same token, God's enemies since they were His chosen people. This thinking underlies the numerous statements similar to this verse.

seven years, | so that Madian held Israel subject. For fear o Madian the Israelites established the fire signals on the mour tains, the caves for refuge, and the strongholds. And it used t be that when the Israelites had completed their sowing, Madiar Amalec and the Cedemites would come up, | encamp opposit them, and destroy the produce of the land as far as the outskirt of Gaza, leaving no sustenance in Israel, nor sheep, oxen o asses. For they would come up with their livestock, and thei tents would become as numerous as locusts; and neither the nor their camels could be numbered, when they came into th land to lay it waste. Thus was Israel reduced to misery b Madian, and so the Israelites cried out to the Lord.
When Israel cried out to the Lord because of Madian, he sent a prophet to the Israelites who said to them, "The Lord the God of Israel, says: I led you up from Egypt; I brought you out of the place of slavery. I rescued you from the power o Egypt and of all your other oppressors. I drove them out before you and gave you their land. And I said to you: I, the Lord, am your God; you shall not venerate the gods of the Amorrites in whose land you are dwelling. But you did not obey me." Then the angel of the Lord came and sat under the terebinth in Ephra that belonged to Joas the Abiezerite. While his son Gedeon was beating out wheat in the wine press to save it from the Madianites, the angel of the Lord appeared to him and said,
"The Lord is with you, O champion!" "My lord," Gedeon said to him, "if the Lord is with us, why has all this happened to us?
Where are his wondrous deeds of which our fathers told us when they said, 'Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt?' For now the Lord has abandoned us and has delivered us into the power of Madian." The Lord turned to him and said, "Go with the strength you have and save Israel from the power of Madian. It is I who send you." | But he answered him, "Please, my lord, how can I save Israel? My family is the meanest in Manasse, and I am the most insignificant in my father's house."

6—8: These three chapters on the story of Gedeon come from two or three documents originating most probably from northern Israel.

6, 1-6: The Israelites were now settled farmers. Their harvest was therefore an easy prey to camel-riding, nomadic raiders from the desert, the first mentioned in an historical writing (v. 5).

The account of the extermination of the Madianites by Moses in Nm 31, 1-12, refers only to some of the Madianite clans. An editor after Gedeon's time may have exaggerated the slaughter during the victorious campaign against the Madianites (Nm 31).

6, 11-24: The "angel of the Lord" is the Lord Himself. See 2, 1-4 n; Jos 5, 13-15 n.

6, 12: The same greeting is found in Ru 2, 4; Lk 1, 28.

16 "I shall be with you," the Lord said to him, "and you will cut 17 down Madian to the last man." | He answered him, "If I find favor with you, give me a sign that you are speaking with me.
18 Do not depart from here, I pray you, until I come back to you and bring out my offering and set it before you." He answered, "I will await your return."
19 So Gedeon went off and prepared a kid and an epha of flour in the form of unleavened cakes. Putting the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, he brought them out to him under the 20 terebinth and presented them. The angel of God said to him,
"Take the meat and unleavened cakes and lay them on this rock; 21 then pour out the broth." When he had done so, the angel of the Lord stretched out the tip of the staff he held, and touched the meat and unleavened cakes. Thereupon a fire came up from the rock which consumed the meat and unleavened cakes, and the 22 angel of the Lord disappeared from sight. Gedeon, now aware that it had been the angel of the Lord, said, "Alas, Lord God, 23 that I have seen the angel of the Lord face to face!" The Lord 24 answered him, "Be calm, do not fear. You shall not die." So Gedeon built there an altar to the Lord and called it Yahweh-Salom. To this day it is still in Ephra of the Abiezerites.
25 That same night the Lord said to him, "Take the seven-year-old spare bullock and destroy your father's altar to Baal and 26 cut down the sacred pole that is by it. You shall build, instead, the proper kind of altar to the Lord, your God, on top of this stronghold. Then take the spare bullock and offer it as a holocaust on the wood from the sacred pole you have cut down." 27 So Gedeon took ten of his servants and did as the Lord had commanded him. But through fear of his family and of the townspeople, he would not do it by day, but did it at night.
28 Early the next morning the townspeople found that the altar of Baal had been destroyed, the sacred pole near it cut down, and 29 the spare bullock offered on the altar that was built. They asked one another, "Who did this?" Their inquiry led them to the con-30 clusion that Gedeon, son of Joas, had done it. So the townspeople said to Joas, "Bring out your son that he may die, for he has destroyed the altar of Baal and has cut down the sacred 31 pole that was near it." But Joas replied to all who were standing

---

6, 19: Epha: about forty-five pounds.
6, 23: See 13, 22, and Gn 32, 31b n.
6, 24: The law of only one sanctuary is not observed as commanded n Dt 12, 4-7 n.
6, 27: Fear of his family: part of the family believed in Baal not Yahweh.
6, 31: Joas apparently is losing belief in Baal, because if Baal is truly around him, "Do you intend to act in Baal's stead, or be h champion? If anyone acts for him, he shall be put to death h morning. If he whose altar has been destroyed is a god, let hir 32 act for himself!" So on that day Gedeon was called Jerobbaa because of the words, "Let Baal take action against him, sinc he destroyed his altar."

33 Then all Madian and Amalec and the Cedemites mustere and crossed over into the valley of Jezrael, where they en 34 camped. The spirit of the Lord enveloped Gedeon; he blew th 35 horn that summoned Abiezer to follow him. He sent messengers too, throughout Manasse, which also obeyed his summons through Aser, Zabulon and Nephthali, likewise, he sent mes 36 sengers and these tribes advanced to meet the others. Gedeon said to God, "If indeed you are going to save Israel through 37 me, as you promised, | I am putting this woolen fleece on th threshing floor. If dew comes on the fleece alone, while all th ground is dry, I shall know that you will save Israel through 38 me, as you promised." | That is what took place. Early th next morning he wrung the dew from the fleece, squeezing ou 39 of it a bowlful of water. Gedeon then said to God, "Do not b angry with me if I speak once more. Let me make just one more test with the fleece. Let the fleece alone be dry, but let there be 40 dew on all the ground." That night God did so; the fleece alone was dry, but there was dew on all the ground.

7

1 Defeat of Madian Early the next morning Jerobbaal (that is, Gedeon) encamped by En-Harad with all his soldiers. The camp of Madian was in the valley north of Gabaath-Ham-2 more. The Lord said to Gedeon, "You have too many soldiers with you for me to deliver Madian into their power, lest Israel vaunt itself against me and say, 'My own power brought me the 3 victory.' Now proclaim to all the soldiers, 'If anyone is afraid or fearful, let him leave.' " When Gedeon put them to this test on the mountain, twenty-two thousand of the soldiers left, but 4 ten thousand remained. The Lord said to Gedeon, "There are a god, then Baal not the people should punish his son Gedeon. If anyone . . . by morning: some believe that this must be deleted here because it does not belong in the original text.

---

6, 34: The spirit of the Lord enveloped: see 3, 7-11 n for "the spirit of the Lord came upon him."

6, 36-40: Many commentators believe that the sacred author is here speaking of a true miracle.

7, 4-7: This was not a test to separate the brave soldiers from the cowards.

still too many soldiers. Lead them down to the water and I will test them for you there. If I tell you that a certain man is to go with you, he must go with you. But no one is to go if I tell you 5 he must not." When Gedeon led the soldiers down to the water, the Lord said to him, "You shall set to one side everyone who laps up the water as a dog does with its tongue; to the other, 6 everyone who kneels down to drink." Those who lapped up the water raised to their mouths by hand numbered three hundred, but all the rest of the soldiers knelt down to drink the water.
7 The Lord said to Gedeon, "By means of the three hundred who lapped up the water I will save you and will deliver Madian 8 into your power. So let all the other soldiers go home." Their horns, and such supplies as the soldiers had with them, were taken up, and Gedeon ordered the rest of the Israelites to their tents, but kept the three hundred men. Now the camp of Madian was beneath him in the valley.

9 That night the Lord said to Gedeon, "Go, descend on the 10 camp, for I have delivered it up to you. If you are afraid to at-11 tack, go down to the camp with your aide Phara. When you hear what they are saying, you will have the courage to descend on the camp." So he went down with his aide Phara to the out-12 posts of the camp. The Madianites, Amalecites, and all the Cedemites lay in the valley, as numerous as locusts. Nor could their camels be counted, for these were as many as the sands on 13 the seashore. When Gedeon arrived, one man was telling another about a dream. "I had a dream," he said, "that a round loaf of barley bread was rolling into the camp of Madian. It came to our tent and struck it, and as it fell it turned the tent 14 upside down." "This can only be the sword of the Israelite Gedeon, son of Joas," the other replied. "God has delivered 15 Madian and all the camp into his power." When Gedeon heard the description and explanation of the dream, he prostrated himself. Then returning to the camp of Israel, he said, "Arise, for the Lord has delivered the camp of Madian into your power."

16 He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and provided them all with horns and with empty jars and 17 torches inside the jars. "Watch me and follow my lead," he told them. "I shall go to the edge of the camp, and as I do, 18 you must do also. When I and those with me blow horns, you too must blow horns all around the camp and cry out, 'For the 19 Lord and for Gedeon!' " So Gedeon and the hundred men who were with him came to the edge of the camp at the beginning of 7, 16-25: Two different accounts of Gedeon's stratagem seem to be fused in this narrative.

the middle watch, just after the posting of the guards. They 20 blew the horns and broke the jars they were holding. All three companies blew horns and broke their jars. They held the torches in their left hands, and in their right the horns they were blowing, and cried out, "A sword for the Lord and Gedeon!" 21 | They all remained standing in place around the camp, while 22 the whole camp fell to running and shouting and fleeing. But the three hundred men kept blowing the horns, and throughout the camp the Lord set the sword of one against another. The army fled as far as Beth-Setta in the direction of Sarera, as far as the border of Abel-Mehula near Tebbath.
23 The Israelites were called to arms from Nephthali, from 24 Aser, and from all Manasse, and they pursued Madian. Gedeon also sent messengers throughout the mountain region of Ephraim to say, "Go down to confront Madian, and seize the water courses against them as far as Beth-Bera, as well as the Jordan." So all the Ephraimites were called to arms, and they seized the water courses as far as Beth-Bera, and the Jordan as well.
25 They captured the two princes of Madian, Oreb and Zeb, killing Oreb at the rock of Oreb and Zeb at the wine press of Zeb.
Then they pursued Madian and carried the heads of Oreb and Zeb to Gedeon beyond the Jordan.

8

1 But the Ephraimites said to him, "What have you done to us, not calling us when you went to fight against Madian?" And 2 they quarrelled bitterly with him. | "What have I accomplished now in comparison with you?" he answered them. "Is not the 3 gleaning of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? Into your power God delivered the princes of Madian, Oreb and Zeb. What have I been able to do in comparison with you?"
When he said this, their anger against him subsided.
4 When Gedeon reached the Jordan and crossed it with his three 5 hundred men, they were exhausted and famished. So he said to the men of Socchoth, "Will you give my followers some loaves of bread? They are exhausted, and I am pursing Zebee 6 and Salmana, kings of Madian." But the princes of Socchoth replied, "Are the hands of Zebee and Salmana already in your 7 possession, that we should give food to your army?" Gedeon said, "Very well; when the Lord has delivered Zebee and Sal-mana into my power, I will grind your flesh in with the thorns 8 and briers of the desert." He went up from there to Phanuel

8, 7: This punishment was still practiced up to the turn of the present century by some of the Bedouin tribes of Transjordan.

and made the same request of them, but the men of Phanuel 9 answered him as had the men of Socchoth. So to the men of Phanuel, too, he said, "When I return in triumph, I will demolish this tower." 10 Now Zebee and Salmana were in Carcor with their force of about fifteen thousand men; these were all who were left of the whole Cedemite army, a hundred and twenty thousand 11 swordsmen having fallen. Gedeon went up by the route of the nomads east of Nobe and Jegbaa, and attacked the camp when 12 it felt secure. Zebee and Salmana fled. He pursued them and took the two kings of Madian, Zebee and Salmana, captive, throwing the entire army into panic.
13 Then Gedeon, son of Joas, returned from battle by the pass 14 of Hares. He captured a young man of Socchoth, who upon being questioned listed for him the seventy-seven princes and 15 elders of Socchoth. So he went to the men of Socchoth and said, "Here are Zebee and Salmana, with whom you taunted me, 'Are the hands of Zebee and Salmana already in your possession, that 16 we should give food to your weary followers?'" He took the elders of the city, and thorns and briers of the desert, and 17 ground these men of Socchoth into them. He also demolished the tower of Phanuel and slew the men of the city.
18 Then he said to Zebee and Salmana, "Where now are the men you killed at Thabor?" "They all resembled you," they 19 replied. "They appeared to be princes." | "They were my brothers, my mother's sons," he said. "As the Lord lives, if you 20 had spared their lives, I should not kill you." Then he said to his firstborn, Jether, "Go, kill them." Since Jether was still a 21 boy, he was afraid and did not draw his sword. Zebee and Salmana said, "Come, kill us yourself, for a man's strength is like the man." So Gedeon stepped forward and killed Zebee and Salmana. He also took the crescents that were on the necks of their camels.
22 The Israelites then said to Gedeon, "Rule over us—you, your son, and your son's son—for you rescued us from the power of 23 Madian." But Gedeon answered them, "I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you. The Lord must rule over you." 24 Gedeon went on to say, "I should like to make a request of you. Will each of you give me a ring from his booty?" (For 25 being Ismaelites, the enemy had gold rings.) "We will gladly

8, 10: The numbers seem exaggerated.
8, 14: Listed: this means, given in writing. Writing in ancient Israel is rarely mentioned in the Bible.
8, 23: Perhaps the most important element of the Gedeon story is that it narrates the first attempt to establish the monarchy in Israel.

give them," they replied, and spread out a cloak into whi 26 everyone threw a ring from his booty. The gold rings that requested weighed seventeen hundred gold shekels, in additi to the crescents and pendants, the purple garments worn the kings of Madian, and the trappings that were on the nec 27 of their camels. Gedeon made an ephod out of the gold ar placed it in his city Ephra. However, all Israel paid idolatro homage to it there, and it caused the ruin of Gedeon and h family.
28 Thus was Madian brought into subjection by the Israelite no longer did they hold their heads high. And the land had re for forty years, during the lifetime of Gedeon.

29 Gedeon's Son Abimelech Then Jerobbaal, son of Joa 30 went back home to stay. Now Gedeon had seventy sons, h 31 direct descendants, for he had many wives. His concubine wh lived in Sichem also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelec 32 At a good old age Gedeon, son of Joas, died and was burie 33 in the tomb of his father Joas in Ephra of the Abiezerites. Bu after Gedeon was dead, the Israelites again abandoned them 34 selves to the Baals, making Baal-Berith their god | and forgel ting the Lord, their God, who had delivered them from th 35 power of their enemies all around them. Nor were they grate ful to the family of Jerobbaal [Gedeon] for all the good he ha done for Israel.

9

1 Abimelech, son of Jerobbaal, went to his mother's kinsmen i Sichem, and said to them and to the whole clan to which hi 2 mother's family belonged, "Put this question to all the citizen of Sichem: 'Which is better for you: that seventy men, or al Jerobbaal's sons, rule over you, or that one man rule over you?
3 You must remember that I am your own flesh and bone." Wher his mother's kin repeated these words to them on his behalf, al

8, 27: Ephod: this word can mean several things, but in this contex it seems to mean a golden plaque.

8, 31: This kind of marriage is still found in the Orient. The concu bine, a wife of secondary rank, remains with her own family but her children belong to her husband's clan.

8, 33: Baal-Berith: means "Lord of the Covenant." Berith alone refers to the Covenant with Yahweh. See Ex 19, 3-6 n. Berith used with Baal is indicative of the pagan religious elements contaminating the true Covenant with God.

9, 1-57: It is generally agreed that this is one of the oldest episodes in the history of Israel. The narrative may have originated from a center of prophets in northern Israel who did not favor a monarchy for Israel the citizens of Sichem sympathized with Abimelech, thinking, 4 "He is our kinsman." They also gave him seventy silver shekels from the temple of Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired 5 shiftless men and ruffians as his followers. He then went to his ancestral house in Ephra, and slew his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerobbaal, on one stone. Only the youngest son of Jerob-6 baal, Joatham, escaped, for he was hidden. Then all the citizens of Sichem and all Beth-Mello came together and proceeded to make Abimelech king by the terebinth of the military post in Sichem.

7 When this was reported to him, Joatham went to the top of Mount Garizim, and standing there, cried out to them in a loud voice: "Hear me, citizens of Sichem, that God may then hear 8 you! Once the trees went to anoint a king over themselves. So 9 they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.' But the olive tree answered them, 'Must I give up my rich oil, whereby men and 10 gods are honored, and go to wave over the trees?' Then the 11 trees said to the fig tree, 'Come; you reign over us!' | But the fig tree answered them, 'Must I give up my sweetness and my 12 good fruit, and go to wave over the trees?' Then the trees said 13 to the vine, 'Come you, and reign over us.' | But the vine answered them, 'Must I give up my wine that cheers gods and 14 men, and go to wave over the trees?' Then all the trees said to 15 the buckthorn, 'Come; you reign over us!' But the buckthorn replied to the trees, 'If you wish to anoint me king over you in good faith, come and take refuge in my shadow. Otherwise, let fire come from the buckthorn and devour the cedars of Lebanon.'

16 "Now then, if you have acted in good faith and honorably in appointing Abimelech your king, if you have dealt well with Jerobbaal and with his family, and if you have treated him as 17 he deserved—for my father fought for you at the risk of his

9, 4: Temples were often used as public treasury buildings. See 2 Mc 3.

9, 5: Seventy: a round number often used for all the descendants. See Gn 46, 27; Jgs 1, 7; 12, 14. In the Orient and in the Bible it was common to have a public, almost official, massacre of the rival line at the change of a regime.

9, 7-21: The apologue of Joatham is one of Israel's first examples of gnomic poetry, i.e., poetry after the style of proverbs or sayings. This fable expresses contempt for the monarchy. Gedeon, personified by the productive olive and fig trees, and by the vine, refuses the useless function of king. But Abimelech, personified by the unproductive buckthorn, accepts the kingship. When the buckthorn, which affords no shade, says to the trees, which afford abundant shade, "come and take refuge in my shadow" (v. 15), the buckthorn is ironically made to personify the absurdity and uselessness of Abimelech's monarchy.

18 life when he saved you from the power of Madian; but you have risen against his family this day and have killed his seventy sons upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his handmaid, king over the citizens of Sichem, because 19 he is your kinsman— | if, then, you have acted in good faith and with honor toward Jerobbaal and his family this day, re-20 joice in Abimelech and may he in turn rejoice in you. But if not, let fire come forth from Abimelech to devour the citizens of Sichem and Beth-Mello, and let fire come forth from the citi-21 zens and from Beth-Mello to devour Abimelech." Then Joatham went in flight to Beer, where he remained for fear of his brother Abimelech.
22.23 When Abimelech had ruled Israel for three years, God put bad feelings between Abimelech and the citizens of Sichem, 24 who rebelled against Abimelech, This was to repay the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerobbaal and to avenge their blood upon their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and upon the citizens of Sichem, who encouraged him to kill his brothers.
25 The citizens of Sichem then set men in ambush for him on the mountaintops, and these robbed all who passed them on the road. But it was reported to Abimelech.
26 Now Gaal, son of Obed, came over to Sichem with his 27 kinsmen. The citizens of Sichem put their trust in him, | and went out into the fields, harvested their grapes and trod them out. Then they held a festival and went to the temple of their 28 god, where they ate and drank and cursed Abimelech. Gaal, son of Obed, said, "Who is Abimelech? And why should we of Sichem serve him? Were not the son of Jerobbaal and his lieutenant Zebul once subject to the men of Hemor, father of 29 Sichem? Why should we serve him? Would that this people were entrusted to my command! I would depose Abimelech. I would say to Abimelech, 'Get a larger army and come out!' " 30 At the news of what Gaal, son of Obed, had said, Zebul, the 31 ruler of the city, was angry | and sent messengers to Abimelech in Aruma with the information: "Gaal, son of Obed, and his kinsmen have come to Sichem and are stirring up the city 32 against you. Now rouse yourself; set an ambush tonight in the 33 fields, you and the men who are with you. Promptly at sunrise tomorrow morning, make a raid on the city. When he and his followers come out against you, deal with him as best you can."
34 During the night Abimelech advanced with all his soldiers 35 and set up an ambush for Sichem in four companies. Gaal, son of Obed, went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate.
When Abimelech and his soldiers rose from their place of 36 ambush, Gaal saw them and said to Zebul "There are men coming down from the hilltops!" But Zebul answered him, 37 "You see the shadow of the hills as men." But Gaal went on to say, "Men are coming down from the region of Tabbur-Haares, 38 and one company is coming by way of Elon-Meonenim." Zebul said to him, "Where now is the boast you uttered, 'Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?' Are these not the men for whom you expressed contempt? Go out now and fight with 39 them." So Gaal went out at the head of the citizens of Sichem 40 and fought against Abimelech. But Abimelech routed him, and he fled before him; and many fell slain right up to the entrance 41 of the gate. Abimelech returned to Aruma, but Zebul drove Gaal and his kinsmen from Sichem, which they had occupied.

42 The next day, when the people were taking the field, it was 43 reported to Abimelech, | who divided the men he had into three companies, and set up an ambush in the fields. He watched till he saw the people leave the city, and then rose against them 44 for the attack. Abimelech and the company with him dashed in and stood by the entrance of the city gate, while the other two companies rushed upon all who were in the field and attacked 45 them. That entire day Abimelech fought against the city, and captured it. He then killed its inhabitants and demolished the city, sowing the site with salt.
46 When they heard of this, all the citizens of Magdal-Sichem 47 went into the crypt of the temple of El-Berith. It was reported to Abimelech that all the citizens of Magdal-Sichem were 48 gathered together. So he went up Mount Selmon with all his soldiers, took his axe in his hand, and cut down some brushwood. This he lifted to his shoulder, then said to the men with 49 him, "Hurry! Do just as you have seen me do." So all the men likewise cut down brushwood, and following Abimelech, placed it against the crypt. Then they set the crypt on fire over their heads, so that every one of the citizens of Magdal-Sichem, about a thousand men and women, perished.
50 Abimelech proceeded to Thebes, which he invested and cap-51 tured. Now there was a strong tower in the middle of the city, and all the men and women, in a word all the citizens of the city, fled there, shutting themselves in and going up to the roof 52 of the tower. Abimelech came up to the tower and fought against it, advancing to the very entrance of the tower to set it

9, 45: Sowing the site with salt: this symbol, or magical ritual, of insuring sterility is found only here in all the Bible.

9, 46-49: Since the people sought the right of asylum, Abimelech could not spill their blood sacrilegiously in a sacred place. He avoided the law by burning them to death, "setting fire over their heads" from outside the temple.

53 on fire. But a certain woman cast the upper part of a millston 54 down on Abimelech's head, and it fractured his skull. H immediately called his armor-bearer and said to him, "Dra your sword and dispatch me, lest they say of me that a woma killed me." So his attendant ran him through and he died.
55 When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all le for their homes.
56 Thus did God requite the evil Abimelech had done to hi 57 father in killing his seventy brothers. God also brought all thei wickedness home to the Sichemites, for the curse of Joatham son of Jerobbaal, overtook them.

10

1 Thola After Abimelech there rose to save Israel the Issachar ite Thola, son of Dodo, a resident of Samir in the mountai 2 region of Ephraim. | When he had judged Israel twenty-thre years, he died and was buried in Samir.

3 Jair Jair the Galaadite came after him and judged Israe 4 twenty-two years. He had thirty sons who rode on thirty saddle-asses and possessed thirty cities in the land of Galaad; 5 these are called Havoth-Jair to the present day. Jair died and was buried in Camon.

6 Oppression by the Ammonites The Israelites again offended the Lord, serving the Baals and Astharthes, the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines. Since they had 7 abandoned the Lord and would not serve him, the Lord became angry with Israel and allowed them to fall into the power of 8 [the Philistines and] the Ammonites. For eighteen years they afflicted and oppressed the Israelites in Basan, and all the Israelites in the Amorrite land beyond the Jordan in Galaad.
9 The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Juda, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was in great distress.
10 Then the Israelites cried out to the Lord, "We have sinned against you; we have forsaken our God and have served the 11 Baals." The Lord answered the Israelites: "Did not the Egyp-

9, 53: The classical counterpart is Pyrrhus, king of Epirus who died similarly at the siege of Argos.

9, 56-57: Abimelech, called the "Macbeth of the Old Testament," begins his ambitious life with an evil act (9, 5) and a curse from Joatham (especially 9, 20). He proceeds from one misfortune to another until retribution ignominiously snuffs out his life (vv. 53-54).

12 tians, the Amorrites, the Ammonites, the Philistines, | the Sidonians, the Amalecites, and the Madianites oppress you?
Yet when you cried out to me, and I saved you from their 13 grasp, you still forsook me and worshiped other gods. Therefore 14 I will save you no more. Go and cry out to the gods you have 15 chosen; let them save you now that you are in distress." But the Israelites said to the Lord, "We have sinned. Do to us what-16 ever you please. Only save us this day." | And they cast out the foreign gods from their midst and served the Lord, so that he grieved over the misery of Israel.
17 The Ammonites had gathered for war and encamped in Galaad, while the Israelites assembled and encamped in Maspha.
18 And among the people the princes of Galaad said to one another, "The one who begins the war against the Ammonites shall be leader of all the inhabitants of Galaad."

11

1 Jephte There was a chieftain, the Galaadite Jephte, born to 2 Galaad of a harlot. Galaad's wife had also borne him sons, and on growing up the sons of the wife had driven Jephte away, saying to him, "You shall inherit nothing in our family, for you 3 are the son of another woman." So Jephte had fled from his brothers and had taken up residence in the land of Tob. A rabble had joined company with him, and went out with him on raids.
4.5 Some time later, the Ammonites warred on Israel. When this occurred the elders of Galaad went to bring Jephte from 6 the land of Tob. "Come," they said to Jephte, "be our com-7 mander that we may be able to fight the Ammonites." "Are you not the ones who hated me and drove me from my father's house?" Jephte replied to the elders of Galaad. "Why do you 8 come to me now, when you are in distress?" The elders of Galaad said to Jephte, "In any case, we have now come back to you; if you go with us to fight against the Ammonites, you shall 9 be the leader of all of us who dwell in Galaad." Jephte answered the elders of Galaad, "If you bring me back to fight against the Ammonites and the Lord delivers them up to me, I shall be 10 your leader." The elders of Galaad said to Jephte, "The Lord is witness between us that we will do as you say." 11 So Jephte went with the elders of Galaad, and the people made him their leader and commander. In Maspha, Jephte 12 settled all his affairs before the Lord. Then he sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites to say, "What have you against 13 me that you come to fight with me in my land?" He answered the messengers of Jephte, "Israel took away my land from the Arnon to the Jaboc and the Jordan when they came up fror Egypt. Now restore the same peaceably."

14 Again Jephte sent messengers to the king of the Ammonite:
15 | saying to him, "This is what Jephte says: Israel did not tak 16 the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites. For when the came up from Egypt, Israel went through the desert to the Re 17 Sea and came to Cades. Israel then sent messengers to the kin of Edom saying, 'Let me pass through your land.' But the kin of Edom did not give consent. They also sent to the king o Moab, but he too was unwilling. So Israel remained in Cades 18 | Then they went through the desert, and by-passing the lan of Edom and the land of Moab, went east of the land of Moal and encamped across the Arnon. Thus they did not go throug the territory of Moab, for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab 19 Then Israel sent messengers to Sehon, king of the Amorrites king of Hesebon. Israel said to him, 'Let me pass through you 20 land to my own place.' But Sehon refused to let Israel pas through his territory. On the contrary, he gathered all his sol 21 diers, who encamped at Jasa and fought Israel. But the Lord the God of Israel, delivered Sehon and all his men into the power of Israel, who defeated them and occupied all the land 22 of the Amorrites dwelling in that region, the whole territory 23 from the Arnon to the Jaboc, from the desert to the Jordan. If now the Lord, the God of Israel, has cleared the Amorrites out 24 of the way of his people, are you to dislodge Israel? Should you not possess that which your god Chamos gave you to possess, and should we not possess all that the Lord, our God, has 25 cleared out for us? Again, are you any better than Balac, son of Sepphor, king of Moab? Did he ever quarrel with Israel, or did 26 he war against them | when Israel occupied Hesebon and its villages, Aroer and its villages, and all the cities on the banks of the Arnon? Three hundred years have passed; why did you 27 not recover them during that time? I have not sinned against you, but you wrong me by warring against me. Let the Lord, who is judge, decide this day between the Israelites and the 28 Ammonites!" But the king of the Ammonites paid no heed to the message Jephte sent him.

29 Jephte's Vow The spirit of the Lord came upon Jephte. He passed through Galaad and Manasse, and through Maspha-

11, 29-40: Jephte, an outlaw and not reared according to the Mosaic Law (11, 3), made an immoral vow (v. 31). Under Chanaanite influence, he acted in ignorance. He may have been laboring unconsciously under another concept of the times, i.e., a person will move the god if he offered what was dearest to him in life. The idea underlying Jephte's Galaad as well, and from there he went on to the Ammonites.

) | Jephte made a vow to the Lord. "If you deliver the Ammon-
1 ites into my power," he said, | "whoever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in triumph from the Ammonites shall belong to the Lord. I shall offer him up as a holocaust."
! Jephte then went on to the Ammonites to fight against them, ) and the Lord delivered them into his power, | so that he inflicted a severe defeat on them, from Aroer to the approach to Mennith (twenty cities in all) and as far as Abel-cheramim.
Thus were the Ammonites brought into subjection by the 1 Israelites. When Jephte returned to his house in Maspha, it was his daughter who came forth, playing the tambourines and dancing. She was an only child: he had neither son nor ) daughter besides her. When he saw her, he rent his garments and said, "Alas, daughter, you have struck me down and brought calamity upon me. For I have made a vow to the Lord ) and I cannot retract." "Father," she replied, "you have made a vow to the Lord. Do with me as you have vowed, because the Lord has wrought vengeance for you on your enemies the Am-' monites." Then she said to her father, "Let me have this favor.
Spare me for two months, that I may go off down the moun-1 tains to mourn my virginity with my companions." "Go," he replied, and sent her away for two months. So she departed with her companions and mourned her virginity on the moun' tains. At the end of the two months she returned to her father, who did to her as he had vowed. She had not been intimate
' with man. It then became a custom in Israel | for Israelite women to go yearly to mourn the daughter of Jephte the Galaadite for four days of the year.

2
The Shibboleth Incident The men of Ephraim gathered solve to fulfill his vow (v. 39) was that a vow, like a blessing or irse, was irrevocable, and independent of the one who made the vow. was an extreme interpretation of Nm 30, 3; 32, 24. The inspired ithor does not approve of Jephte's actions; and, in Heb 11, 32, Jephte praised not because he made and executed his vow, but because he :livered his nation.

For the ancient Israelites it was a disgrace to die without issue.
herefore, the tragedy of the immolation of Jephte's daughter was tensified because she was a virgin. Not sex was the reason for the ress on procreation and on this earthly life; it was, in part, because the ys of the eternal life were as yet not revealed. Jephte's vow has veral classical parallels. Agamemnon likewise sacrificed his daughter.

12, 1-7: The Galaadites did not necessarily ask the Ephraimites together and crossed over to Saphon. They said to Jephte, "Wh do you go on to fight with the Ammonites without calling us t 2 go with you? We will burn your house over you." Jepht answered them, "My soldiers and I were engaged in a critic contest with the Ammonites. I summoned you, but you did n 3 rescue me from their power. When I saw that you would n effect a rescue, I took my life in my own hand and went on t the Ammonites, and the Lord delivered them into my powe Why, then, do you come up against me this day to fight wit me?"

4 Then Jephte called together all the men of Galaad and fough against Ephraim, whom they defeated; for the Ephraimites ha said, "You of Galaad are Ephraimite fugitives in territor 5 belonging to Ephraim and Manasse." The Galaadites took th fords of the Jordan toward Ephraim. When any of the fleein Ephraimites said, "Let me pass," the men of Galaad would sa to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he answered, "No!" 6 they would ask him to say "Shibboleth." If he said "Sibboleth," not being able to give the proper pronunciation, they woul seize him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. Thus forty-two thousand Ephraimites fell at that time.
7 After having judged Israel for six years, Jephte the Galaadite died and was buried in his city in Galaad.

8 Abesan After him Abesan of Bethlehem judged Israel. | 9 He had thirty sons. He also had thirty daughters married outside the family, and he brought in as wives for his sons thirty young women from outside the family. After having judged 10 Israel for seven years, Abesan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

11 Elon After him the Zabulonite Elon judged Israel. When he 12 had judged Israel for ten years, the Zabulonite Elon died and was buried in Elon in the land of Zabulon.

13 Abdon After him the Pharathonite Abdon, son of Hillel, 14 judged Israel. He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy saddle-asses. After having judged Israel for 15 eight years, | the Pharathonite Abdon, son of Hillel, died and pointblank to pronounce "shibboleth" (v. 6), but may have engaged them in conversation involving this word. In Hebrew, shibboleth means "ear of grain" or "current of water." Because of the context, the latter meaning seems preferable. In English, based on this biblical incident, shibboleth means criterion, watchword, party cry, pet phrase. In World War I, the Arabs detected the Turks at the crossing of the Jordan River by their incorrect pronunciation of the emphatic "s."

was buried in Pharathon in the land of Ephraim on the mountain of the Amalecites.

13

1 The Birth of Samson The Israelites again offended the Lord, who therefore delivered them into the power of the Philistines for forty years.

2 There was a certain man from Saraa, of the clan of the Danites, whose name was Manoe. His wife was barren and had 3 borne no children. An angel of the Lord appeared to the woman and said to her, "Though you are barren and have had no chil-4 dren, yet you will conceive and bear a son. Now, then, be careful to take no wine or strong drink and to eat nothing unclean.
5 As for the son you will conceive and bear, no razor shall touch his head, for this boy is to be consecrated to God from the womb. It is he who will begin the deliverance of Israel from the power of the Philistines."

6 The woman went and told her husband, "A man of God came to me; he had the appearance of an angel of God, terrible indeed. I did not ask him where he came from, nor did he tell 7 me his name. But he said to me, 'You will be with child and will bear a son. So take neither wine nor strong drink, and eat nothing unclean. For the boy shall be consecrated to God from 8 the womb, until the day of his death.' " | Manoe then prayed to the Lord. "O Lord, I beseech you," he said, "may the man of God whom you sent, return to us to teach us what to do for the boy who will be born."

9 God heard the prayer of Manoe, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she was sitting in the field. Since her
10 husband Manoe was not with her, | the woman ran in haste and told her husband. "The man who came to me the other 11 day has appeared to me," she said to him; so Manoe got up and 13--16: The historical nucleus of these embellished Samson stories probably is this: when the era of the Judges was ending, a country boy from the tribe of Dan enjoyed extraordinary physical strength of which he made use in a one man war against the Philistines. The redactor of these stories learned from a transmitted ancient tradition that Samson's strength came from "the spirit of the Lord" (See 3, 7-11 n; 13, 25; 14, 6. 19; 15, 14; 16, 28), or from being consecrated to God through his Nazirite vow (13, 4-14; 16, 17). Spiritually this story meant, to the people, that Samson was a living example of the care God lavished upon His faithful followers, and the misery which He allowed them to suffer when they abandoned Him.

13, 3: The angel of the Lord: is identified with the Lord Himself in vv. 22-23.

13, 5: Samson was to take a perpetual Nazirite vow. See Nm 6, 1-21 n.

followed his wife. When he reached the man, he said to hi
"Are you the one who spoke to my wife?" "Yes," he answere
12 | Then Manoe asked, "Now, when that which you say com 13 true, what are we expected to do for the boy?" The angel of t Lord answered Manoe, "Your wife is to abstain from all t 14 things of which I spoke to her. She must not eat anything th comes from the vine, nor take wine or strong drink, nor e anything unclean. Let her observe all that I have commande 15 her." Then Manoe said to the angel of the Lord, "Can we pe 16 suade you to stay, while we prepare a kid for you?" But t angel of the Lord answered Manoe, "Although you press m I will not partake of your food. But if you will, you may offe a holocaust to the Lord." Not knowing that it was the angel o 17 the Lord, | Manoe said to him, "What is your name, that w 18 may honor you when your words come true?" The angel of t Lord answered him, "Why do you ask my name, which 19 mysterious?" Then Manoe took the kid with a cereal offerin and offered it on the rock to the Lord, whose works are my 20 teries. While Manoe and his wife were looking on, as the flam rose to the sky from the altar, the angel of the Lord ascende in the flame of the altar. When Manoe and his wife saw thi 21 they fell prostrate to the ground; but the angel of the Lord wa seen no more by Manoe and his wife. Then Manoe, realizin 22 that it was the angel of the Lord, | said to his wife, "We wil 23 certainly die, for we have seen God." But his wife pointed ou to him, "If the Lord had meant to kill us, he would not hav accepted a holocaust and cereal offering from our hands! No would he have let us see all this just now, or hear what we hav heard."
24 The woman bore a son and named him Samson. The boy 25 grew up and the Lord blessed him; the spirit of the Lord firs stirred him in Mahane-Dan, which is between Saraa and Esthaol.

14

1 Marriage of Samson Samson went down to Thamna and 2 saw there one of the Philistine women. On his return he told his father and mother, "There is a Philistine woman I saw in 3 Thamna whom I wish you to get as a wife for me." His father and mother said to him, "Can you find no wife among your kinsfolk or among all our people, that you must go and take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson an-4 swered his father, "Get her for me, for she pleases me." Now his father and mother did not know that this had been brought about by the Lord, who was providing an opportunity against the Philistines; for at that time they had dominion over Israel.

5 So Samson went down to Thamna with his father and mother. When they had come to the vineyards of Thamna, a 6 young lion came roaring to meet him. But the spirit of the Lord came upon Samson, and although he had no weapons, he 7 tore the lion in pieces as one tears a kid. However, on the journey to speak for the woman, he did not mention to his father 8 or mother what he had done. Later, when he returned to marry the woman who pleased him, he stepped aside to look at the remains of the lion and found a swarm of bees and honey in 9 the lion's carcass. So he scooped the honey out into his palms and ate it as he went along. When he came to his father and mother, he gave them some to eat, without telling them that he had scooped the honey from the lion's carcass.
10 His father also went down to the woman, and Samson gave a banquet there, since it was customary for the young men to 11 do this. When they met him, they brought thirty men to be 12 his companions. Samson said to them, "Let me propose a riddle to you. If within the seven days of the feast you solve it for me successfully, I will give you thirty linen tunics and thirty sets 13 of garments. But if you cannot answer it for me, you must give me thirty tunics and thirty sets of garments." "Propose 14 your riddle," they responded; "we will listen to it." So he said to them, "Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the 15 strong came forth sweetness." After three days' failure to answer the riddle, they said on the fourth day to Samson's wife,
"Coax your husband to answer the riddle for us, or we will burn you and your family. Did you invite us here to reduce us to 16 poverty?" At Samson's side, his wife wept and said, "You must hate me; you do not love me, for you have proposed a riddle to my countrymen, but have not told me the answer." He said to her, "If I have not told it even to my father or my mother, must I 17 tell it to you?" But she wept beside him during the seven days the feast lasted. On the seventh day, since she importuned him, he told her the answer, and she explained the riddle to her countrymen.
18 On the seventh day, before the sun set, the men of the city said to him, "What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger

14, 10: This type of marriage is still in vogue among Arabs today. The wife remains in her father's house and the husband does not pay for her, but brings a gift whenever he visits her as in 15, 1. (See Gedeon's marriage in 8, 31 n.)

14, 11: Companions: "companions of the bridegroom" are still found in Syrian marriages. They were charged with enlivening the feast.

than a lion?" He replied to them, "If you had not plowed w my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle." 19 The spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he went down Ascalon, where he killed thirty of their men and despoi them; he gave their garments to those who had answered 20 riddle. Then he went off to his own family in anger, and | Sa son's wife was married to the one who had been best man at wedding.

15

1 Samson Defeats the Philistines After some time, in season of the wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife, bringi a kid. But when he said, "Let me be with my wife in privat 2 her father would not let him enter, | saying, "I thought it c tain you wished to repudiate her; so I gave her to your best m
Her younger sister is more beautiful than she; you may ha 3 her instead." Samson said to them, "This time the Philistir 4 cannot blame me if I harm them." So Samson left and caug three hundred foxes. Turning them tail to tail, he tied betwe 5 each pair of tails one of the torches he had at hand. He th kindled the torches and set the foxes loose in the standing gra of the Philistines, thus burning both the shocks and the stan ing grain, and the vineyards and olive orchards as well.
6 When the Philistines asked who had done this, they we told, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Thamnaite, because h wife was taken and given to his best man." So the Philistin went up and destroyed her and her family by fire. Samson sa 7 to them, "If this is how you act, I will not stop until I ha 8 taken revenge on you." And with repeated blows, he inflicte a great slaughter on them. Then he went down and remaine in a cavern of the cliff of Etam.
9 The Philistines went up and, from a camp in Juda, deploye 10 against Lehi. When the men of Juda asked, "Why have yo come up against us?" they answered, "To take Samson prisone 11 to do to him as he has done to us." Three thousand men of Jud went down to the cavern in the cliff of Etam and said to Sam son, "Do you not know that the Philistines are our rulers Why, then, have you done this to us?" He answered them, "A 12 they have done to me, so have I done to them." They said t him, "We have come to take you prisoner, to deliver you ove to the Philistines." Samson said to them, "Swear to me that yo 13 will not kill me yourselves." "No," they replied, "we will cer

15, 5: During the Jewish-Arab war, the Arabs performed a simila ruse on the Jews in 1936.

tainly not kill you but will only bind you and deliver you over to them." So they bound him with two new ropes and brought 14 him up from the cliff. When he reached Lehi, and the Philistines came shouting to meet him, the spirit of the Lord came upon him: the ropes around his arms became as flax that is con-15 sumed by fire and his bonds melted away from his hands. Near him was the fresh jawbone of an ass; he reached out, grasped 16 it, and with it killed a thousand men. Then Samson said, "With the jawbone of an ass I have piled them in a heap; with the jawbone of an ass I have slain a thousand men." 17 As he finished speaking he threw the jawbone from him; 18 and so that place was named Ramath-Lehi. Being very thirsty, he cried to the Lord and said, "You have granted this great victory by the hand of your servant. Must I now die of thirst 19 or fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?" Then God split the cavity in Lehi, and water issued from it, which Samson drank till his spirit returned and he revived. Hence that spring in Lehi is called En-Haccore to this day.
20 Samson judged Israel for twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

16

1 Once Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a harlot and visited 2 her. Informed that Samson had come there, the men of Gaza surrounded him with an ambush at the city gate all night long.
And all the night they waited, saying, "Tomorrow morning we 3 will kill him." Samson rested there until midnight. Then he rose, seized the doors of the city gate and the two gateposts, and tore them loose, bar and all. He hoisted them on his shoulders and carried them to the top of the ridge opposite Hebron.

4 Samson and Dalila After that he fell in love with a wom-5 an in the Wadi Sorec whose name was Dalila. The lords of the 16, 1: The sacred writer, while not approving of Samson's immoral conduct, colorfully describes him as a typical Israelite hero—patriotic, rugged, and a Don Juan.

16, 2: According to the idea of the times, sleep was a mysterious state from which the sleeper, if possible, should not be brutally awakened until morning. See Ex 14, 20; 1 Sm 19, 11.

16, 4: Dalila: since her name means "the informer," she may have acquired it after Samson's capture.

16, 5: The underlying primitive notion here is that extraordinary physical strength can be destroyed by magical forces, and so Samson fabricates three plausible magical recipes to destroy his strength (vv. 7, 11, 13). When Samson gives the true reason (v. 17) the Philistines interpret it as the true magical recipe.

Philistines came to her and said, "Beguile him and find out secret of his great strength, and how we may overcome bind him so as to keep him helpless. We will each give eleven hundred shekels of silver." 6 So Dalila said to Samson, "Tell me the secret of your gr strength and how you may be bound so as to be kept helple 7 "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings which have dried," Samson answered her, "I shall be as weak as any ot 8 man." So the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fr bowstrings which had not dried, and she bound him w 9 them. She had men lying in wait in the chamber and so said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But snapped the strings as a thread of tow is severed by a whiff flame; and the secret of his strength remained unknown.
10 Dalila said to Samson, "You have mocked me and told 11 lies. Now tell me how you may be bound." "If they bind tight with new ropes, with which no work has been done," 12 answered her, "I shall be as weak as any other man." So Dal took new ropes and bound him with them. Then she said him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" For there w men lying in wait in the chamber. But he snapped them off arms like thread.
13 Dalila said to Samson again, "Up to now you have mock me and told me lies. Tell me how you may be bound." He sa to her, "If you weave my seven locks of hair into the web a fasten them with the pin, I shall be as weak as any other mar 14 So while he slept, Dalila wove his seven locks of hair into t web, and fastened them in with the pin. Then she said, "T Philistines are upon you, Samson!" Awakening from his slee he pulled out both the weaver's pin and the web.
15 Then she said to him, "How can you say that you love n when you do not confide in me? Three times already you ha mocked me, and not told me the secret of your great strength 16 She importuned him continually and vexed him with her con 17 plaints till he was deathly weary of them. So he took her con pletely into his confidence and told her, "No razor has touche my head, for I have been consecrated to God from my mother womb. If I am shaved, my strength will leave me, and I shall b 18 as weak as any other man." When Dalila saw that he had take her completely into his confidence, she summoned the lords the Philistines, saying, "Come up this time, for he has opene his heart to me." So the lords of the Philistines came an 16, 13: Seven locks of hair: Bedouins still plait their hair today.

19 brought up the money with them. She had him sleep on her lap, and called for a man who shaved off his seven locks of hair.
Then she began to mistreat him, for his strength had left him.
20 When she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!", and he woke from his sleep, he thought he could make good his escape as he had done time and again, for he did not realize 21 that the Lord had left him. But the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. Then they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze fetters, and he was put to grinding 22 in the prison. But the hair of his head began to grow as soon as it was shaved off.

23 The Death of Samson The lords of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon and to make merry. They said, "Our god has delivered into our power 25 Samson our enemy." | When their spirits were high, they said,
"Call Samson that he may amuse us." So they called Samson 24 from the prison, and he played the buffoon before them. When the people saw him, they praised their god. For they said, "Our god has delivered into our power our enemy, the ravager of our land, the one who has multiplied our slain." 26 Then they stationed him between the columns. | Samson said to the attendant who was holding his hand, "Put me where I may touch the columns that support the temple and may rest 27 against them." The temple was full of men and women: all the lords of the Philistines were there, and from the roof about three thousand men and women looked on as Samson provided 28 amusement. Samson cried out to the Lord and said, "O Lord God, remember me! Strengthen me, O God, this last time that for my two eyes I may avenge myself once and for all on the 29 Philistines." Samson grasped the two middle columns on which the temple rested and braced himself against them, one at his 30 right hand, the other at his left. And Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" He pushed hard, and the temple fell upon the lords and all the people who were in it. Those he killed at his death were more than those he had killed during his lifetime.
31 All his family and kinsmen went down and bore him up for burial in the grave of his father Manoe between Saraa and Esthaol. He had judged Israel for twenty years.

16, 21: Samson toyed with danger once too often and perished.

16, 28: In a last humble and confident prayer, Samson ascribes his strength to God. This scene in Saint-Saëns' opera, Samson and Dalilah, is perhaps the most stirring commentary on this prayer.

III. THE TRIBES OF DAN AND BENJAMIN IN THE DAYS OF THE JUDGES

17

1 Micha and the Levite There was a man in the mounta 2 region of Ephraim whose name was Micha. He said to h mother, "The eleven hundred shekels of silver over which yo pronounced a curse in my hearing when they were taken fro you, are in my possession. It was I who took them; so now 3 will restore them to you." When he restored the eleven hundr shekels of silver to his mother, she took two hundred of the and gave them to the silversmith, who made of them a carve idol overlaid with silver. Then his mother said, "May the Lo 4 bless my son! I have consecrated the silver to the Lord as m gift in favor of my son, by making a carved idol overlaid wit 5 silver." It remained in the house of Micha. Thus the layma Micha had a sanctuary. He also made an ephod and household idols, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his pries 6 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what h thought best.

7 There was a young Levite who had resided within the trib 8 of Juda at Bethlehem of Juda. From that city he set out to fin another place of residence. On his journey he came to the hous 9 of Micha in the mountain region of Ephraim. Micha said to him "Where do you come from?" He answered him, "I am a Levit from Bethlehem in Juda, and am on my way to find some othe 10 place of residence." | "Stay with me," Micha said to him, "B father and priest to me, and I will give you ten silver shekels 11 year, a set of garments, and your food." So the young Levit decided to stay with the man, to whom he became as one of hi 12 own sons. Micha consecrated the young Levite, who becam 13 his priest, remaining in his house. Therefore Micha said, "Now

17—21: These chapters are appendices. They do not speak of Judges
The ancient account in chs. 17—18 reveals the anarchic or disorderly condition of the times (17, 5-6). The purpose of the narrative may well be to explain the origin of the shrine at Dan (18, 30-31). According to Semitic peoples, a shrine or sanctuary must be established by a theophany (a manifestation of the divinity, as in the stories of the patriarchs in Genesis) or some fact which can be interpreted as a theophany. But here we see one man, Micha, and a tribe explicitly making their own shrine.

17, 3-4: This was the mother's way of attempting to neutralize her curse in v. 2.

17, 5: See 8, 27 n. Micha used the ancient custom, as father of the family, to consecrate his son a priest.

I know that the Lord will prosper me, since the Levite has become my priest."

18

1 Migration of the Danites At that time there was no king in Israel. Moreover the tribe of Danites were in search of a district to dwell in, for up to that time they had received no heritage among the tribes of Israel.

So the Danites sent from their clan a detail of five valiant men of Saraa and Esthaol, to reconnoiter the land and scout it. With their instructions to go and scout the land, they traveled as far as the house of Micha in the mountain region of Ephra-3 im, where they passed the night. Near the house of Micha, they recognized the voice of the young Levite and turned in that direction. "Who brought you here and what are you doing here?"
4 they asked him. "What is your interest here?" | "This is how Micha treats me," he replied to them. "He pays me a salary and 5 I am his priest." They said to him, "Consult God, that we may know whether the undertaking we are engaged in will succeed."
6 The priest said to them, "Go and prosper: the Lord is favorable to the undertaking you are engaged in."

7 So the five men went on and came to Lais. They saw that the people dwelling there lived securely after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and trusting, with no lack of any natural resources. They were distant from the Sidonians and had no 8 contact with other people. When the five returned to their kins-
9 men in Saraa and Esthaol and were asked for a report, | they replied, "Come, let us attack them, for we have seen the land and it is very good. Are you going to hesitate? Do not be sloth-
10 ful about beginning your expedition to possess the land. Those against whom you go are a trusting people, and the land is ample. God has indeed given it into your power: a place where no natural resource is lacking."

11 So six hundred men of the clan of the Danites, fully armed with weapons of war, set out from where they were in Saraa
12 and Esthaol, | and encamped in Juda, up near Cariath-jarim; hence to this day the place, which lies west of Cariath-jarim, is called Mahane-Dan.

13 From there they went on to the mountain region of Ephraim 14 and came to the house of Micha. The five men who had gone to reconnoiter the land of Lais said to their kinsmen, "Do you know that in these houses there are an ephod, household ido and a carved idol overlaid with silver? Now decide what yc 15 must do!" | So turning in that direction, they went to the hou of the young Levite at the home of Micha and greeted hir 16 The six hundred men girt with weapons of war, who we Danites, stood by the entrance of the gate, and the priest stoc 17 there also. Meanwhile the five men who had gone to reco 18 noiter the land went up and entered the house of Micha. Whe they had gone in and taken the ephod, the household idol and the carved idol overlaid with silver, the priest said to them 19 "What are you doing?" They said to him, "Be still: put you hand over your mouth. Come with us and be our father an priest. Is it better for you to be priest for the family of on 20 man or to be priest for a tribe and a clan in Israel?" The pries agreeing, took the ephod, household idols, and carved idol an 21 went off in the midst of the band. As they turned to depar they placed their little ones, their livestock, and their goods a the head of the column.

18, 1: The migration of the Danites seems to take place at the beginning of the era of the Judges. In 1, 34, the Amorrites confined the tribe of Dan to the mountains, which account squares with Jos 19, 47-48.

22 The Danites had already gone some distance, when those i the houses near that of Micha took up arms and overtook them 23 They called to the Danites, who turned about and said t Micha, "What do you want, that you have taken up arms?" 24 "You have taken my god, which I made, and have gone off witl my priest as well," he answered. "What is left for me? How 25 then, can you ask me what I want?" The Danites said to him
"Let us hear no further sound from you, lest fierce men fal 26 upon you and you and your family lose your lives." The Danite then went on their way, and Micha, seeing that they were stronger than he, returned home.

27 Having taken what Micha had made, and the priest he had had, they attacked Lais, a quiet and trusting people; they put 28 them to the sword and destroyed their city by fire. No one came to their aid, since the city was far from Sidon and they had no contact with other people. The Danites then rebuilt the city, which was in the valley that belongs to Beth-Rohob, and lived 29 there. They named it Dan after their ancestor Dan, son of Is-30 rael. However, the name of the city was formerly Lais. The Danites set up the carved idol for themselves, and Jonathan, son of Gersam, son of Moses, and his descendants were priests for the tribe of the Danites until the time of the captivity of the 31 land. They maintained the carved idol Micha had made as long as the house of God was in Silo.

19

1 The Levite from Ephraim At that time, when there was no king in Israel, there was a Levite residing in remote parts of the mountain region of Ephraim who had taken for him-1 self a concubine from Bethlehem of Juda. His concubine was unfaithful to him and left him for her father's house in Bethle-2 hem of Juda, where she stayed for some four months. Her husband then set out with his servant and a pair of asses, and went after her to forgive her and take her back. She brought him into her father's house, and on seeing him, the girl's father joyfully 3 made him welcome. He was detained by the girl's father, and so he spent three days with this father-in-law of his, eating and 4 drinking and passing the night there. On the fourth day they rose early in the morning and he prepared to go. But the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Fortify yourself with a little 5 food; you can go later on." So they stayed and the two men ate and drank together. Then the girl's father said to the husband,

"Why not decide to spend the night here and enjoy yourself?" 6 The man still made a move to go, but when his father-in-law 7 pressed him he went back and spent the night there.
8 On the fifth morning he rose early to depart, but the girl's father said, "Fortify yourself and tarry until the afternoon."
9 When he and his father-in-law had eaten, | and the husband was ready to go with his concubine and servant, the girl's father said to him, "It is already growing dusk. Stay for the night.
See, the day is coming to an end. Spend the night here and enjoy yourself. Early tomorrow you can start your journey home." 10 The man, however, refused to stay another night; he and his concubine set out with a pair of saddled asses, and traveled till 11 they came opposite Jebus which is Jerusalem. Since they were near Jebus with the day far gone, the servant said to his master, "Come, let us turn off to this city of the Jebûsites and spend 12 the night in it." But his master said to him, "We will not turn off to a city of foreigners, who are not Israelites, but will go on to 13 Gabaa. Come," he said to his servant, "let us make for some 14 other place, either Gabaa or Rama, to spend the night." So they continued on their way till the sun set on them when they were abreast of Gabaa of Benjamin.
15 There they turned off to enter Gabaa for the night. The man

19—21: A minute scholarly study of these three chapters, composed from several sources, reveals that the outrage at Gabaa (19, 22-30) occurred when the Israelites first entered the Promised Land. However, the strong unity of Israel shown here dates from times after Josue and the Judges.

19, 3-9: The prolonged hospitality and politeness of the host almost takes on the aura of a ritual that exists even today among the Bedouins and the Syrians.

waited in the public square of the city he had entered, but 16 one offered them the shelter of his home for the night. In evening, however, an old man came from his work in the fie he was from the mountain region of Ephraim, though he liv 17 among the Benjaminite townspeople of Gabaa. When he ticed the traveler in the public square of the city, the old m 18 asked where he was going, and whence he had come. He said him, "We are traveling from Bethlehem of Juda far up into mountain region of Ephraim, where I belong. I have been Bethlehem of Juda and am now going back home; but no o 19 has offered us the shelter of his house. We have straw and fo der for our asses, and bread and wine for the woman and m 20 self and for our servant; there is nothing else we need." "Y are welcome," the old man said to him, "but let me provi for all your needs, and do not spend the night in the pub 21 square." So he led them to his house and provided fodder the asses. Then they washed their feet, and ate and dran

22 The Outrage at Gabaa While they were enjoying thei selves, the men of the city, who were corrupt, surrounded t house and beat on the door. They said to the old man who house it was, "Bring out your guest, that we may abuse him 23 The owner of the house went out to them and said, "No, n brothers; do not be so wicked. Since this man is my guest, c 24 not commit this crime. Rather let me bring out my maid daughter or his concubine. Ravish them, or do whatever yo want with them; but against the man you must not commit th 25 wanton crime." When the men would not listen to his hos the husband seized his concubine and thrust her outside to then They had relations with her and abused her all night until th 26 following dawn, when they let her go. Then at daybreak th woman came and collapsed at the entrance of the house i which her hubsand was a guest, where she lay until the morn 27 ing. When her husband rose that day and opened the door o the house to start out again on his journey, there lay the wom an, his concubine, at the entrance of the house with her hand 28 on the threshold. He said to her, "Come, let us go"; but ther was no answer. So the man placed her on an ass and started ou again for home.

19, 16-28: The whole story is reminiscent of Lot's story in Gn 19

19, 17: Where he was going and whence he had come: these are stil the questions which nomads ask travelers; they are never asked for thei names.

19, 24: At that time hospitality was superior to purity. See Gn 19 7-8 n.

29 On reaching home, he took a knife to the body of his concubine, cut her into twelve pieces and sent them throughout the 30 territory of Israel. Everyone who saw this said, "Nothing like this has been done or seen from the day the Israelites came up from the land of Egypt to this day. Take note of it, and state what you propose to do."

20

1 Assembly of Israelites So all the Israelites came out as one man: from Dan to Bersabee, and from the land of Galaad, 2 the community was gathered to the Lord at Maspha. The leaders of all the people and all the tribesmen of Israel, four hundred thousand foot soldiers who were swordsmen, presented 3 themselves in the assembly of the people of God. Meanwhile, the Benjaminites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Maspha. The Israelites asked to be told how the crime had 4 taken place, | and the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, testified: "My concubine and I went into Gabaa of 5 Benjamin for the night. But the citizens of Gabaa rose up against me by night and surrounded the house in which I was. Me they attempted to kill, and my concubine they abused so 6 that she died. So I took my concubine and cut her up and sent her through every part of the territory of Israel, because of the 7 monstrous crime they had committed in Israel. Now that you 8 are all here, O Israelites, state what you propose to do." All the people rose as one man to say, "None of us is to leave for 9 his tent or return to his home. Now as for Gabaa, this is what 10 we will do: We will proceed against it by lot, | taking from all the tribes of Israel ten men for every hundred, a hundred for every thousand, a thousand for every ten thousand, and procuring supplies for the soldiers who will go to deal fully and suitably with Gabaa of Benjamin for the crime it committed in Israel."

11 When, therefore, all the men of Israel without exception were 12 leagued together against the city, the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin to say, "What is this evil
13 which has occurred among you? | Now give up these corrupt men of Gabaa, that we may put them to death and thus purge the evil from Israel." But the Benjaminites refused to accede

20, 1: From Dan to Bersabee: this stereotyped expression designates the extreme limits of Israel comparable to: "from Maine to Florida" or "from New York to San Francisco."

20, 13: The Benjaminites refused: even today the sheiks of Jordan and Saudi Arabia cannot legally surrender a criminal of their clan to be put to death.

14 to the demand of their brothers, the Israelites. Instead, tl Benjaminites assembled from their other cities to Gabaa, to c 15 battle with the Israelites. The number of the Benjamini swordsmen from the other cities on that occasion was twent 16 six thousand, in addition to the inhabitants of Gabaa. Include in this total were seven hundred picked men who were lef handed, every one of them able to sling a stone at a hair witl 17 out missing. Meanwhile the other Israelites who, without Ben jamin, mustered four hundred thousand swordsmen ready fo 18 battle, | moved on to Bethel and consulted God. When the I raelites asked who should go first in the attack on the Ben 19 jaminites, the Lord said, "Juda shall go first." | The next da the Israelites advanced on Gabaa with their forces.

20 War with Benjamin On the day the Israelites drew up i 21 battle array at Gabaa for the combat with Benjamin, the Ben jaminites came out of the city and felled twenty-two thousan 22 men of Israel. Then the Israelites went up and wept before th Lord until evening. "Shall I again engage my brother Benjami in battle?" they asked the Lord; and the Lord answered that the 23 should. But though the Israelite soldiers took courage and agai drew up for combat in the same place as on the previous day 24.25 when they met the Benjaminites for the second time, once again the Benjaminites who came out of Gabaa against them 26 felled eighteen thousand Israelites, all of them swordsmen. S the entire Israelite army went up to Bethel, where they wep and remained fasting before the Lord until evening of that day besides offering holocausts and peace offerings before the Lord 27 When the Israelites consulted the Lord (for the Ark of the 28 Covenant of God was there in those days, | and Phinees, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, was ministering to him in those days) and asked, "Shall I go out again to battle with Benjamin, my brother, or shall I desist?" the Lord said, "Attack! for tomor-29 row I will deliver him into your power." So Israel set men in ambush around Gabaa.
30 The Israelites went up against the Benjaminites for the third time and formed their line of battle at Gabaa as on other oc-31 casions. The Benjaminites went out to meet them, and in the beginning they killed off about thirty of the Israelite soldiers 32 in the open field, just as on the other occasions. Therefore the Benjaminites thought, "We are defeating them as before"; not realizing that disaster was about to overtake them. The Israel-

20, 14-28: The same tactics were used at Hai. See Jos 8, 1-25.

ites, however, had planned the flight so as to draw them away from the city onto the highways. They were drawn away from the city onto the highways, of which the one led to Bethel, the 35 other to Gabaon. And then all the men of Israel rose from their places. They re-formed their ranks at Baal-Thamar, and the 34 Israelites in ambush rushed from their place west of Gabaa, ten thousand picked men from all Israel, and advanced against the 35 city itself. In a fierce battle, | the Lord defeated Benjamin before Israel; and on that day the Israelites killed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin, all of them swordsmen.
36 To the Benjaminites it had looked as though the enemy were defeated, for the men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin, trust-37 ing in the ambush they had set at Gabaa. But then the men in ambush made a sudden dash into Gabaa, overran it, and put 38 the whole city to the sword. Now, the other Israelites had agreed with the men in ambush on a smoke signal they were to 39 send up from the city. And though the men of Benjamin had begun by killing off some thirty of the men of Israel, under the impression that they were defeating them as surely as in the 40 earlier fighting, the Israelites wheeled about to resist | as the smoke of the signal column began to rise up from the city. It was when Benjamin looked back and saw the whole city in
41 flames against the sky | that the men of Israel wheeled about. Therefore the men of Benjamin were thrown into confusion, 42 for they realized the disaster that had overtaken them. They retreated before the men of Israel in the direction of the desert, with the fight being pressed against them. In their very midst, meanwhile, those who had been in the city were spreading 43 destruction. The men of Benjamin had been surrounded, and 44 were now pursued to a point east of Geba, while eighteen thou-45 sand of them fell, warriors to a man. The rest turned and fled through the desert to the rock Rimmon. But on the highways the Israelites picked off five thousand men among them, and chasing them up to Gadaam, killed another two thousand of 46 them there. Those of Benjamin who fell on that day were in 47 all twenty-five thousand swordsmen, warriors to a man. But six hundred others who turned and fled through the desert reached the rock Rimmon, where they remained for four months.
48 The men of Israel withdrew through the territory of the Benjaminites, putting to the sword the inhabitants of the cities, the livestock, and all they chanced upon. Moreover they destroyed by fire all the cities they came upon.

21

1 Wives for the Survivors Now the men of Israel had swc at Maspha that none of them would give his daughter in m 2 riage to anyone from Benjamin. So the people went to Bet and remained there before God until evening, raising th 3 voices in bitter lament. They said, "Lord, God of Israel, w has it come to pass in Israel that today one tribe of Israel shou 4 be lacking?" Early the next day the people built an altar the 5 and offered holocausts and peace offerings. Then the Israelit asked, "Are there any among all the tribes of Israel who d not come up to the Lord for the assembly?" For they had tak a solemn oath that anyone who did not go up to the Lord Maspha should be put to death without fail.
6 The Israelites were disconsolate over their brother Be jamin and said, "Today one of the tribes of Israel has been c 7 off. What can we do about wives for the survivors, since v have sworn by the Lord not to give them any of our daughte 8 in marriage?" And when they asked whether anyone among tl tribes of Israel had not come up to the Lord in Maspha, the found that none of the men of Jabes-Galaad had come to tl 9 encampment for the assembly. A roll call of the army estal lished that none of the inhabitants of that city were presen 10 The community, therefore, sent twelve thousand warriors wit orders to go to Jabes-Galaad and put those who lived there t 11 the sword, including the women and children. They were tol to include under the ban all males and every woman who wa 12 not still a virgin. Finding among the inhabitants of Jabes-Galaa four hundred young virgins, who had had no relations wit men, they brought them to the camp at Silo in the land c 13 Chanaan. Then the whole community sent a message to th 14 Benjaminites at the rock Rimmon, offering them peace. Whe Benjamin returned at that time, they gave them as wives th women of Jabes-Galaad whom they had spared; but thes proved to be not enough for them.
15 The people were still disconsolate over Benjamin becaus 16 the Lord had made a breach among the tribes of Israel. An the elders of the community said, "What shall we do for wive for the survivors? For every woman in Benjamin has been pu 17 to death." They said, "Those of Benjamin who survive mus have heirs, else one of the Israelite tribes will be wiped ou 18 Yet we cannot give them any of our daughters in marriage because the Israelites have sworn, 'Cursed be he who gives 19 woman to Benjamin!' " Then they thought of the yearly feas

21, 19: Yearly feast of the Lord: one of the three national feasts.

of the Lord at Silo, north of Bethel, east of the highway that 20 goes up from Bethel to Sichem, and south of Lebona. And they instructed the Benjaminites, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards.
21 When you see the girls of Silo come out to do their dancing, leave the vineyards and each of you seize one of the girls of Silo 22 for a wife, and go to the land of Benjamin. When their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we shall say to them, 'Release them to us as a kindness, since we did not take a woman apiece in the war. Had you yourselves given them these wives, you would now be guilty.' " 23 The Benjaminites did this; they carried off a wife for each of them from their raid on the dancers, and went back to their 24 own territory, where they rebuilt and occupied the cities. Also at that time the Israelites dispersed; each of them left for his own heritage in his own clan and tribe.
25 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what he thought best.

21, 21: This is similar to the rape of the Sabines, but there is neither a literary nor a historical connection with Roman literature.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Ruth, still prescribed for reading in the Jewish liturgy Pentecost, was composed in beautiful Hebrew, most probably in th fifth century B.C. Its anonymous author does not seem to have use written accounts. His source seems to have been a story that was handc down orally after having been polished and repolished in the proce of transmission through the centuries.

Scholars dispute about the literary form of the book. Is it a sho story? A parable? An "historical novel?" The best description is, pe haps: an historical novel in miniature. The historical nucleus of th book, namely, Ruth, the Moabitess, being an ancestress of David (4, 17 is generally considered true. It is very difficult to conceive of Jew sensitive to genealogy, acknowledging a member of one of their mo bitter and lasting enemies, the Moabites, as an ancestress of their illu trious king David.

A less valuable historical argument, but worthy of some consider tion, is this: David leaving his parents in the care of the king of Moa (1 Sm 22, 3-4). If we remember the sacredness of old family ties amon Semitic peoples, the Moabite king may have shown this hospitality bc cause David's great-grandmother was Ruth, the Moabitess. Moreove although the book may have been written in the fifth century B.C., som of its historical facts may well go back to the times of the Judges a stated in 1, 1. These two historical arguments, which are stated inde pendently of the authentic background of times, places, customs, psy chology, suffice to warrant the title: historical novel. The novel aspect o the historical novel is evident in the author's artistry. After reading th story, the symbolism of the characters' names appears more strikingl artificial. Ruth means "friend;" Mahalon, "weakness;" Chelion, "con sumption;" Orpha, "she who turns her back;" Booz, "Baal is strong." See 1, 20 n. Besides, notice the sharpness with which the autho sketches several contrasts. The fidelity of Ruth (1, 15-18) in contras with that of Orpha (1, 14); the "goel" who refuses because of self interest (4, 6) heightens the generosity of Booz (4, 9-10). The pity o the townswomen expressed for Noemi (1, 19-21) is contrasted with their compliments for her (4, 14-15). The artistry is also seen in the proper use of detail and suspense. There is no villain, no great crime in the story. The author labors on his heroine more than on any other character. Ruth, though never described as beautiful, radiates with ar attractive, gentle, reserved, idyllic, graceful charm. She is a paragon of selfless devotion beyond the call of duty. Ruth surrenders her family religion, country, and, most important of all, her hopes of a second marriage. She bestows a devotion on her mother-in-law that she could have given to a husband. See 1, 16 n.

Art does not necessarily negate history, but presents it in an appealing manner.

Scholars dispute more the purpose of the author than even his literary form. Did he write this "historical novel" to depict an edifying ideal tableau of Israelite family virtues? Even if the author did not explicitly intend this picture, it is there in the text. Or did the author write the story as an explicit response to Nehemias' policy against mixed marriages? Or, perhaps, to give David's genealogy (Ruth 4, 17)? Some scholars believe, without denying the last two proposed purposes, that the author wrote to side with the universalistic tendency of Judaism against the particularistic tendency. In other words, his purpose would have been to advocate the cause that Yahweh is interested in all men and not only in Jews.

Main divisions of the Book of Ruth are:

1. Noemi and Her Daughter-in-law, Ruth, Journey from Moab to Bethlehem, 1, 1-22
2. Ruth Gleans in the Fields of Booz and finally Marries Him, 2—4

1

1 Noemi in Moab Once in the time of the judges there was a famine in the land; so a man from Bethlehem of Juda departed with his wife and two sons to reside on the plateau of 2 Moab. The man was named Elimelech, his wife Noemi, and his sons Mahalon and Chelion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem of Juda. Some time after their arrival on the Moab-3 ite plateau, | Elimelech, the husband of Noemi, died, and she 4 was left with her two sons, | who married Moabite women, one named Orpha, the other Ruth. When they had lived there about 5 ten years, | both Mahalon and Chelion died also, and the wom-6 an was left with neither her two sons nor her husband. She then made ready to go back from the plateau of Moab because word reached her there that the Lord had visited his people and given them food.
7 She and her two daughters-in-law left the place where they had been living. Then as they were on the road back to the land 8 of Juda, Noemi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you, to your mother's house! May the Lord be kind to 9 you as you were to the departed and to me! May the Lord grant each of you a husband and a home in which you will find rest." She kissed them good-by, but they wept with loud sobs, 0.11 and told her they would return with her to her people. "Go back, my daughters!" said Noemi. "Why should you come with me? Have I other sons in my womb who may become your 1, 8: Mother's house: each woman lived with her daughters in her own tent. See Gn 31, 33; Jgs 4, 17.

1, 11: Have I other sons . . . husbands: Noemi alludes to the levirate marriage law. See Gn 38, 8 n.

12 husbands? Go back, my daughters! Go, for I am too old marry again. And even if I could offer any hopes, or if tonig 13 I had a husband or had borne sons, would you then wait a deprive yourselves of husbands until those sons grew up? N my daughters! my lot is too bitter for you, because the Lord h 14 extended his hand against me." Again they sobbed aloud a wept; and Orpha kissed her mother-in-law good-by, but Ru stayed with her.
15 "See now!" she said, "your sister-in-law has gone back to h 16 people and her god. Go back after your sister-in-law!" B Ruth said, "Do not ask me to abandon or forsake you! f wherever you go I will go, wherever you lodge I will lodge, you 17 people shall be my people, and your God my God. Wherev you die I will die, and there be buried. May the Lord do so a so to me, and more besides, if aught but death separates m 18 from you!" Noemi then ceased to urge her, for she saw she w determined to go with her.

19 The Return to Bethlehem So they went on together t they reached Bethlehem. On their arrival there, the whole cit was astir over them, and the women asked, "Can this b 20 Noemi?" But she said to them, "Do not call me Noemi. Call m 21 Mara, for the Almighty has made it very bitter for me. I wer away with an abundance, but the Lord has brought me bac destitute. Why should you call me Noemi, since the Lord ha pronounced against me and the Almighty has brought evil upo 22 me?" Thus it was that Noemi returned with the Moabit daughter-in-law, Ruth, who accompanied her back from th plateau of Moab. They arrived in Bethlehem at the beginnin of the barley harvest.

2

1 The Meeting Noemi had a prominent kinsman name

1, 13: The Lord has extended his hand against me: what we call misfortune, the sacred writer directly attributes to God.

1, 15: Her god: the ancients believed that each place had its own sovereign god.

1, 16: The best biblical example of the friendship between two men is that of David and Jonathan (1 Sm). The best biblical example o the friendship between two women is that of Ruth and Noemi as this verse proves, which is the most famous in the book.

1, 17: May the Lord: this is the conventional beginning of a solemn oath which was said to the accompaniment of a symbolic gesture describ ing an injury, as is evident in the words "do so and so to me."

1, 20: Do not call me Noemi: in Hebrew, Noemi means "my sweet one." Call me Mara: "bitter."

2 Booz, of the clan of her husband Elimelech. Ruth the Moabite said to Noemi, "Let me go and glean ears of grain in the field of anyone who will allow me that favor." Noemi said to her, "Go, 3 my daughter," | and she went. The field she entered to glean after the harvesters happened to be the section belonging to 4 Booz of the clan of Elimelech. Booz himself came from Bethlehem and said to the harvesters, "The Lord be with you!" and 5 they replied, "The Lord bless you!" Booz asked the overseer of 6 his harvesters, "Whose girl is this?" The overseer of the harvesters answered, "She is the Moabite girl who returned from 7 the plateau of Moab with Noemi. She asked leave to gather the gleanings into sheaves after the harvesters; and ever since she came this morning she has remained here until now, with scarcely a moment's rest." 8 Booz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter! Do not go to glean in anyone else's field; you are not to leave here. Stay here with 9 my women servants. Watch to see which field is to be harvested, and follow them; I have commanded the young men to do you no harm. When you are thirsty, you may go and drink from the 10 vessels the young men have filled." Casting herself prostrate upon the ground, she said to him, "Why should I, a foreigner, 11 be favored with your notice?" Booz answered her: "I have had a complete account of what you have done for your mother-in-law after your husband's death; you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a 12 people whom you did not know previously. May the Lord reward what you have done! May you receive a full reward from the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come 13 for refuge." She said, "May I prove worthy of your kindness, my lord: you have comforted me, your servant, with your con-14 soling words; would indeed that I were a servant of yours!" At mealtime Booz said to her, "Come here and have some food; dip your bread in the sauce." Then as she sat near the reapers, he handed her some roasted grain and she ate her fill and had 15 some left over. She rose to glean, and Booz instructed his servants to let her glean among the sheaves themselves without 16 scolding her, and even to let drop some handfuls and leave them for her to glean without being rebuked.

2, 2: According to the Mosaic Law, poor people could glean in fields already harvested. See Dt 24, 19-22. Arabs still observe this custom but it depends entirely on the good will of the proprietors.

2, 4: The Lord be with you: the origin of Dominus Vobiscum, frequently found in the Roman liturgy.

2, 16: Let drop some handfuls: the oriental reaper does not cut the stalks close to the ground. With one hand he clutches a group of stalks

17 She gleaned in the field until evening, and when she beat o what she had gleaned it came to about an epha of barl 18 which she took into the city and showed to her mother-in-la Next she brought out and gave her what she had left over fr 19 lunch. So her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you gle today? Where did you go to work? May he who took notice you be blessed!" Then she told her mother-in-law with wh she had worked. "The man at whose place I worked today 20 named Booz," she said. "May he be blessed by the Lord, who ever merciful to the living and to the dead," Noemi exclaim to her daughter-in-law; and she continued, "He is a relative 21 ours, one of our next of kin." "He even told me," added Ru the Moabite, "that I should stay with his servants until th 22 complete his entire harvest." "You would do well, my dear Noemi rejoined, "to go out with his servants; for in someo 23 else's field you might be insulted." So she stayed gleaning wi the servants of Booz until the end of the barley and whe harvests.

3

Ruth again Presents Herself When she was back with h
1 mother-in-law, | Noemi said to her, "My daughter, I must see 2 a home for you that will please you. Now is not Booz, wit whose servants you were, a relative of ours? This evening h 3 will be winnowing barley at the threshing floor. So bathe an anoint yourself; then put on your best attire and go down t the threshing floor. Do not make yourself known to the ma 4 before he has finished eating and drinking. But when he lie down, take note of the place where he does so. Then go, un cover a place at his feet, and lie down. He will tell you what t 5.6 do." | "I will do whatever you advise," Ruth replied. So sh went down to the threshing floor and did just as her mother in-law had instructed her.
7 Booz ate and drank to his heart's content. Then when he wen and lay down at the edge of the sheaves, she stole up, uncovere 8 a place at his feet, and lay down. In the middle of the night, how ever, the man gave a start and turned around to find a woma close to the heads and cuts them underneath his clutched hand with th other.

3, 2: Winnowing barley at the threshing floor: workers with larg forks pitch the barley with the straw into the breezy air so that the latte blows away while the former, being heavier, falls back on the hard floor

3, 3: Best attire: a large cloak covering the whole body.

3, 4: After threshing, men sleep near the grain lest it be stolen.

9 lying at his feet. He asked, "Who are you?" And she replied,
"I am your servant Ruth. Spread the corner of your cloak over 10 me, for you are my next of kin." He said, "May the Lord bless you, my daughter! You have been even more loyal now than before in not going after the young men, whether poor or rich.
11 So be assured, daughter, I will do for you whatever you say; 12 all my townspeople know you for a worthy woman. Now, though indeed I am closely related to you, you have another 13 relative still closer. Stay as you are for tonight, and tomorrow, if he wishes to claim you, good! let him do so. But if he does not wish to claim you, as the Lord lives, I will claim you myself.
14 Lie there until morning." So she lay at his feet until morning, but rose before men could recognize one another. Booz said,
"Let it not be known that this woman came to the threshing 15 floor." Then he said to her, "Take off your cloak and hold it out." When she did so, he poured out six measures of barley, helped her lift the bundle, and left for the city.
16 Ruth went home to her mother-in-law, who asked, "How have you fared, my daughter?" So she told her all the man had 17 done for her, | and concluded, "He gave me these six measures of barley because he did not wish me to come back to my 18 mother-in-law empty-handed!" Noemi then said, "Wait here, my daughter, until you learn what happens, for the man will not rest, but will settle the matter today."

4

1 Booz Marries Ruth Booz went and took a seat at the gate; and when he saw the closer relative of whom he had spoken come along, he called to him by name, "Come and sit beside 2 me!" And he did so. | Then Booz picked out ten of the elders of the city and asked them to sit nearby. When they had done 3 this, | he said to the near relative: "Noemi, who has come back from the Moabite plateau, is putting up for sale the piece 4 of land that belonged to our kinsman Elimelech. So I thought I would inform you, bidding you before those here present, including the elders of my people, to put in your claim for it if 3, 9: Your servant: a courteous hyperbolic oriental title. Spread the corner of your cloak over me: by requesting Booz to execute this symbolic gesture, Ruth is asking Booz to marry her because he is her "goel" (see 4, 4 n). This gesture is still found among the Bedouins.

4, 1: At the gate: of the entrance to the city where all affairs are administered.

4, 2: Ten of the elders: they are equivalent to a modern magistrate.

4, 4: Next of kin: this is a translation of the Hebrew word "goel." Two of the duties of the goel which concern us here are: he is obliged to buy back the hereditary property of his kinsman, who is himself you wish to acquire it as next of kin. But if you do not wish t claim it, tell me so, that I may be guided accordingly, for n one has a prior claim to yours, and mine is next." He answere

"I will put in my claim."

5 Booz continued, "Once you acquire the field from Noemi, yo must take also Ruth the Moabite, the widow of the late hei 6 and raise up a family for the departed on his estate." The nea relative replied, "I cannot exercise my claim lest I depreciate m own estate. Put in a claim yourself in my stead, for I cannot ex 7 ercise my claim." Now it used to be the custom in Israel that, t make binding a contract of redemption or exchange, one part would take off his sandal and give it to the other. This was th 8 form of attestation in Israel. So the near relative, in saying t 9 Booz, "Acquire it for yourself," drew off his sandal. Booz the said to the elders and to all the people, "You are witnesses toda that I have acquired from Noemi all the holdings of Elimelech 10 Chelion and Mahalon. I also take Ruth the Moabite, the widow of Mahalon, as my wife, in order to raise up a family for he late husband on his estate, so that the name of the departe may not perish among his kinsmen and fellow citizens. Do you 11 witness this today?" | All those at the gate, including the eld ers, said, "We do so. May the Lord make this wife come into your house like Rachel and Lia, who between them built up the house of Israel. May you do well in Ephratha and win fame in 12 Bethlehem. With the offspring the Lord will give you from this girl, may your house become like the house of Phares, whom Thamar bore to Juda."

13 Booz took Ruth. When they came together as man and wife, 14 the Lord enabled her to conceive and she bore a son. Then the woman said to Noemi, "Blessed is the Lord who has not failed to provide you today with an heir! May he become famous in 15 Israel! He will be your comfort and the support of your old unable to do so (Lv 25, 25). The goel must also marry his brother's widow (according to Levirate law. See Gn 38, 8 n.). If it is the Levirate marriage which comes into question here, then it is only in the Book of Ruth that not only a brother but the next closest relative must marry the widow, in this story, Ruth. The goel in the story of Ruth must buy back the land of Elimelech for the sake of Noemi (4, 3-4) and marry Ruth (3, 12-13; 4, 5), so that the son can inherit Elimelech's land (4, 5b and 4, 10).

---

4, 7-8: For the ancients, to put one's foot on a field was a symbolic act of taking possession of that field. Similarly, in taking off the sandal, a seller divests himself of his right and, in giving the sandal, he hands over his right. The sandal custom here is different from the one in Dt 25, 9-10.

4, 11-12: For the Israelites this was the happiest blessing a woman could desire.

age, for his mother is the daughter-in-law who loves you. She 16 is worth more to you than seven sons!" Noemi took the child, 17 placed him on her lap, and became his nurse. And the neighbor women gave him his name, at the news that a grandson had been born to Noemi. They called him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 These are the descendants of Phares: Phares was the father 19 of Hesron, | Hesron was the father of Ram, Ram was the 20 father of Amminadab, | Amminadab was the father of Nahas-21 son, Nahasson was the father of Salmon, | Salmon was the 22 father of Booz, Booz was the father of Obed, | Obed was the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of David.

4, 18-22: An author different from the author of the rest of the Book of Ruth added this genealogy which is amplified in 1 Par 2, 5-15, and altered in Mt 1, 3-5.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

Otherwise called The First Book of Kings

INTRODUCTION

The two books of Samuel continue the history of Israel from the Book of Judges. They describe Samuel's founding of the kingdom with Saul as the first king, and the growth of the kingdom under David.

The traditional English Catholic Bibles use the Vulgate's term, namely "The Four Books of Kings" for these and the two following books. The present Hebrew Bible, followed by Protestant and modern Catholic scholars, speaks of 1, 2 Samuel, 1, 2 Kings. For the sake of clarity, we shall follow the system of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, namely: 1, 2 Sm, 3, 4 Kgs.

The title "Samuel" means only that he is one of the protagonists, as "Josue" and "Ruth" are in their books. The names do not denote authorship, for the authors must have been many because the sources used for the composition of the text must have been many. The reader will notice sudden changes, different viewpoints and styles, and especially a series of repetitious accounts about, e.g., the origin of the monarchy, David's first introduction to Saul.

Various snatches of historical writings were combined in one book about 700 B.C. Then a Deuteronomic editor gave 1, 2 Sm their final form in the sixth century B.C. The Deuteronomic imprint is that God rewards you if you obey His law, and punishes you if you do not (1 Sm 7, 3-14). This idea is not as apparent in 1, 2 Sm as in Josue, Judges, and in 3, 4 Kgs. (See Introduction to the Book of Josue for "Deuteronomic history.") There is another difference. The history in 1, 2 Sm and 3, 4 Kgs is more factual than that of Josue and Judges, although it is still far from modern historical writing.

The essential religious value of 1, 2 Sm is that we are shown the significance which the origin of the monarchy had in the history of salvation. David began a dynasty of kings that was directed ultimately to Christ Himself. Our Lord used David in the Gospels to reveal Himself and to surpass David. This alone would suffice to stamp 1, 2 Sm with permanent value for Christians.

Main divisions of the two books of Samuel are:

Heli, Samuel, and the Philistine War, 1 Sm 1—7

The Relations between Samuel and Saul. The Institution of the Monarchy, 1 Sm 8—15

Saul and David. Saul First Befriends David and Later Persecutes Him, 1 Sm 16—31

Saul's Death. David Becomes King of Juda, 2 Sm 1—4

David Becomes King of the United Kingdom of Juda and Israel besides Neighboring Territories, 2 Sm 5—20

Appendices to the Life of David, 2 Sm 21—24

1 1 Anna's Vow There was a man of Ramathaim-sophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elcana, the son of Jero-ham, the son of Eliu, the son of Thohu, the son of Suph, an 2 Ephraimite. | And he had two wives, the name of one was Anna, and the name of the other Phenenna. Phenenna had 3 children: but Anna had no children. | And this man went up out of his city upon the appointed days, to adore and to offer sacrifice to the Lord of hosts in Silo. And the two sons of Heli, 4 Ophni and Phinees, were there priests of the Lord. | Now the day came, and Elcana offered sacrifice, and gave to Phenenna 5 his wife, and to all her sons and daughters, portions. | But to Anna he gave one portion with sorrow, because he loved 6 Anna. And the Lord had shut up her womb. | Her rival also afflicted her, and troubled her exceedingly, insomuch that she 7 upbraided her, that the Lord had shut up her womb. | And thus she did every year, when the time returned that they went up to the temple of the Lord; and thus she provoked her. But 8 Anna wept, and did not eat. | Then Elcana her husband said to her: Anna, why do you weep? And why do you not eat?
And why do you afflict your heart? Am not I better to you than ten children?
9 So Anna arose after she had eaten and drunk in Silo. And, Heli the priest sitting upon a stool before the door of the 10 temple of the Lord, | as Anna had her heart full of grief, she 11 prayed to the Lord, shedding many tears, | and she made a vow, saying: O Lord of hosts, if you will look down on the affliction of your servant, and will be mindful of me, and not forget your handmaid, and will give to your servant a man child: I will give him to the Lord all the days of his life, and no razor shall come 12 upon his head. | And it came to pass, as she multiplied prayers
13 before the Lord, that Heli observed her mouth. | Now Anna spoke in her heart, and only her lips moved: but her voice was 14 not heard at all. Heli therefore thought her to be drunk, | and said to her: How long will you be drunk? Digest a little the 1—31: In this book as also in the other books from the Douay translation the names of people and places are given as used therein.

1, 3: The Lord of hosts: it is the first mention of the title in the Bible. It may here mean the Lord of Israel's armies. Silo: this was the most famous of several other shrines before it housed the Ark of the Covenant (or "temple of the Lord" in v. 9). The law of worshiping at one sanctuary was too difficult to observe because of the dispersion of the tribes in a yet unconquered land.

1, 11: Look down on the affliction of your servant: words of Mary in the Magnificat. No razor shall come upon his head: the sign of dedication to God according to the Nazirite vows as in Nm 6, 1-21.

15 wine, of which you have taken too much. | Anna answering said: Not so, my lord: for I am an exceeding unhappy woman and have drunk neither wine nor any strong drink, but I have 16 poured out my soul before the Lord. | Count not your handmaid for one of the daughters of Belial: for out of the abun- 17 dance of my sorrow and grief have I spoken till now. | The Heli said to her: Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant your 18 your petition, which you have asked of him. | And she said: Would to God your handmaid may find grace in your eyes. So the woman went on her way, and ate, and her countenance was no more changed.

19 And they rose in the morning, and worshiped before the Lord: and they returned, and came into their house at Ramatha. And Elcana knew Anna his wife: and the Lord remembered her.

20 The Birth of Samuel And it came to pass when the time was come about, Anna conceived and bore a son, and called his 21 name Samuel: because she had asked him of the Lord. | And Elcana her husband went up, and all his house, to offer to the 22 Lord the solemn sacrifice, and his vow. | But Anna went not up. For she said to her husband: I will not go till the child be weaned, and till I may carry him, that he may appear before 23 the Lord, and may abide always there. | And Elcana her husband said to her: Do what seems good to you and stay till you wean him; and I pray that the Lord may fulfill his word. So the woman stayed at home, and gave her son suck, till she weaned him.

24 And after she had weaned him, she carried him with her, with three calves, and three bushels of flour, and a bottle of wine, and she brought him to the house of the Lord in Silo. Now 25 the child was as yet very young. | And they immolated a calf, 26 and offered the child to Heli. | And Anna said: I beseech you, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord: I am that woman who stood 27 before you here praying to the Lord. | For this child did I pray, and the Lord has granted me my petition, which I asked of him. | 28 Therefore I also have lent him to the Lord. All the days of his life he shall be lent to the Lord. And they adored the Lord there. And Anna prayed, and said:

1, 16: The daughters of Belial: an expression for perverted daughters of the devil.

1, 19: Knew Anna his wife: a Hebraism, meaning to know her sexually.

1, 23: Till you wean him: for Easterners this means from two to three years.

2

1 The Canticle of Anna My heart has rejoiced in the Lord, and my horn is exalted in my God: my mouth is enlarged over my enemies, because I have joyed in your salvation.
2 There is none holy as the Lord is: for there is no other beside you, and there is none strong like our God.
3 Do not multiply to speak lofty things, boasting: let old matters depart from your mouth. For the Lord is a God of all knowledge, and to him are thoughts prepared.
4 The bow of the mighty is overcome: and the weak are girt with strength.
5 They that were full before have hired out themselves for bread: and the hungry are filled; so that the barren has borne many: and she that had many children is weakened.
6 The Lord kills and makes alive: he brings down to hell and brings back again.
7 The Lord makes poor and makes rich: he humbles and he exalts.
8 He raises up the needy from the dust, and lifts up the poor from the dunghill: that he may sit with princes, and hold the throne of glory. For the poles of the earth are the Lord's, and upon them he has set the world.
9 He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness: because no man shall prevail by his own strength.
10 The adversaries of the Lord shall fear him: and upon them shall he thunder in the heavens. The Lord shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give empire to his king, and shall exalt the horn of his Christ.

2, 1-10: Anna's hymn of thanksgiving has been called "the Magnificat of the Old Testament" because of its influence on Mary's Magnificat in Lk 1, 46-55. The anonymous poet who put this canticle on Anna's lips made the praise of Yahweh, not of Anna, permeate the song.

2, 1: My horn: my strength. The horn is a symbol of strength, taken from bulls throwing their heads proudly into the air. My mouth . . . enemies: I freely gloat over my enemies.

2, 3: Let old . . . mouth: cease your boasting. To him . . . prepared: the Lord evaluates deeds correctly.

2, 6: Hell: the Hebrew word at that time did not mean hell in the sense of a place for the eternally damned, but the abode for all the dead both good and bad.

2, 9: He . . . saints: he will protect the just ones. Be silent: perish.

2, 10: King . . . Christ: the correct translation is "the anointed" which is paralleled with "king." This is the first use of Messia ("anointed") in the Bible. Since this hymn was composed at a later time during the monarchy, the king and the anointed refer to the ideal king succeeding David.

11 And Elcana went to Ramatha, to his house: but the child mi istered in the sight of the Lord before the face of Heli the prie

12 Heli's Sons Now the sons of Heli were children of Beli 13 not knowing the Lord, | nor the office of the priests to the pe ple: but whosoever had offered a sacrifice, the servant of t priest came, while the flesh was in boiling, with a fleshhook 14 three teeth in his hand, | and thrust it into the kettle, or in the caldron, or into the pot, or into the pan: and all that t fleshhook brought up, the priest took to himself. Thus did th 15 to all Israel that came to Silo. | Also before they burned t fat, the servant of the priest came, and said to the man that sa rificed: Give me flesh to boil for the priest: for I will not take 16 you sodden flesh, but raw. | And he that sacrificed said to hin
Let the fat first be burned today according to the custor and then take as much as your soul desires. But he answere and said to him: Not so; but you shall give it me now, or else 17 will take it by force. | Wherefore the sin of the young me was exceeding great before the Lord: because they withdre men from the sacrifice of the Lord.

18 But Samuel ministered before the face of the Lord: being 19 child girded with a linen ephod. | And his mother made him little coat, which she brought to him on the appointed day when she went up with her husband, to offer the solemn sacr 20 fice. | And Heli blessed Elcana and his wife. And he said t him: The Lord give you seed of this woman, for the loan yo 21 have lent to the Lord. And they went to their own home. | An the Lord visited Anna: and she conceived, and bore three son and two daughters. And the child Samuel became great befor
the Lord.

22 Now Heli was very old, and he heard all that his sons did t all Israel: and how they lay with the women that waited at th 23 door of the tabernacle, | and he said to them: Why do yo these kinds of things, which I hear, very wicked things, fron 24 all the people? | Do not so, my sons: for it is no good repor that I hear, that you make the people of the Lord to transgress 25 | If one man shall sin against another, God may be appeased i his behalf: but if a man shall sin against the Lord, who shal pray for him? And they hearkened not to the voice of their fa 26 ther, because the Lord would slay them. | But the child Samue

2, 12: Not knowing the Lord: they did not care about God.

2, 22: And how . . . tabernacle: a gloss from Ex 38, 8, perhap put here to heighten Heli's goodness in contrast with his sons'.

2, 25: Because . . . slay them: the sons were provoking God t punish them.

advanced, and grew on, and pleased both the Lord and men.

27 The Prophet Rebukes Heli And there came a man of God to Heli, and said to him: Thus says the Lord: Did I not plainly appear to your father's house, when they were in Egypt
28 in the house of Pharao? | And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, and burn incense to me, and to wear the ephod before me: and I gave to your father's house of all the sacrifices of the children of Israel. |
29 Why have you kicked away my victims, and my gifts which I commanded to be offered in the temple: and you have honored rather your sons than me, to eat the firstfruits of every sacrifice
30 of my people Israel? | Wherefore thus says the Lord the God of Israel: I said indeed that your house, and the house of your father should minister in my sight, for ever. But now says the Lord: Far be this from me. But whosoever shall glorify me, him will I glorify; but they that despise me, shall be despised. |
31 Behold the days come: and I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house, that there shall not be an old man in 32 your house. | And you shall see your rival in the temple, in all the prosperity of Israel, and there shall not be an old man in
33 your house for ever. | However I will not altogether take away a man of you from my altar: but that your eyes may faint and your soul be spent. And a great part of your house shall die
34 when they come to man's estate. And this shall be a sign to you, that shall come upon your two sons, Ophni and Phinees: in one
35 day they shall both of them die. | And I will raise me up a faithful priest, who shall do according to my heart, and my soul; and I will build him a faithful house; and he shall walk
36 all days before my anointed. | And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall remain in your house, shall come that he may be prayed for; and shall offer a piece of silver, and a roll of bread; and shall say: Put me, I beseech you, to somewhat of the priestly office, that I may eat a morsel of bread.

3

1 God Calls Samuel Four Times Now the child Samuel

2, 27-36: Scholars believe that the rejection of Heli's house is a later insertion here because, among other reasons, it would seem to make 3, 11-14, repetitious.

2, 28: The ephod: here it is the instrument used to consult God and not the religious loin cloth vestment which is the meaning of ephod in v. 18 above.

2, 29: You have honored your sons rather than me: insofar as you were too lenient with them.

3, 1-21: Samuel receives his vocation to be a prophet.

ministered to the Lord before Heli. And the word of the Lord 2 was precious in those days: there was no manifest vision. | And it came to pass one day when Heli lay in his place, and his eyes 3 were grown dim, that he could not see. | Before the lamp of God went out, Samuel slept in the temple of the Lord, where 4 the ark of God was. | And the Lord called Samuel. And he an-5 swered: Here am I. And he ran to Heli and said: Here am I; for you did call me. He said: I did not call. Go back and sleep.
6 And he went and slept. | And the Lord called Samuel again.
And Samuel arose and went to Heli, and said: Here am I; for you called me. He answered: I did not call you, my son. Return 7 and sleep. | Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord; neither
8 had the word of the Lord been revealed to him. | And the Lord called Samuel again the third time. And he arose up and went to 9 Heli. | And said: Here am I; for you did call me. Then Heli understood that the Lord called the child, and he said to Samuel:
Go, and sleep. And if he shall call you any more, you shall say: Speak, Lord, for your servant hears you. So Samuel went and slept in his place.

10 The Prophecy against Heli And the Lord came and stood. And he called, as he had called the other times: Samuel, Samuel. And Samuel said: Speak, Lord, for your servant hears 11 you. And the Lord said to Samuel: Behold I do a thing in Israel: and whosoever shall hear it, both his ears shall tingle. | 12 In that day I will raise up against Heli all the things I have spoken concerning his house: I will begin, and I will make an 13 end. | For I have foretold unto him, that I will judge his house for ever, for iniquity; because he knew that his sons did wick-14 edly and did not chastise them. | Therefore have I sworn to the house of Heli, that the iniquity of his house shall not be expiated with victims nor offerings for ever.
15 And Samuel slept till morning, and opened the doors of the house of the Lord. And Samuel feared to tell the vision to Heli. | 16 Then Heli called Samuel, and said: Samuel, my son. And he 17 answered: Here am I. | And he asked him: What is the word that the Lord has spoken to you? I beseech you hide it not from me. May God do so and so to you, and add so and so, if you 18 hide from me one word of all that were said to you. | So Samuel told him all the words, and did not hide them from him. And he answered: It is the Lord. Let him do what is good in his sight.
19 And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him: and not one 20 of his words fell to the ground. | And all Israel from Dan to Bersabee, knew that Samuel was a faithful prophet of the Lord.
21 | And the Lord again appeared in Silo; for the Lord revealed himself to Samuel in Silo, according to the word of the Lord.

And the word of Samuel came to pass to all Israel.

4 1 The Philistines Defeat the Israelites And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight: and Israel went out to war against the Philistines, and camped by the Stone of Help. And the Philistines came to 2 Aphec, | and put their army in array against Israel. And when they had joined battle, Israel turned their backs to the Philistines. And there was slain in that fight here and there in the 3 fields about four thousand men. | And the people returned to the camp: and the ancients of Israel said: Why has the Lord defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us fetch unto us the ark of the covenant of the Lord from Silo: and let it come in the midst of us, that it may save us from the hand of our enemies.
4 So the people sent to Silo; and they brought from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts sitting upon the cherubim. And the two sons of Heli, Ophni and Phinees, were 5 with the ark of the covenant of God. | And when the ark of the covenant of the Lord had come into the camp, all Israel 6 shouted with a great shout, and the earth rang again. | And the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, and they said: What is this noise of a great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the Lord had come into the 7 camp. | And the Philistines were afraid, saying, God has come 8 into the camp. And sighing, they said: | Woe to us: for there was no such great joy yesterday and the day before. Woe to us.
Who shall deliver us from the hand of these high gods? These are the gods that struck Egypt with all the plagues in the 9 desert. | Take courage and behave like men, you Philistines:
lest you come to be servants to the Hebrews, as they have 10 served you. Take courage and fight. | So the Philistines fought; and Israel was overthrown; and every man fled to his own dwelling. And there was an exceeding great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 The Ark Is Taken And the ark of God was taken: and the 12 two sons of Heli, Ophni and Phinees, were slain. | And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Silo the same day, with his clothes rent, and his head strewed with dust.

4, 1-22: This is the first time the Philistines are mentioned since the days of Samson in the Book of Jgs. The Israelites thought that the material presence of the Ark of the Covenant would magically make them

13 | And when he came, Heli sat upon a stool over against the way watching. For his heart was fearful for the ark of God.
And when the man had come into the city, he told it: and all 14 the city cried out. | And Heli heard the noise of the cry, and he said: What does the noise of this uproar mean? But he made 15 haste, and came, and told Heli. | Now Heli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, and he could not see. | 16 And he said to Heli: I am he that came from the battle, and have fled out of the field this day. And he said to him: What 17 is there done, my son? | And he that brought the news answered, and said: Israel has fled before the Philistines; and there has been a great slaughter of the people. Moreover your two sons, Ophni and Phinees, are dead. And the ark of God is 18 taken. | And when he had named the ark of God, he fell from his stool backward by the door, and broke his neck, and died.
For he was an old man, and far advanced in years. And he judged Israel forty years.
19 And his daughter-in-law the wife of Phinees, was big with child, and near her time. And hearing the news that the ark of God was taken, and her father-in-law, and her husband, were dead, she bowed herself and fell in labor: for her pains came 20 upon her on a sudden. | And when she was upon the point of death, they that stood about her said to her: Fear not, for you have borne a son. She answered them not, nor gave heed to 21 them. | And she called the child Ichabod, saying: The glory is gone from Israel, because the ark of God was taken, and for her 22 father-in-law, and her husband. And she said: The glory has departed from Israel, because the ark of God was taken.

5

1 The Ark Plagues the Philistines And the Philistines took the ark of God, and carried it from the Stone of Help into 2 Azotus. | And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought 3 it into the temple of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. | And when the Azotians arose early the next day, behold Dagon lay upon his face on the ground before the ark of the Lord. And they took 4 Dagon, and set him again in his place. | And the next day again, when they rose in the morning, they found Dagon lying upon his face on the earth before the ark of the Lord. And the head of victorious (vv. 3-5). The prediction of the condemnation of Heli's house is fulfilled (vv. 11-22).

5, 4: Although the Philistines were not Semites, Dagon was a Semitic grain god who was worshiped in Mesopotamia from the twenty-fifth century B.C. Dagon resembled a man. The god was not a merman with a fish tail.

Dagon, and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the 5 threshold: | And only the stump of Dagon remained in its place. For this cause neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that go into the temple tread on the threshold of Dagon in Azotus unto this day.
6 And the hand of the Lord was heavy upon the Azotians, and he destroyed them, and afflicted Azotus and the coasts thereof with emerods. And in the villages and fields in the midst of that country, there came forth a multitude of mice; and there was 7 the confusion of a great mortality in the city. | And the men of Azotus seeing this kind of plague, said: The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us; for his hand is heavy upon us, 8 and upon Dagon our god. | And sending, they gathered together all the lords of the Philistines to them, and said: What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And the Gethrites answered: Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about.
9 And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about. | And while they were carrying it about, the hand of the Lord came upon every city with an exceeding great slaughter. And he smote the men of every city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts. And the Gethrites consulted together, and made themselves seats of skins.
10 Therefore they sent the ark of God into Accaron. And when the ark of God had come into Accaron, the Accaronites cried out, saying: They have brought the ark of the God of Israel 11 to us, to kill us and our people. | They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines: and they said: Send away the ark of the God of Israel: and let it return into 12 its own place, and not kill us and our people. | For there was the fear of death in every city; and the hand of God was exceeding heavy. The men also that did not die, were afflicted with the emerods: and the cry of every city went up to heaven.

6

1 The Ark Is Sent Back Now the ark of God was in the 2 land of the Philistines seven months. | And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying: What shall we do with the ark of the Lord? Tell us how we are to send it back 3 to its place? And they said: | If you send back the ark of the God of Israel, send it not away empty; but render unto him

5, 5: A widespread superstitious practice prevailed in ancient times to jump over the threshold because spirits were supposed to dwell there.

5, 6-12: Perhaps the Philistines sent the Ark to their different cities to see if the gods of one of their cities could overpower the God of the Israelites. The plague is attributed to Yahweh in v. 6.

what you owe for sin. And then you shall be healed; and you 4 shall know why his hand departs not from you. | They answered: What is it we ought to render unto him for sin? And 5 they answered: | According to the number of the provinces of the Philistines you shall make five golden emerods, and five golden mice; for the same plague has been upon you all, and upon your lords. And you shall make the likeness of your emerods, and the likeness of the mice that have destroyed the land; and you shall give glory to the God of Israel, to see if he will take off his hand from you, and from your gods, and from 6 your land. | Why do you harden your hearts, as Egypt and Pharao hardened their hearts? Did not he, after he was struck, 7 then let them go, and they departed? | Now therefore take and make a new cart. And two kine that have calved, on which there has come no yoke, tie to the cart; and shut up their calves at 8 home. | And you shall take the ark of the Lord, and lay it on the cart. And the vessels of gold, which you have paid him for sin, you shall put into a little box, at the side thereof. And send 9 it away that it may go. | And you shall look: and if it go up by the way of his own coasts toward Bethsames, then he has done us this great evil. But if not, we shall know that it is not his hand that has touched us, but it has happened by chance.
10 They did therefore in this manner: and taking two kine, that had suckling calves, they yoked them to the cart, and shut up 11 their calves at home. | And they laid the ark of God upon the cart, and the little box that had in it the golden mice and the 12 likeness of the emerods. | And the kine took the straight way that leads to Bethsames; and they went along the way, lowing as they went; and turned not aside neither to the right hand nor to the left. And the lords of the Philistines followed them as far as the borders of Bethsames.

13 The Bethsamites Are Smitten Now the Bethsamites were reaping wheat in the valley: and lifting up their eyes they saw 14 the ark, and rejoiced to see it. | And the cart came into the field of Josue a Bethsamite, and stood there. And there was a great stone; and they cut in pieces the wood of the cart, and laid the 15 kine upon it, a holocaust to the Lord. | And the Levites took down the ark of God, and the little box that was at the side of it, wherein were the vessels of gold; and they put them upon 6, 15: And the Levites took down the ark of God: how explain that they took the Ark down when v. 14 says they had already cut the wood of the Ark? Perhaps v. 15 was added by an editor who was shocked at non-Levites touching the Ark.

the great stone. The men also of Bethsames offered holocausts 16 and sacrificed victims that day to the Lord. | And the five princes of the Philistines saw: and they returned to Accaron the same day.
17 And these are the golden emerods, which the Philistines returned for sin to the Lord: For Azotus one, for Gaza one, for 18 Ascalon one, for Geth one, for Accaron one. | And the golden mice according to the number of the cities of the Philistines, of the five provinces, from the fenced city to the village that was without wall, and to the great Abel (the stone) whereon they set down the ark of the Lord, which was till that day in the field of Josue the Bethsamite.
19 But he slew of the men of Bethsames, because they had seen the ark of the Lord: and he slew of the people seventy men, and fifty thousand of the common people. And the people lamented, because the Lord had smitten the people with a great slaughter.
20 | And the men of Bethsames said: Who shall be able to stand before the Lord this holy God? And to whom shall he go up 21 from us? | And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Cariathiarim, saying: The Philistines have brought back the ark of the Lord. Come down and fetch it up to you.

/

1 The Philistines Defeated And the men of Cariathiarim came and fetched up the ark of the Lord and carried it into the house of Abinadab in Gabaa: and they sanctified Eleazar his 2 son, to keep the ark of the Lord. | And it came to pass, that from the day the ark of the Lord abode in Cariathiarim days were multiplied (for it was now the twentieth year), and all the house of Israel rested following the Lord.
3 And Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying: If you turn to the Lord with all your heart, put away the strange gods from among you, Baalim and Astaroth: and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only, and he will deliver you out 4 of the hand of the Philistines. | Then the children of Israel put 6, 18: V. 5 says that only five provinces offered five golden mice. In v. 18 an editor may have added that all the cities offered mice.

6, 19: But he slew . . . ark of the Lord: the better reading is: "The sons of Jeconias did not rejoice with the men of Bethsames when they saw the ark." And he slew of the people seventy men: commentators cannot adequately explain the severity of this punishment. And fifty thousand of the common people: this does not belong to the original text.

7, 1-17: V. 13 speaks as though Samuel defeated the Philistines definitively. Yet other texts say clearly that the Philistines were not defeated until later by Saul and David (see chs. 13—14; 2 Sm 5, 17-25).

5 away Baalim and Astaroth, and served the Lord only. | And Samuel said: Gather all Israel to Masphath, that I may pray to 6 the Lord for you. | And they gathered together to Masphath:
and they drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and they fasted on that day, and they said there: We have sinned against the Lord. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Masphath.
7 And the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Masphath, and the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard 8 this, they were afraid of the Philistines. | And they said to Samuel: Cease not to cry to the Lord our God for us, that he may 9 save us out of the hand of the Philistines. | And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it whole for a holocaust to the Lord:
and Samuel cried to the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.
10 |And it came to pass, when Samuel was offering the holocaust, the Philistines began the battle against Israel: but the Lord thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and terrified them, and they were overthrown before the face 11 of Israel. | And the men of Israel going out of Masphath pursued after the Philistines, and made slaughter of them till they 12 came under Bethchar. | And Samuel took a stone, and laid it between Masphath and Sen: and he called the place, the Stone 13 of Help. And he said: Thus far the Lord has helped us. | And the Philistines were humbled, and they did not come any more into the borders of Israel. And the hand of the Lord was against 14 the Philistines, all the days of Samuel. | And the cities, which the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Accaron to Geth, and their borders. And he delivered Israel from the hand of the Philistines; and there was peace between Israel and the Amorrites.
15.16 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life; and he went every year about to Bethel and to Galgal and to Masphath; 17 and he judged Israel in the aforesaid places. | And he returned to Ramatha; for there was his house, and there he judged Israel.
He built also there an altar to the Lord.

8

1 The Israelites Ask for a King And it came to pass when Samuel was old, that he appointed his sons to be judges over 8—12: It is generally acknowledged that there are two traditions used in these five chapters. In the older "pro-monarchical" tradition (9, 1-10, 16; 11, 1-15) God himself had Samuel anoint Saul king to unite the people against the Philistines (9, 16). His victory over the Ammonites resulted in the people taking the initiative to elect him king (11, 12).

2 Israel. | Now the name of his firstborn son was Joel: and the 3 name of the second was Abia, judges in Bersabee. | And his sons walked not in his ways: but they turned aside after lucre, 4 and took bribes, and perverted judgment. | Then all the ancients of Israel being assembled, came to Samuel to Ramatha. | 5 And they said to him: Behold you are old, and your sons walk not in your ways. Make us a king, to judge us, as all nations 6 have. | And the word was displeasing in the eyes of Samuel, that they should say: Give us a king, to judge us. And Samuel 7 prayed to the Lord.| And the Lord said to Samuel: Hearken to the voice of the people in all that they say to you. For they have not rejected you, but me, that I should not reign over them. | 8 According to all their works, they have done from the day that I brought them out of Egypt until this day: as they have forsaken me, and served strange gods, so do they also unto you.
9 | Now therefore hearken to their voice: but yet testify to them, and foretell them the right of the king, that shall reign over them.

10 Samuel Describes a King Then Samuel told all the words of the Lord to the people that had desired a king of him. | 11 And said: This will be the right of the king, that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and put them in his chariots, and will make them his horsemen, and his running footmen to 12 run before his chariots. | And he will appoint of them to be his tribunes, and centurions, and to plough his fields, and to reap 13 his corn, and to make him arms and chariots. | Your daughters also he will take to make him ointments, and to be his 14 cooks, and bakers. | And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your best oliveyards, and give them to his serv-15 ants. | Moreover he will take the tenth of your corn, and of the revenues of your vineyards, to give his eunuchs and serv-16 ants. | Your servants also and handmaids, and your goodliest

---

This was God's historical saving act in a theocratic state—God ruling through His representative.

A later "anti-monarchical" tradition (8; 10, 17-27; 12) in the sixth century B.C., after having experienced all the evils of a centuries old monarchical system, the tradition reflected theologically on the monarchy in strong anti-monarchical tones so that it almost drowned out the older tradition epitomized in 9, 16. The later tradition gave the deep impression that God and Samuel never wanted the monarchy but, rather, a pure theocratic state with God Himself selecting individual "judges." It is this later view which dimly reflects on the origins of the monarchy and judges the idea of kingship to be a rejection of Yahweh, "like the nations" (8, 20), and it regards Saul as a king not according to the heart of Yahweh.

young men, and your asses he will take away, and put them to 17 his work. | Your flocks also he will tithe, and you shall be his 18 servants. | And you shall cry out in that day from the face of the king, whom you have chosen to yourselves: and the Lord will not hear you in that day, because you desired unto yourselves a king.
19 But the people would not hear the voice of Samuel, and they 20 said: Nay: but there shall be a king over us. | And we also will be like all nations: and our king shall judge us, and go out
21 before us, and fight our battles for us. | And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and rehearsed them in the ears of the 22 Lord. | And the Lord said to Samuel: Hearken to their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said to the men of Israel: Let every man go to his city.

9

1 Saul Seeks His Father's Asses Now there was a man of Benjamin whose name was Cis, the son of Abiel, the son of Seror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphia, the son of a man
2 of Jemini, valiant and strong. | And he had a son whose name was Saul, a choice and goodly man, and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoul-
3 ders and upward he appeared above all the people. | And the asses of Cis, Saul's father, were lost. And Cis said to his son Saul: Take one of the servants with thee, and arise, go, and seek the asses. And when they had passed through mount
4 Ephraim, | and through the land of Salisa, and had not found them, they passed also through the land of Salim, and they were not there: and through the land of Jemini, and found them
5 not. | And when they had come to the land of Suph, Saul said to the servant that was with him: Come, let us return, lest per-
6 haps my father forget the asses, and be concerned for us. | And he said to him: Behold there is a man of God in this city, a famous man: all that he says, comes certainly to pass. Now therefore let us go thither; perhaps he may tell us of our way,
7 for which we have come. | And Saul said to his servant: Behold, he will go: but what shall we carry to the man of God? The bread is spent in our bags: and we have no present to make
8 to the man of God, nor any thing at all. | The servant answered Saul again, and said: Behold there is found in my hand the fourth part of a sicle of silver. Let us give it to the man of God, that he may tell us our way.
9 Now in time past, in Israel when a man went to consult God he spoke thus: Come, let us go to the seer. For he that is now
10 called a prophet, in time past was called a seer. | And Saul said to his servant: Your word is very good. Come, let us go. And they went into the city, where the man of God was.

11 And when they went up the ascent to the city, they found maids coming out to draw water, and they said to them: Is the 12 seer here? | They answered and said to them: He is: behold he is before you, make haste now. For he came today into the city, for there is a sacrifice of the people today in the high place.
13 | As soon as you come into the city, you shall immediately find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat till he comes: because he blesses the victim; and afterward they eat that are invited. Now therefore go up,
14 for today you shall find him. | And they went up into the city. And when they were walking in the midst of the city, behold Samuel was coming out over against them, to go up to the high place.

15 Now the Lord had revealed to the ear of Samuel the day
16 before Saul came, saying: | Tomorrow about this same hour I will send you a man of the land of Benjamin. And you shall anoint him to be ruler over my people Israel; and he shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked
17 down upon my people, because their cry has come to me. | And when Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said to him: Behold the man, of whom I spoke to you. This man shall reign over my people.

18 Saul Encounters Samuel And Saul came to Samuel in the midst of the gate and said: Tell me, I pray you, where is the 19 house of the seer? | And Samuel answered Saul, saying: I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, that you may eat with me today; and I will let you go in the morning: and tell you
20 all that is in your heart. | And as for the asses, which were lost three days ago, be not solicitous, because they are found. And for whom shall be all the best things of Israel? Shall they not
21 be for you and for all your father's house? | And Saul answering said: Am not I a son of Jemini of the last tribe of Israel, and my kindred the last among all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken this word to me?

22 Then Samuel taking Saul and his servant, brought them into the parlor, and gave them a place at the head of them that were 23 invited. For there were about thirty men. | And Samuel said to the cook: Bring the portion, which I gave you, and com-
24 manded you to set it apart by you. | And the cook took up the shoulder and set it before Saul. And Samuel said: Behold what is left, set it before you, and eat: because it was kept of purpose for you, when I invited the people. And Saul ate with Samuel that day.

25 And they went down from the high place into the town, and he spoke with Saul upon the top of the house: and he prepared 26 a bed for Saul on the top of the house, and he slept. | And when they were risen in the morning, and it began now to be light, Samuel called Saul on the top of the house, saying: Arise, that I may let you go. And Saul arose. And they went out both 27 of them, to wit, he and Samuel. | And as they were going down in the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul: Speak to the servant to go before us, and pass on. But you stand still a while, that I may tell you the word of the Lord.

10

1 Samuel Anoints Saul And Samuel took a little vial of oil, and poured it upon his head; and kissed him; and said: Behold, the Lord has anointed you to be prince over his inheritance: and you shall deliver his people out of the hands of their enemies, that are round about them. And this shall be a sign unto you, 2 that God has anointed you to be prince. | When you shall depart from me this day you shall find two men by the sepulcher of Rachel in the borders of Benjamin to the south. And they shall say to you: The asses are found which you went to seek;
and your father thinking no more of the asses is concerned for 3 you, and says: What shall I do for my son? | And when you shall depart from thence, and go farther on, and shall come to the oak of Thabor, there shall meet you three men going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another three 4 loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. | And they will salute you, and will give you two loaves. And you shall 5 take them at their hand. | After that you shall come to the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines is. And when you shall have come there into the city, you shall meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place, with a psaltery and a timbrel, and a pipe, and a harp before them, and they 6 shall be prophesying. | And the spirit of the Lord shall come upon you. And you shall prophesy with them, and shall be 10, 1: And kissed him: as a sign of homage. The rite of consecration of kings with an anointing was known in Egypt and in Syria.

10, 5: This is the first mention in the Old Testament of a company of prophets. Similar to modern dervishes, they generated ecstasy through music and dancing which proved infectious as exemplified in 19, 20-24. These prophets were fanatic purists who wanted no mixture of the Chanaanite fertility religion with Yahweh's religion. Prophecy, applied to them, did not mean prediction, nor preaching, but ritual dancing as described in 19, 20-24.

10, 6: Saul was changed not only by ecstasy but by becoming able to carry out the tasks of a king.

7 changed into another man. | When therefore these signs shall happen to you, do whatsoever your hand shall find, for 8 the Lord is with you. | And you shall go down before me to Galgal (for I will come down to you), that you may offer an oblation, and sacrifice victims of peace. Seven days shall you wait, till I come to you: and I will show you what you are to do.

9 Saul among the Prophets So when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave unto him another heart: and 10 all these things came to pass that day. | And they came to the foresaid hill, and behold a company of prophets met him. And the spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he prophesied in the 11 midst of them. | And all that had known him yesterday and the day before, seeing that he was with the prophets, and prophesied, said to each other: What is this that has happened to the 12 son of Cis? Is Saul also among the prophets? | And one answered another, saying: And who is their father? Therefore it 13 became a proverb: Is Saul also among the prophets? | And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high 14 place. | And Saul's uncle said to him, and to his servant:
Whither did you go? They answered: To seek the asses, and 15 not finding them we went to Samuel. | And his uncle said to 16 him: Tell me what Samuel said to you. | And Saul said to his uncle: He told us that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom of which Samuel had spoken to him, he told him not.

17 And Samuel called together the people to the Lord in Maspha.
18 | And he said to the children of Israel: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all 19 the kings who afflicted you. | But you this day have rejected your God, who only has saved you out of all your evils and your tribulations; and you have said: Nay: but set a king over us.
Now therefore stand before the Lord by your tribes, and by your 20 families. | And Samuel brought to him all the tribes of Israel, 21 and the lot fell on the tribe of Benjamin. | And he brought the tribe of Benjamin and the kindreds thereof, and the lot fell upon the kindred of Metri, and it came to Saul the son of Cis. They 22 sought him therefore and he was not found. | And after this they consulted the Lord whether he would come thither. And 23 the Lord answered: Behold he is hidden at home. | And they

10, 11-12: The people, being surprised to see the well known Saul in the company of uncouth prophets, said, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

10, 13: To the high place: this should read "to his home."

ran and fetched him thence. And he stood in the midst of the people; and he was higher than any of the people from the shoulders and upward.

24 Saul Is Chosen King And Samuel said to all the people: Surely you see him whom the Lord has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people. And all the people cried and
25 said: God save the king. | And Samuel told the people the law of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the Lord: and Samuel sent away all the people, every one to his
26 own house. | Saul also departed to his own house in Gabaa: and there went with him a part of the army, whose hearts God
27 had touched. | But the children of Belial said: Shall this fellow be able to save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he dissembled as though he heard not.

11

1 Saul Defeats the Ammonites And it came to pass about a month after this that Naas, the Ammonite came up, and began to fight against Jabes Galaad. And all the men of Jabes said to Naas: Make a covenant with us; and we will serve you.
2 | And Naas the Ammonite answered them: On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may pluck out all your
3 right eyes, and make you a reproach in all Israel. | And the ancients of Jabes said to him: Allow us seven days, that we may send messengers to all the coasts of Israel, and if there be no one to defend us, we will come out to you.
4 The messengers therefore came to Gabaa of Saul; and they spoke these words in the hearing of the people. And all the
5 people lifted up their voices, and wept. | And behold Saul came, following oxen out of the field, and he said: What ails the people that they weep? And they told him the words of the men
6 of Jabes. | And the spirit of the Lord came upon Saul, when he had heard these words; and his anger was exceedingly kindled. |
7 And taking both the oxen, he cut them in pieces, and sent them into all the coasts of Israel by messengers, saying: Whosoever shall not come forth, and follow Saul and Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen. And the fear of the Lord fell upon the 10, 25: Just as the Alliance between God and His people was deposited in the sanctuary (Jos 24, 26-27), so was the royal charter between the king and his people deposited in the same place. This custom resembled that of the ancient neighboring peoples who deposited their treaties before their gods.

11, 1-15: Saul's victory is an application of Samuel's words to him: "do whatsoever your hand shall find, for the Lord is with you" (10, 7).

8 people, and they went out as one man. | And he numbered them in Bezec. And there were of the children of Israel three hundred thousand: and of the men of Juda thirty thousand.
9 And they said to the messengers that came: Thus shall you say to the men of Jabes Galaad: Tomorrow, when the sun shall be hot, you shall have relief. The messengers therefore came, 10 and told the men of Jabes; and they were glad. | And they said:
In the morning we will come out to you; and you shall do what 11 you please with us. | And it came to pass, when morning had come that Saul put the people in three companies. And he came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch; and he slew the Ammonites until the day grew hot. And the rest were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.
12 And the people said to Samuel: Who is he that said: Shall Saul reign over us? Bring the men and we will kill them. | 13 And Saul said: No man shall be killed this day, because the 14 Lord this day has wrought salvation in Israel. | And Samuel said to the people: Come and let us go to Galgal, and let us 15 renew the kingdom there. | And all the people went to Galgal.
And there they made Saul king before the Lord in Galgal; and they sacrificed there victims of peace before the Lord. And there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced exceedingly.

12

1 Samuel Testifies His Integrity And Samuel said to all Israel: Behold I have hearkened to your voice in all that you 2 said to me, and have made a king over you. | And now the king goes before you. But I am old and grayheaded: and my sons are with you. Having then conversed with you from my youth unto 3 this day, behold here I am. | Speak of me before the Lord, and before his anointed, whether I have taken any man's ox or ass:
If I have wronged any man, if I have oppressed any man, if I have taken a bribe at any man's hand, and I will despise it this 4 day, and will restore it to you. | And they said: You have not wronged us, nor oppressed us, nor taken ought at any man's 5 hand. | And he said to them: The Lord is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they said: He is witness.
6 And Samuel said to the people: It is the Lord, who made Moses and Aaron, and brought our fathers out of the land of 12, 1-25: At the beginning of each new era in the history of salvation, the outgoing leader recalls the past saving acts of God and points to a similar future on condition that the people remain faithful—the theme of Deuteronomic history. (See Moses' speech in Dt, chs. 29—31 and Josue's speech in Jos, ch. 24.)

7 Egypt. | Now therefore stand up, that I may plead in judgment against you before the Lord, concerning all the kindness of the 8 Lord, which he has shown to you, and to your fathers: | How Jacob went into Egypt, and your fathers cried to the Lord: and the Lord sent Moses and Aaron, and brought your fathers out 9 of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place. | And they forgot the Lord their God, and he delivered them into the hands of Sisara, captain of the army of Hasor, and into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they 10 fought against them. | But afterward they cried to the Lord, and said: We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord, and have served Baalim and Astaroth: but now deliver us 11 from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you. | And the Lord sent Jerobaal, and Badan, and Jephte, and Samuel, and delivered you from the hand of your enemies round about: and you dwelt securely.

12 Samuel Reproves the People But seeing that Naas king of the children of Ammon had come against you, you said to me: Nay, but a king shall reign over us: whereas the Lord your 13 God was your king. | Now therefore your king is here, whom you have chosen and desired: behold the Lord has given you a 14 king. | If you will fear the Lord, and serve him, and hearken to his voice, and not provoke the mouth of the Lord: then shall both you, and the king who reigns over you, be followers of the 15 Lord your God. | But if you will not hearken to the voice of the Lord, but will rebel against his words, the hand of the Lord 16 shall be upon you, and upon your fathers. | Now then stand, and 17 see this great thing which the Lord will do in your sight. | Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call upon the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain. And you shall know and see that you yourselves have done a great evil in the sight of the Lord, in desiring a king over you.
18 And Samuel cried unto the Lord: and the Lord sent thunder 19 and rain that day. | And all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel. And all the people said to Samuel: Pray for your servants to the Lord your God, that we may not die; for we 20 have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for a king. | And Samuel said to the people: Fear not. You have done all this evil: but yet depart not from following the Lord, but serve 21 the Lord with all your heart. | And turn not aside after vain things which shall never profit you, nor deliver you, because 12, 9-11: These are references to past history in Jgs, chs. 4—5; 13—16; 3, 12-30.

22 they are vain. | And the Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake: because the Lord has sworn to make you 23 his people. | And far from me be this sin against the Lord, that I should cease to pray for you. And I will teach you the good 24 and right way. | Therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in truth and with your whole heart, for you have seen the great works 25 which he has done among you. | But if you will still do wickedly: both you and your king shall perish together.

13

1 The Philistines Come against Israel Saul was a child of one year when he began to reign, and he reigned two years over 2 Israel. | And Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel: and two thousand were with Saul in Machmas, and in mount Bethel: and a thousand with Jonathan in Gabaa of Benjamin, and the rest of the people he sent back every man to their dwellings. | 3 And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines which was in Gabaa. And when the Philistines had heard of it, Saul sounded the trumpet over all the land, saying: Let the Hebrews hear. | 4 And all Israel heard this report: Saul has smitten the garrison of the Philistines. And Israel took courage against the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Galgal.
5 The Philistines also were assembled to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and a multitude of people besides, like the sand on the sea shore for number. And going up they camped in Machmas at the east of 6 Bethaven. | And when the men of Israel saw that they were straitened (for the people were distressed), they hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in dens, and in pits. | 7 And some of the Hebrews passed over the Jordán into the land of Gad and Galaad. And when Saul was yet in Galgal, all the people that followed him were greatly afraid.
8 And he waited seven days according to the appointment of Samuel; and Samuel came not to Galgal, and the people 9 slipped away from him. | Then Saul said: Bring me the holocaust, and the peace offerings. And he offered the holocaust. | 10 And when he had made an end of offering the holocaust, behold Samuel came: and Saul went forth to meet him and salute him.

11 Samuel Disapproves of Saul And Samuel said to him:

13, 1-22: This chapter is composed of various sections written at different times which make it difficult to understand. The correct numbers in v. 1 have been lost.

What have you done? Saul answered: Because I saw that the people slipped from me, and you had not come according to the days appointed, and the Philistines were gathered together in 12 Machmas, | I said: Now will the Philistines come down upon me to Galgal, and I have not appeased the face of the Lord.
13 Forced by necessity, I offered the holocaust. | And Samuel said to Saul: You have done foolishly, and have not kept the commandments of the Lord your God, which he commanded you. And if you had not done thus, the Lord would now have
14 established your kingdom over Israel for ever. | But your kingdom shall not continue. The Lord has sought him a man according to his own heart: and him has the Lord commanded to be prince over his people, because you have not observed that which the Lord commanded.
15 And Samuel arose and went up from Galgal to Gabaa of Benjamin. And the rest of the people went up after Saul, to meet the people who fought against them, going from Galgal to Gabaa in the hill of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were found with him, about six hundred men. |
16 And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, were in Gabaa of Benjamin: but the Philis-
17 tines encamped in Machmas. | And there went out of the camp of the Philistines three companies to plunder. One com-
18 pany went toward the way of Ephra to the land of Sual; | and another went by the way of Beth-horon, and the third turned to the way of the border, above the valley of Seboim toward the desert.
19 Now there was no smith to be found in all the land of Israel, for the Philistines had taken this precaution, lest the Hebrews
20 should make them swords or spears. | So all Israel went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his ploughshare, and
21 his spade, and his axe, and his rake. | So that their shares, and their spades, and their forks, and their axes were blunt, even to
22 the goad, which was to be mended. | And when the day of battle was come, there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan, except Saul and Jonathan his son.
23 And the army of the Philistines went out in order to advance further in Machmas.

13, 13: Because it is difficult to see how Saul was so wrong, it may be that the tradition represented here is incomplete.

13, 19-22: The policy of the Philistines forbidding the Israelites the use of iron lest they arm is paralleled by Porsena forbidding iron to the Romans for the same reason.

14

1 Jonathan and His Armorbearer Now it came to pass one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man that bore his armor: Come, and let us go over to the garrison of the Philistines, which is on the other side of yonder place. But he told not this to his father.

2 And Saul abode in the uttermost part of Gabaa under the pomegranate tree, which was in Magron: and the people with
3 him were about six hundred men. | And Achias the son of Achitob brother to Ichabod the son of Phinees, the son of Heli the priest of the Lord in Silo, wore the ephod. And the people
4 knew not whither Jonathan was gone. | Now there were between the ascents, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the garrison of the Philistines, rocks standing up on both sides, and steep cliffs like teeth on the one side, and on the other. The name of the one was Boses, and the name of the other was Sene: |
5 one rock stood out toward the north over against Machmas;
6 and the other to the south over against Gabaa. | And Jonathan said to the young man that bore his armor: Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised, it may be the Lord will do for us, because it is easy for the Lord to save either by 7 many, or by few. | And his armorbearer said to him: Do all that pleases your mind. Go whither you will, and I will be with you wheresoever you have a mind.

8 And Jonathan said: Behold we will go over to these men.
9 And when we shall be seen by them, if they shall speak thus to us: Stay till we come to you: let us stand still in our place,
10 and not go up to them. | But if they shall say: Come up to us: let us go up, because the Lord has delivered them into our hands.
11 This shall be a sign unto us. | So both of them discovered themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said: Behold the Hebrews come forth out of the holes wherein
12 they were hidden. | And the men of the garrison spoke to Jonathan, and to his armorbearer, and said: Come up to us, and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said to his armorbearer: Let us go up, follow me: for the Lord has delivered them into the hands of Israel.

13 Jonathan's Miraculous Victory And Jonathan went up creeping on his hands and feet; and his armorbearer after him. And some fell before Jonathan, others his armorbearer slew as 14 he followed him. | And the first slaughter which Jonathan

14, 1-15: In recent years two Scripture professors reenacted the exploit of Jonathan by following the directions here.

and his armorbearer made, was of about twenty men, within half an acre of land, which a yoke of oxen is wont to plough in 15 a day. | And there was a miracle in the camp, through the fields: yea and all the people of their garrison, who had gone out to plunder, were amazed, and the earth trembled: and it happened as a miracle from God.
16 And the watchmen of Saul, who were in Gabaa of Benjamin looked, and behold a multitude overthrown, and fleeing this 17 way and that. | And Saul said to the people that were with him: Look, and see who is gone from us. And when they had sought, it was found that Jonathan and his armorbearer were
18 not there. | And Saul said to Achias: Bring the ark of the Lord. (For the ark of God was there that day with the children of 19 Israel.) | And while Saul spoke to the priest, there arose a great uproar in the camp of the Philistines: and it increased by degrees, and was heard more clearly. And Saul said to the priest:
20 Draw in your hand. | Then Saul and all the people that were with him, shouted together, and they came to the place of the fight: and behold every man's sword was turned upon his neigh-
21 bor; and there was a very great slaughter. | Moreover the Hebrews that had been with the Philistines yesterday and the day before, and went up with them into the camp, returned to be
22 with the Israelites, who were with Saul and Jonathan. | And all the Israelites that had hidden themselves in mount Ephraim, hearing that the Philistines fled, joined themselves with their countrymen in the fight. And there were with Saul about ten
23 thousand men. | And the Lord saved Israel that day. And the fight went on as far as Bethaven.

24 Saul's Oath And the men of Israel were joined together that day; and Saul adjured the people, saying: Cursed be the man that shall eat food till evening, till I be revenged of my
25 enemies. So none of the people tasted any food. | And all the common people came into a forest, in which there was honey
26 upon the ground. | And when the people came into the forest, behold the honey dropped, but no man put his hand to his
27 mouth. For the people feared the oath. | But Jonathan had not heard when his father adjured the people: and he put forth 14, 19: Draw in your hand: to learn what they should do by casting lots.

14, 20: It seems that Saul did not wait to cast lots and consult God, but joined the fray immediately.

14, 24: The vow was taken to gain God's favor for a victory.

14, 27: And his eyes were enlightened: because he got his strength back.

the end of the rod, which he had in his hand, and dipped it in a honeycomb: and he carried his hand to his mouth, and his 28 eyes were enlightened. | And one of the people answering, said: Your father has bound the people with an oath, saying: Cursed be the man that shall eat any food this day. (And the 29 people were faint.) | And Jonathan said: My father has troubled the land: you have seen yourselves that my eyes are en-
30 lightened, because I tasted a little of this honey: | How much more if the people had eaten of the prey of their enemies, which they found? Had there not been made a greater slaughter among the Philistines?
31 So they smote that day the Philistines from Machmas to 32 Ailon. And the people were wearied exceedingly. | And falling upon the spoils, they took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people ate them with the 33 blood. | And they told Saul that the people had sinned against the Lord, eating with the blood. And he said: You have trans-
34 gressed: roll here to me now a great stone. | And Saul said: Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them to bring me every man his ox and his ram, and slay them upon this stone, and eat, and you shall not sin against the Lord in eating with the blood. So all the people brought every man his ox with 35 him till the night: and slew them there. | And Saul built an altar to the Lord: and he then first began to build an altar to the Lord.
36 And Saul said: Let us fall upon the Philistines by night, and destroy them till the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And the people said: Do all that seems good in your eyes. And the priest said: Let us draw near hither unto God. |
37 And Saul consulted the Lord: Shall I pursue after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hands of Israel? And he 38 answered him not that day. | And Saul said: Bring hither all the corners of the people: and know, and see by whom this sin
39 has happened today. | As the Lord lives who is the savior of Israel, if it was done by Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. In
40 this none of the people gainsaid him. | And he said to all Israel: Be you on one side, and I with Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people answered Saul: Do what seems good 14, 30: Jonathan was correct for Saul had made an imprudent vow (v. 24) by obliging the soldiers to fast and renew their battle.

14, 32: The Mosaic Law forbade the eating of blood. See Lv 17, 11 n.

14, 35: And he then . . . Lord: the meaning is: it was the first altar which Saul built.

14, 39: Saul makes another rash vow.

41 in your eyes. | And Saul said to the Lord: O Lord God of Israel, give a sign, by which we may know, what the meaning is, that you did not answer your servant today. If this iniquity be in me, or in my son Jonathan, give a proof: or if this iniquity be in your people, give holiness. And Jonathan and Saul were taken, 42 and the people escaped. | And Saul said: Cast lots between me, and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.
43 And Saul said to Jonathan: Tell me what you have done.
And Jonathan told him, and said: I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod, which was in my hand; and behold I 44 must die. | And Saul said: May God do so and so to me, and add still more: for dying you shall die, O Jonathan.

45 The People Save Jonathan And the people said to Saul: Shall Jonathan then die, who has wrought this great salvation in Israel? This must not be. As the Lord lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground: for he has wrought with God this day. So the people delivered Jonathan that he 46 should not die. | And Saul went back, and did not pursue after the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own places.
47 And Saul having his kingdom established over Israel, fought against all his enemies round about, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and Edom, and the kings of Soba, and the Philistines; and whithersoever he turned himself, he over-48 came. | And gathering together an army, he defeated Amalec, and delivered Israel from the hand of them that spoiled them. | 49 And the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Jessui, and Melchisua:
and the names of his two daughters, the name of the firstborn 50 was Merob, and the name of the younger Michol. | And the name of Saul's wife was Achinoam the daughter of Achimaas; and the name of the captain of his army was Abner, the son of 51 Ner, the cousin german of Saul. | For Cis was the father of 52 Saul, and Ner the father of Abner, was son of Abiel. |. And there was a great war against the Philistines all the days of Saul. For whomsoever Saul saw to be a valiant man, and fit for war, he took him to himself.

14, 41: Proof: . . . holiness: substitute Urim for proof and Thummim for holiness: See Lv 8, 8 n, for the explanation of these two terms. This is the only text which says to some extent how these two objects were used, but it still remains a mystery how there could be no answer, as v. 37 says.

14, 44: Saul's rash passion to seek out the culprit only to discover his innocent son, whom he stoically condemns, is evocative of the pathos in a Greek tragedy.

15

1 Saul Disobeys God And Samuel said to Saul: The Lord sent me to anoint you king over his people Israel: now there-2 fore hearken unto the voice of the Lord. | Thus says the Lord of hosts: I have reckoned up all that Amalec has done to Israel: How he opposed them in the way when they came up 3 out of Egypt. | Now therefore go, and smite Amalec, and utterly destroy all that he has. Spare him not, nor covet any thing that is his: but slay both man and woman, child and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.
4 So Saul commanded the people, and numbered them as lambs: two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand of 5 the men of Juda. | And when Saul had come to the city of 6 Amalec, he laid ambushes in the torrent. | And Saul said to the Cinite: Go, depart and get yourself down from Amalec; lest I destroy you with him. For you have shown kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. And 7 the Cinite departed from the midst of Amalec. | And Saul smote Amalec from Hevila to as far as Sur, which is over 8 against Egypt. | And he took Agag the king of Amalec alive:
but all the common people he slew with the edge of the sword.
9 | And Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the flocks of sheep and of the herds, and the garments and the rams, and all that was beautiful, and would not destroy them: but everything that was vile and good for nothing, that they destroyed.

10 Saul's Humiliation And the word of the Lord came to 11 Samuel, saying: | I regret that I have made Saul king: for he has forsaken me, and has not executed my commandments. And Samuel was grieved, and he cried unto the Lord all night. | 12 And when Samuel rose early, to go to Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, that Saul had come to Carmel, and had erected for himself a triumphant arch: and returning had passed on, and gone down to Galgal. And Samuel came to Saul; and Saul was offering a holocaust to the Lord out of the choicest of the 13 spoils which he had brought from Amalec. | And when Samuel had come to Saul, Saul said to him: Blessed be you of the Lord.
I have fulfilled the word of the Lord.
14 And Samuel said: What means then this bleating of the flocks, which sounds in my ears, and the lowing of the herds, 15 which I hear? | And Saul said: They have brought them from 15, 2: Allusion to Ex 17, 8-16; Dt 25, 17-19.

15, 3: For an explanation of the herem or ban see Jos 6, 1-25 n.

Amalec, for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the herds that they might be sacrificed to the Lord your God, but 16 the rest we have slain. | And Samuel said to Saul: Suffer me, and I will tell you what the Lord has said to me this night.
17 And he said to him: Speak. | And Samuel said: When you were a little one in your own eyes, were you not made the head of the tribes of Israel? And the Lord anointed you to be king over
18 Israel, | and the Lord sent you on the way, and said: Go, and kill the sinners of Amalec; and you shall fight against them
19 until you have utterly destroyed them. | Why then did you not hearken to the voice of the Lord, but turn to the prey, and
20 doing evil in the eyes of the Lord? | And Saul said to Samuel: Yea, I have hearkened to the voice of the Lord, and have walked in the way by which the Lord sent me, and have brought
21 Agag the king of Amalec, and Amalec I have slain. | But the people took of the spoils sheep and oxen, as the firstfruits of those things that were slain, to offer sacrifice to the Lord their
22 God in Galgal. | And Samuel said: Does the Lord desire holocausts and victims, and not rather that the voice of the Lord should be obeyed? For obedience is better than sacrifices: and to hearken rather than to offer the fat of rams.

23 Saul Is Cast Off Because it is like the sin of witchcraft, to rebel: and like the crime of idolatry, to refuse to obey. Forasmuch therefore as you have rejected the word of the Lord, the 24 Lord has also rejected you from being king. | And Saul said to Samuel: I have sinned because I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and your words, fearing the people,
25 and obeying their voice. | But now bear, I beseech you, my
26 sin: and return with me, that I may adore the Lord. | And Samuel said to Saul: I will not return with you, because you have rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord has rejected
27 you from being king over Israel. | And Samuel turned about to go away: but he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and
28 it rent. | And Samuel said to him: The Lord has rent the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to your
29 neighbor who is better than you. | But the triumpher in Israel will not spare, and will not be moved to repentance: for he is 30 not a man that he should repent. | Then he said: I have sinned. Yet honor me now before the ancients of my people, and before Israel, and return with me, that I may adore the
31 Lord your God. | So Samuel turned again after Saul: and Saul adored the Lord.

32 And Samuel said: Bring hither to me Agag the king of Amalec. And Agag was presented to him, very fat, and trembling. And Agag said: Does bitter death separate in this man-33 ner? | And Samuel said: As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women. And 34 Samuel hewed him in pieces before the Lord in Galgal. | And Samuel departed to Ramatha: but Saul went up to his house 35 in Gabaa. | And Samuel saw Saul no more till the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul, because the Lord repented that he had made him king over Israel.

16

1 Samuel Anoints David And the Lord said to Samuel: How long will you mourn for Saul whom I have rejected from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and come, that I may send you to Isai the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a 2 king among his sons. | And Samuel said: How shall I go, for Saul will hear of it, and he will kill me? And the Lord said:
You shall take with you a calf of the herd, and you shall say:
3 I have come to sacrifice to the Lord. | And you shall call Isai to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you are to do: and you shall anoint him whom I shall show to you.
4 Then Samuel did as the Lord had said to him. And he came to Bethlehem, and the ancients of the city wondered, and meeting
5 him, they said: Is your coming here peaceable? | And he said:
It is peaceable. I have come to offer sacrifice to the Lord: be you sanctified, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified 6 Isai and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. | And when they had come in, he saw Eliab, and said: Is the Lord's anointed 7 before him? | And the Lord said to Samuel: Look not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature: because I have rejected him. Nor do I judge according to the look of man: for man sees those things that appear; but the Lord beholds the 8 heart. | And Isai called Abinadab, and brought him before 9 Samuel. And he said: Neither has the Lord chosen this. | And Isai brought Samma, and he said of him: Neither has the Lord
10 chosen this. | Isai therefore brought his seven sons before Samuel. And Samuel said to Isai: The Lord has not chosen 11 any one of these. | And Samuel said to Isai: Are here all your sons? He answered: There remains yet a young one, who keeps the sheep. And Samuel said to Isai: Send, and fetch him, for 12 we will not sit down till he comes hither. | He sent therefore and brought him. Now he was ruddy and beautiful to behold,

15, 33: Thus did Samuel carry out the total destruction of the enemy as the ban in v. 3 required, which is not a human sacrifice even though the text reads "before the Lord."

and of a comely face. And the Lord said: Arise, and anoint 13 him, for this is he. | Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren. And the spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward: and Samuel rose up, and went to Ramatha.
14 But the spirit of the Lord departed from Saul: and an evil 15 spirit from the Lord troubled him. | And the servants of Saul said to him: Behold now an evil spirit from God troubles you.
16 | Let our lord give orders, and your servants who are before you will seek out a man skillful in playing on the harp, that when the evil spirit from the Lord is upon you, he may play 17 with his hand, and you may bear it more easily. | And Saul said to his servants: Provide me then some man that can play 18 well, and bring him to me. | And one of the servants answering, said: Behold I have seen a son of Isai the Bethlehemite, a skillful player, and one of great strength, and a man fit for war, and prudent in his words, and a comely person. And the Lord is with him.
19 Then Saul sent messengers to Isai, saying: Send me David 20 your son, who is in the pastures. | And Isai took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid of the flock, and 21 sent them by the hand of David his son to Saul. | And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him exceed-22 ingly, and made him his armorbearer. | And Saul sent to Isai, saying: Let David stand before me; for he has found favor in 23 my sight. | So whensoever the evil spirit from the Lord was upon Saul, David took his harp, and played with his hand: and Saul was refreshed, and was better, for the evil spirit departed from him.

17

1 Goliath Challenges All Israel Now the Philistines gathering together their troops to battle, assembled at Socho of 16, 23: Since everything is directly attributed to God so is Saul's "evil spirit" which was the dejected mood caused by God's rejecting him as king. Compare Alexander the Great who at the military air of his flutist would drop his food and don his armor for battle but would resume his eating as the flutist shifted to a dulcet tune.

17, 1-54: Many scholars believe that the story of 2 Sm 21, 19, which tells of one of David's soldiers, Elhanan ("Adeodatus" in our text) who killed a Philistine called Goliath, is an older story than 1 Sm 17 that describes the contest between David and Goliath. According to these scholars, it may well be that when 1 Sm 17 was first written it reported a victory of David over an extraordinary person called "The Philistine." Later the "Goliath" of 2 Sm 21, 19 was appended to "The Philistine" of 1 Sm 17.

Juda, and camped between Socho and Azeca in the borders of 2 Dommim. | And Saul and the children of Israel being gathered together came to the valley of Terebinth, and they set the 3 army in array to fight against the Philistines. | And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between 4 them. | And there went out a man baseborn from the camp of the Philistines named Goliath, of Geth, whose height was 5 six cubits and a span. | And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was clothed with a coat of mail with scales, and the weight of his coat of mail was five thousand sicles of 6 brass. | And he had greaves of brass on his legs, and a buckler
7 of brass covered his shoulders. | And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear weighed six hundred sicles of iron: and his armorbearer went before him.
8 And standing he cried out to the bands of Israel, and said to them: Why have you come out prepared to fight? Am not I a Philistine, and you the servants of Saul? Choose out a man 9 of you, and let him come down and fight hand to hand. | If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, we will be servants to you: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, you shall be 10 servants, and shall serve us. | And the Philistine said: I have defied the bands of Israel this day. Give me a man, and let him 11 fight with me hand to hand. | And Saul and all the Israelites hearing these words of the Philistine were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 David and Goliath Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Juda before mentioned, whose name was Isai, who had eight sons, and was an old man in the days 13 of Saul, and of great age among men. | And his three eldest sons followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle, were Eliab the firstborn, and the 14 second Abinadab, and the third Samma. | But David was the 15 youngest. So, the three eldest having followed Saul, David went, and returned from Saul, to feed his father's flock at Bethlehem.
16 | Now the Philistine came out morning and evening, and pre-
17 sented himself forty days. | And Isai said to David his son:
Take for your brethren an ephi of frumenty, and these ten 18 loaves; and run to the camp to your brethren. | And carry

17, 4-7: Scholars vary in the hazardous translation of Hebrew measurements and weights. Goliath could measure nine and one-half feet tall; his coat could have weighed from ninety to two hundred twenty pounds; and the "head of his spear" from eleven to twenty-six and one-half pounds.

these ten little cheeses to the tribune. And go see your brethren, if they are well: and learn with whom they are placed.
19 But Saul, and they, and all the children of Israel were in the 20 valley of Terebinth fighting against the Philistines. | David therefore arose in the morning, and gave the charge of the flock to the keeper: and went away loaded as Isai had commanded him. And he came to the place of Magala, and to the army, which was going out to fight, and shouted for the battle. |
21 For Israel had put themselves in array: and the Philistines who 22 stood against them were prepared. | And David leaving the vessels which he had brought, under the care of the keeper of the baggage, ran to the place of the battle and asked if all
23 things went well with his brethren. | And as he talked with them, that baseborn man whose name was Goliath, the Philistine, of Geth, showed himself coming up from the camp of the Philistines. And he spoke according to the same words; and
24 David heard them. | And all the Israelites when they saw the 25 man, fled from his face, fearing him exceedingly. | And some one of Israel said: Have you seen this man that has come up, for he has come up to defy Israel? And the man that shall slay him, the king will enrich with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and will make his father's house free from tribute
26 in Israel. | And David spoke to the men that stood by him, saying: What shall be given to the man that shall kill this Philistine, and shall take away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the
27 armies of the living God? | And the people answered him the same words saying: These things shall be given to the man that shall slay him.
28 Now when Eliab his eldest brother heard this, when he was speaking with others, he was angry with David, and said: Why did you come hither? And why did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know your pride, and the wickedness of your 29 heart: that you have come down to see the battle. | And David
30 said: What have I done? Is there not cause to speak? | And he turned a little aside from him to another: and said the same
31 word. And the people answered him as before. | And the words which David spoke were heard, and were rehearsed before Saul.

32 David before Saul And when he was brought to him, he said to him: Let not any man's heart be dismayed in him. I your servant will go, and will fight against the Philistine. |
33 And Saul said to David: You are not able to withstand this Philistine, nor to fight against him; for you are but a boy, but 34 he is a warrior from his youth. | And David said to Saul:

Your servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, 35 or a bear, and took a ram out of the midst of the flock. | And I pursued after them, and struck them, and delivered it out of their mouth. And they rose up against me; and I caught them 36 by the throat; and I strangled and killed them. | For I your servant have killed both a lion and a bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be also as one of them. I will go now, and take away the reproach of the people. For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, who has dared to curse the army of 37 the living God? | And David said: The Lord who delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said to David: Go, and the Lord be with you.
38 And Saul clothed David with his garments, and put a helmet of brass upon his head, and armed him with a coat of mail. | 39 And David having girded his sword upon his armor, began to try if he would walk in armor: for he was not accustomed to it. And David said to Saul: I cannot go thus, for I am not used 40 to it. And he laid them off, | and he took his staff, which he had always in his hands: and he chose five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them into the shepherd's scrip, which he had with him, and he took a sling in his hand, and went forth against the Philistine.
41 And the Philistine came on, and drew nigh against David, 42 and his armorbearer before him. | And when the Philistine looked, and beheld David, he despised him. For he was a young 43 man, ruddy, and of a comely countenance. | And the Philistine said to David: Am I a dog, that you come to me with a staff?
44 And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. | And he said to David: Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air, and to the beasts of the earth.
45 And David said to the Philistine: You come to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of 46 Israel, which you have defied. | This day, and the Lord will deliver you into my hand, and I will slay you, and take away your head from you. And I will give the carcasses of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the air, and to the beasts of the earth: that all the earth may know that there is a 47 God in Israel. | And all this assembly shall know, that the Lord saves not with sword and spear: for it is his battle; and he will deliver you into our hands.

48 David Slays Goliath And when the Philistine arose and was coming, and drew nigh to meet David, David made haste,

49 and ran to the fight to meet the Philistine. | And he put his hand into his scrip, and took a stone, and cast it with the sling, and fetching it about struck the Philistine in the forehead. And the stone was fixed in his forehead: and he fell on his face upon 50 the earth. | And David prevailed over the Philistine, with a sling and a stone: and he struck, and slew the Philistine. And 51 as David had no sword in his hand, | he ran, and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath, and slew him, and cut off his head. And the Philistines seeing 52 that their champion was dead, fled away. | And the men of Israel and Juda rising up shouted, and pursued after the Philistines till they came to the valley and to the gates of Accaron, and there fell many wounded of the Philistines in the way of 53 Saraim, and as far as Geth, and as far as Accaron. | And the children of Israel returning, after they had pursued the Philistines, fell upon their camp.
54 And David taking the head of the Philistine brought it to 55 Jerusalem: but his armor he put in his tent. | Now at the time that Saul saw David going out against the Philistines, he said to Abner the captain of the army: Of what family is this young man descended, Abner? And Abner said: As your soul 56 lives, O king, I know not. | And the king said: Inquire, whose 57 son this man is. | And when David returned, after the Philistine was slain, Abner took him, and brought him in before Saul, with 58 the head of the Philistine in his hand. | And Saul said to him:
Young man, of what family are you? And David said: I am the son of your servant Isai the Bethlehemite.

18

1 Friendship of Jonathan and David And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved 2 him as his own soul. | And Saul took him that day, and would 3 not let him return to his father's house. And David and Jonathan made a covenant: for he loved him as his own soul. | 4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the coat with which he was clothed, and gave it to David, and the rest of his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.
5 And David went out to whatsoever business Saul sent him,

17, 55—18, 5: This account of David's introduction to king Saul's court differs from the other in 16, 18-23.

18, 4: The Arabs today still exchange arms and garments as a sign of deep friendship because each would be wearing something exhibiting the personality of the other. See Homer's Iliad for a parallel example between Glaucus and Diomedes exchanging armor.

and he behaved himself prudently: and Saul set him over the soldiers, and he was acceptable in the eyes of all the people, and 6 especially in the eyes of Saul's servants. | Now when David returned, after he slew the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul,
7 with timbrels of joy, and cornets. | And the women sang as they played. And they said: Saul slew his thousands, and David his 8 ten thousands. | And Saul was exceeding angry, and this word was displeasing in his eyes, and he said: They have given David ten thousands, and to me they have given but a thousand.
9 What can he have more but the kingdom? | And Saul did not 10 look on David with a good eye from that day forward, and the day after, the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of his house. And David played with his hand as at other times. And Saul held a spear in his hand, |
11 and threw it, thinking to nail David to the wall: and David stepped aside out of his presence twice.

12 And Saul feared David, because the Lord was with him, and 13 had departed from himself. | Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him a captain over a thousand men: and he
14 went out and came in before the people. | And David behaved
15 wisely in all his ways, and the Lord was with him. | And Saul saw that he was exceeding prudent, and began to beware of 16 him. | But all Israel and Juda loved David, for he came in and 17 went out before them. | And Saul said to David: Behold my elder daughter Merob: her will I give you to wife: only be a valiant man, and fight the battles of the Lord. Now Saul said within himself: Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hands
18 of the Philistines be upon him. | And David said to Saul: Who am I, or what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I
19 should be son-in-law of the king? | And it came to pass at the time when Merob the daughter of Saul should have been given to David, that she was given to Hadriel the Molathite to wife.

20 David Marries Saul's Daughter But Michol the other daughter of Saul loved David. And it was told Saul, and it
21 pleased him. | And Saul said: I will give her to him, that she may be a stumbling block to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be upon him. And Saul said to David: In two
22 things you shall be my son-in-law this day. | And Saul commanded his servants to speak to David privately, saying: Behold you please the king; and all his servants love you. Now
23 therefore be the king's son-in-law. | And the servants of Saul spoke all these words in the ears of David. And David said:

Does it seem to you a small matter to be the king's son-in-law?
24 But I am a poor man, and of small ability. | And the servants of Saul told him, saying: Such words as these has David spoken.
25 | And Saul said: Speak thus to David: The king desires not any dowry, but only a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. Now Saul thought to deliver 26 David into the hands of the Philistines. | And when his servants had told David the words that Saul had said, the word was pleasing in the eyes of David to be the king's son-in-law. | 27 And after a few days David rose up, and went with the men that were under him. And he slew of the Philistines two hundred men, and brought their foreskins and numbered them out to the king, that he might be his son-in-law. Saul therefore gave him Michol his daughter to wife.
28 And Saul saw, and understood that the Lord was with David.
29 And Michol the daughter of Saul loved him. | And Saul began to fear David more: and Saul became David's enemy continu-30 ally. | And the princes of the Philistines went forth: and from the beginning of their going forth, David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul. And his name became very famous.

19

1 Saul again Seeks to Kill David And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David.
2 But Jonathan the son of Saul loved David exceedingly. | And Jonathan told David, saying: Saul my father seeks to kill you.
Wherefore look to yourself, I beseech you, in the morning; and 3 you shall abide in a secret place and shall hide. | And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are. And I will speak of you to my father; and whatsoever I shall see, I 4 will tell you. | And Jonathan spoke good things of David to Saul his father; and said to him: Sin not, O king, against your servant, David, because he has not sinned against you; and his 5 works are very good toward you. | And he put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine; and the Lord wrought great salvation for all Israel. You saw it and did rejoice. Why therefore will you sin against innocent blood by killing David, who is without fault?
6 And when Saul heard this he was appeased with the words of Jonathan, and swore: As the Lord lives he shall not be slain. | 7 Then Jonathan called David and told him all these words. And Jonathan brought in David to Saul: and he was before him, as 8 he had been yesterday and the day before. | And the war began again. And David went out and fought against the Philistines, and defeated them with a great slaughter: and they fled from his face.

9 David Escapes from Saul And the evil spirit from the Lord came upon Saul: and he sat in his house, and held a spear in his 10 hand. And David played with his hand. | And Saul endeavored to nail David to the wall with his spear. And David slipped away out of the presence of Saul: and the spear missed him, and was fastened in the wall. And David fled and escaped that
11 night. | Saul therefore sent his guards to David's house to watch him, that he might be killed in the morning. And when Michol David's wife had told him this, saying: Unless you save
12 yourself this night, tomorrow you will die. | She let him down through a window. And he went and fled away and escaped. |
13 And Michol took an image and laid it on the bed: and put a goat's skin with the hair at the head of it, and covered it with 14 clothes. | And Saul sent officers to seize David: and it was 15 answered that he was sick. | And again Saul sent to see David, saying: Bring him to me in the bed, that he may be slain. |
16 And when the messengers came in, they found an image upon 17 the bed, and a goat's skin at its head. | And Saul said to Michol: Why have you deceived me so, and let my enemy go and flee away? And Michol answered Saul: Because he said to me: Let me go, or else I will kill you.

18 But David fled and escaped, and came to Samuel in Ramatha, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel 19 went and dwelt in Najoth. | And it was told Saul by some, say-
20 ing: Behold David is in Najoth in Ramatha. | So Saul sent officers to take David: and when they saw a company of prophets prophesying, and Samuel presiding over them, the spirit of the Lord came also upon them, and they likewise began
21 to prophesy. | And when this was told Saul, he sent other messengers; but they also prophesied. And again Saul sent messengers the third time: and they prophesied also. And Saul
22 being exceedingly angry, | went also himself to Ramatha, and came as far as the great cistern, which is in Socho, and he asked, and said: In what place are Samuel and David? And it was told
23 him: Behold they are in Najoth in Ramatha. | And he went to Najoth in Ramatha. And the spirit of the Lord came upon him also; and he went on, and prophesied till he came to Najoth in
24 Ramatha. | And he stripped himself also of his garments, and prophesied with the rest before Samuel, and lay down naked all

19, 20-24: See 10, 5 n, for an explanation of "prophets."

that day and night. This gave occasion to a proverb: What! I Saul too among the prophets?

20

1 Jonathan's Kindness to David But David fled from Na joth, which is in Ramatha, and came and said to Jonathan What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what is my sir
2 against your father, that he seeks my life? | And he said to him
God forbid, you shall not die: for my father will do nothin great or little, without first telling me. Has then my fathe 3 hidden this word only from me? No: this shall not be. | An he swore again to David. And David said: Your father cer tainly knows that I have found grace in your sight; and he wil say: Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved. But truly as the Lord lives, and your soul lives, there is but one step (a 4 I may say) between me and death. | And Jonathan said t
David: Whatsoever your soul shall say to me, I will do for you 5 | And David said to Jonathan: Behold tomorrow is the new moon, and I according to custom am wont to sit beside the kin to eat. Let me go then that I may hide in the field till the evenin 6 of the third day. | If your father should look and inquire fo me, you shall answer him: David asked me that he might ru to Bethlehem his own city: because there are solemn sacrifice 7 there for all his tribe. | If he shall say: It is well: your servan shall have peace. But if he be angry, know that his malice ha 8 come to its height. | Deal mercifully then with your servant for you have brought me your servant into a covenant of th Lord with you. But if there be any iniquity in me, kill me your self, and bring me not in to your father.
9 And Jonathan said: Far be this from you: for, if I shoul certainly know that evil is determined by my father against you I could do no otherwise than tell you.
10 And David answered Jonathan: Who shall bring me word if your father should answer you harshly concerning me?
11 And Jonathan said to David: Come and let us go out into th field. And when they were both of them gone out into the field 12 | Jonathan said to David: O Lord God of Israel, if I shall dis cover my father's mind, tomorrow or the day after, and ther be any thing good for David, and I send not immediately t 13 you, and make it known to you, | may the Lord do so and s to Jonathan, and add still more. But if my father shall continu in malice against you, I will discover it to your ear; and wil send you away, that you may go in peace, and the Lord be with 14 you, as he has been with my father. | And if I live, you shal
15 show me the kindness of the Lord: but if I die, | you shall no

take away your kindness from my house for ever, when the Lord shall have rooted out the enemies of David, every one of them from the earth. May he take away Jonathan from his house: and may the Lord require it at the hands of David's enemies.

The Friends Make a Covenant Jonathan therefore made a covenant with the house of David: and the Lord required it at the hands of David's enemies. | And Jonathan swore again to David, because he loved him: for he loved him as his own soul.

And Jonathan said to him: Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed: | for your seat will be empty till after tomorrow. So you shall go down quickly, and come to the place, where you must be hidden on the day when it is lawful to work; and you shall remain beside the stone, which is called Ezel. | And I will shoot three arrows near it, and will shoot as if I were exercising myself at a mark. | And I will send a boy, saying to him: Go and fetch me the arrows. | If I shall say to the boy: Behold the arrows are on this side of you, take them up: come to me, because there is peace to you, and there is no evil, as the Lord lives. But if I shall speak thus to the boy: Behold the arrows are beyond you: go in peace, for the Lord has sent you away. | And concerning the word which I and you have spoken, the Lord be between you and me for ever.

So David was hidden in the field. And the new moon came: and the king sat down to eat bread. | And when the king sat down upon his chair (according to custom) which was beside the wall, Jonathan arose; and Abner sat by Saul's side; and David's place appeared empty. | And Saul said nothing that day: for he thought it might have happened to him, that he was not clean, nor purified.

And when the second day after the new moon had come, David's place appeared empty again. And Saul said to Jonathan his son: Why did the son of Isai not come to meat neither yesterday nor today? | And Jonathan answered Saul: He asked leave of me earnestly to go to Bethlehem. | And he said: Let me go, for there is a solemn sacrifice in the city. One of my brethren has sent for me; and now if I have found favor in your eyes, I will go quickly, and see my brethren. For this cause he came not to the king's table.

Saul's Anger against Jonathan Then Saul being angry against Jonathan said to him: You son of a woman that is the ravisher of a man, do I not know that you love the son of Isai to your own confusion and to the confusion of your shameles 31 mother? | For as long as the son of Isai lives upon earth, yo shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Therefore nov presently send, and fetch him to me: for he is the son of death 32 | And Jonathan answering Saul his father, said: Why shall h

33 die: what has he done? | And Saul caught up a spear to strik him. And Jonathan understood that it was determined by hi 34 father to kill David. | So Jonathan rose from the table in grea anger, and did not eat bread on the second day after the nev moon. For he was grieved for David, because his father ha put him to confusion.
35 And when the morning came, Jonathan went into the field according to the appointment with David, and a little bo 36 with him. | And he said to his boy: Go, and fetch me th arrows which I shoot. And when the boy ran, he shot anothe 37 arrow beyond the boy. | The boy therefore came to the plac of the arrow which Jonathan had shot: and Jonathan crie after the boy, and said: Behold the arrow is there further be 38 yond you. | And Jonathan cried again after the boy, saying Make haste speedily, stand not. And Jonathan's boy gathere 39 up the arrows, and brought them to his master. | And he knev not at all what it meant: for only Jonathan and David knev 40 the matter. | Jonathan therefore gave his arms to the boy, an said to him: Go, and carry them into the city.
41 And when the boy was gone, David rose out of his plac which was toward the south; and falling on his face to th ground, adored thrice. And kissing one another, they wep 42 together, but David more. | And Jonathan said to David: G in peace. And let all stand that we have sworn both of us i the name of the Lord, saying: The Lord be between me an 43 you, and between my seed and your seed for ever. | And Davi arose, and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

21

1 David Receives Holy Bread And David came to Nobe t Achimelech the priest: and Achimelech was astonished a David's coming. And he said to him: Why are you alone, an 2 no man with you? | And David said to Achimelech the priest
The king has commanded me a business, and said: Let no ma know the thing for which you are sent by me, and what manne or commands I have given you. And I have appointed my serv 3 ants to such and such a place. | Now therefore if you have an thing at hand, though it were but five loaves, give me, or what 20, 31: This verse, and 23, 17, illustrate that the palm of true friend soever you can find. | And the priest answered David, saying: I have no common bread at hand, but only holy bread, if the young men be clean, especially from women? | And David answered the priest, and said to him: Truly, as to what concerns women, we have refrained ourselves from yesterday and the day before, when we came out, and the vessels of the young men were holy. Now this way is defiled, but it shall also be sanctified this day in the vessels. | The priest therefore gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there, but only the loaves of proposition, which had been taken away from before the face of the Lord, that hot loaves might be set up.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, within the tabernacle of the Lord: and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the first of Saul's herdsmen.

8 And David said to Achimelech: Have you here at hand a spear, or a sword? For I brought not my own sword, nor my own weapons with me, for the king's business required haste. | 9 And the priest said: Lo, here is the sword of Goliath the Philis-tine whom you slew in the valley of Terebinth, wrapped up in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take this, take it: for here is no other but this. And David said: There is none like that.
Give it to me.

10 And David arose and fled that day from the face of Saul:
11 and came to Achis the king of Geth. | And the servants of Achis, when they saw David, said to him: Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing to him in their dances, saying:
Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? | 12 But David laid up these words in his heart, and was exceedingly 13 afraid at the face of Achis the king of Geth. | And he changed his countenance before them, and slipped down between their hands. And he stumbled against the doors of the gate; and his 14 spittle ran down upon his beard. | And Achis said to his servants: You saw the man was mad. Why have you brought him 15 to me? | Have we need of madmen, that you have brought in this fellow, to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?

22

1 Many Resort to David David therefore went from thence and fled to the cave of Odollam. And when his brethren, and hip goes to Jonathan, for he had everything to lose, whereas David had verything to gain.

---

21, 5: Vessels: bodies. Since only the priests could eat the sacred oaves kept in the Ark, Achimelech is willing to make an exception beall his father's house had heard of it, they went down to him 2 thither. | And all that were in distress and oppressed with debt, and under affliction of mind gathered themselves unto him.

And he became their prince. And there were with him about 3 four hundred men. | And David departed from thence into Maspha of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab: let my father and my mother tarry with you, I beseech you, till I know 4 what God will do for me. | And he left them under the eyes of the king of Moab: and they abode with him all the days that 5 David was in the hold. | And Gad the prophet said to David:
Abide not in the hold, depart, and go into the land of Juda. And David departed, and came into the forest of Haret.

6 And Saul heard that David was seen, and the men that were with him. Now, while Saul abode in Gabaa, and was in the wood, which is by Rama, having his spear in his hand, and all 7 his servants were standing about him, | he said to his servants that stood about him: Hear me now, sons of Jemini: Will the son of Isai give every one of you fields, and vineyards, and 8 make you all tribunes, and centurions: | that all of you have conspired against me, and there is no one to inform me, especially when even my son has entered into league with the son of Isai? There is not one of you that pities my case, nor that gives me any information: because my son has raised up my servant against me, plotting against me to this day.

9 Doeg Accuses Achimelech And Doeg the Edomite who stood by, and was the chief among the servants of Saul, answering, said: I saw the son of Isai, in Nobe, with Achimelech 10 the son of Achitob the priest. | And he consulted the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent to call for Achimelech the priest the son of Achitob, and all his father's house, the priests that were in 12 Nobe; and they came all of them to the king. | And Saul said to Achimelech: Hear, you son of Achitob. He answered: Here 13 I am, my lord. | And Saul said to him: Why have you conspired against me, you, and the son of Isai? And you have given him bread and a sword, and have consulted the Lord for him, cause David was starving, but the priest demanded sexual abstinence just as the priests had to observe before eating the sacred loaves.

---

22, 3-4: See Introduction to the Book of Ruth for this as an indication of Ruth's historicity.

22, 9-10: Doeg, sometimes called the Iago of Hebrew History, will feel no dread in slaughtering the priests (vv. 18-19) because of his Edomite background, though apparently a convert.

that he should rise up against me, continuing a traitor to this 14 day. | And Achimelech answering the king, said: And who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and goes forth at your bidding, and is honor-15 able in your house? | Did I begin today to consult the Lord for him? Far be this from me. Let not the king suspect such a thing against his servant, or any one in all my father's house: for your servant knew nothing of this matter, either little or great.

16 Saul Kills the Priests And the king said: Dying you shall 17 die, Achimelech. You and all your father's house. | And the king said to the messengers that stood about him: Turn, and kill the priests of the Lord. For their hand is with David: because they knew that he had fled; and they told it not to me.
And the king's servants would not put forth their hands against 18 the priests of the Lord. | And the king said to Doeg: Turn, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and fell upon the priests, and slew in that day eighty-five men that wore 19 the linen ephod. | And Nobe the city of the priests he smote with the edge of his sword, both men and women, children, and sucklings, and ox and ass, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.
20 But one of the sons of Achimelech the son of Achitob, whose 21 name was Abiathar, escaped, and fled to David, | and told him
22 that Saul had slain the priests of the Lord. | And David said to Abiathar: I knew that day when Doeg the Edomite was there, that without doubt he would tell Saul: I have been the occasion 23 of the death of all the souls of your father's house. | Abide with me, fear not: for he that seeks my life, seeks your life also;
and with me you shall be saved.

23 1 David Rescues Ceila And they told David, saying: Behold the Philistines fight against Ceila; and they rob the barns.
2 | Therefore David consulted the Lord, saying: Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the Lord said to David: Go. And 3 you shall smite the Philistines, and save Ceila. | And the men that were with David, said to him: Behold we are in fear here in Judea. How much more if we go to Ceila against the bands 4 of the Philistines? | Therefore David consulted the Lord again.
And he answered and said to him: Arise, and go to Ceila: for I 5 will deliver the Philistines into your hand. | David therefore, and his men, went to Ceila, and fought against the Philistines;

22, 22: A reference to 21, 7.

and brought away their cattle, and made a great slaughter of 6 them: and David saved the inhabitants of Ceila. | Now at that time, when Abiathar the son of Achimelech fled to David to Ceila, he came down having an ephod with him.
7 And it was told Saul that David had come to Ceila. And Saul said: The Lord has delivered him into my hands; and he is shut up, having come into a city, that has gates and bars 8 | And Saul commanded all the people to go down to fight against 9 Ceila, and to besiege David, and his men. | Now when David understood, that Saul secretly prepared evil against him, he said 10 to Abiathar the priest: Bring hither the ephod. | And David said: O Lord God of Israel, your servant has heard a report that Saul designs to come to Ceila, to destroy the city for my 11 sake. | Will the men of Ceila deliver me into his hands? And will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O Lord God of Israel, tell your servant. And the Lord said: He will come 12 down. | And David said: Will the men of Ceila deliver me and my men, into the hands of Saul? And the Lord said: They 13 will deliver you up. | Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose, and departing from Ceila, wandered up and down uncertain where they should stay. And it was told Saul that David had fled from Ceila, and had escaped: wherefore he forbore to go out.

14 David in the Desert But David abode in the desert in strongholds; and he remained in a mountain of the desert of Ziph, in a woody hill. And Saul sought him always: but the 15 Lord delivered him not into his hands. | And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the desert 16 of Ziph, in a wood. | And Jonathan the son of Saul arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hands in 17 God. And he said to him: | Fear not, for the hand of my father Saul shall not find you: and you shall reign over Israel: and I 18 shall be next to you. Yea, and my father knows this. | And the two made a covenant before the Lord: and David abode in the wood, but Jonathan returned to his house.
19 And the Ziphites went up to Saul in Gabaa, saying: Lo, does not David lie hidden with us in the strongholds of the wood in mount Hachila, which is on the right hand of the desert?
20 Now therefore come down, as your soul has desired to come down: and it shall be our business to deliver him into the king's 21 hands. | And Saul said: Blessed be you of the Lord; for you 22 have pitied my case. | Go therefore, I pray you, and use all diligence, and curiously inquire, and consider the place where his foot is, and who has seen him there. For he thinks of me, that I lie craftily in wait for him.

23 Saul Pursues David Consider and see all his lurking holes, wherein he is hidden; and return to me with the certainty of the thing, that I may go with you. And if he should even go down into the earth to hide himself, I will search him out in all the 24 thousands of Juda. | And they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. And David and his men were in the desert of Maon, in the
25 plain at the right hand of Jesimon. | Then Saul and his men went to seek him. And it was told David: and forthwith he went down to the rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul had heard of it he pursued after David in the
26 wilderness of Maon. | And Saul went on this side of the mountain: and David and his men were on other side of the mountain. And David despaired of being able to escape from the face of Saul. And Saul and his men encompassed David and his
27 men round about to take them. | And a messenger came to Saul, saying: Make haste to come, for the Philistines have poured in 28 themselves upon the land. | Wherefore Saul returned, leaving the pursuit of David, and went to meet the Philistines. For this cause they called that place, the Rock of Division.

24

1 David Spares Saul's Life Then David went up from 2 thence, and dwelt in strongholds of Engaddi. | And when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, they told him, say-
3 ing: Behold, David is in the desert of Engaddi. | Saul therefore took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went out to seek after David, and his men, even upon the most craggy
4 rocks, which are accessible only to wild goats. | And he came to the sheepcotes, which were in his way. And there was a cave, into which Saul went, to ease nature. Now David and his men lay hidden in the inner part of the cave.

5 And the servants of David said to him: Behold the day, of which the Lord said to you: I will deliver your enemy unto you, that you may do to him as it shall seem good in your eyes. Then David arose, and secretly cut off the hem of Saul's robe. |
6 After which David's heart struck him, because he had cut off 7 the hem of Saul's robe. | And he said to his men: The Lord be merciful unto me, that I may do no such thing to my master the 24, 1-23: This account shows that David may well have entertained a double motive in sparing Saul's life. If David killed Saul it would not later help his claim to the throne.

Lord's anointed, as to lay my hand upon him, because he is the 8 Lord's anointed. | And David stopped his men with his words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rising up 9 out of the cave, went on his way. | And David also rose up after him: and going out of the cave cried after Saul, saying: My lord the king. And Saul looked behind him: and David bowing himself down to the ground, worshiped.

10 David Appeals to Saul And he said to Saul: Why do you 11 hear the words of men that say, David seeks your hurt? | Behold this day your eyes have seen, that the Lord has delivered you into my hand, in the cave, and I had a thought to kill you, but my eye has spared you. For I said: I will not put out my hand against my lord, because he is the Lord's anointed. | 12 Moreover see and know, O my father, the hem of your robe in my hand, that when I cut off the hem of your robe, I would not put out my hand against you. Reflect, and see, that there is no evil in my hand, nor iniquity, neither have I sinned against 13 you: but you lie in wait for my life, to take it away. | The Lord judge between me and you; and the Lord revenge me of you: 14 but my hand shall not be upon you. | As also it is said in the old proverb: From the wicked shall wickedness come forth.
Therefore my hand shall not be upon you. After whom do you 15 come out, O king of Israel? | After whom do you pursue? After 16 a dead dog? After a flea? | Be the Lord judge; and judge between me and you; and see, and judge my cause; and deliver me out of your hand.
17 And when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, Saul said: Is this your voice, my son David? And Saul 18 lifted up his voice, and wept. | And he said to David: You are more just than I. For you have done good to me; and I have 19 rewarded you with evil. | And you have shown this day what good things you have done to me: how the Lord delivered me 20 into your hand; and you have not killed me. | For who when he has found his enemy, will let him go well away? But the Lord reward you for this good turn, for what you have done to 21 me this day. | And now as I know that you shall surely be 22 king, and have the kingdom of Israel in your hand: | swear to me by the Lord, that you will not destroy my seed after me, nor 23 take away my name from the house of my father. | And David swore to Saul. So Saul went home: and David and his men went up into safer places.

24, 19-22: Underlying these events is the conviction of how God deeply pervades human life.

25

1 Samuel Dies And Samuel died. And all Israel was gathered together; and they mourned for him, and buried him in his house in Ramatha. And David rose and went down into the wilderness of Pharan.

2 Now there was a certain man in the wilderness of Maon, and his possessions were in Carmel. And the man was very great: and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats. And it happened that he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. |

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal: and the name of his wife was Abigail. And she was a prudent and very comely woman; but her husband was churlish, and very bad and ill

4 natured. And he was of the house of Caleb. | And when David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep, |

5 he sent ten young men, and said to them: Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and salute him in my name with peace. |

6 And you shall say: Peace be to my brethren, and to you, and

7 peace to your house, and peace to all that you have. | I heard that your shepherds that were with us in the desert were shearing. We never molested them: neither was there aught missing to them of the flock at any time, all the while they were with

8 us in Carmel. | Ask your servants, and they will tell you. Now therefore let your servants find favor in your eyes: for we have come in a good day. Whatsoever your hand shall find give to your servants, and to your son David.

9 Nabal Refuses David And when David's servants came, they spoke to Nabal all these words in David's name: and then

10 held their peace. | But Nabal answering the servants of David, said: Who is David? And what is the son of Isai? Servants are

11 multiplied nowadays who flee from their masters. | Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and the flesh of my cattle, which I have killed for my shearers, and give to men whom I

12 know not whence they are? | So the servants of David went back their way: and returning came and told him all the words

13 that he said. | Then David said to his young men: Let every man gird on his sword. And they girded on every man his sword. And David also girded on his sword: and there followed David about four hundred men. And two hundred remained with the baggage.

14 But one of the servants told Abigail the wife of Nabal, say-

25, 2: Carmel: this is not the district of the famous Mount Carmel in the north, but another Carmel fifteen miles west of the Dead Sea.
25, 4-11: Nabal refuses to give food to David's men.

ing: Behold David sent messengers out of the wilderness, to 15 salute our master; and he rejected them. | These men were very good to us, and gave us no trouble: neither did we ever lose any thing all the time that we conversed with them in the desert. | 16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while 17 we were with them keeping the sheep. | Wherefore consider, and think what you have to do: for evil is determined against your husband, and against your house. And he is a son of 18 Belial, so that no man can speak to him. | Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves, and two vessels of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes 19 of dry figs, and laid them upon asses. | And she said to her servants: Go before me. Behold I will follow after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 Abigail Appeases David And when she had gotten upon an ass, and was coming down to the foot of the mountain, David and his men came down over against her, and she met 21 them. | And David said: Truly in vain have I kept all that belonged to this man in the wilderness, and nothing was lost of all that pertained unto him: and he has returned me evil for 22 good. | May God do so and so, and add more to the foes of David, if I leave of all that belongs to him till the morning, 23 any male. | And when Abigail saw David she made haste and lighted off the ass, and fell before David, on her face, and 24 adored upon the ground. | And she fell at his feet, and said:
Upon me let this iniquity be, my lord. Let your handmaid speak,
I beseech you, in your ears: and hear the words of your servant.
25 Let not my lord the king, I pray, regard this naughty man Nabal: for according to his name, he is a fool, and folly is with him: but I your handmaid did not see your servants, my lord, 26 whom you sent. | Now therefore, my lord, the Lord lives, and your soul lives, who has withheld you from coming to blood, and has saved your hand to you: and now let your enemies be 27 as Nabal, and all they that seek evil to my lord. | Wherefore receive this blessing, which your handmaid has brought to you, my lord: and give it to the young men that follow you, my 28 lord. | Forgive the iniquity of your handmaid: for the Lord will surely make for my lord a faithful house, because you, my lord, 25, 17: Son of Belial: a worthless fellow.

25, 23-31: To save her husband, Abigail astutely appeals to David, saying that it would be to his advantage to have bloodless hands when he will later make his bid for the throne.

fight the battles of the Lord. Let not evil therefore be found in 29 you all the days of your life. | For if a man at any time shall rise, and persecute you, and seek your life, the soul of my lord shall be kept, as in the bundle of the living, with the Lord your God. But the souls of your enemies shall be whirled, as with 30 the violence and whirling of a sling. | And when the Lord shall have done to you, my lord, all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and shall have made you prince over Israel, | 31 this shall not be an occasion of grief to you, and a scruple of heart to my lord, that you have shed innocent blood, or have revenged yourself: and when the Lord shall have done well by my Lord, you shall remember your handmaid.
32 And David said to Abilgail: Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me, and blessed be your 33 speech. | And blessed be you, who have kept me today, from 34 coming to blood, and revenging me with my own hand. | Otherwise, as the Lord lives the God of Israel, who has withheld me from doing you any evil: if you had not quickly come to meet me, there had not been left to Nabal by the morning light any 35 male. | And David received at her hand all that she had brought him, and said to her: Go in peace into your house. Behold I have heard your voice, and have honored your face.

36 Nabal Dies And Abigail came to Nabal. And behold he had a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry: for he was very drunk: and she told him 37 nothing less or more until morning. | But early in the morning when Nabal had digested his wine, his wife told him these words and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.
38 | And after ten days had passed, the Lord struck Nabal, and 39 he died. | And when David had heard that Nabal was dead, he said: Blessed be the Lord, who has judged the cause of my reproach at the hand of Nabal, and has kept his servant from evil; and the Lord has returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his head. Then David sent and treated with Abigail, that he 40 might take her to himself for a wife. | And David's servants came to Abigail to Carmel, and spoke to her, saying: David has sent us to you, to take you to himself for a wife.

41 David Marries Abigail And she arose and bowed herself down with her face to the earth, and said: Behold, let your servant be a handmaid, to wash the feet of the servants of my 25, 37-38: It may have been a heart attack. Everything is attributed directly to God.

42 lord. | And Abigail arose, and made haste, and got upon an ass, and five damsels went with her, her waiting maids, and she followed the messengers of David, and became his wife.
43 Moreover David took also Achinoam of Jezrahel: and they 44 were both of them his wives. | But Saul gave Michol his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti, the son of Lais, who was of Gallium.

26

1 Saul Goes after David And the men of Ziph came to Saul in Gabaa, saying: Behold David is hidden in the hill of 2 Hachila, which is over against the wilderness. | And Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having with him three thousand chosen men of Israel, to seek David in the 3 wilderness of Ziph. | And Saul encamped in Gabaa Hachila, which was over against the wilderness in the way: and David abode in the wilderness. And seeing that Saul had come after 4 him into the wilderness, | he sent spies, and learned that he 5 most certainly had come thither. | And David arose secretly, and came to the place where Saul was. And when he had beheld the place, wherein Saul slept, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army, and Saul sleeping in a tent, and the rest of the multitude round about him.
6 David spoke to Achimelech the Hethite, and Abisai the son of Sarvia the brother of Joab, saying: Who will go down with me to Saul into the camp? And Abisai said: I will go with you.

7 David in the Tent of Saul So David and Abisai came to the people by night, and found Saul lying and sleeping in the tent, and his spear fixed in the ground at his head: and 8 Abner and the people sleeping round about him. | And Abisai said to David: God has shut up your enemy this day into your hands. Now then I will run him through with my spear even to the earth at once; and there shall be no need of a second 9 time. | And David said to Abisai: Kill him not: for who shall put forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and shall be 10 guiltless? | And David said: As the Lord lives, unless the Lord shall strike him: or his day shall come to die, or he shall go 11 down to battle and perish; | the Lord be merciful unto me, that I extend not my hand upon the Lord's anointed. But now take the spear, which is at his head, and the cup of water, and 26, 1-25: Since the same introduction of the "men of Ziph" seeking David occurs in ch. 24 and here, some scholars believe these to be two different traditions of only one event in which David spared Saul's life.

12 let us go. | So David took the spear, and the cup of water which was at Saul's head, and they went away. And no man saw it, or knew it, or awakened, but they were all asleep, for a
13 deep sleep from the Lord had fallen upon them. | And when David had gone over to the other side, and stood on the top of the hill afar off, and a good space was between them, |
14 David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying: Will you not answer, Abner? And Abner answering, said: Who are you that cries and disturbs the king?

15 David Reproves Abner And David said to Abner: Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept your lord the king? For there came one of the peo-
16 ple in to kill the king your lord. | This thing is not good, that you have done. As the Lord lives, you are the sons of death, who have not kept your master, the Lord's anointed. And now where is the king's spear, and the cup of water, which was at his head?
17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said: Is this your voice, my son David? And David said: It is my voice, my lord the 18 king. | And he said: Wherefore does my lord persecute his servant? What have I done? Or what evil is there in my hand? |
19 Now therefore hear, I pray you, my lord the king, the words of your servant: If the Lord stirs you up against me, let him accept of sacrifice: but if the sons of men, they are cursed in the sight of the Lord, who have cast me out this day, that I should not dwell in the inheritance of the Lord, saying: Go, serve strange
20 gods. | And now let not my blood be shed upon the earth before the Lord: for the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as the partridge is hunted in the mountains.

21 Saul Confesses His Fault And Saul said: I have sinned. Return, my son, David, for I will no more do you harm, because my life has been precious in your eyes this day: for it appears that I have done foolishly, and have been ignorant in 22 very many things. | And David answering, said: Behold the king's spear. Let one of the king's servants come over and fetch
23 it. | And the Lord will reward every one according to his justice, and his faithfulness: for the Lord has delivered you this day into my hand, and I would not put forth my hand

---

26, 19: If God wants Saul to punish David for his sins, then David will offer sacrifice to God; but if Saul is receiving advice to kill David, then God will punish the evil advisers for they want David to "serve strange gods," i.e., to go into exile.

24 against the Lord's anointed. | And as your life has been much set by this day in my eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the Lord: and let him deliver me from all distress. | 25 Then Saul said to David: Blessed are you, my son David: and truly doing you shall do, and prevailing you shall prevail. And David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27

1 David Goes again to Geth And David said in his heart:
I shall one day or other fall into the hands of Saul. Is it not better for me to flee, and to be saved in the land of the Philistines, that Saul may despair of me, and cease to seek me in all 2 the coasts of Israel? I will flee then out of his hands. | And David arose and went away, both he and the six hundred men that were with him, to Achis the son of Maoch, king of Geth. | 3 And David dwelt with Achis at Geth, he and his men: every man with his household, and David with his two wives, Achinoam the Jezrahelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal of 4 Carmel. | And it was told Saul that David had fled to Geth:
and he sought no more after him.
5 And David said to Achis: If I have found favor in your sight, let a place be given me in one of the cities of this country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in 6 the royal city with you? | Then Achis gave him Siceleg that day: for which reason Siceleg belongs to the kings of Juda unto this day.

7 David Dwells among the Philistines And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was four months.
8 | And David and his men went up, and pillaged Gessuri, and Gerzi, and the Amalecites: for these were of old the inhabitants of the countries, as men go to Sur, even to the land of Egypt. | 9 And David wasted all the land, and left neither man nor woman alive: and took away the sheep and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned and came 10 to Achis. | And Achis said to him: Whom have you gone against today? David answered: Against the south of Juda, and against the south of Jerameel, and against the south of 11 Ceni. | And David saved neither man nor woman, neither brought he any of them to Geth, saying: Lest they should speak against us. So did David, and such was his proceeding all the days that he dwelt in the country of the Philistines. |

27, 8-12: David makes his Philistine overlord, Achis, believe that he is fighting the Israelites when he is really fighting southern tribes.

12 And Achis believed David, saying: He has done much harm to his people Israel; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

28

1 Saul Invokes a Witch And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered together their armies to be prepared for war against Israel. And Achis said to David: Know now assuredly, that you shall go out with me to the war, 2 you, and your men. | And David said to Achis: Now you shall know what your servant will do. And Achis said to David: And I will appoint you to guard my life for ever.
3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel mourned for him, and buried him in Ramatha his city. And Saul had put away all the 4 magicians and soothsayers out of the land. | And the Philistines were gathered together, and came and camped in Sunam.
And Saul also gathered together all Israel, and came to Gelboe.
5 | And Saul saw the army of the Philistines, and was afraid:
6 and his heart was very much dismayed. | And he consulted the Lord, and he answered him not; neither by dreams, nor by 7 priests, nor by prophets. | And Saul said to his servants: Seek me a woman that has a divining spirit; and I will go to her, and inquire by her. And his servants said to him: There is a woman 8 that has a divining spirit at Endor. | Then he disguised himself and put on other clothes. And he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night. And he said to her:
Divine to me by your divining spirit, and bring me up him 9 whom I shall tell you. | And the woman said to him: Behold you know all that Saul has done, and how he has rooted out the magicians and soothsayers from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to be put to death? |
10 And Saul swore unto her by the Lord, saying: As the Lord lives 11 there shall no evil happen to you for this thing. | And the woman said to him: Whom shall I bring up to you? And he said: Bring me up Samuel.
12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice, and said to Saul: Why have you deceived me? For you 28: This chapter is reminiscent of Atossa's calling in distress for the shade of Darius in Aeschylus' Persians.

28, 6: These were God's three ordinary channels of communications with His people. By "priests" the use of Urim and Thummim is implied.

28, 9: The recourse to mediums was forbidden by law (Lv 19, 31). Most Catholic scholars believe that God used the witch to bring back Samuel's spirit as Sir 46, 20 seems to attest.

28, 12: There are many scientific guesses on how the witch recognized Samuel.

13 are Saul. | And the king said to her: Fear not. What have you seen? And the woman said to Saul: I saw gods ascending out of 14 the earth. | And he said to her: What form is he of? And she said: An old man comes up; and he is covered with a mantle.
And Saul understood that it was Samuel, and he bowed himself with his face to the ground, and adored.
15 And Samuel said to Saul: Why have you disturbed my rest, that I should be brought up? And Saul said: I am in great distress; for the Philistines fight against me; and God has departed from me; and would not hear me, neither by the hand of prophets, nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may show me what I shall do.

16 Samuel's Message to Saul And Samuel said: Why do you ask me, seeing the Lord has departed from you, and has gone 17 over to your rival? | For the Lord will do to you as he spoke by me, and he will rend your kingdom out of your hand, and will 18 give it to your neighbor David. | Because you did not obey the voice of the Lord, neither did you execute the wrath of his indignation upon Amalec. Therefore has the Lord done to you 19 what you suffer this day. | And the Lord also will deliver Israel with you into the hands of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me. And the Lord will also deliver the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.
20 And forthwith Saul fell all along on the ground, for he was frightened with the words of Samuel: and there was no strength 21 in him, for he had eaten no bread all that day. | And the woman came to Saul (for he was very much troubled) and said to him: Behold your handmaid has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and I hearkened unto the words which you 22 spoke to me. | Now therefore hear you also the voice of your handmaid: and let me set before you a morsel of bread, that you may eat and recover strength, and be able to go on your 23 journey. | But he refused, and said: I will not eat. But his servants and the woman forced him; and at length hearkening to their voice, he arose from the ground and sat upon the bed. | 24 Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she made haste and killed it: and taking meal kneaded it, and baked 25 some unleavened bread, | and set it before Saul, and before his servants. And when they had eaten they rose up, and walked all that night.

29

1 The Philistines Send David Back Now all the troops of the Philistines were gathered together to Aphec: and Israel also 2 camped by the fountain which is in Jezrahel. ¶ And the lords of the Philistines marched with their hundreds and their thousands.

3 But David and his men were in the rear with Achis. ¶ And the princes of the Philistines said to Achis: What do these Hebrews mean? And Achis said to the princes of the Philistines: Do you not know David, who was the servant of Saul the king of Israel, and has been with me many days, or years; and I have found no fault in him, since the day that he fled over to me until this 4 day? ¶ But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; and they said to him: Let this man return, and abide in his place, which you have appointed him. And let him not go down with us to battle, lest he be an adversary to us, when we shall begin to fight: for how can he otherwise appease his master, but with 5 our heads? ¶ Is not this David, to whom they sang in their dances, saying: Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?
6 Then Achis called David, and said to him: As the Lord lives, you are upright and good in my sight; and so is your going out, and your coming in with me in the army. And I have not found any evil in you, since the day that you came to me unto this day: 7 but you do not please the lords. ¶ Return therefore, and go in peace, and offend not the eyes of the princes of the Philistines. ¶ 8 And David said to Achis: But what have I done, and what have you found in me your servant, from the day that I have been in your sight until this day, that I may not go and fight against the 9 enemies of my lord the king? ¶ And Achis answering said to David: I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God: but the princes of the Philistines have said: He shall not 10 go up with us to the battle. ¶ Therefore arise in the morning, you, and the servants of your lord, who came with you; and when you are up before day, and it shall begin to be light, go 11 on your way. ¶ So David and his men arose in the night, that they might set forward in the morning, and returned to the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went up to Jezrahel.

30

1 The Amalecites Destroy Siceleg Now when David and his men came to Siceleg on the third day, the Amalecites had made an invasion on the south side upon Siceleg, and had smit-2 ten Siceleg, and burned it with fire, ¶ and had taken the women captives that were in it, both little and great: and they had not killed any person, but had carried them with them, and went 3 on their way. ¶ So when David and his men came to the city, and found it burned with fire, and that their wives and their 4 sons, and their daughters were taken captives, ¶ David and the people that were with him, lifted up their voices, and wept till 5 they had no more tears. | For the two wives also of David were taken captives, Achinoam the Jezrahelitess, and Abigail the 6 wife of Nabal of Carmel. | And David was greatly afflicted.

For the people had a mind to stone him; for the soul of every man was bitterly grieved for his sons, and daughters: but David 7 took courage in the Lord his God. | And he said to Abiathar the priest the son of Achimelech: Bring me hither the ephod.
8 And Abiathar brought the ephod to David. | And David consulted the Lord, saying: Shall I pursue after these robbers, and shall I overtake them, or not? And the Lord said to him: Pursue after them: for you shall surely overtake them and recover the prey.

9 David Pursues the Amalecites So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him. And they came to the 10 torrent Besor: and some being weary stayed there. | But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred stayed, 11 who being weary could not go over the torrent Besor. | And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David: 12 and they gave him bread to eat, and water to drink, | as also a piece of a cake of figs, and two bunches of raisins. And when he had eaten them his spirit returned, and he was refreshed: for he had not eaten bread, nor drunk water three days, and three 13 nights. | And David said to him: To whom do you belong?
Or from where do you come? And where are you going? He said: I am a young man of Egypt, the servant of an Amalécite; and my master left me, because I began to be sick three days 14 ago. | For we made an invasion on the south side of Cerethi, and upon Juda, and upon the south of Caleb, and we burned 15 Siceleg with fire. | And David said to him: Can you bring me to this company? And he said: Swear to me by God, that you will not kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you to this company. And David swore to him.
16 | And when he had brought him, behold they were lying spread upon all the ground, eating and drinking, and as it were keeping a festival day, for all the prey, and the spoils which they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of 17 Juda. | And David slew them from the evening unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, but four hundred young men, who had gotten upon camels, and fled.

18 So David recovered all that the Amalecites had taken, and 19 he rescued his two wives. | And there was nothing missing small or great, neither of their sons or their daughters, nor of the spoils: and whatsoever they had taken: David recovered all. | 20 And he took all the flocks and the herds, and made them go

21 before him. And they said: This is the prey of David. | And David came to the two hundred men, who being weary had stayed, and were not able to follow David, and he had ordered them to abide at the torrent Besor. And they came out to meet David, and the people that were with him. And David coming
22 to the people saluted them peaceably. | Then all the wicked and unjust men that had gone with David answering, said: Because they came not with us, we will not give them any thing of the prey which we have recovered. But let every man take his wife and children, and be contented with them, and go his way.

23 David Divides the Spoils But David said: You shall not do so, my brethren, with these things which the Lord has given us, who has kept us, and has delivered the robbers that 24 invaded us into our hands. | And no man shall hearken to you in this matter. But equal shall be the portion of him that went down to battle and of him that abode at the baggage, and
25 they shall divide alike. | And this has been done from that day forward, and since was made a statute, and an ordinance, and as a law in Israel.

26 Then David came to Siceleg, and sent presents of the prey to the ancients of Juda his neighbors, saying: Receive a blessing
27 of the prey of the enemies of the Lord. | To them that were in Bethel, and that were in Ramoth to the south, and to them
28 that were in Jether, | and to them that were in Aroer and that 29 were in Sephamoth, and that were in Esthamo, | and that were in Rachal, and that were in the cities of Jerameel, and that
30 were in the cities of Ceni, | and that were in Arama, and that 31 were in the lake Asan, and that were in Athach, | and that were in Hebron, and to the rest that were in those places, in which David had abode with his men.

31

1 Saul and His Sons Are Slain And the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philis-
2 tines, and fell down slain in mount Gelboe. | And the Philistines fell upon Saul, and upon his sons: and they slew Jona-
3 than, and Abinadab and Melchisua the sons of Saul. | And the whole weight of the battle was turned upon Saul: and the archers overtook him, and he was grievously wounded by the 4 archers. | Then Saul said to his armorbearer: Draw your sword, and kill me: lest these uncircumcised come, and slay me, and mock at me. And his armorbearer would not: for he was struck with exceeding great fear. Then Saul took his sword, 5 and fell upon it. | And when his armorbearer saw this, to wit, that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword and died with

6 him. | So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armorbearer, and all his men that same day together.
7 And the men of Israel, that were beyond the valley, and beyond the Jordan, seeing that the Israelites had fled, and that Saul was dead, and his sons, forsook their cities, and fled: and the 8 Philistines came, and dwelt there. | And on the morrow the Philistines came to strip the slain: and they found Saul and his
9 three sons lying in mount Gelboe. | And they cut off Saul's head, and stripped him of his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the temples of their
10 idols, and among their people. | And they put his armor in the temple of Astaroth: but his body they hung on the wall of Bethsan.

11 Their Bodies Are Recovered Now when the inhabitants of Jabes Galaad had heard all that the Philistines had done to 12 Saul, | all the most valiant men arose, and walked all the night, and took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, from the wall of Bethsan. And they came to Jabes Galaad, and burned
13 them there. | And they took their bones and buried them in the wood of Jabes: and fasted seven days.

31, 12: The burning of the dead is strange here since burial was the normal custom.

© Copyright 1964 by Map Projects, Inc.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

Otherwise called The Second Book of Kings

1

1 David Mourns Saul and Jonathan Now it came to pass, after Saul was dead, that David returned from the slaughter 2 of the Amalecites, and abode two days in Siceleg. | And on the third day, there appeared a man who came out of Saul's camp, with his garments rent, and dust strewn on his head:
and when he came to David, he fell upon his face, and adored.
3 | And David said to him: From whence do you come? And he 4 said to him: I have fled out of the camp of Israel. | And David said unto him: What is the matter that has come to pass? Tell me. He said: The people have fled from the battle: and many of the people are fallen and dead. Moreover Saul and Jonathan his 5 son are slain. | And David said to the young man that told him: How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son, are 6 dead? | And the young man that told him, said: I came by chance upon mount Gelboe, and Saul leaned upon his spear: 7 and the chariots and horsemen drew nigh unto him, | and looking behind him, and seeing me, he called me. And I an-8 swered: Here am I. | And he said to me: Who are you? And I
9 said to him: I am an Amalecite. | And he said to me: Stand over me, and kill me. For anguish has come upon me; and as yet 10 my whole life is in me. | So standing over him, I killed him: for I knew that he could not live after the fall. And I took the diadem that was on his head, and the bracelet that was on his 11 arm, and have brought them hither to you, my lord. | Then David took hold of his garments and rent them; and likewise all 12 the men that were with him. | And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel: because they were fallen by the sword.
13 And David said to the young man that told him: Who are you? He answered: I am the son of a stranger of Amalec. | 14 David said to him: Why did you not fear to put out your hand 15 to kill the Lord's anointed? | And David calling one of his servants, said: Go near and fall upon him. And he struck him so 16 that he died. | And David said to him: Your blood be upon your own head. For your own mouth has spoken against you, saying: I have slain the Lord's anointed.

1, 1-27: Notice the differences in the other tradition of Saul's death (1 Sm 31).

17 And David made this kind of lamentation over Saul, and 18 over Jonathan his son. | (Also he commanded that they should teach the children of Juda the use of the bow, as it is written in the book of the just.) And he said: Consider, O Israel, for them that are dead, wounded on your high places.

19 David's Lament The illustrious of Israel are slain upon your mountains: How are the valiant fallen?
20 Tell it not in Geth, publish it not in the streets of Ascalon: lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.
21 You mountains of Gelboe, let neither dew, nor rain come upon you: neither be they fields of firstfruits. For there was cast away the shield of the valiant, the shield of Saul as though he had not been anointed with oil.
22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the valiant, the arrow of Jonathan never turned back; and the sword of Saul did not return empty.
23 Saul and Jonathan, lovely, and comely in their life, even in death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.
24 You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with scarlet in delights, who gave ornaments of gold for your attire.
25 How are the valiant fallen in battle? Jonathan slain in the high places?
26 I grieve for you my brother Jonathan: exceedingly beautiful and amiable to me above the love of women. As the mother loves her only son, so did I love you.
27 How are the valiant fallen, and the weapons of war perished?

2
1 David Is Anointed King of Juda And after these things David consulted the Lord, saying: Shall I go up into one of the cities of Juda? And the Lord said to him: Go up. And David

1, 17-27: The genuine sentiments of patriotism, valor in war, tender and virile friendship animate this pathetic funerary eulogy.

1, 26: See Ru 1, 16 n, for a comparison of friendships in the Bible.

1, 27: In an estimate of Saul's character, his zeal, courage, and modesty are striking. On the debit side, his religious convictions were not deep. The tragic figure of an abandoned king, who was a "creature of impulse," became steadily more pathetic after the break with Samuel. Rustic king Saul slid down the road of remorse, suspicion, and cruelty. See the contrast of jealous Saul with humble David in Browning's poem, Saul. Compare also Handel's oratorio, Saul.

said: Whither shall I go up? And he answered him: Into He-2 bron. | So David went up, and his two wives, Achinoam the 3 Jezrahelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal of Carmel. | And the men also that were with him. David brought up every man with his household: and they abode in the towns of Hebron. |
4 And the men of Juda came, and anointed David there, to be king over the house of Juda. And it was told David that the
5 men of Jabes Galaad had buried Saul. | David therefore sent messengers to the men of Jabes Galaad, and said to them: Blessed be you to the Lord, who have shown this mercy to your
6 master Saul, and have buried him. | And now the Lord surely will render you mercy and truth; and I also will requite you for 7 this good turn, because you have done this thing. | Let your hands be strengthened; and be men of valor: for although your master Saul be dead, yet the house of Juda has anointed me to be their king.

8 Isboseth Reigns over Part of Israel But Abner the son of Ner, general of Saul's army, took Isboseth the son of Saul,
9 and led him about through the camp, | and made him king over Galaad, and over Gessuri, and over Jezrahel, and over
10 Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. | Isboseth the son of Saul was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel. And he reigned two years; and only the house of Juda
11 followed David. | And the number of the days that David abode, reigning in Hebron over the house of Juda, was seven years and six months.
12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Isboseth the 13 son of Saul, went out from the camp to Gabaon. | And Joab the son of Sarvia, and the servants of David went out, and met them by the pool of Gabaon. And when they had come together, they sat down over against one another: the one on
14 the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side. | And Abner said to Joab: Let the young men rise, and play before
15 us. And Joab answered: Let them rise. | Then there arose and went over twelve in number of Benjamin, of the part of Isboseth
16 the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. | And every one catching his fellow by the head, thrust his sword into the side of his adversary: and they fell down together. And the name of the place was called: The field of the valiant, in Gabaon.

2, 13: Pool of Gabaon: American archeologists, excavating since 1956, have identified Gabaon as modern el-Jib, eight miles north of Jerusalem. They cautiously claim that they have excavated this pool.

17 Battle between Abner and Joab And there was a very fierce battle that day: and Abner was put to flight, with the 18 men of Israel, by the servants of David. | And there were the three sons of Sarvia there, Joab, and Abisai, and Asael. Now Asael was a most swift runner, like one of the roes that abide 19 in the woods. | And Asael pursued after Abner, and turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. | 20 And Abner looked behind him, and said: Are you Asael? And 21 he answered: I am. | And Abner said to him: Go to the right hand or to the left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take for yourself his spoils. But Asael would not leave off fol-22 lowing him close. | And again Abner said to Asael: Go off, and do not follow me, lest I be obliged to stab you to the ground, and I shall not be able to hold up my face to Joab your brother.
23 | But he refused to hearken to him, and would not turn aside; wherefore Abner struck him with his spear with a back stroke in the groin, and thrust him through, and he died upon the spot: and all that came to the place where Asael fell down and died, stood still.

24 Now while Joab and Abisai pursued after Abner, the sun went down; and they came as far as the hill of the aqueduct, that lies over against the valley by the way of the wilderness in 25 Gabaon. | And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together to Abner: and being joined in one body, they stood on 26 the top of a hill. | And Abner cried out to Joab, and said:
Shall your sword rage unto utter destruction? Do you not know that it is dangerous to drive people to despair? How long do you defer to bid the people cease from pursuing after their brethren?
27 | And Joab said: As the Lord lives if you had spoken sooner, even in the morning the people should have retired from pur-28 suing after their brethren. | Then Joab sounded the trumpet, and all the army stood still, and did not pursue after Israel any 29 farther, nor fight any more. | And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plains; and they passed the Jordan, and having gone through all Beth-horon, came to the camp. | 30 And Joab returning, after he had left Abner, assembled all the people: and there were wanting of David's servants nineteen 31 men, beside Asael. | But the servants of David had killed of Benjamin, and of the men that were with Abner, three hundred 32 and sixty, who all died. | And they took Asael, and buried him in the sepulcher of his father in Bethlehem. And Joab, and the men that were with him, marched all the night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

3

1 David Grows Daily Stronger Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; David prospering and growing always stronger and stronger, but the house
2 of Saul decaying daily. | And sons were born to David in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon of Achinoam the Jezrahelit-
3 ess: | And his second Cheleab of Abigail the wife of Nabal of Carmel: and the third Absalom the son of Maacha the daughter
4 of Tholmai king of Gessur: | And the fourth Adonias, the son
5 of Haggith: and the fifth Saphathia the son of Abital: | And the sixth Jethraam of Egla the wife of David. These were born to David in Hebron.
6 Now while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner the son of Ner ruled the house of 7 Saul. | And Saul had a concubine named Respha, the daughter
8 of Aia. And Isboseth said to Abner: | Why did you go in to my father's concubine? And he was exceedingly angry for the words of Isboseth and said: Am I a dog's head against Juda this day, who have shown mercy to the house of Saul your father, and to his brethren and friends, and have not delivered you into the hands of David, and have you sought this day against me to
9 charge me with a matter concerning a woman? | So do God to Abner, and more also, unless as the Lord has sworn to David,
10 so I do to him, | that the kingdom be transferred from the house of Saul, and the throne of David be set up over Israel, and over
11 Juda from Dan to Bersabee. | And he could not answer him a word, because he feared him.
12 Abner therefore sent messengers to David for himself, saying: Whose is the land? And that they should say: Make a league with me, and my hand shall be with you: and I will bring 13 all Israel to you. | And he said: Very well. I will make a league with you; but one thing I require of you, saying: You shall not see my face before you bring Michol the daughter of Saul: and
14 so you shall come, and see me. | And David sent messengers to Isboseth the son of Saul, saying: Restore my wife Michol, whom I espoused to me for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines. |
15 And Isboseth sent, and took her from her husband Phaltiel, the 16 son of Lais. | And her husband followed her, weeping as far as Bahurim. And Abner said to him: Go and return. And he
17 returned. | Abner also spoke to the ancients of Israel, saying: Both yesterday and the day before you sought for David that

3, 8: Isboseth was angry because, in oriental thinking, to appropriate a royal concubine was equivalent to high treason since it implied a claim to the throne.

18 he might reign over you. | Now then do it; because the Lord has spoken to David, saying: By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel from the hands of the Philistines, 19 and of all their enemies. | And Abner spoke also to Benjamin.
And he went to speak to David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and to all Benjamin.

20 Abner Comes to David And he came to David in Hebron with twenty men. And David made a feast for Abner, and his 21 men that came with him. | And Abner said to David: I will rise, that I may gather all Israel unto you my lord the king, and may enter into a league with you, and that you may reign over all, as your soul desires. Now when David had brought Abner on his 22 way, and he was gone in peace, | immediately David's servants and Joab came, after having slain the robbers, with an exceeding great booty. And Abner was not with David in Hebron; for 23 he had now sent him away, and he was gone in peace. | And Joab and all the army that was with him, came afterward. And it was told Joab, that Abner the son of Ner came to the king, 24 and he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. | And Joab went in to the king, and said: What have you done? Behold Abner came to you: Why did you send him away? And he has 25 gone and departed. | Do you not know Abner the son of Ner, that to this end he came to you, that he might deceive you, and to know your going out, and your coming in, and to know all 26 you do? | Then Joab going out from David, sent messengers after Abner, and brought him back from the cistern of Sira, David knowing nothing of it.

27 Joab Slays Abner And when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside to the middle of the gate, to speak to him treacherously, and he stabbed him there in the groin: and 28 he died, in revenge of the blood of Asael his brother. | And when David heard of it, after the thing was now done, he said:
I, and my kingdom are innocent before the Lord for ever of the 29 blood of Abner the son of Ner: | and may it come upon the head of Joab, and upon all his father's house: and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that has an issue of seed, or that is a leper, or that holds the distaff, or that falls by the sword, or that wants bread.

3, 27: Joab's other motive may have been to eliminate a rival as commander-in-chief of David's army.

3, 27: A reference to 2, 23.

30 So Joab and Abisai his brother slew Abner, because he had killed their brother Asael at Gabaon in the battle.

31 David Mourns over Abner And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him: Rend your garments, and gird yourselves with sackcloths, and mourn before the funeral
32 of Abner. And king David himself followed the bier. | And when they had buried Abner in Hebron, king David lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner: and all the people
33 also wept. | And the king mourning and lamenting over Abner,
34 said: Not as cowards are wont to die, has Abner died. | Your hands were not bound, nor your feet laden with fetters: but as men fall before the children of iniquity, so did you fall. And all
35 the people repeating it wept over him. | And when all the people came to take meat with David, while it was yet broad day, David swore, saying: So do God to me, and more also, if
36 I taste bread or anything else before sunset. | And all the people heard, and they were pleased, and all that the king did seemed
37 good in the sight of all the people. | And all the people, and all Israel understood that day that it was not the king's doing,
38 that Abner the son of Ner was slain. | The king also said to his servants: Do you not know that a prince and a great man is 39 slain this day in Israel? | But I as yet am tender, though anointed king. And these men the sons of Sarvia are too hard for me: the Lord reward him that does evil according to his wickedness.

4

1 Isboseth Is Killed And Isboseth the son of Saul heard that Abner was slain in Hebron: and his hands were weakened, and
2 all Israel was troubled. | Now the son of Saul had two men captains of his bands, the name of the one was Baana, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Remmon a Berothite of the children of Benjamin: for Beroth also was reckoned in Ben-
3 jamin. | And the Berothites fled into Gethaim, and were so-
4 journers there until that time. | And Jonathan the son of Saul had a son that was lame of his feet: for he was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan from Jezrahel. And his nurse took him up and fled: and as she made haste to flee, he fell and became lame. And his name was Miphiboseth.
5 And the sons of Remmon the Berothite, Rechab and Baana, coming, went into the house of Isboseth in the heat of the day: and he was sleeping upon his bed at noon. And the door-keeper of the house, who was cleansing wheat, had fallen asleep.
6 | And they entered into the house secretly taking ears of corn: and Rechab and Baana his brother stabbed him in the groin,

7 and fled away. | For when they came into the house, he was sleeping upon his bed in a parlor: and they struck him and killed him. And taking away his head they went off by the way
8 of the wilderness, walking all night. | And they brought the head of Isboseth to David to Hebron; and they said to the king: Behold the head of Isboseth the son of Saul your enemy who sought your life. And the Lord has revenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 David Punishes the Murderers But David answered Rechab, and Baana his brother, the sons of Remmon the Berothite, and said to them: As the Lord lives, who has deliv-
10 ered my soul out of all distress, | the man that told me, and said: Saul is dead, who thought he brought good tidings, I apprehended, and slew him in Siceleg, who should have been re-
11 warded for his news. | How much more now when wicked men have slain an innocent man in his own house, upon his bed, shall I not require his blood at your hand, and take you
12 away from the earth? | And David commanded his servants: and they slew them, and cutting off their hands and feet, hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But the head of Isboseth they took and buried in the sepulcher of Abner in Hebron.

5

1 David, King of All Israel Then all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron, saying: Behold we are your bone
2 and your flesh. | Moreover yesterday also and the day before, when Saul was king over us, it was you that did lead out and bring in Israel. And the Lord said to you: You shall feed my
3 people Israel, and you shall be prince over Israel. | The ancients also of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they
4 anointed David to be king over Israel. | David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.
5 | In Hebron he reigned over Juda seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned three and thirty years over all Israel and Juda.
6 And the king and all the men that were with him went to Jerusalem to the Jebusites the inhabitants of the land. And they said to David: You shall not come in hither unless you take 4, 10-12: By professing that he was not implicated in these murders nor in that of Abner (3, 31-39), David sweeps away possible obstacles to the throne.

5, 6: Jerusalem is so impregnable that even the blind and the lame can defend it against David's men—so boasted the Jebusites.

away the blind and the lame that say: David shall not come in 7 hither. | But David took the castle of Sion, the same is the city
8 of David. | For David had offered that day a reward to whosoever should strike the Jebusites and get up to the gutters of the tops of the houses, and take away the blind and the lame that hated the soul of David: therefore it is said in the proverb: The blind and the lame shall not come into the temple.
9 And David dwelt in the castle, and called it, The city of 10 David: and built round about from Mello and inward. | And he went on prospering and growing up: and the Lord God of
11 hosts was with him. | And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons
12 for walls: and they built a house for David. | And David knew that the Lord had confirmed him king over Israel, and that he
13 had exalted his kingdom over his people Israel. | And David took more concubines and wives of Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron: and there were born to David other sons
14 also and daughters. | And these are the names of them, that were born to him in Jerusalem: Samua, and Sobab, and Na-
15 than, and Solomon, | and Jebahar, and Elisua, and Nepheg,
16 | and Japhia, and Elisama, and Elioda, and Eliphaleth.
17 And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David to be king over Israel. And they all came to seek David: and when 18 David heard of it, he went down to a stronghold. | And the Philistines coming spread themselves in the valley of Raphaim.

19 David Defeats the Philistines And David consulted the Lord, saying: Shall I go up to the Philistines? And will you deliver them into my hand? And the Lord said to David: Go up, 20 for I will surely deliver the Philistines into your hand. | And David came to Baal Pharisim: and defeated them there. And 5, 7: David captured Jerusalem from the native Jebusites who were not Israelites.

5, 8: The Hebrew of this verse does not make sense. 1 Par 11, 5, a parallel, does not make sense either, for it is indefinite about Joab going up somewhere to capture the city. Archeologists discovered a water shaft which runs from the top of the city straight down and outside of the city walls to a pool filled by the Virgin Spring. Scholars piece these items of information to formulate the following educated guess: Joab led his men up the shaft and surprised the Jebusites.

5, 9: By selecting Jerusalem as the capital city, David scored a political stroke of genius. It was not known as a northern or southern city. To stress that it belonged to no tribe, David called it his own "city of David." Thus, the site placated both nations and facilitated the union under David. This is often compared to the selection of Washington, D.C., as the capital in a neutral land.

JERUSALEM

FROM BEFORE DAVID TO THE TIME OF SOLOMON

© Copyright 1984 by Map Projects, Inc.

he said: The Lord has divided my enemies before me, as waters are divided. Therefore the name of the place was called Baal 21 Pharisim. | And they left there their idols: which David and 22 his men took away. | And the Philistines came up again; and
23 spread themselves in the valley of Raphaim. | And David consulted the Lord: Shall I go up against the Philistines, and will you deliver them into my hands? He answered: Go not up against them, but fetch a compass behind them; and you shall
24 come upon them over against the pear trees. | And when you shall hear the sound of one going in the tops of the pear trees, then shall you join battle. For then will the Lord go out before
25 your face to strike the army of the Philistines. | And David did as the Lord had commanded him: and he smote the Philistines from Gabaa to Gezer.

6

1 David Fetches the Ark And David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.
2 And David arose and went, with all the people that were with him of the men of Juda to fetch the ark of God, upon which the name of the Lord of hosts is invoked, who is sitting
3 over it upon the cherubim. | And they laid the ark of God upon a new cart; and took it out of the house of Abinadab, who was in Gabaa: and Oza, and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the 4 new cart. And when they had taken it out of the house of Abinadab, who was in Gabaa, Ahio having care of the ark of 5 God went before the ark. | But David and all Israel played before the Lord on all manner of instruments made of wood, on 6 harps and lutes and timbrels and cornets and cymbals. And when they came to the floor of Nachon, Oza put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it: because the oxen kicked and made it lean aside.

5, 23: David is instructed to make a circular rather than a frontal attack.

5, 24: David's signal to attack will be when the wind resounds through the top of the trees. Since the Urim and Thummim (see Lv 8, 8 n) answered to yes or no, these explanations may be the interpretation of a prophet.

6, 6-7: Many scholars do not believe that this is a factual historical incident because the Hebrew text is obscure. The law forbade the Levites to touch the Ark, but they carried it by poles put through rings on the sides of the Ark (Ex 25, 15).

The value of this episode is, in its illustration of the belief of the people, that contact with holy objects must be executed only under certain conditions or else God is angered to the point of taking life. This primitive belief embodies the tremendous sense of awe they had for God.

7 Oza Struck Dead for Touching the Ark And the indignation of the Lord was enkindled against Oza, and he struck him for his rashness: and he died there before the ark of God.
8 | And David was grieved because the Lord had struck Oza; and the name of that place was called: The striking of Oza, to this
9 day. | And David was afraid of the Lord that day, saying: How 10 shall the ark of the Lord come to me? | And he would not have the ark of the Lord brought in to himself into the city of David: but he caused it to be carried into the house of Obededom the Gethite.
11 And the ark of the Lord abode in the house of Obededom the Gethite three months: and the Lord blessed Obededom, and 12 all his household. | And it was told king David, that the Lord had blessed Obededom, and all that he had, because of the ark of God. So David went, and brought away the ark of God out of the house of Obededom into the city of David with joy. And there were with David seven choirs, and calves for victims. |
13 And when they that carried the ark of the Lord had gone six 14 paces, he sacrificed an ox and a ram, | and David danced with all his might before the Lord: and David was girded with a 15 linen ephod. | And David and all the house of Israel brought the ark of the covenant of the Lord with joyful shouting, and with sound of trumpet.

16 The Ark Is Carried to David's House And when the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michol the daughter of Saul, looking out through a window, saw king David leaping and dancing before the Lord: and she despised him in her heart.
17 And they brought the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle, which David had pitched for it. And David offered holocausts, and peace offerings before the 18 Lord. | And when he had made an end of offering holocausts and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the
19 Lord of hosts. | And he distributed to all the multitude of Israel, both men and women, to every one, a cake of bread, and a piece of roasted beef, and fine flour fried with oil. And all the 20 people departed every one to his house. | And David returned to bless his own house. And Michol the daughter of Saul coming out to meet David, said: How glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself before the handmaids of his servants, and was naked, as if one of the buffoons should be naked. | 21 And David said to Michol: Before the Lord, who chose me rather than your father, and than all his house, and com-22 manded me to be ruler over the people of the Lord in Israel, | I will both play and make myself meaner than I have done.

And I will be little in my own eyes: and with the handmaids of 23 whom you speak, I shall appear more glorious. | Therefore Michol the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

7

1 David Proposes to Build a Temple And it came to pass when the king sat in his house, and the Lord had given him rest 2 on every side from all his enemies, | he said to Nathan the prophet: Do you see that I dwell in a house of cedar, and the 3 ark of God is lodged within skins? | And Nathan said to the king: Go, do all that is in your heart; because the Lord is with 4 you. | But it came to pass that night, that the word of the Lord
5 came to Nathan, saying: | Go, and say to my servant David:
Thus says the Lord: Shall you build me a house to dwell in? | 6 Whereas I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt even to this day:
7 but have walked in a tabernacle, and in a tent. | In all the places that I have gone through with all the children of Israel, did ever I speak a word to any one of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying: Why have you not built me a house of cedar?
8 And now thus shall you speak to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you out of the pastures from fol-9 lowing the sheep to be ruler over my people Israel. | And I have been with you wheresoever you have walked, and have slain all your enemies from before your face: and I have made you a great man, like unto the name of the great ones that are on the earth.

10 Blessings Promised to David's Seed And I will appoint a place for my people Israel; and I will plant them, and they

---

7, 2: Within skins: in a tent.

7, 8-16: Nathan's prophecy was written during his time or shortly after. The prophecy is interpreted in a slightly different way in 1 Par 17, 1-15, and in Ps 88. In this most important Messianic text, God renews His covenant made with the patriarchs and Moses. This time, God adopts David as His son, appoints him king, and forever pledges protection to him and his successors as heads of their people. At different subsequent historical stages, this promise will be repeated and understood in the light of Nathan's prophecy. The repetition and renewal of this promise together with its additions to the original prophecy of Nathan constitute the royal Messianic strand. Each succeeding Davidic king will realize Nathan's prophecy, for he embodies God's promises to the nation.

shall dwell therein, and shall be disturbed no more: neither shall the children of iniquity afflict them any more as they did 11 before, | from the day that I appointed judges over my people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies. And the Lord foretells to you, that the Lord will make you a house. | 12 And when your days shall be fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you, which shall proceed out of your bowels: and I will establish his kingdom. | 13 He shall build a house to my name: and I will establish the 14 throne of his kingdom for ever. | I will be to him a father: and he shall be to me a son: and if he should commit any iniquity, I will correct him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of 15 the children of men. | But my mercy I will not take away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before my 16 face. | And your house shall be faithful, and your kingdom for ever before your face: and your throne shall be firm for ever.
17 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.

18 David's Prayer And David went in, and sat before the Lord, and said: Who am I, O Lord God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?
19 But yet this has seemed little in your sight, O Lord God, unless you did also speak of the house of your servant for a long time to come: for this is the law of Adam, O Lord God.
20 And what can David say more unto you? For you know your servant, O Lord God.
21 For your word's sake, and according to your own heart you have done all these great things, so that you would make it known to your servant.
22 Therefore you are magnified, O Lord God, because there is none like to you: neither is there any God besides you, in all the things that we have heard with our ears.
23 And what nation is there upon earth, as your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for them great and terrible things, upon the earth, before the face of your people, whom you redeemed to yourself out of Egypt, from the nations and their gods?
24 For you have confirmed to yourself your people Israel to be an everlasting people: and you, O Lord God, have become their God.
25 And now, O Lord God, raise up for ever the word that you

7, 19: This is the law of Adam: a gloss.

have spoken, concerning your servant and concerning his house: and do as you have spoken, 26 That your name may be magnified for ever, and it may be said: The Lord of hosts is God over Israel. And the house of your servant David shall be established before the Lord.
27 Because you, O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed to the ear of your servant, saying: I will build you a house. Therefore has your servant found in his heart to pray this prayer to you.
28 And now, O Lord God, you are God, and your words shall be true: for you have spoken to your servant these good things.
29 And now begin, and bless the house of your servant, that it may endure for ever before you: because you, O Lord God, have spoken it, and with your blessing let the house of your servant be blessed for ever.

8

1 Wars and Victories of David And it came to pass after this that David defeated the Philistines, and brought them down, and David took the bridle of tribute out of the hand of the
2 Philistines. | And he defeated Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the earth: and he measured with two lines, one to put to death, and one to save alive: and Moab was
3 made to serve David under tribute. | David defeated also Adarezer the son of Rohob king of Soba, when he went to extend his
4 dominion over the river Euphrates. | And David took from him a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen, and hamstrung all the chariot horses: and only re-
5 served of them for one hundred chariots. | And the Syrians of Damascus came to succor Adarezer the king of Soba: and David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. |
6 And David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and Syria served David under tribute. And the Lord preserved David in all his enterprises wherever he went.
7 And David took the arms of gold, which the servants of 8 Adarezer wore, and brought them to Jerusalem. | And out of Bete, and out of Beroth cities of Adarezer, king David took an
9 exceeding great quantity of brass. | And Thou the king of Emath heard that David had defeated all the forces of Adarezer.
10 | And Thou sent Joram his son to king David, to salute him, and to congratulate with him, and to return him thanks: because he had fought against Adarezer, and had defeated him.

8, 1: And David took: the rest of the verse does not make sense in the Hebrew.

For Thou was an enemy to Adarezer: and in his hand were ves-11 sels of gold, and vessels of silver, and vessels of brass. | And king David dedicated them to the Lord, together with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all the nations, which he had 12 subdued: | of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalec, and of the spoils of Adarezer the son of Rohob king of Soba.
13 David also made himself a name, when he returned after taking Syria in the valley of the saltpits, killing eighteen thou-14 sand. | And he put guards in Edom, and placed there a garrison: and all Edom was made to serve David: and the Lord 15 preserved David in all enterprises he went about. | And David reigned over all Israel: and David did judgment and justice to all his people.

16 David's Officers And Joab the son of Sarvia was over the 17 army: and Josaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder: | and Sadoc the son of Achitob, and Achimelech the son of Abiathar, 18 were the priests: and Saraias was the scribe: | and Banaias the son of Joiada was over the Cerethi and Phelethi: and the sons of David were the princes.

9

1 David's Kindness to Jonathan's Son And David said: Is there any one, do you think, left of the house of Saul, that I may show kindness to him for Jonathan's sake?
2 Now there was of the house of Saul a servant named Siba.
And when the king had called him to him, he said: Are you 3 Siba? And he answered: I am Siba your servant. | And the king said: Is there any one left of the house of Saul, that I may show the mercy of God unto him? And Siba said to the king: There is 4 a son of Jonathan left, who is lame of his feet. | Where is he? said he. And Siba said to the king: Behold he is in the house of 5 Machir the son of Ammiel in Lodabar. | Then king David sent, and brought him out of the house of Machir the son Ammiel of 6 Lodabar. | And when Miphiboseth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul came to David, he fell on his face and worshiped.

8, 16: Recorder: a vizier or "secretary of state."
8, 17: Scribe: he probably wrote and preserved the official documents.
8, 18: Cerethi and Phelethi: foreign mercenary bodyguard.
9—20: These chapters, called The Court History of David, are prized as the most lifelike narrative in the Old Testament, and for accuracy in historical writing it is one of the best, if not the best, in the ancient world of its day. It is the oldest written part in 1, 2 Sm, perhaps by an eyewitness.

And David said: Miphiboseth? And he answered: Behold your 7 servant. | And David said to him: Fear not, for I will surely show you mercy for Jonathan your father's sake; and I will restore the lands of Saul your father, and you shall eat bread at 8 my table always. | He bowed down to him, and said: Who am I your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I am?
9 Then the king called Siba, the servant of Saul, and said to him: All that belonged to Saul, and all his house, I have 10 given to your master's son. | You therefore and your sons and your servants shall till the land for him: and you shall bring in food for your master's son, that he may be maintained: and Miphiboseth the son of your master shall always eat bread at
11 my table. And Siba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. | And Siba said to the king: As you my lord the king have commanded your servant, so will your servant do: and Miphiboseth shall eat
12 at my table, as one of the sons of the king. | And Miphiboseth had a young son whose name was Micha: and all the kindred of 13 the house of Siba served Miphiboseth. | But Miphiboseth dwelt in Jerusalem: because he ate always of the king's table. And he was lame of both feet.

10

1 The Ammonites Abuse David's Ambassadors And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon
2 died, and Hanon his son reigned in his stead. | And David said: I will show kindness to Hanon the son of Daas, as his father showed kindness to me. So David sent his servants to comfort him for the death of his father. But when the servants of David
3 had come into the land of the children of Ammon, | the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanon their lord: Do you think that for the honor of your father, David has sent comforters to you; and has not David rather sent his servants to you
4 to search, and spy into the city, and overthrow it? | Wherefore Hanon took the servants of David, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut away half of their garments even to the
5 buttocks, and sent them away. | When this was told David, he sent to meet them. For the men were sadly put to confusion, and David commanded them, saying: Stay at Jericho, till your beards are grown, and then return.
6 And the children of Ammon seeing that they had done an injury to David, sent and hired the Syrians of Rohob, and the 10, 4: Even today the Orientals consider the beard as man's pride. Hence to shave it is effeminate: to shave part of it, ludicrous.

Syrians of Soba, twenty thousand footmen, and of the king of Maacha a thousand men, and of Istob twelve thousand men. | 7 And when David heard this, he sent Joab and the whole army of 8 warriors. | And the children of Ammon came out, and set their men in array at the entering in of the gate: but the Syrians of Soba, and of Rohob, and of Istob, and of Maacha were by themselves in the field.

9 The Syrians and Their Allies Are Overthrown Then Joab seeing that the battle was prepared against him, both before and behind, chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put 10 them in array against the Syrians. | And the rest of the people he delivered to Abisai his brother, who set them in array against 11 the children of Ammon. | And Joab said: If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the children of
12 Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. | Be of good courage, and let us fight for our people, and for the city of 13 our God: and the Lord will do what is good in his sight. | And Joab and the people that were with him, began to fight against 14 the Syrians: and they immediately fled before him. | And the children of Ammon seeing that the Syrians fled, they fled also before Abisai, and entered into the city. And Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 Then the Syrians seeing that they had fallen before Israel, 16 gathered themselves together. | And Adarezer sent and fetched the Syrians, that were beyond the river, and brought over their army: and Sobach, the captain of the host of Adarezer, was
17 their general. | And when this was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David; and
18 fought against him. | And the Syrians fled before Israel. And David slew of the Syrians the men of seven hundred chariots, and forty thousand horsemen: and smote Sobach the captain of 19 the army, who presently died. | And all the kings that were auxiliaries of Adarezer, seeing themselves overcome by Israel, were afraid and fled away, eight and fifty thousand men before Israel. And they made peace with Israel: and served them; and all the Syrians were afraid to help the children of Ammon any more.

11

1 David Commits Adultery And it came to pass at the return of the year, at the time when kings go forth to war, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel. And they spoiled the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabba: but

2 David remained in Jerusalem. | In the meantime it happened that David arose from his bed after noon, and walked upon the roof of the king's house. And he saw from the roof of his house a woman washing herself, opposite him: and the woman 3 was very beautiful. | And the king sent, and inquired who the woman was. And it was told him, that she was Bethsabee the 4 daughter of Eliam, the wife of Urias the Hethite. | And David sent messengers, and took her, and she came in to him, and he slept with her: and presently she was purified from her un-5 cleanness. | And she returned to her house having conceived.
And she sent and told David, and said: I have conceived.

6 David's Crime against Urias And David sent to Joab, saying: Send me Urias the Hethite. And Joab sent Urias to David.
7 | And Urias came to David. And David asked how Joab did,
8 and the people, and how the war was carried on. | And David said to Urias: Go into your house, and wash your feet. And Urias went out from the king's house; and there went out after 9 him a mess of meat from the king. | But Urias slept before the gate of the king's house, with the other servants of his lord; and 10 went not down to his own house. | And it was told David by some that said: Urias went not to his house. And David said to Urias: Did you not come from your journey? Why did you 11 not go down to your house? | And Urias said to David: The ark of God and Israel and Juda dwell in tents, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord abide upon the face of the earth.
And shall I go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to sleep with my wife? By your welfare and by the welfare of your soul 12 I will not do this thing. | Then David said to Urias: Tarry here today; and tomorrow I will send you away. Urias tarried in 13 Jerusalem that day and the next. | And David called him to eat and to drink before him, and he made him drunk. And he went out in the evening, and slept on his couch with the servants of his lord; and went not down into his house.
14 And when the morning had come, David wrote a letter to 15 Joab: and sent it by the hand of Urias, | writing in the letter:

11, 4: She was purified from her uncleanness: by a ritual bath as commanded in Lv 15, 18.

11, 6-13: David failed in his attempt to conceal his sin by having Urias spend his furlough with his wife. To David's dismay, even intoxication did not drown Urias' resolution. David's invitation, "wash your feet" (v. 8) is a summary of eat, drink and sleep (v. 11). Urias is listed on David's roster of heroes in 23, 39.

11, 15-16: Joab could have blackmailed David and struck a military coup to take the throne himself. However, his loyalty never wavered.

Set Urias in the front of the battle, where the fight is strongest:
16 and leave him, that he may be wounded and die. | Wherefore as Joab was besieging the city, he put Urias in the place where he knew the bravest men were.

17 The Death of Urias And the men coming out of the city, fought against Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David. And Urias the Hethite was killed also. | 18 Then Joab sent, and told David all things concerning the bat-19 tle. | And he charged the messenger, saying: When you have 20 told all the wôrds of the battle to the king, | if you see him to be angry, and he shall say: Why did you approach so near to the wall to fight? Did you not know that many darts are thrown
21 from above off the wall? | Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerobaal? Did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, and slew him in Thebes? Why did you go near the wall? You shall say: Your servant Urias the Hethite is also slain.
22 So the messenger departed; and came and told David all that 23 Joab had commanded him. | And the messenger said to David: The men prevailed against us; and they came out to us into the field: and we vigorously charged and pursued them even to the 24 gate of the city. | And the archers shot their arrows at your servants from off the wall above. And some of the king's servants are slain: and your servant Urias the Hethite is also dead. |
25 And David said to the messenger: Thus shall you say to Joab: Let not this thing discourage you; for various is the event of war. And sometimes one, sometimes another is consumed by the sword. Encourage your warriors against the city: and exhort them that you may overthrow it.
26 And the wife of Urias heard that Urias her husband was 27 dead: and she mourned for him. | And the mourning being over, David sent and brought her into his house. And she became his wife; and she bore him a son. And this thing which David had done, was displeasing to the Lord.

12

1 Nathan's Parable And the Lord sent Nathan to David. And when he had come to him, he said to him: There were two
2 men in one city, the one rich, and the other poor. | The rich
3 man had exceeding many sheep and oxen. | But the poor man had nothing at all but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up, and which had grown up in his house to-

11, 21: A reference to Jgs 9, 50-54.

gether with his children, eating of his bread, and drinking of his cup, and sleeping in his bosom: and it was unto him as a
4 daughter. | And when a certain stranger came to the rich man, he spared to take of his own sheep and oxen, to make a feast for that stranger, who had come to him, but took the poor man's
5 ewe, and dressed it for the man that had come to him. | And David's anger being exceedingly kindled against that man, he said to Nathan: As the Lord lives, the man that has done this
6 is a child of death. | He shall restore the ewe fourfold: because he did this thing, and had no pity.

7 And Nathan said to David: You are the man. Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: I anointed you king over Israel; and I
8 delivered you from the hand of Saul, | and gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and Juda. And if these things be
9 little, I shall add far greater things unto you. | Why therefore have you despised the word of the Lord, to do evil in my sight? You have killed Urias the Hethite with the sword, and taken his wife to be your wife; and you have slain him with the sword
10 of the children of Ammon. | Therefore the sword shall never depart from your house: because you have despised me, and
*11 taken the wife of Urias the Hethite to be your wife. | Thus says the Lord: Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor: and he shall lie with your wives
12 in the sight of this sun. | For you did it secretly: but I will do this thing in the sight of all Israel, and in the sight of the sun.

13 David Repents And David said to Nathan: I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said to David: The Lord also has 14 taken away your sin. You shall not die. | Nevertheless, because you have given occasion to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, for this thing, the child that is born to you, shall surely die.
15 And Nathan returned to his house. The Lord also struck the child which the wife of Urias had borne to David; and his life
16 was despaired of. | And David besought the Lord for the child: and David kept a fast, and going in by himself lay upon the
17 ground. | And the ancients of his house came, to make him rise from the ground: but he would not, neither did he eat meat with

12, 14: The better reading is "Nevertheless because you have blasphemed the Lord in this affair, the child. . . ."

12, 16-23: David, following his own idea, did not pray and fast as penance for his sins, as was customarily done. Since his sin was forgiven (v. 13), he thought he did not have to do penance. He prayed and fasted to try to prevent the threatened loss of his child.

18 them. | And it came to pass on the seventh day that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him, that the child was dead. For they said: Behold when the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he would not hearken to our voice. How much more will he afflict himself if we tell him that the child is 19 dead? | But when David saw his servants whispering, he understood that the child was dead. And he said to his servants: Is the 20 child dead? They answered him: He is dead. | And David arose from the ground, and washed and anointed himself. And when he had changed his apparel, he went into the house of the Lord: and worshiped. And then he came into his own house; and he 21 called for bread, and ate. | And his servants said to him: What thing is this that you have done? You did fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, you 22 did rise up, and eat bread. | And he said: While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept for him, for I said: Who knows whether the Lord may not give him to me, and the child may 23 live? | But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Shall I be able to bring him back any more? I shall go to him rather, but he shall not return to me.

24 The Birth of Solomon And David comforted Bethsabee his wife, and went in unto her, and slept with her. And she bore a son; and he called his name Solomon; and the Lord 25 loved him. | And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and called his name, Amiable to the Lord, because the Lord loved him.
26 And Joab fought against Rabbath of the children of Ammon, 27 and laid close siege to the royal city. | And Joab sent messengers to David, saying: I have fought against Rabbath; and the city 28 of waters is about to be taken. | Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and besiege the city and take it: lest when the city shall be wasted by me, the victory be ascribed to my name.
29 Then David gathered all the people together, and went out 30 against Rabbath: and after fighting, he took it. | And he took 12, 24: In all the ancient Near East the story of a king admitting the guilt of adultery, murder, and accepting the reprimand by one of his prophets could happen only in Israel. Any other king in David's world would have deemed these his privileges, but in Israel the moral law ruled supreme, and not a king as in pagan lands. This was the point of Nathan's parable. Moreover, only an Israelite scribe would objectively write the crimes of his king because he wrote to glorify Yahweh and not national heroes. See Carlyle's penetrating remarks on David's "repentance" in Lecture on the Hero as Prophet.

the crown of their king from his head, the weight of which was a talent of gold, set with most precious stones, and it was put upon David's head. And the spoils of the city which were very 31 great he carried away. | And bringing forth the people thereof, he sawed them, and drove over them chariots armed with iron: and divided them with knives, and made them pass through brick-kilns. So did he to all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David returned, with all the army to Jerusalem.

13

1 Amnon Defiles Thamar And it came to pass after this, that Amnon the son of David loved the sister of Absalom the son of David, who was very beautiful: and her name was
2 Thamar. | And he was exceedingly fond of her, so that he fell sick for the love of her: for, as she was a virgin, he thought it
3 hard to do any thing dishonestly with her. | Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab the son of Semmaa the brother of David,
4 a very wise man. | And he said to him: Why do you grow so lean from day to day, O son of the king? Why do you not tell me the reason of it? And Amnon said to him: I am in love with Thamar the sister of my brother Absalom.
5 And Jonadab said to him: Lie down upon your bed, and feign yourself sick; and when your father shall come to visit you say to him: Let my sister Thamar, I pray you, come to me, to give me to eat, and to make me a mess, that I may eat it at 6 her hand. | So Amnon lay down, and made as if he were sick: and when the king came to visit him, Amnon said to the king: I pray you let my sister Thamar come, and make in my sight two
7 little messes, that I may eat at her hand. | Then David sent home to Thamar, saying: Come to the house of your brother
8 Amnon, and make him a mess. | And Thamar came to the house of Amnon her brother: but he was laid down. And she took meal and tempered it: and dissolving it in his sight she
9 made little messes. | And taking what she had boiled, she poured it out, and set it before him, but he would not eat. And Amnon said: Put out all persons from me. And when they had 10 put all persons out, | Amnon said to Thamar: Bring the mess into the chamber, that I may eat at your hand. And Thamar took the little messes which she had made, and brought them in
11 to her brother Amnon in the chamber. | And when she had presented him the meat, he took hold of her, and said: Come lie
12 with me, my sister. | She answered him: Do not so, my brother, do not force me: for no such thing must be done in Israel. Do 13 not do this folly. | For I shall not be able to bear my shame; and you shall be as one of the fools in Israel. But rather speak to the

14 king: and he will not deny me to you. | But he would not hearken to her prayers; but being stronger overpowered her and lay with her.
15 Then Amnon hated her with an exceeding great hatred: so that his hatred was greater than the love that he had felt for her before. And Amnon said to her: Arise, and be gone.
16 She answered him: This evil which you now did against me, in driving me away, is greater than that which you did before.
17 And he would not hearken to her. | But calling the servants that ministered to him, he said: Thrust this woman out from me, 18 and shut the door after her. | And she was clothed with a long robe: for the king's daughters that were virgins, used such kind of garments. Then his servant thrust her out, and shut the door 19 after her. | And she put ashes on her head, and rent her long robe, and laid her hands upon her head, and went on crying.

20 Absalom Kills Amnon And Absalom her brother said to her: Has your brother Amnon lain with you? But now, sister, hold your peace, he is your brother: and afflict not your heart for this thing. So Thamar remained pining away in the house of 21 Absalom her brother. | And when king David heard of these things he was exceedingly grieved: and he would not afflict the spirit of his son Amnon, for he loved him, because he was his 22 firstborn. | But Absalom spoke not to Amnon neither good nor evil: for Absalom hated Amnon because he had ravished his sister Thamar.
23 And it came to pass after two years, that the sheep of Absalom were shorn in Baalhasor, which is near Ephraim: and 24 Absalom invited all the king's sons. | And he came to the king, and said to him: Behold your servant's sheep are shorn. Let the 25 king, I pray, with his servants come to his servant. | And the king said to Absalom: Nay, my son, do not ask that we should all come, and be chargeable to you. And when he pressed him, 26 and he would not go, he blessed him. | And Absalom said: If you will not come, at least let my brother Amnon, I beseech you, come with us. And the king said to him: It is not necessary 27 that he should go with you. | But Absalom pressed him, so that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. And 28 Absalom made a feast as it were the feast of a king. | And Absalom had commanded his servants, saying: Take notice when Amnon shall be drunk with wine, and when I shall say to you: Strike him, and kill him; fear not for it is I that com-29 mand you. Take courage, and be valiant men. | And the serv-

13, 15: He suddenly hated her for his sin.

ants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded them. And all the king's sons arose and got up every man upon his mule, and fled.

30 And while they were yet in the way, a rumor came to David, saying: Absalom has slain all the king's sons; and there is not 31 one of them left. | Then the king rose up, and rent his garments: and fell upon the ground. And all his servants, that
32 stood about him, rent their garments. | But Jonadab the son of Semmaa David's brother answering, said: Let not my lord the king think that all the king's sons are slain: Amnon only is dead, for he was appointed by the mouth of Absalom from the day
33 that he ravished his sister Thamar. | Now therefore let not my lord the king take this thing into his heart, saying: All the king's sons are slain; for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Absalom fled away. And the young man that kept the watch, lifted up his eyes and looked: and behold there came 35 much people by a by-way on the side of the mountain. | And Jonadab said to the king: Behold the king's sons have come: as
36 your servant said, so it is. | And when he made an end of speaking, the king's sons also appeared. And coming in they lifted up their voice, and wept: and the king also and all his servants
37 wept very much. | But Absalom fled, and went to Tholomai the son of Ammiud the king of Gessur. And David mourned
38 for his son every day. | And Absalom, after he had fled into Gessur, was there three years. And king David ceased to pursue after Absalom, because he was comforted concerning the death of Amnon.

14

1 The Woman of Thecua And Joab the son of Sarvia, understanding that the king's heart was turned to Absalom, |
2 sent to Thecua, and fetched from thence a wise woman: and said to her: Feign yourself to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel, and be not anointed with oil, that you may be as a woman that had a long time been mourning for one dead. |
3 And you shall go in to the king, and shall speak to him in this manner. And Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Thecua had come in to the king, she fell before him upon the ground, and worshiped, and said:
5 Save me, O king. | And the king said to her: What is the matter with you? She answered: Alas, I am a widow woman, for 6 my husband is dead. | And your handmaid had two sons: and they quarrelled with each other in the field, and there was none to part them. And the one struck the other, and slew him. |
7 And behold the whole kindred rising against your handmaid, said: Deliver him that has slain his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother, whom he slew, and that we may destroy the heir. And they seek to quench my spark which is left, and will leave my husband no name, nor remainder upon 8 the earth. | And the king said to the woman: Go to your house;

9 and I will give charge concerning you.| And the woman of Thecua said to the king: Upon me, my lord, be the iniquity, and upon the house of my father; but may the king and his throne be
10 guiltless. | And the king said: If any one shall say aught against you, bring him to me; and he shall not touch you any more. | 11 And she said: Let the king remember the Lord his God, that the next of kin be not multiplied to take revenge, and that they may not kill my son. And he said: As the Lord lives, there shall not one hair of your son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said: Let your handmaid speak one word
13 to my lord the king. And he said: Speak. | And the woman said: Why have you thought such a thing against the people of God, and why has the king spoken this word, to sin, and not
14 bring home again his own exile? | We all die, and like waters that return no more, we fall down into the earth. Neither will God have a soul to perish, but recalled; meaning that he that is
15 cast off should not altogether perish. | Now therefore have I come, to speak this word to my lord the king before the people. And your handmaid said: I will speak to the king, it may be
16 the king will perform the request of his handmaid. | And the king has hearkened to me to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of all that would destroy me and my son together, out of
17 the inheritance of God. | Then let your handmaid say, that the word of the lord the king be made as a sacrifice. For even as an angel of God, so is my lord the king, that he is neither moved with blessing nor cursing: wherefore the Lord your God is also with you.

18 And the king answering, said to the woman: Hide not from me the thing that I ask you. And the woman said to him: Speak, 19 my lord the king. | And the king said: Is not the hand of Joab with you in all this? The woman answered and said: By the health of your soul, my lord, O king, it is neither on the left hand, nor on the right, in all these things which my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab, he commanded me, and
20 he put all these words into the mouth of your handmaid. | That I should come about with this form of speech, your servant Joab commanded this: but you, my lord, O king, are wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to understand all things upon earth.

21 Absalom's Return And the king said to Joab: Behold I am appeased and have granted your request. Go therefore and 22 fetch back the boy Absalom. | And Joab falling down to the ground upon his face, adored, and blessed the king. And Joab said: This day your servant has understood, that I have found grace in your sight, my lord, O king; for you have fulfilled the
23 request of your servant. | Then Joab arose and went to Gessur,
24 and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. | But the king said: Let him return into his house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned into his house, and saw not the king's face.
25 But in all Israel there was not a man so comely, and so exceedingly beautiful as Absalom: from the sole of the foot to the 26 crown of his head there was no blemish in him. | And when he polled his hair (now he was polled once a year, because his hair was burdensome to him) he weighed the hair of his head at two
27 hundred sicles, according to the common weight. | And there were born to Absalom three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Thamar; and she was very beautiful.
28 And Absalom dwelt two years in Jerusalem, and saw not 29 the king's face. | He sent therefore to Joab, to send him to the king: but he would not come to him. And when he had sent the
30 second time, and he would not come to him, | he said to his servants: You know the field of Joab near my field, that has a crop of barley. Go now and set it on fire. So the servants of Absalom set the corn on fire. And Joab's servants coming with their garments rent said: The servants of Absalom have set part
31 of the field on fire. | Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to his house, and said: Why have your servants set my corn on
32 fire? | And Absalom answered Joab: I sent to you beseeching you to come to me, that I might send you to the king, to say to him: Wherefore have I come from Gessur? It had been better for me to be there. I beseech you therefore that I may see the face of the king: and if he be mindful of my iniquity, let him
33 kill me. | So Joab going in to the king, told him all; and Absalom was called for. And he went in to the king, and prostrated himself on the ground before him: and the king kissed Absalom.

15

1 Absalom's Conspiracy Now after these things Absalom made himself chariots, and horsemen, and fifty men to run
2 before him. | And Absalom rising up early stood by the entrance of the gate; and when any man had business to come to the king's judgment, Absalom called him to him, and said: Of what city are you? He answered, and said: Your servant is of 3 such a tribe of Israel. | And Absalom answered him: Your words seem to me good and just. But there is no man appointed 4 by the king to hear you. And Absalom said: | O that they would make me judge over the land, that all that have business 5 might come to me, that I might do them justice. | Moreover when any man came to him to salute him, he put forth his hand, 6 and took him, and kissed him. | And this he did to all Israel that came for judgment, to be heard by the king: and he enticed the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And after forty years, Absalom said to king David: Let me go, and pay my vows which I have vowed to the Lord in He-8 bron. | For your servant made a vow, when he was in Gessur of Syria, saying: If the Lord shall bring me again into Jerusalem, 9 I will offer sacrifice to the Lord. | And king David said to him:
10 Go in peace. And he arose, and went to Hebron. | And Absalom sent spies into all the tribes of Israel, saying: As soon as you shall hear the sound of the trumpet, you shall say: Absalom 11 reigns in Hebron. | Now there went with Absalom two hundred men out of Jerusalem that were called, going with sim-12 plicity of heart, and knowing nothing of the design. | Absalom also sent for Achitophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city Gilo. And while he was offering sacrifices, there was a strong conspiracy: and the people running together increased 13 with Absalom. | And there came a messenger to David, saying: All Israel with their whole heart follows Absalom.

14 David Flees from Jerusalem And David said to his servants, that were with him in Jerusalem: Arise and let us flee; for otherwise we shall not escape from the face of Absalom.
Make haste to go out, lest he come and overtake us, and bring ruin upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword. | 15 And the king's servants said to him: Whatsoever our lord the king shall command, we your servants will willingly execute.
16 | And the king went forth, and all his household on foot. And the king left ten women his concubines to keep the house. |
17 And the king going forth and all Israel on foot, stood afar off 18 from the house. | And all his servants walked by him: and the bands of the Cerethi, and the Phelethi, and all the Gethites, valiant warriors, six hundred men who had followed him from 19 Geth on foot, went before the king. | And the king said to Ethai the Gethite: Why do you come with us? Return and dwell with the king, for you are a stranger, and have come out of your own 20 place. | Yesterday you came and today you should be forced to go forth with us? But I shall go where I am going: yet you return, and take back your brethren with you. And the Lord will show you mercy, and truth, because you have shown grace and 21 fidelity. And Ethai answered the king, saying: As the Lorc lives, and as my lord the king lives: in whatever place you shal be, my lord, O king, either in death, or in life, there will you 22 servant be. | And David said to Ethai: Come, and pass over And Ethai the Gethite passed; and all the men that were with 23 him, and the rest of the people. | And they all wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over. The king also himself went over the brook Cedron: and all the people marched toward the way that looks to the desert.

24 The Ark Returned to Jerusalem And Sadoc the priest also came, and all the Levites with him carrying the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God. And Abiathar went up, till all the people that had come out of the 25 city had done passing. | And the king said to Sadoc: Carry back the ark of God into the city. If I shall find grace in the sight of the Lord, he will bring me again: and he will show me 26 it, and his tabernacle. | But if he shall say to me: You please me not: I am ready, let him do that which is good before him 27 | And the king said to Sadoc the priest: O seer, return into the city in peace; and let Achimaas your son, and Jonathan the son 28 of Abiathar, your two sons, be with you. | Behold I will lie hidden in the plains of the wilderness, till word will come from 29 you to certify me. | So Sadoc and Abiathar carried back the ark of God into Jerusalem: and they tarried there.
30 But David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, going up and weeping, walking barefoot, and with his head covered: and all the people that were with them, went up with their heads 31 covered, weeping. | And it was told David that Achitophel also was in the conspiracy with Absalom, and David said: Infatuate 32 O Lord, I beseech you, the counsel of Achitophel. | And when David had come to the top of the mountain, where he was about to adore the Lord, behold Chusai the Arachite, came to meet him with his garment rent and his head covered with earth 33 | And David said to him: If you come with me, you will be a 34 burden to me. | But if you return into the city, and say to Absalom: I am your servant, O king: as I have been your father's servant, so I will be your servant: you shall defeat the counsel of Achitophel.
35 And you have with you Sadoc and Abiathar, the priests: and whatever thing you shall hear out of the king's house, you shall 36 tell it to Sadoc and Abiathar, the priests. | And there are with them their two sons Achimaas the son of Sadoc, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar: and you shall send by them to me every 37 thing that you shall hear. | Then Chusai the friend of David went into the city: and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16

1 Siba Brings Provisions to David And when David was a little past the top of the hill, behold Siba the servant of Miphiboseth came to meet him with two asses, laden with two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred 2 cakes of figs, and a vessel of wine. | And the king said to Siba: What do these things mean? And Siba answered: The asses are for the king's household to sit on: and the loaves and figs for your servants to eat: and the wine to drink if any man be faint 3 in the desert. | And the king said: Where is your master's son? And Siba answered the king: He remained in Jerusalem, saying: Today will the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my fa- 4 ther. | And the king said to Siba: I give you all that belonged to Miphiboseth. And Siba said: I beseech you let me find grace before you, my lord, O king.

5 Semei Curses David And king David came as far as Bahurim: and behold there came out from thence a man of the kindred of the house of Saul named Semei, the son of Gera. 6 And coming out he cursed as he went on. | And he threw stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people, and all the warriors walked on the right, and on 7 the left side of the king. | And thus said Semei when he cursed the king: Come out, come out, you man of blood, and 8 you man of Belial. | The Lord has repaid you for all the blood of the house of Saul: because you have usurped the kingdom in his stead. And the Lord has given the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son: and behold your evils press upon you, be- 9 cause you are a man of blood. | And Abisai the son of Sarvia said to the king: Why should this dead dog curse my lord the 10 king? I will go, and cut off his head. | And the king said: What have I to do with you, sons of Sarvia? Let him alone and let him curse: for the Lord has bid him curse David. And who is 11 he that shall dare say, why has he done so? | And the king said to Abisai, and to all his servants: Behold my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life. How much more now a son of Jemini? Let him alone that he may curse as the Lord has 12 bidden him. | Perhaps the Lord may look upon my affliction and the Lord may render me good for the cursing of this day. 13 | And David and his men with him went by the way. And Semei by the hill's side went over against him, cursing, and 14 casting stones at him, and scattering earth. | And the king and all the people with him came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 But Absalom and all his people came into Jerusalem; and 16 Achitophel was with him. | And when Chusai the Arachite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, he said to him: God save
17 you, O king; God save you, O king. | And Absalom said to him: Is this your kindness to your friend? Why did you not go 18 with your friend? And Chusai answered Absalom: Nay: for I will be his, whom the Lord has chosen, and all this people, and 19 all Israel; and with him will I abide. | Besides this, whom shall I serve? Is it not the king's son? As I have served your father, so will I serve you also.

20 Achitophel's Counsel And Absalom said to Achitophel:
21 Consult what we are to do. | And Achitophel said to Absalom: Go in to the concubines of your father, whom he has left to keep the house: that when all Israel shall hear that you have disgraced your father, their hands may be strengthened with
22 you. | So they spread a tent for Absalom on the top of the house: and he went in to his father's concubines before all Israel.
23 | Now the counsel of Achitophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man should consult God. So was all the counsel of Achitophel, both when he was with David, and when he was with Absalom.

17

1 Chusai's Counsel Prevails over Achitophel's And Achitophel said to Absalom: I will choose me twelve thousand men;
2 and I will arise and pursue after David this night. | And coming upon him (for he is now weary and weak handed) I will defeat him: and when all the people are put to flight that are
3 with him, I will kill the king who will be left alone. | And I

16, 21-22: Achitophel counsels Absalom to appropriate half of David's harem. In this way, the people will not fear David returning, pardoning Absalom, and punishing them for rallying to him. Everyone will know that reconciliation will be impossible, for Absalom is already acting as an established successor to the throne (see 3, 8 n).

The wedding tent on the roof of the palace is still recognized in the canopy at Jewish weddings.

16, 23: Achitophel was listened to with the same respect shown to the divine oracles themselves.

17, 1-29: Achitophel's plan to attack at once was the more strategic one (vv. 1-3). Chusai appealed to the pretender's vanity by advising that Absalom himself lead the soldiers representing the whole nation "from Dan to Bersabee" (v. 11). It would take time to muster them, and thus David would have time to organize.

will bring back all the people, as if they were but one man; for you seek but one man. And all the people shall be in peace.
4 And his saying pleased Absalom, and all the ancients of 5 Israel. | But Absalom said: Call Chusai the Arachite; and let 6 us hear what he also says. | And when Chusai had come before Absalom, Absalom said to him: Achitophel has spoken after this manner. Shall we do it or not? What counsel do you give?
7 | And Chusai said to Absalom: The counsel that Achitophel
8 has given this time is not good. | And again Chusai said: You know your father, and the men that are with him, that they are very valiant, and bitter in their mind, as a bear raging in the wood when her whelps are taken away. And your father is a 9 warrior, and will not lodge with the people. | Perhaps he now lies hidden in pits, or in some other place where he may list.
And when any one shall fall at the first, every one that hears it shall say: There is a slaughter among the people that fol-10 lowed Absalom. | And the most valiant man whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall melt for fear: for all the people of Israel know your father to be a valiant man, and that all who are 11 with him are valiant. | But this seems to me to be good counsel: Let all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan to Bersabee, as the sand of the sea which cannot be numbered. And you shall be in 12 the midst of them. | And we shall come upon him in whatever place he shall be found: and we shall cover him, as the dew falls upon the ground: and we shall not leave of the men that 13 are with him not so much as one. | And if he shall enter into any city, all Israel shall cast ropes round about that city: and we will draw it into the river, so that there shall not be found 14 so much as one small stone thereof. | And Absalom, and all the men of Israel said: The counsel of Chusai the Arachite is better than the counsel of Achitophel. And by the will of the Lord the profitable counsel of Achitophel was defeated, that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 Chusai Informs David And Chusai said to Sadoc and Abiathar the priests: Thus and thus did Achitophel counsel Absalom, and the ancients of Israel; and thus and thus did I 16 counsel them. | Now therefore send quickly and tell David, saying: Tarry not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but without delay pass over: lest the king be swallowed up, and all 17 the people that are with him. | And Jonathan and Achimaas stayed by the fountain Rogel: and there went a maid and told them; and they went forward, to carry the message to king
David, for they might not be seen, nor enter into the city. | 18 But a certain boy saw them, and told Absalom: but they making haste went into the house of a certain man in Bahurim, who 19 had a well in his court, and they went down into it. | And a woman answered them: They passed on in haste, after they had as it were to dry sodden barley: and so the thing was not known.

20 | And when Absalom's servants came into the house, they said to the woman: Where is Achimaas and Jonathan? And the woman answered them: They passed on in haste, after they had tasted a little water. But they that sought them, when they 21 found them not, returned into Jerusalem. | And when they were gone, they came up out of the well, and going on told king David, and said: Arise, and pass quickly over the river; for this 22 manner of counsel has Achitophel given against you. | So David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over the Jordan, until it grew light, and not one of them was left that had not gone over the river.

23 Achitophel Hangs Himself But Achitophel seeing that his counsel was not followed, saddled his ass, and arose and went home to his house and to his city. And putting his house in order, he hanged himself, and was buried in the sepulcher of his father.

24 But David came to the camp, and Absalom passed over the 25 Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. | Now Absalom appointed Amasa in Joab's stead over the army: and Amasa was the son of a man who was called Jethra of Jezrael, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Naas, the sister of Sarvia 26 who was the mother of Joab. | And Israel camped with Absa-27 lom in the land of Galaad. | And when David had come to the camp, Sobi the son of Naas of Rabbath of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammihel of Lodabar, and Berzellai 28 the Galaadite of Rogelim, | brought him beds, and tapestry, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and 29 parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and fried pulse, | and honey, and butter, and sheep, and fat calves. And they gave to David and the people that were with him, to eat: for they suspected that the people were faint with hunger and thirst in the wilderness.

18

1 David Prepares for Battle And David having reviewed his people, appointed over them captains of thousands and of 17, 23: Achitophel knew that David would return and execute him as a traitor. He became the classical figure of a traitor and type of Judas (Jn 13, 18). See John Dryden's Achitophel.

hundreds, | and sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abisai the son of Sarvia, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ethai, who was of Geth. And the king said to the people: I also will go forth with you. | And the people answered: You shall not go forth; for if we flee away, they will not much mind us. Or if half of us should fall, they will not greatly care: for you alone are accounted for ten thousand. It is better therefore that you should be in the city to succor us. | And the king said to them: What seems good to you, that will I do. And the king stood by the gate: and all the people went forth by their troops, by hundreds and by thousands. | And the king commanded Joab, and Abisai, and Ethai, saying: Save me the boy Absalom. And all the people heard the king giving charge to all the princes concerning Absalom.

So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim. | And the people of Israel were defeated there by David's army: and a great slaughter was made that day of twenty thousand men. | And the battle was scattered over the face of all the country: and there were many more of the people whom the forest consumed, than whom the sword devoured that day.

Absalom Defeated and Slain And it happened that Absalom met the servants of David, riding on a mule: and as the mule went under a thick and large oak, his head stuck in the oak: and while he hung between the heaven and the earth, the mule on which he rode passed on. | And one saw this and told Joab, saying: I saw Absalom hanging upon an oak. | And Joab said to the man that told him: If you saw him, why did you not stab him to the ground, and I would have given you ten sicles of silver, and a belt? | And he said to Joab: If you would have paid down in my hands a thousand pieces of silver, I would not lay my hands upon the king's son. For in our hearing the king charged you, and Abisai, and Ethai, saying: Save me the boy Absalom. | Yea, and if I should have acted boldly against my own life, this could not have been hidden from the king. And would you have stood by me? | And Joab said: Not as you will but I will set upon him in your sight. So he took three lances in his hand, and thrust them into the heart of Absalom. And while he yet panted for life, sticking on the oak, | ten young men, armorbearers of Joab, ran up, and striking him slew him. | And Joab sounded the trumpet, and kept back the people from pursuing after Israel in their flight, being willing to spare the multitude. | And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the forest: and they laid an exceeding great heap of stones upon 18 him. But all Israel fled to their own dwellings. | Now Absalom had reared up for himself, in his lifetime, a pillar, which is in the king's valley, for he said: I have no son, and this shall be the monument of my name. And he called the pillar by his own name, and it is called the hand of Absalom, to this day.

19 The Messengers And Achimaas the son of Sadoc said: I will run and tell the king, that the Lord has done judgment for 20 him from the hand of his enemies. | And Joab said to him: You shall not be the messenger this day, but shall bear tidings another day. This day I will not have you bear tidings, because
21 the king's son is dead. | And Joab said to Chusai: Go, and tell the king what you have seen. Chusai bowed down to Joab, and
22 ran. | Then Achimaas the son of Sadoc said to Joab again: Why might not I also run after Chusai? And Joab said to him: Why will you run, my son? You will not be the bearer of good tid-
23 ings. | He answered: But what if I run? And he said to him: Run. Then Achimaas running by a nearer way passed Chusai.
24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman that was on the top of the gate upon the wall, lifting up his eyes,
25 saw a man running alone, | and crying out he told the king. And the king said: If he be alone, there are good tidings in his mouth. And as he was coming apace, and drawing nearer, | 26 the watchman saw another man running; and crying aloud from above, he said: I see another man running alone. And the 27 king said: He also is a good messenger. | And the watchman said: The running of the foremost seems to me like the running of Achimaas the son of Sadoc. And the king said: He is a good
28 man, and comes with good news. | And Achimaas crying out said to the king: God save you, O king. And falling down before the king with his face to the ground, he said: Blessed be the Lord your God, who has shut up the men that have lifted up
29 their hands against the lord my king. | And the king said: Is the young man Absalom safe? And Achimaas said: I saw a great tumult, O king, when your servant Joab sent me your servant.
30 I know nothing else. | And the king said to him: Pass, and 31 stand here. | And when he had passed, and stood still, Chusai appeared. And coming up he said: I bring good tidings, my lord, the king; for the Lord has judged for you this day from 18, 18: I have no son: this differs from another tradition in 14, 27.

18, 21: Chusai: this messenger mentioned from here to v. 32 should read a "Chusite," probably an Ethiopian slave.

32 the hand of all that have risen up against you. | And the king said to Chusai: Is the young man Absalom safe? And Chusai answering him, said: Let the enemies of my lord, the king, and all that rise against him unto evil, be as the young man is.

33 The king therefore being much moved, went up to the high chamber over the gate, and wept. And as he went he spoke in this manner: My son Absalom, Absalom my son! Would to God that I might die for you, Absalom my son, my son Absalom!

19

1 David Mourns for Absalom And it was told Joab, that 2 the king wept and mourned for his son. | And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people. For the
3 people heard say that day: The king grieves for his son. | And the people shunned the going into the city that day as a people would do that has turned their backs, and fled away from the
4 battle. | And the king covered his head, and cried with a loud
5 voice: O my son Absalom, O Absalom my son, O my son! | Then Joab going into the house to the kings, said: You have shamed this day the faces of all your servants, that have saved your life, and the lives of your sons, and of your daughters, and the lives
6 of your wives, and the lives of your concubines. | You love them that hate you, and you hate them that love you. And you have shown this day that you do not care for your nobles, nor for your servants. And I now plainly perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all we had been slain, then it would have pleased
7 you. | Now therefore arise, and go out, and speak to the satisfaction of your servants: for I swear to you by the Lord, that if you will not go forth, there will not tarry with you so much as one this night. And that will be worse to you, than all the evils that have befallen you from your youth until now.

8 Then the king arose and sat in the gate: and it was told to all the people that the king sat in the gate. And all the people came 9 before the king: but Israel fled to their own dwellings. | And all the people were at strife in all the tribes of Israel, saying: The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land for Absalom.

19, 5-7: Joab, a typical Semite, speaks in extremes of black and white ("love and hate").

19, 8: The king . . . sat in the gate: the busiest part of the city. But Israel fled to their own dwellings: those who had followed Absalom.

19, 9-12: David asks why the Judeans do not invite him back as king since the non-Judeans, "The tribes of Israel," are reputed to have already expressed this desire.

10 David Is Invited to Return But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in the battle. How long are you silent, 11 and bring not back the king? | And king David sent to Sadoc and Abiathar, the priests, saying: Speak to the ancients of Juda saying: Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? (For the talk of all Israel had come to the king in his 12 house.) | You are my brethren; you are my bone, and my flesh:
13 why are you the last to bring back the king? | And say to Amasa: Are not you my bone, and my flesh? So do God to me and add more, if you be not the chief captain of the army before
14 me always in the place of Joab. | And he inclined the heart of all the men of Juda, as it were of one man. And they sent to the king, saying: Return, you, and all your servants.
15 And the king returned and came as far as the Jordan: and all Juda came as far as Galgal to meet the king, and to bring 16 him over the Jordan. | And Semei the son of Gera the son of Jemini of Bahurim, made haste and went down with the men of
17 Juda to meet king David, | with a thousand men of Benjamin, and Siba the servant of the house of Saul. And his fifteen sons, and twenty servants were with him. And going over the Jordan,
18 | they passed the fords before the king, that they might help over the king's household, and do according to his commandment. And Semei the son of Gera falling down before the king,
19 when he had crossed the Jordan, | said to him: Impute not to me, my lord, the iniquity, nor remember the injuries of your servant on the day that you, my lord, the king, went out of Jeru-
20 salem, nor lay it up in your heart, O king. | For I your servant acknowledge my sin: and therefore I have come this day the first of all the house of Joseph, and have come down to meet my lord the king.

21 David Pardons Semei But Abisai the son of Sarvia answering, said: Shall Semei for these words not be put to death, 22 because he cursed the Lord's anointed? | And David said: What have I to do with you, sons of Sarvia? Why are you a satan this day to me? Shall there any man be killed this day in Israel? Do not I know that this day I am made king over Israel?
23 | And the king said to Semei: You shall not die. And he swore unto him.

19, 13: Amasa was Absalom's general. His replacement of Joab might please the Judean followers of Absalom and rid David of a gruff, disagreeable, and disobedient commander.

19, 22: A satan: an adversary.

24 And Miphiboseth the son of Saul came down to meet the king: and he had neither washed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his garments from the day that the king went 25 out, until the day of his return in peace. | And when he met the king at Jerusalem, the king said to him: Why did you not come 26 with me, Miphiboseth? | And he answering, said: My lord, O king, my servant despised me. For I your servant spoke to him to saddle me an ass, that I might get on and go with the king: 27 for I your servant am lame. | Moreover he has also accused me your servant to you, my lord the king: but you, my lord the 28 king, are as an angel of God. Do what pleases you. | For all of my father's house were no better than worthy of death before my lord the king; and you have set me your servant among the guests of your table. What just complaint therefore have I? Or 29 what right to cry any more to the king? | Then the king said to him: Why do you speak any more? What I have said is de-30 termined: you and Siba divide the possessions. | And Miphibo-seth answered the king: Yea, let him take all: forasmuch as my lord the king is returned peaceably into his house.

31 David Blesses Berzellai Berzellai also the Galaadite coming down from Rogelim, brought the king over the Jordan, being 32 ready also to wait on him beyond the river. | Now Berzellai the Galaadite was of a great age, that is to say, fourscore years old:
and he provided the king with sustenance when he abode in the 33 camp; for he was a man exceeding rich. | And the king said to Berzellai: Come with me that you may rest secure with me in 34 Jerusalem. | And Berzellai said to the king: How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king 35 to Jerusalem? | I am this day fourscore years old. Are my senses quick to discern sweet and bitter? Or can meat or drink delight your servant? Or can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? Why should your servant be a 36 burden to my lord, the king? | I your servant will go on a little way from the Jordan with you. I need not this recompense. | 37 But I beseech you let your servant return, and die in my own city, and be buried by the sepulcher of my father and of my mother. But there is your servant Chamaam, let him go with you, my lord, the king, and do to him whatsoever seems good 38 to you. | Then the king said to him: Let Chamaam go over with me, and I will do for him whatsoever shall please you; and all 39 that you shall ask of me, you shall obtain. | And when all the people and the king had passed over the Jordan, the king kissed Berzellai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place. |

40 So the king went on to Galgal, and Chamaam with him. Now all the people of Juda had brought the king over, and only half of the people of Israel were there.
41 Therefore all the men of Israel running together to the king, said to him: Why have our brethren the men of Juda stolen you away, and have brought the king and his household over 42 the Jordan, and all the men of David with him? | And all the men of Juda answered the men of Israel: Because the king is nearer to me. Why are you angry for this matter? Have we eaten any thing of the king's, or have any gifts been given us? | 43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Juda, and said:
I have ten parts in the king more than you; and David belongs to me more than to you. Why have you done me a wrong, and why was it not told me first, that I might bring back my king?
And the men of Juda answered more harshly than the men of Israel.

20

1 Seba's Rebellion And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Seba, the son of Bochri, a man of Jemini. And he sounded the trumpet, and said: We have no part in David, nor inheritance in the son of Isai. Return to your 2 dwellings, O Israel. | And all Israel departed from David, and followed Seba the son of Bochri: but the men of Juda stuck to 3 their king from the Jordan unto Jerusalem. | And when the king had come into his house at Jerusalem, he took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, allowing them provisions. And he went not in unto them; but they were shut up unto the day of their death living in widowhood.
4 And the king said to Amasa: Assemble to me all the men of 5 Juda on the third day. And be you also present. | So Amasa went to assemble the men of Juda; but he tarried beyond the 6 set time which the king had appointed him. | And David said to Abisai: Now will Seba the son of Bochri do us more harm than did Absalom. Take therefore the servants of your lord, and pursue after him, lest he find fenced cities, and escape us. | 7 So Joab's men went out with him, and the Cerethi and the Phelethi: and all the valiant men went out of Jerusalem to pur-8 sue after Seba the son of Bochri. | And when they were at the 19, 40-43: The non-Judeans felt hurt that the Judeans accompanied David back to Jerusalem with an eye to receiving partial treatment.

20, 1-2: Seba leads the rest of the tribes in revolt against David's tribe of Juda.

great stone which is in Gabaon, Amasa coming met them. And Joab had on a close coat of equal length with his habit; and over it was girded with a sword hanging down to his flank, in a scabbard, made in such manner as to come out with the least 9 motion and strike. | And Joab said to Amasa: God save you, my brother. And he took Amasa by the chin with his right hand 10 as him him. | But Amasa, did not take notice of the sword, which Joab had: and he struck him in the side, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and gave him not a second wound, and he died. And Joab, and Abisai his brother pursued after 11 Seba the son of Bochri. | In the meantime some men of Joab's company stopping at the dead body of Amasa, said: Behold he that would have been in Joab's stead the companion of David. | 12 And Amasa, imbrued with blood, lay in the midst of the way.
A certain man saw this that all the people stood still to look upon him. So he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and covered him with a garment, that they who passed 13 might not stop on his account. | And when he was removed out of the way, all the people went on following Joab to pursue after Seba the son of Bochri.

14 Now he had passed through all the tribes of Israel unto Abela and Bethmaacha: and all the chosen men were gathered 15 together unto him. | And they came, and besieged him in Abela and in Bethmaacha, and they cast up works round the city, and the city was besieged. And all the people that were with 16 Joab, labored to throw down the walls. | And a wise woman cried out from the city: Hear, hear, and say to Joab: Come near 17 hither, and I will speak with you. | And when he came near to her, she said to him: Are you Joab? And he answered: I am.
And she spoke thus to him: Hear the words of your handmaid.
18 He answered: I do hear. | And she again said: A saying was used in the old proverb: They that inquire, let them inquire in 19 Abela: and so they made an end. | Am not I she that answers truth in Israel? And you seek to destroy the city, and to overthrow a mother in Israel? Why will you throw down the in-20 heritance of the Lord? | And Joab answering said: God forbid, God forbid that I should. I do not throw down nor destroy.

21 Seba Is Beheaded The matter is not so, but a man of mount Ephraim, Seba the son of Bochri by name, has lifted up his hand against king David: deliver him only, and we will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab: Behold his 20. 19: Thus did Joab dispose of a rival.

20. 19: Overthrow a mother: a distinguished and venerable city.

22 head shall be thrown to you from the wall. | So she went to all the people, and spoke to them wisely. And they cut off the head of Seba the son of Bochri, and cast it out to Joab. And he sounded the trumpet: and they departed from the city, every one to their home. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.
23 So Joab was over all the army of Israel: and Banaias the son 24 of Joiada was over the Cerethites and Phelethites. | But Aduram over the tributes: and Josaphat the son of Ahilud was re-25 corder. | And Siva was scribe: and Sadoc and Abiathar, priests.
26 | And Ira the Jairite was the priest of David.

21

1 Seven Sons of Saul Crucified And there was a famine in the days of David for three years successively: and David consulted the oracle of the Lord. And the Lord said: It is for Saul, and his bloody house, because he slew the Gabaonites. |
2 Then the king, calling for the Gabaonites, said to them: (Now the Gabaonites were not of the children of Israel, but the remains of the Amorrites: and the children of Israel had sworn to them, and Saul sought to slay them out of zeal, as it were 3 for the children of Israel and Juda:) | David therefore said to the Gabaonites: What shall I do for you? And what shall be the atonement for you that you may bless the inheritance of the 4 Lord? | And the Gabaonites said to him: We have no contest about silver and gold, but against Saul and against his house.
Neither do we desire that any man be slain of Israel. And the king said to them: What will you then that I should do for 5 you? | And they said to the king: The man that crushed us and oppressed us unjustly, we must destroy in such manner that there be not so much as one left of his stock in all the coasts of 6 Israel. | Let seven men of his children be delivered unto us, that we may crucify them to the Lord in Gabaa of Saul, once the chosen of the Lord. And the king said: I will give them. | 7 And the king spared Miphiboseth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the oath of the Lord, that had been between 8 David and Jonathan the son of Saul. | So the king took the two sons of Respha the daughter of Aia, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni, and Miphiboseth: and the five sons of Michol the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Hadriel the son of Ber-21—24: Six appendices to David's history from various sources are inserted here. The logical sequel to 20, 26 is 3 Kgs 1, 1ff.

21, 1: According to the ideas of the time, a calamity (the famine) is always ascribed to some sin. Saul's slaughter of the Gabaonites, the adopted reason for the famine, is not otherwise mentioned in the Bible.

21, 8: Miphiboseth: not the one mentioned in the preceding v. 7.

9 zellai, that was of Molathi, | and gave them into the hands of the Gabaonites. And they crucified them on a hill before the Lord: and these seven died together in the first days of the harvest, when the barley began to be reaped.

10 And Respha the daughter of Aia took haircloth, and spread it under her upon the rock, from the beginning of the harvest, till water dropped upon them out of heaven: and suffered neither the birds to tear them by day, nor the beasts by night. |

11 And it was told David, what Raspha the daughter of Aia, the 12 concubine of Saul, had done. | And David went, and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabes Galaad, who had stolen them from the street of Bethsan, where the Philistines had hanged them when they
13 had slain Saul in Gelboe. | And he brought from thence the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son: and they
14 gathered up the bones of them that were crucified, | and they buried them with the bones of Saul, and of Jonathan his son in the land of Benjamin, in the side, in the sepulcher of Cis his father. And they did all that the king had commanded: and God showed mercy again to the land after these things.

15 War with the Philistines And the Philistines made war again against Israel, and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. And David grow-
16 ing faint, | Jesbibenob, who was of the race of Arapha, the iron of whose spear weighed three hundred ounces, being girded
17 with a new sword, attempted to kill David. | And Abisai the son of Sarvia rescued him, and striking the Philistine killed him. Then David's men swore unto him, saying: You shall go no more out with us to battle, lest you put out the lamp of Israel. |

18 There was also a second battle in Gob against the Philistines: then Sobochai of Husathi slew Saph of the race of Arapha of 19 the family of the giants. | And there was a third battle in Gob against the Philistines, in which Adeodatus the son of the For-

21, 10: Respha guarded the corpses of her sons from birds and beasts for the whole summer until David granted them a decent burial. The ancients considered an unburied corpse outrageous.

This verse is the most pathetic in all literature to paint a tragic mother's loss. Kipling's words are a pointed commentary here:

"If I were hanged on the highest hill,
Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!
I know whose love would follow me still, . . ."

21, 12-13: The anecdote of the proper burial of Saul and Jonathan is interwoven here with the seven crucified sons.

21, 15-21: The death of four Philistine giants.

21, 19: Goliath: see 1 Sm 17, 1-54 n.

rest an embroiderer of Bethlehem slew Goliath the Gethite, the 20 shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. | A fourth battle was in Geth: where there was a man of great stature, that had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, four and 21 twenty in all. And he was of the race of Arapha. | And he reproached Israel: and Jonathan the son of Samaa the brother of 22 David slew him. | These four were born of Arapha in Geth:
and they fell by the hand of David and of his servants.

22

1 David's Psalm of Thanksgiving And David spoke to the Lord the words of this canticle, in the day that the Lord delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he said: The Lord is my rock, and my strength, and my savior.

3 God is my strong one, in him will I trust: my shield, and the horn of my salvation. He lifts me up, and is my refuge: my savior, you will deliver me from iniquity.

4 I will call on the Lord who is worthy to be praised: and I shall be saved from my enemies.

5 For the pangs of death have surrounded me: the floods of Belial have made me afraid.

6 The cords of hell compassed me: the snares of death prevented me.

7 In my distress I will call upon the Lord, and I will cry to my God: and he will hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry shall come to his ears.

8 The earth shook and trembled, the foundations of the mountains were moved, and shaken: because he was angry with them.

9 A smoke went up from his nostrils, and a devouring fire out of his mouth: coals were kindled by it.

10 He bowed the heavens, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

11 And he rode upon the cherubim, and flew: and slid upon the wings of the wind.

12 He made darkness a covering round about him: dropping waters out of the clouds of the heavens.

13 By the brightness before him, the coals of fire were kindled.

14 The Lord shall thunder from heaven: and the most high shall give forth his voice.

15 He shot arrows and scattered them: lightning, and consumed them.

22, 1-51: See Ps 17 where it is repeated with slight variations.

16 And the overflowings of the sea appeared, and the foundations of the world were laid open at the rebuke of the Lord, at the blast of the spirit of his wrath.
17 He sent from on high, and took me, and drew me out of many waters.
18 He delivered me from my most mighty enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.
19 He prevented me in the day of my affliction, and the Lord became my stay.
20 And he brought me forth into a large place, he delivered me, because I pleased him.
21 The Lord will reward me according to my justice: and according to the cleanness of my hands he will render to me.
22 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
23 For all his judgments are in my sight: and his precepts I have not removed from me.
24 And I shall be perfect with him: and shall keep myself from my iniquity.
25 And the Lord will recompense me according to my justice: and according to the cleanness of my hands in the sight of his eyes.
26 With the holy one you will be holy: and with the valiant perfect.
27 With the elect you will be elect: and with the perverse you will be perverted.
28 And the poor people you will save: and with your eyes you will humble the haughty.
29 For you are my lamp, O Lord: and you, O Lord, will enlighten my darkness.
30 For in you I will run girded: in my God I will leap over the wall.
31 God, his way is immaculate, the word of the Lord is tried by fire: he is the shield of all that trust in him.
32 Who is God but the Lord: and who is strong but our God?
33 God who has girded me with strength, and made my way perfect.
34 Making my feet like the feet of harts, and setting me upon my high places.
35 He teaches my hands to war: and makes my arms like a bow of brass.
36 You have given me the shield of my salvation: and your mildness has multiplied me.
37 You shall enlarge my steps under me: and my ankles shall not fail.

38 I will pursue after my enemies, and crush them: and will not return again till I consume them.
39 I will consume them and break them in pieces, so that they shall not rise: they shall fall under my feet.
40 You have girded me with strength to battle: you have made them that resisted me to bow under me.
41 My enemies you have made to turn their back to me: them that hated me, and I shall destroy them.
42 They shall cry, and there shall be none to save: to the Lord, and he shall not hear them.
43 I shall beat them as small as the dust of the earth: I shall crush them and spread them abroad like the mire of the streets.
44 You will save me from the contradictions of my people: you will keep me to be the head of the Gentiles: the people which I know not, shall serve me, 45 The sons of the stranger will resist me, at the hearing of the ear they will obey me.
46 The strangers are melted away, and shall be straitened in their distresses.
47 The Lord lives, and my God is blessed: and the strong God of my salvation shall be exalted.
48 God who gives me revenge, and brings down people under me:
49 Who brings me forth from my enemies, and lifts me up from them that resist me: from the wicked man you shall deliver me.
50 Therefore will I give thanks to you, O Lord, among the Gentiles, and will sing to your name.
51 Giving great salvation to his king, and showing mercy to David his anointed, and to his seed for ever.

23

1 David's Last Words Now these are David's last words. David the son of Isai said: The man to whom it was appointed concerning the Christ of the God of Jacob, the excellent psalmist
2 of Israel, said: | The spirit of the Lord has spoken by me and
3 his word by my tongue. | The God of Israel said to me, the strong one of Israel spoke, the ruler of men, the just ruler in the 4 fear of God. | As the light of the morning, when the sun rises, shines in the morning without clouds, and as the grass springs

---

23, 1-7: Most likely this poorly preserved poem on God's promise to David's dynasty was not written by David but ascribed to him. The more authentic last words of David are in 3 Kgs 2, 5-9.

23, 1: The man . . . of Jacob: the man who was appointed the anointed (king) of the God of Jacob.

5 out of the earth by rain. | Neither is my house so great with God, that he should make with me an eternal covenant, firm in all things and assured. For he is all my salvation, and all my 6 will: neither is there aught thereof that springs not up. | But transgressors shall all of them be plucked up as thorns: which 7 are not taken away with hands. | And if a man will touch them, he must be armed with iron and with the staff of a lance: but they shall be set on fire and burned to nothing.

8 The Valiant Men of David These are the names of the valiant men of David. Jesbaham sitting in the chair was the wisest chief among the three: he was like the most tender little worm of the wood, who killed eight hundred men at one onset.
9 | After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three valiant men that were with David when they defied the Philistines, and they were there gathered together to battle.
10 | And when the men of Israel had gone away, he stood and smote the Philistines till his hand was weary, and grew stiff with the sword. And the Lord wrought a great victory that day: and the people that had fled away, returned to take spoils of 11 them that were slain. | And after him was Semma the son of Age of Arari. And the Philistines were gathered together in a troop: for there was a field full of lentils. And when the peo-12 ple had fled the face of the Philistines, | he stood in the midst of the field, and defended it, and defeated the Philistines:
and the Lord gave a great victory.
13 Moreover also before this the three who were princes among the thirty, went down and came to David in the harvest time into the cave of Odollam: and the camp of the Philistines 14 was in the valley of the giants. | And David was then in a hold: and there was a garrison of the Philistines then in Bethle-15 hem. | And David longed, and said: O that some man would get me a drink of the water out of the cistern, that is in Bethle-16 hem, by the gate. | And the three valiant men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the cistern of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and brought it to David: 17 but he would not drink, but offered it to the Lord, | saying: The Lord be merciful to me, that I may not do this: shall I drink the blood of these men that went, and the peril of their lives?
Therefore he would not drink. These things did these three mighty men.
18 Abisai also the brother of Joab, the son of Sarvia, was chief among three: and he lifted up his spear against three hundred 23, 5: Eternal covenant: a reference to 7, 13.

19 whom he slew, and he was renowned among the three, | and the noblest of three, and was their chief, but to the three first he 20 attained not. | And Banaias the son of Joiada a most valiant man, of great deeds, of Cabseel: he slew the two lions of Moab, and he went down, and slew a lion in the midst of a pit, in the 21 time of snow. | He also slew an Egyptian, a man worthy to be a sight, having a spear in his hand: but he went down to him with a rod, and forced the spear out of the hand of the Egyptian, 22 and slew him with his own spear. | These things did Banaias
23 the son of Joiada. | And he was renowned among the three valiant men, who were the most honorable among the thirty:
but he attained not to the first three, and David made him of his privy council.
24 Asael the brother of Joab was one of the thirty, Elehanan 25 the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, | Semma of Harodi, Elica of 26 Harodi, | Heles of Phalti, Hira the son of Acces of Thecua, |
27.28 Abiezer of Anathoth, Mobonnai of Husati, | Selmon the 29 Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, | Heled the son of Baana, also a Netophathite, Ithai the son of Ribai of Gabaath of the 30 children of Benjamin, | Banaia the Pharathonite, Heddai of 31 the torrent Gaas, | Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth of Ber-
32 omi, | Eliaba of Salaboni, the sons of Jassen, Jonathan, | 33.34 Semma of Ororí, Aliam the son of Sarar the Arorite, | Eliphe-let the son of Aasbai the son of Machati, Eliam the son of Achit-35.36 ophel the Gelonite, | Hesrai of Carmel, Pharai of Arbi, Igaal
37 the son of Nathan of Soba, Bonni of Gadi, | Selec of Ammoni, Naharai the Berothite, armorbearer of Joab the son of Sarvia, 38.39 | Ira the Jethrite, Gareb also a Jethrite, | Urias the Hethite:
thirty and seven in all.

24

1 David Numbers the People And the anger of the Lord was again kindled against Israel, and stirred up David among them, saying: Go, number Israel and Juda.
2 And the king said to Joab the general of his army: Go through all the tribes of Israel from Dan to Bersabee, and 3 number the people that I may know the number of them. | And Joab said to the king: The Lord your God increase your people, and make them as many more as they are now, and again multiply them a hundredfold in the sight of my lord the king. But 4 what does my lord the king mean by this kind of thing? | But 23, 23: Thirty: a round number here.

24, 1-3: David ordered a military census of his entire kingdom (v. 9). Moderns see nothing unusual about this. But Joab, reflecting the king's words prevailed over the words of Joab, and of the captains of the army: and Joab, and the captains of the soldiers went out from the presence of the king, to number the people

5 of Israel. | And when they had passed the Jordan, they came to Aroer to the right side of the city, which is in the vale of Gad.
6 | And by Jazer they passed into Galaad, and to the lower land of Hodsi: and they came into the woodlands of Dan. And going
7 about by Sidon, | they passed near the walls of Tyre, and all the land of the Hevite, and the Chanaanite: and they came to
8 the south of Juda into Bersabee. | And having gone through the whole land, after nine months and twenty days, they came
9 to Jerusalem. | And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people to the king, and there were found of Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword: and of Juda five hundred thousand fighting men.

10 But David's heart struck him, after the people were numbered. And David said to the Lord: I have sinned very much in what I have done; but I pray you, O Lord, to take away the iniquity of your servant, because I have done exceeding fool-
11 ishly. | And David arose in the morning, and the word of the Lord came to Gad the prophet and the seer of David, saying:
12 | Go, and say to David: Thus says the Lord: I give you your choice of three things. Choose one of them whichever you will,
13 that I may do it to you. | And when Gad came to David, he told him, saying: Either seven years of famine shall come to you in your land: or you shall flee three months before your adversaries, and they shall pursue you: or for three days there shall be a pestilence in your land. Now therefore deliberate, and see 14 what answer I shall return to him that sent me. And David said to Gad: I am in a great strait; but it is better that I should fall into the hands of the Lord (for his mercies are many) than into the hands of men.

---

the mentality of his day, objected (v. 3). A pagan king taking a census denoted his absolute power. But since God was the true ruler of the nation only He has absolute power. (Ex 30, 11-12, reflects a later mentality when the census was not interpreted as offensive to God, yet to avert the plague of past history, they made an offering.) Since everything is directly attributed to God, He is mentioned with the command of the census (v. 1) and with the punishment flowing from it (vv. 15ff). However, the chronicler more correctly interprets the idea of the census as coming from Satan not from God (1 Par 21, 1).

24, 5-7: These verses are valuable to show the extent of David's kingdom.

24, 9: Most likely the numbers are inflated.

24, 13: Famine, war, and pestilence are a popular trilogy to express misery in the Bible, which is echoed in modern liturgical litanies.

15 God Sends a Pestilence And the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel, from the morning unto the time appointed. And there died of the people from Dan to Bersabee seventy thou-16 sand men. | And when the angel of the Lord had stretched out his hand over Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord had pity on the affliction, and said to the angel that slew the people: It is enough. Now hold your hand. And the angel of the Lord was
17 by the thrashing-floor of Areuna the Jebusite. | And David said to the Lord, when he saw the angel striking the people: It is I; I am he that has sinned, I have done wickedly. These that are the sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I beseech you, be turned against me, and against my father's house.
18 And Gad came to David that day, and said: Go up, and build an altar to the Lord in the thrashingfloor of Areuna the 19 Jebusite. | And David went up according to the word of Gad 20 which the Lord had commanded him. | And Areuna looked,
21 and saw the king and his servants coming toward him. | And going out he worshiped the king, bowing with his face to the earth, and said: Wherefore has my lord the king come to his servant? And David said to him: To buy the thrashingfloor from you, and build an altar to the Lord, that the plague, which rages among the people may cease.

22 The Plague Is Stayed And Areuna said to David: Let my Lord the king take, and offer, as it seems good to him. You have here oxen for a holocaust, and the wain, and the yokes of the 23 oxen for wood. | All these things Areuna as a king gave to the king. And Areuna said to the king: The Lord your God receive
24 your vow. | And the king answered him, and said: Nay, but I will buy it from you at a price, and I will not offer to the Lord my God holocausts free cost. So David bought the floor, and 25 the oxen, for fifty sicles of silver. | And David built there an altar to the Lord, and offered holocausts and peace offerings. And the Lord became merciful to the land: and the plague was stayed from Israel.

24, 15-17: The angel of the Lord is used here as a personification of the pestilence, as in 4 Kgs 19, 35.

24, 18-25: It is universally agreed in archeological circles that Areuna's thrashingfloor is the general area where Solomon later built his temple in Jerusalem (1 Par 22, 1). The preferred of two opinions today states that David's altar was on the highest point of the huge Rock seen nowadays in the Mosque of Omar. But this rock was later to serve as the base for the altar of holocausts in front of Solomon's temple.

24, 24: David underscores the theology of making a vow to God, namely, we should give Him the very best.

THE THIRD BOOK OF KINGS

INTRODUCTION

The two books of Kings continue the narrative of 2 Samuel from the death of David to the long, glorious reign of Solomon whose death snapped Palestine into the divided monarchy of the northern ("Israel") and southern ("Juda") kingdoms. The northern kingdom encompassed ten loosely united tribes. In its two hundred years there were continual revolts against its nineteen kings till its fall in 722-21 B.C. The fall of Jerusalem in 587 B.C. closes the Fourth Book of Kings with the last Judean king entering his Babylonian exile.

The anonymous author composes his twin books (3, 4 Kgs) from three main sources: the book of acts of Solomon; the book of the chronicles of the kings of Juda; and the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. The most important minor source used by the author are the cycle stories of Elijah (Elias), 3 Kgs 17-4 Kgs 1, and Elisha (Eliseus), 4 Kgs 2-13. The Elias cycle may have been written about 875 B.C. and that of Eliseus about 825 B.C. The purpose of a stylized biography of Elias is not to diminish the historical facts embodied, but to make their essential meaning shine all the more brilliantly, i.e., that Yahweh is God, not Baal.

Eliseus' cycle is not as unified and not as literary as that of Elias. The former is more involved in the political life of the nation than is the latter. The "miracles" in the Eliseus cycle are not as intimately connected with the preaching of Yahweh as they are in the Elias cycle. Although the disciples of Eliseus narrated extraordinary feats of their master, similar to the Little Flowers of St. Francis of Assisi, yet the stories illustrate the sincere solicitude of Eliseus to help a person; indeed, even the insignificant loss of an ax head concerned him. The "miracles" of both prophets disclose the lasting impression made by these holy men on their times.

The framework unifying 3, 4 Kgs consists of stereotyped opening and closing formulas on the duration of the reigns. The reign of one king is synchronized with that of the king ruling contemporaneously in the other kingdom. An evaluation of the reign seals the account. See 3 Kgs 14, 21-22, as an example.

When the scholars test the accuracy of the synchronized periods of reign they reveal inconsistencies. Until new evidence appears, none of the numerous systems, devised to level off the inconsistencies, will prevail. The present measure of accuracy is this: the period of reign of some kings varies from ten to twenty years, but the variation is less in most cases. It is already an achievement that for the last 150 years of the kingdom of Juda the dates are accurate almost to the year.

A first edition of 3, 4 Kgs appeared before the exile; a final edition during the exile was by the Deuteronomic writer who continued to leave his imprint, begun in the Book of Josue. His theme here appears under this form: there is only one God, Yahweh, and He must be worshiped in only one place, the temple of Jerusalem. In conformity with religious writing, the author allots more space to kings faithful to Yahweh than to those successful in politics.

Main divisions of the two books of Kings are:

David's Death and Intrigues at Court, 3 Kgs 1—2 Solomon's Reign, 3 Kgs 3—10
Solomon's Idolatry, Death, and Schism of the Two Kingdoms, 3 Kgs 11—12
The Synchronistic History of Israel and Juda, 3 Kgs 13—4 Kgs 17
The History of Juda to Its Fall in 587 B.C., 4 Kgs 18—25

1

1 Adonias Usurps the Throne Now king David was old, and advanced in years: and when he was covered with clothes, 2 he was not warm. | His servants therefore said to him: Let us seek for our lord the king, a young virgin, and let her stand before the king, and cherish him, and sleep in his bosom, and 3 warm our lord the king. | So they sought a beautiful young woman in all the coasts of Israel, and they found Abisag a 4 Sunamitess, and brought her to the king. | And the damsel was exceeding beautiful; and she slept with the king, and served him: but the king did not know her.
5 And Adonias the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying: I will be king. And he made himself chariots and horsemen, and 6 fifty men to run before him. | Neither did his father rebuke him at any time, saying: Why have you done this? And he also was 7 very beautiful, the next in birth after Absalom. | And he conferred with Joab the son of Sarvia, and with Abiathar the priest, 8 who furthered Adonias' side. | But Sadoc the priest, and Banaias the son of Joiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Semei, and Rei, and the strength of David's army, was not with 9 Adonias. | And Adonias, having slain rams and calves and all fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which was near the fountain Rogel, invited all his brethren, the king's sons, and all the men 10 of Juda, the king's servants. | But Nathan the prophet, and Banaias, and all the valiant men, and Solomon his brother, he invited not.
11 And Nathan said to Bethsabee the mother of Solomon: Have you not heard that Adonias the son of Haggith reigns, and our 12 lord David knows it not? | Now then come, take my counsel
13 and save your life, and the life of your son Solomon. | Go, and

1, 5: Fifty men: his bodyguard.
1, 13: This is the first mention of David's promise to Bethsabee.

get in to king David, and say to him: Did not you, my lord O king, swear to me your handmaid, saying: Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? Why then 14 does Adonias reign? | And while you are yet speaking there with the king, I will come in after you, and will fill up your 15 words. | So Bethsabee went in to the king into the chamber. Now the king was very old, and Abisag the Sunamitess ministered
16 to him. | Bethsabee bowed herself, and worshiped the king.
17 And the king said to her: What is your will? | She answered and said: My lord, you did swear to your handmaid by the Lord your God, saying: Solomon your son shall reign after me, and 18 he shall sit on my throne. | And behold now Adonias reigns:
19 and you, my lord the king, know nothing of it. | He has killed oxen, and all fat cattle, and many rams, and invited all the king's sons, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the general of the 20 army: but Solomon your servant he invited not. | And now, my lord O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, that you should tell them, who shall sit on your throne, my lord the king,
21 after you. | Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

22 As she was yet speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet
23 came. | And they told the king, saying: Nathan the prophet is here. And when he had come in before the king, and had wor-
24 shiped, bowing down to the ground, | Nathan said: My lord O king, have you said: Let Adonias reign after me, and let him sit
25 upon my throne? | Because he has gone down today, and has killed oxen, and fatlings, and many rams, and invited all the king's sons, and the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and they are eating and drinking before him, and say-
26 ing: God save king Adonias. | But me your servant, and Sadoc the priest, and Banaias the son of Joiada, and Solomon
27 your servant he has not invited. | Has this word come out from my lord the king, and have you not told me your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 David Chooses Solomon And king David answered and said: Call to me Bethsabee. And when she came in to the king,
29 and stood before him, | the king swore and said: As the Lord
30 lives, who has delivered my soul out of all distress, | even as I swore to you by the Lord the God of Israel, saying: Solomon your son shall reign after me; and he shall sit upon my throne
31 in my stead, so will I do this day. | And Bethsabee bowing with her face to the earth worshiped the king, saying: May my lord David live for ever.

32 King David also said: Call me Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Banaias the son of Joiada. And when they 33 had come in before the king, | he said to them: Take with you the servants of your lord, and set my son Solomon upon my 34 mule, and bring him to Gihon. | And let Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel. And you shall sound the trumpet, and shall say: God save king 35 Solomon. | And you shall come up after him: and he shall come, and shall sit upon my throne. And he shall reign in my stead: and I will appoint him to be ruler over Israel, and over 36 Juda. | And Banaias the son of Joiada answered the king, saying: Amen. So say the Lord the God of my lord the king! | 37 As the Lord has been with my lord the king, so be he with Solomon, and make his throne higher than the throne of my lord 38 king David. | So Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet went down, and Banaias the son of Joiada, and the Cerethi, and Phelethi: and they set Solomon upon the mule of king David, and brought him to Gihon.

39 Solomon Is Anointed King And Sadoc the priest took a horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they sounded the trumpet; and all the people said: God save 40 king Solomon. | And all the multitude went up after him, and the people played with pipes, and rejoiced with a great joy: and the earth rang with the noise of their cry.
41 And Adonias, and all that were invited by him, heard it, and now the feast was at an end. Joab also hearing the sound of the trumpet, said: What means this noise of the city in an uproar?
42 | While he yet spoke, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonias said to him: Come in, because you are a 43 valiant man, and you bring good news. | And Jonathan answered Adonias: Not so: for our lord king David has appointed 44 Solomon king, | and has sent with him Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Banaias the son of Joiada, and the Cerethi, and Phelethi: and they have set him upon the king's 45 mule. | And Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they have gone up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise 46 that you have heard. | Moreover Solomon sits upon the throne
47 of the kingdom, | and the king's servants going in have blessed our lord king David, saying: May God make the name of Solomon greater than your name, and make his throne greater than 1, 38: Cerethi, and Phelethi: David's loyal bodyguard.

1, 39: Solomon was about twenty years old.

48 your throne. And the king adored in his bed, and he said:
Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel, who has given this day one to sit on my throne, my eyes seeing it.

49 Solomon Spares Adonias Then all the guests of Adonias were afraid: and they all arose and every man went his 50 way. | And Adonias fearing Solomon, arose, and went, and 51 took hold on the horn of the altar. | And they told Solomon, saying: Behold Adonias, fearing king Solomon, has taken hold of the horn of the altar, saying: Let king Solomon swear to me 52 this day, that he will not kill his servant with the sword. | And Solomon said: If he be a good man, there shall not so much as one hair of his head fall to the ground; but if evil be found in 53 him, he shall die. | Then king Solomon sent, and brought him out from the altar. And going in he worshiped king Solomon, and Solomon said to him: Go to your house.

2

1 David Instructs Solomon and Dies And the days of David drew nigh that he should die, and he charged his son 2 Solomon, saying: | I am going the way of all flesh. Take cour-
3 age, and show yourself a man. | And keep the charge of the Lord your God, to walk in his ways, and observe his ceremonies, and his precepts, and judgments, and testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses: that you may understand all that you do 4 at whatever turn you take, | that the Lord may confirm his words, which he has spoken of me, saying: If your children shall take heed to their ways, and shall walk before me in truth, with all their heart, and with all their soul, there shall not be taken away from you a man on the throne of Israel.
5 You also know what Joab the son of Sarvia has done to me, what he did to the two captains of the army of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether: whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on 6 his feet. | Do therefore according to your wisdom: and let not 7 his hoary head go down to hell in peace. | But show kindness to the sons of Berzellai the Galaadite, and let them eat at your table: for they met me when I fled from the face of Absalom

1, 50-53: The altar with four protuberances ("horns") afforded the right of asylum according to Ex 21, 13-14.

2, 4: A reference to Nathan's prophecy, 2 Sm 7, 11-16.

2, 6: Hell: the nether world. David might appear ungrateful here in ordering the execution of a devoted generalissimo. Although Joab irked David on several occasions, yet he was the power behind the throne

8 your brother. | You have also with you Semei the son of Gera, the son of Jemini of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse, when I went to the camp; but because he came down to meet me when I passed over the Jordan, I swore to him by 9 the Lord, saying: I will not kill you with a sword. | Do not hold him guiltless. But you are a wise man, and know what to do with him: and you shall bring down his gray hairs with blood to hell.
10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city 11 of David. | And the days that David reigned in Israel, were forty years. In Hebron he reigned seven years; in Jerusalem 12 thirty-three. | And Solomon sat upon the throne of his father David: and his kingdom was strengthened exceedingly.

13 Adonias' Request and Death And Adonias the son of Haggith came to Bethsabee the mother of Solomon. And she said to him: Is your coming peaceable? He answered: Peaceable.
14 | And he added: I have a word to speak with you. She said to 15 him: Speak. And he said: | You know that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had preferred me to be their king: but the kingdom has been transferred and become my brother's; for it 16 was appointed him by the Lord. | Now therefore I ask one 17 petition: turn me not away. And she said to him: Say on. | And he said: I pray you speak to king Solomon (for he cannot deny 18 you any thing) to give me Abisag the Sunamitess to wife. | And 19 Bethsabee said: Well, I will speak for you to the king. | Then Bethsabee came to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonias:
and the king arose to meet her, and bowed to her, and sat down upon his throne. And a throne was set for the king's mother:
20 and she sat on his right hand. | And she said to him: I desire one small petition of you; do not put me to confusion. And the

---

which David could hardly have kept firmly without Joab. David perhaps felt that a calamity might befall the nation if Joab were left unpunished for his murders (see vv. 31-33).

2, 8: For the ancients a curse was efficacious. Semei cursed David (2 Sm 16, 5ff.), but he forgave him (2 Sm 19, 23). Therefore, David himself could not kill Semei but he could pass on the charge to Solomon because the curse was thought to continue its efficacy upon the offspring (Solomon) of the person originally cursed, namely, David. The way to prevent the curse from attaining its fulfillment was to "return" it to the curser by killing him as in v. 44.

2, 11: The prophets after David considered him an ideal king. He was a soldier, statesman, psalm poet, and musician. In spite of his adultery and murder, he was a pious king for his day, and the biblical type of Christ Himself.

2, 19: Recent studies have shown the high prestige of the queen mother in ancient oriental courts and in Israel. Athalia is the best biblical example of a queen mother abusing her office (4 Kgs 11).

king said to her: My mother, ask; for I must not deny you. |
21 And she said: Let Abisag the Sunamitess be given to Adonias
22 your brother to wife. | And king Solomon answered, and said to his mother: Why do you ask Abisag the Sunamitess for Adonias? Ask for him also the kingdom: for he is my elder brother, and has Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Sarvia.
23 Then king Solomon swore by the Lord, saying: So and so may God do to me, and add more, if Adonias has not spoken this
24 word against his own life. | And now, as the Lord lives, who has established me, and placed me upon the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, Adonias
25 shall be put to death this day. | And king Solomon sent by the hand of Banaias the son of Joiada, who slew him: and he died. |
26 And the king said also to Abiathar the priest: Go to Anathoth to your lands, for indeed you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you did carry the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and you have endured 27 trouble in all the troubles my father endured. | So Solomon cast out Abiathar, from being the priest of the Lord, that the word of the Lord might be fulfilled, which he spoke concerning the house of Heli in Silo.

28 Joab Put to Death And the news came to Joab, because Joab had turned after Adonias, and had not turned after Solomon. And Joab fled into the tabernacle of the Lord and laid 29 hold on the horn of the altar. | And it was told king Solomon, that Joab had fled into the tabernacle of the Lord, and was by the altar. And Solomon sent Banaias the son of Joiada, saying: Go,
30 kill him. | And Banaias came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said to him: Thus says the king: Come forth. And he said: I will not come forth, but here I will die. Banaias brought word back to the king, saying: Thus says Joab, and thus he answered
31 me. | And the king said to him: Do as he has said: and kill him, and bury him. And you shall remove the innocent blood, which has been shed by Joab, from me, and from the house of 32 my father. | And the Lord shall return his blood upon his own head, because he murdered two men, just and better than himself; and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing it: Abner the son of Ner, general of the army of Israel, and
33 Amasa the son of Jether, general of the army of Juda. | And

2, 22f.: Since Abisag was a wife of David, and the royal successor inherits the harem automatically, Solomon correctly understood that Adonias was making a claim for the throne.
2, 27: A reference to 1 Sm 2, 30-36.

their blood shall return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever. But to David and his seed and his 34 house, and to his throne be peace for ever from the Lord. | So Banaias the son of Joiada went up, and setting upon him slew 35 him: and he was buried in his house in the desert. | And the king appointed Banaias the son of Joiada in his room over the army: and Sadoc the priest he put in the place of Abiathar.
36 The king also sent, and called for Semei, and said to him:
Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there; and go 37 not out from thence to any other place. | For on whatever day you shall go out and pass over the brook Cedron, know that you shall be put to death. Your blood shall be upon your own 38 head. | And Semei said to the king: The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. And Semei dwelt in Jerusalem, many days.

39 Semei's Death And it came to pass after three years, that the servants of Semei ran away to Achis the son of Maacha the king of Geth: and it was told Semei that his servants were gone 40 to Geth. | And Semei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Achis at Geth to seek his servants: and he brought them out of 41 Geth. | And it was told Solomon that Semei went from Jeru-42 salem to Geth, and had come back. | And sending he called for him, and said to him: Did I not protest to you by the Lord, and tell you before: On whatever day you shall go away to any other place, know you shall die? And you answered me:
43 The word that I have heard is good. | Why then have you not kept the oath of the Lord, and the commandment that I have 44 laid upon you? | And the king said to Semei: You know all the evil, of which your heart is conscious, which you did to David my father. The Lord has returned your wickedness upon 45 your own head. | And king Solomon shall be blessed: and the throne of David shall be established before the Lord for ever. | 46 So the king commanded Banaias the son of Joiada. And he went out and struck him: and he died.

3

1 Solomon Asks for Wisdom And the kingdom was estab-

2, 34: See 2, 6 n. Banaias did not violate the right of sanctuary which Joab claimed by holding on to the horns of the altar (v. 28), because Joab was guilty and therefore he could not claim this right according to Ex 21, 14.

2, 36-40: See 2, 8 n.

3, 1: Scholars still widely differ on the identity of the Pharao whose daughter married Solomon.

linked in the land of Solomon, and he made affinity with Pharao the king of Egypt: for he took his daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Jeru-2 salem round about. | But yet the people sacrificed in the high places: for there was no temple built to the name of the Lord until that day.
3 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the precepts of David his father. Only he sacrificed in the high places, and burned 4 incense. | He went therefore to Gabaon, to sacrifice there: for that was the great high place. A thousand victims for holocausts 5 did Solomon offer upon that altar in Gabaon. | And the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, saying: Ask what 6 you will that I should give you. | And Solomon said: You have shown great mercy to your servant David my father, even as he walked before you in truth, and justice, and an upright heart with you; and you kept your great mercy for him, and gave him 7 a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. | And now, O Lord God, you made your servant king instead of David my father.
And I am but a child, and know not how to go out and come in.
8 | And your servant is in the midst of the people which you have chosen, an immense people, which cannot be numbered nor 9 counted for multitude. | Give therefore to your servant an understanding heart, to judge your people, and discern between good and evil. For who shall be able to judge this people, your people which is so numerous?
10 And the word was pleasing to the Lord that Solomon had 11 asked such a thing. | And the Lord said to Solomon: Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, nor the lives of your enemies, but have asked for 12 yourself wisdom to discern judgment, | behold I have done for you according to your words, and have given you a wise and understanding heart; insomuch that there has been no one like 13 you before you, nor shall arise after you. | Yea and the things also which you did not ask, I have given you: to wit, riches and glory, so that no one has been like you among the kings in all 14 days heretofore. | And if you will walk in my ways, and keep my precepts, and my commandments, as your father walked, I 15 will lengthen your days. | And Solomon awakened, and per-

3. 3-9: This prayer is outstanding in the annals of ancient Near Eastern kings because of its unselfishness. See v. 11.

3. 7: I child: this is an expression of humble admission of inexperience. How to go out and come in: an expression meaning inexperience, as above.

3. 12: An accepted Semitic hyperbole.

ceived that it was a dream. And when he came to Jerusalem, he stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered holocausts, and sacrificed victims of peace offerings, and made a great feast for all his servants.

16 Solomon's Judgment Then there came two women that 17 were harlots, to the king, and stood before him: | and one of them said: I beseech you, my lord, I and this woman dwelt in one house, and I was delivered of a child with her in the cham-
18 ber. | And the third day, after that I was delivered, she also was delivered: and we were together, and no other person with us
19 in the house, only we two. | And this woman's child died in the 20 night: for in her sleep she overlaid him. And rising in the dead time of the night, she took my child from my side, while I your handmaid was asleep, and laid it in her bosom: and laid her
21 dead child in my bosom. | And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold it was dead: but considering him more diligently when it was clear day, I found that it was not
22 mine which I bore. | And the other woman answered: It is not so as you say, but your child is dead, and mine is alive. On the contrary she said: You lie, for my child lives, and your child is dead. And in this manner they strove before the king.
23 Then said the king: The one says: My child is alive, and your child is dead. And the other answers: Nay, but your child is 24 dead, and mine lives. | The king therefore said: Bring me a sword. And when they had brought a sword before the king: | 25 Divide, said he, the living child in two, and give half to the one,
26 and half to the other. | But the woman whose child was alive, said to the king (for her bowels were moved upon her child): I beseech you, my lord, give her the child alive, and do not kill it. But the other said: Let it be neither mine nor yours, but
27 divide it. | The king answered, and said: Give the living child to this woman, and let it not be killed; for she is the mother
28 thereof. | And all Israel heard the judgment which the king had judged: and they feared the king, seeing that the wisdom of God was in him to do judgment.

4

1 Solomon's Chief Officers And king Solomon reigned over

3, 16-28: There were about twenty-two similar stories in circulation. One is on the frescoes of Pompeii. The undisputed historical truth which this legend indicates is the people's belief in Solomon's reputation for prudence.

Even today any subject can approach some of the Arab chiefs for a case of justice.

2 all Israel: | And these were the princes which he had: Azarias
3 the son of Sadoc, the priest: | Elihoreph, and Ahia, the sons of 4 Sisa, scribes: Josaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder: | Banaias the son of Joiada, over the army: and Sadoc and Abiathar, 5 priests: | Azarias the son of Nathan, over them that were about the king: Zabud, the son of Nathan the priest, the king's friend:
6 | And Ahisar, governor of the house: and Adoniram the son of Abda, over the tribute.
7 And Solomon had twelve governors over all Israel, who provided victuals for the king and for his household: for every one 8 provided necessaries, each man his month in the year. | And 9 these are their names: Benhur, in mount Ephraim. | Bendecar, in Macces, and in Salebim, and in Bethsames, and in Elon, and 10 in Bethanan. | Benhesed, in Aruboth: his was Socho, and all
11 the land of Epher. | Benabinadab, to whom belonged all Nephath-Dor: he had Tapheth the daughter of Solomon to 12 wife. | Bana the son of Ahilud, who governed Thanac and Mageddo, and all Bethsan, which is by Sarthana beneath Jezrael, from Bethsan unto Abelmehula over against Jecmaan.
13 | Bengaber, in Ramoth Galaad: he had the towns of Jair the son of Manasses in Galaad: he was chief in all the country of Argob, which is in Basan, threescore great cities with walls, and 14 brazen bolts. | Abinadab the son of Addo was chief in Manaim.
15 | Achimaas in Nephtali: he also had Basemath the daughter of 16 Solomon to wife. | Baana the son of Husi, in Aser and in Baloth.
17.18 | Josaphat the son of Pharus, in Issachar. | Semei the son of 19 Ela, in Benjamin. | Gaber the son of Uri, in the land of Galaad, in the land of Sehon the king of the Amorrites and of Og the king of Basan: over all that were in that land.
20 Juda and Israel were innumerable, as the sand of the sea in 21 multitude: eating and drinking, and rejoicing. | And Solomon had under him all the kingdoms from the river to the land of the Philistines, even to the border of Egypt: and they brought him presents, and served him, all the days of his life.

22 The Power and Riches of Solomon And the provision of Solomon for each day was thirty measures of fine flour, and 23 threescore measures of meal; | ten fat oxen and twenty out of 4, 2-6: Some of the functions are not clear.

4, 7-19: Solomon divided the land into twelve administrative districts without scrupulous regard for the twelve tribal divisions which made for greater unity. See map: The Empire of David and Solomon, p. 572.
4, 21: The river: Euphrates. The limits of the kingdom are exaggerated. Solomon's kingdom was the same size as David's.

THE EMPIRE OF DAVID AND SOLOMON BOUNDARY
Cyprus
Hamath
Byblos
PHOENICIA
Sidon
MT. HERMON
Damascus
Great Sea
(Mediterranean)
Tyre
Dan
IX
VIII
VI
X
V
Ramoth-Galaad
IV
VII
III Sichem
I Rabbath
II
XI
XII
Jerusalem
PHILISTIA
JUDA
AMMON
DESERT ARABIAN
Bersabee
MOAB
N
EDOM
THE TWELVE ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICTS OF SOLOMON BOUNDARIES
Asiongaber
© Copyright 1964 by MAP Projects, Inc.

the pastures, and a hundred rams, besides venison of harts, roes, 24 and buffles, and fatted fowls. | For he had all the country which was beyond the river, from Thaphsa to Gazan, and all the kings of those countries; and he had peace on every side round about.
25 | And Juda and Israel dwelt without any fear, every one under his vine, and under his fig tree, from Dan to Bersabee, all the 26 days of Solomon. | And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of 27 chariot horses, and twelve thousand for the saddle. | And the foresaid governors of the king fed them: and they furnished the necessaries also for king Solomon's table, with great care in 28 their time. | They brought barley also and straw for the horses and beasts, to the place where the king was, according as it was appointed them.

29 And God gave to Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart as the sand that is on the 30 shore. | And the wisdom of Solomon surpassed the wisdom of 31 all the Orientals and of the Egyptians, | and he was wiser than all men: wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chal-col, and Dorda the son of Mahol. And he was renowned in all 32 nations round about. | Solomon also spoke three thousand 33 parables: and his poems were a thousand and five. | And he treated about trees from the cedar that is in Libanus, unto the hyssop, that comes out of the wall: and he discoursed of beasts, 34 and of fowls, and of creeping things, and of fishes. | And they came from all nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon and from all the kings of the earth who heard of his wisdom.

5

1 Hiram Agrees to Help Solomon And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon: for he heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father. For Hiram had 2 always been David's friend. | And Solomon sent to Hiram, 3 saying: | You know the will of David my father, and that he could not build a house to the name of the Lord his God, be-

4, 25: Vine . . . fig tree: a frequent biblical idyllic expression for happiness.

4, 26: Forty thousand: an exaggerated number probably from 10, 26. See 2 Par 9, 25, which mentions four thousand.

4, 29-34: Solomon was a patron of writers and of the arts.

5, 1-18: King Hiram agreed to supply his own Phoenician skilled laborers to supervise Solomon's Israelites who would fell the trees in Lebanon, transport them to the sea, and float them on rafts to Joppa (2 Par 2, 16). Solomon gave in return 220,000 bushels of wheat and 180,000 gallons of olive oil (v. 11).

cause of the wars that were round about him, until the Lor 4 put them under the soles of his feet. | But now the Lord m
God has given me rest round about: and there is no adversar
5 nor evil occurrence. | Wherefore I purpose to build a templ to the name of the Lord my God, as the Lord spoke to Davi my father, saying: Your son, whom I will set upon the thron 6 in your place, he shall build a house to my name. | Give order therefore that your servants cut me down cedar trees out o Libanus: and let my servants be with your servants. And I wil give you the hire of your servants whatsoever you will ask: fo you know how there is not among my people a man that ha skill to hew wood like to the Sidonians.
7 Now when Hiram had heard the words of Solomon, he re joiced exceedingly, and said: Blessed be the Lord God this da who has given to David a very wise son over this numerou 8 people. | And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying: I have heard a you have desired of me; and I will do all you desire concern 9 ing cedar trees and fir trees. | My servants shall bring them down from Libanus to the sea. And I will put them together i floats in the sea, and convey them to the place, which you sha signify to me; and will land them there. And you shall receiv them: and you shall allow me necessaries, to furnish food fo 10 my household. | So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees, and f
11 trees, according to all his desire. | And Solomon allowed Hira twenty thousand measures of wheat, for provision for his hous and twenty measures of the purest oil. Thus gave Solomon t 12 Hiram every year. | And the Lord gave wisdom to Solomo as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram an Solomon, and they two made a league together.

13 Solomon's Workmen and Laborers And king Solomo chose workmen out of all Israel: and the levy was of thirt 14 thousand men. | And he sent them to Libanus, ten thousan every month by turns, so that two months they were at hom 15 And Adoniram was over this levy. | And Solomon had seven thousand to carry burdens, and eight thousand to hew ston 16 in the mountain: | besides the overseers who were over ever work, in number three thousand: and three hundred that rule 17 over the people, and them that did the work. | And the kin commanded, that they should bring great stones, costly stone for the foundation of the temple, and should square them.
18 And the masons of Solomon, and the masons of Hiram hewe them: and the Giblians prepared timber and stones to buil the house.

6

1 The Building of Solomon's Temple And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of the reign of Solomon over Israel, in the month Zio (the same is the second month), he began to build a house to the Lord.
2 And the house, which king Solomon built to the Lord, was three-score cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and
3 thirty cubits in height. | And there was a porch before the temple of twenty cubits in length, according to the measure of the breadth of the temple: and it was ten cubits in breadth
4 before the face of the temple. | And he made in the temple
5 oblique windows.| And upon the wall of the temple he built floors round about, in the walls of the house round about the
6 temple and the oracle: and he made sides round about. | The floor that was underneath, was five cubits in breadth; and the middle floor was six cubits in breadth; and the third floor was seven cubits in breadth. And he put beams in the house round about on the outside, that they might not be fastened in the
7 walls of the temple. | And the house, when it was in building, was built of stones hewed and made ready: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house
8 when it was in building. | The door for the middle side was on the right hand of the house: and by winding stairs they went up to the middle room, and from the middle to the third. |
9 So he built the house, and finished it: and he covered the house 10 with roofs of cedar. | And he built a floor over all the house five cubits in height: and he covered the house with timber of cedar.
11.12 And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying: | This house, which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments, walking in them, I will fulfill my word to you which I spoke to
13 David your father. | And I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.
14.15 So Solomon built the house and finished it. | And he built the walls of the house on the inside, with boards of cedar,

6, 1: The scholars cannot reproduce an exact model of Solomon's temple. Since the text has been altered by editors, thinking of the second temple of later times, the Howland-Garber model now supersedes the traditional model of Conrad Schick in approximating the original temple.

The temple was a rectangular building divided into a porch, a nave (the "holy place"), and an inner shrine (the "Holy of Holies"). The very probable present-day opinion is that the temple faced East. One opinion holds that the Tyrians took this idea of the temple from the Syrians.

THE TEMPLE OF SOLOMON FRONT VIEW

the ENTRANCE to the Holy of Holies showing the throne-bearing cherubim guarding the Ark of the Covenant.

from the floor of the house to the top of the walls, and to the roofs; he covered it with boards of cedar on the inside: and he covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 The Holy of Holies And he built up twenty cubits with boards of cedar at the furthest part of the temple, from the floor to the top: and made the inner house of the oracle to be the 17 Holy of Holies. | And the temple itself before the doors of the 18 oracle was forty cubits long. | And all the house was covered within with cedar, having the turnings, and the joints thereof artfully wrought and carvings projecting out. All was covered with boards of cedar: and no stone could be seen in the wall at
19 all. | And he made the oracle in the midst of the house, in the inner part, to set there the ark of the covenant of the Lord. |
20 Now the oracle was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in height. And he covered and overlaid it with most pure gold. And the altar also he covered 21 with cedar. | And the house before the oracle he overlaid with most pure gold, and fastened on the plates with nails of gold.
22 | And there was nothing in the temple that was not covered with gold: the whole altar of the oracle he covered also with gold.

23 And he made in the oracle two cherubim of olive tree, of 24 ten cubits in height. One wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub was five cubits: that is, in all ten cubits, from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the 25 other wing. | The second cherub also was ten cubits. And the measure, and the work, was the same in both the cherubim: |
26 That is to say, one cherub was ten cubits high, and in like man-27 ner the other cherub. | And he set the cherubim in the midst of the inner temple: and the cherubim stretched forth their wings. And the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall: and the other wings in the
28 midst of the temple touched one another. | And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 And all the walls of the temple round about he carved with divers figures and carvings: and he made in them cherubim and palm trees, and divers representations, as it were, standing out, 30 and coming forth from the wall. | And the floor of the house he also overlaid with gold within and without.

31 And in the entrance of the oracle he made little doors of olive 32 tree, and posts of five corners: | And two doors of olive tree. And he carved upon them figures of cherubim, and figures of palm trees, and carvings very much projecting: and he overlaid them with gold. And he covered both the cherubim and the palm trees, and the other things with gold. | And he made in the entrance of the temple posts of olive tree four-square: | And two doors of fir tree, one of each side. And each door was double, and so opened with folding leaves. | And he carved cher-ubim, and palm trees, and carved work standing very much out: and he overlaid all with golden plates in square work by rule. | And he built the inner court with three rows of polished stones, and one row of beams of cedar.

In the fourth year was the house of the Lord founded in the month Zio. | And in the eleventh year in the month Bul (which is the eight month) the house was finished in all the works thereof, and in all the appurtenances thereof. And he was seven years in building it.

7

Solomon's Palaces And Solomon built his own house in thirteen years, and brought it to perfection. | He built also the house of the forest of Libanus. The length of it was a hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits, and the height thirty cubits: and four galleries between pillars of cedar: for he had cut cedar trees into pillars. | And he covered the whole vault with boards of cedar, and it was held up with five and forty pillars. And one row had fifteen pillars, | set one against another, | and looking one upon another, with equal space between the pillars, and over the pillars were square beams in all things equal. | And he made a porch of pillars of fifty cubits in length, and thirty cubits in breadth: and another porch before the greater porch; and pillars, and chapiters upon the pillars. | He made also the porch of the throne, wherein is the seat of judgment: and covered it with cedar wood from the floor to the top. And in the midst of the porch was a small house where he sat in judgment, of the like work. He made also a house for the daughter of Pharao (whom Solomon had taken to wife) of the same work as this porch.
All was built of costly stones, which were sawed by a certain rule and measure both within and without: from the foundation to the top of the walls, and without unto the great court. | And the foundations were of costly stones, great stones of ten cubits or eight cubits: | and above there were costly stones, of equal measure, hewed; and, in like manner, planks of cedar. |
And the greater court was made round with three rows of hewed stones, and one row of planks of cedar: moreover also in the 7, 2: The house of the forest of Libanus: the plan is not easy to follow in the original text.

inner court of the house of the Lord, and in the porch of the house.

13 The Pillars of Brass And king Solomon sent, and brought 14 Hiram from Tyre, | the son of a widow woman of the tribe of Nephtali, whose father was a Tyrian, an artificer in brass, and full of wisdom, and understanding, and skill to work all work in brass. And when he had come to king Solomon, he wrought all
15 his work. | And he cast two pillars in brass, each pillar was eighteen cubits high: and a line of twelve cubits compassed both
16 the pillars. | He made also two chapiters of molten brass, to be set upon the tops of the pillars (the height of one chapiter with five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits),
17 | and a kind of network, and chain work wreathed together with wonderful art. Both the chapiters of the pillars were cast: seven rows of nets were on one chapiter, and seven nets on the 18 other chapiter. | And he made the pillars, and two rows round about each network to cover the chapiters, that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and in like manner did he to the other
19 chapiter. | And the chapiters that were upon the top of the 20 pillars were of lily work in the porch, of four cubits. | And again other chapiters in the top of the pillars above, according to the measure of the pillar over against the network: and of pomegranates there were two hundred in rows round about the
21 other chapiter. | And he set up the two pillars in the porch of the temple. And when he had set up the pillar on the right hand, he called the name thereof Jachin: in like manner he set
22 up the second pillar, and called the name thereof Booz. | And upon the tops of the pillars he made lily work: so the work of the pillars was finished.

23 Ornaments and Vessels for the Temple He made also a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round all about; the height of it was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits com-
24 passed it round about. | And a graven work under the brim of it compassed it, for ten cubits going about the sea: there were
25 two rows cast of chamfered sculptures. | And it stood upon twelve oxen, of which three looked toward the north, and three toward the west, and three toward the south, and three toward the east: and the sea was above upon them, and their hinder
26 parts were all hidden within. | And the laver was a hand-

7, 15-22: Two pillars in brass: similar pillars standing in front of temples have been found in the ancient Near East.

7, 23: Molten sea: this bronze bowl could contain 16,000 gallons.

breadth thick: and the brim thereof was like the brim of a cup, or the leaf of a crisped lily: it contained two thousand bates.
27 And he made ten bases of brass, every base was four cubits in 28 length, and four cubits in breadth, and three cubits high. | And the work itself of the bases was intergraven: and there were
29 gravings between the joinings. | And between the little crowns and the ledges were lions, and oxen, and cherubim: and in the joinings likewise above: and under the lions and oxen, as it were
30 bands of brass hanging down. | And every base had four wheels, and axletrees of brass: and at the four sides were undersetters under the laver molten, looking one against another. |
31 The mouth also of the laver within was in the top of the chapiter. And that which appeared without was of one cubit all round, and together it was one cubit and a half; and in the corners of the pillars were divers engravings: and the spaces
32 between the pillars were square, not round. | And the four wheels, which were at the four corners of the base, were joined one to another under the base: the height of a wheel was a
33 cubit and a half. | And they were such wheels as are used to be made in a chariot: and their axletrees, and spokes, and strakes,
34 and naves, were all cast. | And the four undersetters that were at every corner of each base were of the base itself cast and
35 joined together. | And in the top of the base there was a round compass of half a cubit, so wrought that the laver might be set thereon, having its gravings and divers sculptures of itself.
36 He engraved also in those plates, which were of brass, and in the corners, cherubim, and lions, and palm trees, in likeness of a man standing, so that they seemed not to be engraven, but
37 added round about. | After this manner he made ten bases: of 38 one casting and measure, and the like graving. | He made also ten lavers of brass: one laver contained four bases, and was of four cubits: and upon every base, in all ten, he put as many 39 lavers. | And he set the ten bases, five on the right side of the temple, and five on the left: and the sea he put on the right side of the temple over against the east southward.
40 And Hiram made caldrons, and shovels, and basins, and finished all the work of king Solomon in the temple of the 41 Lord. | The two pillars and the two cords of the chapiters, upon the chapiters of the pillars: and the two networks, to cover the 42 two cords, that were upon the top of the pillars. | And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks: two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the cords of the 43 chapiters, which were upon the tops of the pillars. | And the 44 ten bases, and the ten lavers on the bases. | And one sea, and 45 twelve oxen under the sea. | And the caldrons, and the shovels, and the basins. All the vessels that Hiram made for king Solo-46 mon for the house of the Lord were of fine brass. | In the plains of the Jordan did the king cast them, in a clay ground, between 47 Socoth and Sartham. | And Solomon placed all the vessels: but for exceeding great multitude the brass could not be weighed.

48 And Solomon made all the vessels for the house of the Lord:
the altar of gold: and the table of gold, upon which the loaves 49 of proposition should be set: | and the golden candlesticks, five on the right hand, and five on the left, over against the oracle, of pure gold: and the flowers like lilies: and the lamps over 50 them of gold: and golden snuffers. | And pots, and fleshbooks, and bowls, and mortars, and censers, of most pure gold. And the hinges for the doors of the inner house of the Holy of Holies, and for the doors of the house of the temple were of 51 gold. | And Solomon finished all the work that he made in the house of the Lord: and brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, the silver and the gold, and the vessels;
and laid them up in the treasures of the house of the Lord.

8

1 The Ark Brought into the Temple Then all the ancients of Israel with the princes of the tribes, and the heads of the families of the children of Israel were assembled to king Solomon in Jerusalem: that they might carry the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the city of David, that is, out of 2 Sion. | And all Israel assembled themselves to king Solomon on the festival day in the month of Ethanim: the same is the 3 seventh month. | And all the ancients of Israel came: and the 4 priests took up the ark, | and carried the ark of the Lord, and the tabernacle of the covenant, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, that were in the tabernacle: and the priests and the 5 Levites carried them. | And king Solomon, and all the multitude of Israel, that were assembled unto him went with him before the ark, and they sacrificed sheep and oxen that could 6 not be counted or numbered. | And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord into its place, into the oracle of the temple into the Holy of Holies under the wings of the 7 cherubim. | For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and covered the ark, and the staves thereof 8 above, | and whereas the staves stood out, the ends of them were seen without in the sanctuary before the oracle, but were 7, 46: At Ezion-Geber on the Gulf of Aqaba, Nelson Glueck excavated a huge copper smelter, dating back to Solomon's time. Scholars believe it casts some light on the enigmatic site mentioned in this verse.

not seen farther out: and there they have been unto this day. | 9 Now in the ark there was nothing else but the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 The Dedication of the Temple And it came to pass, when the priests were coming out of the sanctuary, that a cloud 11 filled the house of the Lord, | and the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had 12 filled the house of the Lord. | Then Solomon said: The Lord
13 said that he would dwell in a cloud. | Building I have built a house for your dwelling, to be your most firm throne for ever. | 14 And the king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of 15 Israel: for all the assembly of Israel stood. | And Solomon said: Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and with his own hands has ac-16 complished it, saying: | Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel, for a house to be built, that my name might be there; but I 17 chose David to be over my people Israel. | And David my father would have built a house to the name of the Lord the 18 God of Israel. | And the Lord said to David my father: Whereas you have thought in your heart to build a house to my name, you have done well in having this same thing in your mind. | 19 Nevertheless you shall not build me a house: but your son, that shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build a house to my 20 name. | The Lord has performed his word which he spoke. And I stand in the room of David my father: and sit upon the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised: and have built a house to the 21 name of the Lord, the God of Israel. | And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with our fathers when they came out of the land of Egypt.

22 Solomon's Prayer And Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the sight of the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven.
23 And he said: Lord God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above, or on earth beneath: who keeps covenant and 8, 10-11: For the cloud as a sign of God's presence see Ex 13, 21-22 n.

8, 14-61: This beautiful prayer or "inaugural address" has been somewhat developed centuries after Solomon's time.

8, 17ff.: Name: a circumlocution for Yahweh.

mercy with your servants that have walked before you with all their heart.

24 Who has kept with your servant David my father what you have promised him. With your mouth you did speak, and with your hands you have performed, as this day proves.

25 Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father what you have spoken to him: saying: There shall not be taken away of you a man in my sight, to sit on the throne of Israel; yet so that your children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as you have walked in my sight.

26 And now, Lord God of Israel, let your words be established, which you have spoken to your servant David my father.

27 Is it then to be thought that God should indeed dwell upon earth? For if heaven, and the heavens of heavens cannot contain you, how much less this house which I have built?

28 But have regard to the prayer of your servant, and to his supplications, O Lord my God. Hear the hymn and the prayer, which your servant prays before you this day:

29 That your eyes may be open upon this house night and day; upon the house of which you have said: My name shall be there. That you may hearken to the prayer, which your servant prays in this place to you.

30 That you may hearken to the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel, whatsoever they shall pray for in this place: and hear them in the place of your dwelling in heaven: and when you hear, show them mercy.

31 If any man trespass against his neighbor, and have an oath upon him, wherewith he is bound, and come because of the oath before your altar to your house:

32 Then hear you in heaven: and do, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, and bringing his way upon his own head; and justifying the just, and rewarding him according to his justice.

33 If your people Israel shall fly before their enemies (because they will sin against you), and doing penance, and confessing to your name, shall come, and pray, and make supplications to you in this house:

34 Then hear you in heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which you gave to their fathers.

35 If heaven shall be shut up, and there shall be no rain, because of their sins, and they, praying in this place, shall do penance to your name, and shall be converted from their sins, by occasion of their afflictions:

36 Then hear you them in heaven, and forgive the sins of your servants, and of your people Israel; and show them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon your land, which you have given to your people in possession.

37 If a famine arise in the land, or a pestilence, or corrupt air, or blasting, or locust, or mildew, if their enemy afflict them besieging the gates, whatsoever plague, whatsoever infirmity,

38 Whatsoever curse or imprecation shall happen to any man of your people Israel: when a man shall know the wound of his own heart, and shall spread forth his hands in this house:

39 Then hear you in heaven, in the place of your dwelling, and forgive, and do so as to give to every one according to his ways, as you shall see his heart (for you only know the heart of all the children of men).

40 That they may fear you all the days that they live upon the face of the land, which you have given to our fathers.

41 Prayer for the Stranger Moreover also the stranger, who is not of your people Israel, when he shall come out of a far country for your name's sake, (for they shall hear every where of your great name and your mighty hand, 42 And your stretched out arm,) so when he shall come, and shall pray in this place:

43 Then hear you in heaven, in the firmament of your dwelling place, and do all those things, for which that stranger shall call upon you. That all the people of the earth may learn to fear your name, as do your people Israel, and may prove that your name is called upon this house, which I have built.

44 Prayer for the People of Israel If your people go out to war against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, they shall pray to you toward the way of the city, which you have chosen, and toward the house, which I have built to your name.

45 And then hear you in heaven their prayers, and their supplications: and do judgment for them.

46 But if they sin against you (for there is no man who sins not) and you being angry deliver them up to their enemies, so that they be led away captives into the land of their enemies far or near:

47 Then if they do penance in their heart in the place of captivity, and being converted make supplication to you in their captivity,

---

8, 38: The sense is: If a man feels he has sinned and prays by stretching his hands toward this temple, . . .

saying: We have sinned, we have done unjustly, we have committed wickedness:

48 And return to you with all their heart, and all their soul, in the land of their enemies, to which they had been led captives: and pray to you toward the way of their land, which you gave to their fathers, and of the city which you have chosen, and of the temple which I have built to your name:

49 Then hear you in heaven, in the firmament of your throne, their prayers, and their supplications, and do judgment for them.

50 And forgive your people, that have sinned against you, and all their iniquities by which they have transgressed against you. And give them mercy before them that have made them captives, that they may have compassion on them.

51 For they are your people, and your inheritance, whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron.

52 That your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant, and of your people Israel, to hear them in all things for which they shall call upon you.

53 For you have separated them to yourself for an inheritance from among all the people of the earth, as you have spoken through Moses your servant, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 Solomon Blesses the People And it came to pass, when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication to the Lord, that he rose from before the altar of the Lord: for he had fixed both knees on the ground, and had spread 55 his hands toward heaven. | And he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying:

56 Blessed be the Lord, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. There has not failed so much as one word of all the good things that he promised through his 57 servant Moses. | The Lord our God be with us, as he was with 58 our fathers, and not leave us, nor cast us off. | But may he incline our hearts to himself, that we may walk in all his ways, and keep his commandments, and his ceremonies, and all his
59 judgments which he commanded our fathers. | And let these my words, wherewith I have prayed before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night: that he may do judgment
60 for his servant, and for his people Israel day by day: | that all the people of the earth may know, that the Lord he is God, and 61 there is no other besides him. | Let our hearts also be perfect with the Lord our God, that we may walk in his statutes, and keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 The Feast of Dedication And the king, and all Israel
63 with him, offered victims before the Lord. | And Solomon slew victims of peace offerings, which he sacrificed to the Lord, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king, and the children of Israel dedicated the
64 temple of the Lord. | In that day the king sanctified the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord. For there he offered the holocaust and sacrifice and fat of the peace offerings: because the brazen altar that was before the Lord was too little to receive the holocaust and sacrifice and fat of
65 the peace offerings. | And Solomon made at the same time a solemn feast, and all Israel with him: a great multitude, from the entrance of Emath to the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven days and seven days, that is, fourteen days.
66 And on the eighth day he sent away the people. And they blessed the king, and went to their dwellings rejoicing and glad in heart for all the good things that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

9

1 The Lord Appears to Solomon And it came to pass when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all that he desired, and was
2 pleased to do, | that the Lord appeared to him the second time,
3 as he had appeared to him in Gabaon. | And the Lord said to him: I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before me. I have sanctified this house, which you have built, to put my name there for ever: and my eyes
4 and my heart shall be there always. | And if you will walk before me, as your father walked, in simplicity of heart, and in uprightness: and will do all that I have commanded
5 you: and will keep my ordinances and my judgments, | I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel for ever, as I promised David your father, saying: There shall not fail a man
6 of your race upon the throne of Israel. | But if you and your children revolting shall turn away from following me, and will not keep my commandments, and my ceremonies, which I have set before you, but will go and worship strange gods, and adore

8, 63: The true numbers resemble more those expressed in a celebration like that in 2 Par 29, 32f.
9, 2: A reference to 3, 5ff.
9, 5: A reference to Nathan's prophecy in 2 Sm 7, 16.

7 them: | I will take away Israel from the face of the land which I have given them; and the temple which I have sanctified to my name, I will cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a prov-8 erb, and a byword among all people. | And this house shall be made an example of: every one that shall pass by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss, and say: Why has the Lord done 9 thus to this land, and to this house? | And they shall answer:
Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and followed strange gods, and adored them, and worshiped them: therefore has the Lord brought upon them all this evil.
10 And when twenty years were ended after Solomon had built the two houses, that is, the house of the Lord, and the house of 11 the king, | (Hiram the king of Tyre furnishing Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees and gold, according to all he had need of), then Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of 12 Galilee. | And Hiram came out of Tyre to see the towns which 13 Solomon had given him, and they pleased him not. | And he said: Are these the cities which you have given me, brother?
14 And he called them the land of Chabul, unto this day. | And Hiram sent to king Solomon a hundred and twenty talents of gold.
15 This is the sum of the expenses, which king Solomon offered to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, and Mello, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Heser, and Mageddo, and Gazer.
16 | Pharao the king of Egypt came up and took Gazer, and burned it with fire: and slew the Chanaanite that dwelt in the city: and gave it for a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 Cities Built by Solomon So Solomon built Gazer, and 18 Bethhoron the nether, | and Baalath, and Palmira in the land
19 of the wilderness. | And all the towns that belonged to himself and were not walled, he fortified: the cities also of the chariots, and the cities of the horsemen, and whatsoever he had a mind to build in Jerusalem, and in Libanus, and in all the land of his 20 dominion. | All the people that were left of the Amorrites, and Hethites, and Pherezites, and Hevites, and Jebusites, that are 21 not of the children of Israel: their children, that were left in 9, 19: The cities also of the chariots: archeologists hold it very probable that they have found royal stables for about three hundred horses at the city of Megiddo ("Mageddo") as one example of a chariot city. See 10, 26. However, the stables themselves were more probably built after Solomon's time. The charioteers formed the hard core of a standing army, an innovation in Israel. There were three horses to one chariot.

the land, to wit, such as the children of Israel had not been able 22 to destroy, Solomon made tributary unto this day. | But of the children of Israel Solomon made not any to be bondmen, but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and
23 captains, and overseers of the chariots and horses. | And there were five hundred and fifty chief officers set over all the works of Solomon: and they had people under them, and had charge
24 over the appointed works. | And the daughter of Pharao came up out of the city of David to her house, which Solomon had built for her. Then did he build Mello.
25 Solomon also offered three times every year holocausts, and victims of peace offerings upon the altar which he had built to the Lord: and he burned incense before the Lord: and the temple was finished.
26 And king Solomon made a fleet in Asiongaber, which is by 27 Ailath, on the shore of the Red Sea in the land of Edom. | And Hiram sent his servants in the fleet, sailors that had knowledge 28 of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. | And they came to Ophir: and they brought from thence to king Solomon four hundred and twenty talents of gold.

10

1 The Queen of Saba Visits Solomon And the queen of Saba, having heard of the fame of Solomon in the name of the
2 Lord, came to try him with hard questions. | And entering into Jerusalem with a great train, and riches, and camels that carried spices, and an immense quantity of gold, and precious stones, she came to king Solomon, and spoke to him all that she
3 had in her heart. | And Solomon informed her of all the things she proposed to him. There was not any word the king was
4 ignorant of, and which he could not answer her. | And when the queen of Saba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, and the 9, 24: Mello: one of several equally probable opinions on the meaning of this word, used at least six times, is the "fill" upon which Solomon's temple and palaces were built.

9, 26: Asiongaber . . . Ailath: see Ezion-Geber and Aqaba in 7, 46 n.

9, 28: Ophir: most probably it is on the western coast of Arabia opposite Somaliland.

10, 1-13: Sheba was a petty kingdom in southern Arabia. Arabia then had several kingdoms ruled by queens. The Queen of Sheba came to make a trade agreement. "Give" is characteristically oriental for "exchange." (Much of Handel's oratorio, Solomon, dwells on the Queen.) Jesus mentions this visit in Mt 12, 42. The paintings of the Queen of Sheba, adoring at Jerusalem the wood of the future cross of Christ, arise probably from a confusion with the sibyl.

5 house which he had built, | and the meat of his table, and the apartments of his servants, and the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and the cupbearers, and the holocausts, which he offered in the house of the Lord: she had no longer any spirit in
6 her. | And she said to the king: The report is true, which I
7 heard in my own country, | concerning your words, and concerning your wisdom. And I did not believe them that told me, till I came myself and saw with my own eyes, and have found that the half has not been told me. Your wisdom and your
8 works exceed the fame which I heard. | Blessed are your men, and blessed are your servants, who stand before you always,
9 and hear your wisdom. | Blessed be the Lord your God, whom you have pleased, and who has set you upon the throne of Israel: because the Lord has loved Israel for ever, and has appointed you king, to do judgment and justice.

10 And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices a very great store, and precious stones. There was brought no more such abundance of spices as these which the 11 queen of Saba gave to king Solomon. | (The navy also of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir
12 great plenty of thyine trees and precious stones. | And the king made of the thyine trees the rails of the house of the Lord and of the king's house, and citterns and harps for singers: there were no such thyine trees as these brought, nor seen unto this 13 day.) | And king Solomon gave the queen of Saba all that she desired, and asked of him: besides what he offered her of himself of his royal bounty. And she returned, and went to her own country with her servants.

14 And the weight of the gold that was brought to Solomon every 15 year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold: | besides that which the men brought him that were over the tributes, and the merchants, and they that sold by retail, and all the
16 kings of Arabia, and the governors of the country. | And Solomon made two hundred shields of the purest gold: he allowed
17 six hundred sicles of gold for the plates of one shield. | And three hundred targets of fine gold: three hundred pounds of gold covered one target: and the king put them in the house
18 of the forest of Libanus. | King Solomon also made a great
19 throne of ivory: and overlaid it with the finest gold. | It had six steps: and the top of the throne was round behind. And there were two hands on either side holding the seat: and two lions
20 stood, one at each hand. | And twelve little lions stood upon

10, 5: The eye for details is according to typical feminine psychology.
10, 9: According to oriental etiquette, one praises the god of the host. See Melchisedec, Gn 14, 18-24 n.

the six steps on the one side and on the other: there was no 21 such work made in any kingdom. | Moreover all the vessels out of which king Solomon drank, were of gold: and all the furniture of the house of the forest of Libanus was of most pure gold: there was no silver, nor was any account made of it in 22 the days of Solomon: | for the king's navy, once in three years, went with the navy of Hiram by sea to Tharsis, and brought from thence gold, and silver, and elephants' teeth, and apes, and peacocks.

23 Solomon's Riches and Wisdom And king Solomon ex-24 ceeded all the kings of the earth in riches, and wisdom. | And all the earth desired to see Solomon's face, to hear his wisdom, 25 which God had given in his heart. | And every one brought him presents, vessels of silver and of gold, garments and armor, 26 and spices, and horses and mules every year. | And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.
And he bestowed them in fenced cities, and with the king in 27 Jerusalem. | And he made silver to be as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones: and cedars to be as common as sycamores which grow 28 in the plains. | And horses were brought for Solomon out of Egypt, and Coa: for the king's merchants brought them out of 29 Coa, and bought them at a set price. | And a chariot of four horses came out of Egypt, for six hundred sicles of silver, and a horse, for a hundred and fifty. And after this manner did all the kings of the Hethites and of Syria sell horses.

11

1 Solomon Falls into Idolatry And king Solomon loved many strange women besides the daughter of Pharao, and women of Moab, and of Ammon, and of Edom, and of Sidon, 2 and of the Hethites: | of the nations concerning which the Lord said to the children of Israel: You shall not go in unto them, neither shall any of them come in to yours; for they will most certainly turn away your heart to follow their gods. And 10, 22: Tharsis: there were several places in the Mediterranean basin which the Phoenicians called Tharsis.

10, 28-29: Solomon bought horses from Cilicia ("Coa"), and traded them with Egypt for the manufacture of chariots which he would sell at a great profit to the Hittites in Syria.

11, 1-8: One measure of the wealth of an oriental potentate was the population of his harem. Wives from foreign countries solidified political alliances. V. 3 exaggerates, but Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia has had 250 wives.

3 to these was Solomon joined with a most ardent love. | And he had seven hundred wives as queens, and three hundred concu-
4 bines: and the women turned away his heart. | And when he was now old, his heart was turned away by women to follow strange gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his
5 God, as was the heart of David his father. | But Solomon worshiped Astarthe, the goddess of the Sidonians, and Moloch, the
6 idol of the Ammonites. | And Solomon did that which was not pleasing before the Lord: and did not fully follow the Lord, as
7 David his father. | Then Solomon built a temple for Chamos, the idol of Moab, on the hill that is over against Jerusalem, and
8 for Moloch, the idol of the children of Ammon. | And he did in this manner for all his wives that were strangers, who burned incense, and offered sacrifice to their gods.

9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because his mind was turned away from the Lord the God of Israel, who had appeared 10 to him twice, | and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not follow strange gods. But he kept not the
11 things which the Lord commanded him. | The Lord therefore said to Solomon: Because you have done this, and have not kept my covenant, and my precepts, which I have commanded you, I will divide and rend your kingdom, and will give it to your
12 servant. | Nevertheless in your days I will not do it, for David your father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of your
13 son. | Neither will I take away the whole kingdom: but I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of David my servant, and Jerusalem which I have chosen.

14 Solomon's Adversaries And the Lord raised up an adversary to Solomon, Adad the Edomite of the king's seed, in 15 Edom, | for when David was in Edom, and Joab the general of the army was gone up to bury them that were slain, and had 16 killed every male in Edom | (for Joab remained there six months with all Israel, till he had slain every male in Edom,) |
17 then Adad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt: and Adad was then a little boy. |
18 And they arose out of Madian, and came into Pharan, and they took men with them from Pharan, and went into Egypt to Pharao the king of Egypt: who gave him a house, and appointed 19 him victuals, and assigned him land. | And Adad found great favor before Pharao, insomuch that he gave him to wife the 20 own sister of his wife Taphnes the queen. | And the sister of Taphnes bore him his son Genubath, and Taphnes brought him up in the house of Pharao: and Genubath dwelt with Pharao among his children.

11, 14-40: Revolts by Adad of Edom, Razon of Syria and by Jeroboam.

21 And when Adad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the general of the army was dead, he said to Pharao: Let me depart, that I may go to my own 22 country. | And Pharao said to him: Why, what is wanting to you with me, that you seek to go to your own country? But he
23 answered: Nothing: yet I beseech you to let me go. | God also raised up against him an adversary, Razon the son of Eliada,
24 who had fled from his master Adarezer the king of Soba. | And he gathered men against him, and he became a captain of robbers, when David slew them of Soba: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and they made him king in Damascus.
25 | And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon: and this is the evil of Adad, and his hatred against Israel, and he reigned in Syria.

26 Jeroboam also the son of Nabat, an Ephrathite of Sareda, a servant of Solomon, whose mother was named Sarua, a widow
27 woman, lifted up his hand against the king. | And this is the cause of his rebellion against him, for Solomon built Mello, and
28 filled up the breach of the city of David his father. | And Jeroboam was a valiant and mighty man: and Solomon seeing him a young man ingenious and industrious, made him chief over
29 the tributes of all the house of Joseph. | So it came to pass at that time, that Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, and the prophet Ahĭas the Silonite, clad with a new garment, found him in the 30 way: and they two were alone in the field. | And Ahias taking his new garment, wherewith he was clad, divided it into twelve parts.

31 Ten Tribes Promised to Jeroboam And he said to Jeroboam: Take to yourself ten pieces. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Behold I will rend the kingdom out of the hand
32 of Solomon, and will give you ten tribes. | But one tribe shall remain to him for the sake of my servant David, and Jerusalem the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel: |
33 because he has forsaken me, and has adored Astarthe the goddess of the Sidonians, and Chamos the god of Moab, and Moloch the god of the children of Ammon: and has not walked in my ways, to do justice before me, and to keep my precepts, and
34 judgments as did David his father. | Yet I will not take away all the kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake, whom I chose,
35 who kept my commandments and my precepts. | But I will take away the kingdom out of his son's hand and will give you ten

36 tribes. | And to his son I will give one tribe, so that there may remain a lamp for my servant David before me always in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen, that my name might 37 be there. | And I will take you, and you shall reign over all that 38 your soul desires, and you shall be king over Israel. | If then you will hearken to all that I shall command you, and will walk in my ways, and do what is right before me, keeping my commandments and my precepts, as David my servant did: I will be with you, and will build you up a faithful house, as I built a 39 house for David, and I will deliver Israel to you. | And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but yet not for ever.

40 Death and Burial of Solomon Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam: but he arose, and fled into Egypt to Sesac the king of Egypt, and was in Egypt till the death of Solomon. | 41 And the rest of the words of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom: behold they are all written in the book of the words 42 of the days of Solomon. | And the days that Solomon reigned
43 in Jerusalem over all Israel, were forty years. | And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father. And Roboam his son reigned in his stead.

12

1 The Division of Israel and Juda And Roboam went to Sichem: for there all Israel had come together to make him 2 king. | But Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who was yet in Egypt, a fugitive from the face of king Solomon, hearing of his death, 3 returned out of Egypt. | And they sent and called him, and Jeroboam came, and all the multitude of Israel; and they spoke 4 to Roboam, saying: | Your father laid a grievous yoke upon us.
Now therefore do you take off a little of the grievous service of your father, and of his most heavy yoke, which he put upon us, 5 and we will serve you. | And he said to them: Go till the third day, and come to me again. And when the people were gone, | 6 king Roboam took counsel with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and he said: What 7 counsel do you give me, that I may answer this people? | They said to him: If you will yield to this people today, and con-descend to them, and grant their petition, and speak gentle 8 words to them, they will be your servants always. | But he left

11, 43: The contemporaries of Solomon rebelled against his taxes, forced labor, and scores of administrators, even though he brought the nation to its highest point of wealth and international respect. The later generations, looking back at his prosperity, idealized him. Solomon's reign is often compared with that of France's Louis XIV.

the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men, that had been brought up with 9 him, and stood before him. | And he said to them: What counsel do you give me, that I may answer this people, who have said to me: Make the yoke which your father put upon us lighter? |
10 And the young men that had been brought up with him, said: Thus shall you speak to this people, who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, do you ease it for us. You shall say to them: My little finger is thicker than the back
11 of my father. | And now my father put a heavy yoke upon you, but I will add to your yoke; my father beat you with whips: but I will beat you with scorpions.
12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Roboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying: Come to me again the 13 third day. | And the king answered the people roughly, leaving
14 the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, | and he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying: My father made your yoke heavy; but I will add to your yoke; my father beat you with whips; but I will beat you with
15 scorpions. | And the king condescended not to the people: for the Lord had turned away from him, to make good his word, which he had spoken in the hand of Ahias the Silonite, to Jeroboam the
16 son of Nabat. | Then the people seeing that the king would not hearken to them, answered him, saying: What portion have we in David? Or what inheritance in the son of Isai? Go home to your dwelling, O Israel. Now, David, look to your own house.
17 So Israel departed to their dwellings. | But as for all the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Juda, Roboam reigned over them.
18 Then king Roboam sent Aduram, who was over the tribute: and all Israel stoned him, and he died. Wherefore king Roboam made haste to get him up into his chariot, and he fled to Jeru-
19 salem. | And Israel revolted from the house of David, unto
20 this day. | And it came to pass when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come again, that they gathered an assembly, and sent and called him, and made him king over all Israel. And there was none that followed the house of David but the tribe
21 of Juda only. | And Roboam came to Jerusalem, and gathered together all the house of Juda, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred fourscore thousand chosen men for war, to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdom again under
22 Roboam the son of Solomon. | But the word of the Lord came
23 to Semeias, the man of God, saying: | Speak to Roboam the son of Solomon, the king of Juda, and to all the house of Juda,
24 and Benjamin, and the rest of the people, saying: | Thus says the Lord: You shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: let every man return to his house, for this thing is from me. They hearkened to the word of the Lord, and returned from their journey, as the Lord had commanded them.

25 Jeroboam's Reign in Israel And Jeroboam built Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt there: and going out from thence 26 he built Phanuel. | And Jeroboam said in his heart: Now shall 27 the kingdom return to the house of David, | if this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem: and the heart of this people will turn to their lord Roboam the king of 28 Juda, and they will kill me, and return to him. | And finding out a device he made two golden calves, and said to them: Go up no more to Jerusalem: Behold your gods, O Israel, who
29 brought you out of the land of Egypt. | And he set the one in 30 Bethel, and the other in Dan. | And this thing became an occasion of sin, for the people went to adore the calf as far as Dan.
31 | And he made temples in the high places, and priests of the 32 lowest of the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. | And he appointed a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, after the manner of the feast that was celebrated in Juda. And going up to the altar, he did in like manner in Bethel, to sacrifice to the calves, which he had made. And he placed in Bethel priests of the high places, which he had made.
33 And he went up to the altar, which he had built in Bethel, on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, which he had devised of his own heart. And he ordained a feast to the children of Israel; and went upon the altar to burn incense.

13

1 A Prophet Sent to Jeroboam And behold there came a man of God out of Juda, by the word of the Lord to Bethel, when Jeroboam was standing upon the altar, and burning in-
2 cense. | And he cried out against the altar in the word of the Lord, and said: O altar, altar, thus says the Lord: Behold a child shall be born to the house of David, Josias by name, and he shall immolate upon you the priests of the high places, who now burn incense upon you: and he shall burn men's bones upon
3 you. | And he gave a sign the same day, saying: This shall be the sign, that the Lord has spoken: Behold the altar shall be
4 rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out. | And when the king had heard the word of the man of God, which he had cried out against the altar in Bethel, he stretched forth his hand from the altar, saying: Lay hold on him. And his hand which he stretched forth against him withered: and he was not 5 able to draw it back again to him. | The altar also was rent, and the ashes were poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given before in the word of the 6 Lord. | And the king said to the man of God: Entreat the face of the Lord your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me. And the man of God besought the face of the Lord: and the king's hand was restored to him, and it became 7 as it was before. | And the king said to the man of God: Come 8 home with me to dine, and I will make you presents. | And the man of God answered the king: If you would give me half your house I will not go with you, nor eat bread, nor drink water in 9 this place: | for so it was enjoined me by the word of the Lord commanding me: You shall not eat bread nor drink water, nor 10 return by the same way that you came. | So he departed by another way, and returned not by the way that he came into Bethel.

11 Now a certain old prophet dwelt in Bethel: and his sons came to him and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. And they told their father the words 12 which he had spoken to the king. | And their father said to them: What way went he? His sons showed him the way by 13 which the man of God went, who came out of Juda. | And he said to his sons: Saddle me the ass. And when they had saddled 14 him, he got up, | and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under a turpentine tree. And he said to him: Are you the man of God that came from Juda? He answered: I am. | 15.16 And he said to him: Come home with me, to eat bread. | But he said: I must not return, nor go with you; neither will I eat 17 bread, nor drink water in this place: | Because the Lord spoke to me in the word of the Lord, saying: You shall not eat bread, and you shall not drink water there, nor return by the way you 18 went. | He said to him: I also am a prophet like unto you. And an angel spoke to me in the word of the Lord, saying: Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread, and 19 drink water. He deceived him, | and brought him back with him: so he ate bread and drank water in his house.

20 The Prophet's Disobedience And as they sat at table, the word of the Lord came to the prophet that brought him back. | 21 And he cried out to the man of God who came out of Juda, 13, 21-22: The main thrust of this popular story is the absoluteness of God's commands. The Judean prophet should never have believed anyone, or at least he should have asked for a sign (v. 18) that God had reversed His order.

saying: Thus says the Lord: Because you have not been obedient to the Lord, and have not kept the commandment which the 22 Lord your God commanded you, | and have returned and eaten bread, and drunk water in the place wherein he commanded you that you should not eat bread, nor drink water, your dead body shall not be brought into the sepulcher of your fathers.
23 And when he had eaten and drunk, he saddled his ass for the 24 prophet, whom he had brought back. | And when he was gone, a lion found him in the way, and killed him. And his body was cast in the way; and the ass stood by him, and the lion stood
25 by the dead body. | And behold, men passing by saw the dead body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body. And they came and told it in the city, wherein that old prophet dwelt.
26 | And when that prophet, who had brought him back out of the way, heard of it, he said: It is the man of God, that was disobedient to the mouth of the Lord; and the Lord has delivered him to the lion; and he has torn him, and killed him according
27 to the word of the Lord, which he spoke to him. | And he said to his sons: Saddle me an ass. And when they had saddled it, |
28 and he was gone, he found the dead body cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcass. The lion had not
29 eaten of the dead body, nor hurt the ass. | And the prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass: and going back brought it into the city of the old prophet, to 30 mourn for him. | And he laid his dead body in his own sepulcher: and they mourned over him, saying: Alas! alas! my
31 brother. | And when they had mourned over him, he said to his sons: When I am dead, bury me in the sepulcher wherein the
32 man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones. | For assuredly the word shall come to pass which he has foretold in the word of the Lord against the altar that is in Bethel: and against all the temples of the high places, that are in the cities of Samaria.
33 After these words Jeroboam came not back from his wicked way: but on the contrary he made of the meanest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he filled his hand,
34 and he was made a priest of the high places. | And for this cause did the house of Jeroboam sin: and was cut off and destroyed from the face of the earth.

14

1 Jeroboam Sends His Wife to Ahias At that time Abia
2 the son of Jeroboam fell sick. | And Jeroboam said to his wife: Arise, and change your dress, that you be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Silo, where Ahias the prophet is, 3 who told me, that I should reign over this people. | Take also with you ten loaves, and cracknels, and a pot of honey, and go to him: for he will tell you what shall become of this child. | 4 Jeroboam's wife did as he told her: and rising up went to Silo, and came to the house of Ahias: but he could not see, for his 5 eyes were dim by reason of his age. | And the Lord said to Ahias: Behold the wife of Jeroboam comes in, to consult you concerning her son that is sick. Thus and thus shall you speak to her. So when she was coming in, and made as if she were 6 another woman, | Ahias heard the sound of her feet coming in at the door, and said: Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you feign yourself to be another? But I am sent to you with heavy tidings.

7 The Prophecy of Ahias Go, and tell Jeroboam: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Forasmuch as I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over my people Israel: 8 | and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you, and you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and followed me with all his heart, 9 doing that which was well pleasing in my sight: | but have done evil above all that were before you, and have made you strange gods and molten gods, to provoke me to anger, and 10 have cast me behind your back: | therefore behold I will bring evils upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male descendant, and him that is shut up, and the last in Israel. And I will sweep away the remnant of the house 11 of Jeroboam, as dung is swept away till all be clean. | Them that shall die of Jeroboam in the city, the dogs shall eat: and them that shall die in the field, the birds of the air shall devour: 12 for the Lord has spoken it. | Arise, therefore, and go to your house. And when your feet shall be entering into the city, the 13 child shall die, | and all Israel shall mourn for him, and shall bury him: for he only of Jeroboam shall be laid in a sepulcher, because in his regard there is found a good word from the Lord 14 the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. | And the Lord has appointed himself a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house 15 of Jeroboam in this day, and in this time. | And the Lord God shall strike Israel as a reed is shaken in the water. And he shall root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river: because they 14, 10: And him that is shut up, and the last in Israel: the slave and the freeman.

16 have made to themselves groves, to provoke the Lord. | And the Lord shall give up Israel for the sins of Jeroboam, who has sinned, and made Israel to sin.
17 And the wife of Jeroboam arose, and departed, and came to Thersa; and when she was coming in to the threshold of the 18 house, the child died; | and they buried him. And all Israel mourned for him according to the word of the Lord, which he 19 spoke by the hand of his servant Ahias the prophet. | And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he fought, and how he reigned, behold they are written in the book of the words of the 20 days of the kings of Israel. | And the days that Jeroboam reigned, were two and twenty years. And he slept with his fathers: and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 Roboam's Reign in Juda And Roboam the son of Solomon reigned in Juda. Roboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign: and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord chose out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naama 22 an Ammonitess. | And Juda did evil in the sight of the Lord, and provoked him above all that their fathers had done, in their 23 sins which they committed. | For they also built them altars, and statues, and groves upon every high hill and under every 24 green tree. | There were also the effeminate in the land, and they did according to all the abominations of the people whom the Lord had destroyed before the face of the children of Israel.
25 | And in the fifth year of the reign of Roboam, Sesac king of 26 Egypt came up against Jerusalem. | And he took away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the king's treasures, and carried all off: as also the shields of gold which Solomon had 27 made. | And Roboam made shields of brass instead of them, and delivered them into the hand of the captains of the shield-bearers, and of them that kept watch before the gate of the 28 king's house. | And when the king went into the house of the Lord, they whose office it was to go before him, carried them:
and afterward they brought them back to the armory of the 29 shieldbearers. | Now the rest of the acts of Roboam, and all that he did, behold they are written in the book of the words 30 of the days of the kings of Juda. | And there was war between 31 Roboam and Jeroboam always. | And Roboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with them in the city of David: and his 14, 23: Statues: stone pillars. Groves: wooden posts.

14, 24: The effeminate: prostitutes of both sexes functioning in honor of the god of the temple.

mother's name was Naama an Ammonitess: and Abiam his son reigned in his stead.

15

1 The Wicked Reign of Abiam Now in the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, Abiam reigned 2 over Juda. | He reigned three years in Jerusalem. The name of 3 his mother was Maacha the daughter of Abessalom. | And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as
4 was the heart of David his father. | But for David's sake the Lord his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son
5 after him, and to establish Jerusalem: | because David had done that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, and had not turned aside from any thing that he commanded him, all the
6 days of his life, except the matter of Urias the Hethite. | But there was war between Roboam and Jeroboam all the time of
7 his life. | And the rest of the words of Abiam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Juda? And there was war between Abiam and
8 Jeroboam. | And Abiam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 The Reign of Asa So in the twentieth year of Jeroboam
10 king of Israel, reigned Asa king of Juda. | And he reigned one and forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacha, 11 the daughter of Abessalom. | And Asa did that which was 12 right in the sight of the Lord, as did David his father. | And he took away the effeminate out of the land: and he removed
13 all the filth of the idols, which his fathers had made. | Moreover he also removed his mother Maacha, from being the princess in the sacrifices of Priapus, and in the grove which she had consecrated to him: and he destroyed her den, and broke in
14 pieces the filthy idol, and burned it by the torrent Cedron. | But the high places he did not take away. Nevertheless the heart of 15 Asa was perfect with the Lord all his days: | and he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and he had vowed, into the house of the Lord, silver and gold, and vessels.
16 And there was war between Asa, and Baasa king of Israel all 17 their days. | And Baasa king of Israel went up against Juda, and built Rama, that no man might go out or come in, of the 18 side of Asa king of Juda. | Then Asa took all the silver and gold that remained in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house, and delivered it into the hands of his servants: and sent them to Benadad son of Tabremon the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt in Damas-19 cus, saying: | There is a league between me and you, and between my father and your father. Therefore I have sent you presents of silver and gold: and I desire you to come, and break your league with Baasa king of Israel, that he may depart from 20 me. | Benadad hearkening to king Asa, sent the captains of his army against the cities of Israel: and they smote Ahion, and Dan, and Abeldomum Maacha, and all Ceneroth, that is all the

21 land of Nephtali. | And when Baasa had heard this, he left off
22 building Rama, and returned into Thersa. | But king Asa sent word into all Juda, saying: Let no man be excused. And they took away the stones from Rama and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasa had been building, and with them king Asa built Gabaa of Benjamin, and Maspha.

23 But the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his strength, and all that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Juda? But 24 in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. And he slept with his fathers, and was buried with them in the city of David his father. And Josaphat his son reigned in his place.

25 Reigns of Nadab and Baasa But Nadab the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel the second year of Asa king of Juda:
26 and he reigned over Israel two years. | And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of his father, and in 27 his sins, wherewith he made Israel to sin. | And Baasa the son of Ahias of the house of Issachar, conspired against him, and slew him in Gebbethon, which is a city of the Philistines: for
28 Nadab and all Israel besieged Gebbethon. | So Baasa slew him in the third year of Asa king of Juda; and reigned in his place. |
29 And when he was king he cut off all the house of Jeroboam: he left not so much as one soul of his seed, till he had utterly destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord, which he had 30 spoken in the hand of Ahias the Silonite: | because of the sin of Jeroboam, which he had sinned, and wherewith he had made Israel to sin, and for the offense, wherewith he provoked the
31 Lord the God of Israel. | But the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasa, the king of Israel, 33 all their days. | In the third year of Asa, king of Juda, Baasa the son of Ahias reigned over all Israel, in Thersa, four and 34 twenty years. | And he did evil before the Lord, and walked in the ways of Jeroboam, and in his sins, wherewith he made Israel to sin.

16

1 Jehu's Prophecy against Baasa Then the word of the Lord came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasa, saying: | 2 Forasmuch as I have exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke 3 me to anger with their sins: | behold, I will cut down the posterity of Baasa, and the posterity of his house: and I will make 4 your house as the house of Jeroboam the son of Nabat. | Him that dies of Baasa in the city, the dogs shall eat: and him that dies of his in the country, the fowls of the air shall devour. | 5 But the rest of the acts of Baasa and all that he did, and his battles, are they not written in the book of the words of the days 6 of the kings of Israel? | So Baasa slept with his fathers, and 7 was buried in Thersa: and Ela his son reigned in his stead. | And when the word of the Lord came in the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani the prophet, against Baasa, and against his house, and against all the evil that he had done before the Lord, to provoke him to anger by the works of his hands, to become as the house of Jeroboam: for this cause he slew him, that is to say, Jehu the son of Hanani, the prophet.

8 Zambri Destroys the House of Baasa In the six and twentieth year of Asa king of Juda, Ela the son of Baasa reigned 9 over Israel in Thersa two years. | And his servant Zambri, who was captain of half the horsemen, rebelled against him. Now Ela was drinking in Thersa, and drunk in the house of Arsa the 10 governor of Thersa. | And Zambri rushing in, struck him and slew him in the seven and twentieth year of Asa king of Juda:
11 and he reigned in his stead. | And when he was king and sat upon his throne, he slew all the house of Baasa, and all his kins-12 folks and friends: and he left not one male. | And Zambri destroyed all the house of Baasa, according to the word of the Lord, that he had spoken to Baasa, in the hand of Jehu the 13 prophet: | for all the sins of Baasa, and the sins of Ela his son, who sinned, and made Israel to sin, provoking the Lord, the 14 God of Israel, with their vanities. | But the rest of the acts of Ela, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

15 In the seven and twentieth year of Asa, king of Juda, Zambri reigned seven days in Thersa: now the army was besieging Geb-16 bethon, a city of the Philistines. | And when they heard that Zambri had rebelled, and slain the king, all Israel made Amri their king, who was general over Israel in the camp that day. | 17 And Amri went up, and all Israel with him from Gebbethon:

18 and they besieged Thersa. | And Zambri seeing that the city was about to be taken, went into the palace and burned himself 19 with the king's house. And he died | in his sins, which he had sinned, doing evil before the Lord, and walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin, wherewith he made Israel to sin. | 20 But the rest of the acts of Zambri, and of his conspiracy and tyranny, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

21 Amri and Achab Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts. One half of the people followed Thebni the son of Gineth, to make him king: and one half followed Amri. | 22 But the people that were with Amri, prevailed over the people that followed Thebni the son of Gineth: and Thebni died, and 23 Amri reigned. | In the one and thirtieth year of Asa, king of Juda, Amri reigned over Israel twelve years. In Thersa he 24 reigned six years. | And he bought the hill of Samaria of Semer for two talents of silver. And he built upon it, and he called the city which he built Samaria, after the name of Semer, the owner 25 of the hill. | And Amri did evil in the sight of the Lord, and 26 acted wickedly above all that were before him. | And he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin: to provoke the Lord the God 27 of Israel to anger with their vanities. | Now the rest of the acts of Amri, and the battles he fought, are they not written in the 28 book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel? | And Amri slept with his fathers: and was buried in Samaria. And Achab his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now Achab the son of Amri reigned over Israel in the eight and thirtieth year of Asa king of Juda. And Achab the son of Amri reigned over Israel in Samaria two and twenty years. |
30 And Achab the son of Amri did evil in the sight of the Lord 31 above all that were before him. | Nor was it enough for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat: but he also took to wife Jezabel daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians. And 32 he went, and served Baal, and adored him. | And he set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal, which he had built in 33 Samaria: | and he planted a grove: and Achab did more to provoke the Lord, the God of Israel, than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho: in Abiram his first-born he laid its foundations: and in his youngest son Segub he 16, 34: This is the fulfillment of the prophecy explained in Jos 6, 26 n.

set up the gates thereof: according to the word of the Lord, which he spoke in the hand of Josue the son of Nun.

17

1 The Great Prophet Elias And Elias the Thesbite of the inhabitants of Galaad said to Achab: As the Lord lives, the God of Israel, in whose sight I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain
2 these years, but according to the words of my mouth. | And the 3 word of the Lord came to him, saying: | Get yourself on the way and go toward the east, and hide yourself by the torrent
4 of Carith, which is over against the Jordan. | And there you shall drink of the torrent: and I have commanded the ravens
5 to feed you there. | So he went, and did according to the word of the Lord. And going, he dwelt by the torrent, Carith,
6 which is over against the Jordan. | And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the eve-
7 ning: and he drank of the torrent. | But after some time the torrent was dried up, for it had not rained upon the earth.
8.9 Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying: | Arise, and go to Sarephta of the Sidonians, and dwell there: for I
10 have commanded a widow woman there to feed you. | He arose, and went to Sarephta. And when he came to the gate of the city, he saw the widow woman gathering sticks; and he called her, and said to her: Give me a little water in a vessel,
11 that I may drink. | And when she was going to fetch it he called after her, saying: Bring me also, I beseech you, a morsel of
12 bread in your hand. | And she answered: As the Lord your God lives, I have no bread, but only a handful of meal in a pot, and a little oil in a cruse; behold I am gathering two sticks that I may go in and dress it, for me and my son, that we may eat it,
13 and die. | And Elias said to her: Fear not, but go, and do as you have said. But first make for me of the same meal a little hearth cake, and bring it to me; and after make for yourself
14 and your son. | For thus says the Lord the God of Israel: The 17, 1-24: See the Introduction to 3, 4 Kgs on the cycle stories of Elias and Eliseus, which begin here and end at 4 Kgs 13.

17, 1: Elias appears suddenly on the scene before king Achab in Samaria, chief city of the northern kingdom to foretell a drought, also mentioned by the Jewish historian, Josephus. Christ uses this story to illustrate that no prophet is acceptable in his own country (see Lk 4, 24-26).

17, 6: Ravens pilfer eggs, chickens, young rabbits, etc. There have been many unsuccessful attempts to prune the "miraculous" from this story by reading "merchants" instead of ravens in the original text.

17, 9: Sarephta: in Phoenicia, modern Lebanon, about seven miles south of Sidon.

pot of meal shall not waste, nor the cruse of oil be diminished, until the day wherein the Lord will give rain upon the face of 15 the earth. | She went and did according to the word of Elias.
16 And he ate, and she, and her house: and from that day | the pot of meal wasted not, and the cruse of oil was not diminished, according to the word of the Lord, which he spoke in the hand of Elias.

17 Elias Raises the Widow's Son to Life And it came to pass after this that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick. And the sickness was very grievous, so that there 18 was no breath left in him. | And she said to Elias: What have I to do with you, you man of God? Have you come to me that my iniquities should be remembered, and that you should kill 19 my son? | And Elias said to her: Give me your son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him into the upper 20 chamber where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. | And he cried to the Lord, and said: O Lord my God, have you afflicted also the widow, with whom I am after a sort main-21 tained, so as to kill her son? | And he stretched, and measured himself upon the child three times, and cried to the Lord, and said: O Lord my God, let the soul of this child, I beseech you, 22 return into his body. | And the Lord heard the voice of Elias:
and the soul of the child returned into him; and he revived. | 23 And Elias took the child, and brought him down from the upper chamber to the house below, and delivered him to his mother, 24 and said to her: Behold your son lives. | And the woman said to Elias: Now, by this I know that you are a man of God; and the word of the Lord in your mouth is true.

18

1 Elias Meets Achab After many days the word of the Lord came to Elias, in the third year, saying: Go and show yourself 2 to Achab, that I may give rain upon the face of the earth. | And Elias went to show himself to Achab: and there was a grievous 3 famine in Samaria. | And Achab called Abdias, the governor of 4 his house: now Abdias feared the Lord very much. | For when Jezabel killed the prophets of the Lord, he took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifty and fifty in caves, and fed them 5 with bread and water. | And Achab said to Abdias: Go into

17, 18: She believes that it is on the occasion of the prophet's visit that her past sins were remembered and, therefore, caused the death of her son.

18, 4: The prophets of the Lord: same type as in 1 Sm 10, 5-13 n.

the land unto all fountains of waters, and into all valleys, to see if we can find grass, and save the horses and mules, that the 6 beasts may not utterly perish. | And they divided the countries between them, that they might go round about them: Achab
7 went one way, and Abdias another way by himself. | And as Abdias was in the way Elias met him. And he knew him, and
8 fell on his face, and said: Are you my lord Elias? | And he answered: I am. Go, and tell your master: Elias is here.
9 And he said: What have I sinned, that you would deliver me your servant into the hand of Achab, that he should kill me? | 10 As the Lord my God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my Lord has not sent to seek you. And when all answered: He is not here, he took an oath of every kingdom and 11 nation, because you were not found. | And now you say to me:
12 Go, and tell your master: Elias is here. | And when I will be gone from you, the spirits of the Lord will carry you into a place that I know not: and I shall go in and tell Achab, and he not finding you, will kill me. But your servant fears the Lord
13 from his infancy. | Has it not been told you, my lord, what I did when Jezabel killed the prophets of the Lord, how I hid a hundred men of the prophets of the Lord by fifty and fifty in
14 caves, and fed them with bread and water? | And now you say: Go, and tell your master: Elias is here; that he may kill me. |
15 And Elias said: As the Lord of hosts lives, before whose face I stand, this day I will show myself unto him.
16 Abdias therefore went to meet Achab, and told him: and 17 Achab came to meet Elias. | And when he had seen him, he
18 said: Are you he that troubles Israel? | And he said: I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house, who have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and have followed
19 Baalim. | Nevertheless send now, and gather unto me all Israel, unto mount Carmel: and the prophets of Baal, four hundred and fifty: and the prophets of the groves four hundred, who
20 eat at Jezabel's table. | Achab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered together the prophets unto mount Carmel.

21 The False Prophets And Elias coming to all the people, said: How long do you halt between two sides? If the Lord be

---

18, 18: Baalim: plural of the pagan god Baal.

18, 19: Mount Carmel: this picturesque site, 1800 feet above the Mediterranean, overlooks the modern seaport city of Haifa, Israel. The mount was a Baal sanctuary from about 1500 B.C. Who eat at Jezabel's table: Jezabel was a Phoenician (16, 31) and the four hundred fifty prophets were native Phoenicians because a god demanded its native born "clergy" even abroad.

God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people 22 did not answer him a word. | And Elias said again to the people: I only remain a prophet of the Lord: but the prophets of 23 Baal are four hundred and fifty men. | Let two bullocks be given us, and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces and lay it upon wood, but put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no 24 fire under it. | Call on the names of your gods, and I will call on the name of my Lord: and the God that shall answer by fire, let him be God. And all the people answering said: A very good proposal.
25 Then Elias said to the prophets of Baal: Choose you one bullock, and dress it first, because you are many: and call on the 26 names of your gods, but put no fire under. | And they took the bullock which he gave them, and dressed it: and they called on the name of Baal from morning even till noon, saying: O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered: and 27 they leaped over the altar that they had made. | And when it was now noon, Elias jested at them, saying: Cry with a louder voice; for he is a God, and perhaps he is talking, or is in an inn, or on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep, and must be awakened.
28 | So they cried with a loud voice, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till they were all covered with 29 blood. | And after midday was past, and while they were prophesying, the time had come of offering sacrifice, and there was no voice heard, nor did any one answer, nor regard them as they prayed.
30 Elias said to all the people: Come unto me. And the people coming near unto him, he repaired the altar of the Lord, that 31 was broken down. | And he took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of 32 the Lord came, saying: Israel shall be your name. | And he built with the stones an altar to the name of the Lord: and he made a trench for water, of the breadth of two furrows round 33 about the altar. | And he laid the wood in order, and cut the

---

18, 26: And they leaped over . . . made: they performed a leaping and bending dance with various bodily contortions around the altar. This sacred dance has been compared with the Moslems' dance, of dragging the feet as if in deep sand, around the Sacred Stone at Mecca.

18, 27: He is talking, or is in an inn: an alternate translation is: "He is busy," as a euphemism for easing nature.

Elias may be caustically alluding to him as patron of Tyre's ship merchants and seafarers. This is the most pungent satire in the Bible on idolatry and, perhaps, in all literature.

18, 29: The time had come of offering sacrifice: three o'clock, P.M.

18, 30: There must have been an altar to Yahweh on mount Carmel.

34 bullock in pieces, and laid it upon the wood. | And he said: Fill four buckets with water, and pour it upon the burnt offering, and upon the wood. And again he said: Do the same the second time. And when they had done it the second time, he said: Do the same also the third time. And they did so the third time. |
35 And the water ran round about the altar: and the trench was filled with water.

36 The Fire from Heaven And when it was now time to offer the holocaust, Elias the prophet came near and said: O Lord God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Israel, show this day that you are the God of Israel, and I your servant, and that according to your commandment I have done all these things. |
37 Hear me, O Lord, hear me: that this people may learn, that you are the Lord God, and that you have turned their heart again. |
38 Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the holocaust, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water 39 that was in the trench. | And when all the people saw this, they fell on their faces. And they said: The Lord he is God; the 40 Lord he is God. | And Elias said to them: Take the prophets of Baal, and let not one of them escape. And when they had taken them, Elias brought them down to the torrent Cison, and killed them there.
41 And Elias said to Achab: Go up, eat, and drink; for there is 42 a sound of abundance of rain. | Achab went up to eat and drink. And Elias went up to the top of Carmel, and casting himself
43 down upon the earth put his face between his knees. | And he said to his servant: Go up, and look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said: There is nothing. And again he 44 said to him: Return seven times. | And at the seventh time, behold, a little cloud arose out of the sea like a man's foot. And he said: Go up and say to Achab: Prepare your chariot and go
45 down, lest the rain prevent you. | And while he turned himself

---

18, 34-35: The water was meant to intensify the miracle of fire.

18, 37: Commentators point out the calmness of Elias' preparations for sacrifice and his prayer in contrast with the sound and fury of the pagan prophets (vv. 26 and 28). This contrast is most eloquent in Mendelssohn's oratorio, Elijah.

18, 38: Compare the fire consuming the sacrifice of Aaron, Lv 9, 24, and of Gedeon, Jgs 6, 21. The miracle may have been in the timing of the lightning of a thunder storm.

18, 40: Elias, with the tacit approval of the king, executed the prophets.

18, 44: A man's foot: "a man's palm" is more correct. The Carmelite tradition likens the "little cloud" to the Blessed Virgin. Just as the cloud increased in size, so Mary increased in grace.

this way and that way, behold the heavens grew dark, with clouds, and wind, and there fell a great rain. And Achab getting 46 up went away to Jezrahel. | And the hand of the Lord was upon Elias, and he girded up his loins and ran before Achab, till he came to Jezrahel.

19

1 Elias Fed by an Angel And Achab told Jezabel all that Elias had done, and how he had slain all the prophets with the
2 sword. | And Jezabel sent a messenger to Elias, saying: Such and such things may the gods do to me, and add still more if by this hour tomorrow I make not your life as the life of one of
3 them. | Then Elias was afraid, and rising up he went wherever he had a mind to go. And he came to Bersabee of Juda, and
4 left his servant there. | And he went forward, one day's journey into the desert. And when he was there, and sat under a juniper tree, he requested for his soul that he might die, and said: It is enough for me. Lord, take away my soul; for I am no better than 5 my fathers. | And he cast himself down, and slept in the shadow of the juniper tree. And behold an angel of the Lord
6 touched him, and said to him: Arise and eat. | He looked, and behold there was at his head a hearth cake, and a vessel of
7 water. And he ate and drank; and he fell asleep again. | And the angel of the Lord came again the second time, and touched him, and said to him: Arise, eat; for you have yet a great way
8 to go. | And he arose, and ate, and drank, and walked in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights, unto the mount of God, Horeb.

9 The Vision And when he arrived there, he abode in a cave. And behold the word of the Lord came unto him, and he said
10 to him: What are you doing here, Elias? | And he answered: With zeal have I been zealous for the Lord God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant. They have thrown down your altars, they have slain your prophets with the sword, and I alone am left: and they seek my life to take 11 it away. | And he said to him: Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the Lord: and behold the Lord passes, and a

---

19, 4-8: Elias is discouraged because, in spite of his spectacular ordeal on mount Carmel, the people were not converted. He seeks a retreat at Mount Sinai ("Horeb") where he will receive his threefold commission, similar to the manner in which Moses received the Law there.

19, 10-14: V. 9b to v. 10 are awkwardly repeated in vv. 13b-14. Moreover, v. 9 has Elias already in the cave and v. 13 has him entering.

19, 11-12: One of several proposed meanings of this theophany says great and strong wind before the Lord overthrowing the mountains, and breaking the rocks in pieces: the Lord is not in the wind, and after the wind an earthquake: the Lord is not in the 12 earthquake. | And after the earthquake a fire: the Lord is not

13 in the fire, and after the fire a whistling of a gentle air. | And when Elias heard it, he covered his face with his mantle, and coming forth stood in the entering inside the cave, and behold a voice came unto him, saying: What are you doing here, Elias?
14 And he answered: | With zeal have I been zealous for the Lord God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant. They have destroyed your altars; they have slain your prophets with the sword, and I alone am left, and they seek my life to take it away.
15 And the Lord said to him: Go, and return on your way through the desert to Damascus: and when you have come 16 there, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria. | And you shall anoint Jehu the son of Namsi to be king over Israel. And Eliseus the son of Saphat, of Abelmeula, you shall anoint to be
17 prophet in your room. | And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall escape the sword of Hazael, shall be slain by Jehu: and whosoever shall escape the sword of Jehu shall be slain by
18 Eliseus. | And I will leave me seven thousand men in Israel, whose knees have not been bowed before Baal, and every mouth that has not worshiped him kissing the hands.

19 Eliseus Follows Elias And Elias departing from thence, found Eliseus the son of Saphat, ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen: and he was one of them that were ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen. And when Elias came up to him, he cast his 20 mantle upon him. | And he forthwith left the oxen and ran after Elias, and said: Let me, I pray you, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. And he said to him: Go, and return back; for that which was my part, I have done to you. |
21 And returning back from him, he took a yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled the flesh with the plough of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate: and rising up, he went away, and followed Elias, and ministered to him.

20

1 The Syrians Besiege Samaria And Benadad, king of Syria, gathered together all his host, and there were two and thirty kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and going up, that God is much more spiritual ("whistling") than the works of nature indicate.

---

he fought against Samaria, and besieged it. | And, sending messengers to Achab king of Israel into the city, | he said: Thus says Benadad: Your silver, and your gold is mine: and your wives and your goodliest children are mine. | And the king of Israel answered: According to your word, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have. | And the messengers came again, and said: Thus says Benadad, who sent us unto you: Your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children, you shall deliver up to me. | Tomorrow therefore at this same hour
I will send my servants to you: and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants: and all that pleases them, they shall put in their hands, and take away.

And the king of Israel called all the ancients of the land, and said: Mark, and see that he lays snares for us. For he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver and gold: and I said not nay. | And all the ancients, and all the people said to him: Hearken not to him, nor consent to him. | Wherefore he answered the messengers of Benadad: Tell my lord the king: All that you did send for to me your servant at first, I will do: but this thing I cannot do. | And the messengers returning brought him word. And he sent again and said: Such and such things may the gods do to me, and more may they add, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me. | And the king of Israel answering, said:
Tell him: Let not the girded boast himself as the ungirded. |
And it came to pass, when Benadad heard this word, that he and the kings were drinking in pavilions, and he said to his servants: Beset the city. And they beset it.

Achab Defeats the Syrians And behold a prophet coming to Achab king of Israel, said to him: Thus says the Lord: Have you seen all this exceeding great multitude? Behold I will deliver them into your hand this day: that you may know that I am the Lord. | And Achab said: By whom? And he said to him: Thus says the Lord: By the servants of the princes of the provinces. And he said: Who shall begin to fight? And he said:
You. | So he mustered the servants of the princes of the provinces: and he found the number of two hundred and thirty-two:
and he mustered after them the people, all the children of Israel, seven thousand. | And they went out at noon. But Bena-dad was drinking himself drunk in his pavilion, and the two and 20, 2-9: Achab agreed to a tribute but not to a wholesale looting.

20, 11: A soldier who dons his armor should not boast as if he is unvesting after a victory.

17 thirty kings with him, who had come to help him. | And the servants of the princes of the provinces went out first. And Benadad sent. And they told him, saying: There are men who
18 have come out of Samaria. | And he said: Whether they come for peace, take them alive: or whether they come to fight, take
19 them alive. | So the servants of the princes of the provinces
20 went out, and the rest of the army followed. | And every one slew the man that came against him. And the Syrians fled: and Israel pursued after them. And Benadad king of Syria fled away
21 on horseback with his horsemen. | But the king of Israel going out overthrew the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with
22 a great slaughter. | (And a prophet coming to the king of Israel said to him: Go, and strengthen yourself, and know, and see what you do: for the next year the king of Syria will come up against you.)

23 But the servants of the king of Syria said to him: Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they have overcome us. But it is better that we should fight against them in the plains, and we 24 shall overcome them. | Do you therefore this thing: Remove all the kings from your army, and put captains in their stead: |
25 and make up the number of soldiers that have been slain, and horses according to the former horses, and chariots according to the chariots which you had before: and we will fight against them in the plains, and you shall see that we shall overcome
26 them. He believed their counsel and did so. | Wherefore, at the return of the year, Benadad mustered the Syrians, and went up
27 to Aphec, to fight against Israel. | And the children of Israel were mustered, and taking victuals went out on the other side, and camped over against them, like two little flocks of goats: but the Syrians filled the land.

28 The Syrians again Overthrown (And a man of God coming, said to the king of Israel: Thus says the Lord: Because the Syrians have said: The Lord is God of the hills, but is not God of the valleys: I will deliver all this great multitude into 29 your hand; and you shall know that I am the Lord.) | And both sides set their armies in array one against the other, seven days, and on the seventh day the battle was fought: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand
30 footmen in one day. | And they that remained fled to Aphec, into the city: and the wall fell upon seven and twenty thousand men that were left. And Benadad fleeing went into the city,
31 into a chamber that was within a chamber. | And his servants said to him: Behold, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful: so let us put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: per-32 haps he will save our lives. | So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said to him: Your servant Benadad says: I beseech you let me have my life. And he said: If he be yet alive he is my

33 brother. | The men took this for a sign: and in haste caught the word out of his mouth, and said: Your brother Benadad. And he said to them: Go, and bring him to me. Then Benadad came
34 out to him, and he lifted him up into his chariot. | And he said to him: The cities which my father took from your father, I will restore. And do you make yourself streets in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria: and having made a league, I will depart from you. So he made a league with him, and let him go.

35 Achab Reproved by a Prophet Then a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his companion in the word of 36 the Lord: Strike me. But he would not strike. | Then he said to him: Because you would not hearken to the word of the Lord, behold you shall depart from me, and a lion shall slay you. And when he had gone a little from him, a lion found
37 him, and slew him. | Then he found another man, and said to 38 him: Strike me. And he struck him, and wounded him. | So the prophet went, and met the king in the way, and disguised him-
39 self by sprinkling dust on his face and his eyes. | And as the king passed by, he cried to the king, and said: Your servant went out to fight hand to hand. And when a certain man had run away, one brought him to me, and said: Keep this man; and if he shall slip away, your life shall be for his life, or you shall 40 pay a talent of silver. | And while I in a hurry turned this way and that, all of a sudden he was not to be seen. And the king of Israel said to him: This is your judgment, which you yourself
41 have decreed. | But he forthwith wiped off the dust from his face: and the king of Israel knew him, that he was one of the 42 prophets. | And he said to him: Thus says the Lord: Because you have let go out of your hand a man worthy of death, your
43 life shall be for his life, and your people for his people. | And the king of Israel returned to his house, slighting to hear: and raging came into Samaria.

20, 35-43: God rewarded Achab for obeying Him by twice defeating the Syrian princes, but He punished him for sparing Benadad for political reasons. Achab wanted a trade treaty (v. 34) or he wanted Syria as a buffer state against Assyria.

21

1 The Vineyard of Naboth And after these things, Naboth the Jezrahelite, who was in Jezrahel, had at that time a vineyard 2 near the palace of Achab king of Samaria. | And Achab spoke to Naboth, saying: Give me your vineyard, that I may make me a garden of herbs, because it is nigh, and adjoining to my house, and I will give you for it a better vineyard. Or if you think it more convenient for you, I will give you the worth of it 3 in money. Naboth answered him: The Lord be merciful to me, and not let me give you the inheritance of my fathers. | 4 And Achab came into his house angry and fretting, because of the word that Naboth the Jezrahelite had spoken to him, saying: I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. And casting himself upon his bed, he turned away his face to the 5 wall, and would eat no bread. | And Jezabel his wife went in to him, and said to him: What is the matter that your soul is so 6 grieved? And why do you eat no bread? | And he answered her: I spoke to Naboth the Jezrahelite, and said to him: Give me your vineyard, and take money for it; or if it please you, I will give you a better vineyard for it. And he said: I will not 7 give you my vineyard. | Then Jezabel his wife said to him:
You are of great authority indeed, and govern well the kingdom of Israel. Arise, and eat bread, and be of good cheer. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezrahelite.
8 So she wrote letters in Achab's name, and sealed them with his ring, and sent them to the ancients, and the chief men that 9 were in his city, and that dwelt with Naboth. | And this was the tenor of the letter: Proclaim a fast, and make Naboth sit 10 among the chief of the people. | And suborn two men, sons of Belial, against him, and let them bear false witness that he has blasphemed God and the king: and then carry him out, and stone him and so let him die.

11 Naboth Stoned to Death And the men of his city, the ancients and nobles that dwelt with him in the city, did as Jezabel had commanded them, and as it was written in the 12 letters which she had sent to them. | They proclaimed a fast, 13 and made Naboth sit among the chief of the people. | And bringing two men, sons of the devil, they made them sit against him: and they, like men of the devil, bore witness against him before the people, saying: Naboth has blasphemed God and the king: wherefore they brought him forth outside the 21, 1-29: The king was not above the moral law any more than David in his adultery and murder.

14 city, and stoned him to death. | And they sent to Jezebel, say-15 ing: Naboth is stoned, and is dead. | And it came to pass when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and dead, that she said to Achab: Arise and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezrahelite, who would not agree with you, and give it to 16 you for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead. | And when Achab heard this, to wit, that Naboth was dead, he arose and went down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezrahelite, to take possession of it.

17 Prophecy against Achab and Jezebel And the word of 18 the Lord came to Elias the Thesbite, saying: | Arise, and go down to meet Achab king of Israel, who is in Samaria: behold he is going down to the vineyard of Naboth, to take possession 19 of it. | And you shall speak to him, saying: Thus says the Lord:
You have slain. Moreover also you have taken possession. And after these words you shall add: Thus says the Lord: In this place, wherein the dogs have licked the blood of Naboth, they shall lick your blood also.
20 And Achab said to Elias: Have you found me your enemy? He said: I have found you, because you are sold, to do evil in the 21 sight of the Lord. | Behold I will bring evil upon you, and I will cut down your posterity, and I will kill of Achab every male descendant, and him that is shut up, and the last in Israel. | 22 And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, and like the house of Baasa the son of Ahias: for what you have done to provoke me to anger, and for making 23 Israel to sin. | And to Jezabel also the Lord spoke, saying: The 24 dogs shall eat Jezabel in the field of Jezrahel. | If Achab die in the city, the dogs shall eat him: but if he die in the field, the birds of the air shall eat him.
25 Now there was not such another as Achab, who was sold to do evil in the sight of the Lord: for his wife Jezabel set him on.
26 | And he became abominable, insomuch that he followed the idols which the Amorrites had made, whom the Lord destroyed 27 before the face of the children of Israel. | And when Achab had heard these words, he rent his garments, and put haircloth upon his flesh, and fasted and slept in sackcloth, and walked 28 with his head cast down. | And the word of the Lord came to 29 Elias the Thesbite, saying: | Have you not seen Achab humbled before me? Therefore, because he has humbled himself for my 21, 21: And him that is shut up . . . Israel: the slave and the free-man. See 2 Sm 12, 24 n.

sake, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

22

1 Achab Consults False Prophets And there passed three 2 years without war between Syria and Israel. | And in the third year, Josaphat king of Juda came down to the king of Israel. | 3 (And the king of Israel said to his servants: Do you not know that Ramoth Galaad is ours, and we neglect to take it out of the 4 hand of the king of Syria?) | And he said to Josaphat: Will you
5 come with me to battle to Ramoth Galaad? | And Josaphat said to the king of Israel: As I am, so are you: my people and your people are one: and my horsemen are your horsemen. And Josaphat said to the king of Israel: Inquire, I beseech you, this 6 day, the word of the Lord. | Then the king of Israel assembled the prophets, about four hundred men, and he said to them: Shall I go to Ramoth Galaad to fight, or shall I forbear? They answered: Go up, and the Lord will deliver it into the hand of 7 the king. | And Josaphat said: Is there not here some prophet 8 of the Lord, that we may inquire by him? | And the king of Israel said to Josaphat: There is one man left, by whom we may inquire of the Lord, Micheas the son of Jemla; but I hate him, for he does not prophesy good to me, but evil. And Josa-9 phat said: Speak not so, O king. | Then the king of Israel called an eunuch, and said to him: Make haste, and bring hither Micheas the son of Jemla.

10 Then the king of Israel, and Josaphat king of Juda, sat each on his throne clothed with royal robes, in a court by the entrance of the gate of Samaria: and all the prophets prophesied before 11 them. | And Sedecias the son of Chanaana made himself horns of iron, and said: Thus says the Lord: With these shall you 12 push Syria, till you destroy it. | And all the prophets prophesied in like manner, saying: Go up to Ramoth Galaad, and prosper; 13 for the Lord will deliver it into the king's hands. | And the messenger, that went to call Micheas, spoke to him, saying: Behold the words of the prophets with one mouth declare good things to the king. Let your word therefore be like to theirs, and speak that which is good.

14 The Prophecy of Micheas But Micheas said to him: As the Lord lives, whatsoever the Lord shall say to me, that will I 15 speak. | So he came to the king, and the king said to him:
Micheas, shall we go to Ramoth Galaad to battle, or shall we 22, 15: Micheas sarcastically repeats the decision of the false prophets.

forbear? He answered: Go up, and prosper, and the Lord shall 16 deliver it into the king's hands. | But the king said to him: I adjure you again and again, that you tell me nothing but that 17 which is true in the name of the Lord. | And he said: I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, like sheep that have no shepherd.
And the Lord said: These have no master: let every man of 18 them return to his house in peace. | (Then the king of Israel said to Josaphat: Did I not tell you, that he prophesies no good to 19 me, but always evil?) | And he added and said: Hear therefore the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing by him on the right hand and 20 on the left. | And the Lord said: Who shall deceive Achab king of Israel, that he may go up, and fall at Ramoth Galaad?
And one spoke words of this manner, and another otherwise. | 21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said: I will deceive him. And the Lord said to him: By what 22 means? | And he said: I will go forth, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the Lord said: You shall 23 deceive him, and shall prevail. Go forth, and do so. | Now therefore behold the Lord has given a lying spirit in the mouth of all your prophets that are here: and the Lord has spoken evil 24 against you. | And Sedecias the son of Chanaana came, and struck Micheas on the cheek, and said: Has then the spirit of the 25 Lord left me and spoken to you? | And Micheas said: You shall see in the day when you shall go into a chamber within a chamber to hide yourself.

26 Micheas Imprisoned And the king of Israel said: Take Micheas, and let him abide with Ammon the governor of the 27 city, and with Joas the son of Amalech. | And tell them: Thus says the king: Put this man in prison, and feed him with bread 28 of affliction, and water of distress, till I return in peace. And Micheas said: If you return in peace, the Lord has not spoken to me. And he said: Hear, all you people.
29 So the king of Israel, and Josaphat king of Juda went up to 30 Ramoth Galaad. | And the king of Israel said to Josaphat: Take armor, and go into the battle, and put on your own garments.
But the king of Israel changed his dress, and went into the 31 battle. | And the king of Syria had commanded the two and thirty captains of the chariots, saying: You shall not fight against 22, 22-23: Since everything is attributed to God, without distinguishing what He wants and what He allows, Micheas says that God is the cause of the false prophets' lies.

22, 28: Micheas predicts Achab's death.

22, 30: Achab disguised himself to ward off the prediction of Micheas.

32 any, small or great, but against the king of Israel only. | So when the captains of the chariots saw Josaphat, they suspected that he was the king of Israel, and making a violent assault they 33 fought against him: and Josaphat cried out. | And the captains of the chariots perceived that he was not the king of Israel, and they turned away from him.

34 Achab Is Wounded and Dies And a certain man bent his bow, shooting at a venture, and chanced to strike the king of Israel between the lungs and the stomach. But he said to the driver of his chariot: Turn your hand, and carry me out of the 35 army, for I am grievously wounded. | And the battle was fought that day, and the king of Israel stood in his chariot against the Syrians. And he died in the evening: and the blood 36 ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot. | And the herald proclaimed through all the army before the sun set, saying: Let every man return to his own city, and to his own 37 country. | And the king died, and was carried into Samaria:
38 and they buried the king in Samaria. | And they washed his chariot in the pool of Samaria: and the dogs licked up his blood.
And they washed the reins, according to the word of the Lord which he had spoken.
39 But the rest of the acts of Achab, and all that he did, and the house of ivory that he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings 40 of Israel? | So Achab slept with his fathers, and Ochozias his son reigned in his stead.

41 The Reign of Josaphat But Josaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Juda in the fourth year of Achab king of 42 Israel. | He was five and thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned five and twenty years in Jerusalem. The 43 name of his mother was Azuba the daughter of Salai. | And he walked in all the way of Asa his father, and he declined not from it: and he did that which was right in the sight of the 44 Lord. | Nevertheless he took not away the high places: for as yet the people offered sacrifices and burned incense in the high 45 places. | And Josaphat had peace with the king of Israel. | 46 But the rest of the acts of Josaphat, and his works which he did, and his battles, are they not written in the book of the 22, 38: This should not be considered the fulfillment of the prophecy in 21, 19, for one reason, because it was transferred to Achab's son in 21, 29.

22, 39: House of ivory: in the city of Samaria archeologists have found an abundance of furniture decorated with ivory.

47 words of the days of the kings of Juda? | And the remnant also of the effeminate, who remained in the days of Asa his father, 48 he took out of the land. And there was then no king appointed 49 in Edom. | But king Josaphat made navies on the sea, to sail into Ophir for gold: but they could not go, for the ships were 50 broken in Asiongaber. | Then Ochozias the son of Achab said to Josaphat: Let my servants go with your servants in the ships.
51 And Josaphat would not. | And Josaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with them in the city of David his father. And Joram his son reigned in his stead.
52 And Ochozias the son of Achab began to reign over Israel in Samaria, in the seventeenth year of Josaphat king of Juda. And 53 he reigned over Israel two years. | And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father and his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel 54 to sin. | He served also Baal, and worshiped him, and provoked the Lord the God of Israel according to all that his father had done.

22, 49-50: See the maritime enterprise of Solomon and Hiram in 9, 26-28, and 7, 46 n.

22, 5: See 2 Par 17—19, for Josaphat as an able administrator.

1

1 Elias Foretells Ochozias' Death And Moab rebelled against Israel, after the death of Achab.

2 And Ochozias fell through the lattices of his upper chamber which he had in Samaria, and was sick. And he sent messengers, saying to them: Go, consult Beelzebub, the god of Accaron,
3 whether I shall recover of this my illness. | And an angel of the Lord spoke to Elias the Thesbite, saying: Arise, and go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them: Is there not a God in Israel, that you go to consult Beelzebub the
4 god of Accaron? | Wherefore thus says the Lord: From the bed, on which you have gone up, you shall not come down; but you
5 shall surely die. And Elias went away. | And the messengers turned back to Ochozias. And he said to them: Why did you
6 come back? | But they answered him: A man met us, and said to us: Go, and return to the king who sent you, and you shall say to him: Thus says the Lord: Is it because there was no God in Israel that you sent to Beelzebub the god of Accaron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed, on which you have
7 gone up; but you shall surely die. | And he said to them: What manner of man was he who met you, and spoke these words? |
8 But they said: A hairy man with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said: It is Elias the Thesbite.

9 And he sent to him a captain of fifty, and the fifty men that were under him. And he went up to him, and as he was sitting on the top of a hill, said to him: Man of God, the king has commanded that you come down.

10 Elias Brings Fire from Heaven And Elias answering, said to the captain of fifty: If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume you, and your fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him, and the fifty
11 that were with him. | And again he sent to him another captain of fifty men, and his fifty with him. And he said to him: Man
12 of God, thus says the king: Make haste and come down. | Elias answering, said: If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume you and your fifty. And fire came down
13 from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. | Again he sent a third captain of fifty men, and the fifty that were with him. And

---

1, 2: Beelzebub: "god of the flies." It recurs in Mt 10, 25. Accaron: a town in northern Philistine territory.

1, 8: This was the distinctive garb of the prophets.

when he came, he fell upon his knees before Elias, and besought him, and said: Man of God, despise not my life, and the lives of 14 your servants that are with me. | Behold fire came down from heaven, and consumed the two first captains of fifty men, and the fifties that were with them: but now I beseech you to spare my life.
15 And the angel of the Lord spoke to Elias, saying: Go down with him. Fear not. He arose therefore, and went down with 16 him to the king. | And he said to him: Thus says the Lord: Because you have sent messengers to consult Beelzebub the god of Accaron, as though there were not a God in Israel, of whom you might inquire the word; therefore from the bed on which you have gone up, you shall not come down, but you shall
17 surely die. | So he died according to the word of the Lord which Elias spoke. And Joram his brother reigned in his stead, in the second year of Joram the son of Josaphat king of Juda: because 18 he had no son. | But the rest of the acts of Ochozias which he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

2

1 Eliseus Refuses to Leave Elias And it came to pass, when the Lord would take up Elias into heaven by a whirlwind, that
2 Elias and Eliseus were going from Galgal. | And Elias said to Eliseus: Stay here, because the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel. And Eliseus said to him: As the Lord lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And when they had come down to
3 Bethel, | the sons of the prophets, that were at Bethel, came forth to Eliseus, and said to him: Do you know that this day the Lord will take away your master from you? And he an-
4 swered: I also know it. Hold your peace. | And Elias said to Eliseus: Stay here because the Lord has sent me to Jericho. And he said: As the Lord lives, and as your soul lives, I will not
5 leave you. And when they had come to Jericho, the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho, came to Eliseus, and said to him: Do you know that this day the Lord will take away your master
6 from you? And he said: I also know it. Hold your peace. | And Elias said to him: Stay here, because the Lord has sent me as far as the Jordan. And he said: As the Lord lives, and as your soul

1, 14: The purpose of the story is to underscore the respect due to the prophets.

2, 1-12: Elias, knowing of his imminent death, makes a farewell visit to his disciples in various places.

lives, I will not leave you. And they two went on together, | 7 and fifty men of the sons of the prophets followed them, and stood in sight at a distance; but they two stood by the Jordan.
8 And Elias took his mantle, and folded it together, and struck the waters: and they were divided hither and thither. And they 9 both passed over on dry ground. | And when they had gone over, Elias said to Eliseus: Ask what you will have me to do for you, before I be taken away from you. And Eliseus said: I 10 beseech you that in me may be your double spirit. | And he answered: You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless if you see me when I am taken from you, you shall have what you have asked: but if you see me not, you shall not have it.

11 Elias Taken up to Heaven And as they went on, walking and talking together, behold a fiery chariot, and fiery horses parted them both asunder: and Elias went up by a whirlwind 12 into heaven. | And Eliseus saw him, and cried: My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the driver thereof. And he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own garments, and rent 13 them in two pieces. | And he took up the mantle of Elias, that fell from him: and going back, he stood upon the bank of the 14 Jordan, | and he struck the waters with the mantle of Elias, that had fallen from him, and they were not divided. And he said: Where is now the God of Elias? And he struck the waters, and they were divided, hither and thither, and Eliseus passed over.
15 And the sons of the prophets at Jericho, who were over against him, seeing it said: The spirit of Elias has rested upon Eliseus.
And coming to meet him, they worshiped him, falling to the 16 ground, | and they said to him: Behold, there are with your

2, 9: Double spirit: Eliseus wants to succeed Elias as leader of the prophets, and desires the power to perform wonders.

2, 10: Hard thing: because the prophetic spirit was not inherited automatically.

2, 11: Neither this text nor v. 18 say explicitly that Elias went to heaven without dying, but Jewish tradition interpreted it thus, and added that he will return in Messianic times. See Mal 3, 23; Sir 48, 9-12. Mk 9, 10 interprets Elias' return in the person of John the Baptist. In the present-day Jewish celebrations an empty chair awaits Elias.

2, 12: The chariot of Israel, and the driver thereof: alluding to the chariotry as the backbone of the army, Eliseus eulogizes Elias by calling him the strongest part of Israel's true religion in its war on pagan baals. This verse is frequently used in the Roman liturgy. Elias is popular with Christians, Jews and Moslems.

2, 16: Elias, the solitary prophet, was wont to disappear. See 3 Kgs 18, 9-16.

servants fifty strong men, that can go, and seek your master; lest perhaps the spirit of the Lord has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley. And he said: Do 17 not send. | But they pressed him, till he consented, and said: Send. And they sent fifty men: and they sought three days but
18 found him not. | And they came back to him: for he abode at Jericho. And he said to them: Did I not say to you: Do not send?

19 Eliseus Heals the Waters And the men of the city said to Eliseus: Behold the situation of this city is very good, as you, my lord, see; but the waters are very bad, and the ground barren. |
20 And he said: Bring me a new vessel, and put salt into it. And 21 when they had brought it, | he went out to the spring of the waters, and cast the salt into it, and said: Thus says the Lord: I have healed these waters, and there shall be no more in them
22 death or barrenness. | And the waters were healed unto this day, according to the word of Eliseus, which he spoke.
23 And he went up from thence to Bethel. And as he was going up by the way, little boys came out of the city and mocked him, saying: Go up, you bald head; go up, you bald head. |
24 And looking back, he saw them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord: and there came forth two bears out of the forest, and 25 tore of them two and forty boys. | And from thence he went to mount Carmel: and from thence he returned to Samaria.

3

1 War against the King of Moab And Joram the son of Achab reigned over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of
2 Josaphat king of Juda. And he reigned twelve years. | And he did evil before the Lord, but not like his father and his mother: for he took away the statues of Baal, which his father had made.
3 | Nevertheless he stuck to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin, nor did he depart from them.
4 Now Mesa, king of Moab, nourished many sheep: and he paid to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and a
5 hundred thousand rams with their fleeces. | And when Achab was dead, he broke the league which he had made with the king
6 of Israel. | And king Joram went out that day from Samaria,

2, 19-22: Perhaps the point of the story is Eliseus' power to heal.
2, 23-24: The point here may be Eliseus' power to punish those who do not respect the prophets as shown in 1, 14. Eliseus may have been bald or his tonsure formed part of his hallmark as a prophet. The Greeks and Romans also regarded baldness as undesirable.
3, 4-5: Moab refused to continue to pay tribute to Israel.

7 and mustered all Israel. | And he sent to Josaphat king of Juda, saying: The king of Moab is revolted from me; come with me against him to battle. And he answered: I will come up. He that is mine, is yours: my people are your people: and my horses 8 are your horses. | And he said: Which way shall we go up? But 9 he answered: By the desert of Edom. | So the king of Israel, and the king of Juda, and the king of Edom went: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey. And there was no water for the army, and for the beasts that followed them. | 10 And the king of Israel said: Alas, alas, alas, the Lord has gathered us three kings together, to deliver us into the hands of Moab!
11 And Josaphat said: Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, that we may beseech the Lord by him? And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered: Here is Eliseus the son of Saphat, 12 who poured water on the hands of Elias. | And Josaphat said:
The word of the Lord is with him. And the king of Israel, and Josaphat king of Juda, and the king of Edom went down to him.
13 | And Eliseus said to the king of Israel: What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and your mother. And the king of Israel said to him: Why has the Lord gathered together these three kings, to deliver them into the hands of 14 Moab? | And Eliseus said to him: As the Lord of hosts lives, in whose sight I stand, if I did not reverence the face of Josaphat king of Juda, I would not have hearkened to you, nor looked on you.

15 Eliseus Procures Water and Prophesies Victory But now bring me hither a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, 16 the hand of the Lord came upon him, and he said: | Thus says 17 the Lord: Make the channel of this torrent full of ditches. | For thus says the Lord: You shall not see wind, nor rain: and yet this channel shall be filled with waters. And you shall drink, 18 you and your families, and your beasts. | And this is a small thing in the sight of the Lord. Moreover he will deliver also 19 Moab into your hands. | And you shall destroy every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall cut down every fruitful tree, and shall stop up all the springs of waters: and every goodly field you shall cover with stones.

3, 11: The Oriental was accustomed to a servant or disciple pouring water on his hands rather than dipping them in a basin.

3, 15: The minstrel's music may have served to calm Eliseus after his heated words with the king of Israel. Music was part of the ritual as indicated in 1 Sm 10, 5.

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the sacrifices used to be offered, that, behold, water came by the way of Edom,
21 and the country was filled with water. | And all the Moabites hearing that the kings had come up to fight against them, gathered together all that were girded with a belt upon them, and
22 stood in the borders. | And they rose early in the morning, and the sun being now up, and shining upon the waters, the Moabites saw the waters over against them red, like blood, |
23 and they said: It is the blood of the sword: the kings have fought among themselves, and they have killed one another. Go
24 now, Moab, to the spoils. | And they went into the camp of Israel: but Israel rising up defeated Moab, who fled before
25 them. And they being conquerors, went and smote Moab. | And they destroyed the cities: and they filled every goodly field, every man casting his stone: and they stopped up all the springs of waters: and cut down all the trees that bore fruit, so that brick walls only remained: and the city was beset by the slingers, and a great part thereof destroyed.
26 And when the king of Moab saw this, to wit, that the enemies had prevailed, he took with him seven hundred men that drew the sword, to break in upon the king of Edom; but they could 27 not. | Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burned offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation in Israel; and presently they departed from him, and returned into their own country.

4

1 Miracles of Eliseus Now a certain woman of the wives of the prophets cried to Eliseus, saying: Your servant my husband is dead. And you know that your servant was one that feared God, and behold the creditor has come to take away my two
2 sons to serve him. | And Eliseus said to her: What will you have me to do for you? Tell me, what have you in your house?

3, 20: A sudden desert storm sent water from the plateau, where they were, down into the valley and filled the trenches (vv. 16-17).

3, 22: The mirage of red water in the trenches was due probably to the red sandstone in the area.

3, 27: Indignation in Israel: one of several disputed interpretations is that the sacrifice of the crown prince on the city wall to petition a victory from the Moabite god Chemosh encouraged the Moabites to repel the attackers. The Moabite Stone, inscribed by king Mesha, discovered in 1869, and now in the Louvre, Paris, omits the odious biblical scene. This stone contains the earliest mention of Yahweh outside the Bible.

4, 1-7: The wonder story of the multiplication of oil. For a similar miracle of Elias see 3 Kgs 17, 8-15.

And she answered: I your handmaid have nothing in my house
3 but a little oil, to anoint me. | And he said to her: Go, borrow
4 of all your neighbors empty vessels not a few. | And go in, and shut your door, when you are within, and your sons; and pour out thereof into all those vessels; and when they are full
5 take them away. | So the woman went, and shut the door upon her, and upon her sons. They brought her the vessels, and she
6 poured in. | And when the vessels were full, she said to her son: Bring me yet a vessel. And he answered: I have no more.
7 And the oil stood. | And she came, and told the man of God. And he said: Go, sell the oil, and pay your creditor; and you and your sons live of the rest.
8 And there was a day when Eliseus passed by Sunam. Now there was a great woman there, who detained him to eat bread; and as he passed often that way, he turned 9 into her house to eat bread. | And she said to her husband: I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who often
10 passes by us. | Let us therefore make him a little chamber, and put a little bed in it for him, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick, that when he comes to us, he may abide there. |
11 Now there was a certain day when he came and turned in to the 12 chamber and rested there. | And he said to Giezi his servant: Call this Sunamitess. And when he had called her, and she 13 stood before him, | he said to his servant: Say to her: Behold you have diligently served us in all things, what will you have me do for you? Have you any business, and will you that I speak to the king, or to the general of the army? And she answered: I
14 dwell in the midst of my own people. | And he said: What will she then that I do for her? And Giezi said: Do not ask, for she 15 has no son, and her husband is old. | Then he bid him call her.
16 And when she was called, and stood before the door, | he said to her: At this time, and this same hour, if life accompany, you shall have a son in your womb. But she answered: Do not, I beseech you, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your hand-
17 maid. | And the woman conceived, and brought forth a son in the time, and at the same hour, that Eliseus had said.
18 And the child grew. And on a certain day, when he went out 19 to his father to the reapers, | he said to his father: My head aches, my head aches. But he said to his servant: Take him, and
20 carry him to his mother. | And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, she set him on her knees until noon:
21 and then he died. | And she went up and laid him upon the bed

4, 13: I dwell in the midst of my own people: my clan will provide for me.

22 of the man of God, and shut the door; and going out, | she called her husband, and said: Send with me, I beseech you, one of your servants, and an ass that I may run to the man of God, 23 and come again. | And he said to her: Why do you go to him?
Today is neither new moon nor sabbath. She answered: I will 24 go. | And she saddled an ass, and commanded her servant:
Drive, and make haste, make no stay in going. And do that which I bid you.
25 So she went forward, and came to the man of God to mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her coming toward him, he said to Giezi his servant: Behold that Sunamitess. | 26 Go therefore to meet her, and say to her: Is it well with you, and with your husband, and with your son? And she answered:
27 Well. | And when she came to the man of God to the mount, she caught hold on his feet: and Giezi came to remove her. And the man of God said: Let her alone for her soul is in anguish, and the Lord has hidden it from me, and has not told me. | 28 And she said to him: Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say to you: Do not deceive me?

29 Eliseus Raises the Dead Child to Life Then he said to Giezi: Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If any man meet you, salute him not: and if any man salute you, answer him not: and lay my staff upon the face of 30 the child. | But the mother of the child said: As the Lord lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. He arose, therefore, and followed her.
31 But Giezi was gone before them and laid the staff upon the face of the child, and there was no voice nor sense; and he returned to meet him, and told him, saying: The child has not 32 risen. | Eliseus therefore went into the house: and behold the 33 child lay dead on his bed. | And going in he shut the door upon 34 him, and upon the child, and prayed to the Lord. | And he went up, and lay upon the child: and he put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he bowed himself upon him, and the child's flesh 35 grew warm. | Then he returned and walked in the house, once to and fro; and he went up, and lay upon him: and the child 36 gaped seven times, and opened his eyes. | And he called Giezi, and said to him: Call this Sunamitess. And she being called, 37 went in to him. And he said: Take up your son. | She came 4, 23: Holy persons were ordinarily visited on feast days.

4, 29: Oriental greetings are protracted affairs.
4, 29-35: The point seems to be that personal prayer is important, and not a magic staff. See 3 Kgs 17, 21 for similar gestures of Elias.

and fell at his feet, and worshiped upon the ground: and took up her son, and went out.

38 Eliseus Feeds the Famished People And Eliseus returned to Galgal. And there was a famine in the land, and the sons of the prophets dwelt before him. And he said to one of his servants: Set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of 39 the prophets. | And one went out into the field to gather wild herbs: and he found something like a wild vine, and gathered of it wild gourds of the field, and filled his mantle. And coming back, he shred them into the pot of pottage, for he knew not
40 what it was. | And they poured it out for their companions to eat: and when they had tasted of the pottage, they cried out, saying: Death is in the pot, O man of God. And they could
41 not eat thereof. | But he said: Bring some meal. And when they had brought it, he cast it into the pot, and said: Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was now no bitterness in the pot.

42 And a certain man came from Baalsalisa bringing to the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and new corn in his scrip. And he said: Give to the people, that they 43 may eat. ¶ And his servant answered him: How much is this, that I should set it before a hundred men? He said again: Give to the people, that they may eat. For thus says the Lord: They 44 shall eat, and there shall be left. | So he set it before them: and they ate. And there was left according to the word of the Lord.

5

1 Cure of Naaman, the Syrian Naaman, general of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable: for by him the Lord gave deliverance to Syria.
2 And he was a valiant man and rich, but a leper. | Now there had gone out robbers from Syria, and had led away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid, and she waited upon Naaman's
3 wife. | And she said to her mistress: I wish my master had been with the prophet that is in Samaria. He would certainly
4 have healed him of the leprosy which he has. | Then Naaman went in to his lord, and told him, saying: Thus and thus said
5 the girl from the land of Israel. | And the king of Syria said to 4, 38: Sons of the prophets: see 1 Sm 10, 5 ff.

5, 1: Leper: since he remained at court, it could not have been true leprosy.

5, 5: A rough estimate of the money mentioned is $80,000.

him: Go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thou-
6 sand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment. | And brought the letter to the king of Israel, in these words: When you shall receive this letter, know that I have sent to you Naaman my serv-
7 ant, that you may heal him of his leprosy. | And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his garments, and said: Am I God, to be able to kill and give life, that this man has sent to me to heal a man of his leprosy? Mark, and see how he seeks occasions against me.
8 And when Eliseus the man of God had heard this, to wit, that the king of Israel had rent his garments, he sent to him, saying: Why have you rent your garments? Let him come to me; and
9 let him know that there is a prophet in Israel. | So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and stood at the door of the 10 house of Eliseus. | And Eliseus sent a messenger to him, saying: Go, and wash seven times in the Jordan; and your flesh
11 shall recover health, and you shall be clean. | Naaman was angry and went away, saying: I thought he would have come out to me, and standing would have invoked the name of the Lord his God, and touched with his hand the place of the 12 leprosy, and healed me. | Are not the Abana, and the Pharphar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel, that I may wash in them, and be made clean? So as he turned and was
13 going away with indignation, | his servants came to him, and said to him: Father, if the prophet had bid you do some great thing, surely you should have done it. How much rather what
14 he now has said to you: Wash, and you shall be clean? | Then he went down, and washed in the Jordan seven times: according to the word of the man of God. And his flesh was restored, like
15 the flesh of a little child, and he was made clean. | And returning to the man of God with all his train, he came and stood before him, and said: In truth, I know there is no other God in all the earth, but only in Israel. I beseech you therefore take a
16 blessing of your servant. | But he answered: As the Lord lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And when he pressed
17 him, he still refused. | And Naaman said: As you will; but I beseech you, grant to me your servant, to take from hence two mules' burden of earth. For your servant will not henceforth 18 offer holocaust, or victim, to other gods, but to the Lord. | But there is only this, for which you shall entreat the Lord for your servant. When my master goes into the temple of Remmon, to 5, 13: Father: the title of an important officer in the kingdom.

5, 17: A declaration of belief in Yahweh.

and he cried out, and said: Alas, alas, alas, my lord, for this 6 same was borrowed. | And the man of God said: Where did it fall? And he showed him the place. Then he cut off a piece of 7 wood, and cast it in the water: and the iron swam. | And he said: Take it up. And he put out his hand and took it.
8 And the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying: In such and such a place let us lay 9 ambushes. | And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying: Beware that you pass not to such a place; for the Syrians 10 are there in ambush. | And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God had told him, and prevented him, and 11 looked well to himself there, not once nor twice. | And the heart of the king of Syria was troubled for this thing. And calling together his servants, he said: Why do you not tell me who it is 12 that betrays me to the king of Israel? | And one of his servants said: No one, my lord O king. But Eliseus the prophet that is in Israel, tells the king of Israel all the words, that you speak in 13 your privy chamber. | And he said to them: Go, and see where he is: that I may send, and take him. And they told him, saying: 14 Behold he is in Dothan. | Therefore he sent there horses and chariots, and the strength of an army: and they came by night, and beset the city.
15 · And the servant of the man of God rising early, went out, and saw an army round about the city, and horses and chariots.
And he told him, saying: Alas, alas, alas, my lord, what shall 16 we do? | But he answered: Fear not; for there are more with us
17 than with them. | And Eliseus prayed, and said: Lord, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the servant, and he saw: and behold the mountain was full of horses, 18 and chariots of fire round about Eliseus. | And the enemies came down to him, but Eliseus prayed to the Lord, saying: Strike, I beseech you, this people with blindness. And the Lord struck them with blindness, according to the word of Eliseus. | 19 And Eliseus said to them: This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me; and I will show you the man whom you seek.
20 So he led them into Samaria. | And when they had come into Samaria, Eliseus said: Lord, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes: and they saw 21 themselves to be in the midst of Samaria. | And the king of Israel said to Eliseus, when he saw them: My father, shall I kill 22 them? | And he said: You shall not kill them; for you did not take them with your sword, or your bow, that you may kill them. But set bread and water before them, that they may eat

6, 18: Blindness: temporary dim-sightedness.

worship, and he leans upon my hand: if I bow down in the temple of Remmon, when he bows down in the same place, that 19 the Lord pardon me your servant for this thing. | And he said to him: Go in peace. So he departed from him in the springtime of the earth.

20 Giezi Punished for Taking Naaman's Gifts But Giezi the servant of the man of God said: My master has spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving of him that which he brought. As the Lord lives, I will run after him, and take some 21 thing of him. | And Giezi followed after Naaman: and when he saw him running after him, he leaped down from his chariot to
22 meet him, and said: Is all well? | And he said: Well: my master has sent me to you, saying: Just now there have come to me from mount Ephraim, two young men of the sons of the prophets. Give them a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. |
23 And Naaman said: It is better that you take two talents. And he forced him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, and two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his serv-
24 ants; and they carried them before him. | And when he had come, and now it was the evening, he took them from their hands, and laid them up in the house, and sent the men away.
25 And they departed. | But he went in, and stood before his master. And Eliseus said: From where do you come, Giezi? He
26 answered: Your servant went nowhere. | But he said: Was not my heart present, when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? So now you have received money, and received garments, to buy oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen,
27 and menservants, and maidservants. | But the leprosy of Naaman shall also stick to you, and to your seed for ever. And he went out from him a leper as white as snow.

6

1 Other Miracles of Eliseus And the sons of the prophets said to Eliseus: Behold the place where we dwell with you is too
2 strait for us. | Let us go as far as the Jordan and take out of the wood every man a piece of timber, that we may build us
3 there a place to dwell in. And he said: Go. | And one of them said: But come you also with your servants. He answered: I will
4 come. | So he went with them. And when they had come to 5 the Jordan they cut down wood. | And it happened, as one was felling some timber, that the head of the axe fell into the water,

5, 27: Leper: not true leprosy since it was like that of Naaman in v. 1 above.

23 and drink, and go to their master. | And a great provision of meats was set before them, and they ate and drank. And he let them go: and they went away to their master. And the robbers of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 The Syrians Besiege Samaria And it came to pass after these things, that Benadad king of Syria gathered together all 25 his army, and went up, and besieged Samaria. | And there was a great famine in Samaria: and so long did the siege continue, till the head of an ass was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cabe of pigeons' dung, for five pieces of 26 silver. | And as the king of Israel was passing by the wall, a certain woman cried out to him, saying: Save me, my lord O 27 king. | And he said: If the Lord does not save you, how can I save you? Out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress? And the king said to her: What ails you? And she answered: | 28 This woman said to me: Give your son, that we may eat him 29 today, and we will eat my son tomorrow. | So we boiled my son, and ate him. And I said to her on the next day: Give your 30 son that we may eat him. And she has hidden her son. | When the king heard this, he rent his garments, and passed by upon the wall. And all the people saw the haircloth which he wore 31 within next to his flesh. | And the king said: May God do so and so to me, and may he add more, if the head of Eliseus the son of Saphat shall stand on him this day.
32 But Eliseus sat in his house, and the ancients sat with him.
So he sent a man before; and before that messenger came, he said to the ancients: Do you know that this son of a murderer has sent to cut off my head? Look then, when the messenger shall come, shut the door, and suffer him not to come in: for 33 behold the sound of his master's feet is behind him. | While he was yet speaking to them, the messenger appeared who was coming to him. And he said: Behold, so great an evil is from the Lord. What shall I look for more from the Lord?

7

1 Eliseus Prophesies Great Plenty And Eliseus said: Hear the word of the Lord: Thus says the Lord: Tomorrow about 6, 25: Cabe of pigeons' dung: one scholarly guess of this notoriously difficult expression is, "a pint of sparrow dung." There are many parallels in ancient and modern times of the exhorbitant price of worthless edibles during famines.

6, 31: Eliseus must have advocated resistance.

6, 33: What shall I look for more from the Lord?: Why confide in the Lord any more?

this time a bushel of fine flour shall be sold for a stater, and two 2 bushels of barley for a stater, in the gate of Samaria. | Then one of the lords, upon whose hand the king leaned, answering the man of God, said: If the Lord should make flood-gates in heaven, can that possibly be which you say? And he said: You shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat thereof.
3 Now there were four lepers, at the entering in of the gate; and they said one to another: What mean we to stay here till 4 we die? | If we will enter into the city, we shall die with the famine: and if we will remain here, we must also die. Come, therefore, and let us run over to the camp of the Syrians. If they spare us, we shall live: but if they kill us, we shall but
5 die. | So they arose in the evening, to go to the Syrian camp. And when they had come to the first part of the camp of the 6 Syrians, they found no man there. | For the Lord had made them hear in the camp of Syria the noise of chariots, and of horses, and of a very great army, and they said one to another: Behold the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Bethites, and of the Egyptians, and they have come upon us.
7 | Wherefore they arose, and fled away in the dark, and left their tents, and their horses and asses in the camp, and fled, desiring
8 to save their lives. | So when these lepers arrived at the edge of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drank. And they took from thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went, and hid it: and they came again, and went into another tent,
9 and carried from thence in like manner, and hid it. | Then they said one to another: We do not well; for this is a day of good tidings. If we hold our peace, and do not tell it till the morning, we shall be charged with a crime. Come, let us go and tell it in the king's court.
10 So they came to the gate of the city, and told them, saying: We went to the camp of the Syrians, and we found no man
11 there, but horses, and asses, tied, and the tents standing. | Then the guards of the gate went, and told it within the king's palace.
12 | And he arose in the night and said to his servants: I tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we suffer great famine, and therefore they have gone out of the camp, and lie hidden in the fields, saying: When they come out of the city we shall take them alive, and then we may get into the city.
13 | And one of his servants answered: Let us take the five horses that are remaining in the city (because there are no more in the whole multitude of Israel, for the rest are consumed), and let 14 us send and see. | They brought therefore two horses; and the king sent into the camp of the Syrians, saying: Go, and see. |
15 And they went after them as far as the Jordan; and behold all the way was full of garments, and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their fright. And the messengers returned and told the king.

16 The Unbelieving Lord Put to Death And the people going out pillaged the camp of the Syrians: and a bushel of fine flour was sold for a stater, and two bushels of barley for a stater,
17 according to the word of the Lord. | And the king appointed that lord on whose hand he leaned, to stand at the gate. And the people trod upon him in the entrance of the gate; and he died, as the man of God had said, when the king came down to him.
18 | And it came to pass according to the word of the man of God, which he spoke to the king, when he said: Two bushels of barley shall be for a stater, and a bushel of fine flour for a stater, at this very time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria. |
19 When that lord answered the man of God, and said: Although the Lord should make flood-gates in heaven, could this come to pass which you say? And he said to him: You shall see with 20 your eyes, and shall not eat thereof. | And so it fell out to him as it was foretold: and the people trod upon him in the gate, and he died.

8

1 Hazael Consults Eliseus And Eliseus spoke to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying: Arise and go, you and your household, and sojourn wheresoever you can dwell. For the Lord has called a famine, and it shall come upon the land
2 seven years. | And she arose, and did according to the word of the man of God. And going with her household, she so-
3 journed in the land of the Philistines many days. | And when the seven years were ended, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines and she went forth to speak to the king
4 for her house, and for her lands. | And the king talked with Giezi, the servant of the man of God, saying: Tell me all the
5 great things that Eliseus has done. | And when he was telling the king how he had raised one dead to life, the woman appeared, whose son he had restored to life, crying to the king for her house, and her lands. And Giezi said: My lord O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Eliseus raised to life.
6 | And the king asked the woman: and she told him. And the king appointed her an eunuch, saying: Restore her all that is hers, and all the revenues of the lands, from the day that she left the land, to this present.

8, 1-6: Reference to 4, 1-37.

7 Eliseus also came to Damascus; and Benadad king of Syria was sick: and they told him, saying: The man of God has come
8 hither. | And the king said to Hazael: Take with you presents, and go to meet the man of God, and consult the Lord by him, 9 saying: Can I recover of this my illness? | And Hazael went to meet him, taking with him presents, and all the good things of Damascus, the burdens of forty camels. And when he stood before him, he said: Your son Benadad the king of Syria has 10 sent me to you, saying: Can I recover of this my illness? | And Eliseus said to him: Go tell him: You shall recover. But the
11 Lord has shown me that he shall surely die. | And he stood with him, and was troubled so far as to blush: and the man of 12 God wept. | And Hazael said to him: Why does my lord weep? And he said: Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel. Their strong cities you will burn with fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword, and you will
13 dash their children, and rip up their pregnant women. | And Hazael said: But what am I your servant a dog that I should do this great thing? And Eliseus said: The Lord has shown me that
14 you shall be king of Syria. | And when he had departed from Eliseus, he came to his master, who said to him: What said Eliseus to you? And he answered: He told me: You shall re-
15 cover. | And on the next day he took a blanket, and poured water on it, and spread it upon his face. And he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 The Revolt of Edom In the fifth year of Joram son of Achab king of Israel, and of Josaphat king of Juda, reigned
17 Joram son of Josaphat king of Juda. | He was two and thirty years old when he began to reign: and he reigned eight years in 18 Jerusalem. | And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Achab had walked (for the daughter of Achab was his wife): and he did that which was evil in the sight of 19 the Lord. | But the Lord would not destroy Juda, for David his servant's sake: as he had promised him, to give him a light, and
20 to his children always. | In his days Edom revolted, from being 21 under Juda, and made themselves a king. | And Joram came to Seira, and all the chariots with him: and he arose in the night, and defeated the Edomites that had surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots, but the people fled into their tents. |
22 So Edom revolted from being under Juda, unto this day. Then 23 Lobna also revolted at the same time. | But the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book
24 of the words of the days of the kings of Juda? | And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with them in the city of David: and Ochozias his son reigned in his stead.

25 The Reign of Ochozias In the twelfth year of Joram son of Achab king of Israel, reigned Ochozias son of Joram king of 26 Juda. | Ochozias was two and twenty years old when he began to reign: and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. The name of his
27 mother was Athalia the daughter of Amri king of Israel. | And he walked in the ways of the house of Achab: and he did evil before the Lord, as did the house of Achab; for he was the son
28 in-law of the house of Achab. | He went also with Joram son of Achab, to fight against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth
29 Galaad: and the Syrians wounded Joram. | And he went back to be healed, in Jezrahel: because the Syrians had wounded him in Ramoth when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ochozias the son of Joram king of Juda, went down to visit Joram the son of Achab in Jezrahel: because he was sick there

9

1 Jehu Anointed King of Israel And Eliseus the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him: Gird up your loins, and take this little bottle of oil in your hand, and go
2 to Ramoth Galaad. | And when you have come there, you shall see Jehu the son of Josaphat the son of Namsi. And going in you shall make him rise up from among his brethren, and
3 carry him into an inner chamber. | Then taking the little bottle of oil, you shall pour it on his head, and shall say: Thus says the Lord: I have anointed you king over Israel. And you shall
4 open the door and flee, and shall not stay there. | So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went away to Ramoth Galaad
5 | and went in there: and behold the captains of the army were sitting, and he said: I have a word to you, O prince. And Jehu said: Unto whom of us all? And he said: To you, O prince.
6 And he arose, and went into the chamber. And he poured the oil upon his head, and said: Thus says the Lord God of Israel I have anointed you king over Israel, the people of the Lord.
7 And you shall cut off the house of Achab your master: and I will revenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the Lord at the hand of Jezabel; 8 and I will destroy all the house of Achab, and I will cut off from Achab every male descendant, and him that is shut up, and 9, 1ff.: God inspires Eliseus to have the popular general, Jehu, anointed king.

9, 8: And him that is shut up . . . Israel: the slave and the freeman.

9 the meanest in Israel. | And I will make the house of Achab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, and like the house 10 of Baasa the son of Ahias. | And the dogs shall eat Jezabel in the field of Jezrahel: and there shall be no one to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.
11 Then Jehu went forth to the servants of his lord. And they said to him: Are all things well? Why came this mad man to you? And he said to them: You know the man, and what he 12 said. | But they answered: It is false; but rather do you tell us. And he said to them: Thus and thus did he speak to me.
And he said: Thus says the Lord: I have anointed you king 13 over Israel. | Then they made haste and taking every man his garment laid it under his feet, after the manner of a judgment seat. And they sounded the trumpet, and said: Jehu is king.
14 So Jehu the son of Josaphat the son of Namsi conspired against Joram. Now Joram had besieged Ramoth Galaad, he 15 and all Israel, fighting with Hazael king of Syria: | and had returned to be healed in Jezrahel of his wounds, for the Syrians had wounded him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.
And Jehu said: If it please you, let no man go forth or flee out 16 of the city, lest he go, and tell in Jezrahel. | And he got up, and went into Jezrahel: for Joram was sick there, and Ochozias 17 king of Juda had come down to visit Joram. | The watchmen therefore, that stood upon the tower of Jezrahel, saw the troop of Jehu coming, and said: I see a troop. And Joram said: Take a chariot, and send to meet them, and let him that goes say: Is all 18 well? | So there went one in a chariot to meet him, and said:
Thus says the king: Are all things peaceable? And Jehu said:
What have you to do with peace? Go behind and follow me.
And the watchman told, saying: The messenger came to them;
19 but he returns not. | And he sent a second chariot of horses.
And he came to them, and said: Thus says the king: Is there peace? And Jehu said: What have you to do with peace? Pass, 20 and follow me. | And the watchman told, saying: He came even to them, but returns not. And the driving is like the driving 21 of Jehu the son of Namsi, for he drives furiously. | And Joram said: Make ready the chariot. And they made ready his chariot.
And Joram king of Israel, and Ochozias king of Juda went out, each in his own chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and 22 met him in the field of Naboth the Jezrahelite. | And when Joram saw Jehu, he said: Is there peace, Jehu? And he answered: What peace can there be, so long as the fornications of Jezabel your mother, and her many sorceries are in their vigor?
23 And Joram turned his hand, and fleeing said to Ochozias:
There is treachery, Ochozias.

24 Jehu Kills Joram and Ochozias But Jehu bent his bow with his hand, and shot Joram between the shoulders. And the arrow went out through his heart: and immediately he fell in 25 his chariot. | And Jehu said to Badacer his captain: Take him, and cast him into the field of Naboth the Jezrahelite: for I remember when I and you sitting in a chariot followed Achab this man's father, that the Lord laid this burden upon him,
26 saying: | If I do not requite you in this field, says the Lord, for the blood of Naboth, and for the blood of his children, which I saw yesterday, says the Lord. So now take him, and cast him into the field, according to the word of the Lord.
27 But Ochozias king of Juda seeing this, fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu pursued him, and said: Strike him also in his chariot. And they struck him in the going up to Gaver, which is by Jeblaam. And he fled into Mageddo, and
28 died there. | And his servants laid him upon his chariot, and carried him to Jerusalem: and they buried him in his sepulcher
29 with his fathers in the city of David. | In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Achab, Ochozias reigned over Juda.

30 Death of Jezabel And Jehu came into Jezrahel; but Jezabel hearing of his coming in, painted her face with stibic stone, and 31 adorned her head, and looked out of a window | at Jehu coming in at the gate, and said: Can there be peace for Zambri, that
32 has killed his master? | And Jehu lifted up his face to the window, and said: Who is this? And two or three eunuchs bowed
33 down to him. | And he said to them: Throw her down headlong. And they threw her down, and the wall was sprinkled with her blood, and the hoofs of the horses trod upon her. |
34 And when he had come in, to eat, and to drink, he said: Go, and see after that cursed woman, and bury her: because she is a
35 king's daughter. | And when they went to bury her, they found nothing but the skull, and the feet, and the extremities of her
36 hands. | And coming back they told him. And Jehu said: It is the word of the Lord, which he spoke by his servant Elias the

---

9, 24-26: Jehu fulfills substantially the prophecy (3 Kgs 21, 19-29) which was transferred to Joram, son of Achab, who, with the aid of his wife Jezabel, murdered Naboth.

9, 30: Jezabel's attitude has been compared to "Show me, my women, like a queen; go fetch my best attires" (Anthony and Cleopatra, V, 2).

9, 31: Jezabel mockingly compares Jehu to Captain Zambri (or "Zimri") who took the throne through regicide (3 Kgs 16, 9ff). See John Dryden's Satire on Zimri.

9, 34: Jezabel was the daughter of the king of Tyre.

9, 36: See the substantial fulfillment of Elias' prophecy in 3 Kgs 21, 23.

Thesbite, saying: In the field of Jezrahel the dogs shall eat the 37 flesh of Jezabel, | and the flesh of Jezabel shall be as dung upon the face of the earth in the field of Jezrahel, so that they who pass by shall say: Is this that same Jezabel?

10

1 Jehu Destroys the House of Achab And Achab had seventy sons in Samaria; so Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the chief men of the city, and to the ancients, and to them
2 that brought up Achab's children, saying: | As soon as you receive these letters, you that have your master's sons, and char-
3 iots, and horses, and fenced cities, and armor, | choose the best, and him that shall please you most of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for the house of your master.
4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said: Behold two kings could not stand before him, and how shall we be able to resist?
5 | Therefore the overseers of the house, and the rulers of the city, and the ancients, and the tutors sent to Jehu, saying: We are your servants, whatsoever you shall command us we will do; neither will we make us a king: do you all that pleases you.
6 | And he wrote letters the second time to them, saying: If you be mine and will obey me, take the heads of the sons of your master, and come to me to Jezrahel by tomorrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy men, were brought up with the 7 chief men of the city. | And when the letters came to them, they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put 8 their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezrahel. | And a messenger came, and told him, saying: They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said: Lay them in two heaps 9 by the entering in of the gate until the morning. | And when it was light, he went out, and standing said to all the people: You are just: if I conspired against my master, and slew him, who 10 has slain all these? | See therefore now that there has not fallen to the ground any of the words of the Lord, which the Lord spoke concerning the house of Achab, and the Lord has done 11 that which he spoke in the hand of his servant Elias. | So Jehu slew all that were left of the house of Achab in Jezrahel, and all his chief men, and his friends, and his priests, till there were no remains left of him.

12 Jehu Abolishes the Worship of Baal And he arose, and went to Samaria. And when he came to the shepherds' cabin 13 in the way, | he met with the brethren of Ochozias king of Juda, and he said to them: Who are you? And they answered:

We are the brethren of Ochozias, and have come down to salute 14 the sons of the king, and the sons of the queen. | And he said: Take them alive. And they took them alive, and killed them at the pit by the cabin, two and forty men, and he left not any of 15 them. And when he departed from there, he found Jonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him, and he blessed him.
And he said to him: Is your heart right as my heart is with your heart? And Jonadab said: It is. If it be, said he, give me your hand. He gave him his hand. And he lifted him up to him into 16 the chariot, | and he said to him: Come with me, and see my 17 zeal for the Lord. So he made him ride in his chariot, | and brought him into Samaria. And he slew all that were left of Achab in Samaria, to a man, according to the word of the Lord, which he spoke by Elias.

18 And Jehu gathered together all the people, and said to them:
Achab worshiped Baal a little; but I will worship him more. | 19 Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, and all his servants, and all his priests: let none be wanting, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal. Whosoever shall be wanting shall not live. Now Jehu did this craftily, that he might destroy the 20 worshipers of Baal. | And he said: Proclaim a festival for Baal.
21 And he called, | and he sent into all the borders of Israel, and all the servants of Baal came: there was not one left that did not come. And they went into the temple of Baal: and the house of 22 Baal was filled, from one end to the other. | And he said to them that were over the wardrobe: Bring forth garments for all the servants of Baal. And they brought them forth garments. | 23 And Jehu and Jonadab the son of Rechab went to the temple of Baal, and said to the worshipers of Baal: Search, and see that there be not any with you of the servants of the Lord, but that 24 there be the servants of Baal only. | And they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. But Jehu had prepared fourscore men without, and said to them: If any of the men escape, whom I have brought into your hands, he that lets him go shall answer 25 life for life. | And it came to pass, when the burnt offering was ended, that Jehu commanded his soldiers and captains, saying: Go in, and kill them. Let none escape. And the soldiers and captains slew them with the edge of the sword, and cast them 26 out. And they went into the city of the temple of Baal, | and 27 brought the statue out of Baal's temple, and burned it, | and broke it in pieces. They destroyed also the temple of Baal, and made a jakes in its place unto this day.

28.29 So Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel: | But yet he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin, nor did he forsake the golden calves that were in

30 Bethel and Dan. | And the Lord said to Jehu: Because you have diligently executed that which was right and pleasing in my eyes, and have done to the house of Achab according to all that was in my heart, your children shall sit upon the throne of
31 Israel to the fourth generation. | But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the Lord the God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who had made Israel to sin.
32 In those days the Lord began to be weary of Israel: and 33 Hazael ravaged them in all the coasts of Israel. | From the Jordan eastward, all the land of Galaad, and Gad, and Ruben, and Manasses, from Aroer, which is upon the torrent Arnon,
34 and Galaad, and Basan. | But the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and his strength, are they not written in the
35 book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel? | And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria: and
36 Joachaz his son reigned in his stead. | And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel, in Samaria, was eight and twenty years.

11

1 Athalia's Usurpation and Tyranny And Athalia, the mother of Ochozias, seeing that her son was dead, arose, and
2 slew all the royal seed. | But Josaba the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ochozias, took Joas the son of Ochozias: and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, out of the bedchamber with his nurse: and hid him from the face of Athalia,
3 so that he was not slain. | And he was with her six years, hidden in the house of the Lord, and Athalia reigned over the land. |
4 And in the seventh year Joiada sent, and taking the centurions and the soldiers, brought them in to him into the temple of the Lord, and made a covenant with them. And taking an oath of them in the house of the Lord, he showed them the king's son. |
5 And he commanded them, saying: This is the thing that you
6 must do: | Let a third part of you go in on the sabbath, and keep the watch of the king's house. And let a third part be at the gate of Sur. And let a third part be at the gate behind the dwelling of the shieldbearers: and you all shall keep the watch
7 of the house of Messa. | But let two parts of you, all that go forth on the sabbath, keep the watch of the house of the Lord
8 about the king. | And you shall compass him round about, having weapons in your hands. And if any man shall enter the precinct of the temple, let him be slain: and you shall be with the king, coming in and going out.

11, 1: Athalia was the daughter of Jezabel. See 3 Kgs 2, 19 n. Racine's Athalie borrows only the essential facts from ch. 11 and 2 Par 23, its parallel passage.

9 And the centurions did according to all things that Joiada the priest had commanded them: and taking every one their men, that went in on the sabbath, with them that went out on 10 the sabbath, came to Joiada the priest. | And he gave them the spears, and the arms of king David, which were in the house of 11 the Lord. | And they stood, having every one their weapons in their hands, from the right side of the temple unto the left side of the altar, and of the temple, about the king.

12 Joas Is Made King And he brought forth the king's son, and put the diadem upon him, and the testimony: and they made him king, and anointed him. And clapping their hands,
13 they said: God save the king. | And Athalia heard the noise of the people running: and going in to the people into the temple
14 of the Lord, | she saw the king standing upon a tribunal, as the manner was, and the singers, and the trumpets near him, and all the people of the land rejoicing, and sounding the trumpets: and she rent her garments, and cried: A conspiracy, a con-
15 spiracy. | But Joiada commanded the centurions that were over the army, and said to them: Have her forth without the precinct of the temple, and whosoever shall follow her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest had said: Let her not be
16 slain in the temple of the Lord. | And they laid hands on her, and thrust her out by the way by which the horses go in, by the palace, and she was slain there.
17 And Joiada made a covenant between the Lord, and the king, and the people, that they should be the people of the Lord, and 18 between the king and the people. | And all the people of the land went into the temple of Baal, and broke down his altars, and his images they broke in pieces thoroughly. They slew also Mathan the priest of Baal before the altar. And the priest set
19 guards in the house of the Lord. | And he took the centurions, and the bands of the Cerethi and the Phelethi, and all the people of the land, and they brought the king from the house of the Lord: and they came by the way of the gate of the shieldbearers
20 into the palace, and he sat on the throne of the kings. | And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet: but 21 Athalia was slain with the sword in the king's house. | Now Joas was seven years old, when he began to reign.

12

1 The Temple Is Repaired under Joas' Reign In the seventh year of Jehu, Joas began to reign: and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. The name of his mother was Sebia of 2 Bersabee. | And Joas did that which was right before the Lord

3 all the days that Joiada the priest taught him. | But yet he took not away the high places: for the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

4 And Joas said to the priests: All the money of the sanctified things, which is brought into the temple of the Lord by those that pass, which is offered for the price of a soul, and which of their own accord, and of their own free heart they bring into 5 the temple of the Lord: | let the priests take it according to their order, and repair the house, wheresoever they shall see any
6 thing that needs repairing. | Now till the three and twentieth year of king Joas, the priests did not make the repairs of the 7 temple. | And king Joas called Joiada the high priest and the priests, saying to them: Why do you not repair the temple? Take you therefore money no more according to your order; but
8 restore it for the repairing of the temple. | And the priests were forbidden to take any more money of the people, and to make
9 the repairs of the house. | And Joiada the high priest took a chest and bored a hole in the top, and set it by the altar at the right hand of them that came into the house of the Lord: and the priests that kept the doors put therein all the money that was brought to the temple of the Lord.

10 And when they saw that there was very much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and poured it out, and counted the money that was found in the house of 11 the Lord. | And they gave it out by number and measure into the hands of them that were over the builders of the house of the Lord. And they laid it out to the carpenters and the
12 masons that wrought in the house of the Lord, | and made the repairs: and to them that cut stones, and to buy timber, and stones, to be hewed, that the repairs of the house of the Lord might be completely finished, and wheresoever there was need
13 of expenses to uphold the house. | But there were not made of the same money for the temple of the Lord, bowls, or flesh-hooks, or censers, or trumpets, or any vessel of gold and silver,
14 of the money that was brought into the temple of the Lord. | For it was given to them that did the work, that the temple of the 15 Lord might be repaired. | And they reckoned not with the men that received the money to distribute it to the workmen: but
16 they bestowed it faithfully. | But the money for trespass, and the money for sins, they brought not into the temple of the Lord, because it was for the priests.

17 Joas Prevents an Attack on Jerusalem Then Hazael, king of Syria went up and fought against Geth, and took it and set 18 his face to go up to Jerusalem. | Wherefore Joas king of Juda took all the sanctified things, which Josaphat, and Joram, and Ochozias, his fathers the kings of Juda had dedicated to holy uses, and which he himself had offered: and all the silver that could be found in the treasures of the temple of the Lord, and in the king's palace: and sent it to Hazael king of Syria. And he went off from Jerusalem.

19 Joas Slain by His Servants And the rest of the acts of Joas, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of 20 the words of the days of the kings of Juda? | And his servants arose, and conspired among themselves, and slew Joas, in the 21 house of Mello in the descent of Sella. | For Josachar the son of Semaath, and Jozabad the son of Somer his servant struck him; and he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amasias his son reigned in his stead.

13

1 The Reign of Joachaz In the three and twentieth year of Joas son of Ochozias king of Juda, Joachaz the son of Jehu
2 reigned over Israel in Samaria, seventeen years. | And he did evil before the Lord, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin: and he departed not
3 from them. | And the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael the king of Syria, and into the hand of Benadad the son of Hazael, all
4 days. | But Joachaz besought the face of the Lord; and the Lord heard him, for he saw the distress of Israel, because the 5 king of Syria had oppressed them. And the Lord gave Israel a savior: and they were delivered out of the hand of the king of Syria. And the children of Israel dwelt in their pavilions as 6 yesterday and the day before. | But yet they departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin, but walked in
7 them: and there still remained a grove also in Samaria. | And Joachaz had no more left of the people than fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen: for the king of Syria had slain them, and had brought them low as dust by
8 thrashing in the barnfloor. | But the rest of the acts of Joachaz, and all that he did, and his valor, are they not written in the 9 book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel? | And Joachaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria: and Joas his son reigned in his stead.

10 In the seven and thirtieth year of Joas king of Juda, Joas the son of Joachaz reigned over Israel in Samaria sixteen years. | 11 And he did that which is evil in the sight of the Lord. He departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, 12 who made Israel to sin, but he walked in them. | But the rest of the acts of Joas, and all that he did, and his valor wherewith he fought against Amasias king of Juda, are they not written in 13 the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel? | And Joas slept with his fathers: and Jeroboam sat upon his throne.

But Joas was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 Eliseus Dies Now Eliseus was sick of the illness whereof he died. And Joas king of Israel went down to him, and wept before him, and said: O my father, my father, the chariot of 15 Israel and the guider thereof. | And Eliseus said to him: Bring a bow and arrows. And when he had brought him a bow, and 16 arrows, | he said to the king of Israel: Put your hand upon the bow. And when he had put his hand, Eliseus put his hands over 17 the king's hands, | and said: Open the window to the east.
And when he had opened it, Eliseus said: Shoot an arrow. And he shot. And Eliseus said: The arrow of the Lord's deliverance, and the arrow of the deliverance from Syria. And you shall 18 strike the Syrians in Aphec, till you consume them. | And he said: Take the arrows. And when he had taken them, he said to him: Strike with an arrow upon the ground. And he struck 19 three times and stood still. | And the man of God was angry with him, and said: If you had smitten five or six or seven times, you would have smitten Syria even to utter destruction; but 20 now three times shall you smite it. | And Eliseus died, and they buried him. And the rovers from Moab came into the land the 21 same year. | And some that were burying a man, saw the rovers, and cast the body into the sepulcher of Eliseus. And when it had touched the bones of Eliseus, the man came to life, and stood upon his feet.
22 Now Hazael king of Syria afflicted Israel all the days of 13, 14: Chariot of Israel and the guider thereof: see its explanation in 2, 12 n.

13, 16: Eliseus put his hands over the king's hands: to transfer his spirit.

13, 19: Since he merely struck three times, only a small amount of his spirit was transferred to the king.

13, 21: The graves were ordinarily scooped out of the side of hills and a stone rolled over the entrance. A dead body happened to be hurriedly thrown in the grave of Eliseus. The story has some connection with the primitive belief that dead bones retain for a while the supernatural power which the dead person had when alive. This may serve as a biblical foundation for the veneration of the relics of the saints.

23 Joachaz. | And the Lord had mercy on them, and returned to them because of his covenant, which he had made with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob. And he would not destroy them, nor
24 utterly cast them away, unto this present time. | And Hazael king of Syria died, and Benadad his son reigned in his stead. |
25 Now Joas the son of Joachaz, took the cities out of the hand of Benadad, the son of Hazael, which he had taken out of the hand of Joachaz his father by war. Three times did Joas beat him, and he restored the cities to Israel.

14

1 Amasias Reigns in Juda In the second year of Joas son of Joachaz, king of Israel, reigned Amasias son of Joas king of 2 Juda. | He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign: and nine and twenty years he reigned in Jerusalem. The
3 name of his mother was Joadan of Jerusalem. | And he did that which was right before the Lord, but yet not like David his father. He did according to all things that Joas his father did. |
4 But this only, that he took not away the high places: for yet the people sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. |
5 And when he had possession of the kingdom, he put his serv-
6 ants to death that had slain the king his father. | But the children of the murderers he did not put to death, according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the Lord commanded, saying: The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for
7 the fathers: but every man shall die for his own sins. | He slew of Edom in the valley of the Saltpits ten thousand men, and took the rock by war, and called the name thereof Jectehel, unto this day.

8 Then Amasias sent messengers to Joas son of Joachaz, son of Jehu king of Israel, saying: Come let us see one another. |
9 And Joas king of Israel sent again to Amasias king of Juda, saying: A thistle of Libanus sent to a cedar tree, which is in Libanus, saying: Give your daughter to my son to wife. And the beasts of the forest, that are in Libanus, passed and trod down 10 the thistle. | You have beaten and prevailed over Edom, and your heart has lifted you up: be content with the glory, and sit at home. Why do you provoke evil, that you should fall, and
11 Juda with you? | But Amasias did not rest satisfied. So Joas

14, 8-14: Amasias of Juda is so elated about his victory over Edom that he challenges Joachaz of Israel (v. 8). The latter answers in a fable bristling with tranquil haughtiness. Amasias is the weak and pretentious thistle; Joachaz is the fearless cedar (v. 9) who defeats Amasias (vv. 10-14). The only other fable in the Bible is Jgs 9, 8-15.

king of Israel went up; and he and Amasias king of Juda saw one another in Bethsames a town in Juda.

12 Amasias Is Defeated And Juda was put to the worst be-13 fore Israel: and they fled every man to their dwellings. | But Joas king of Israel took Amasias, king of Juda, the son of Joas, the son of Ochozias, in Bethsames; and brought him into Jerusalem. And he broke down the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim to the gate of the corner, four hundred
14 cubits. | And he took all the gold, and silver, and all the vessels, that were found in the house of the Lord, and in the king's treasures, and hostages: and returned to Samaria.

15 But the rest of the acts of Joas, which he did, and his valor, wherewith he fought against Amasias king of Juda, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings
16 of Israel? | And Joas slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, with the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son reigned
17 in his stead. | And Amasias the son of Joas king of Juda lived, after the death of Joas son of Joachaz king of Israel fifteen
18 years. | And the rest of the acts of Amasias, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Juda? |
19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachis. And they sent after him to Lachis; and killed him
20 there. | And they brought him away upon horses: and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. |
21 And all the people of Juda took Azarias, who was sixteen years
22 old, and made him king instead of his father Amasias. | He built Elath, and restored it to Juda, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 Reign of the Second Jeroboam In the fifteenth year of Amasias son of Joas king of Juda, reigned Jeroboam the son of 24 Joas king of Israel in Samaria, one and forty years. | And he did that which was evil before the Lord. He departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin. |
25 He restored the borders of Israel from the entrance of Emath, unto the sea of the wilderness, according to the word of the Lord the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonas the son of Amathi, the prophet, who was of Geth, which is in 26 Opher. | For the Lord saw the affliction of Israel that it was exceeding bitter, and that they were consumed even to them that were shut up in prison, and the lowest persons, and that 14, 23-29: Jeroboam II was one of Israel's greatest kings whose kingdom rivaled Solomon's in its northern and eastern extensions.

27 there was no one to help Israel. | And the Lord did not say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but 28 he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joas. | But the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his valor, wherewith he fought, and how he restored Damascus, and Emath to Juda in Israel, are they not written in the book 29 of the words of the days of the kings of Israel? | And Jeroboam slept with his fathers the kings of Israel, and Zacharias his son reigned in his stead.

15

1 Azarias and Joatham Kings of Juda In the seven and twentieth year of Jeroboam, king of Israel, reigned Azarias son 2 of Amasias, king of Juda. | He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem.
3 The name of his mother was Jechelia of Jerusalem. | And he did that which was pleasing before the Lord, according to all 4 that his father Amasias had done. | But the high places he did not destroy: for the people sacrificed and burned incense in the 5 high places. | And the Lord struck the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and he dwelt in a free house apart: but Joatham the king's son governed the palace, and 6 judged the people of the land. | And the rest of the acts of Azarias, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of 7 the words of the days of the kings of Juda? | And Azarias slept with his fathers: and they buried him with his ancestors in the city of David. And Joatham his son reigned in his stead.

8 Zacharias Reigns in Israel In the eight and thirtieth year of Azarias king of Juda, reigned Zacharias son of Jeroboam 9 over Israel in Samaria six months. | And he did that which is evil before the Lord, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel 10 to sin. | And Sellum the son of Jabes conspired against him; and struck him publicly; and killed him; and reigned in his 11 place. | Now the rest of the acts of Zacharias, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of 12 Israel? | This was the word of the Lord, which he spoke to Jehu, saying: Your children to the fourth generation shall sit upon the throne of Israel. And so it came to pass.

13 Sellum Succeeds Zacharias Sellum the son of Jabes began 15, 5: According to 2 Par 26, 16-21, he was struck with real leprosy while offering sacrifice.

to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Azarias king of Juda:
14 and reigned one month in Samaria. | And Manahem the son of Gadi went up from Thersa. And he came into Samaria; and struck Sellum the son of Jabes in Samaria; and slew him; and 15 reigned in his stead. | And the rest of the acts of Sellum, and his conspiracy, which he made, are they not written in the book 16 of the words of the days of the kings of Israel? | Then Manahem destroyed Thapsa and all that were in it, and the borders thereof from Thersa, because they would not open to him. And he slew all the women thereof that were with child, and ripped them up.

17 Manahem, Phaceia and Phacee In the nine and thirtieth year of Azarias king of Juda, reigned Manahem son of Gadi 18 over Israel ten years in Samaria. | And he did that which was evil before the Lord: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam 19 the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin, all his days. | And Phul king of the Assyrians came into the land: and Manahem gave Phul a thousand talents of silver, to aid him and to 20 establish him in the kingdom. | And Manahem laid a tax upon Israel, on all that were mighty and rich, to give the king of the Assyrians, each man fifty sicles of silver. So the king of the 21 Assyrians turned back, and did not stay in the land. | And the rest of the acts of Manahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of 22 Israel? | And Manahem slept with his fathers: and Phaceia his son reigned in his stead.
23 In the fiftieth year of Azarias king of Juda reigned Phaceia 24 the son of Manahem over Israel in Samaria two years. | And he did that which was evil before the Lord: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel 25 to sin. | And Phacee the son of Romelia, his captain, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the tower of the king's house, near Argob, and near Arie: and with him fifty men of the sons of the Galaaditæ, and he slew him and reigned 26 in his stead. | And the rest of the acts of Phaceia, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?
27 In the two and fiftieth year of Azarias king of Juda reigned Phacee the son of Romelia over Israel in Samaria twenty years. |
28 And he did that which was evil before the Lord: he departed not 15, 19-22: Phul: or Pul, the personal name of the Assyrian monarch Tiglath Pileser III (his throne name), made the northern kingdom of Israel pay tribute.

from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel
29 to sin. | In the days of Phacee king of Israel came Theglathphalasar king of Assyria, and took Aion, and Abel Domum Maacha, and Janoe, and Cedes, and Asor, and Galaad, and Galilee, and all the land of Nephtali: and carried them captives 30 into Assyria. | Now Osee son of Ela conspired, and formed a plot against Phacee the son of Romelia; and struck him; and slew him; and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of 31 Joatham the son of Ozias. | But the rest of the acts of Phacee and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

32 Reign of Joatham In the second year of Phacee the son of Romelia king of Israel reigned Joatham son of Ozias king of 33 Juda. | He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. The name of 34 his mother was Jerusa, the daughter of Sadoc. | And he did that which was right before the Lord: according to all that 35 his father Ozias had done, so did he. | But the high places he took not away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the highest gate of the house of the 36 Lord. | But the rest of the acts of Joatham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the 37 kings of Juda? | In those days, the Lord began to send into Juda Rasin king of Syria and Phacee the son of Romelia. | 38 And Joatham slept with his fathers, and was buried with them in the city of David his father: and Achaz his son reigned in his stead.

16

1 Achaz' Wicked Reign In the seventeenth year of Phacee the son of Romelia, reigned Achaz the son of Joatham king of 2 Juda. | Achaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not that which was pleasing in the sight of the Lord his God, as David his 3 father. | But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. Moreover he consecrated also his son, making him pass through the fire according to the idols of the nations: which the Lord de-4 stroyed before the children of Israel. | He sacrificed also and 15, 29: Theglathphalasar: the inscription of Tiglath Pileser III fills in much of the background history of chs. 15—16.

15, 35: Joatham, known as a great builder (2 Par 27, 4), constructed the third entrance to the temple.

16, 3: According to the parallel passage, 2 Par 28, 3, king Achaz resorted to the pagan practice of sacrificing his first-born son.

burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Then Rasin king of Syria, and Phacee son of Romelia king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to fight. And they besieged
6 Achaz; but were not able to overcome him. | At that time Rasin king of Syria restored Aila to Syria, and drove the men of Juda out of Aila: and the Edomites came into Aila, and dwelt there
7 unto this day. | And Achaz sent messengers to Theglathphalasar king of the Assyrians, saying: I am your servant, and your son. Come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who are risen up together
8 against me. | And when he had gathered together the silver and gold that could be found in the house of the Lord, and in the king's treasures, he sent it for a present to the king of the 9 Assyrians. | And he agreed to his desire: for the king of the Assyrians went up against Damascus, and laid it waste. And he carried away the inhabitants thereof to Cyrene: but Rasin he slew.

10 Achaz Sacrifices on a New Altar And king Achaz went to Damascus to meet Theglathphalasar king of the Assyrians. And when he had seen the altar of Damascus, king Achaz sent to Urias the priest a pattern of it, and its likeness according to 11 all the work thereof. | And Urias the priest built an altar according to all that king Achaz had commanded from Damascus. So did Urias the priest, until king Achaz came from 12 Damascus. | And when the king came from Damascus, he saw the altar and worshiped it: and went up and offered holocausts,
13 and his own sacrifice. | And offered libations, and poured the blood of the peace offerings, which he had offered upon the
14 altar. | But the altar of brass that was before the Lord, he removed from the face of the temple, and from the place of the altar, and from the place of the temple of the Lord: and he
15 set it at the side of the altar toward the north. | And king Achaz commanded Urias the priest, saying: Upon the great altar offer the morning holocaust, and the evening sacrifice, and the king's holocaust, and his sacrifice, and the holocaust of the whole people of the land, and their sacrifices, and their libations. And all the blood of the holocaust, and all the blood of the victim you shall pour out upon it: but the altar of brass
16 shall be ready at my pleasure. | So Urias the priest did according to all that king Achaz had commanded him.

16, 10: The altar of Damascus: scholars generally believe that it was an Assyrian altar. See 2 Par 28, 23.

17 And king Achaz took away the graven bases, and the laver that was upon them: and he took down the sea from the brazen oxen that held it up, and put it upon a pavement of stone. | 18 The Musach also for the sabbath, which he had built in the temple: and the king's entry from without he turned into the temple of the Lord, because of the king of the Assyrians.
19 Now the rest of the acts of Achaz, which he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of 20 Juda? | And Achaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with them in the city of David. And Ezechias his son reigned in his stead.

17

1 The Reign of Osee In the twelfth year of Achaz king of Juda, Osee the son of Ela reigned in Samaria over Israel nine 2 years. | And he did evil before the Lord: but not as the kings
3 of Israel that had been before him. | Against him came up Salmanasar king of the Assyrians: and Osee became his servant,
4 and paid him tribute. | And when the king of the Assyrians found that Osee endeavoring to rebel had sent messengers to Sua the king of Egypt, that he might not pay tribute to the king of the Assyrians, as he had done every year, he besieged him, 5 bound him, and cast him into prison. | And he went through all the land: and going up to Samaria, he besieged it three years.

6 Israel Is Taken Captive And in the ninth year of Osee, the king of the Assyrians took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria. And he placed them in Hala and Habor by the river 7 of Gozan, in the cities of the Medes. | For so it was that the children of Israel had sinned against the Lord their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharao king of Egypt, and they worshiped strange gods. | 8 And they walked according to the way of the nations which the Lord had destroyed in the sight of the children of Israel and 16, 18: The Musach: a disputed word.

17, 6: Shalmaneser IV died before the fall of Samaria. His successor, Sargon II, writes: "Samaria I besieged and took. . . . Twenty-seven thousand I carried away. . . . People from lands which I had taken I settled there. . . ."

About one out of every twenty were transplanted to northern Mesopotamia and Media. The ten tribes of the northern kingdom vanished from history.

17, 7-23: The Deuteronomic editor attributed the fall to the "sin of Jeroboam," which was against one God and His one sanctuary, Jerusalem. This sin haunted his whole account of the kingdom of Israel.

of the kings of Israel because they had done in like manner. | 9 And the children of Israel offended the Lord their God with things that were not right: and built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. | 10 And they made them statues and groves on every high hill, and 11 under every shady tree. | And they burned incense there upon altars after the manner of the nations which the Lord had removed from their face: and they did wicked things, provoking 12 the Lord. | And they worshiped abominations concerning which the Lord had commanded them that they should not do this thing.
13 And the Lord testified to them in Israel and in Juda by the hand of all the prophets and seers, saying: Return from your wicked ways, and keep my precepts, and ceremonies, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers; and as I have 14 sent to you in the hand of my servants the prophets. | And they hearkened not, but hardened their necks like to the neck of their 15 fathers who would not obey the Lord their God. | And they rejected his ordinances and the covenant that he made with their fathers, and the testimonies which he testified against them:
and they followed vanities, and acted vainly: and they followed the nations that were round about them, concerning which the Lord had commanded them that they should not do as they did.
16 And they forsook all the precepts of the Lord their God: and they made to themselves two molten calves, and groves, and 17 adored all the host of heaven: and they served Baal. | And they consecrated their sons and their daughters through fire.
And they gave themselves to divinations, and soothsayers. And they delivered themselves up to do evil before the Lord, to 18 provoke him. | And the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them from his sight: and there remained only the 19 tribe of Juda. | But neither did Juda itself keep the commandments of the Lord their God: but they walked in the 20 errors of Israel, which they had wrought. | And the Lord cast off all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, till he cast them away from his face: | 21 even from that time when Israel was rent from the house of David, and made Jeroboam son of Nabat their king. For Jeroboam separated Israel from the Lord, and made them commit 22 a great sin. | And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam, which he had done. And they departed not from 23 them. | Till the Lord removed Israel from his face, as he had spoken in the hand of all his servants the prophets. And Israel was carried away out of their land to Assyria, unto this day.

24 Strange People Brought to Samaria And the king of the Assyrians brought people from Babylon, and from Cutha, and from Avah, and from Emath, and from Sepharvaim: and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. |
25 And when they began to dwell there, they feared not the Lord: and the Lord sent lions among them, which killed them. |
26 And it was told the king of the Assyrians and it was said: The nations which you have removed, and made to dwell in the cities of Samaria know not the ordinances of the God of the land. And the Lord has sent lions among them: and behold they kill them, because they know not the manner of the God
27 of the land. | And the king of the Assyrians commanded, saying: Carry there one of the priests whom you took captive from Samaria. And let him go, and dwell with them: and let him
28 teach them the ordinances of the God of the land. | So one of the priests who had been carried away captive from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel; and taught them how they should worship the Lord.

29 A Mixture of Religions And every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the temples of the high places, which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities where they
30 dwelt. | For the men of Babylon made Sochothbenoth: and the Cuthites made Nergel: and the men of Emath made Asima, |
31 and the Hevites made Nebahaz and Tharthac. And they that were of Sepharvaim burned their children in fire, to Adramelech and Anamelech the gods of Sepharvaim.
32 And nevertheless they worshiped the Lord. And they made to themselves, of the lowest of the people, priests of the high places, and they placed them in the temples of the high places. |
33 And when they worshiped the Lord, they served also their own gods according to the custom of the nations out of which 34 they were brought to Samaria. | Unto this day they followed the old manner: they fear not the Lord, neither do they keep his ceremonies, and judgments, and law and the commandment, which the Lord commanded the children of Jacob, whom he sur-
35 named Israel: | with whom he made a covenant, and charged them, saying: You shall not fear strange gods, nor shall you
36 adore them, nor worship them, nor sacrifice to them. | But the 17, 24-41: Sargon transplanted peoples from Babylonia and Syria (v. 24) to form a new Samaria.

17, 25-28: The new settlers imputed the plague of lions to their ignorance on how to worship the local god (v. 26).

Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power, and a stretched out arm, him shall you fear, and 37 him shall you adore, and to him shall you sacrifice. | And the ceremonies, and judgments, and law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, you shall observe to do them always:
38 and you shall not fear strange gods. | And the covenant that he made with you, you shall not forget: neither shall you wor-
39 ship strange gods, | but fear the Lord your God: and he shall 40 deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. | But they did
41 not hearken, but did according to their old custom. | So these nations feared the Lord, but nevertheless served also their idols: their children also and grandchildren, as their fathers did, so do they unto this day.

18

1 Ezechias' Religious Reform In the third year of Osee the son of Ela, king of Israel, reigned Ezechias the son of Achaz,
2 king of Juda. | He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign: and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. The name of his mother was Abi the daughter of Zach-
3 arias. | And he did that which was good before the Lord, ac-
4 cording to all that David his father had done. | He destroyed the high places, and broke the statues in pieces, and cut down the groves, and broke the brazen serpent, which Moses had made: for till that time the children of Israel burned incense to it; and
5 be called its name Nohestan. | He trusted in the Lord the God of Israel: so that after him there was none like him among all
6 the kings of Juda, nor any of them that were before him. | And he stuck to the Lord, and departed not from his steps; but kept his commandments, which the Lord commanded Moses. |
7 Wherefore the Lord also was with him: and in all things, to which he went forth, he behaved himself wisely. And he rebelled
8 against the king of the Assyrians, and served him not. | He smote the Philistines as far as Gaza, and all their borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.
9 In the fourth year of king Ezechias, which was the seventh year of Osee the son of Ela, king of Israel, Salmanasar king of 10 the Assyrians came up to Samaria, and besieged it, | and took it. For after three years, in the sixth year of Ezechias, that is, in the ninth year of Osee king of Israel, Samaria was taken. |

18, 4: In his religious reform, Ezechias not only demolished pagan shrines, but even one idolatrous shrine where there was a bronze image of a serpent, allegedly the one which Moses used in the desert (Nm 21, 8-9).

11 And the king of the Assyrians carried away Israel into Assyria, and placed them in Hala and in Habor by the rivers of Gozan 12 in the cities of the Medes: | because they hearkened not to the voice of the Lord their God, but transgressed his covenant. All that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded, they would not hear nor do.

13 Juda Invaded by Sennacherib In the fourteenth year of king Ezechias, Sennacherib king of the Assyrians came up 14 against the fenced cities of Juda: and took them. | Then Ezechias king of Juda sent messengers to the king of the Assyrians to Lachis, saying: I have offended, depart from me; and all that you shall put upon me, I will bear. And the king of the Assyrians put a tax upon Ezechias king of Juda, of three 15 hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold. | And Ezechias gave all the silver that was found in the house of 16 the Lord, and in the king's treasures. | At that time Ezechias broke the doors of the temple of the Lord, and the plates of gold which he had fastened on them, and gave them to the king of the Assyrians.
17 And the king of the Assyrians sent Tharthan and Rabsaris, and Rabsaces from Lachis to king Ezechias with a strong army to Jerusalem: and they went up and came to Jerusalem, and they stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the way 18 of the fuller's field. | And they called for the king: and there went out to them Eliacim the son of Helcias, who was over the house, and Sobna the scribe, and Joahe the son of Asaph, the recorder.

19 Rabsaces Speaks against Ezechias And Rabsaces said to them: Speak to Ezechias: Thus says the great king, the king of the Assyrians: What is this confidence, in which you trust? | 20 Perhaps you have yourself taken counsel, to prepare yourself 21 for battle. In whom do you trust that you dare to rebel? | Do you trust in Egypt, a staff of a broken reed, which, if a man leans upon it, will break and go into his hand, and pierce it?
22 So is Pharao king of Egypt, to all that trust in him. | But if you say to me: We trust in the Lord our God: is it not he, whose high places and altars Ezechias has taken away, and has commanded Juda and Jerusalem: You shall worship before this 23 altar in Jerusalem? | Now therefore come over to my master the king of the Assyrians: and I will give you two thousand 18, 14: Sennacherib's capture of Lachis, a city southwest of Jerusalem, may be seen on a bas-relief in the British Museum.

horses, and see whether you be able to have riders for them. | 24 And how can you stand against one lord of the least of my master's servants? Do you trust in Egypt for chariots and for 25 horsemen? | Is it without the will of the Lord that I have come up to this place to destroy it? The Lord said to me: Go up to this land and destroy it.
26 Then Eliacim the son of Helcias, and Sobna, and Joahe said to Rabsaces: We pray you speak to us your servants in Syriac:
for we understand that tongue. And speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the hearing of the people that are upon the wall. | 27 And Rabsaces answered them, saying: Has my master sent me to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not rather to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own 28 dung, and drink their urine with you? | Then Rabsaces stood, and cried out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said:
Hear the words of the great king, the king of the Assyrians. | 29 Thus says the king: Let not Ezechias deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of my hand.

30 Rabsaces' Blasphemy Neither let him make you trust in the Lord, saying: The Lord will surely deliver us; and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of the Assyrians. | 31 Do not hearken to Ezechias. For thus says the king of the Assyrians: Do with me that which is for your advantage, and come out to me. And every man of you shall eat of his own vineyard, and of his own fig tree: and you shall drink water of 32 your own cisterns, | till I come, and take you away to a land, like to your own land, a fruitful land, and plentiful in wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olives and oil and honey; and you shall live and not die. Hearken not to Ezechias, who de-33 ceives you, saying: The Lord will deliver us. | Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their land from the hand of the 34 king of Assyria? | Where is the god of Emath, and of Arphad?
Where is the god of Sepharvaim, of Ana, and of Ava?
35 Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? | Who are they among all the gods of the nations, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the Lord may deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?
36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for they had received commandment from the king that 18, 26: Syriac: the correct word here is Aramaic—the international language of diplomacy and commerce. The Jerusalem leaders did not want the people to hear lest they lose courage, but Rabsaces insisted on speaking Hebrew for that very reason (vv. 27-28).

37 they should not answer him. | And Eliacim the son of Helcias, who was over the house, and Sobna the scribe, and Joahe the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Ezechias, with their garments rent, and told him the words of Rabsaces.

19

1 Isaias the Prophet Reassures Ezechias And when king Ezechias heard these words, he rent his garments, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord. |
2 And he sent Eliacim, who was over the house, and Sobna the scribe, and the ancients of the priests covered with sackcloths,
3 to Isaias, the prophet, the son of Amos. | And they said to him: Thus says Ezechias: This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy. The children are coming to the birth, 4 and the woman in travail has not strength. | It may be the Lord your God will hear all the words of Rabsaces whom the king of the Assyrians his master has sent to reproach the living God and to reprove with words which the Lord your God has heard: and do you offer prayer for the remnants that are found.
5.6 So the servants of king Ezechias came to Isaias. | And Isaias said to them: Thus shall you say to your master: Thus says the Lord: Be not afraid for the words which you have heard with which the servants of the king of the Assyrians have
7 blasphemed me. | Behold I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a message, and shall return into his own country, and I will make him fall by the sword in his own country.
8 And Rabsaces returned, and found the king of the Assyrians besieging Lobna: for he had heard that he had departed from 9 Lachis. | And when he heard of Theraca, king of Ethiopia: Behold, he comes to fight with you: he went out against him,
10 and sent messengers to Ezechias, saying: | Thus shall you say to Ezechias king of Juda: Let not your God deceive you, in whom you trust. And do not say: Jerusalem shall not be delivered
11 into the hands of the king of the Assyrians. | Behold you have heard what the kings of the Assyrians have done to all countries: how they have laid them waste. And can you alone be
12 delivered? | Have the gods of the nations delivered any of them, whom my fathers have destroyed, to wit, Gozan, and Haran, and Reseph, and the children of Eden that were in 13 Thelassar? | Where is the king of Emath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Ana and of Ava?

19, 10-13: A second call to surrender.

14 The Prayer of Ezechias And when Ezechias had received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and had read it, he went up to the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord.
15 | And he prayed in his sight, saying: O Lord God of Israel, who is sitting upon the cherubim, you alone are the God of all the 16 kings of the earth. You made heaven and earth. | Incline your ear, and hear: open, O Lord, your eyes, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to upbraid unto us the 17 living God. | Of a truth, O Lord, the kings of the Assyrians
18 have destroyed nations, and the lands of them all. | And they have cast their gods into the fire: for they were not gods, but the works of men's hands of wood and stone, and they destroyed
19 them. | Now therefore, O Lord our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know, that you are the Lord the only God.

20 Isaias' Answer And Isaias the son of Amos sent to Ezechias, saying: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: I have heard the prayer you have made to me concerning Sennacherib king of the 21 Assyrians. | This is the word, that the Lord has spoken of him: The virgin daughter of Sion has despised you, and laughed you to scorn: the daughter of Jerusalem has wagged her head
22 behind your back. | Whom have you reproached, and whom have you blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice, and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the holy one of
23 Israel. | By the hand of your servants you have reproached the Lord, and have said: With the multitude of my chariots I have gone up to the height of the mountains, to the top of Libanus, and have cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir trees. And I have entered into the furthest parts thereof, and the 24 forest of its Carmel. | I have cut down, and I have drunk strange waters: and have dried up with the soles of my feet all the shut up waters.
25 Have you not heard what I have done from the beginning? From the days of old I have formed it, and now I have brought it to effect: that fenced cities of fighting men should be turned 26 to heaps of ruin. | And the inhabitants of them were weak of hand, they trembled and were confounded, they became like the grass of the field, and the green herb on the tops of houses,
27 which withered before it came to maturity. | Your dwelling

19, 21-28: Isaias' taunting song with its halting rhythm is effectively adapted to satire.
19, 21: The virgin daughter of Sion: Jerusalem was not invaded by an enemy. Cities are often called daughters in the Bible.

and your going out, and your coming in, and your way I knew 28 before, and your rage against me. | You have been mad against me, and your pride has come up to my ears. Therefore I will put a ring in your nose, and a bit between your lips: and I will turn you back by the way, by which you came.
29 And to you, O Ezechias, this shall be a sign: Eat this year what you shall find: and in the second year, such things as spring of themselves: but in the third year sow and reap: plant
30 vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. | And whatsoever shall be left of the house of Juda, shall take root downward, and bear
31 fruit upward. | For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and that which shall be saved out of mount Sion: the zeal of
32 the Lord of hosts shall do this. | Wherefore thus says the Lord concerning the king of the Assyrians: He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow into it, nor come before it with 33 shield, nor cast a trench about it. | By the way that he came, he shall return: and into this city he shall not come, says the
34 Lord. | And I will protect this city, and will save it for my own sake, and for David my servant's sake.
35 And it came to pass that night, that an angel of the Lord came, and slew in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty-five thousand. And when he arose early in the morning,
36 he saw all the bodies of the dead. | And Sennacherib king of the Assyrians departing went away: and he returned and abode
37 in Ninive. | And as he was worshiping in the temple of Nesroch his god, Adramelech and Sarasar his sons slew him with the sword. And they fled into the land of the Armenians, and Asarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

20

1 Ezechias' Life Lengthened In those days Ezechias was sick unto death. And Isaias the son of Amos the prophet came and said to him: Thus says the Lord God: Give charge con-
2 cerning your house, for you shall die, and not live. | And he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the Lord, saying: |
3 I beseech you, O Lord, remember how I have walked before you in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is pleasing before you. And Ezechias wept with much weeping.
4 | And before Isaias had gone out of the middle of the court, the 19, 29-31: Only in the third year will there be a harvest.

19, 35: From extra biblical sources it appears that Sennacherib's army, poised on Egypt's frontier, was struck by a plague of mice, "the angel of the Lord," or as Byron says, "the glance of the Lord" in The Destruction of Sennacherib.

19, 37: About twenty years intervened before Sennacherib died.

5 word of the Lord came to him, saying: | Go back, and tell Ezechias the captain of my people: Thus says the Lord the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears: and behold I have healed you. On the third 6 day you shall go up to the temple of the Lord. | And I will add to your days fifteen years: and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of the Assyrians: and I will protect this city for my own sake, and for David my servant's sake.
7 | And Isaias said: Bring me a lump of figs. And when they had 8 brought it, and laid it upon his boil, he was healed. | And Ezechias had said to Isaias: What shall be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up to the temple of the 9 Lord the third day? | And Isaias said to him: This shall be the sign from the Lord, that the Lord will do the word which he has spoken: Will you that the shadow go forward ten lines, or 10 that it go back so many degrees? | And Ezechias said: It is an easy matter for the shadow to go forward ten lines; and I do not desire that this be done: but let it return back ten degrees.
11 | And Isaias the prophet called upon the Lord, and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward by the lines, by which it had already gone down in the dial of Achaz.

12 At that time, Berodach Baladan, the son of Baladan, king of the Babylonians, sent letters and presents to Ezechias: for he 13 had heard that Ezechias had been sick. | And Ezechias rejoiced at their coming: and he showed them the house of his aromatical spices, and the gold and the silver, and divers precious odors, and ointments, and the house of his vessels, and all that he had in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominions that Ezechias showed them not.

14 Isaias Foretells the Babylonian Captivity And Isaias the prophet came to king Ezechias, and said to him: What said these men? Or from where did they come to you? And Ezechias said to him: From a far country they came to me out of Baby-15 lon. | And he said. What did they see in your house? Ezechias said: They saw all the things that are in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. |
16 And Isaias said to Ezechias: Hear the word of the Lord. | 17 Behold the days shall come, that all that is in your house; and that your fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the Lord. |

20, 11: The dial of Achaz. Achaz had built a sundial made of steps.
20, 12-15: Berodach Baladan was a petty king on the Persian Gulf who most likely sought Ezechias as an ally.

18 And of your sons also that shall issue from you, whom you shall beget, they shall take away: and they shall be eunuchs in the 19 palace of the king of Babylon. | Ezechias said to Isaias: The word of the Lord, which you have spoken, is good. Let peace and truth be in my days.
20 And the rest of the acts of Ezechias and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought waters into the city, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Juda?
21 And Ezechias slept with his fathers: and Manasses his son reigned in his stead.

21

1 Wickedness and Idolatry of Manasses Manasses was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned five and fifty years in Jerusalem: the name of his mother was
2 Haphsiba. | And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, according to the idols of the nations, which the Lord destroyed from
3 before the face of the children of Israel. | And he turned, and built up the high places which Ezechias his father had destroyed. And he set up altars to Baal, and made groves, as Achab the king of Israel had done. And he adored all the hosts of heaven,
4 and served them. | And he built altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord said: In Jerusalem I will put my name. |
5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts
6 of the temple of the Lord. | And he made his son pass through fire. And he used divination, and observed omens, and appointed pythons, and multiplied soothsayers to do evil before the Lord,
7 and to provoke him. | He set also an idol of the grove, which he had made, in the temple of the Lord; concerning which the Lord said to David, and to Solomon his son: In this temple, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel,
8 I will put my name for ever. | And I will no more make the feet of Israel to be moved out of the land which I gave to their fathers: only if they will observe to do all that I have commanded them according to the law which my servant Moses
9 commanded them. | But they hearkened not: but were seduced by Manasses, to do evil more than the nations which the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.

20, 19: This is the biblical "après moi, le déluge."
20, 20: One of Ezechias' greatest achievements was this strategic tunnel over seventeen hundred feet long.
21, 6: Son pass through fire: see 16, 3 n. Pythons: sorcerers.

10 God's Threat Told by His Prophets And the Lord spoke 11 in the hand of his servants, the prophets, saying: | Because Manasses king of Juda has done these most wicked abominations, beyond all that the Amorrites did before him, and has 12 made Juda also to sin with his filthy doings, | therefore thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Behold I will bring on evils upon Jerusalem and Juda; that whosoever shall hear of them, 13 both his ears shall tingle. | And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the weight of the house of Achab: and I will efface Jerusalem, as tables are wont to be effaced, and I will erase and turn it, and draw the pencil often over the face 14 thereof. | And I will leave the remnants of my inheritance, and will deliver them into the hands of their enemies: and they shall 15 become a prey, and a spoil to all their enemies. | Because they have done evil before me, and have continued to provoke me, from the day that their fathers came out of Egypt, even unto this day.
16 Moreover Manasses shed also very much innocent blood, till he filled Jerusalem up to the mouth: besides his sins, wherewith 17 he made Juda to sin, to do evil before the Lord. | Now the rest of the acts of Manasses, and all that he did, and his sin which he sinned, are they not written in the book of the words of the 18 days of the kings of Juda? | And Manasses slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Oza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.
19 Two and twenty years old was Amon when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: the name of his mother 20 was Messalemeth the daughter of Harus of Jeteba. | And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, as Manasses his father had 21 done. | And he walked in all the way in which his father had walked. And he served the abominations which his father had 22 served, and he adored them: | And forsook the Lord the God 23 of his fathers: and walked not in the way of the Lord. | And his servants plotted against him, and slew the king in his own 24 house. | But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon: and made Josias his son their king 25 in his stead. | But the rest of the acts of Amon which he did,
are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the 26 kings of Juda? | And they buried him in his sepulcher in the garden of Oza: and his son Josias reigned in his stead.

22

1 The Saintly King Josias Josias was eight years old when he began to reign: he reigned one and thirty years in Jerusalem:
the name of his mother was Idida, the daughter of Hadaia of 2 Besecath. | And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the ways of David his father: he turned not aside to the right hand, or to the left.

3 And in the eighteenth year of king Josias, the king sent Saphan the son of Assia, the son of Messulam, the scribe of the 4 temple of the Lord, saying to him: | Go to Helcias the high priest, that the money may be put together which is brought into the temple of the Lord, which the doorkeepers of the temple 5 have gathered of the people. | And let it be given to the workmen by the overseers of the house of the Lord: and let them distribute it to those that work in the temple of the Lord, to 6 repair the temple: | That is, to carpenters and masons, and to such as mend breaches: and that timber may be bought, and stones out of the quarries, to repair the temple of the Lord. | 7 But let there be no reckoning made with them of the money which they receive: but let them have it in their power, and in their trust.

8 Helcias Finds the Book of the Law And Helcias the high priest said to Saphan the scribe: I have found the book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Helcias gave the book to 9 Saphan, and he read it. | And Saphan the scribe came to the king, and brought him word again concerning that which he had commanded, and said: Your servants have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and they have given it to be distributed to the workmen, by the overseers 10 of the works of the temple of the Lord. | And Saphan the scribe told the king, saying: Helcias the priest has delivered to me a book. And when Saphan had read it before the king, | 11 and the king had heard the words of the law of the Lord: he rent 12 his garments. | And he commanded Helcias the priest, and Ahicam the son of Saphan, and Achobor the son of Micha, and 13 Saphan the scribe, and Asaia the king's servant, saying: | Go and consult the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Juda, concerning the words of this book which has been found: for the great wrath of the Lord is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened to the words of this book, to do all that is written for us.
14 So Helcias the priest, and Ahicam, and Achobor, and Saphan, and Asaia went to Holda the prophetess the wife of Sellum the son of Thecua, the son of Araas keeper of the wardrobe, who 15 dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second: and they spoke to her. | And 22, 8: The book of the law: was part of the book of Deuteronomy.

22, 14: In the Second: the western part of the city.

she said to them: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Tell 16 the man that sent you to me: | Thus says the Lord: Behold, I will bring evils upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, all the words of the law which the king of Juda has read: | 17 Because they have forsaken me, and have sacrificed to strange gods, provoking me by all the works of their hands: therefore my indignation shall be kindled against this place, and shall 18 not be quenched. | But to the king of Juda, who sent you to consult the Lord, thus shall you say: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Forasmuch as you have heard the words of the 19 book, | and your heart has been moved to fear, and you have humbled yourself, before the Lord, hearing the words against this place, and the inhabitants thereof, to wit, that they should become a wonder and a curse, and you have rent your garments, and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the Lord: | 20 Therefore I will gather you to your fathers: and you shall be gathered to your sepulcher in peace, that your eyes may not see all the evils which I will bring upon this place.

23

1 Josias Abolishes Idolatry And they brought the king word again what she had said. And he sent; and all the ancients of 2 Juda and Jerusalem were assembled to him. | And the king went up to the temple of the Lord, and all the men of Juda, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, the priests and the prophets, and all the people, both little and great: and in the hearing of them all he read all the words of the book of the 3 covenant, which was found in the house of the Lord. | And the king stood upon the step: and made a covenant with the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his ceremonies, with all their heart, and with all their soul, and to perform the words of this covenant, which were written in that book: and the people agreed to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Helcias the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to cast out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that had been made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven. And he burned them outside Jerusalem in the valley of Cedron, and 5 he carried the ashes of them to Bethel. | And he destroyed the soothsayers, whom the kings of Juda had appointed to sacrifice in the high places in the cities of Juda, and round about Jerusalem: them also that burned incense to Baal, and to the sun, and to the moon, and to the twelve signs, and to all the host of

6 heaven. | And he caused the grove to be carried out from the house of the Lord outside Jerusalem to the valley of Cedron. And he burned it there, and reduced it to dust, and cast the 7 dust upon the graves of the common people. | He destroyed also the pavilions of the effeminate, which were in the house of the Lord, for which the women wove as it were little dwellings 8 for the grove. | And he gathered together all the priests out of the cities of Juda: and he defiled the high places, where the priests offered sacrifice, from Gabaa to Bersabee: and he broke down the altars of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Josue governor of the city, which was on the left hand 9 of the gate of the city. | However the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem: but only ate 10 of the unleavened bread among their brethren. | And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Ennom: that no man should consecrate there his son or his daughter through 11 fire to Moloch. | And he took away the horses which the kings of Juda had given to the sun, at the entering of the temple of the Lord, near the chamber of Nathanmelech the eunuch, who was in Pharurim: and he burned the chariots of the sun with 12 fire. | And the altars that were upon the top of the upper chamber of Achaz, which the kings of Juda had made, and the altars which Manasses had made in the two courts of the temple of the Lord, the king broke down. And he ran from there, and cast the 13 ashes of them into the torrent Cedron. | The high places also that were at Jerusalem on the right side of the Mount of Offense, which Solomon king of Israel had built to Astaroth the idol of the Sidonians, and to Chamos the scandal of Moab, and to Melchom the abomination of the children of Ammon, the king 14 defiled. | And he broke in pieces the statues, and cut down the groves: and he filled their places with the bones of dead men. 15 Moreover the altar also that was at Bethel, and the high place, which Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin, had made: both the altar and the high place he broke down and burned, and reduced to powder, and burned the grove. | 16 And as Josias turned himself, he saw there the sepulchers that were in the mount: and he sent and took the bones out of the sepulchers, and burned them upon the altar, and defiled it according to the word of the Lord, which the man of God spoke, 17 who had foretold these things. | And he said: What is that monument which I see? And the men of that city answered: It

23, 6: Grove: wooden post.
23, 7: Wove: vestments.
23, 11: Pharurim: obscure word. Quarters?

is the sepulcher of the man of God, who came from Juda, and foretold these things which you have done upon the altar of 18 Bethel. | And he said: Let him alone, let no man move his bones. So his bones were left untouched with the bones of the
19 prophet that came out of Samaria. | Moreover all the temples of the high places, which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the Lord, Josias took away. And he did to them according to all the acts that he had 20 done in Bethel. | And he slew all the priests of the high places, that were there, upon the altars: and he burned men's bones upon them: and returned to Jerusalem.

21 The Phase Is Celebrated And he commanded all the people, saying: Keep the phase to the Lord your God, according 22 as it is written in the book of this covenant. | Now there was no such a phase kept from the days of the judges, who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings
23 of Juda, | as was this phase that was kept to the Lord in Jeru-
24 salem, in the eighteenth year of king Josias. | Moreover the diviners by spirits, and soothsayers, and the figures of idols, and the uncleannesses, and the abominations, that had been in the land of Juda and Jerusalem, Josias took away: that he might perform the words of the law, that were written in the book which Helcias the priest had found in the temple of the Lord. |
25 There was no king before him like unto him, that returned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his strength, according to all the law of Moses: neither after 26 him did there arise any like him. | But yet the Lord turned not away from the wrath of his great indignation by which his anger was kindled against Juda: because of the provocations, where-
27 with Manasses had provoked him. | And the Lord said: I will remove Juda also from before my face, as I have removed Israel. And I will cast off this city Jerusalem, which I chose, and the house, of which I said: My name shall be there.

28 Josias Is Slain Now the rest of the acts of Josias, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the 29 days of the kings of Juda? | In his days Pharao Nechao king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josias went to meet him, and was slain at 23, 21: Phase: the Pasch. For a full account of the celebration, see 2 Par 35, 1-19.

23, 29: Josias tried to prevent the Egyptians from aiding the Assyrians against the neo-Babylonians.

30 Mageddo, when he had seen him. | And his servants carried him dead from Mageddo. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulcher. And the people of the land took Joachaz the son of Josias: and they anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.
31 Joachaz was three and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: the name of his mother was Amital, the daughter of Jeremias of Lobna. | 32 And he did evil before the Lord, according to all that his fathers 33 had done. | And Pharao Nechao bound him at Rebla, which is in the land of Emath, that he should not reign in Jerusalem.
And he set a fine upon the land, of a hundred talents of silver, 34 and a talent of gold. | And Pharao Nechao made Eliacim the son of Josias king in the room of Josias his father: and turned his name to Joakim. And he took Joachaz away and carried 35 him into Egypt, and he died there. | And Joakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharao, after he had taxed the land for every man, to contribute according to the commandment of Pharao: and he exacted both the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every man according to his ability: to give 36 to Pharao Nechao. | Joakim was five and twenty years old when he began to reign: and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: the name of his mother was Zebida the daughter of 37 Phadaia of Ruma. | And he did evil before the Lord according to all that his fathers had done.

24

1 Joakim's Reign In his days, Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came up, and Joakim became his servant three years: then 2 again he rebelled against him. | And the Lord sent against him the rovers of the Chaldees, and the rovers of Syria, and the rovers of Moab, and the rovers of the children of Ammon: and he sent them against Juda, to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he had spoken by his servants the prophets. | 3 And this came by the word of the Lord against Juda, to remove them from before him, for all the sins of Manasses which he 4 did: | and for the innocent blood that he shed, filling Jerusalem with innocent blood: and therefore the Lord would not 5 be appeased. | But the rest of the acts of Joakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Juda? And Joakim slept with his fathers. |

24, 1-20: In 598 B.C. Nabuchodonosor deports the upper classes. Excavations have shown evidence of the two Babylonian invasions of Jerusalem.

6.7 And Joachin his son reigned in his stead. | And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his own country: for the king of Babylon had taken all that had belonged to the king of Egypt, from the river of Egypt, unto the river Euphrates.

8 Joachin and Sedecias Joachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: the name of his mother was Nohesta the daughter of 9 Elnathan of Jerusalem. | And he did evil before the Lord, ac-
10 cording to all that his father had done. | At that time the servants of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came up against Jeru-
11 salem: and the city was surrounded with their forts. | And Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came to the city with his serv-
12 ants to assault it. | And Joachin king of Juda went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his nobles, and his eunuchs: and the king of Babylon received him
13 in the eighth year of his reign. | And he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house: and he cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of
14 the Lord, according to the word of the Lord. | And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the valiant men of the army, to the number of ten thousand into captivity: and every artificer and smith: and none were left, but the poor sort
15 of the people of the land. | And he carried away Joachin into Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his eunuchs: and the judges of the land he carried into captivity
16 from Jerusalem into Babylon. | And all the strong men, seven thousand, and the artificers, and the smiths, a thousand, all that were valiant men and fit for war: and the king of Babylon led
17 them captives into Babylon. | And he appointed Matthanias his uncle in his stead: and called his name Sedecias.

18 Sedecias was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: the name of his mother was Amital, the daughter of Jeremias of Lobna. |
19 And he did evil before the Lord, according to all that Joakim 20 had done. | For the Lord was angry against Jerusalem and against Juda, till he cast them out from his face. And Sedecias revolted from the king of Babylon.

25

1 Jerusalem Besieged and Taken And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, the tenth day of the month, that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came, he and all his army against Jerusalem. And they surrounded it; 2 and raised works round about it. | And the city was shut up and 3 besieged till the eleventh year of king Sedecias, | the ninth day of the month: and a famine prevailed in the city, and there was 4 no bread for the people of the land. | And a breach was made into the city: and all the men of war fled in the night between the two walls by the king's garden (now the Chaldees besieged the city round about), and Sedecias fled by the way that leads to 5 the plains of the wilderness. | And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all the warriors that were with him were scattered, 6 and left him. | So they took the king, and brought him to the king of Babylon to Reblatha, and he gave judgment upon him.

7 | And he slew the sons of Sedecias before his face, and he put out his eyes, and bound him with chains, and brought him to Babylon.

8 In the fifth month, the eleventh day of the month, that is, the nineteenth year of the king of Babylon, came Nabuzardan commander of the army, a servant of the king of Babylon, into 9 Jerusalem. | And he burned the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and the houses of Jerusalem: and every house he 10 burned with fire. | And all the army of the Chaldees, which was with the commander of the troops, broke down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Juda Taken into Captivity And Nabuzardan the commander of the army, carried away the rest of the people that remained in the city, and the fugitives that had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the remnant of the common people. | 12 But of the poor of the land he left some dressers of vines and 13 husbandmen. | And the pillars of brass that were in the temple of the Lord, and the bases, and the sea of brass which was in the house of the Lord, the Chaldees broke in pieces: and carried 14 all the brass of them to Babylon. | They took away also the pots of brass, and the mazers, and the forks, and the cups, and the mortars, and all the vessels of brass with which they min-15 istered. | Moreover also the censers, and the bowls, such as were of gold in gold, and such as were of silver in silver, the 16 general of the army took away. | That is, two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made in the temple of the 17 Lord. The brass of all these vessels was without weight. | One pillar was eighteen cubits high, and the chapiter of brass which was upon it was three cubits high. And the network, and the 25, 4: The Chaldees: the Chaldeans or neo-Babylonians.

pomegranates that were upon the chapiter of the pillar, were all of brass: and the second pillar had the like adorning.

18 And the general of the army took Seraias the chief priest, and 19 Sophonias the second priest, and three doorkeepers; | and out of the city one eunuch, who was captain over the men of war: and five men of them that had stood before the king, whom he found in the city, and Sopher the captain of the army who exercised the young soldiers of the people of the land: and threescore men of the common people, who were found in the 20 city. | These Nabuzardan the general of the army took away,
21 and carried them to the king of Babylon to Reblatha. | And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Reblatha in the land of Emath. So Juda was carried away out of their land.

22 Godolias Made Governor of Juda But over the people that remained in the land of Juda, which Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had left, he gave the government to Godolias the
23 son of Ahicam the son of Saphan. | And when all the captains of the soldiers had heard this, they and the men that were with them, to wit, that the king of Babylon had made Godolias governor, they came to Godolias to Maspha: Ismael the son of Nathanias, and Johanan the son of Caree, and Saraia the son of Thanehumeth the Netophathite, and Jezonias the son of 24 Maachathi, they and their men. | And Godolias swore to them and to their men, saying: Be not afraid to serve the Chaldees. Stay in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be
25 well with you. | But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ismael the son of Nathanias the son of Elisama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him: and smote Godolias so that he died. And also the Jews and the Chaldees that were with 26 him in Maspha. | And all the people both little and great, and the captains of the soldiers, rising up went to Egypt, fearing the Chaldees.

27 Kindness toward Joachin And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Joachin king of Juda, in the twelfth month, the seven and twentieth day of the month: Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Joachin king of Juda out

25, 21: The southern kingdom of Juda fell with Jerusalem in 587 B.C. The second deportation into the Babylonian exile began. Only a small number of foreigners were transplanted into Juda.

25, 27: In 562 B.C. the successor of Nabuchodonosor, Evilmerodach, honored king Joachin.

28 of prison. | And he spoke kindly to him: and he set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon. | 29 And he changed his garments which he had in prison, and he 30 ate bread always before him, all the days of his life. | And he appointed him a continual allowance, which was also given him by the king day by day, all the days of his life.

THE FIRST BOOK OF PARALIPOMENON

INTRODUCTION

The Greek word Paralipomenon means "omitted things." It applies here to events supposedly omitted in the books of Samuel and Kings. The alternate title by which the two books of Paralipomenon are known, Chronicles, compresses the longer Hebrew title "events of the days."

Originally, both books of Paralipomenon were united to the two books of Esdras and Nehemias to form one large book. Modern scholars package all four books under the denomination "The History of the Chronicler." That there was only one author of these four books, which treat of one historical unit, is borne out by the similarity of style and vocabulary; and, furthermore, the special interest in the temple, its liturgy, and the singers point to an unknown Levite as author.

The Chronicler of 1, 2 Par is much more interested in Levites than in priests. Whereas the books of Samuel and Kings mention Levites but three times, they are mentioned thirty-five times in 1 Par and sixty-four times in 2 Par. Some scholars, however, believe that Esdras was the author. The contents of 1, 2 Par fall into an easy division. 1 Par 1—9 are a history from Adam to Saul via genealogical trees. Chs. 10—29 extend from king Saul's death to the reign of David. 2 Par 1—9 dwell on Solomon's reign; chs. 10—36 narrate the history of Juda's kings from the schism in 922 B.C. to the Edict of Cyrus in 538 B.C. The Edict allowed the Jewish exiles to return to Juda from Babylon.

The genealogies used for 1 Par 1—9 are taken from Genesis to Ruth. The remainder of 1 Par and all of 2 Par use the books of Samuel and Kings as their principal source. The Chronicler often quotes verbatim large sections from the books of Samuel and Kings, or rewrites them in a different way. At times, he summarizes them, at other times he elaborates on an account. Often he adds details.

It can be said that about one-half of 1, 2 Par come from previously written biblical books. The most perplexing literary question of 1, 2 Par is: Where did the author get the material which cannot be traced to other biblical books? We shall refer to these unknown works as minor sources. An outstanding example of a minor source is that used about king Asa in 2 Par 16, 1-6.

The Chronicler of 1, 2 Par refers to these six historical books: The Book of the Kings of Israel and Juda; The Book of the Kings of Juda and Israel; The Royal Book of Juda and Israel; The Book of the Kings of Israel; The Acts of the Kings of Israel; The Teaching ("midrash") of The Book of Kings. None of these six refers to Samuel-Kings. The first five may well be one book mentioned under five different titles. The Chronicler refers to eleven writings of non-biblical prophets and about four other miscellaneous works. There is a variety of approaches to the problems of the identity of the minor sources.

It is crystal clear from the contents of 1, 2 Par that these books expose a panoramic view of David's kingdom. The genealogical trees introduce David's era. All the rest is a narration in relation to David who rises like a Colossus spanning the interest of both books. 1, 2 Par sketch David as a saint, e.g., David's adultery is omitted, as is the rebellion of Absalom, etc. The books of Samuel and Kings depict David as he was—a versatile monarch with some weaknesses.

Although the Jews were back home from their Babylonian exile, they were not independent. They lived, however, under the humane rule of the Persian emperors. The Chronicler, writing about 400 B.C., is looking back at an era of prophets who had tried to save Juda from political death. They had failed.

The Chronicler of 1, 2 Par apparently wrote to impress upon the Jews the fact that they should face up to the loss of political independence, and focus on their religious future. Christ was to complete this shift of emphasis by establishing definitively that Israel's glory was to be exclusively in her religion. It is mainly because of the Chronicler's endeavor to stress the importance of religion that both Jews and Christians kept these books in the Canon of Scripture. It was not because of the history recorded therein, since the historic account was already contained elsewhere in Scripture. Many authors signal out for spiritual value the two prayers of David (1 Par 17 and 29); Solomon's prayer for wisdom (2 Par 1); and the solemn dedication of the temple (2 Par 6—7).

As to the literary form of 1, 2 Par there are a great number of scholars who do not call them a midrash, but a kind of history usually considered inferior to the history in the books of Samuel and Kings. Only some scholars classify 1, 2 Par as a midrash—history, embroidered to edify. The problem of the midrash as a literary form, in 1, 2 Par, is not identical with the erudite question of whether or not the Chronicler used a large work called a midrash.

Main divisions of the two books of Paralipomenon are:

A History from Adam to Saul via Genealogical Trees, 1 Par 1—9
From Saul's Death to the Reign of David, 1 Par 10—29
Solomon's Reign, 2 Par 1—9
The History of Juda's Kings from the Schism in 922 B.C. to the Edict of Cyrus in 538 B.C., 2 Par 10—36

1

1.2 Genealogy of the Patriarchs Adam, Seth, Enos, | Cainan,
3.4 Malaleel, Jared, | Henoc, Mathusale, Lamech. | Noe, Sem,
5 Cham, and Japheth. | The sons of Japheth: Gomer, and Magog,
6 and Madai, and Javan, Thubal, Mosoch, Thiras. | And the sons
7 of Gomer: Ascenez, and Riphath, and Thogorma. | And the 8 sons of Javan: Elisa and Tharsis, Cethim and Dodanim. | The sons of Cham: Chus, and Mesrai, and Phut, and Chanaan. | 9 And the sons of Chus: Saba, and Hevila, Sabatha, and Regma, and Sabathaca. And the sons of Regma: Saba, and Dadan. |
10 Now Chus begot Nemrod: he began to be mighty upon earth. |

11 But Mesraim begot Ludim, and Anamim, and Laabim, and 12 Nephtuim, | Phetrusim also, and Casluim: from whom came
13 the Philistines, and Caphtorim. | And Chanaan begot Sidon
14 his firstborn, and the Hethite, | and the Jebusite, and the Amor-15 rite, and the Gergesite, | and the Hevite, and the Aracite, and 16 the Sinite, | and the Aradian, and the Samarite, and the Hamathite.
17 The sons of Sem: Elam, and Asur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Hus, and Hul, and Gether, and Mosoch. |
18.19 And Arphaxad begot Sale, and Sale begot Heber. | And to Heber were born two sons, the name of the one was Phaleg, because in his days the earth was divided; and the name of his 20 brother was Jectan. | And Jectan begot Elmodad, and Saleph,
21 and Asarmoth, and Jare, | and Adoram, and Usal, and Decla, |
22.23 and Hebal, and Abimael, and Saba, | and Ophir, and Hevila, and Jobab. All these are the sons of Jectan.
24-26 Sem, Arphaxad, Sale, | Heber, Phaleg, Ragau, | Serug, 27.28 Nachor, Thare, | Abram, this is Abraham. | And the sons of Abraham, Isaac and Ismahel.
29 And these are the generations of them. The firstborn of Ismahel, Nabajoth, then Cedar, and Adbeel, and Mabsam. |
30.31 And Masma, and Duma, Massa, Hadad, and Thema, | Jetur,
32 Naphis, Cedma: these are the sons of Ismahel. | And the sons of Cetura, Abraham's concubine, whom she bore: Zamran, Jecsan, Madan, Madian, Jesboc, and Sue. And the sons of Jecsan, Saba, and Dadan. And the sons of Dadan: Assurim, and Latus-33 sim, and Laomin. | And the sons of Madian: Epha, and Epher, and Henoch, and Abida, and Eldaa. All these are the sons of Cetura.
34 And Abraham begot Isaac: and his sons were Esau and Israel.
35 The sons of Esau: Eliphaz, Rahuel, Jehus, Ihelom, and Core.
36 | The sons of Eliphaz: Theman, Omar, Sephi, Gathan, Cenez,
37 and by Thamna, Amalec. | The sons of Rahuel: Nahath,
38 Zara, Samma, Meza. | The sons of Seir: Lotan, Sobal, Sebeon,
39 Ana, Dison, Eser, Disan. | The sons of Lotan: Hori, Homam.
40 And the sister of Lotan was Thamna. | The sons of Sobal: Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, Sephi, and Onam. The sons of 41 Sebeon: Aia, and Ana. The son of Ana: Dison. | The sons of Dison: Hamram, and Eseban, and Jethran, and Charan. | 42 The sons of Eser: Balaan, and Zavan, and Jacan. The sons of Disan: Hus and Aran.

43 The Kings and Dukes of Edom Now these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there was a king over the children of Israel: Bale the son of Beor: and the name of his

44 city was Denaba. | And Bale died, and Jobab the son of Zare
45 of Bosra, reigned in his stead. | And when Jobab also was dead,
Husam of the land of the Themanites reigned in his stead. | 46 And Husam also died, and Adad the son of Badad reigned in his stead, and he defeated the Madianites in the land of Moab:
47 and the name of his city was Avith. | And when Adad also was 48 dead, Semla of Masreca reigned in his stead. Semla also died, and Saul of Rohoboth, which is near the river, reigned in his 49 stead. | And when Saul was dead, Balanan the son of Achobor 50 reigned in his stead. | He also died, and Adad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Phau, and his wife was called Meetabel the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezaab.
51 And after the death of Adad, there began to be dukes in Edom instead of kings: duke Thamna, duke Alva, duke Jetheth, |
52.53 duke Oolibama, duke Ela, duke Phinon, | duke Cenez,
54 duke Theman, duke Mabsar, | duke Magdiel, duke Hiram.
These are the dukes of Edom.

2

1 The Sons of Israel and the Posterity of Juda And these are the sons os Israel: Ruben, Simeon, Levi, Juda, Issachar, and 2 Zabulon, | Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Nephtali, Gad, and Aser. |
3 The sons of Juda: Her, Onam, and Sela. These three were born to him of the Chanaanitess the daughter of Sue. And Her, the firstborn of Juda, was wicked in the sight of the Lord, and he 4 slew him. | And Thamar his daughter-in-law bore him Phares
5 and Zara. So all the sons of Juda were five. | And the sons of 6 Phares were Hesron, and Hamul. | And the sons also of Zare, Zamri, and Ethan, and Eman, and Chalchal, and Dara, five in 7 all. | And the sons of Charmi: Achar, who troubled Israel, and 8 sinned by the theft of the anathema. | The son of Ethan:
9 Azarias. | And the sons of Hesron that were born to him:
10 Jerameel, and Ram, and Calubi. | And Ram begot Aminadab, and Aminadab begot Nahasson, prince of the children of Juda. |
11.12 And Nahasson begot Salma, the father of Booz. | And Booz begot Obed, and Obed begot Isai.
13 And Isai begot Eliab his firstborn, the second Abinadab, the 14 third Simmaa, | the fourth, Nathanael, the fifth Raddai. |
15.16 The sixth Asom, the seventh David. | And their sisters were Sarvia, and Abigail. The sons of Sarvia: Abisai, Joab, and Asael, 17 three. | And Abigail bore Amasa, whose father was Jether the Ismahelite.
18 And Caleb the son of Hesron took a wife named Azuba, of whom he had Jerioth: and her sons were Jaser, and Sobab, and 19 Ardon. | And when Azuba was dead, Caleb took to wife

20 Ephrata: who bore him Hur. | And Hur begot Uri: and Uri
21 begot Bezeleel. | And afterward Hesron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Galaad, and took her to wife when
22 he was threescore years old: and she bore him Segub. | And Segub begot Jair, and he had three and twenty cities in the land
23 of Galaad. | And he took Gessur, and Aram the towns of Jair, and Canath, and the villages thereof, threescore cities. All these,
24 the sons of Machir father of Galaad. | And when Hesron was dead, Caleb went in to Ephrata. Hesron also had to wife Abia, who bore him Ashur the father of Thecua.

25 And the sons of Jerameel the firstborn of Hesron were Ram his firstborn, and Buna, and Aram, and Asom, and Achia. | 26 And Jerameel married another wife, named Atara, who was the 27 mother of Onam. | And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jera-
28 meel, were Moos, Jamin, and Achar. | And Onam had sons Semei, and Jada. And the sons of Semei: Nadab, and Abisur. |
29 And the name of Abisur's wife was Abihail, who bore him 30 Ahobban, and Molid. | And the sons of Nadab were Saled, and 31 Apphaim. And Saled died without children. | But the son of Apphaim was Jesi: and Jesi begot Sesan. And Sesan begot
32 Oholai. | And the sons of Jada the brother of Semei: Jether,
33 and Jonathan. And Jether also died without children. | But Jonathan begot Phaleth, and Ziza. These were the sons of Jerameel.

34 And Sesan had no sons, but daughters and a servant an 35 Egyptian named Jeraa. | And he gave him his daughter to wife:
36 and she bore him Ethei. | And Ethei begot Nathan, and Na-
37 than begot Zabad. | And Zabad begot Ophlal, and Ophlal
38.39 begot Obed. | Obed begot Jehu, Jehu begot Azarias. | Aza-
40 rias begot Helles, and Helles begot Elasa. | Elasa begot Sisamoi, 41 Sisamoi begot Sellum, | Sellum begot Icamia, and Icamia begot Elisama.

42 Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerameel were Mesa his firstborn, who was the father of Siph: and the sons of Maresa
43 father of Hebron. | And the sons of Hebron: Core and Thaph-44 ua, and Recem, and Samma. | And Samma begot Raham, the 45 father of Jercaam, and Recem begot Sammai. | The son of 46 Sammai, Maon: and Maon was the father of Bethsur. | And Epha the concubine of Caleb bore Haran, and Mosa, and Gezez.
47 And Haran begot Gezez. | And the sons of Jahaddai, Rogom, and Joathan, and Gesan, and Phalet, and Epha, and Saaph. |
48 And Maacha the concubine of Caleb bore Saber, and Tharana.
49 | And Saaph the father of Madmena begot Sue the father of Machbena, and the father of Gabaa. And the daughter of Caleb was Achsa.

50 These were the sons of Caleb, the son of Hur the firstborn of 51 Ephrata, Sobal the father of Cariathiarim. | Salma the father
52 of Bethlehem, Hariph the father of Bethgader. | And Sobal the father of Cariathiarim had sons: he that saw half of the
53 places of rest. | And of the kindred of Cariathiarim, the Jethrites, and Aphuthites, and Semathites, and Maserites. Of
54 them came the Saraites, and Esthaolites. | The sons of Salma, Bethlehem, and Netophathi, the crowns of the house of Joab,
55 and half of the place of rest of Sarai. | And the families of the scribes that dwell in Jabes, singing and making melody, and abiding in tents. These are the Cinites, who came of Calor (Chamath) father of the house of Rechab.

3

1 The Descendants of David Now these were the sons of David that were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn Amnon of Achinoam the Jezrahelitess, the second Daniel of Abigail the 2 Carmelitess. | The third Absalom the son of Maacha the daughter of Tolmai king of Gessur, the fourth Adonias the son of
3 Aggith. | The fifth Saphatias of Abital, the sixth Jethrahem of 4 Egla his wife. | So six sons were born to him in Hebron, where he reigned seven years and six months. And in Jerusalem he
5 reigned three and thirty years. | And these sons were born to him in Jerusalem: Simmaa, and Sobab, and Nathan, and Solo-
6 mon, four of Bethsabee the daughter of Ammiel. | Jebaar also,
7 and Elisama, | And Eliphaleth, and Noge, and Nepheg, and 8.9 Japhia, | and Elisama, and Eliada, and Elipheleth, nine. | All these the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines: and they had a sister Thamar.

10 And Solomon's son was Roboam: whose son Abia begot Asa.
11 And his son was Josaphat, | the father of Joram. And Joram
12 begot Ochozias, of whom was born Joas. | And his son Amasias
13 begot Azarias. And Joathan the son of Azarias | begot Achaz, 14 the father of Ezechias, of whom was born Manasses. | And 15 Manasses begot Amon the father of Josias. | And the sons of Josias were, the firstborn Johanan, the second Joakim, the 16 third Sedecias, the fourth Sellum. | Of Joakim was born Jecho-
17 nias, and Sedecias. | The sons of Jechonias were Asir, Salathiel,
18 | Melchiram, Phadaia, Senneser and Jecemia, Sama, and Nada-
19 bia. | Of Phadaia, were born Zorobabel and Semei. Zorobabel
20 begot Mosollam, Hananias, and Salomith their sister: | Hasaba also, and Ohol, and Barachias, and Hasadias, Josabhesed, five.
21 | And the son of Hananias was Phaltias the father of Jeseias, whose son was Raphaia. And his son was Arnan, of whom was 22 born Obdia, whose son was Sechenias. | The son of Sechenias, was Semeia, whose sons were Hattus, and Jegaal, and Baria, 23 and Naaria, and Saphat, six in number. | The sons of Naaria, 24 Elioenai, and Ezechias, and Ezricam, three. | The sons of Elioenai, Oduia, and Eliasub, and Pheleia, and Accub, and Johanan, and Dalaia, and Anani, seven.

4

1 Other Descendants of Juda The sons of Juda: Phares, 2 Hesron, and Charmi, and Hur, and Sobal. And Raia the son of Sobal begot Jahath, of whom were born Ahumai, and Laad.
3 These are the families of Sarathi. | And this is the posterity of Etam: Jezrahel, and Jesema, and Jedebos: and the name of 4 their sister was Asalelphuni. | And Phanuel the father of Gedor, and Ezar the father of Hosa: these are the sons of Hur
5 the firstborn of Ephratha the father of Bethlehem. | And Assur
6 the father of Thecua had two wives, Halaa, and Naara: | and Naara bore him Ozam, and Hepher, and Themani, and Ahas-
7 thari: these are the sons of Naara. | And the sons of Halaa:
8 Sereth, Isaar, and Ethnan. | And Cos begot Anob, and Soboba,
9 and the kindred of Aharehel the son of Arum. | And Jabes was more honorable than any of his brethren, and his mother called his name Jabes, saying: Because I bore him with sorrow.
10 | And Jabes called upon the God of Israel, saying: If blessing you will bless me, and will enlarge my borders, and your hand be with me, and you save me from being oppressed by evil. And God granted him the things he prayed for.
11 And Caleb the brother of Sua begot Mahir, who was the 12 father of Esthon. | And Esthon begot Bethrapha, and Phesse, and Tehinna father of the city of Naas: these are the men of 13 Recha. | And the sons of Cenez were Othoniel and Saraia. And 14 the sons of Othoniel: Hathath, and Maonathi. | Maonathi begot Ophra, and Saraia begot Joab the father of the Valley of 15 artificers: for artificers were there. | And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephone, were Hir, and Ela, and Naham. And the 16 son of Ela: Cenez. | The sons also of Jaleleel: Ziph and Zipha, 17 Thiria and Asrael. | And the sons of Esra: Jether, and Mered, and Epher, and Jalon, and he begot Mariam, and Sammai, and 18 Jesba the father of Esthamo. | And his wife Judaia bore Jared the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Icuthiel the father of Zanoe. And these are the sons of Bethia the daugh-19 ter of Pharao, whom Mered took to wife. | And the sons of his

3, 22: Six: counting the father in the number.

wife Odaia the sister of Naham the father of Celia, Garmi, and 20 Esthamo, who was of Machathi. | The sons also of Simon, Amnon, and Rinna the son of Hanan, and Thilon. And the sons of Jesi, Zoheth, and Benzoheth.
21 The sons of Sela the son of Juda: Her the father of Lecha, and Laada the father of Maresa, and the families of the house
22 of them that wrought fine linen in the House of oath. | And he that made the sun to stand, and the men of Lying, and Secure, and Burning, who were princes in Moab, and who returned into 23 Lahem. Now these are things of old. | These are the potters, and they dwelt in Plantations, and Hedges, with the king for his works, and they abode there.

24 The Posterity of Simeon The sons of Simeon: Namuel, 25 and Jamin, Jarib, Zara, Saul: | Sellum his son, Mapsam his son,
26 Masma his son. | The sons of Masma: Hamuel his son, Zachur
27 his son, Semei his son. | The sons of Semei were sixteen, and six daughters: but his brethren had not many sons, and the whole kindred could not reach to the sum of the children of 28 Juda. | And they dwelt in Bersabee, and Molada, and Hasar-
29.30 suhal, | and in Bala, and in Asom, and in Tholad, | and in 31 Bathuel, and in Horma, and in Siceleg, | and in Bethmarchaboth, and in Hasarsusim, and in Bethberai, and in Saarim. These 32 were their cities unto the reign of David. | Their towns also were Etam, and Aen, Remmon, and Thochen, and Asan, five
33 cities. | And all their villages round about these cities as far as Baal. This was their habitation, and the distribution of their dwellings.
34 And Mosabab, and Jemlech, and Josa, the son of Amasias, |
35 and Joel, and Jehu the son of Josabia the son of Saraia the son 36 of Asiel, | and Elioenai, and Jacoba, and Isuhaia, and Asaia, and 37 Adiel, and Ismiel, and Banaia, | Ziza also the son of Sephei the son of Allon the son of Idaia the son of Semri the son of Samaia.
38 | These were named princes in their kindreds, and in the houses
39 of their families were multiplied exceedingly. | And they went forth to enter into Gador as far as to the east side of the valley,
40 to seek pastures for their flocks. | And they found fat pastures, and very good, and a country spacious, and quiet, and fruitful,
41 in which some of the race of Cham had dwelt before. | And these whose names are written above, came in the days of Ezechias king of Juda: and they beat down their tents, and slew the inhabitants that were found there, and utterly destroyed them unto this day: and they dwelt in their place, because they 42 found there fat pastures. | Some also of the children of Simeon, five hundred men, went into mount Seir, having for their cap-taims Phaltias and Naaria and Raphaia and Oziel the sons of 16 Jesi. | And they slew the remnant of the Amalecites, who had been able to escape, and they dwelt there in their stead unto this day.

5

1 The Line of Ruben. Now the sons of Ruben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was his firstborn: but forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his first birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel, and he was not accounted for the first-2 born. | But of the race of Juda, who was the strongest among his brethren, came the princes: but the first birthright was accounted to Joseph).
3 The sons then of Ruben the firstborn of Israel were Enoch, 4 and Phallu, Hesron and Charmi. | The sons of Joel: Samaia his 5 son, Gog his son, Semei his son, | Micha his son, Reia his son, 6 Baal his son, | Beera his son, whom Thelgathphalnasar king of the Assyrians carried away captive, and he was prince in the 7 tribe of Ruben. | And his brethren, and all his kindred, when they were numbered by their families, had for princes Jeiiel, 8 and Zacharias. | And Bala the son of Azaz, the son of Samma, the son of Joel, dwelt in Aroer as far as Nebo, and Beelmeon.
9 | And eastward he had his habitation as far as the entrance of 10 the desert, and the river Euphrates. For they possessed a great number of cattle in the land of Galaad. | And in the days of Saul they fought against the Agarites, and slew them, and dwelt in their tents in their stead, in all the country, that looks to the east of Galaad.
11 And the children of Gad dwelt over against them in the land 12 of Basan, as far as Selcha: | Joiiel the chief, and Saphan the 13 second, and Janai, and Saphat in Basan. | And their brethren according to the houses of their kindreds, were Michael, and Mosollam, and Seba, and Jora, and Jacan, and Zie, and Heber 14 seven. | These were the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jara, the son of Galaad, the son of Michael, the son of 15 Jesisi, the son of Jeddo, the son of Buz. | And their brethren the sons of Ahdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house in their 16 families, | and they dwelt in Galaad, and in Basan and in the towns thereof, and in all the suburbs of Saron, unto the borders.
17 All these were numbered in the days of Joathan king of Juda, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 Gad and Manasses. The sons of Ruben, and of Gad, and of the half tribe of Manasses, fighting men, bearing shields, and swords, and bending the bow, and trained up to battles, four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore that went 19 out to war. | They fought against the Agarites: but the 20 Itureans, and Naphis, and Nodab, | gave them help. And the Agarites were delivered into their hands, and all that were with them, because they called upon God in the battle: and he heard

21 them, because they had put their faith in him. | And they took all that they possessed, of camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand,
22 and of men a hundred thousand souls. | And many fell down slain: for it was the battle of the Lord. And they dwelt in their stead till the captivity.
23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasses possessed the land, from the borders of Basan unto Baal, Hermon, and Sanir,
24 and mount Hermon; for their number was great. | And these were the heads of the house of their kindred: Epher, and Jesi, and Eliel, and Esriel, and Jeremia, and Odoia, and Jediel; most valiant and powerful men, and famous chiefs in their families.
25 But they forsook the God of their fathers, and went astray after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed
26 before them. | And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Phul king of the Assyrians, and the spirit of Thelgathphalnasar king of Assur: and he carried away Ruben, and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasses, and brought them to Lahela, and to Habor, and to Ara, and to the river of Gozan, unto this day.

6

1 The Sons of Levi and Aaron The sons of Levi were 2 Gerson, Caath, and Merari. | The sons of Caath: Amram,
3 Isaar, Hebron, and Oziel. | The children of Amram: Aaron, Moses, and Mary. The sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abiu,
4 Eleazar and Ithamar. | Eleazar begot Phinees, and Phinees
5 begot Abisue. | And Abisue begot Bocci, and Bocci begot Ozi.
6.7 | Ozi begot Zaraias, and Zaraias begot Maraioth. | And Ma-
8 raioth begot Amarias, and Amarias begot Achitob. | Achitob
9 begot Sadoc, and Sadoc begot Achimaas. | Achimaas begot
10 Azarias, Azarias begot Johanan. | Johanan begot Azarias. This is he that executed the priestly office in the house which Solomon
11 built in Jerusalem. | And Azarias begot Amarias and Amarias
12 begot Achitob. | And Achitob begot Sadoc, and Sadoc begot
13 Sellum. | Sellum begot Helcias, and Helcias begot Azarias, |
14.15 Azarias begot Saraias, and Saraias begot Josedec. | Now Josedec went out, when the Lord carried away Juda, and Jerusalem, by the hands of Nabuchodonosor.
16 So the sons of Levi were Gerson, Caath, and Merari.
17 And these are the names of the sons of Gerson: Lobni and

18 Semei. | The sons of Caath: Amram, and Isaar, and Hebron, 19 and Oziel. | The sons of Merari: Moholi and Musi. And these 20 are the kindreds of Levi according to their families. | Of Ger-21 son: Lobni his son, Jahath his son, Zamma his son, | Joah his 22 son, Addo his son, Zara his son, Jethrai his son. | The sons of 23 Caath: Aminadab his son, Core his son, Asir his son, | Elcana
24 his son, Abiasaph his son, Asir his son, | Thahath his son, Uriel
25 his son, Ozias his son, Saul his son. | The sons of Elcana:
26 Amasai, and Achimoth, | and Elcana. The sons of Elcana:
27 Sophai his son, Nahath his son, | Eliab his son, Jeroham his 28 son, Elcana his son. | The sons of Samuel: the firstborn Vas-29 seni, and Abia. | And the sons of Merari: Moholi, Lobni his 30 son, Semei his son, Oza his son, | Sammaa his son, Haggia his son, Asaia his son.

31 These are they, whom David set over the singing men of 32 the house of the Lord, after that the ark was placed. | And they ministered before the tabernacle of the testimony, with singing, until Solomon built the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, 33 and they stood according to their order in the ministry. | And these are they that stood with their sons: of the sons of Caath, 34 Heman a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, | the son of Elcana, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of 35 Thohu, | the son of Suph, the son of Elcana, the son of Ma-36 hath, the son of Amasai, | the son of Elcana, the son of Johel,
37 the son of Azarias, the son of Sophonias, | the son of Thahath, 38 the son of Asir, the son of Abiasaph, the son of Core, | the son of Isaar, the son of Caath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. | 39 And his brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, Asaph the 40 son of Barachias, the son of Samaa, | the son of Michael, the 41 son of Basaia, the son of Melchia, | the son of Athanai, the 42 son of Zara, the son of Adaia, | the son of Ethan, the son of 43 Zamma, the son of Semei, | the son of Jeth, the son of Gerson, 44 the son of Levi. | And the sons of Merari their brethren, on the left hand: Ethan the son of Cusi, the son of Abdi, the son of 45 Meloch, | the son of Hasabia, the son of Amasai, the son of 46 Helcias, | the son of Amasai, the son of Boni, the son of Somer, 47 | the son of Moholi, the son of Musi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 Their brethren also, the Levites, were appointed for all the 49 ministry of the tabernacle of the house of the Lord. | But Aaron and his sons offered burnt offerings upon the altar of holocausts, and upon the altar of incense, for every work of the holy of holies: and to pray for Israel according to all that Moses 50 the servant of God had commanded. | And these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinees his son, Abisue his son, |

51.52 Bocci his son, Ozi his son, Zarahia his son, | Meraioth his 53 son, Amarias his son, Achitob his son, | Sadoc his son, Achimaas his son.

54 The Cities of the Priests And these are their dwelling places by the towns and confines, to wit, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Caathites: for they fell to them by lot. | 55 And they gave them Hebron in the land of Juda, and the sub-56 urbs thereof round about: | But the fields of the city, and the 57 villages to Caleb son of Jephone. | And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities for refuge, Hebron, and Lobna, and the sub-58 urbs thereof, | and Jether and Esthemo, with their suburbs, 59 and Helon, and Dabir with their suburbs: | Asan also, and 60 Bethsames, with their suburbs. | And out of the tribe of Benjamin: Gabee and its suburbs, Almath with its suburbs, Anathoth also with its suburbs: all their cities throughout their families were thirteen.
61 And to the sons of Caath that remained of their kindred they gave out of the half tribe of Manasses ten cities in pos-62 session. | And to the sons of Gerson by their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Aser, and out of the tribe of Nephtali, and out of the tribe of Manasses in Basan, 63 thirteen cities. | And to the sons of Merari by their families, out of the tribe of Ruben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out 64 of the tribe of Zabulon, they gave by lot twelve cities. | And the children of Israel gave to the Levites the cities, and their 65 suburbs. | And they gave them by lot, out of the tribe of the sons of Juda, and out of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, these cities which they 66 called by their names. | And to them that were of the kindred of the sons of Caath, and the cities in their borders were of the 67 tribe of Ephraim. | And they gave them the cities of refuge:
Sichem with its suburbs in mount Ephraim, and Gazer with its 68 suburbs, | Jecmaan also with its suburbs, and Beth-horon in 69 like manner, Helon also with its suburbs, and Gethremmon in 70 like manner, | and out of the half tribe of Manasses, Aner and its suburbs, Baalam and its suburbs: to wit, to them that were 71 left of the family of the sons of Caath. | And to the sons of Gersom, out of the kindred of the half tribe of Manasses, Gaulon, in Basan, and its suburbs, and Astharoth with its sub-72 urbs. | Out of the tribe of Issachar, Cedes and its suburbs, and 73 Dabereth with its suburbs; | Ramoth also and its suburbs, and 74 Anem with its suburbs. | And out of the tribe of Aser: Masal
75 with its suburbs, and Abdon in like manner; | Hucac also and 76 its suburbs, and Rohob with its suburbs. | And out of the tribe of Nephtali, Cedes in Galilee and its suburbs, Hamon with 77 its suburbs, and Cariathaim and its suburbs. | And to the sons of Merari that remained, out of the tribe of Zabulon, Rem-78 mono and its suburbs, and Thabor with its suburbs. | Beyond the Jordan also over against Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, out of the tribe of Ruben: Bosor in the wilderness with 79 its suburbs, and Jassa with its suburbs; | Cademoth also and 80 its suburbs, and Mephaat with its suburbs; | moreover also out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Galaad and its suburbs, 81 and Manaim with its suburbs; | Hesebon also with its suburbs, and Jazer with its suburbs.

7

1 The Sons of Issachar and Benjamin Now the sons of Issachar were Thola, and Phua, Jasub and Simeron, four. | 2 The sons of Thola: Ozi, and Raphaia, and Jeriel, and Jemai, and Jebsem, and Samuel, chiefs of the houses of their kindreds.
Of the posterity of Thola were numbered in the days of David, 3 two and twenty thousand six hundred most valiant men. | The sons of Ozi: Izrahia, of whom were born Michael, and Obadia, 4 and Joel, and Jesia, five all great men. | And there were with them by their families and peoples, six and thirty thousand most valiant men ready for war: for they had many wives and chil-5 dren. | Their brethren also throughout all the house of Issachar were numbered fourscore and seven thousand most valiant men for war.

6 The sons of Benjamin were Bela, and Bechor, and Jadihel, 7 three. | The sons of Bela: Esbon, and Ozi, and Oziel, and Jerimoth and Urai, five chiefs of their families, and most valiant warriors, and their number was twenty-two thousand and 8 thirty-four. | And the sons of Bechor were Zamira, and Joas, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Amri, and Jerimoth, and Abia, and Anathoth, and Almath: all these were the sons of Bechor.
9 | And they were numbered by the families, heads of their kindreds, most valiant men for war, twenty thousand and two 10 hundred. | And the son of Jadihel: Balan. And the sons of Balan; Jehus, and Benjamin, and Aod, and Chanana, and 11 Zethan, and Tharsis, and Ahisahar. | All these were sons of Jadihel, heads of their kindreds, most valiant men, seventeen 12 thousand and two hundred fit to go out to war. | Sepham also and Hapham the sons of Hir: and Hasim the sons of Aher.

The Descendants of Nephtali, Manasses and Ephraim 13 And the sons of Nephtali were Jasiel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Sellum, sons of Bala.

14 And the son of Manasses, Ezriel: and his concubine the Syrian 15 bore Machir the father of Galaad. | And Machir took wives for his sons Happhim, and Saphan: and he had a sister named Maacha. The name of the second was Salphaad, and Salphaad 16 had daughters. | And Maacha the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Phares. And the name of his brother 17 was Sares: and his sons were Ulam and Recen. | And the son of Ulam, Baden. These are the sons of Galaad, the son of 18 Machir, the son of Manasses. | And his sister named Queen 19 bore Goodlyman, and Abiezer, and Mohola. | And the sons of Semida were Ahiu, and Sechem, and Leci, and Aniam.
20 And the sons of Ephraim were Suthala, Bared his son, Tha-hath his son, Elada his son, Thahath his son, and his son Zahad, 21 | and his son Suthala, and his son Ezer and Elad: and the men of Geth born in the land slew them, because they came down to 22 invade their possessions. | And Ephraim their father mourned 23 many days, and his brethren came to comfort him. | And he went in to his wife: and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Beria, because he was born when it went evil 24 with his house: | and his daughter was Sara, who built 25 Bethoron, the nether and the upper, and Ozensara. | And Rapha was his son, and Reseph, and Thale, of whom was born 26 Thaan, | who begot Laadan. And his son was Ammiud, who 27 begot Elisama, | of whom was born Nun, who had Josue for 28 his son. | And their possessions and habitations were Bethel with her daughters, and eastward Noran, and westward Gazer and her daughters, Sichem also with her daughters, as far as Asa with her daughters.
29 And by the borders of the sons of Manasses, Bethsan and her daughters, Thanach and her daughters, Mageddo and her daughters, Dor and her daughters. In these dwelt the children of Joseph, the son of Israel.

30 The Children of Aser The children of Aser were Jemna, 31 and Jesua, and Jessui, and Baria, and Sara their sister. | And the sons of Baria: Haber, and Melchiel; he is the father of 32 Barsaith. | And Heber begot Jephlat, and Somer, and Hotham, 33 and Suaa their sister. | The sons of Jephlat: Phosech, and 34 Chamaal, and Asoth: these are the sons of Jephlat. | And the 35 sons of Somer: Ahi, and Roaga, and Haba, and Aram. | And the sons of Helem his brother: Supha, and Jemna, and Selles, 36 and Amal. | The sons of Supha: Sue, Harnapher, and Sual,

7, 23: Beria: signifies, in evil or in affliction.

37 and Beri, and Jamra, | Bosor and Hod, and Samma, and 38 Salesa, and Jethran, and Bera. | The sons of Jether: Jephone, 39 and Phaspha, and Ara. | And the sons of Olla: Aree, and 40 Hamiel, and Resia. | All these were sons of Aser, heads of their families, choice and most valiant captains of captains. And the number of them that were of the age that was fit for war, was six and twenty thousand.

8

1 Genealogy from Benjamin to Saul Now Benjamin begot Bale his firstborn, Asbel the second, Ahara the third, |
2-3 Nohaa the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. | And the sons of 4 Bale were Addar, and Gera, and Abiud, | and Abisue, and 5 Naaman, and Ahoe, | and Gera, and Sephuphan, and Huram.
6 | These are the sons of Ahod, heads of families that dwelt in 7 Gaba, who were removed into Manahath. | And Naaman, and Achia, and Gera he removed them, and begot Oza, and 8 Ahiud. | And Saharim begot in the land of Moab, after he 9 sent away Husim and Bara his wives. | And he begot of Hodes
10 his wife Jobab, and Sebia, and Mosa, and Melchom, | and Jehus, and Sechia, and Marma. These were his sons heads of 11 their families. | And Mehusim begot Abitub, and Elphaal. | 12 And the sons of Elphaal were Heber, and Misaam, and Samad:
13 who built Ono, and Lod, and its daughters. | And Baria, and Sama were heads of their kindreds that dwelt in Aialon: these 14 drove away the inhabitants of Geth. | And Ahio, and Sesac, 15 16 and Jerimoth, and Zabadia, and Arod, and Heder, | and 17 Michael, and Jespha, and Joba, the sons of Baria. | And Zab-
18 adia, and Mosollam, and Hezeci, and Heber, | and Jesamari,
19 and Jezlia, and Jobab, sons of Elphaal. | and Jacim, and Zechri, 20-21 and Zabdi, | and Elioenai, and Selethai and Eliel, | and 22 Adaia, and Baraia, and Samareth, the sons of Semei. | And 23 Jesphan, and Heber, and Eliel, | and Abdon, and Zechri, and 24-25 Hanan, and Hanania, and Elam, and Anathothia, | and 26 Jephdaia, and Phanuel, the sons of Sesac. | And Samari, and 27 Soboria, and Othalia, | and Jersia, and Elia, and Zechri, the 28 sons of Jeroham. | These were the chief fathers, and heads of 29 their families who dwelt in Jerusalem. | And at Gabaon dwelt 30 Abigabaon, and the name of his wife was Maacha. And his 31-32 firstborn son Abdon, and Sur, and Cis, and Baal, and Nadab, | and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher, and Macelloth. | And Macelloth begot Samaa: and they dwelt over against their brethren in Jerusalem with their brethren.

39 And Ner begot Cis, and Cis begot Saul. And Saul begot Jona-

34 than and Melchisua, and Abinadab, and Esbaal. | And the son of Jonathan was Meribbaal. And Meribbaal begot Micha. |
35 And the sons of Micha were Phithon, and Melech, and Tharaa, 36 and Ahaz. | And Ahaz begot Joada. And Joada begot Alamath,
37 and Azmoth, and Zamri. And Zamri begot Mosa. | And Mosa begot Banaa, whose son was Rapha, of whom was born Elasa, 38 who begot Asel. | And Asel had six sons whose names were Ezricam, Bocru, Ismahel, Saria, Obdia, and Hanan. All these 39 were the sons of Asel. | And the sons of Esec, his brother were Ulam the firstborn, and Jehus the second, and Eliphalet the 40 third. | And the sons of Ulam were most valiant men, and archers of great strength: and they had many sons and grandsons, even to a hundred and fifty. All these were children of Benjamin.

9

1 The Inhabitants of Jerusalem And all Israel was numbered: and the sum of them was written in the book of the kings of Israel, and Juda. And they were carried away to Babylon 2 for their transgression. | Now the first that dwelt in their possessions, and in their cities, were the Israelites, and the priests 3 and the Levites, and the Nathineans. | And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Juda, and of the children of Benjamin, and 4 of the children of Ephraim, and of Manasses: | Othei the son of Ammiud, the son of Amri, the son of Omrai, the son of 5 Bonni, of the sons of Phares the son of Juda. | And of Siloni:
6 Asaia the firstborn, and his sons. | And of the sons of Zara:
7 Jehuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety. | And of the sons of Benjamin: Salo the son of Mosollam, the son of 8 Oduia, the son of Asana. | And Jobania the son of Jeroham.
And Ela the son of Ozi, the son of Mochori. And Mosollam the 9 son of Saphatias, the son of Rahuel, the son of Jebania: | and their brethren by their families, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these were heads of their families, by the houses of their fathers.
10.11 And of the priests: Jedaia, Joiarib, and Jachin: | and Azarias the son of Helcias, the son of Mosollam, the son of Sadoc, the son of Maraioth, the son of Achitob, high priest of 12 the house of God. | And Adaias the son of Jeroham, the son of Phassur, the son of Melchias, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jezra, the son of Mosollam, the son of Mosollamith, 13 the son of Emmer: and their brethren heads in their families

8, 33-34: Esbaal: alias Isboseth. Meribbaal: otherwise Miphiboseth (see 2 Sm 4, 4).

9, 2: Nathineans: these were the posterity of the Gabaonites, whose office was to bring wood, water, etc., for the services of the temple.

a thousand seven hundred and threescore, very strong and able men for the work of the ministry in the house of God.

14 The Offices of Priests and Levites And of the Levites: Semeia the son of Hassub, the son of Ezricam, the son of Hasebia of the sons of Merari. | And Bacbacar the carpenter, and Galal, and Mathania the son of Micha, the son of Zechri, the son of Asaph. | And Obdia the son of Semeia, the son of Galal, the son of Idithum: and Barachia the son of Asa, the son of Elcana, who dwelt in the suburbs of Netophati. | And the porters were Sellum, and Accub, and Telmon, and Ahimam: and their brother Sellum was the prince. | Until that time, in the king's gate eastward, the sons of Levi waited by their turns. | But Sellum the son of Core, the son of Abiasaph, the son of Core, with his brethren and his father's house, the Corites were over the works of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their families in turns were keepers of the entrance of the camp of the Lord. | And Phinees the son of Eleazar was their prince before the Lord. | And Zacharias the son of Mosollamia was porter of the gate of the tabernacle of the testimony. | All these that were chosen to be porters at the gates were two hundred and twelve: and they were registered in their proper towns: whom David and Samuel the seer appointed in their trust, | as also their sons, to keep the gates of the house of the Lord, and the tabernacle by their turns. | In four quarters were the porters: that is to say, toward the east, and west, and north, and south. | And their brethren dwelt in villages; and came upon their sabbath days from time to time.

26 To these four Levites were committed the whole number of the porters. And they were over the chambers, and treasures, of the house of the Lord. | And they abode in their watches round about the temple of the Lord: that when it was time, they might open the gates in the morning. | And some of their stock had the charge of the vessels for the ministry: for the vessels were both brought in and carried out by number. | Some of them also had the instruments of the sanctuary committed unto them: and the charge of the fine flour, and wine, and oil, and frankincense, and spices. | And the sons of the priests made the ointments of the spices. | And Mathathias a Levite, the firstborn of Sellum the Corite, was overseer of such things as were fried in the frying pan. | And some of the sons of Caath their brethren, were over the loaves of proposition, to prepare always new for every sabbath. | These are the chief of the singing men of the families of the Levites, who dwelt in the chambers, by the temple, that they might serve continually day and night in their

34 ministry. | The heads of the Levites, princes in their families, abode in Jerusalem.
35 And in Gabaon dwelt Jehiel the father of Gabaon, and the 36 name of his wife was Maacha. | His firstborn son Abdon, and 37 Sur, and Cis, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, | Gedor also, and 38 Ahio, and Zacharias, and Macelloth. | And Macelloth begot Samaan: these dwelt over against their brethren in Jerusalem, 39 with their brethren. | Now Ner begot Cis: and Cis begot Saul:
and Saul begot Jonathan and Melchisua, and Abinadab, and 40 Esbaal. | And the son of Jonathan, was Meribbaal: and Merib-41 baal begot Micha. | And the sons of Micha were Phithon, and 42 Melech, and Tharaa, and Ahaz. | And Ahaz begot Jara, and Jara begot Alamath, and Azmoth, and Zamri. And Zamri begot
43 Mosa. | And Mosa begot Banaa: whose son Raphaia begot 44 Elasa: of whom was born Asel. | And Asel had six sons whose names are, Ezricam, Bocru, Ismahel, Saria, Obdia, Hanan: these are the sons of Asel.

10

1 The Death of Saul Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, 2 and fell down wounded in mount Gelboe. | And the Philistines drew near pursuing after Saul, and his sons. And they killed 3 Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchisua the sons of Saul. | And the battle grew hard against Saul: and the archers reached him, 4 and wounded him with arrows. | And Saul said to his armor-bearer: Draw your sword, and kill me: lest these uncircumcised come, and mock me. But his armorbearer would not, for he was 5 struck with fear. So Saul took his sword, and fell upon it. | And when his armorbearer saw it, to wit, that Saul was dead, he also 6 fell upon his sword and died. | So Saul died, and his three sons:
and all his house fell together.
7 And when the men of Israel that dwelt in the plains, saw this, they fled. And Saul and his sons being dead, they forsook their cities, and were scattered up and down: and the Philistines 8 came, and dwelt in them. | And the next day the Philistines taking away the spoils of them that were slain, found Saul and 9 his sons lying on mount Gelboe. | And when they had stripped him, and cut off his head, and taken away his armor, they sent it into their land, to be carried about, and shown in the temples 10 of the idols and to the people. | And his armor they dedicated in the temple of their god, and his head they fastened up in the 11 temple of Dagon. | And when the men of Jabes Galaad had 12 heard this, to wit, all that the Philistines had done to Saul, | all the valiant men of them arose and took the bodies of Saul and of his sons, and brought them to Jabes, and buried their bones under the oak that was in Jabes: and they fasted seven days. | 13 So Saul died for his iniquities, because he transgressed the commandment of the Lord, which he had commanded, and kept it 14 not: and moreover consulted also a witch, | and trusted not in the Lord. Therefore he slew him, and transferred his kingdom to David the son of Isai.

11

1 David's Consecration Then all Israel gathered themselves to David in Hebron, saying: We are your bone, and your flesh. |
2 Yesterday also, and the day before when Saul was king, it was you that led out and brought in Israel. For the Lord your God said to you: You shall feed my people Israel, and you shall be
3 ruler over them. | So all the ancients of Israel came to the king to Hebron: and David made a covenant with them before the Lord. And they anointed him king over Israel, according to the word of the Lord which he spoke in the hand of Samuel.
4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, 5 where the Jebusites were the inhabitants of the land. | And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David: You shall not come in here. But David took the castle of Sion, which is the city of David. |
6 And he said: Whosoever shall first strike the Jebusites, shall be the head and chief captain. And Joab the son of Sarvia went up
7 first, and was made the general. | And David dwelt in the castle,
8 and therefore it was called the city of David. | And he built the city round about from Mello all round, and Joab built the rest
9 of the city. | And David went on growing and increasing: and the Lord of hosts was with him.

10 David's Valiant Men These are the chief of the valiant men of David, who helped him to be made king over all Israel, according to the word of the Lord, which he spoke to Israel. |
11 And this is the number of the heroes of David: Jesbaam the son of Hachamoni the chief among the thirty. He lifted up his spear against three hundred wounded by him at one time. |
12 And after him was Eleazar his uncle's son, the Ahohite, who 13 was one of the three mightiest. | He was with David in Phesdomim, when the Philistines were gathered to that place to battle: and the field of that country was full of barley, and
14 the people fled from before the Philistines. | But these men stood in the midst of the field, and defended it: and they slew the Philistines, and the Lord gave a great deliverance to his 15 people. | And three of the thirty captains went down to the rock, wherein David was, to the cave of Odollam, when the

16 Philistines encamped in the valley of Raphaim. | And David was in a hold, and the garrison of the Philistines in Bethlehem.
17 And David longed, and said: O that some man would give me 18 water of the cistern of Bethlehem, which is in the gate. | And these three broke through the midst of the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the cistern of Bethlehem, which was in the gate, and brought it to David to drink: and he would 19 not drink of it, but rather offered it to the Lord, | saying: God forbid that I should do this in the sight of my God, and should drink the blood of these men; for with the danger of their lives they have brought me the water. And therefore he would not drink. These things did the three most valiant.
20 And Abisai the brother of Joab, he was chief of three, and he lifted up his spear against three hundred whom he slew, and 21 he was renowned among the three, | and illustrious among the second three, and their captain: but yet he attained not to 22 the first three. | Banaias the son of Joiada, a most valiant man, of Cabseel, who had done many acts: he slew the two ariels of Moab: and he went down, and killed a lion in the midst of a pit 23 in the time of snow. | And he slew an Egyptian, whose stature was of five cubits, and who had a spear like a weaver's beam.
And he went down to him with a staff, and plucked away the spear, that he held in his hand, and slew him with his own 24 spear. | These things did Banaias the son of Joiada, who was 25 renowned among the three valiant ones, | and the first among the thirty, but yet to the three he attained not: and David made him of his council.
26 Moreover the most valiant men of the army were Asahel brother of Joab, and Elchanan the son of his uncle of Bethle-27.28 hem. | Sammoth an Arorite, Helles a Phalonite, | Ira the son
29 of Acces a Thecuite, Abiezer an Anathothite, | Sobbochai a 30 Husathite, Ilai an Ahohite, | Maharai a Netophathite, Heled
31 the son of Baana a Netophathite, | Ethai the son of Ribai of 32 Gabaath of the sons of Benjamin, Banai a Pharathonite, | Hurai of the torrent Gaas, Abiel an Arbathite, Azmoth a Bauramite, 33 Eliaba a Salabonite, | the sons of Assem a Gezonite, Jonathan 34 the son of Sage an Ararite, | Ahiam the son of Sachar an 35.36 Ararite, | Eliphal the son of Ur, | Hepher a Mecherathite,
37 Ahia a Phelonite, | Hesro a Carmelite, Naarai the son of Asbai,
38 | Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibahar the son of Agarai. | 39 Selec an Ammonite, Naharai a Berothite, the armorbearer of 40 Joab the son of Sarvia. | Ira a Jethrite, Gareb a Jethrite, |

11, 22: Two ariels: two lions, or lion-like men: ariel means, in Hebrew, a lion.

41.42 Urias a Hethite, Zabad the son of Oholi, | Adina the son of Siza a Rubenite the prince of the Rubenites, and thirty with 43 him, | Hanan the son of Maacha, and Josaphat a Mathanite, | 44 Ozia an Astarothite, Samma, and Jehiel the sons of Hotham an 45 Aroïte, | Jedihel the son of Samri, and Joha his brother a 46 Thosaite, | Eliel a Mahumite, and Jeribai, and Josaia the sons of Elnaem, and Jethma a Moabite, Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel of Masobia.

12

1 The Men Who Followed David Now these are they that came to David to Siceleg, while he yet fled from Saul the son of 2 Cis, and they were most valiant and excellent warriors, | bending the bow, and using either hand in hurling stones with slings, and shooting arrows: of the brethren of Saul of Benjamin: | 3 the chief Ahiezer, and Joas, the sons of Samaa of Gabaath, and Jaziel, and Phallet, the sons of Asmoth, and Baracha, and 4 Jehu an Anathothite. | And Samaias of Gabaon, the stoutest amongst the thirty and over the thirty; Jeremias, and Jeheziel, 5 and Johanan, and Jezabad of Gaderoth: | and Eluzai, and Jerimuth, and Baalia, and Samaria, and Saphatia the Haruphite: 6 | Elcana, and Jesia, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jesbaam of 7 Carehim: | And Joela, and Zabadia, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 From Gaddi also there went over to David, when he lay hidden in the wilderness, most valiant men and excellent warriors, holding shield and spear: whose faces were like the faces of a lion, and they were swift like the roebucks on the mountains. 9.10 | Ezer the chief, Obdias the second, Eliab the third, | Mas- 11 mana the fourth, Jeremias the fifth, | Ethi the sixth, Eliel the 12.13 seventh, | Johanan the eighth, Elzebad the ninth, | Jerenias 14 the tenth, Machbani the eleventh, | these were of the sons of Gad, captains of the army: the least of them was captain over a 15 hundred soldiers, and the greatest over a thousand. | These are they who passed over the Jordan in the first month, when it used to flow over its banks: and they put to flight all that dwelt in the valleys both toward the east and toward the west.

16 And there came also of the men of Benjamin and of Juda to 17 the hold in which David abode. | And David went out to meet them, and said: If you have come peaceably to me to help me, let my heart be joined to you. But if you plot against me for my enemies whereas I have no iniquity in my hands, let the God of 18 our fathers see, and judge. | But the spirit came upon Amasai the chief among thirty, and he said: We are yours, O David, and for you, O son of Isai: peace, peace be to you, and peace to your helpers. For your God is helping you. So David received 19 them, and made them captains of the band. | And there were some of Manasses that went over to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to fight. But he did not fight with them: because the lords of the Philistines taking counsel sent him back, saying: With the danger of our heads he will return 20 to his master Saul. | So when he went back to Siceleg, there fled to him of Manasses, Ednas and Jozabad, and Jedihel, and Michael, and Ednas, and Jozabad, and Eliu, and Salathi, cap-21 tains of thousands in Manasses. | These helped David against the rovers: for they were all most valiant men, and were made 22 commanders in the army. | Moreover day by day there came some to David to help him till they became a great number, like the army of God.

23 The Armies of David That Made Him King And this is the number of the chiefs of the army who came to David, when he was in Hebron, to transfer to him the kingdom of Saul, 24 according to the word of the Lord. | The sons of Juda bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred well appointed to 25 war. | Of the sons of Simeon valiant men for war, seven thou-
26 sand one hundred. | Of the sons of Levi, four thousand six 27 hundred. | And Joiada prince of the race of Aaron, and with 28 him three thousand seven hundred. | Sadoc also a young man of excellent disposition, and the house of his father, twenty-29 two principal men. | And of the sons of Benjamin the brethren of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto a great part of them fol-30 lowed the house of Saul. | And of the sons of Ephraim, twenty thousand eight hundred, men of great valor renowned in their 31 kindreds. | And of the half tribe of Manasses, eighteen thousand: every one by their names, came to make David king. | 32 Also of the sons of Issachar men of understanding, that knew all times to order what Israel should do, two hundred principal men: and all the rest of the tribe followed their counsel. | 33 And of Zabulon such as went forth to battle, and stood in array well appointed with armor for war, there came fifty thousand 34 to his aid, with no double heart. | And of Nephtali, a thousand leaders: and with them seven and thirty thousand, furnished 35 with shield and spear. | Of Dan also, twenty-eight thousand six
36 hundred prepared for battle. | And of Aser, forty thousand 37 going forth to fight, and challenging in battle. | And on the other side of the Jordan of the sons of Ruben, and of Gad, and of the half of the tribe of Manasses, a hundred and twenty thousand, furnished with arms for war.
38 All these men of war well appointed to fight came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel.

And all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David 39 king. | And they were there with David three days eating and 40 drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. | Moreover they that were near them, even as far as Issachar, and Zabulon, and Nephtali, brought loaves on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, to eat: meal, figs, raisins, wine, oil, and oxen, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Israel.

13

1 The Ark Brought Back And David consulted with the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, and with all the com-
2 manders. | And he said to all the assembly of Israel: If it please you, and if the words which I speak come from the Lord our God, let us send to the rest of our brethren into all the countries of Israel, and to the priests, and the Levites, that dwell in the
3 suburbs of the cities, to gather themselves to us, | and let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we sought it not in 4 the days of Saul. | And all the multitude answered that it should be so: for the word pleased all the people.
5 So David assembled all Israel from Sihor of Egypt, even to the entering into Emath, to bring the ark of God from 6 Cariathiarim. | And David went up with all the men of Israel to the hill of Cariathiarim which is in Juda, to bring thence the ark of the Lord God sitting upon the cherubim, where his name
7 is called upon. | And they carried the ark of God upon a new cart, out of the house of Abinadab. And Oza and his brother
8 drove the cart. | And David and all Israel played before God with all their might: with hymns, and with harps, and with psalteries, and timbrels, and cymbals, and trumpets.

9 Oza Punished for Touching the Ark And when they came to the floor of Chidon, Oza put forth his hand, to hold up the ark: for the ox being wanton had made it lean a little on 10 one side. | And the Lord was angry with Oza, and struck him, because he had touched the ark; and he died there before the 11 Lord. | And David was troubled because the Lord had divided Oza: and he called that place the Breach of Oza to this day. | 12 And he feared God at that time, saying: How can I bring in the 13 ark of God to me? | And therefore he brought it not home to himself, that is, into the city of David, but carried it aside into 14 the house of Obededom the Gethite. | And the ark of God remained in the house of Obededom three months: and the Lord blessed his house, and all that he had.

14

1 The Children of David And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and masons, and car-2 penters, to build him a house. | And David perceived that the Lord had confirmed him king over Israel, and that his kingdom
3 was exalted over his people Israel. | And David took other wives
4 in Jerusalem: and he begot sons, and daughters. | Now these are the names of them that were born to him in Jerusalem:
5 Samua, and Sobad, Nathan, and Solomon. | Jebahar, and 6 Elisua, and Eliphalet, | and Noga, and Napheg, and Japhia, 7 Elisama, and Baaliada, and Eliphalet.

8 David Defeats the Philistines And the Philistines hearing that David was anointed king over all Israel, went all up to seek him: and David heard of it, and went out against them. | 9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the vale of 10 Raphaim. | And David consulted the Lord, saying: Shall I go up against the Philistines, and will you deliver them into my hand? And the Lord said to him: Go up, and I will deliver them 11 into your hand. | And when they came to Baalpharasim, David defeated them there. And he said: God has divided my enemies by my hand, as waters are divided: and therefore the name of 12 that place was called Baalpharasim. | And they left there their gods: and David commanded that they should be burned. | 13 Another time also the Philistines made an irruption, and spread 14 themselves abroad in the valley. | And David consulted God again; and God said to him: Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the pear trees. | 15 And when you shall hear the sound of one going in the tops of the pear trees, then shall you go out to battle. For God is going 16 out before you to strike the army of the Philistines. | And David did as God had commanded him, and defeated the army of the 17 Philistines, slaying them from Gabaon to Gazera. | And the name of David became famous in all countries: and the Lord made all nations fear him.

15

1 The Levites Carry the Ark He made also houses for himself in the city of David: and built a place for the ark of God, 2 and pitched a tabernacle for it. | Then David said: No one ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites, whom the Lord has chosen to carry it, and to minister unto himself for ever. | 3 And he gathered all Israel together into Jerusalem, that the ark of God might be brought into its place, which he had prepared 4.5 for it. | And the sons of Aaron also, and the Levites. | Of the children of Caath, Uriel was the chief: and his brethren a hun-6 dred and twenty. | Of the sons of Merari, Asaia the chief: and 7 his brethren two hundred and twenty. | Of the sons of Gersom, 8 Joel the chief: and his brethren a hundred and thirty. | Of the sons of Elisaphan, Semeias the chief: and his brethren two hun-9 dred. | Of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief: and his brethren 10 eighty. | Of the sons of Oziel, Aminadab the chief: and his 11 brethren a hundred and twelve. | And David called Sadoc, and Abiathar the priests, and the Levites, Uriel, Asaia, Joel, Semeia, 12 Eliel, and Aminadab. | And he said to them: You that are the heads of the Levitical families, be sanctified with your brethren; and bring the ark of the Lord the God of Israel to the place, 13 which is prepared for it: | lest as the Lord at first struck us, because you were not present, the same should now also come to pass, by our doing some thing against the law.

14 So the priests and the Levites were sanctified, to carry the ark 15 of the Lord the God of Israel. | And the sons of Levi took the ark of God, as Moses had commanded, according to the word of the Lord upon their shoulders, with the staves.

16 The Ark Brought into the City of David And David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites, to appoint some of their brethren to be singers with musical instruments, to wit, on psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, that the joyful noise might 17 resound on high. | And they appointed Levites, Heman the son of Joel: and of his brethren Asaph the son of Barachias: and of the sons of Merari, their brethren, Ethan the son of Casaia. | 18 And with them their brethren: in the second rank, Zacharias, and Ben, and Jaziel, and Semiramoth, and Jahiel, and Ani, and Eliab, and Banaias, and Maasias, and Mathathias, and Eliphalu, 19 and Macenias, and Obededom, and Jehiel, the porters. | Now the singers, Hemar, Asaph, and Ethan, sounded with cymbals of 20 brass. | And Zacharias, and Oziel, and Semiramoth, and Jehiel, and Ani, and Eliab, and Maasias, and Banaias, sang mysteries 21 upon psalteries. | And Mathathias, and Eliphalu, and Macenias and Obededom, and Jehiel, and Ozaziu, sang a song of victory 22 for the octave upon harps. | And Chonenias chief of the Levites, presided over the prophecy, to give out the tunes: for he was 23 very skillful. | And Barachias, and Elcana, were doorkeepers of 24 the ark. | And Sebenias, and Josaphat, and Nathanael, and Amasai, and Zacharias, and Banaias, and Eliezer the priests, 15, 22: Prophecy, to give out the tunes: singing praises to God is here called prophecy.

sounded with trumpets, before the ark of God: and Obededom and Jehias were porters of the ark.

25 So David and all the ancients of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord
26 out of the house of Obededom with joy. | And when God had helped the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the
27 Lord, they offered in sacrifice seven oxen, and seven rams. | And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that carried the ark, and the singing men, and Chonenias the ruler of the prophecy among the singers: and David also had
28 on him an ephod of linen. | And all Israel brought the ark of the covenant of the Lord with joyful shouting, and sounding with the sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and cymbals,
29 and psalteries, and harps. | And when the ark of the covenant of the Lord had come to the city of David, Michol the daughter of Saul looking out at a window, saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

16

1 The Ark Placed in the Tabernacle So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent, which David had pitched for it: and they offered holocausts and peace offer-
2 ings before God. | And when David had made an end of offering holocausts and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the
3 name of the Lord. | And he divided to all and every one, both men and women, a loaf of bread, and a piece of roasted beef,
4 and flour fried with oil. | And he appointed Levites to minister before the ark of the Lord, and to remember his works, and to
5 glorify, and praise the Lord God of Israel. | Asaph the chief, and next after him Zacharias: moreover Jahiel, and Semiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mathathias, and Eliab, and Banaias, and Obededom: and Jehiel over the instruments of psaltery, and harps:
6 and Asaph sounded with cymbals: | but Banaias, and Jaziel the priests, to sound the trumpet continually before the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

7 David's Psalm of Praise to the Lord In that day David made Asaph the chief to give praise to the Lord with his brethren.

8 Praise you the Lord, and call upon his name: make known his doings among the nations.

15, 25-28: The Chronicler adds details to this account taken from 2 Sm 6, 12-15.

9 Sing to him, yea, sing praises to him: and relate all his wondrous works.
10 Praise his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice, that seek the Lord.
11 Seek the Lord, and his power: seek his face evermore.
12 Remember his wonderful works, which he has done: his signs, and the judgments of his mouth.
13 O you seed of Israel his servants, you children of Jacob his chosen.
14 He is the Lord our God: his judgments are in all the earth.
15 Remember for ever his covenant: the word, which he commanded to a thousand generations.
16 The covenant which he made with Abraham: and his oath to Isaac.
17 And he appointed the same to Jacob for a precept: and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:
18 Saying: To you will I give the land of Chanaan: the lot of your inheritance.
19 When they were but a small number: very few and sojourners in it.
20 And they passed from nation to nation: and from a kingdom to another people.
21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: and reproved kings for their sake.
22 Touch not my anointed: and do no evil to my prophets.
23 Sing to the Lord, all the earth: show forth from day to day his salvation.
24 Declare his glory among the Gentiles: his wonders among all people.
25 For the Lord is great and exceedingly to be praised: and he is to be feared above all gods.
26 For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.
27 Praise and magnificence are before him: strength and joy in his place.
28 Bring to the Lord, O you families of the nations: bring to the Lord glory and empire.
29 Give to the Lord glory to his name; bring up sacrifice, and come in his sight: and adore the Lord in holy becomingness.
30 Let all the earth be moved at his presence: for he has founded the world immovable.
31 Let the heavens rejoice, and the earth be glad: and let them say among the nations: The Lord has reigned.
32 Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all things that are in them.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood give praise before the Lord:
because he has come to judge the earth.
34 Give glory to the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endures for ever.
35 And say: Save us, O God our savior; and gather us together; and deliver us from the nations: that we may give glory to your holy name, and may rejoice in singing your praises.
36 Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel from eternity to eternity:
and let all the people say, Amen, and a hymn to God.
37 So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, Asaph and his brethren to minister in the presence of the ark 38 continually day by day, and in their courses. | And Obededom, with his brethren sixty-eight: and Obededom the son of Idithun, 39 and Hosa he appointed to be porters. | And Sadoc the priest, and his brethren priests, before the tabernacle of the Lord in 40 the high place, which was in Gabaon. | That they should offer holocausts to the Lord upon the altar of holocausts continually, morning and evening, according to all that is written in the law 41 of the Lord, which he commanded Israel. | And after him Heman, and Idithun, and the rest that were chosen, every one by his name to give praise to the Lord: because his mercy 42 endures for ever. | And Heman and Idithun sounded the trumpet, and played on the cymbals, and all kinds of musical instruments to sing praises to God. And the sons of Idithun he 43 made porters. | And all the people returned to their houses: and David to bless also his own house.

17

1 Nathan's Message to David Now when David was dwelling in his house, he said to Nathan the prophet: Behold I dwell in a house of cedar; and the ark of the covenant of the Lord is 2 under skins. | And Nathan said to David: Do all that is in 3 your heart: for God is with you. | Now that night the word 4 of God came to Nathan, saying: | Go, and speak to David my servant: Thus says the Lord: You shall not build me a house 5 to dwell in. | For I have not remained in a house from the time that I brought up Israel, to this day: but I have been always 6 changing places in a tabernacle, and in a tent, | abiding with all Israel. Did I ever speak to any one, of all the judges of Israel, whom I charged to feed my people, saying: Why have you not built me a house of cedar?
7 Now therefore thus shall you say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pastures, from following the flock, that you should be ruler of my people Israel.
8 | And I have been with you wherever you have gone: and have slain all your enemies before you, and have made you a name like that of one of the great ones that are renowned in the 9 earth. | And I have given a place to my people Israel: they shall be planted, and shall dwell therein, and shall be moved no more: neither shall the children of iniquity waste them, as at the be-

10 ginning, | since the days that I gave judges to my people Israel, and have humbled all your enemies. And I declare to you, that 11 the Lord will build you a house. | And when you shall have ended your days to go to your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you, which shall be of your sons: and I will establish his 12 kingdom. | He shall build me a house: and I will establish his 13 throne for ever. | I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I
14 took it from him that was before you. | But I will settle him in my house, and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be most firm for ever.

15 David's Prayer According to all these words, and according 16 to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David. | And king David came and sat before the Lord, and said:

Who am I, O Lord God, and what is my house, that you should give such things to me?

17 But even this has seemed little in your sight: and therefore you have also spoken concerning the house of your servant for the time to come; and have made me remarkable above all men, O Lord God.

18 What can David add more, seeing you have thus glorified your servant, and known him?

19 O Lord, for your servant's sake, according to your own heart, you have shown all this magnificence, and would have all the great things to be known.

20 O Lord, there is none like you, and there is no other God besides you, of all whom we have heard of with our ears.

21 For what other nation is there upon earth like your people Israel, whom God went to deliver, and make a people for himself: and by his greatness and terrors cast out nations before their face whom he had delivered out of Egypt?

22 And you have made your people Israel to be your own people for ever: and you, O Lord, have become their God.

23 Now therefore, O Lord, let the word which you have spoken to your servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever: and do as you have said.

24 And let your name remain and be magnified for ever. And let it be said: The Lord of hosts is God of Israel, and the house of David his servant remains before him.

25 For you, O Lord my God, have revealed to the ear of your servant, that you will build him a house: and therefore your servant has found confidence to pray before you.
26 And now, O Lord, you are God: and you have promised to your servant such great benefits.
27 And you have begun to bless the house of your servant that it may be always before you: for seeing you bless it, O Lord, it shall be blessed for ever.

18

1 David's Victories And it came to pass after this, that David defeated the Philistines, and humbled them, and took away Geth, and her daughters out of the hands of the Philistines. |
2 And he defeated Moab: and the Moabites were made David's
3 servants, and brought him gifts. | At that time David defeated also Adarezer king of Soba of the land of Hemath, when he went to extend his dominions as far as the river Euphrates. |
4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and he hamstrung all the chariot horses, only a hundred chariots, which
5 he reserved for himself. | And the Syrians of Damascus came also to help Adarezer king of Soba: and David slew of them
6 likewise two and twenty thousand men. | And he put a garrison in Damascus, that Syria also should serve him, and bring gifts. And the Lord assisted him in all things to which he went.
7 And David took the golden quivers which the servants of 8 Adarezer had: and he brought them to Jerusalem. | Likewise out of Thebath and Chun, cities of Adarezer, he brought very much brass, of which Solomon made the brazen sea, and the
9 pillars, and the vessels of brass. | Now when Thou king of Hemath heard that David had defeated all the army of Adarezer
10 king of Soba, | he sent Adoram his son to king David, to desire peace of him, and to congratulate him that he had defeated and overthrown Adarezer: for Thou was an enemy to Adarezer.
11 | And all the vessels of gold, and silver, and brass king David consecrated to the Lord, with the silver and gold which he had taken from all the nations: as well from Edom, and from Moab, and from the sons of Ammon, as from the Philistines, and from Amalec.
12 And Abisai the son of Sarvia slew of the Edomites in the vale
13 of the saltpits, eighteen thousand. | And he put a garrison in Edom, that Edom should serve David. And the Lord pre-
14 served David in all things to which he went. | So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice
15 among all his people. | And Joab the son of Sarvia was over

16 the army: and Josaphat the son of Ahilud recorder. | And Sadoc the son of Achitob, and Achimelech the son of Abiathar, 17 were the priests: and Susa, scribe. | And Banaias the son of Joiada was over the bands of the Cerethi, and the Phelethi: and the sons of David were chief about the king.

19

1 The Abuse of David's Messengers Now it came to pass that Naas the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son 2 reigned in his stead. | And David said: I will show kindness to Hanon the son of Naas: for his father did a favor to me.
And David sent messengers to comfort him upon the death of his father. But when they came into the land of the children of 3 Ammon, to comfort Hanon, | the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanon: You think perhaps that David, to do honor to your father has sent comforters to you; and you do not take notice, that his servants have come to you to consider, 4 and search, and spy out your land. | Wherefore Hanon shaved the heads and beards of the servants of David, and cut away their garments from the buttocks to the feet, and sent them 5 away. | And when they had gone, they sent word to David, who sent to meet them (for they had suffered a great affront), and ordered them to stay at Jericho till their beards grew and 6 then to return. | And when the children of Ammon saw that they had done an injury to David, Hanon and the rest of the people sent a thousand talents of silver, to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria Maacha, 7 and out of Soba. | And they hired two and thirty thousand chariots, and the king of Maacha, with his people. And they came and camped over against Medaba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together out of their cities, and 8 came to battle. | And when David heard of it he sent Joab, and all the army of valiant men.

9 Ammonites and Syrians Overcome And the children of Ammon came out and put their army in array before the gate of the city: and the kings, that had come to their aid, stood 10 apart in the field. | Wherefore Joab, understanding that the battle was set against him before and behind, chose out the bravest men of all Israel, and marched against the Syrians. | 11 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abisai his brother, and they went against the children of Ammon. | 12 And he said: If the Syrians be too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for you, I 13 will help you. | Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves manfully for our people, and for the cities of our God:

14 and the Lord will do that which is good in his sight. | So Joab and the people that were with him, went against the Syrians 15 to the battle. And he put them to flight. | And the children of Ammon seeing that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled from Abisai his brother, and went into the city. And Joab also returned to Jerusalem.
16 But the Syrians, seeing that they had fallen before Israel, sent messengers, and brought to them the Syrians that were beyond the river. And Sophach, general of the army of Adarezer, 17 was their leader. | And it was told David, and he gathered together all Israel, and passed the Jordan, and came upon them, and put his army in array against them, and they fought with 18 him. | But the Syrian fled before Israel. And David slew of the Syrians seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand foot-19 men, and Sophach the general of the army. | And when the servants of Adarezer saw themselves overcome by Israel, they went over to David, and served him: and Syria would not help the children of Ammon any more.

20

1 Other Victories over Philistines And it came to pass after the course of a year, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab gathered together an army and the strength of the troops: and wasted the land of the children of Ammon: and went and besieged Rabba. But David stayed at Jerusalem, when Joab smote 2 Rabba, and destroyed it. | And David took the crown of Mel-chom from his head, and found in it a talent weight of gold, and most precious stones, and he made himself a diadem of it.
3 He took also the spoils of the city which were very great. | And the people that were therein he brought out: and made harrows, and sleds, and chariots of iron to go over them, so that they were cut and bruised to pieces: in this manner David dealt with all the cities of the children of Ammon: and he returned with all his people to Jerusalem.
4 After this there arose a war at Gazer against the Philistines: in which Sabachai the Husathite slew Saphai of the race of 5 Raphaim, and humbled them. | Another battle also was fought against the Philistines, in which Adeodatus the son of Saltus a Bethlehemite slew the brother of Goliath the Gethite, the staff 6 of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. | There was another battle also in Geth, in which there was a man of great stature, 19, 18: Seven thousand chariots: this means seven thousand men who fought in chariots.

whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand 7 and foot: who also was born of the stock of Rapha. | He reviled Israel: but Jonathan the son of Samaa the brother of David slew him. These were the sons of Rapha in Geth, who fell by the hand of David and his servants.

21

1 David Numbers Israel And Satan rose up against Israel:
2 and moved David to number Israel. | And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people: Go, and number Israel from Bersabee even to Dan; and bring me the number of them that I
3 may know it. | And Joab answered: The Lord make his people a hundred times more than they are! But, my lord the king, are they not all your servants? Why does my lord seek this thing,
4 which may be imputed as a sin to Israel? | But the king's word rather prevailed: and Joab departed, and went through all Is-
5 rael, and returned to Jerusalem. | And he gave David the number of them, whom he had surveyed: and all the number of Israel was found to be eleven hundred thousand men that drew the sword: and of Juda four hundred and seventy thousand
6 fighting men. | But Levi and Benjamin he did not number: for Joab unwillingly executed the king's orders.
7 And God was displeased with this thing that was commanded:
8 and he struck Israel. | And David said to God: I have sinned exceedingly in doing this: I beseech you take away the iniquity
9 of your servant, for I have done foolishly. | And the Lord
10 spoke to Gad the seer of David, saying: | Go, and speak to David, and tell him: Thus says the Lord: I give you the choice of three things. Choose one which you will, and I will do it to 11 you. And when Gad came to David, he said to him: Thus says the Lord: Choose which you will:

12 David Punished by the Lord Either three years' famine: or three months to flee from your enemies, and not to be able to escape their sword: or three days to have the sword of the Lord, and pestilence in the land, and the angel of the Lord destroying in all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore see what I shall answer
13 him who sent me. | And David said to Gad: I am on every side in a great strait; but it is better for me to fall into the hands of the Lord, for his mercies are many, than into the hands of men.

21, 1-30: Details are added here to the account taken from 2 Sm 24.
21, 5: The number: the difference of the numbers here and 2 Sm 24, 9 may be explained by textual corruption. Both sets of numbers are inflated.

14 | So the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel. And there fell of 15 Israel seventy thousand men. | And he sent an angel to Jerusalem, to strike it. And as he was striking it, the Lord beheld, and took pity for the greatness of the evil: and said to the angel that destroyed: It is enough, now stop your hand. And the angel of the Lord stood by the thrashingfloor of Ornan the
16 Jebusite. | And David lifting up his eyes, saw the angel of the Lord standing between heaven and earth, with a drawn sword in his hand, turned against Jerusalem: and both he and the an-
17 cients clothed in haircloth, fell down flat on the ground. | And David said to God: Am not I he that commanded the people to be numbered? It is I that have sinned: it is I that have done the evil, but as for this flock, what has it deserved? O Lord my God, let your hand be turned, I beseech you, upon me, and upon my father's house: and let not your people be destroyed.

18 Ornan's Thrashingfloor And the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to tell David, to go up, and build an altar to the 19 Lord God in the thrashingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. | And David went up, according to the word of Gad, which he spoke
20 to him in the name of the Lord. | Now when Ornan looked up, and saw the angel, he and his four sons hid themselves: for at
21 that time he was thrashing wheat in the floor. | And as David was coming to Ornan, Ornan saw him, and went out of the thrashingfloor to meet him, and bowed down to him with his
22 face to the ground. | And David said to him: Give me this place of your thrashingfloor, that I may build therein an altar to the Lord: but you shall take of me as much money as it is
23 worth, that the plague may cease from the people. | And Ornan said to David: Take it, and let my lord the king do all that pleases him: and moreover the oxen also I give for a holocaust, and the drays for wood, and the wheat for the sacrifice.
24 I will give it all willingly. | And king David said to him: It shall not be so, but I will give you money as much as it is worth: for I must not take it from you, and so offer to the Lord holo-
25 causts free cost. | So David gave to Ornan for the place, six hundred sicles of gold of just weight.

26 David's Repentance and Sacrifice And he built there an altar to the Lord: and he offered holocausts, and peace offerings, and he called upon the Lord, and he heard him by sending fire
27 from heaven upon the altar of the holocaust. | And the Lord commanded the angel: and he put his sword again into the 21, 15: Ornan: otherwise Areuna.

28 sheath. | And David, seeing that the Lord had heard him in the thrashingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, forthwith offered vic-29 tims there. | But the tabernacle of the Lord, which Moses made in the desert, and the altar of holocausts, was at that time in the 30 high place of Gabaon. | And David could not go to the altar there to pray to God: for he was seized with an exceeding great fear, seeing the sword of the angel of the Lord.

22

David Commissions Solomon to Build the Temple

1 Then David said: This is the house of God, and this is the altar 2 for the holocaust of Israel. | And he commanded to gather together all the proselytes of the land of Israel, and out of them he appointed stonecutters to hew stones and polish them, to 3 build the house of God. | And David prepared in abundance iron for the nails of the gates, and for the closures and joinings:
4 and of brass an immense weight. | And the cedar trees were without number, which the Sidonians, and Tyrians brought to 5 David. | And David said: Solomon my son is very young and tender, and the house which I would have to be built to the Lord must be such as to be renowned in all countries; therefore I will prepare him necessaries. And therefore before his death he prepared all the charges.

6 And he called for Solomon his son: and commanded him to 7 build a house to the Lord the God of Israel. | And David said to Solomon: My son, it was my desire to have built a house to 8 the name of the Lord my God. | But the word of the Lord came to me, saying: You have shed much blood, and fought many battles; so you can not build a house to my name after 9 shedding so much blood before me. | The son, that shall be born to you, shall be a most quiet man: for I will make him rest from all his enemies round about. And therefore he shall be called Peaceable: and I will give peace and quietness to 10 Israel all his days. | He shall build a house to my name. And he shall be a son to me: and I will be a father to him. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now then, my son, the Lord be with you: and do you prosper, and build the house to the Lord your God, as he has spoken of 12 you. | The Lord also give you wisdom and understanding, that you may be able to rule Israel, and to keep the law of the Lord 13 your God. | For then you shall be able to prosper, if you keep the commandments and judgments, which the Lord commanded Moses to teach Israel. Take courage and act manfully, fear not, nor be dismayed.

14 Preparations for the Temple Behold I in my poverty have prepared the charges of the house of the Lord, of gold a hundred thousand talents, and of silver a million of talents:
but of brass, and of iron there is no weight, for the abundance surpasses all account: timber also and stones I have prepared 15 for all the charges. | You have also workmen in abundance, hewers of stones, and masons, and carpenters, and of all trades 16 the most skillful in their work, | in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, whereof there is no number. Arise then, and be doing, and the Lord will be with you.
17 David also charged all the princes of Israel, to help Solomon 18 his son, | saying: You see, that the Lord your God is with you, and has given you rest round about, and has delivered all your enemies into your hands; and the land is subdued before the 19 Lord, and before his people. | Give therefore your hearts and your souls to seek the Lord your God: and arise, and build a sanctuary to the Lord God, that the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the vessels consecrated to the Lord, may be brought into the house, which is built to the name of the Lord.

23

1 Solomon Made King by David And David, being old and 2 full of days, made Solomon his son king over Israel. | And he gathered all the princes of Israel, and the priests and Levites.
3 And the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years, and upward: and there were found of them thirty-eight thou-4 sand men. | Of these twenty-four thousand were chosen, and distributed unto the ministry of the house of the Lord: and six 5 thousand were the overseers and judges. | Moreover four thousand were porters: and as many singers, singing to the Lord 6 with the instruments which he had made to sing with. | And David distributed them into courses by the families of the sons 7 of Levi, to wit, of Gerson, and of Caath, and of Merari. | The 8 sons of Gerson were Leedan and Semei. | The sons of Leedan:
9 the chief Jahiel, and Zethan, and Joel, three. | The sons of Semei: Salomith, and Hosiel, and Aran, three: these were the 10 heads of the families of Leedan. | And the sons of Semei were Leheth, and Ziza, and Jaus, and Baria: these were the sons of 11 Semei, four. | And Leheth was the first, Ziza the second: but Jaus and Baria had not many children, and therefore they were 12 counted in one family, and in one house. | The sons of Caath
13 were Amram, and Isaar, Hebron, and Oziel four. | The sons of Amram, Aaron, and Moses. And Aaron was separated to minister in the holy of holies, he and his sons for ever, and to burn incense before the Lord, according to his ceremonies, and 14 to bless his name for ever. | The sons also of Moses, the man 15 of God, were numbered in the tribe of Levi. | The sons of 16 Moses were Gersom and Eliezer. | The sons of Gersom: Subuel

17 the first. | And the sons of Eliezer were: Rohobia the first. And Eliezer had no more sons: but the sons of Rohobia were multi-18 plied exceedingly. | The sons of Isaar: Salomith the first. | 19 The sons of Hebron: Jeriau the first, Amarias the second, Jaha-20 ziel the third, Jecmaan the fourth. | The sons of Oziel: Micha 21 the first, Jesia the second. | The sons of Merari: Moholi, and 22 Musi. The sons of Moholi: Eleazar and Cis. | And Eleazar died, and had no sons but daughters: and the sons of Cis their breth-23 ren took them. | The sons of Musi: Moholi, and Eder, and Jerimoth, three.

24 These are the sons of Levi in their kindreds and families, princes by their courses, and the number of every head that did the works of the ministry of the house of the Lord from twenty 25 years old and upward. | And David said: The Lord, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people, and a habitation in Jerusalem for ever.

26 The Offices of Priests and Levites And it shall not be the office of the Levites to carry any more the tabernacle, and all the 27 vessels for the service thereof. | So according to the last precepts of David, the sons of Levi are to be numbered from twenty
28 years old and upward. | And they are to be under the hand of the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the Lord, in the porches, and in the chambers, and in the place of purification, and in the sanctuary, and in all the works of the ministry
29 of the temple of the Lord. | And the priests have the charge of the loaves of proposition, and of the sacrifice of fine flour, and of the unleavened cakes, and of the frying pan, and of the 30 roasting, and of every weight and measure. | And the Levites are to stand in the morning to give thanks, and to sing praises
31 to the Lord: and in like manner in the evening: | as well in the oblation of the holocausts of the Lord, as in the sabbaths, and in the new moons, and the rest of the solemnities, according to the number and ceremonies prescribed for every thing, con-
32 tinually before the Lord. | And let them keep the observances of the tabernacle of the covenant, and the ceremonies of the sanctuary, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, that they may minister in the house of the Lord.

24

1 The Priests Divided into Twenty-four Courses Now these were the divisions of the sons of Aaron: the sons of

2 Aaron: Nadab, and Abiu, and Eleazar, and Ithamar. | But Nadab and Abiu died before their father, and had no children:
3 so Eleazar and Ithamar did the office of the priesthood. | And David distributed them, that is, Sadoc of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their courses 4 and ministry. | And there were found many more of the sons of Eleazar among the principal men than of the sons of Ithamar.
And he divided them so, that there were of the sons of Eleazar sixteen chief men by their families: and of the sons of Ithamar 5 eight by their families and houses. | And he divided both the families one with the other by lot: for there were princes of the sanctuary, and princes of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and 6 of the sons of Ithamar. | And Semeias the son of Nathanael the scribe, a Levite, wrote them down before the king and the princes, and Sadoc the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the princes also of the priestly and Levitical families.
One house, which was over the rest, of Eleazar: and another 7 house, which had the rest under it, of Ithamar. | Now the first 8 lot came forth to Joiarib, the second to Jedei, | the third to 9 Harim, the fourth to Seorim, | the fifth to Melchia, the sixth 10.11 to Maiman, | the seventh to Accos, the eighth to Abia, | the 12 ninth to Jesua, the tenth to Sechenia, | the eleventh to Eliasib,
13 the twelfth to Jacim, | the thirteenth to Hoppha, the fourteenth
14 to Isbaab, | the fifteenth to Belga, the sixteenth to Emmer, |
15.16 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses, | the 17 nineteenth to Pheteia, the twentieth to Hezechiel, | the one and 18 twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, | the three and twentieth to Dalaiau, the four and twentieth to Maaziau. | 19 These are their courses according to their ministries, to come into the house of the Lord, according to their manner, under the hand of Aaron their father: as the Lord, the God of Israel, had commanded.

20 The Chiefs of the Levites Now of the rest of the sons of Levi, there was of the sons of Amram, Subael: and of the sons 21 of Subael, Jehedeia. | Also of the sons of Rohobia, the chief 22 Jesias. | And the son of Isaar, Salemoth, and the son of Sale-
23 moth, Jahath. | And his son Jeriau the first, Amarias the sec-
24 ond, Jahaziel the third, Jecmaan the fourth. | The son of Oziel,
25 Micha: the son of Micha, Samir. | The brother of Micha, Jesia:
26 and the son of Jesia, Zacharias. | The sons of Merari, Moholi
27 and Musi: the son of Oziau, Benno. | The son also of Merari, 28 Oziau: and Soam, and Zacchur, and Hebri. | And the son of 29 Moholi, Eleazar, who had no sons. | And the son of Cis, Jera-30 mael. | The sons of Musi, Moholi, Eder, and Jerimoth. These are the sons of Levi according to the houses of their families. | 31 And they also cast lots over against their brethren, the sons of Aaron, before David the king, and Sadoc, and Ahimelech, and the princes of the priestly and Levitical families, both the elder and the younger. The lot divided all equally.

25

1 Number and Divisions of the Musicians Moreover David and the chief officers of the army separated for the ministry the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Idithun: to prophesy with harps, and with psalteries, and with cymbals according to their number serving in their appointed office. | 2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zacchur, and Joseph, and Nathania, and Asarela, sons of Asaph; under the hand of Asaph prophesying 3 near the king. | And of Idithun: the sons of Idithun, Godolias, Sori, Jesaias, and Hasabias, and Mathathias, six; under the hand of their father Idithun, who prophesied with a harp to 4 give thanks and to praise the Lord. | Of Heman also: the sons of Heman, Boccias, Mathanias, Oziel, Subuel, and Jerimoth, Hananias, Hanani, Eliatha, Geddelthi, and Romemthiezer, and 5 Jesbacasa, Mellothi, Othir, Mahazioth: | All these were the sons of Heman the seer of the king in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three 6 daughters. | All these under their father's hand were distributed to sing in the temple of the Lord, with cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of the Lord, near the king: to wit, Asaph, and Idithun, and Heman.
7 And the number of them with their brethren, that taught the song of the Lord, all the teachers, were two hundred and 8 eighty-eight. | And they cast lots by their courses, the elder equally with the younger, the learned and the unlearned to-9 gether. | And the first lot came forth to Joseph, who was of Asaph. The second to Godolias, to him and his sons, and his 10 brethren, twelve. The third to Zacchur, to his sons and his 11 brethren, twelve. The fourth to Isari, to his sons and his breth-12 ren, twelve. The fifth to Nathania, to his sons and his brethren, 13 twelve. The sixth to Boccias, to his sons and his brethren, 14 twelve. The seventh to Isreela, to his sons and his brethren, 15 twelve. The eighth to Jesaia, to his sons and his brethren, twelve.
16 The ninth to Mathanaias, to his sons and his brethren, twelve.
17 The tenth to Semeias, to his sons and his brethren, twelve.
18 The eleventh to Azareel, to his sons and his brethren, twelve.
19 The twelfth to Hasabia, to his sons and his brethren, twelve.
20 The thirteenth to Subael, to his sons and his brethren, twelve.
21 The fourteenth to Mathathias, to his sons and his brethren,

22 twelve. | The fifteenth to Jerimoth, to his sons and his brethren,
23 twelve. | The sixteenth to Hananias, to his sons and his breth-
24 ren, twelve. | The seventeenth to Jesbacassa, to his sons and 25 his brethren, twelve. | The eighteenth to Hanani, to his sons 26 and his brethren, twelve. | The nineteenth to Mellothi, to his 27 sons and his brethren, twelve. | The twentieth to Eliatha, to his 28 sons and his brethren, twelve. | The one and twentieth to Othir, 29 to his sons and his brethren, twelve. | The two and twentieth to 30 Geddelthi, to his sons and his brethren, twelve. | The three and twentieth to Mahazioth, to his sons and his brethren, twelve. | 31 The four and twentieth to Romemthiezer, to his sons and his brethren, twelve.

26

1 The Porters And the divisions of the porters: of the Corites
2 Meselemia, the son of Core, of the sons of Asaph. | The sons of Meselemia: Zacharias the firstborn, Jadihel the second, Zaba-3 dias the third, Jathanael the fourth. | Elam the fifth, Johanan
4 the sixth, Elioenai the seventh. | And the sons of Obededom:
Semeias the firstborn, Jozabad the second, Joaha the third,
5 Sachar the fourth, Nathanael the fifth, | Ammiel the sixth.
Issachar the seventh, Phollathi the eighth: for the Lord had 6 blessed him. | And to Semei his son were born sons, heads of 7 their families: for they were men of great valor. | The sons then of Semeias were Othni, and Raphael, and Obed, Elizabad, and his brethren: most valiant men. And Eliu, and Samachias.
8 | All these of the sons of Obededom: they, and their sons, and their brethren, most able men for service, sixty-two of Obede-9 dom. | And the sons of Meselemia, and their brethren, strong 10 men, were eighteen. | And of Hosa, that is, of the sons of Merari: Semri the chief (for he had not a firstborn, and there-11 fore his father made him chief), | Helcias the second, Tabelias the third, Zacharias the fourth: all these, the sons, and the brethren of Hosa, were thirteen.
12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, so that the chiefs of the wards, as well as their brethren, always ministered 13 in the house of the Lord. | And they cast lots equally, both little and great, by their families for every one of the gates. | 14 And the lot of the east fell to Selemias. But to his son Zacharias, 15 a very wise and learned man, the north gate fell by lot. | And to Obededom and his sons that toward the south: in which part 16 of the house was the council of the ancients. | To Sephim, and

---

26, 10: (For he had not a firstborn): that is, his firstborn was either dead or not fit to be chief; and therefore he made Semri the chief.

Hosa toward the west, by the gate which leads to the way of 17 the ascent: ward against ward. | Now toward the east were six Levites: and toward the north four a day: and toward the south likewise four a day: and where the council was, two and 18 two. | In the cells also of the porters toward the west four in 19 the way: and two at every cell. | These are the divisions of the porters of the sons of Core and of Merari.

20 Offices of other Levites Now Achias was over the treasures of the house of God, and the holy vessels. | The sons of Ledan, the sons of Gersonni: of Ledan were heads of the fami-22 lies, of Ledan, and Gersonni, Jehieli. | The sons of Jehieli:
Zathan and Joel, his brethren over the treasures of the house
23 of the Lord, | with the Amramites, and Isaarites, and Hebron-
24 ites, and Ozielites. | And Subael the son of Gersom, the son 25 of Moses, was chief over the treasures. | His brethren also:
Eliezer, whose son Rohobia, and his son Isaias, and his son 26 Joram, and his son Zechri, and his son Selemith, | which Selemith and his brethren were over the treasures of the holy things, which king David, and the heads of families, and the captains over thousands and over hundreds, and the captains of 27 the host had dedicated, out of the wars, and the spoils won in battles, which they had consecrated to the building and furni-28 ture of the temple of the Lord. | And all these things that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Cis, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Sarvia, had sanctified: and whosoever had sanctified those things, they were under the hand of Selemith and his brethren.

29 But Chonenias and his sons were over the Isaarites, for the business abroad over Israel, to teach them and judge them. | 30 And of the Hebronites Hasabias, and his brethren most able men, a thousand seven hundred, had the charge over Israel beyond the Jordan westward, in all the works of the Lord, and 31 for the service of the king. | And the chief of the Hebronites was Jeria, according to their families and kindreds. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were numbered, and 32 there were found most valiant men in Jazer Galaad, | and his brethren of stronger age, two thousand seven hundred chiefs of families. And king David made them rulers over the Rubenites and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasses, for all the services of God, and the king.

27

1 Twelve Captains for Every Month Now the children of Israel according to their number, the heads of families, captains of thousands and of hundreds, and officers that served the king according to their companies, who came in and went out every month in the year, under every chief were four and twenty 2 thousand. | Over the first company the first month Jesboam, the son of Zabdiel was chief, and under him were four and

3 twenty thousand, | of the sons of Phares, the chief of all the 4 captains in the host in the first month. | The company of the second month was under Dudia, an Ahohite, and after him was another named Macelloth, who commanded a part of the army
5 of four and twenty thousand. | And the captain of the third company for the third month, was Banaias the son of Joiada the priest: and in his division were four and twenty thousand.
6 | This is that Banaias the most valiant among the thirty, and above the thirty. And Amizabad his son commanded his com-
7 pany. | The fourth, for the fourth month, was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zabadias his son after him: and in his
8 company were four and twenty thousand. | The fifth captain, for the fifth month, was Samaoth, a Jezerite: and his company
9 were four and twenty thousand. | The sixth, for the sixth month, was Hira the son of Acces, a Thecuite: and in his com-
10 pany were four and twenty thousand. | The seventh, for the seventh month, was Helles, a Phallonite of the sons of Ephraim:
11 and in his company were four and twenty thousand. | The eighth, for the eighth month, was Sobochai, a Husathite of the race of Zarahi: and in his company were four and twenty thou-
12 sand. | The ninth, for the ninth month, was Abiezer, an Anathothite of the sons of Jemini: and in his company were four
13 and twenty thousand. | The tenth, for the tenth month, was Marai, who was a Netophathite of the race of Zarai: and in his
14 company were four and twenty thousand. | The eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Banaias, a Pharathonite of the sons of Ephraim: and in his company were four and twenty thousand.
15 | The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Holdai, a Netophathite, of the race of Gothoniel: and in his company were four and twenty thousand.

16 The Chiefs of the Tribes Now the chiefs over the tribes of Israel were these: over the Rubenites, Eliezer the son of Zechri was ruler: over the Simeonites, Saphatias the son of 17 Maacha: | over the Levites, Hasabias the son of Camuel: over 18 the Aaronites, Sadoc: over Juda, Eliu the brother of David:
19 over Isaachar, Amri the son of Michael: | over the Zabulonites, Jesmaias the son of Adias: over the Nephtalites, Jerimoth the 20 son of Oziel: | over the sons of Ephraim, Osee the son of Ozaziu: over the half tribe of Manasses, Joel the son of Phadaia:

21 | and over the half tribe of Manasses in Galaad, Jaddo the son of Zacharias: and over Benjamin, Jasiel the son of Abner: | 22 and over Dan, Ezrihel the son of Jeroham. These were the 23 princes of the children of Israel. | But David would not number them from twenty years old and under: because the Lord had said that he would multiply Israel like the stars of 24 heaven. | Joab the son of Sarvia began to number, but he finished not: because upon this there fell wrath upon Israel, and therefore the number of them that were numbered was not registered in the chronicles of king David.
25 And over the king's treasures was Azmoth the son of Adiel:
and over those stores which were in the cities, and in the villages, 26 and in the castles, was Jonathan the son of Ozias. | And over the tillage, and the husbandmen, who tilled the ground, was 27 Ezri the son of Chelub. | And over the dressers of the vineyards was Semeias, a Romathite: and over the wine cellars, 28 Zabdias, an Aphonite. | And over the oliveyards and the fig groves, which were in the plains, was Balanam, a Gederite: and 29 over the oil cellars, Joas. | And over the herds that fed in Saron, was Setrai, a Saronite: and over the oxen in the valleys, 30 Saphat the son of Adli. | And over the camels, Ubil, an Ishma-31 helite. And over the asses, Jadias, a Meronathite. | And over the sheep Jaziz, an Agarene. All these were the rulers of the substance of king David.
32 And Jonathan, David's uncle, a counselor, a wise and learned man, and Jahiel the son of Hachamoni were with the king's 33 sons. | And Achitophel was the king's counselor and Chusai the 34 Arachite, the king's friend. | And after Achitophel was Joiada the son of Banaias, and Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

28

1 David's Speech And David assembled all the chief men of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies, who waited on the king: and the captains over thousands, and over hundreds, and them who had the charge over the substance and possessions of the king, and his sons with the officers of the court, and the men of power, and all the bravest 2 of the army at Jerusalem. | And the king rising up, and standing, said: Hear me, my brethren and my people. I had a thought to have built a house, in which the ark of the Lord and the foot-stool of our God might rest: and I prepared all things for the 3 building. | And God said to me: You shall not build a house to my name; because you are a man of war, and have shed 4 blood. | But the Lord God of Israel chose me of all the house of my father, to be king over Israel for ever: for of Juda he chose the princes: and of the house of Juda, my father's house: and among the sons of my father, it pleased him to choose 3 me king over all Israel. | And among my sons (for the Lord has given me many sons) he has chosen Solomon my son, to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel. |

6 And he said to me: Solomon your son shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will
7 be a father to him. | And I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he continue to keep my commandments, and my judgments,
8 as at this day. | Now then before all the assembly of Israel, in the hearing of our God, keep and seek all the commandments of the Lord our God: that you may possess the good land, and may leave it to your children after you for ever.

9 David's Exhortation to Solomon And you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and a willing mind: for the Lord searches all hearts, and understands all the thoughts of minds. If you seek him, you shall find him: but if you forsake him, he will cast you off for 10 ever. | Now therefore seeing the Lord has chosen you to build the house of the sanctuary, take courage, and do it.
11 And David gave to Solomon his son a description of the porch, and of the temple, and of the treasures, and of the upper floor, and of the inner chambers, and of the house for the mercy
12 seat, | as also of all the courts, which he had in his thought, and of the chambers round about, for the treasures of the house of the Lord, and for the treasures of the consecrated things, |
13 and of the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, for all the works of the house of the Lord, and for all the vessels of the 14 service of the temple of the Lord. | Gold by weight for every vessel for the ministry. And silver by weight according to the 15 diversity of the vessels and uses. | He gave also gold for the golden candlesticks, and their lamps, according to the dimensions of every candlestick, and the lamps thereof. In like manner also he gave silver by weight for the silver candlesticks, and for their lamps according to the diversity of the dimensions of
16 them. | He gave also gold for the tables of proposition, according to the diversity of the tables: in like manner also silver
17 for other tables of silver. | For fleshhooks also, and bowls, and censers of fine gold, and for little lions of gold, according to the measure he gave by weight for every lion. In like manner also for lions of silver he set aside a different weight of silver
18 | And for the altar of incense he gave the purest gold: and to make the likeness of the chariot of the cherubim spreading their wings, and covering the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

19 | All these things, said he, came to me written by the hand of the Lord, that I might understand all the works of the pattern.
20 And David said to Solomon his son: Act like a man, and take courage, and do: fear not, and be not dismayed, for the Lord my God will be with you, and will not leave you, nor forsake you, till you have finished all the work for the service of 21 the house of the Lord. | Behold the courses of the priests and the Levites, for every ministry of the house of the Lord, stand by you, and are ready, and both the princes, and the people know how to execute all your commandments.

29

1 David's Gifts for the Temple And king David said to all the assembly: Solomon, my son, whom alone God has chosen, is as yet young and tender; and the work is great, for a house is 2 prepared, not for man, but for God. | And I with all my ability have prepared the expenses for the house of my God. Gold for vessels of gold, and silver for vessels of silver, brass for things of brass, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood: and onyx stones, and stones like alabaster, and of divers colors, and all manner of precious stones, and marble of Paros in great 3 abundance. | Now over and above the things which I have offered into the house of my God I give, of my own proper goods, gold and silver for the temple of my God, besides what 4 things I have prepared for the holy house. | Three thousand talents of gold of the gold of Ophir: and seven thousand talents 5 of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the temple. | And gold for wheresoever there is need of gold: and silver for whereso-ever there is need of silver, for the works to be made by the hands of the artificers. Now, if any man is willing to offer, let him fill his hand today, and offer what he pleases to the Lord.

6 The Contributions of Princes and Captains Then the heads of the families, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and the overseers 7 of the king's possessions promised, | and they gave for the works of the house of the Lord: of gold, five thousand talents, and ten thousand solids: of silver, ten thousand talents: and of brass, eighteen talents: and of iron, a hundred thousand 8 talents. | And all they that had stones gave them to the treasures
9 of the Lord, by the hand of Jahiel the Gersonite. | And the people rejoiced, when they promised their offerings willingly: because they offered them to the Lord with all their heart. And David the king rejoiced also with a great joy.

10 David's Thanksgiving and Prayer And he blessed the Lord before all the multitude, and he said: Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of Israel, our father from eternity to eternity.
11 | Yours, O Lord, is magnificence, and power, and glory, and victory: and to you is praise: for all that is in heaven, and in earth, is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and you are 12 above all princes. | Yours are riches, and yours is glory: you have dominion over all. In your hand is power and might: in 13 your hand greatness, and the empire of all things. | Now therefore, our God, we give thanks to you: and we praise your 14 glorious name. | Who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to promise you all these things? All things are yours: and we have given you what we received of your hand. | 15 For we are sojourners before you, and strangers, as were all our fathers. Our days upon earth are as a shadow, and there is no 16 stay. | O Lord our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name is from your hand: and 17 all things are yours. | I know, my God, that you prove hearts, and that you love simplicity. Wherefore I also in the simplicity of my heart, have joyfully offered all these things: and I have seen with great joy your people, which are here present, offer 18 you their offerings. | O Lord God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep for ever this will of their heart, 19 and let this mind remain always for the worship of you. | And give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, that he may keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your ceremonies, and do all things: and build the house, for which I have provided the charges.
20 And David commanded all the assembly: Bless the Lord our God. And all the assembly blessed the Lord the God of their fathers: and they bowed themselves and worshiped God, and 21 then the king. | And they sacrificed victims to the Lord: and they offered holocausts the next day, a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their libations, and with every thing prescribed most abundantly for all Israel.

22 Solomon Anointed the Second Time And they ate, and drank before the Lord that day with great joy. And they anointed the second time Solomon the son of David. And they anointed him to the Lord to be prince, and Sadoc to be high 23 priest. | And Solomon sat on the throne of the Lord as king instead of David his father, and he pleased all: and all Israel 24 obeyed him. | And all the princes, and men of power, and all the sons of king David gave their hand, and were subject to 25 Solomon the king. | And the Lord magnified Solomon over all

Israel: and gave him the glory of a reign, such as no king of Israel had before him.

26.27 So David the son of Isai reigned over all Israel. | And the days that he reigned over Israel were forty years: in Hebron he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem three and thirty years.

28 The Death of David And he died in a good age, full of days, and riches, and glory. And Solomon his son reigned in his 29 stead. | Now the acts of king David first and last are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the
30 prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer: | and of all his reign, and his valor, and of the times that passed under him, either in Israel, or in all the kingdoms of the countries.

THE SECOND BOOK OF PARALIPOMENON

1

1 Solomon's Sacrifices at Gabaon And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the Lord his God
2 was with him, and magnified him to a high degree. | And Solomon gave orders to all Israel, to the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, and to the rulers, and to the judges of all
3 Israel, and the heads of the families: and he went with all the multitude to the high place of Gabaon, where was the tabernacle of the covenant of the Lord, which Moses the servant of 4 God made, in the wilderness. | For David had brought the ark of God from Cariathiarim to the place, which he had prepared for it, and where he had pitched a tabernacle for it, that is, in
5 Jerusalem. | And the altar of brass, which Beseleel the son of Uri the son of Hur had made, was there before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and all the assembly sought it. |
6 And Solomon went up thither to the brazen altar, before the tabernacle of the covenant of the Lord, and offered up on it a thousand victims.

7 Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom Is Granted And behold that night God appeared to him, saying: Ask what you will that I
8 should give you. | And Solomon said to God: You have shown great kindness to my father David: and have made me king in
9 his stead. | Now therefore, O Lord God, let your word be fulfilled, which you have promised to David my father: for you have made me king over your great people, which is as innumer-
10 able as the dust of the earth. | Give me wisdom and knowledge that I may come in and go out before your people: for who can
11 worthily judge this your people, which is so great? | And God said to Solomon: Because this choice has pleased your heart, and you have not asked riches, and wealth, and glory, nor the lives of them that hate you, nor many days of life: but have asked wisdom and knowledge, to be able to judge my people, over which 12 I have made you king: | wisdom and knowledge are granted to you. And I will give you riches, and wealth, and glory, so that none of the kings before you, nor after you, shall be like you.

13 Then Solomon came from the high place of Gabaon to Jerusalem before the tabernacle of the covenant, and reigned over 14 Israel. | And he gathered to himself chariots and horsemen, and he had a thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen: and he placed them in the cities of the chariots, 15 and with the king in Jerusalem. | And the king made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees as syca-16 mores, which grow in the plains in great multitude. | And there were horses brought him from Egypt, and from Coa, by 17 the king's merchants, who went, and bought at a price: | a chariot of four horses for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty: in like manner, market was made in all the kingdoms of the Hethites, and of the kings of Syria.

2

1 Solomon's Message to Hiram And Solomon determined to build a house to the name of the Lord, and a palace for 2 himself. | And he numbered out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand to hew stones in the mountains, 3 and three thousand six hundred to oversee them. | He sent also to Hiram king of Tyre, saying: As you did with David my father, and did send him cedars, to build him a house, in which 4 he dwelt, | so do with me: that I may build a house to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to burn incense before him, and to perfume with aromatical spices, and for the continual setting forth of bread, and for the holocausts, morning and evening, and on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and the solemnities of the Lord our God for ever, which are com-5 manded for Israel. | For the house which I desire to build, is 6 great: for our God is great above all gods. | Who then can be able to build him a worthy house? If heaven, and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him: who am I that I should be able to build him a house? but to this end only, that incense 7 may be burned before him. | Send me therefore a skillful man, that knows how to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, and in iron, in purple, in scarlet and in blue, and that has skill in engraving, with the artificers, which I have with me in Judea and 8 Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. | Send me also cedars, and fir trees, and pine trees from Libanus: for I know that your servants are skillful in cutting timber in Libanus, and 9 my servants shall be with your servants, | to provide me timber in abundance. For the house which I desire to build, is to be 10 exceeding great, and glorious. | And I will give your servants the workmen that are to cut down the trees, for their food, twenty thousand cores of wheat, and as many cores of barley, and twenty thousand measures of wine, and twenty thousand measures of oil.

11 Hiram Aids Solomon And Hiram king of Tyre sent a letter to Solomon, saying: Because the Lord has loved his people, 12 therefore he has made you king over them. | And he added, saying: Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given to king David a wise and knowing son, endued with understanding and prudence, to build a house

13 to the Lord, and a palace for himself. | I therefore have sent 14 you my father Hiram, a wise and most skillful man, | the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, whose father was a Tyrian, who knows how to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, and in iron, and in marble, and in timber, in purple also, and violet, and silk and scarlet: and who knows to grave all sort of graving, and to devise ingeniously all that there may be need of in the work with your artificers, and with the artificers of my
15 lord David your father. | The wheat therefore, and the barley, and the oil, and the wine, which you, my lord, have promised,
16 send to your servants. | And we will cut down as many trees out of Libanus, as you shall want, and will convey them in floats by sea to Joppe: and it will be your part to bring them from there to Jerusalem.
17 And Solomon numbered all the proselytes in the land of Israel, after the numbering which David his father had made: and they were found a hundred and fifty-three thousand and 18 six hundred. | And he set seventy thousand of them to carry burdens on their shoulders, and eighty thousand to hew stones in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to be overseers of the work of the people.

3

1 The Plan and Ornaments of the Temple And Solomon began to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, in mount Moria, which had been shown to David his father, in the place which David had prepared in the thrashingfloor of Ornan the 2 Jebusite. | And he began to build in the second month, in the 3 fourth year of his reign. | Now these are the foundations, which Solomon laid, to build the house of God. The length by
4 the first measure sixty cubits, the breadth twenty cubits. | And the porch in the front, which was extended in length according to the measure of the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty cubits; and he overlaid
5 it within with pure gold. | And the greater house he ceiled with deal boards, and overlaid them with plates of fine gold throughout: and he graved in them palm trees, and like little
6 chains interlaced with one another. | He paved also the floor of the temple with most precious marble, of great beauty. |
7 And the gold of the plates with which he overlaid the house, and the beams thereof, and the posts, and the walls, and the doors, was of the finest; and he graved cherubim on the walls.

8 He made also the house of the Holy of Holies: the length of it according to the breadth of the temple, twenty cubits, and the breadth of it in like manner twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with plates of gold, amounting to about six hundred talents. |
9 He made also nails of gold, and the weight of every nail was fifty sicles: the upper chambers also he overlaid with gold. |
10 He made also in the house of the Holy of Holies two cherubim
11 of image work: and he overlaid them with gold. | The wings of the cherubim were extended twenty cubits, so that one wing was five cubits long, and reached to the wall of the house: and the other was also five cubits long, and reached to the wing of
12 the other cherub. | In like manner the wing of the other cherub was five cubits long, and reached to the wall: and his other wing was five cubits long, and touched the wing of the other
13 cherub. | So the wings of the two cherubim were spread forth, and were extended twenty cubits. And they stood upright on their feet, and their faces were turned toward the house with-
14 out. | He made also a veil of violet, purple, scarlet, and silk:
15 and wrought in it cherubim. | He made also before the doors of the temple two pillars, which were five and thirty cubits high:
16 and their chapiters were five cubits. | He made also, as it were little chains in the oracle, and he put them on the heads of the pillars: and a hundred pomegranates, which he put between the 17 little chains. | These pillars he put at the entrance of the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left: that which was on the right hand, he called Jachin, and that on the left hand, Booz.

4

1 The Altar and Vessels He made also an altar of brass twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and ten cubits
2 high. | Also a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass: it was five cubits high, and a line of thirty
3 cubits compassed it round about. | And under it there was the likeness of oxen, and certain engravings on the outside of ten cubits compassed the belly of the sea, as it were with two rows.
4 And the oxen were cast; and the sea itself was set upon the twelve oxen, three of which looked toward the north, and other three toward the west: and other three toward the south, and the other three that remained toward the east, and the sea stood upon them; and the hinder parts of the oxen were inward
5 under the sea. | Now the thickness of it was a handbreadth, and the brim of it was like the brim of a cup, or of a crisped lily:

6 and it held three thousand measures. | He made also ten lavers:
and he set five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them all such things as they were to offer for holocausts: but the sea was for the priests to wash in.
7 And he made ten golden candlesticks, according to the form which they were commanded to be made by: and he set them in 8 the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. | Moreover also ten tables: and he set them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. Also a hundred bowls of gold. | 9 He made also the court of the priests, and a great hall, and 10 doors in the hall, which he covered with brass. | And he set the sea on the right side over against the east toward the south.
11 And Hiram made caldrons, and fleshhooks, and bowls: and 12 finished all the king's work in the house of God: | that is to say, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapiters, and 13 the network, to cover the chapiters over the pommels. | And four hundred pomegranates, and two wreaths of network, so that two rows of pomegranates were joined to each wreath, to 14 cover the pommels, and the chapiters of the pillars. | He made 15 also bases, and lavers, which he set upon the bases: | one sea,
16 and twelve oxen under the sea: | and the caldrons, and flesh-hooks, and bowls. All the vessels did Hiram his father make 17 for Solomon in the house of the Lord of the finest brass. | In the country near the Jordan did the king cast them, in a clay 18 ground between Sochot and Saredatha. | And the multitude of vessels was innumerable, so that the weight of the brass was not known.
19 And Solomon made all the vessels for the house of God, and the golden altar, and the tables, upon which were the loaves 20 of proposition, | the candlesticks also of most pure gold with their lamps to give light before the oracle, according to the man-21 ner. | And certain flowers, and lamps, and golden tongs: all 22 were made of the finest gold. | The vessels also for the perfumes, and the censers, and the bowls, and the mortars, of pure gold. And he graved the doors of the inner temple, that is, for the Holy of Holies. And the doors of the temple without were of gold. And thus all the work was finished which Solomon made in the house of the Lord.

5

1 The Ark Placed in the Holy of Holies Then Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had vowed, the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels he put among the treas-2 ures of the house of God. | And after this he gathered together the ancients of Israel, and all the princes of the tribes, and the heads of the families, of the children of Israel to Jerusalem, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the 3 city of David, which is Sion. | And all the men of Israel came

4 to the king in the solemn day of the seventh month. | And when all the ancients of Israel had come the Levites took up
5 the ark. | And brought it in, together with all the furniture of the tabernacle. And the priests with the Levites carried the vessels
6 of the sanctuary, which were in the tabernacle. | And king Solomon and all the assembly of Israel, and all that were gathered together before the ark, sacrificed rams, and oxen without
7 number: so great was the multitude of the victims. | And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord into its place; that is, to the oracle of the temple, into the Holy of Holies
8 under the wings of the cherubim, | so that the cherubim spread their wings over the place, in which the ark was set, and
9 covered the ark itself and its staves. | Now the ends of the staves wherewith the ark was carried, because they were somewhat longer, were seen before the oracle: but if a man were a little outward, he could not see them. So the ark has been there
10 unto this day. | And there was nothing else in the ark but the two tables which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord gave the law to the children of Israel, at their coming out of Egypt.

11 The Glory of the Lord Fills the Temple Now when the priests had come out of the sanctuary (for all the priests that could be found there were sanctified, and as yet at that time the courses and orders of the ministries were not divided among 12 them), | both the Levites and the singing men, that is, both they that were under Asaph, and they that were under Heman, and they that were under Idithun, with their sons, and their brethren, clothed with fine linen, sounded with cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, standing on the east side of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests, sounding with trum-
13 pets. | So when they all sounded together, both with trumpets, and voice, and cymbals, and organs, and with divers kind of musical instruments, and lifted up their voice on high: the sound was heard afar off, so that when they began to praise the Lord, and to say: Give glory to the Lord for he is good, for his mercy endures for ever, the house of God was filled with a 14 cloud. | Nor could the priests stand and minister by reason of the cloud. For the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God.

6

1 Solomon's Blessings Then Solomon said: The Lord prom-
2 ised that he would dwell in a cloud. | But I have built a house

3 to his name, that he might dwell there for ever. | And the king turned his face, and blessed all the multitude of Israel (for 4 all the multitude stood attentive) and he said: | Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel, who has accomplished in deed that 5 which he spoke to David my father, saying: | From the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel, for a house to be built in it to my name: neither chose I any other man, to be the ruler of 6 my people Israel. | But I chose Jerusalem, that my name might be there: and I chose David to set him over my people Israel. | 7 And whereas David my father had a mind to build a house to 8 the name of the Lord the God of Israel, | the Lord said to him:
Forasmuch as it was your will to build a house to my name, 9 you have done well indeed in having such a will. | But you shall not build the house, but your son, who shall come out of 10 your loins, he shall build a house to my name. | The Lord therefore has accomplished his word which he spoke. And I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit upon the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised: and have built a 11 house to the name of the Lord God of Israel. | And I have put in it the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with the children of Israel.

12 And he stood before the altar of the Lord, in presence of all 13 the multitude of Israel, and stretched forth his hands. | For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, and had set it in the midst of the temple, which was five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high: and he stood upon it. Then kneeling down in the presence of all the multitude of Israel, and lifting 14 up his hands toward heaven, | he said:

The Prayer of Solomon O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven nor in earth: who keeps covenant and mercy with your servants, that walk before you with all their hearts:

15 Who has performed to your servant David my father all that you have promised him: and you have accomplished in fact, what you have spoken with your mouth; as also the present time proves.

16 Now then, O Lord God of Israel, fulfill to your servant David my father, whatsoever you have promised him, saying: There shall not fail you a man in my sight, to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that your children take heed to their ways, and walk in my law, as you have walked, before me.

17 And now, Lord God of Israel, let your word be established which you have spoken to your servant David.

18 Is it credible then that God should dwell with men on the earth? If heaven and the heavens of heavens do not contain you, how much less this house, which I have built?
19 But to this end only it is made, that you may regard the prayer of your servant and his supplication, O Lord my God: and may hear the prayers which your servant pours out before you.
20 That you may open your eyes upon this house, day and night, upon the place wherein you have promised that your name should be called upon, 21 And that you would hear the prayer which your servant prays in it. Hearken then to the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel. Whosoever shall pray in this place, hear you from your dwelling place, that is, from heaven, and show mercy.
22 If any man sin against his neighbor and come to swear against him, and bind himself with a curse before the altar in this house:
23 Then hear you from heaven, and do justice to your servants, so as to requite the wicked by making his wickedness fall upon his own head, and to revenge the just, rewarding him according to his justice.
24 If your people Israel be overcome by their enemies, (for they will sin against you), and being converted shall do penance, and call upon your name, and pray to you in this place, 25 Then hear you from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back into the land, which you gave to them and their fathers.
26 If the heavens be shut up, and there fall no rain by reason of the sins of the people, and they shall pray to you in this place, and confess to your name, and be converted from their sins, when you afflict them, 27 Then hear you from heaven, O Lord, and forgive the sins of your servants and of your people Israel, and teach them the good way, in which they may walk; and give rain to your land which you have given to your people to possess.
28 If a famine arise in the land, or a pestilence or blasting, or mildew, or locusts, or caterpillars; or if their enemies waste the country, and besiege the cities, whatsoever scourge or infirmity shall be upon them:
29 Then if any of your people Israel, knowing his own scourge and infirmity, shall pray, and shall spread forth his hands in this house, 30 Hear you from heaven, from your high dwelling place, and forgive, and render to every one according to his ways, which you know him to have in his heart (for you only know the hearts of the children of men): 31 That they may fear you, and walk in your ways, all the days that they live upon the face of the land, which you have given to our fathers.

32 If the stranger also, who is not of your people Israel, come from a far country, for the sake of your great name, and your strong hand, and your stretched out arms, and adore in this place:
33 Hear you from heaven, your firm dwelling place, and do all that which that stranger shall call upon you for: that all the people of the earth may know your name, and may fear you, as your people Israel, and may know, that your name is invoked upon this house, which I have built.
34 If your people go out to war against their enemies, by the way that you shall send them, and adore you toward the way of this city, which you have chosen, and the house which I have built to your name:
35 Then hear you from heaven their prayers, and their supplications, and revenge them.
36 And if they sin against you (for there is no man that sins not), and you be angry with them, and deliver them up to their enemies, and they lead them away captive to a land, either afar off, or near at hand;
37 And if they be converted in their hearts in the land to which they were led captive, and do penance, and pray to you in the land of their captivity, saying: We have sinned, we have done wickedly, we have dealt unjustly;
38 And return to you with all their heart, and with all their soul in the land of their capitivity, to which they were led away, and adore you toward the way of their own land which you gave their fathers, and of the city, which you have chosen, and the house which I have built to your name:
39 Then hear you from heaven, that is, from your firm dwelling place, their prayers, and do judgment, and forgive your people, although they have sinned.
40 For you are my God: let your eyes, I beseech you, be open, and let your ears be attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.
41 Now, therefore, arise, O Lord God, into your resting place, you and the ark of your strength: let your priests, O Lord God, put on salvation, and your saints rejoice in good things.
42 O Lord God, turn not away the face of your anointed: remember the mercies of David your servant.

7

3 Fire from Heaven Consumes the Sacrifices And when Solomon had made an end of his prayer, fire came down from heaven, and consumed the holocausts and the victims: and the 2 majesty of the Lord filled the house. ¶ Neither could the priest enter into the temple of the Lord; because the majesty of the 3 Lord had filled the temple of the Lord. ¶ Moreover all the children of Israel saw the fire coming down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house. And falling down with their faces to the ground, upon the stone pavement, they adored and praised the Lord: because he is good, because his mercy endures for ever.
4 ¶ And the king and all the people sacrificed victims before the Lord.

5 The Solemn Dedication of the Temple And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen, and one hundred and twenty thousand rams: and the king and all the 6 people dedicated the house of God. ¶ And the priests stood in their offices: and the Levites with the instruments of music of the Lord, which king David made to praise the Lord: because his mercy endures for ever, singing the hymns of David by their ministry; and the priests sounded with trumpets before 7 them, and all Israel stood. ¶ Solomon also sanctified the middle of the court before the temple of the Lord: for he offered there the holocausts and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brazen altar which he had made could not hold the holocausts, 8 and the sacrifices, and the fat. ¶ And Solomon kept the solemnity at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entrance of Emath to the torrent 9 of Egypt. ¶ And he made on the eighth day a solemn assembly, because he had kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and 10 had celebrated the solemnity, seven days. ¶ So, on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent away the people to their dwellings, joyful and glad for the good that the Lord had done to David, and to Solomon, and to all Israel his people.

11 The Lord's Promise to Solomon And Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all that he had designed in his heart to do, in the house of the Lord, and in 12 his own house; and he prospered. ¶ And the Lord appeared to him by night, and said: I have heard your prayer, and I have 13 chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. ¶ If I shut up heaven, and there fall no rain, or if I give orders, and command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence 14 among my people: ¶ and my people, upon whom my name is called, being converted, shall make supplication to me, and seek out my face, and do penance for their most wicked ways: then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins and 15 will heal their land. | My eyes also shall be open, and my ears attentive to the prayer of him that shall pray in this place. |

16 For I have chosen, and have sanctified this place, that my name may be there for ever: and my eyes and my heart may remain there perpetually.
17 And as for you, if you walk before me, as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded
18 you, and keep my justices and my judgments: | I will raise up the throne of your kingdom, as I promised to David your father, saying: There shall not fail you a man of your stock
19 to be ruler in Israel. | But if you turn away, and forsake my justices, and my commandments, which I have set before you, 20 and shall go and serve strange gods, and adore them, | I will pluck you up by the root out of my land which I have given you: and this house which I have sanctified to my name, I will cast away from before my face, and will make it a byword, and an
21 example among all nations. | And this house shall be for a proverb to all that pass by, and they shall be astonished and say: Why has the Lord done thus to this land, and to this
22 house? | And they shall answer: Because they forsook the Lord, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on strange gods, and adored them, and worshiped them: therefore all these evils have come upon them.

8

1 Solomon's other Buildings And at the end of twenty years after Solomon had built the house of the Lord and his 2 own house: | he built the cities which Hiram had given to 3 Solomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. | He 4 went also into Emath Suba, and possessed it. | And he built Palmira in the desert, and he built other strong cities in Emath.
5 | And he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether,
6 walled cities with gates and bars and locks. | Balaath also, and all the strong cities that were Solomon's, and all the cities of the chariots, and the cities of the horsemen. All that Solomon had a mind, and designed, he built in Jerusalem, and in
7 Libanus, and in all the land of his dominion. | All the people that were left of the Hethites, and the Amorrites, and the Pherezites, and the Hevites, and the Jebusites, that were not
8 of the stock of Israel: | of their children, and of the posterity whom the children of Israel had not slain, Solomon made to

9 be the tributaries, unto this day. | But of the children of Israel he set none to serve in the king's works: for they were men of war, and chief captains, and rulers of his chariots and 10 horsemen. | And all the chief captains of king Solomon's army 11 were two hundred and fifty, who taught the people. | And he removed the daughter of Pharao from the city of David, to the house which he had built for her. For the king said: My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, for it is sanctified: because the ark of the Lord came into it.

12 The Sacrifices Then Solomon offered holocausts to the Lord upon the altar of the Lord, which he had built before 13 the porch, | that every day an offering might be made on it according to the ordinance of Moses, in the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the festival days three times a year, that is to say, in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of 14 weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. | And he appointed according to the order of David his father the offices of the priests in their ministries: and the Levites in their order to give praise, and minister before the priests according to the duty of every day: and the porters in their divisions by gate and gate: 15 for so David, the man of God, had commanded. | And the priests and Levites departed not from the king's commandments, as to any thing that he had commanded, and as to the keeping of the treasures.
16 Solomon had all charges prepared, from the day that he founded the house of the Lord, until the day wherein he fin-17 ished it. | Then Solomon went to Asiongaber, and to Ailath, on the coast of the Red Sea, which is in the land of Edom. | 18 And Hiram sent him ships by the hands of his servants, and skillful mariners. And they went with Solomon's servants to Ophir: and they took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold and brought it to king Solomon.

9 1 The Queen of Saba And when the queen of Saba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to try him with hard questions at Jerusalem, with great riches, and camels, which carried spices, and abundance of gold, and precious stones. And when she had come to Solomon, she proposed to him all that 2 was in her heart. | And Solomon explained to her all that she proposed: and there was not any thing that he did not 3 make clear unto her. | And when she had seen these things, to wit, the wisdom of Solomon, and the house which he had 4 built, | and the meats of his table, and the dwelling places of his servants, and the attendance of his officers, and their a parel, his cupbearers also, and their garments, and the victin which he offered in the house of the Lord: there was no mo

5 spirit in her, she was so astonished. | And she said to the kin
The word is true which I heard in my country of your virtu 6 and wisdom. | I did not believe them that told it, until came, and my eyes had seen, and I had proved that scarce o half of your wisdom had been told me. You have exceeded t 7 same with your virtues. | Happy are your men, and happy a your servants, who stand always before you, and hear yo 8 wisdom. | Blessed be the Lord your God, who has been pleas to set you on his throne, king of the Lord your God. Becau God loves Israel, and will preserve them for ever: therefo has he made you king over them, to do judgment and justic 9 And she gave to the king a hundred and twenty talents gold, and spices in great abundance, and most precious stone there were no such spices as these which the queen of Saba ga 10 to king Solomon. | And the servants also of Hiram, with t servants of Solomon, brought gold from Ophir, and thyi 11 trees, and most precious stones. | And the king made of t thyine trees stairs in the house of the Lord, and in the kin house, and harps and psalteries for the singing men: nev 12 were there seen such trees in the land of Juda. | And kin Solomon gave to the queen of Saba all that she desired, a that she asked, and many more things than she brought to hi
So she returned, and went to her own country with her servan

13 The Riches and Glory of Solomon And the weight the gold, that was brought to Solomon every year, was s 14 hundred and sixty-six talents of gold: | besides the sum whi the deputies of divers nations, and the merchants were a customed to bring, and all the kings of Arabia, and the lor 15 of the lands, who brought gold and silver to Solomon. | A king Solomon made two hundred golden spears, of the sum 16 six hundred pieces of gold, which went to every spear. | A three hundred golden shields of three hundred pieces of gol which went to the covering of every shield. And the king p 17 them in the armory, which was compassed with a wood. | T king also made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it wi 18 pure gold: | and six steps to go up to the throne, and a fo stool of gold, and two arms one on either side, and two lio 19 standing by the arms. | Moreover twelve other little lio standing upon the steps on both sides: there was not such 20 throne in any kingdom. | And all the vessels of the kin

table were of gold, and the vessels of the house of the forest of Libanus were of the purest gold. For no account was made 21 of silver in those days. | For the king's ships went to Tharsis with the servants of Hiram, once in three years: and they brought thence gold and silver, and ivory, and apes, and peacocks.
22 And Solomon was magnified above all the kings of the 23 earth for riches and glory. | And all the kings of the earth desired to see the face of Solomon, that they might hear the wis-
24 dom which God had given in his heart. | And every year they brought him presents: vessels of silver and of gold, and gar-
25 ments, and armor, and spices, and horses, and mules. And Solomon had forty thousand horses in the stables, and twelve thousand chariots, and horsemen, and he placed them in the cities of the chariots, and where the king was in Jerusalem. |
26 And he exercised authority over all the kings from the river Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, and to the borders of 27 Egypt. | And he made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones: and cedars as common as the sycamores, which grow
28 in the plains. | And horses were brought to him out of Egypt, and out of all countries.
29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon first and last are written in the words of Nathan the prophet, and in the books of Ahias the Silonite, and in the vision of Addo the seer, against 30 Jeroboam the son of Nabat. | And Solomon reigned in Jeru-
31 salem over all Israel forty years. | And he slept with his fathers. And they buried him in the city of David: and Roboam his son reigned in his stead.

10

1 The People's Petition to Roboam And Roboam went to Sichem: for thither all Israel were assembled to make him
2 king. | And when Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who was in Egypt (for he had fled there from Solomon), heard it, forth-
3 with he returned. | And they sent for him; and he came with 4 all Israel. And they spoke to Roboam, saying: | Your father oppressed us with a most grievous yoke; do you govern us with a lighter hand than your father, who laid upon us a heavy servitude, and ease some thing of the burden, that we
5 may serve you. | And he said to them: Come to me again after 6 three days. And when the people were gone, | he took counsel with the ancients, who had stood before his father Solomon, while he yet lived, saying: What counsel give you to me, that
7 I may answer the people? | And they said to him: If you please this people, and soothe them with kind words, they wil 8 be your servants for ever. | But he forsook the counsel of the ancients, and began to treat with the young men, that had beer 9 brought up with him, and were in his train. | And he saic to them: What seems good to you? Or what shall I answer this people, who have said to me: Ease the yoke which your 10 father laid upon us? | But they answered as young men and brought up with him in pleasures, saying: To the people whc said to you: Your father made our yoke heavy, do you ease it you shall say: My little finger is thicker than the loins of my 11 father. | My father laid upon you a heavy yoke: and I will add more weight to it: my father beat you with scourges but I will beat you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Roboam the third 13 day, as he commanded them. | And the king answered roughly 14 leaving the counsel of the ancients. | And he spoke according to the advice of the young men: My father laid upon you a heavy yoke, which I will make heavier: my father beat you with 15 scourges, but I will beat you with scorpions. | And he con descended not to the people's requests: for it was the will o God, that his word might be fulfilled, which he had spoken by the hand of Ahias the Silonite to Jeroboam the son of Nabat.

16 The Ten Tribes Revolt And all the people upon the king' speaking roughly, said thus unto him: We have no part in Da vid, nor inheritance in the son of Isai. Return to your dwellings O Israel: and do you, O David, feed your own house. And Is 17 rael went away to their dwellings. | But Roboam reigned ove 18 the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Juda. | An king Roboam sent Aduram, who was over the tributes, and th children of Israel stoned him, and he died: and king Roboam made haste to get up into his chariot, and fled into Jerusalem.
19 And Israel revolted from the house of David unto this day.

11

1 The Reign of Roboam And Roboam came to Jerusalem and called together all the house of Juda and of Benjamin, hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men and warriors, t fight against Israel, and to bring back his kingdom to him.
2 And the word of the Lord came to Semeias the man of Goc
3 saying: | Speak to Roboam the son of Solomon, the king c
4 Juda, and to all Israel, in Juda and Benjamin: | Thus says th Lord: You shall not go up, nor fight against your brethern let every man return to his own house, for by my will this thin has been done. And when they heard the word of the Lord, they returned, and did not go against Jeroboam.

5 And Roboam dwelt in Jersualem and built walled cities in 6 Juda. | And he built Bethlehem, and Etam and Thecue, |
7.8 and Bethsur, and Socho, and Odollam, | and Geth, and 9 Maresa, and Ziph, | and Aduram, and Lachis, and Azecha. | 10 Saraa also, and Aialon, and Hebron, which are in Juda and 11 Benjamin, well fenced cities. | And when he had enclosed them with walls, he put in them governors and storehouses of 12 provisions, that is, of oil and of wine. | Moreover in every city he made an armory of shields and spears; and he fortified them with great diligence; and he reigned over Juda, and Ben-
13 jamin. | And the priests and Levites, that were in all Israel,
14 came to him out of all their seats, | leaving their suburbs, and their possessions, and passing over to Juda, and Jerusalem; because Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing
15 the priestly office to the Lord. | And he made to himself priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which
16 he had made. | Moreover out of all the tribes of Israel, whosoever gave their heart to seek the Lord the God of Israel, came into Jerusalem to sacrifice their victims before the Lord, the God of their fathers.

17 Roboam's Kingdom Strengthened And they strengthened the kingdom of Juda, and established Roboam the son of Solomon for three years: for they walked in the ways of David 18 and of Solomon, only three years. | And Roboam took to wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth, the son of David: and
19 Abihail the daughter of Eliab, the son of Isai. | And they bore
20 him sons, Jehus, and Somorias, and Zoom. | And after her, he married Maacha the daughter of Absalom, who bore him
21 Abia, and Ethai, and Ziza, and Salomith. | And Roboam loved Maacha, the daughter of Absalom, above all his wives and concubines. For he had married eighteen wives, and threescore concubines. And he begot eight and twenty sons, and threescore
22 daughters. | But he put at the head of them Abia the son of Maacha, to be the chief ruler over all his brethren: for he meant
23 to make him king, | because he was wiser and mightier than all his sons, and in all the countries of Juda, and of Benjamin, and in all the walled cities: and he gave them provisions in abundance, and he sought many wives.

12

1 Sesac, King of Egypt, Invades Juda And when the kingdom of Roboam was strengthened and fortified, he forsook

2 the law of the Lord, and all Israel with him. | And in the fifth year of the reign of Roboam, Sesac king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem (because they had sinned against the Lord) | 3 with twelve hundred chariots and threescore thousand horsemen. And the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt, to wit, Libyans, and Troglodites, and Ethiopians.
4 | And he took the strongest cities in Juda, and came to Jeru-5 salem. | And Semeias the prophet came to Roboam, and to the princes of Juda, that were gathered together in Jerusalem, fleeing from Sesac. And he said to them: Thus says the Lord:
You have left me, and I have left you in the hand of Sesac. |
6 And the princes of Israel, and the king, being in a consternation, 7 said: The Lord is just. | And when the Lord saw that they were humbled, the word of the Lord came to Semeias, saying: Because they are humbled, I will not destroy them, and I will give them a little help, and my wrath shall not fall upon Jeru-8 salem by the hand of Sesac. | But yet they shall serve him, that they may know the difference between my service, and the service of a kingdom of the earth.

9 The Treasures of the Temple Taken away So Sesac king of Egypt departed from Jerusalem, taking away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and of the king's house. And he took all with him, and the golden shields that Solomon had 10 made, | instead of which the king made brazen ones, and delivered them to the captains of the shieldbearers, who guarded 11 the entrance of the palace. | And when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the shieldbearers came and 12 took them, and brought them back again to their armory. | But yet because they were humbled, the wrath of the Lord turned away from them, and they were not utterly destroyed: for even in Juda there were found good works.

13 King Roboam therefore was strengthened in Jerusalem, and reigned: he was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord chose out of all the tribes of Israel, to establish his name there: and the name of his mother was Naama, an 14 Ammonitess. | But he did evil, and did not prepare his heart
15 to seek the Lord. | Now the acts of Roboam first and last are written in the books of Semeias the prophet, and of Addo the seer, and diligently recorded. And there was war between Ro-16 boam and Jeroboam all their days. | And Roboam slept with his fathers; and was buried in the city of David. And Abia his son reigned in his stead.

13

Abia's Reign

1 In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam, Abia
2 reigned over Juda. | Three years he reigned in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Michaia, the daughter of Uriel of Gabaa. And there was war between Abia and Jeroboam.
3 And when Abia had begun battle, and had with him four hundred thousand most valiant and chosen men, Jeroboam put his army in array against him, eight hundred thousand
4 men, who were also chosen and most valiant for war. | And Abia stood upon mount Semeron, which was in Ephraim, and
5 said: Hear me, O Jeroboam, and all Israel: | Do you not know that the Lord God of Israel gave to David the kingdom over Israel for ever, to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? |
6 And Jeroboam the son of Nabat, the servant of Solomon the 7 son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. | And there were gathered to him vain men, and children of Belial: and they prevailed against Roboam the son of Solomon, for Roboam was unexperienced, and of a fearful heart, and could
8 not resist them. | And now you say that you are able to withstand the kingdom of the Lord, which he possesses by the sons of David, and you have a great multitude of people, and golden
9 calves, which Jeroboam has made you for gods. | And you have cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and you have made you priests, like all the nations of the earth. Whosoever comes and consecrates his hand with a bullock of the herd, and with seven rams, is made a priest of those
10 who are no gods. | But the Lord is our God, whom we forsake not, and the priests who minister to the Lord are the sons of 11 Aaron, and the Levites are in their order. | And they offer holocausts to the Lord, every day, morning and evening, and incense made according to the ordinance of the law, and the loaves are set forth on a most clean table. And there is with us the golden candlestick, and the lamps thereof, to be lighted always in the evening: for we keep the precepts of the Lord our
12 God, whom you have forsaken. | Therefore God is the leader in our army, and his priests who sound with trumpets, and resound against you. O children of Israel, fight not against the Lord the God of your fathers, for it is not good for you.
13 While he spoke these things, Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind him. And while he stood facing the enemies, he encompassed Juda, who perceived it not, with his 13, 2: Michaia: otherwise Maacha. Her father had also two names, namely Absalom (or Abessalom), and Uriel.

13, 5: A covenant of salt: that is, a firm and perpetual covenant.

14 army. | And when Juda looked back, they saw the battle coming upon them both before and behind, and they cried to the Lord: and the priests began to sound with the trumpets.

15 Abia's Victory over Jeroboam And all the men of Juda shouted. And behold when they shouted, God terrified Jero-
16 boam, and all Israel that stood against Abia and Juda. | And the children of Israel fled before Juda, and the Lord delivered
17 them into their hand. | And Abia and his people slew them with a great slaughter, and there fell wounded of Israel five
18 hundred thousand valiant men. | And the children of Israel were brought down, at that time, and the children of Juda were exceedingly strengthened, because they had trusted in the Lord
19 the God of their fathers. | And Abia pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel and her daughters, and Jesana
20 with her daughters, Ephron also and her daughters. | And Jeroboam was not able to resist any more, in the days of Abia:
21 and the Lord struck him, and he died. | But Abia, being strengthened in his kingdom, took fourteen wives: and begot
22 two and twenty sons, and sixteen daughters. | And the rest of the acts of Abia, and of his ways and works, are written diligently in the book of Addo the prophet.

14

1 The Good Reign of Asa And Abia slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years. |
2 And Asa did that which was good and pleasing in the sight of his God: and he destroyed the altars of foreign worship, and
3 the high places. | And broke the statues, and cut down the 4 groves. | And he commanded Juda to seek the Lord the God of their fathers, and to do the law, and all the commandments.
5 | And he took away out of all the cities of Juda the altars,
6 and temples; and reigned in peace. | He built also strong cities in Juda: for he was quiet, and there had no wars risen in his
7 time, the Lord giving peace. | And he said to Juda: Let us build these cities, and compass them with walls, and fortify them with towers, and gates, and bars, while all is quiet from wars, because we have sought the Lord the God of our fathers and he has given us peace round about. So they built, and there was no hindrance in building.

8 And Asa had in his army of men that bore shields and spears, of Juda three hundred thousand, and of Benjamin that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred and eighty thousand. All these were most valiant men.

9 Asa Defeats the Ethiopians And Zara, the Ethiopian, came out against them with his army of ten hundred thousand men, and with three hundred chariots: and he came as far as 10 Maresa. | And Asa went out to meet him, and set his army in array for battle in the vale of Sephata, which is near Maresa. |
11 And he called upon the Lord God, and said: Lord, there is no difference with you, whether you help with few, or with many. Help us, O Lord our God: for with confidence in you, and in your name, we have come against this multitude. O Lord you
12 are our God. Let not man prevail against you. | And the Lord terrified the Ethiopians before Asa and Juda: and the Ethio-
13 pians fled. | And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them to Gerara: and the Ethiopians fell even to utter destruction, for the Lord slew them, and his army fought against them, and they were destroyed. And they took abundance of 14 spoils. | And they took all the cities round about Gerara: for a great fear had come upon all men. And they pillaged the cities,
15 and carried off much booty. | And they destroyed the sheepcotes, and took an infinite number of cattle, and of camels: and returned to Jerusalem.

15

1 The Prophecy of Azarias And the spirit of God came upon
2 Azarias the son of Oded. | And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him: Hear me, Asa, and all Juda and Benjamin: The Lord is with you, because you have been with him. If you seek him, you shall find: but if you forsake him, he will forsake
3 you. | And many days shall pass in Israel, without the true God, and without a priest a teacher, and without the law. |
4 And when in their distress they shall return to the Lord the God
5 of Israel, and shall seek him, they shall find him. | At that time there shall be no peace to him that goes out and comes in: but terrors on every side among all the inhabitants of the 6 earth. | For nation shall fight against nation, and city against
7 city: for the Lord will trouble them with all distress. | Do you therefore take courage, and let not your hands be weakened: for there shall be a reward for your work.

8 And when Asa had heard the words, and the prophecy of Azarias the son of Oded, the prophet, he took courage, and took away the idols out of all the land of Juda, and out of Benjamin, and out of the cities of mount Ephraim, which he had taken; and he dedicated the altar of the Lord, which was be-
9 fore the porch of the Lord. | And he gathered together all Juda and Benjamin, and the strangers with them, of Ephraim, and Manasses, and Simeon: for many had come over to him out of 10 Israel, seeing that the Lord his God was with him. | And when they had come to Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth 11 year of the reign of Asa, | they sacrificed to the Lord in that day of the spoils, and of the prey that they had brought, seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand rams.

12 Asa's Covenant with God And he went in to confirm as usual the covenant, that they should seek the Lord the God of their fathers with all their heart, and with all their soul. | 13 And if any one, said he, seek not the Lord the God of Israel, 14 let him die whether little or great, man or woman. | And they swore to the Lord with a loud voice with joyful shouting, and 15 with sound of trumpets, and sound of cornets, | all that were in Juda with a curse: for with all their heart they swore, and with all their will they sought him, and they found him; and the Lord gave them rest round about.
16 Moreover Maacha the mother of king Asa he deposed from the royal authority, because she had made in a grove an idol of Priapus: and he entirely destroyed it, and breaking it into 17 pieces burned it at the torrent Cedron. | But high places were left in Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his 18 days. | And the things which his father had vowed, and he himself had vowed, he brought into the house of the Lord: gold 19 and silver, and vessels of divers uses. | And there was no war unto the five and thirtieth year of the kingdom of Asa.

16

1 Asa Seeks Help from the Syrians And in the six and thirtieth year of his kingdom, Baasa the king of Israel came up against Juda, and built a wall about Rama, that no one might 2 safely go out or come in of the kingdom of Asa. | Then Asa brought silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the Lord, and of the king's treasures, and sent to Benadad king of 3 Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying: | There is a league between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Wherefore I have sent you silver and gold, that you may break your league with Baasa king of Israel, and make him de-4 part from me. | And when Benadad heard this, he sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel: and they took Ahion, and Dan, and Abelmaim, and all the walled cities of 5 Nephtali. | And when Baasa heard of it, he left off the build-
6 ing of Rama, and interrupted his work. | Then king Asa took 16, 1: Six and thirtieth year of his kingdom: that is, of the kingdom of Juda, taking the date of it from the beginning of the reign of Roboam.

all Juda, and they carried away from Rama the stones, and the timber that Baasa had prepared for the building: and he built with them Gabaa, and Maspha.

7 Asa Reproved for His Lack of Trust in God At that time, Hanani the prophet came to Asa king of Juda, and said to him: Because you have had confidence in the king of Syria, and not in the Lord your God, therefore has the army of the 8 king of Syria escaped out of your hand. | Were not the Ethiopians, and the Libyans much more numerous in chariots, and horsemen, and an exceeding great multitude: yet, because you
9 trusted in the Lord, he delivered them into your hand? | For the eyes of the Lord behold all the earth, and give strength to those who with a perfect heart trust in him. Wherefore, you have done foolishly, and for this cause from this time wars shall
10 arise against you. | And Asa was angry with the seer, and commanded him to be put in prison: for he was greatly enraged because of this thing. And he put to death many of the people at that time.

11 But the works of Asa the first and last are written in the 12 book of the kings of Juda and Israel. | And Asa fell sick in the nine and thirtieth year of his reign, of a most violent pain in his feet. And yet in his illness he did not seek the Lord, but
13 rather trusted in the skill of physicians. And he slept with his fathers: and he died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. |
14 And they buried him in his own sepulcher, which he had made for himself in the city of David. And they laid him on his bed, full of spices and odoriferous ointments, which were made by the art of perfumers, and they burned them over him with very great pomp.

17

1 The Reign of Josaphat And Josaphat his son reigned in 2 his stead, and grew strong against Israel. | And he placed numbers of soldiers in all the fortified cities of Juda. And he put garrisons in the land of Juda, and in the cities of Ephraim,
3 which Asa his father had taken. | And the Lord was with Josaphat, because he walked in the first ways of David his father:
4 and trusted not in Baalim, | but in the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not according to the sins of
5 Israel. | And the Lord established the kingdom in his hand, and all Juda brought presents to Josaphat: and he acquired
6 immense riches, and much glory. | And when his heart had taken courage for the ways of the Lord, he took away also the high places and the groves out of Juda.

7 Josaphat's Teachers of the People And in the third year of his reign he sent of his princes, Benhail, and Abdias, and Zacharias, and Nathanael, and Micheas, to teach in the cities
8 of Juda. | And with them the Levites, Semeias, and Nathanias, and Zabadias, and Asael, and Semiramoth, and Jonathan, and Adonias, and Tobias, and Thobadonias, Levites, and with them
9 Elisama, and Joram, priests. | And they taught the people in Juda, having with them the book of the law of the Lord: and they went about all the cities of Juda, and instructed the people.
10 And the fear of the Lord came upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Juda: and they dared not make 11 war against Josaphat. | The Philistines also brought presents to Josaphat, and tribute in silver, and the Arabians brought him cattle, seven thousand seven hundred rams, and as many he-
12 goats. | And Josaphat grew, and became exceeding great: and he built in Juda houses like towers, and walled cities.

13 The Forces of Josaphat And he prepared many works in the cities of Juda: and he had warriors, and valiant men in 14 Jerusalem. | Of whom this is the number of the houses and families of every one: in Juda captains of the army, Ednas the chief, and with him three hundred thousand most valiant men.
15 | After him Johanan the captain, and with him two hundred
16 and eighty thousand. | And after him was Amasias the son of Zechri, consecrated to the Lord, and with him were two hundred
17 thousand valiant men. | After him was Eliada, valiant in battle, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and
18 shield. | After him also was Jozabad, and with him a hundred 19 and eighty thousand ready for war. | All these were at the hand of the king, beside others, whom he had put in the walled cities, in all Juda.

18

1 Josaphat and Achab Consult False Prophets Now Josaphat was rich and very glorious, and was joined by affinity to 2 Achab. | And he went down to him after some years to Samaria: and Achab at his coming killed sheep and oxen in abundance, for him and the people that came with him: and he per-
3 suaded him to go up to Ramoth Galaad. | And Achab king of Israel said to Josaphat king of Juda: Come with me to Ramoth Galaad. And he answered him: You are as I am, and my people as your people, and we will be with you in the war. |
4 And Josaphat said to the king of Israel: Inquire, I beseech 5 you, at present the word of the Lord. | So the king of Israel gathered together of the prophets four hundred men, and he said to them: Shall we go to Ramoth Galaad to fight, or shall we forbear? But they said: Go up, and God will deliver it into 6 the king's hand. | And Josaphat said: Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire also of him? |

7 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat: There is one man, of whom we may ask the will of the Lord: but I hate him, for he never prophesies good to me, but always evil: and it is Micheas the son of Jemla. And Josaphat said: Speak not thus, O king.
8 | And the king of Israel called one of the eunuchs, and said to him: Call quickly Micheas the son of Jemla.
9 Now the king of Israel, and Josaphat king of Juda, both sat on their thrones, clothed in royal robes, and they sat in the open court by the gate of Samaria: and all the prophets prophesied
10 before them. | And Sedecias the son of Chanaana made him horns of iron, and said: Thus says the Lord: With these shall
11 you push Syria, till you destroy it. | And all the prophets prophesied in like manner, and said: Go up to Ramoth Galaad; and you shall prosper; and the Lord will deliver them into the 12 king's hand. | And the messenger that went to call Micheas, said to him: Behold the words of all the prophets with one mouth declare good to the king. I beseech you therefore let not your word disagree with them: and speak you also good success.
13 | And Micheas answered him: As the Lord lives, whatsoever my God shall say to me, that will I speak.

14 The Prophecy of Micheas So he came to the king and the king said to him: Micheas, shall we go to Ramoth Galaad to fight, or forbear? And he answered him: Go up for all shall succeed prosperously, and the enemies shall be delivered into 15 your hands. | And the king said: I adjure you again and again to say nothing but the truth to me, in the name of the 16 Lord. | Then he said: I saw all Israel scattered in the mountains, like sheep without a shepherd. And the Lord said: These have no masters. Let every man return to his own house in
17 peace. | And the king of Israel said to Josaphat: Did I not tell you that this man would not prophesy me any good, but
18 evil? | Then he said: Hear therefore the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven
19 standing by him on the right hand and on the left. | And the Lord said: Who shall deceive Achab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall in Ramoth Galaad? And when one spoke in this
20 manner, and another otherwise: | there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said: I will deceive him. And the Lord said to him: By what means will you deceive him? |

21 And he answered: I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the Lord said: You shall deceive, 22 and shall prevail. Go out, and do so. | Now therefore behold the Lord has put a spirit of lying in the mouth of all your prophets: and the Lord has spoken evil against you.
23 And Sedecias the son of Chanaana came and struck Micheas on the cheek and said: Which way went the spirit of the Lord 24 from me, to speak to you? | And Micheas said: You yourself shall see in that day, when you shall go in from chamber to 25 chamber, to hide yourself. | And the king of Israel commanded, saying: Take Micheas, and carry him to Amon the 26 governor of the city, and to Joas the son of Amelech, | and say:
Thus says the king: Put this fellow in prison, and give him bread and water in a small quantity till I return in peace. | 27 And Micheas said: If you return in peace, the Lord has not spoken by me. And he said: Hear, all you people.
28 So the king of Israel and Josaphat king of Juda went up to 29 Ramoth Galaad. | And the king of Israel said to Josaphat: I will change my dress, and so I will go to the battle: but put you on your own garments. And the king of Israel, having 30 changed his dress, went to the battle. | Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his cavalry, saying: Fight not 31 with small, or great, but with the king of Israel only. | So when the captains of the cavalry saw Josaphat, they said: This is the king of Israel. And they surrounded him to attack him: but he cried to the Lord, and he helped him, and turned them away 32 from him. | For when the captains of the cavalry saw that he was not the king of Israel, they left him.

33 Achab's Death And it happened that one of the people shot an arrow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the neck and the shoulders, and he said to his chariot man: Turn your hand, and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded. | 34 And the fight was ended that day: but the king of Israel stood in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening, and died at the sunset.

19

1 Josaphat's Charge to Judges and Levites And Josaphat king of Juda returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. | 2 And Jehu the son of Hanani, the seer, met him and said to him:
You help the ungodly; and you are joined in friendship with them that hate the Lord: and therefore you did deserve indeed 3 the wrath of the Lord. | But good works are found in you because you have taken away the groves out of the land of Juda, and have prepared your heart to seek the Lord the God of your fathers.

4 And Josaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again to the people from Bersabee to mount Ephraim, and brought 5 them back to the Lord the God of their fathers. | And he set judges of the land in all the fenced cities of Juda, in every
6 place. | And charging the judges, he said: Take heed what you do: for you exercise not the judgment of man, but of the Lord. And whatsoever you judge, it shall redound to you. |
7 Let the fear of the Lord be with you, and do all things with diligence: for there is no iniquity with the Lord our God, nor 8 respect of persons, nor desire of gifts. | In Jerusalem also Josaphat appointed Levites, and priests and chiefs of the families of Israel, to judge the judgment and the cause of the Lord, for
9 the inhabitants thereof. | And he charged them, saying: Thus shall you do in the fear of the Lord faithfully, and with a per-
10 fect heart. | Every cause that shall come to you of your brethren, that dwell in their cities, between kindred and kindred, wheresoever there is question concerning the law, the commandment, the ceremonies, the justifications: show it them, that they may not sin against the Lord, and that wrath may not come upon you and your brethren: and so doing you shall not
11 sin. | And Amarias the priest your high priest shall be chief in the things which regard God; and Zabadias the son of Ismahel, who is ruler in the house of Juda, shall be over those matters which belong to the king's office. And you have before you the Levites for masters. Take courage and do diligently, and the Lord will be with you in good things.

20

1 Juda Attacked After this the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them of the Ammonites, were
2 gathered together to fight against Josaphat. | And there came messengers, and told Josaphat, saying: There comes a great multitude against you from beyond the sea, and out of Syria, and behold they are in Asasonthamar, which is Engaddi. |
3 And Josaphat being seized with fear betook himself wholly to pray to the Lord, and he proclaimed a fast for all Juda. |
4 And Juda gathered themselves together to pray to the Lord: and all came out of their cities to make supplication to him.

5 Josaphat's Prayer for Deliverance And Josaphat stood in the midst of the assembly of Juda, and Jerusalem, in the house
6 of the Lord, before the new court, | and said: O Lord God of our fathers, you are God in heaven, and you rule over all the kingdoms and nations: in your hand is strength and power; and 7 no one can resist you. | Did not you our God kill all the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it to the 8 seed of Abraham your friend for ever? | And they dwelt in 9 it, and built in it a sanctuary to your name, saying: | If evils fall upon us, the sword of judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand in your presence before this house, in which your name is called upon: and we will cry to you in our afflictions.

10 And you will hear, and save us. | Now therefore behold the children of Ammon, and of Moab, and mount Seir (through whose lands you did not allow Israel to pass, when they came out of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and slew them 11 not) | do the contrary, and endeavor to cast us out of the pos-
12 session which you have delivered to us. | O our God, will you not then judge them? As for us, we have not strength enough to be able to resist this multitude, which comes violently upon us.
But as we know not what to do, we can only turn our eyes to you.

13 God's Fight for His People Foretold And all Juda stood before the Lord with their little ones, and their wives, and their 14 children. | And Jahaziel the son of Zacharias, the son of Banaias, the son of Jehiel, the son of Mathanias, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, was there, upon whom the spirit of the Lord 15 came in the midst of the multitude. | And he said: Attend you, all Juda, and you that dwell in Jerusalem, and you king Josaphat: Thus says the Lord to you: Fear not, and be not dismayed at this multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's.
16 | Tomorrow you shall go down against them: for they will come up by the ascent named Sis, and you shall find them at the head of the torrent, which is over against the wilderness of Jeruel. | 17 It shall not be you that shall fight, but only stand with confidence, and you shall see the help of the Lord over you, O Juda, and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be you dismayed: tomorrow you shall go out against them, and the Lord will be with you.
18 Then Josaphat, and Juda and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem 19 fell flat on the ground before the Lord, and adored him. | And the Levites of the sons of Caath, and of the sons of Core, praised 20 the Lord the God of Israel with a loud voice, on high. | And they rose early in the morning, and went out through the desert of Thecua. And as they were marching, Josaphat standing in the midst of them, said: Hear me, you men of Juda, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem: believe in the Lord your God, and you shall be secure: believe his prophets, and all things shall succeed 21 well. | And he gave counsel to the people, and appointed the singing men of the Lord, to praise him by their companies, and to go before the army, and with one voice to say: Give glory to the Lord, for his mercy endures for ever.

22 And when they began to sing praises, the Lord turned their ambushments upon themselves, that is to say, of the children of Ammon, and of Moab, and of mount Seir, who had come 23 out to fight against Juda, and they were slain. | For the children of Ammon, and of Moab, rose up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, to kill and destroy them. And when they had made an end of them, they turned also against one another, and
24 destroyed one another. | And when Juda came to the watch tower, that looks toward the desert, they saw afar off all the country, for a great space, full of dead bodies; and that no one
25 was left that could escape death. | Then Josaphat came, and all the people with him to take away the spoils of the dead, and they found among the dead bodies, stuff of various kinds, and garments, and most precious vessels: and they took them for themselves, insomuch that they could not carry all, nor in three
26 days take away the spoils, the booty was so great. | And on the fourth day they were assembled in the valley of Blessing: for there they blessed the Lord; and therefore they called that place the valley of Blessing until this day.

27 Juda Rejoices And every man of Juda, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem returned, and Josaphat at their head, into Jerusalem, with great joy, because the Lord had made them rejoice
28 over their enemies. | And they came into Jerusalem with psalteries, and harps, and trumpets into the house of the Lord. |
29 And the fear of the Lord fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the Lord had fought against the enemies
30 of Israel. | And the kingdom of Josaphat was quiet, and God gave him peace round about.

31 And Josaphat reigned over Juda, and he was five and thirty years old when he began to reign. And he reigned five and twenty years in Jerusalem: and the name of his mother was 32 Azuba the daughter of Selahi. | And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and departed not from it, doing the things that
33 were pleasing before the Lord. | But yet he took not away the high places, and the people had not yet turned their heart to
34 the Lord the God of their fathers. | But the rest of the acts of Josaphat, first and last, are written in the words of Jehu the son of Hanani, which he digested into the books of the kings of Israel.

35 After these things Josaphat king of Juda made friendship with Ochozias king of Israel, whose works were very wicked. |

36 And he was partner with him in making ships, to go to Tharsis:
37 and they made the ships in Asiongaber. | And Eliezer the son of Dodau of Maresa prophesied to Josaphat, saying: Because you have made a league with Ochozias, the Lord has destroyed your works, and the ships are broken, and they could not go to Tharsis.

21

1 Joram Succeeds Josaphat And Josaphat slept with his fathers; and was buried with them in the city of David: and
2 Joram his son reigned in his stead. | And he had brethren, the sons of Josaphat, Azarias, and Jahiel, and Zacharias, and Azaria, and Michael, and Saphatias: all these were the sons of
3 Josaphat king of Juda. | And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and pensions, with strong cities in Juda: but the kingdom he gave to Joram, because he was the
4 eldest. | So Joram rose up over the kingdom of his father: and when he had established himself, he slew all his brethren with the sword, and some of the princes of Israel.
5 Joram was two and thirty years old when he began to reign:
6 and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. | And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Achab had done: for his wife was a daughter of Achab, and he did evil in the 7 sight of the Lord. | But the Lord would not destroy the house of David: because of the covenant which he had made with him: and because he had promised to give a lamp to him, and
8 to his sons for ever. | In those days Edom revolted from being
9 subject to Juda, and made themselves a king. | And Joram went over with his princes, and all his cavalry with him, and rose in the night, and defeated the Edomites who had surrounded
10 him and all the captains of his cavalry. | However, Edom revolted from being under the dominion of Juda unto this day. At that time, Lobna also revolted, from being under his hand.
11 For he had forsaken the Lord the God of his fathers. | Moreover he built also high places in the cities of Juda, and he made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and Juda to transgress.

12 Joram Is Punished for His Wickedness And there was a letter brought him from Elias the prophet, in which it was written: Thus says the Lord, the God of David your father: Because you have not walked in the ways of Josaphat your fa-
13 ther, nor in the ways of Asa king of Juda, | but have walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made Juda and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, imitating the fornication of the house of Achab: moreover also you have killed your brethren, the house of your father, better men than 14 yourself, | behold the Lord will strike you with a great plague, with all your people, and your children, and your wives, and

15 all your substance. | And you shall be sick of a very grievous disease of your bowels, till your vital parts come out by little and little every day.
16 And the Lord stirred up against Joram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, who border on the Ethiopians. |
17 And they came up into the land of Juda, and wasted it. And they carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house: his sons also, and his wives; so that there was no son
18 left him but Joachaz, who was the youngest. | And besides all this, the Lord struck him with an incurable disease in his
19 bowels. | And as day came after day, and time rolled on, two whole years passed: then after being wasted with a long consumption, so as to void his very bowels, his disease ended with his life. And he died of a most wretched illness, and the people did not make a funeral for him according to the manner of 20 burning, as they had done for his ancestors. | He was two and thirty years old when he began his reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked not rightly, and they buried him in the city of David: but not in the sepulchers of the kings.

22

1 Reign and Death of Ochozias And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ochozias his youngest son king in his place: for the rovers of the Arabians, who had broken in upon the camp, had killed all that were his elder brothers. So Ochozias the son
2 of Joram king of Juda reigned. | Ochozias was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and the name of his mother was Athalia the daughter
3 of Amri. | He also walked in the ways of the house of Achab:
4 for his mother pushed him on to do wickedly. | So he did evil in the sight of the Lord, as the house of Achab did: for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.
5 And he walked after their counsels. And he went with Joram the son of Achab king of Israel, to fight against Hazael king of Syria, at Ramoth Galaad: and the Syrians wounded Joram.
6 | And he returned to be healed in Jezrahel: for he received many wounds in the foresaid battle. And Ochozias the son of Joram king of Juda went down to visit Joram the son of Achab

21, 17: Joachaz: otherwise Ochozias.
22, 2: Forty-two: divers Greek Bibles read: thirty-two.

7 in Jezrahel where he lay sick. | For it was the will of God against Ochozias that he should come to Joram: and when he had come, he should go out also against Jehu the son of Namsi, whom the Lord had anointed to destroy the house of Achab. |
8 So when Jehu was rooting out the house of Achab, he found the princes of Juda, and the sons of the brethren of Ochozias, who 9 served him: and he slew them. | And he sought for Ochozias himself, and took him lying hidden in Samaria: and when he was brought to him, he killed him, and they buried him: because he was the son of Josaphat, who had sought the Lord with all his heart. And there was no more hope that any one should reign of the race of Ochozias.

10 The Tyranny of Athalia For Athalia his mother, seeing that her son was dead, rose up, and killed all the royal family
11 of the house of Joram. | But Josabeth the king's daughter took Joas the son of Ochozias, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain. And she hid him with his nurse in a bedchamber: now Josabeth that hid him, was daughter of king Joram, wife of Joiada the high priest, and sister of Ochozias,
12 and therefore Athalia did not kill him. | And he was with them hidden in the house of God six years, during which Athalia reigned over the land.

23

1 Joas Made King And in the seventh year Joiada being encouraged, took the captains of hundreds, to wit, Azarias the son of Jeroham, and Ismahel the son of Johanan, and Azarias the son of Obed, and Maasias the son of Adaias, and Elisaphat
2 the son of Zechri; and made a covenant with them. | And they went about Juda, and gathered together the Levites out of all the cities of Juda, and the chiefs of the families of Israel; and
3 they came to Jerusalem. | And all the multitude made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And Joiada said to them: Behold the king's son shall reign, as the Lord has said of 4 the sons of David. | And this is the thing that you shall do: |
5 A third part of you that come to the sabbath, of the priests, and of the Levites, and of the porters, shall be at the gates, and a third part at the king's house, and a third at the gate that is called the Foundation: but let all the rest of the people be in 22, 7-9: These verses are a summary of 4 Kgs 9, 1-28; 10, 11-14.

22, 10—23, 21: Details are added here to the account which comes from 4 Kgs 11.
23, 5: Come to the sabbath: that is, to perform in their appointed weeks the functions of their office, or the weekly watches.

6 the courts of the house of the Lord. | And let no one come into the house of the Lord, but the priests, and they that minister of the Levites. Let them only come in, because they are sanctified:
and let all the rest of the people keep the watches of the Lord. | 7 And let the Levites be round about the king, every man with his arms; (and if any other come into the temple, let him be slain,) and let them be with the king, both coming in and going out.
8 So the Levites, and all Juda did according to all that Joiada the high priest had commanded. And they took every one his men that were under him, and that came in by the course of the sabbath, with those who had fulfilled the sabbath, and were to go out. For Joiada the high priest permitted not the companies to depart, which were accustomed to succeed one another every 9 week. | And Joiada the priest gave to the captains the spears, and the shields, and targets of king David, which he had dedi-10 cated in the house of the Lord. | And he set all the people with swords in their hands, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, before the altar, and the temple, round 11 about the king. | And they brought out the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and the testimony, and gave him the law to hold in his hand. And they made him king: and Joiada the high priest and his sons anointed him. And they prayed for him, and said: God save the king.

12 Athalia Is Slain Now when Athalia heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came in to the people, 13 into the temple of the Lord. | And when she saw the king standing upon the step in the entrance, and the princes, and the companies about him, and all the people of the land rejoicing, and sounding with trumpets, and playing on instruments of divers kinds, and the voice of those that praised, she rent her 14 garments, and said: Treason, treason. | And Joiada the high priest going out to the captains, and the chiefs of the army, said to them: Take her away, outside the precinct of the temple, and when she is there, let her be killed with the sword. For the priest commanded that she should not be killed in the house of the 15 Lord. | And they laid hold on her by the neck: and when she came within the horse gate of the palace, they killed her there.

16 Joiada Destroys Idolatry And Joiada made a covenant between himself and all the people, and the king, that they 17 should be the people of the Lord. | And all the people went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it: and they broke down his altars and his idols, and they slew Mathan the priest of 18 Baal before the altars. | And Joiada appointed overseers in the house of the Lord, under the hands of the priests and the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the Lord: to offer holocausts to the Lord, as it is written in the law of Moses, with joy and singing, according to the disposition of 19 David. | He appointed also porters in the gates of the house of the Lord, that none who was unclean in any thing should

20 enter in. | And he took the captains of hundreds, and the most valiant men, and the chiefs of the people, and all the people of the land, and they brought down the king from the house of the Lord, and brought him through the upper gate into the 21 king's house, and set him on the royal throne. | And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet: but Athalia was slain with the sword.

24

1 Joas Repairs the Temple Joas was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: the 2 name of his mother was Sebia of Bersabee. | And he did that which is good before the Lord all the days of Joiada the priest.
3 | And Joiada took for him two wives, by whom he had sons and daughters.

4 After this Joas had a mind to repair the house of the Lord. |
5 And he assembled the priests, and the Levites, and said to them: Go out to the cities of Juda, and gather of all Israel money to repair the temple of your God, from year to year, and do this
6 with speed: but the Levites were negligent. | And the king called Joiada the chief, and said to him: Why have you not taken care to oblige the Levites to bring in out of Juda and Jerusalem the money that was appointed by Moses the servant of the Lord for all the multitude of Israel to bring into the tabernacle
7 of the testimony? | For that wicked woman Athalia and her children have destroyed the house of God and adorned the temple of Baal with all the things that had been dedicated in the
8 temple of the Lord. | And the king commanded, and they made a chest: and set it by the gate of the house of the Lord on the 9 outside. | And they made a proclamation in Juda and Jerusalem, that every man should bring to the Lord the money which Moses the servant of God appointed for all Israel in the desert.
10 | And all the princes, and all the people rejoiced: and going in they contributed and cast so much into the chest of the Lord
11 that it was filled. | And when it was time to bring the chest before the king by the hands of the Levites (for they saw there was much money), the king's scribe, and he whom the high priest had appointed went in: and they poured out the money that was in the chest: and they carried back the chest to its place. And thus they did from day to day, and there was 12 gathered an immense sum of money. | And the king and Joiada gave it to those who were over the works and of the house of the Lord. But they hired with it stonecutters and artificers of every kind of work, to repair the house of the Lord: and such as wrought in iron and brass, to uphold what began to be falling.

24, 4-14: Details are added here to the account coming from 4 Kgs 12, 4-16.

13 | And the workmen were diligent, and the breach of the walls was closed up by their hands, and they set up the house of the 14 Lord in its former state and made it stand firm. | And when they had finished all the works, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Joiada: and with it were made vessels for the temple, for the ministry, and for holocausts and bowls, and other vessels of gold and silver. And holocausts were offered in the house of the Lord continually all the days of Joiada.

15 Idolatry Returns upon Joiada's Death But Joiada grew old, and was full of days, and died when he was a hundred 16 and thirty years old. | And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good to Israel, and to his
17 house. | And after the death of Joiada the princes of Juda went in, and worshiped the king: and he was soothed by their services
18 and hearkened to them. | And they forsook the temple of the Lord the God of their fathers, and served groves and idols; and
19 wrath came upon Juda and Jerusalem for this sin. | And he sent prophets to them to bring them back to the Lord, and they
20 would not give ear when they testified against them. | The spirit of God then came upon Zacharias the son of Joiada the priest. And he stood in the sight of the people, and said to them: Thus says the Lord God: Why transgress you the commandment of the Lord which will not be for your good, and have
21 forsaken the Lord, to make him forsake you? | And they gathered themselves together against him, and stoned him at the king's commandment in the court of the house of the Lord. |
22 And king Joas did not remember the kindness that Joiada his father had done to him; but killed his son. And when he died, he said: The Lord see, and require it.

23 And when a year had passed, the army of Syria came up against him. And they came to Juda and Jerusalem and killed all the princes of the people, and they sent all the spoils to the 24 king of Damascus. | And although there came a very small number of the Syrians, the Lord delivered into their hands an infinite multitude, because they had forsaken the Lord the God of their fathers: and on Joas they executed shameful judgments.

23 Joas Slain by His Servants And departing they left him in great diseases. And his servants rose up against him, for revenge of the blood of the son of Joiada the priest. And they slew him in his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of 26 David, but not in the sepulchers of the kings. | Now the men that conspired against him were Zabad the son of Semmaath an Ammonitess, and Jozabad the son of Semarith a Moabitess. |
27 And concerning his sons, and the sum of money which was gathered under him, and the repairing the house of God, they are written more diligently in the book of kings: and Amasias his son reigned in his stead.

25

1 The Reign of Amasias Amasias was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: the name of his mother was Joadan
2 of Jerusalem. | And he did what was good in the sight of the 3 Lord: but yet not with a perfect heart. | And when he saw himself strengthened in his kingdom, he put to death the serv-
4 ants that had slain the king his father. | But he slew not their children, as it is written in the book of law of Moses, where the Lord commanded, saying: The fathers shall not be slain for the children, nor the children for their fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 Amasias therefore gathered Juda together, and appointed them by families, and captains of thousands and of hundreds in all Juda, and Benjamin. And he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found three hundred thousand young men that could go out to battle, and could hold the spear
6 and shield. | He hired also of Israel a hundred thousand valiant
7 men, for a hundred talents of silver. | But a man of God came to him, and said: O king, let not the army of Israel go out with you. For the Lord is not with Israel, and all the children of 8 Ephraim. | And if you think that battles consist in the strength of the army, God will make you to be overcome by the enemies,
9 for it belongs to God, both to help, and to put to flight. | And Amasias said to the man of God: What will then become of the hundred talents which I have given to the soldiers of Israel? And the man of God answered him: The Lord is rich enough
10 to be able to give you much more than this. | Then Amasias separated the army that came to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: but they being much enraged against Juda, re-

11 turned to their own country. | And Amasias taking courage led forth his people, and went to the vale of saltpits, and slew of the 12 children of Seir ten thousand. | And other ten thousand men the sons of Juda took, and brought to the steep of a certain rock, and cast them down headlong from the top, and they all were 13 broken to pieces. | But that army which Amasias had sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, spread themselves among the cities of Juda, from Samaria to Bethhoron, and having killed three thousand took away much spoil.
14 But Amasias, after he had slain the Edomites, set up the gods of the children of Seir, which he had brought there to be his 15 gods, and adored them, and burned incense to them. | Wherefore the Lord, being angry against Amasias, sent a prophet to him, to say to him: Why have you adored gods that have not 16 delivered their own people out of your hand? | And when he spoke these things, he answered him: Are you the king's counselor? Be quiet lest I kill you. And the prophet departing, said:
I know that God is minded to kill you, because you have done this evil, and moreover have not hearkened to my counsel. | 17 Then Amasias king of Juda, taking very bad counsel, sent to Joas the son of Joachaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying:
18 Come, let us see one another. | But he sent back the messengers, saying: The thistle that is in Libanus, sent to the cedar in Lib-anus, saying: Give your daughter to my son to wife. And behold the beasts that were in the wood of Libanus passed by, and 19 trod down the thistle. | You have said: I have overthrown Edom, and therefore your heart is lifted up with pride: stay at home, why do you provoke evil against you, that you should 20 fall, and Juda with you. | Amasias would not hearken to him, because it was the Lord's will that he should be delivered into 21 the hands of enemies, because of the gods of Edom. | So Joas king of Israel went up, and they presented themselves to be seen by one another: and Amasias king of Juda was in Bethsames of Juda.

22 Amasias Defeated And Juda fell before Israel, and they 23 fled to their dwellings. | And Joas king of Israel took Amasias king of Juda, the son of Joas, the son of Joachaz, in Bethsames, and brought him to Jerusalem: and broke down the walls thereof, from the gate of Ephraim to the gate of the corner, 24 four hundred cubits. | And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels, that he found in the house of God, and with Obededom, and in the treasures of the king's house. Moreover also the sons of the hostages, he brought back to Samaria.
25 And Amasias the son of Joas king of Juda lived, after the death of Joas the son of Joachaz king of Israel, fifteen years. | 26 Now the rest of the acts of Amasias, the first and last, are 27 written in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel. | And after he revolted from the Lord, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. And he fled into Lachis; and they sent, and killed 28 him there. | And they brought him back upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of David.

26

1 Ozias Made King And all the people of Juda took his son Ozias, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the 2 room of Amasias his father. | He built Ailath, and restored it to the dominion of Juda, after that the king slept with his fa-3 thers. | Ozias was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem: the name of 4 his mother was Jechelia of Jerusalem. | And he did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that Amasias 5 his father had done. | And he sought the Lord in the days of Zacharias that understood and saw God: and as long as he sought the Lord, he directed him in all things.
6 Moreover he went forth and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Geth, and the wall of Jabnia, and the wall of Azotus: and he built towns in Azotus, and among 7 the Philistines. | And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians, that dwelt in Gurbaal, and against the 8 Ammonites. | And the Ammonites gave gifts to Ozias: and his name was spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt for his 9 frequent victories. | And Ozias built towers in Jerusalem over the gate of the corner, and over the gate of the valley, and the 10 rest, in the same side of the wall, and fortified them. | And he built towers in the wilderness, and dug many cisterns, for he had much cattle both in the plains, and in the waste of the desert. He had also vineyards and dressers of vines in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he was a man that loved husbandry.
11 And the army of his fighting men, that went out to war, was under the hand of Jehiel the scribe, and Maasias the doctor, and under the hand of Henanias, who was one of the king's cap-12 tains. | And the whole number of the chiefs by the families 13 of valiant men were two thousand six hundred. | And the whole army under them, three hundred and seven thousand five hundred: who were fit for war, and fought for the king against 14 the enemy. | And Ozias prepared for them, that is, for the whole army, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, 15 and bows, and slings to cast stones. | And he made in Jerusalem engines of diverse kinds, which he placed in the towers, and in the corners of the walls, to shoot arrows, and great stones. And his name went forth far abroad: for the Lord helped him, and had strengthened him.

16 But when he was made strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: and he neglected the Lord his God. And going into the temple of the Lord, he had a mind to burn incense upon the 17 altar of incense. | And immediately Azarias the priest going in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the Lord, most
18 valiant men, | withstood the king and said: It does not belong to you, Ozias, to burn incense to the Lord, but to the priests, that is, to the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated for this ministry. Go out of the sanctuary, do not despise: for this thing shall not be accounted to your glory by the Lord God.

19 Ozias Is Stricken with Leprosy And Ozias was angry, and holding in his hand the censer to burn incense, threatened the priests. And presently there rose a leprosy in his forehead before the priests, in the house of the Lord at the altar of in-
20 cense. | And Azarias the high priest, and all the rest of the priests looked upon him, and saw the leprosy in his forehead; and they made haste to thrust him out. And he himself also being frightened, hastened to go out, because he had quickly felt
21 the stroke of the Lord. | And Ozias the king was a leper unto the day of his death. And he dwelt in a house apart, being full of the leprosy for which he had been cast out of the house of the Lord. And Joatham his son governed the king's house, and
22 judged the people of the land. | But the rest of the acts of Ozias, first and last, were written by Isaias the son of Amos, the 23 prophet. | And Ozias slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the field of the royal sepulchers, because he was a leper: and Joatham his son reigned in his stead.

27

1 Joatham's Good Reign Joatham was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: the name of his mother was Jerusa the daughter of 2 Sadoc. | And he did that which was right before the Lord, according to all that Ozias his father had done, only that he entered not into the temple of the Lord, and the people still
3 transgressed. | He built the high gate of the house of the Lord,
4 and on the wall of Ophel he built much. | Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Juda, and castles and towers in the 5 forests. | He fought against the king of the children of Ammon, and overcame them, and the children of Ammon gave him at that time a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and as many measures of barley: so much did the children of Ammon give him in the second and third year.

6 And Joatham was strengthened, because he had his way directed before the Lord his God.
7 Now the rest of the acts of Joatham, and all his wars, and his works, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and
8 Juda. | He was five and twenty years old when he began to 9 reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. | And Joatham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Achaz his son reigned in his stead.

28

1 The Wicked Reign of Achaz Achaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not that which was right in the sight of the Lord
2 as David his father had done, | but walked in the ways of the 3 kings of Israel. Moreover also he cast statues for Baalim. | It was he that burned incense in the valley of Benennom, and consecrated his sons in the fire, according to the manner of the nations which the Lord slew at the coming of the children of Is-
4 rael. | He sacrificed also, and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
5 And the Lord his God delivered him into the hands of the king of Syria, who defeated him, and took a great booty out of his kingdom, and carried it to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hands of the king of Israel, who overthrew him with a
6 great slaughter. | For Phacee the son of Romelia slew of Juda a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men: because they had forsaken the Lord the God of their fathers. |
7 At the same time Zechri, a powerful man of Ephraim, slew Maasias the king's son, and Ezricam the governor of his house, and Elcana who was next to the king.
8 And the children of Israel carried away of their brethren two hundred thousand women, boys, and girls, and an immense
9 booty. And they brought it to Samaria. | At that time there was a prophet of the Lord there, whose name was Oded. And he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: Behold the Lord the God of your fathers being angry with Juda has delivered them into your hands, and you have butchered them cruelly, so that your cruelty has reached up to 10 heaven. | Moreover you have a mind to keep under the children of Juda and Jerusalem for your bondmen and bondwomen, which ought not to be done: for you have sinned in this against 11 the Lord your God. | But hear my counsel, and release the captives that you have brought of your brethren; because a

12 great indignation of the Lord hangs over you. | Then some of the chief men of the sons of Ephraim: Azarias the son of Joha-nan, Barachias the son of Mosollamoth, Ezechias the son of Sellum, and Amasa the son of Adali, stood up against them that 13 came from the war. | And they said to them: You shall not bring the captives here, lest we sin against the Lord. Why will you add to our sins, and heap up upon our former offenses? For the sin is great, and the fierce anger of the Lord hangs over Is-14 rael. | So the soldiers left the spoils, and all that they had taken, before the princes and all the multitude.

15 The Captives Are Released And the men, whom we mentioned above, rose up and took the captives, and with the spoils clothed all them that were naked. And when they had clothed and shod them, and refreshed them with meat and drink, and anointed them because of their labor, and had taken care of them, they set such of them as could not walk, and were feeble, upon beasts, and brought them to Jericho the city of palm trees to their brethren. And then returned to Samaria.
16 At that time king Achaz sent to the king of the Assyrians 17 asking help. | And the Edomites came and slew many of Juda, 18 and took a great booty. | The Philistines also spread themselves among the cities of the plains, and to the south of Juda: and they took Bethsames, and Aialon, and Gaderoth, and Socho, and Thamnan, and Gamzo, with their villages, and they dwelt 19 in them. | For the Lord had humbled Juda because of Achaz the king of Juda, for he had stripped it of help, and had con-20 temned the Lord. | And he brought against him Thelgathphal-nasar king of the Assyrians, who also afflicted him, and plun-21 dered him without any resistance. | And Achaz stripped the house of the Lord, and the house of the kings, and of the princes, and gave gifts to the king of the Assyrians: and yet it availed 22 him nothing. | Moreover also in the time of his distress he increased contempt against the Lord: king Achaz himself | 23 sacrificed victims to the gods of Damascus that struck him, and he said: The gods of the kings of Syria help them, and I will appease them with victims, and they will help me: but on the 24 contrary they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. | Then Achaz having taken away all the vessels of the house of God, and broken them, shut up the doors of the temple of God, and 25 made himself altars in all the corners of Jerusalem. | And in all the cities of Juda he built altars to burn frankincense, and 26 he provoked the Lord the God of his fathers to wrath. | But the rest of his acts and all his works first and last are written 27 in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel. | And Achaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem: for they received him not into the sepulchers of the kings of Israel. And Ezechias his son reigned in his stead.

29

1 Ezechias Purifies the Temple Now Ezechias began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: the name of his mother 2 was Abia, the daughter of Zacharias. | And he did that which was pleasing in the sight of the Lord, according to all that 3 David his father had done. | In the first year and month of his reign he opened the doors of the house of the Lord, and re- 4 paired them. | And he brought the priests and the Levites, 5 and assembled them in the east street. | And he said to them: Hear me, Levites, and be sanctified; purify the house of the Lord the God of your fathers, and take away all filth out of 6 the sanctuary. | Our fathers have sinned and done evil in the sight of the Lord God, forsaking him: they have turned away their faces from the tabernacle of the Lord, and turned their 7 backs. | They have shut up the doors that were in the porch, and put out the lamps. And have not burned incense, nor of- 8 fered holocausts in the sanctuary of the God of Israel. | Therefore the wrath of the Lord has been stirred up against Juda and Jerusalem: and he has delivered them to trouble, and to destruction, and to be hissed at, as you see with your eyes. | 9 Behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword: our sons, and our daughters, and wives have been led away captives for 10 this wickedness. | Now therefore I have a mind that we make a covenant with the Lord the God of Israel: and he will turn 11 away the wrath of his indignation from us. | My sons, be not negligent. The Lord has chosen you to stand before him, and to minister to him, and to worship him, and to burn incense to him.

12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azarias, the sons of Caath: and of the sons of Merari, Cis the son of Abdi, and Azarias the son of Jalaleel: and of the sons of Gerson, Joah the son of Zemma, and Eden 13 the son of Joah. | And of the sons of Elisaphan, Samri, and Jahiel. Also of the sons of Asaph, Zacharias, and Mathanias. | 14 And of the sons of Heman, Jahiel, and Semei: and of the sons 15 of Idithun, Semeias, and Oziel. | And they gathered together their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and went in according to the commandment of the king, and the precept of the 16 Lord, to purify the house of God. | And the priests went into the temple of the Lord to sanctify it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found within to the entrance of the house of the Lord. And the Levites took it away, and carried it out 17 to the torrent Cedron. ¶ And they began to cleanse on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the same month they came into the porch of the temple of the Lord. And they purified the temple in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of 18 the same month they finished what they had begun. ¶ And they went in to king Ezechias, and said to him: We have sanctified all the house of the Lord, and the altar of holocaust, and the vessels thereof, and the table of proposition with all its vessels, 19 ¶ And all the furniture of the temple, which king Achaz in his reign had defiled, after his transgression. And behold they are all set forth before the altar of the Lord.

20 Solemn Sacrifices Offered And king Ezechias rising early, assembled all the rulers of the city, and went up into the house 21 of the Lord. ¶ And they offered together seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats for sin, for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, for Juda: and he spoke to the priests the sons of Aaron, to offer them upon the altar of the 22 Lord. ¶ Therefore they killed the bullocks, and the priests took the blood and poured it upon the altar. They killed also the rams, and their blood they poured also upon the altar. And they killed the lambs and poured the blood upon the altar. ¶ 23 And they brought the he-goats for sin before the king, and the 24 whole multitude, and they laid their hand upon them: ¶ and the priests immolated them, and sprinkled their blood before the altar for an expiation of all Israel: for the king had commanded that the holocaust and the sin offering should be made 25 for all Israel. ¶ And he set the Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, according to the regulations of David the king, and of Gad the seer, and of Nathan the prophet: for it was the commandment of the Lord by the 26 hand of his prophets. ¶ And the Levites stood, with the instru-27 ments of David, and the priests with trumpets. ¶ And Ezechias commanded that they should offer holocausts upon the altar. And when the holocausts were offered, they began to sing praises to the Lord, and to sound with trumpets, and divers instruments which David the king of Israel had prepared. ¶ 28 And all the multitude adored, and the singers, and the trumpet-29 ers, were in their office till the holocaust was finished. ¶ And when the oblation was ended, the king, and all that were with 30 him bowed down and adored. ¶ And Ezechias and the princes commanded the Levites to praise the Lord with the words of David, and Asaph the seer: and they praised him with great joy, and bowing the knee adored.

31 And Ezechias added, and said: You have filled your hands to the Lord, come and offer victims, and praises in the house of the Lord. And all the multitude offered victims, and praises, and 32 holocausts with a devout mind. | And the number of the holocausts which the multitude offered, was seventy bullocks, a
33 hundred rams, and two hundred lambs. | And they consecrated
34 to the Lord six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep. | But the priests were few, and were not enough to flay the holocausts: wherefore the Levites their brethren, helped them, till the work was ended, and priests were sanctified, for the Levites
35 are sanctified with an easier rite than the priests. | So there were many holocausts, and the fat of peace offerings, and the libations of holocausts: and the service of the house of the Lord
36 was completed. | And Ezechias, and all the people rejoiced because the ministry of the Lord was accomplished. For the resolution of doing this thing was taken suddenly.

30

1 All Israel Invited to Celebrate the Pasch And Ezechias sent to all Israel and Juda: and he wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasses, that they should come to the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, and keep the phase to the Lord the God of Israel. |
2 For the king, taking counsel, and the princes, and all the assembly of Jerusalem, decreed to keep the phase the second
3 month. | For they could not keep it in its time; because there were not priests enough sanctified, and the people were not
4 as yet gathered together to Jerusalem. | And the thing pleased
5 the king, and all the people. | And they decreed to send messengers to all Israel, from Bersabee even to Dan, that they should come, and keep the phase to the Lord the God of Israel in Jerusalem: for many had not kept it as it is prescribed
6 by the law. | And the posts went with letters by commandment of the king, and his princes, to all Israel and Juda, proclaiming according to the king's orders: All you children of Israel, turn again to the Lord, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Israel. And he will return to the remnant of you that have
7 escaped the hand of the king of the Assyrians. | Be not like your fathers, and brethren, who departed from the Lord the God of their fathers: and he has given them up to destruction,
8 as you see. | Harden not your necks, as your fathers did: yield yourselves to the Lord, and come to his sanctuary, which he has sanctified for ever. Serve the Lord the God of your fathers, and the wrath of his indignation shall be turned away 9 from you. | For if you turn again to the Lord, your brethren and children shall find mercy before their masters, that have led them away captive, and they shall return into this land: for the Lord your God is merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him.

10 So the posts went speedily from city to city, through the land of Ephraim, and of Manasses, even to Zabulon, while 11 they laughed at them and mocked them. | Nevertheless some men of Aser, and of Manasses, and of Zabulon, yielding to the 12 counsel, came to Jerusalem. | But the hand of God was in Juda, to give them one heart to do the word of the Lord, according to 13 the commandment of the king, and of the princes. | And many people were assembled to Jerusalem to celebrate the so-14 lemnity of the unleavened bread in the second month: | and they arose and destroyed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and took away all things in which incense was burned to idols, and 15 cast them into the torrent Cedron. | And they immolated the phase on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites being at length sanctified offered holo-16 causts in the house of the Lord. | And they stood in their order, according to the disposition and law of Moses the man of God. But the priests received the blood which was to be 17 poured out from the hands of the Levites, | because a great number was not sanctified. And therefore the Levites immolated the phase for them that came not in time to be sanctified to 18 the Lord. | For a great part of the people from Ephraim, and Manasses, and Issachar, and Zabulon, that had not been sanctified, ate the phase otherwise than it is written. And Ezechias prayed for them, saying: The Lord who is good will show 19 mercy, | to all them, who with their whole heart seek the Lord the God of their fathers: and will not impute it to them that 20 they are not sanctified. | And the Lord heard him, and was merciful to the people.

21 The Solemnity Is Kept for Fourteen Days And the children of Israel, that were found at Jerusalem, kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great joy, praising the Lord every day: the Levites also, and the priests, with instru-22 ments that agreed to their office. | And Ezechias spoke to the heart of all the Levites that had good understanding, concerning the Lord: and they ate during the seven days of the solemnity, immolating victims of peace offerings, and praising the 23 Lord the God of their fathers. | And it pleased the whole multitude to keep other seven days: which they did with great joy. | 24 For Ezechias the king of Juda had given to the multitude a thousand bullocks, and seven thousand sheep: and the princes had given the people a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand 25 sheep. And a great number of priests was sanctified. | And all the multitude of Juda with the priests and Levites, and all the assembly that came out of Israel, and the proselytes of the 26 land of Israel, and that dwelt in Juda, were full of joy. | And there was a great solemnity in Jerusalem, such as had not been in that city since the time of Solomon the son of David

27 king of Israel. | And the priests and the Levites rose up and blessed the people. And their voice was heard: and their prayer came to the holy dwelling place of heaven.

31

1 Provisions Made for the Ministers And when these things had been duly celebrated, all Israel that were found in the cities of Juda went out. And they broke the idols, and cut down the groves, demolished the high places, and destroyed the altars, not only out of all Juda and Benjamin, but out of Ephraim also and Manasses, till they had utterly destroyed them. Then all the children of Israel returned to their possessions and cities.

2 And Ezechias appointed companies of the priests, and the Levites, by their courses, every man in his own office, to wit, both of the priests, and of the Levites, for holocausts, and for peace offerings: to minister, and to praise, and to sing in the
3 gates of the camp of the Lord. | And the king's part was, that of his proper substance the holocaust should be offered always morning and evening, and on the sabbaths, and the new moons and the other solemnities, as it is written in the law of 4 Moses. | He commanded also the people that dwelt in Jerusalem, to give to the priests, and the Levites their portion,
5 that they might attend to the law of the Lord. | Which when it was noised abroad in the ears of the people, the children of Israel offered in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey: and brought the tithe of all things which the
6 ground brings forth. | Moreover the children of Israel and Juda, that dwelt in the cities of Juda, brought in the tithes of oxen, and sheep, and the tithes of holy things, which they had vowed to the Lord their God: and carrying them all, made many
7 heaps. | In the third month they began to lay the foundations of the heaps, and in the seventh month they finished them.
8 And when Ezechias and his princes came in, they saw the heaps; and they blessed the Lord and the people of Israel. | 9 And Ezechias asked the priests and the Levites, why the heaps 10 lay so. | Azarias as the chief priest of the race of Sadoc answered him, saying: Since the firstfruits began to be offered in the house of the Lord, we have eaten, and have been filled, and abundance is left, because the Lord has blessed his people: and 11 of that which is left is this great store which you see. | Then Ezechias commanded to prepare storehouses in the house of the 12 Lord. And when they had done so, | they brought in faithfully both the firstfruits, and the tithes, and all they had vowed. And the overseer of them was Chonenias the Levite, and

13 Semei his brother was the second, | and after him Jehiel, and Azarias, and Nahath, and Asael, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Jesmachias, and Mahath, and Banaias, overseers under the hand of Chonenias, and Semei his brother, by the commandment of Ezechias the king, and Azarias the high priest
14 of the house of God, to whom all things appertained. | But Core the son of Jemna the Levite, the porter of the east gate, was overseer of the things which were freely offered to the Lord, and of the firstfruits and the things dedicated for the Holy of Holies.

15 Distribution of Offerings And under his charge were Eden, and Benjamin, Jesue, and Semeias, and Amarias, and Sechenias, in the cities of the priests, to distribute faithfully portions to 16 their brethren, both little and great: besides the males from three years old and upward: to all that went into the temple of the Lord, and whatsoever there was need of in the ministry. and their offices according to their courses, day by day. |
17 To the priests by their families, and to the Levites from the twentieth year and upward, by their classes and companies. |
18 And to all the multitude, both to their wives, and to their children of both sexes, victuals were given faithfully out of the
19 things that had been sanctified. | Also of the sons of Aaron who were in the fields and in the suburbs of each city, there were men appointed to distribute portions to all the males, among the priests and the Levites.

20 So Ezechias did all things which we have said in all Juda, and wrought that which was good, and right, and truth, before
21 the Lord his God, | in all the service of the ministry of the house of the Lord according to the law and the ceremonies, desiring to seek his God with all his heart. And he did it and prospered.

32

1 Sennacherib's Invasion of Juda After these things, and this truth, Sennacherib king of the Assyrians came and entered into Juda, and besieged the fenced cities, desiring to 2 take them. | And when Ezechias saw that Sennacherib had come, and that the whole force of the war was turning against
3 Jerusalem, | he took counsel with the princes, and the most valiant men, to stop up the heads of the springs that were
4 without the city. And as they were all of this mind, | he gathered together a very great multitude; and they stopped up all the springs and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying: Lest the kings of the Assyrians should come, and
5 find abundance of water. | He built up also with great diligence all the wall that had been broken down, and built towers upon it, and another wall without. And he repaired Mello in the 6 city of David, and made all sorts of arms and shields: | and he appointed captains of the soldiers of the army, and he called them all together in the street of the gate of the city, and spoke
7 to their heart, saying: | Behave like men, and take courage. Be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of the Assyrians, nor for all the multitude that is with him. For there are many more
8 with us than with him. | For with him is an arm of flesh: with us the Lord our God, who is our helper, and fights for us. And the people were encouraged with these words of Ezechias king of Juda.

9 Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem After this, Sennacherib king of the Assyrians sent his servants to Jerusalem (for he with all his army was besieging Lachis) to Ezechias king of 10 Juda, and to all the people that were in the city, saying: | Thus says Sennacherib king of the Assyrians: in whom do you trust,
11 that you sit still besieged in Jerusalem? | Does not Ezechias deceive you, to give you up to die by hunger and thirst, affirming that the Lord your God shall deliver you from the hand of
12 the king of the Assyrians? | Is it not this same Ezechias that has destroyed his high places, and his altars, and commanded Juda and Jerusalem, saying: You shall worship before one altar,
13 and upon it you shall burn incense? | Know you not what I and my fathers have done to all the people of the lands? Have the gods of any nations and lands been able to deliver their 14 country out of my hand? | Who is there among all the gods of the nations, which my fathers have destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able

32, 1-23: These verses summarize 4 Kgs 18, 13—19, 37.

15 to deliver you out of this hand? | Therefore let not Ezechias deceive you, nor delude you with a vain persuasion, and do not believe him. For if no god of all the nations and kingdoms could deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers, consequently neither shall your God be able to de-16 liver you out of my hand. | And many other things did his servants speak against the Lord God, and against Ezechias his 17 servant. | He wrote also letters full of blasphemy against the Lord the God of Israel, and he spoke against him: As the gods of other nations could not deliver their people out of my hand, so neither can the God of Ezechias deliver his people 18 out of this hand. | Moreover he cried out with a loud voice, in the Jews' tongue, to the people that sat on the walls of Jeru-19 salem, that he might frighten them, and take the city. | And he spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, the works of the hands of men.

20 An Angel Destroys Sennacherib's Army And Ezechias the king, and Isaias the prophet, the son of Amos, prayed 21 against this blasphemy, and cried out to heaven. | And the Lord sent an angel, who cut off all the stout men and the warriors, and the captains of the army of the king of the Assyrians.
And he returned with disgrace into his own country. And when he came into the house of his god, his sons that had come out 22 of his bowels slew him with the sword. | And the Lord saved Ezechias and the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hand of Sennacherib king of the Assyrians, and out of the hand of all, 23 and gave them treasures on every side. | Many also brought victims and sacrifices to the Lord to Jerusalem, and presents to Ezechias king of Juda. And he was magnified thenceforth in the sight of all nations.

24 In those days, Ezechias was sick even to death, and he prayed to the Lord, and he heard him, and gave him a sign. | 25 But he did not render again according to the benefits which he had received, for his heart was lifted up: and wrath was en-26 kindled against him, and against Juda and Jerusalem. | And he humbled himself afterward, because his heart had been lifted up, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and therefore the wrath of the Lord came not upon them in the days of Ezechias.

27 The Riches and Works of Ezechias And Ezechias was rich, and very glorious; and he gathered himself great treasures of silver and of gold, and of precious stones, of spices, and of 28 arms of all kinds, and of vessels of great price. | Storehouses also of corn, of wine, and of oil, and stalls for all beasts, and 29 folds for cattle. | And he built himself cities: for he had flocks of sheep, and herds without number, for the Lord had given him 30 very much substance. | This same Ezechias was he that stopped the upper source of the waters of Gihon, and turned them away underneath toward the west of the city of David. In all his works 31 he did properously what he would. | But yet in the embassy of the princes of Babylon, that were sent to him, to inquire of the wonder that had happened upon the earth, God left him that he might be tempted, and all the things might be made known that 32 were in his heart. | Now the rest of the acts of Ezechias, and of his mercies, are written in the book of the kings of Juda and 33 Israel. | And Ezechias slept with his fathers, and they buried him above the sepulchers of the sons of David: and all Juda, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem celebrated his funeral: and Manasses his son reigned in his stead.

33

1 The Evil Reign of Manasses Manasses was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in 2 Jerusalem. | And he did evil before the Lord, according to all the abominations of the nations, which the Lord cast out be-3 fore the children of Israel. | And he turned, and built again the high places which Ezechias his father had destroyed. And he built altars to Baalim, and made groves, and he adored all 4 the host of heaven, and worshiped them. | He built also altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord had said: In Je-5 rusalem shall my name be for ever. | And he built them for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord. | 6 And he made his sons to pass through the fire in the valley of Benennom. He observed dreams, followed divinations, gave himself up to magic arts, had with him magicians and enchanters: and he wrought many evils before the Lord, to pro-7 voke him to anger. | He set also a graven and a molten statue in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son: In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name 8 for ever. | And I will not make the foot of Israel to be removed out of the land which I have delivered to their fathers: yet so if they will take heed to do what I have commanded them, and all the law, and the ceremonies, and judgments, by the hand of 9 Moses. | So Manasses seduced Juda, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to do evil beyond all the nations which the Lord had 33, 3: Host of heaven: here it means the sun, moon, and stars.

10 destroyed before the face of the children of Israel. | And the Lord spoke to him, and to his people and they would not hark-11 en. | Therefore he brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of the Assyrians: and they took Manasses, and car-12 ried him bound with chains and fetters to Babylon. | And after that he was in distress he prayed to the Lord his God: and did penance exceedingly before the God of his fathers.

13 Manasses Returned from Babylonian Captivity And he entreated him, and besought him earnestly. And he heard his prayer, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom.
14 And Manasses knew that the Lord was God. | After this, he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon in the valley, from the entering in of the fish gate round about to Ophel, and raised it up to a great height. And he appointed captains of the army in all the fenced cities of Juda. | 15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the Lord: the altars also which he had made in the mount of the house of the Lord, and in Jerusalem. And he cast 16 them all out of the city. | And he repaired the altar of the Lord, and sacrificed upon it victims, and peace offerings, and praise: and he commanded Juda to serve the Lord the God of 17 Israel. | Nevertheless the people still sacrificed in the high 18 places to the Lord their God. | But the rest of the acts of Ma-nasses, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers that spoke to him in the name of the Lord the God of Israel, 19 are contained in the words of the kings of Israel. | His prayer also, and his being heard, and all his sins, and contempt, and places wherein he built high places, and set up groves, and statues before he did penance, are written in the words of 20 Hozai | And Manasses slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his house: and his son Amon reigned in his stead.

21 Amon, the Son of Manasses, Slain Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two 22 years in Jerusalem. | And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, as Manasses his father had done: and he sacrificed to all the idols which Manasses his father had made, and served them. | 23 And he did not humble himself before the Lord, as Manasses his father had humbled himself, but committed far greater sins.
24 | And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his 25 own house. | But the rest of the multitude of the people slew them that had killed Amon, and made Josias his son king in his stead.

34

1 Josias Abolishes Idolatry Josias was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one and thirty years in Je-
2 rusalem. | And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David his father: he declined
3 not, neither to the right hand, nor to the left. | And in the eighth year of his reign, when he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of his father David: and in the twelfth year after he began to reign, he cleansed Juda and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the idols, and the graven things. |
4 And they broke down before him the altars of Baalim, and demolished the idols that had been set upon them. And he cut down the groves and the graven things, and broke them in pieces: and strewed the fragments upon the graves of them that 5 had sacrificed to them. | And he burned the bones of the priests on the altars of the idols: and he cleansed Juda and
6 Jerusalem. | And in the cities of Manasses, and of Ephraim,
7 and of Simeon, even to Nephtali, he demolished all. | And when he had destroyed the altars, and the groves, and had broken the idols in pieces, and had demolished all profane temples throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 Repair of the Temple Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had cleansed the land, and the temple of the Lord, he sent Saphan the son of Eselias, and Maasias the governor of the city, Joha the son of Joachaz the recorder, to re-
9 pair the house of the Lord his God. | And they came to Helcias the high priest: and received of him the money which had been brought into the house of the Lord, and which the Levites and porters had gathered together from Manasses and Ephraim, and all the remnant of Israel, and from all Juda, and Benjamin,
10 and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, | which they delivered into the hands of them that were over the workmen in the house of the Lord, to repair the temple, and mend all that was weak. |
11 But they gave it to the artificers, and to the masons, to buy stones out of the quarries, and timber for the couplings of the buildings, and to rafter the houses, which the kings of Juda
12 had destroyed. | And they did all faithfully. Now the overseers of the workmen were Jahath and Abdias of the sons of Merari, Zacharias and Mosollam of the sons of Caath, who hastened the work: all Levites skillful to play on instruments. |
13 But over them that carried burdens for divers uses there were scribes, and masters of the number of the Levites, and porters.

34, 4-7: These verses summarize 4 Kgs 23, 4-20.

14 The Finding of the Book of the Law Now when they carried out the money that had been brought into the temple of the Lord, Helcias the priest found the book of the law of 15 the Lord, by the hand of Moses. | And he said to Saphan the scribe: I have found the book of the law in the house of the 16 Lord. And he delivered it to him. | But he carried the book to the king, and told him, saying: Lo, all that you have committed
17 to your servants is accomplished. | They have gathered together the silver that was found in the house of the Lord: and it was given to the overseers of the artificers, and of the workmen,
18 for divers works. | Moreover Helcias the priest gave me this book. And he read it before the king.

19 And when he had heard the words of the law, he rent his 20 garments: | and he commanded Helcais, and Ahicam the son of Saphan, and Abdon the son of Micha, and Saphan the 21 scribe, and Asaa the king's servant, saying: | Go, and pray to the Lord for me, and for the remnant of Israel, and Juda, concerning all the words of this book, which has been found. For the great wrath of the Lord has fallen upon us, because our fathers have not kept the words of the Lord, to do all things that are written in this book.

22 Olda's Prophecy And Helcias and they that were sent with him by the king, went to Olda the prophetess, the wife of Sellum the son of Thecuath, the son of Hasra keeper of the wardrobe, who dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second part: and they
23 spoke to her the words above mentioned. | And she answered them: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Tell the man that
24 sent you to me: | Thus says the Lord: Behold I will bring evils upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, and all the curses that are written in this book which they read before
25 the king of Juda. | Because they have forsaken me, and have sacrificed to strange gods, to provoke me to wrath with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath shall fall upon this
26 place and shall not be quenched. | But as to the king of Juda that sent you to beseech the Lord, thus shall you say to him: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Because you have heard
27 the words of this book, | and your heart was softened, and you have humbled yourself in the sight of God for the things that are spoken against this place, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and reverencing my face, have rent your garments, and
28 wept before me: I also have heard you, says the Lord. | For now I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be brought to your tomb in peace: and your eyes shall not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and the inhabitants thereof.

29 They therefore reported to the king all that she had said, | and he called together all the ancients of Juda and Jerusalem, | 30 and went up to the house of the Lord, and all the men of Juda, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites, and all the people from the least to the greatest. And the king read in their hearing, in the house of the Lord, all the words of the book.

31 Josias Renews the Covenant And standing up in his tribunal he made a covenant before the Lord to walk after him, and keep his commandments, and testimonies, and justifications with all his heart, and with all his soul, and to do the the things that were written in that book which he had read. | 32 And he adjured all that were found in Jerusalem, and Benjamin to do the same: and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of the Lord the God of their fathers. | 33 And Josias took away all the abominations out of all the coun tries of the children of Israel: and made all that were left in Israel to serve the Lord their God. As long as he lived they departed not from the Lord the God of their fathers.

35

1 Josias Celebrates the Pasch And Josias kept a phase to the Lord in Jerusalem, and it was sacrificed on the fourteenth 2 day of the first month. | And he sat the priests in their offices, 3 and exhorted them to minister in the house of the Lord. | And he spoke to the Levites, by whose instruction all Israel was sanctified to the Lord, saying: Put the ark in the sanctuary of the temple, which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built: for you shall carry it no more, but minister now to the 4 Lord your God and to his people Israel. | And prepare yourselves by your houses and families, according to your courses, as David king of Israel commanded, and Solomon his son has 5 written. | And serve in the sanctuary by the families and com-
6 panies of Levi. | And being sanctified kill the phase, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the words 7 which the Lord spoke by the hand of Moses. | And Josias gave to all the people that were found there in the solemnity of the phase, of lambs and of kids of the flocks, and of other small cattle, thirty thousand, and of oxen, three thousand. All 8 these were of the king's substance. | And his princes willingly

35, 1-25: These verses contain accounts prolonged with details from 4 Kgs 23, 21-23 (Josias' Passover celebration) and 4 Kgs 23, 29-30 (his death).

offered what they had vowed, both to the people and to the priests and the Levites. Moreover Helcias, and Zacharias, and Jahiel, rulers of the house of the Lord, gave to the priests to keep the phase two thousand six hundred small cattle, and 9 three hundred oxen. | And Chonenias, and Semeias, and Nathanael, his brethren, and Hasabias, and Jehiel, and Jozabad, princes of the Levites, gave to the rest of the Levites to celebrate the phase five thousand small cattle, and five hundred
10 oxen. | And the ministry was prepared, and the priests stood in their office: the Levites also in their companies, according to the king's commandment.
11 And the phase was immolated: and the priests sprinkled the blood with their hand, and the Levites flayed the holocausts
12 | and they separated them to give them by the houses and families of every one, and to be offered to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses. And with the oxen they did in
13 like manner. | And they roasted the phase with fire, according to that which is written in the law: but the victims of peace offerings they boiled in caldrons, and kettles, and pots; and
14 they distributed them speedily among all the people. | And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests, for the priests were busied in offering of holocausts and the fat until night: wherefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and
15 for the priests the sons of Aaron last. | And the singers the sons of Asaph stood in their order, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Idithun, the prophets of the king. And the porters kept guard at every gate, so as not to depart one moment from their service: and therefore 16 their brethren the Levites prepared meats for them. | So all the service of the Lord was duly accomplished that day, both in keeping the phase, and offering holocausts upon the altar of the 17 Lord, according to the commandment of king Josias. | And the children of Israel that were found there kept the phase at that
18 time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. | There was no phase like to this in Israel, from the days of Samuel the prophet: neither did any of all the kings of Israel keep such a phase as Josias kept, with the priests, and the Levites, and all Juda, and Israel that were found, and the inhabitants of Je-
19 rusalem. | In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this phase celebrated.

20 Josias' Death at Mageddo After Josias had repaired the temple, Nechao king of Egypt came up to fight in Charcamis by 21 the Euphrates: and Josias went out to meet him. | But he sent messengers to him, saying: What have I to do with you,

O king of Juda? I come not against you this day, but I fight against another house, to which God has commanded me to go in haste: forbear to do against God, who is with me, lest he 22 kill you. | Josias would not return, but prepared to fight against him, and hearkened not to the words of Nechao from the mouth of God, but went to fight in the field of Mageddo. |
23 And there he was wounded by the archers, and he said to his servants: Carry me out of the battle, for I am grievously
24 wounded. | And they removed him from the chariot into another, that followed him after the manner of kings, and they carried him away to Jerusalem: and he died, and was buried in the monument of his fathers, and all Juda and Jerusalem
25 mourned for him, | particularly Jeremias: whose lamentations for Josias all the singing men and singing women repeat unto this day, and it became like a law in Israel: Behold it is found written in the Lamentations.
26 Now the rest of the acts of Josias and of his mercies, ac-
27 cording to what was commanded by the law of the Lord, | and his works first and last, are written in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel.

36

1 Joachaz and Joakim Then the people of the land took Joachaz the son of Josias, and made him king instead of his
2 father in Jerusalem. | Joachaz was three and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jeru-
3 salem. | And the king of Egypt came to Jerusalem, and deposed him, and condemned the land in a hundred talents of 4 silver, and a talent of gold. | And he made Eliakim his brother king in his stead, over Juda and Jerusalem, and he turned his name to Joakim: but he took Joachaz with him, and carried
5 him away into Egypt. | Joakim was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jeru-
6 salem: and he did evil before the Lord his God. | Against him came up Nabuchodonosor king of the Chaldeans, and led him
7 bound in chains into Babylon. | And he carried also thither
8 the vessels of the Lord, and put them in his temple. | But the rest of the acts of Joakim, and his abominations, which he wrought, and the things that were found in him, are contained in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel. And Joachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 Joachin and Sedecias Joachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Je-10 rusalem: and he did evil in the sight of the Lord. | And at the return of the year, king Nabuchodonosor sent, and brought him to Babylon, carrying away at the same time the most precious vessels of the house of the Lord. And he made Sedecias 11 his uncle king over Juda and Jerusalem. | Sedecias was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned

12 eleven years in Jerusalem. | And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord his God, and did not reverence the face of Jeremias the 13 prophet speaking to him from the mouth of the Lord. | He also revolted from king Nabuchodonosor, who had made him swear by God. And he hardened his neck and his heart, from
14 returning to the Lord the God of Israel. | Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people wickedly transgressed according to all the abominations of the Gentiles: and they defiled the house of the Lord, which he had sanctified to himself in
15 Jerusalem. | And the Lord the God of their fathers sent to them, by the hand of his messengers, rising early, and daily admonishing them: because he spared his people and his dwelling
16 place. | But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused the prophets, until the wrath of the Lord
17 arose against his people, and there was no remedy. | For he brought upon them the king of the Chaldeans, and he slew their young men with the sword in the house of his sanctuary. He had no compassion on young man, or maiden, old man, or even him that stooped for age, but he delivered them all into his hands. |
18 And all the vessels of the house of the Lord, great and small, and the treasures of the temple and of the king and of the 19 princes he carried away to Babylon. | And the enemies set fire to the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all the towers, and whatsoever was precious they destroyed.

20 The Seventy Years' Captivity Whosoever escaped the sword was led into Babylon, and there served the king and his 21 sons till the reign of the king of Persia. | That the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremias might be fulfilled, and the land might keep her sabbaths: for all the days of the desolation she
22 kept a sabbath, till the seventy years were expired. | But in the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, to fulfill the word of the Lord, which he had spoken by the mouth of Jeremias, the Lord stirred up the heart of Cyrus king of the Persians: who commanded it to be proclaimed through all his kingdom, and
23 by writing also, saying: | Thus says Cyrus king of the Persians: All the kingdoms of the earth has the Lord the God of heaven given to me; and he has charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judea. Who is there among you of all his people? The Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.

THE FIRST BOOK OF ESDRAS

INTRODUCTION

The Douay version follows the Latin Vulgate in using the names "The First Book of Esdras" and "The Book of Nehemias, which is called The Second of Esdras."

The same Chronicler who wrote 1, 2 Par also wrote the books of Esdras and Nehemias. The two latter books outline the politico-religious restoration period following the return of the Jews from their Babylonian exile in 538 B.C. The Chronicler used as his sources for these two books the memoirs of Esdras and of Nehemias, genealogies found in the temple, and Persian documents.

Scholars do not know the number of caravans that left Babylonia but the return to Judea continued for over a century. Of the adults, deported in 597 and 587 B.C., only few were still alive, and many of the repatriated Jews, who were born in exile, felt not at all enthusiastic about returning since they had been living in easy circumstances in Babylon. The poor economic conditions of Judea and the constant harassing by the Samaritans did not help the newly arrived people. What discouraged them most was the gradual realization that the prophetic promises of the Messianic age with all their political and materialistic colorings were not forthcoming. Little did they know that another five centuries would pass before the coming of the true Messia.

During the exile, Jerusalem had always been inhabited. Its temple was most likely used for worship in spite of its ruined condition. Yet the real religious and doctrinal development took place not in Jerusalem but in exile. The exile served as a "spiritual retreat" for the Jews who were resolved to observe the Mosaic Law exactly. They became known as the People of the Book. They wanted to isolate themselves from the contamination with Gentiles till the Messianic age would come. These are some of the characteristics of what is still known as "Judaism." If one text could indicate the birth of Judaism it is Neh 8, 1-12, where Esdras solemnly proclaims the Law.

The new Persian emperors supported the rebuilding of the temple and the city of Jerusalem. The Persian masters also supported those who desired to return from exile. This brings us to the most debated of many chronological uncertainties in these two books—the date of Esdras' mission to Jerusalem from the Babylonian exile (Esd 7, 8). The traditional opinion, still well supported by moderns, is that Esdras came to Jerusalem in 458, when king Artaxerxes I ruled for the seventh year (465-424 B.C.), thirteen years before Nehemias' arrival in 445. In this opinion, the religious reform of Esdras preceded the social reform of Nehemias. The most popular of modern opinions (for there are others) reverses the order, holding that Esdras went to Jerusalem in 398, in the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes II (405-359 B.C.) and, thus, that Nehemias came before Esdras. The objection to this latter theory is that it splits the two careers of Esdras and Nehemias too neatly. Therefore, other modern opinions try to explain the overlapping of their careers since the Bible presents them that way.

The reading of these two books leaves a sense of appreciation for two personalities who have never been as well known as they deserve. Both, Esdras (or Ezra) the priest scribe, and Nehemias (or Nehemiah) the layman, were outstanding leaders whose one purpose in life was to bring the Jews back to Yahweh. In expending this consuming ambition they manifested a wholesome combination of the active life with prayer life. Both must have been attractive personalities in spite of the demands they made on their followers. Esdras may have been more of a rigorist in his policy, e.g., on forbidding mixed marriages, with no regard for affection (Esd 9—10), but Nehemias may have been more of a rigorist in his individual dealings (Neh 13, 25). This rigorist disciplinarian character, however, seems somewhat balanced by a rare Old Testament quality, i.e., generosity toward the poor (Neh 5, 18).

Main divisions of the books of Esdras and Nehemias are:

The Return from Exile and the Difficulty in Rebuilding the Temple at Jerusalem, Esd 1—6
The Reforms of Esdras, Esd 7—10
The Obstacles that Nehemias Met in Rebuilding the City Walls of Jerusalem, Neh 1—7
The Reading of the Mosaic Law to the People and More Reforms, Neh 8—13

1

1 Release from the Babylonian Captivity In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremias might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians: and he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and in writing also, saying: |
2 Thus says Cyrus king of the Persians: The Lord the God of heaven has given to me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in 3 Judea. | Who is there among you of all his people? His God be with him. Let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord the God of Israel. He is the God that
4 is in Jerusalem. | And let all the rest in all places, wheresoever

1, 1-3a repeats 2 Par 36, 22-23. Scholars ordinarily regard this overlapping as a sign that 1, 2 Par, Esd, and Neh were originally one book.

1, 1: That the word . . . fulfilled: this is somewhat repetitious of 2 Par 36, 21 where "seventy years' " captivity is a round number or it may be understood literally if taken from 609 B.C. Jer 29, 10 foretells that the Jews would return after the exile. See Jer 25, 11-12. The Lord stirred up: an expression found in five other places of the Bible to signify God's control over the Gentiles, e.g., 1 Par 5, 26.

1, 2-4: Here, the decree was written in Hebrew; it differs slightly in Aramaic (6, 3-5). The Persians liberated other deported peoples with similar decrees.

1, 2: The Lord the God of heaven: this does not imply that Cyrus was a monotheist.

they dwell, help him every man from his place, with silver and gold, and goods, and cattle, besides that which they offer freely to the temple of God which is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Juda and Benjamin, and the priests, and Levites, and every one whose spirit God had raised up, to go up to build the temple of the Lord which 6 was in Jerusalem. | And all they that were round about helped their hands with vessels of silver and gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with furniture, besides what they had offered on their own accord.

7 Cyrus Restores the Holy Vessels And king Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the temple of the Lord, which Nabuchodonosor had taken from Jerusalem, and had put them in the 8 temple of his god. | Now Cyrus king of Persia brought them forth by the hand of Mithridates the son of Gazabar, and num-
9 bered them to Sassabasar the prince of Juda. | And this is the number of them: thirty bowls of gold, a thousand bowls of
10 silver, nine and twenty knives, thirty cups of gold. | Silver cups of a second sort, four hundred and ten; other vessels, a
11 thousand. | All the vessels of gold and silver, five thousand four hundred. All these Sassabasar brought with them that came up from the captivity of Babylon to Jerusalem.

2

1 The People Who Returned Now these are the children of the province that went out of the captivity, which Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who
2 returned to Jerusalem and Juda, every man to his city. | Who came with Zorobabel: Josue, Nehemia, Saraia, Rahelaia, Mardochai, Belsan, Mesphar, Beguai, Rehum, Baana. The num-
3 ber of the men of the people of Israel: | the children of Pha-
4 ros, two thousand one hundred seventy-two. | The children of 5 Sephatia, three hundred seventy-five. | The children of Area,
6 seven hundred seventy-five. | The children of Phahath Moab, of the children of Josue: Joab two thousand eight hundred
7 twelve. | The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty-
8 four. | The children of Zethua, nine hundred forty-five. |
9.10 The children of Zachai, seven hundred sixty. | The children
11 of Bani, six hundred forty-two. | The children of Bebai, six
12 hundred twenty-three. | The children of Azgad, a thousand
13 two hundred twenty-two. | The children of Adonicam, six
14 hundred sixty-six. | The children of Beguai, two thousand

1, 8: Sassabasar: scholars dispute his identity. Is he the same as Zorobabel?

15 fifty-six. | The children of Adin, four hundred fifty-four. |
16 The children of Ather, who were of Ezechias, ninety-eight. |
17 The children of Besai, three hundred and twenty-three. | 18.19 The children of Jora, a hundred and twelve. | The children of Hasum, two hundred twenty-three.
20.21 And the children of Gebbar, ninety-five. | The children of 22 Bethlehem, a hundred twenty-three. | The men of Netupha,
23 fifty-six. | The men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty-eight. | 24.25 The children of Azmaveth, forty-two. | The children of Ca-riathiarim, Cephira, and Beroth, seven hundred forty-three. |
26 The children of Rama and Gabaa six hundred twenty-one. |
27.28 The men of Machmas, a hundred twenty-two. | The men of 29 Bethel and Hai, two hundred twenty-three. | The children of 30 Nebo, fifty-two. | The children of Megbis, a hundred fifty-six.
31 | The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty-
32 four. | The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty. | 33 The children of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred twenty-34.35 five. | The children of Jericho, three hundred forty-five. | The children of Senaa, three thousand six hundred thirty.
36 The priests: the children of Jadaia of the house of Josue, 37 nine hundred seventy-three. | The children of Emmer, a thou-
38 sand fifty-two. | The children of Pheshur, a thousand two 39 hundred forty-seven. | The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.
40 The Levites: the children of Josue and of Cedmihel, the 41 children of Odovia, seventy-four. | The singing men: The 42 children of Asaph, a hundred twenty-eight. | The children of the porters: The children of Sellum, the children of Ater, the children of Telmon, the children of Accub, the children of Hati-ta, the children of Sobai. In all a hundred thirty-nine.
43 The Nathinites: the children of Siha, the children of Ha-44 supha, the children of Tabbaoth. | The children of Ceros, the 45 children of Sia, the children of Phadon. | The children of Le-46 bana, the children of Hegaba, the children of Accub. | The children of Hagab, the children of Semlai, the children of Ha-47 nan. | The children of Gaddel, the children of Gaher, the chil-
48 dren of Raaia. | The children of Rasin, the children of Necoda, 49 the children of Gazam. | The children of Asa, the children of 50 Phasea, the children of Besee. | The children of Asena, the chil-51 dren of Munim, the children of Nephusim. | The children of Bacbuc, the children of Hacupha, the children of Harhur. |
52 The children of Besluth, the children of Mahida, the children 53 of Harsa. | The children of Bercos, the children of Sisara, the 54 children of Thema. | The children of Nasia, the children of 55 Hatipha. | The children of the servants of Solomon, the children of Sotai, the children of Sopheret, the children of Pharuda.

56 | The children of Jala, the children of Dercon, the children of 57 Geddel. | The children of Saphatia, the children of Hatil, the children of Phochereth, which were of Asebaim, the children of
58 Ami. | All the Nathinites, and the children of the servants of Solomon, three hundred ninety-two.
59 And these are they that came up from Thelmela, Thelharsa, Cherub, and Adon, and Emer. And they could not show the house of their fathers and their seed, whether they were of 60 Israel. | The children of Dalaia, the children of Tobia, the
61 children of Necoda, six hundred fifty-two. | And of the children of the priests: the children of Hobia, the children of Accos, the children of Berzellai, who took a wife of the daughters of
62 Berzellai, the Galaadite, and was called by their name. | These sought the writing of their genealogy, and found it not, and they
63 were cast out of the priesthood. | And Athersatha said to them that they should not eat of the holy of holies, till there arose a priest learned and perfect.
64 All the multitudes as one man, were forty-two thousand three 65 hundred and sixty, | besides their menservants, and womenservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven: and among them singing men, and singing
66 women, two hundred. | Their horses, seven hundred thirty-six,
67 their mules, two hundred forty-five, | their camels, four hundred thirty-five, and their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 The Peoples' Offerings And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the temple of the Lord, which is in Jerusalem, offered freely to the house of the Lord to build it in 69 its place. | According to their ability, they gave toward the expenses of the work, sixty-one thousand solids of gold, five thousand pounds of silver, and a hundred garments for the 70 priests. | So the priests and the Levites, and some of the people and the singing men, and the porters, and the Nathinites dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3

1 An Altar Is Built And now the seventh month had come and the children of Israel were in their cities. And the people
2 gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. | And Josue the son of Josedec rose up, and his brethren the priests and Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and they built the altar of the God of Israel that they might offer holocausts upon it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of

3 God. | And they set the altar of God upon its bases, while the people of the lands round about put them in fear, and they offered upon it a holocaust to the Lord morning and evening.
4 | And they kept the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the holocaust every day orderly according to the com-5 mandment, the duty of the day in its day. | And afterward the continual holocausts, both on the new moons, and on all the solemnities of the Lord, that were consecrated, and on all in 6 which a freewill offering was made to the Lord. | From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer holocausts to the Lord: but the temple of God was not yet founded.
7 And they gave money to hewers of stones and to masons:
and meat and drink and oil to the Sidonians and Tyrians, to bring cedar trees from Libanus to the sea of Joppe, according to the orders which Cyrus king of the Persians had given them.
8 | And in the second year of their coming to the temple of God in Jerusalem, the second month, Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Josue the son of Josedec, and the rest of their brethren, the priests, and the Levites, and all that had come from the captivity to Jerusalem began, and they appointed Levites from twenty years old and upward, to hasten forward the work of 9 the Lord. | Then Josue and his sons and his brethren, Cedmihel, and his sons, and the children of Juda, as one man, stood to hasten them that did the work in the temple of God: the sons of Henadad, and their sons, and their brethren the Levites.

10 The Foundations of the Temple Are Laid And when the masons laid the foundations of the temple of the Lord, the priests stood in their ornaments with trumpets; and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise God by the hands of 11 David king of Israel. | And they sang together hymns, and praise to the Lord: because he is good, for his mercy endures for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, praising the Lord, because the foundations of the temple of the Lord were laid.
12 But many of the priests and the Levites, and the chief of the fathers and the ancients that had seen the former temple, when they had the foundation of this temple before their eyes, wept with a loud voice: and many shouting for joy lifted up their 13 voice, | so that one could not distinguish the voice of the shout of joy, from the noise of the weeping of the people: for one

3, 10: By the hands of David: according to the directions of David.
3, 12: Many: seems a very relative term since they would be very old.

with another the people shouted with a loud shout, and the voice was heard afar off.

4

1 Samaritans Hinder the Building Now the enemies of Juda and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity
2 were building a temple to the Lord the God of Israel. | And they came to Zorobabel, and the chief of the fathers, and said to them: Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do. Behold we have sacrificed to him, since the days of Asor Had-
3 dan king of Assyria, who brought us here. | But Zorobabel, and Josue, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel said to them: You have nothing to do with us to build a house to our God, but we ourselves alone will build to the Lord our God,
4 as Cyrus king of the Persians has commanded us. | Then the people of the land hindered the hands of the people of Juda,
5 and troubled them in building. | And they hired counselors against them, to frustrate their design all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of the Persians.
6 And in the reign of Assuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Juda and Jeru-
7 salem. | And in the days of Artaxerxes, Beselam, Mithridates, and Thabeel, and the rest that were in the council wrote to Artaxerxes king of the Persians: and the letter of accusation was written in Syriac, and was read in the Syrian tongue.

8 The Samaritans' Letter to Artaxerxes Reum, Beelteem, and Samsai the scribe wrote a letter from Jerusalem to king
9 Artaxerxes, in this manner: | Reum, Beelteem, and Samsai the scribe, and the rest of their counselors, the Dinites, and the Apharsathacites, the Therphalites, the Apharsites, the Erchuites, the Babylonians, the Susanechites, the Dievites, and the Elam-

4, 1: Enemies of Juda: these are the descendants of the foreigners who were brought into Samaria after its fall in 722-21 B.C. See 4 Kgs 17, 24.

4, 2: We seek your God: they claimed that their common religion entitled them to help build the temple.

4, 3: The Jews answer that officially they are not allowed to extend to others the privilege of building the temple. Actually, they refused the help because the Samaritans had contaminated the true religion with pagan religions of their non-Israelite ancestors.

4, 5: Hired: they bribed the local Persian overlords. Thus the temple building was halted for sixteen years.

4, 6-16: Three later protests are collected here. The first is in v. 6 to Xerxes ("Assuerus"); the second is in v. 7. It was written in Aramaic ("Syriac," "Syrian"), the international language; the third is in vv. 8-16.

10 ites, | and the rest of the nations, whom the great and glorious Asenaphar brought over and made to dwell in the cities of Samaria and in the rest of the countries of this side of the river 11 in peace. | (This is the copy of the letter, which they sent to him): To Artaxerxes the king, your servants, the men that are 12 on this side of the river send greeting. | Be it known to the king, that the Jews, who came up from you to us, have come to Jerusalem a rebellious and wicked city, which they are building, setting up the ramparts thereof and repairing the walls. | 13 And now be it known to the king, that if this city be built up, and the walls thereof repaired, they will not pay tribute nor toll, nor yearly revenues, and this loss will fall upon the kings.
14 | But we, remembering the salt that we have eaten in the palace, and because we count it a crime to see the king wronged, have 15 therefore sent and certified the king, | that search may be made in the books of the histories of your fathers. And you shall find written in the records, and shall know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to the kings and provinces, and that wars were raised therein of old time. For which cause also the city 16 was destroyed. | We certify the king, that if this city be built, and the walls thereof repaired, you shall have no possession on this side of the river.

17 The Building Is Interrupted The king sent word to Reum, Beelteem and Samsai the scribe, and to the rest that were in their council, inhabitants of Samaria, and to the rest beyond the river, 18 sending greeting and peace: | The accusation, which you have 19 sent to us, has been plainly read before me. | And I commanded, and search has been made. And it is found, that this city of old time has rebelled against kings, and seditions and 20 wars have been raised therein. | For there have been powerful kings in Jerusalem: who have had dominion over all the country that is beyond the river, and have received tribute, and toll, 21 and revenues. | Now therefore hear the sentence: Hinder those men, that this city be not built, till further orders be given by 22 me. | See that you be not negligent in executing this, lest by little and little the evil grow to the hurt of the kings.
23 Now the copy of the edict of king Artaxerxes was read before Reum, Beelteem, and Samsai the scribe, and their counselors.
And they went up in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and hindered them with arm and power.
24 Then the work of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem was in-

4, 14: To eat salt in the king's palace means to be in the king's pay.

terrupted, and ceased till the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

5

1 The Work Proceeds Now Aggeus the prophet, and Zacharias the son of Addo, prophesied to the Jews that were in 2 Judea and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel. | Then rose up Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Josue, the son of Josedec, and began to build the temple of God in Jerusalem, 3 and with them were the prophets of God helping them. | And at the same time came to them Thathanai, who was governor beyond the river, and Stharbuzanai, and their counselors, and said thus to them: Who has given you counsel to build this 4 house, and to repair the walls thereof? | In answer to which, we gave them the names of the men who were the promoters of 5 that building. | But the eye of their God was upon the ancients of the Jews, and they could not hinder them. And it was agreed that the matter should be referred to Darius, and then they should give satisfaction concerning that accusation.

6 The Governor's Letter to Darius The copy of the letter that Thathanai governor of the country beyond the river, and Stharbuzanai, and his counselors the Arphasachites, who dwelt 7 beyond the river, sent to Darius the king. | The letter which they sent him, was written thus: To Darius the king all peace. | 8 Be it known to the king, that we went to the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which they are building with unpolished stones, and timber is laid in the walls: and this work 9 is carried on diligently, and advances in their hands. | And we asked those ancients, and said to them thus: Who has given you 10 authority to build this house, and to repair these walls? | We asked also of them their names, that we might give you notice:
and we have written the names of the men that are the chief 11 among them. | And they answered us in these words, saying:
We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth; and we are building a temple that was built these many years ago, and 12 which a great king of Israel built and set up. | But afterward our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, and he

5, 1: Resumes the narrative thread from 4, 5. The two prophets encouraged the people not to abandon their attempt to rebuild the temple.

5, 3: Governor: a Persian satrap. Since the Persians did not allow temple building without their permission, perhaps the protests of the Samaritans led the satrap to ask who authorized the Jews to rebuild their temple.

5, 5: The eye: the favor.

delivered them into the hands of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon the Chaldean: and he destroyed this house, and carried 13 away the people to Babylon. | But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, king Cyrus set forth a decree, that this house
14 of God should be built. | And the vessels also of gold and silver of the temple of God, which Nabuchodonosor had taken out of the temple, that was in Jerusalem, and had brought them to the temple of Babylon, king Cyrus brought out of the temple of Babylon. And they were delivered to one Sassabasar, whom
15 also he appointed governor, | and said to him: Take these vessels, and go, and put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem,
16 and let the house of God be built in its place. | Then came this same Sassabasar, and laid the foundations of the temple of God in Jerusalem, and from that time until now it is in building, and is not yet finished.
17 Now therefore if it seem good to the king, let him search in the king's library, which is in Babylon, whether it has been decreed by Cyrus the king, that the house of God in Jerusalem should be built: and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

6

1 The Record Is Found Then king Darius gave orders; and they searched in the library of the books that were laid up in 2 Babylon, | and there was found in Ecbatana, which is a castle in the province of Media, a book in which this record was
3 written. | In the first year of Cyrus the king: Cyrus the king decreed, that the house of God should be built, which is in Jerusalem, in the place where they may offer sacrifices; and that they lay the foundations that may support the height of threescore
4 cubits, and the breadth of threescore cubits, | three rows of unpolished stones, and so rows of new timber: and the charges
5 shall be given out of the king's house. | And also let the golden and silver vessels of the temple of God, which Nabuchodonosor took out of the temple of Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and carried back to the temple of Jerusalem to their place, which also were placed in the temple of God.
6 Now therefore Thathanai, governor of the country beyond the river, Stharbuzanai, and your counselors the Apharsachites,
7 who are beyond the river, depart far from them, | and let that temple of God be built by the governor of the Jews, and by their ancients, that they may build that house of God in its place. |

6, 2: Ecbatana . . . Media: the modern Hamadan in Iran where the Persian kings passed their summers.

8 I also have commanded what must be done by those ancients of the Jews, that the house of God may be built, to wit, that of the king's chest, that is, of the tribute that is paid out of the country beyond the river, the charges be diligently given to 9 those men, lest the work be hindered. | And if it shall be necessary, let calves also, and lambs, and kids, for holocausts to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the custom of the priests that are in Jerusalem, be given them day by 10 day, that there be no complaint in any thing. | And let them offer oblations to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his children.

11 The Decree of Darius And I have made a decree: That if any one should attempt to alter this commandment, a beam shall be taken from his house, and set up, and he be nailed upon 12 it, and his house be confiscated. | And may the God, that has caused his name to dwell there, destroy all kingdoms, and the people that shall put out their hand to resist, and to destroy the house of God, that is in Jerusalem. I Darius have made the decree, which I will have diligently complied with.
13 So then Thathanai, governor of the country beyond the river, and Stharbuzanai, and his counselors diligently executed what 14 Darius the king had commanded. | And the ancients of the Jews built, and prospered according to the prophecy of Aggeus the prophet, and of Zacharias the son of Addo. And they built and finished, by the commandment of the God of Israel, and by the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of the Persians.

15 The Feast of Dedication And they were finishing this house of God until the third day of the month of Adar, which 16 was in the sixth year of the reign of king Darius. | And the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity kept the dedication of the house of 17 God with joy. | And they offered at the dedication of the house of God, a hundred calves, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and for a sin offering for all Israel twelve he-goats, ac-18 cording to the number of the tribes of Israel. | And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses over the works of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

6, 14: Prophecy: preaching.
6, 15: After four years of resumed building, the temple was finally completed in 515 B.C.

19 And the children of Israel of the captivity kept the phase, on 20 the fourteenth day of the first month. | For all the priests and the Levites were purified as one man: all were clean to kill the phase for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren 21 the priests, and themselves. | And the children of Israel that had returned from captivity, and all that had separated themselves from the filthiness of the nations of the earth to them, to seek the Lord the God of Israel, did eat.
22 And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy; for the Lord had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, that he should help their hands in the work of the house of the Lord the God of Israel.

7

1 Esdras Comes to Jerusalem Now after these things in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Esdras the son of 2 Saraias, the son of Azarias, the son of Helcias, | the son of 3 Sellum, the son of Sadoc, the son of Achitob, | the son of 4 Amarias, the son of Azarias, the son of Maraioth, | the son
5 of Zarahias, the son of Ozi, the son of Bocci, | the son of Abisue, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the 6 priest from the beginning: | this Esdras went up from Babylon, and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord God had given to Israel. And the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the Lord his God upon him. | 7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the children of the priests, and of the children of the Levites, and of the singing men, and of the porters, and of the Nathinites to 8 Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. | And they came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, in the seventh year of 9 the king. | For upon the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon 10 him. | For Esdras had prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do and to teach in Israel the commandments and judgment.

11 The Decree of Artaxerxes And this is the copy of the letter of the edict, which king Artaxerxes gave to Esdras the 7, 6: A ready scribe: before the exile, a scribe was a writer or copyist: after the exile, and in New Testament times a scribe was an official interpreter of the Mosaic Law. The hand of the Lord: a frequent expression of God's favor.

7, 8: This 900 mile journey took about four months. See Introduction to Esdras and Nehemias for opinions about the date of Esdras' mission.

priest, the scribe instructed in the words and commandments 12 of the Lord, and his ceremonies in Israel. | Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Esdras the priest, the most learned scribe of the law 13 of the God of heaven, greeting. | It is decreed by me that all they of the people of Israel, and of the priests and of the Levites in my realm, that are minded to go into Jerusalem, should go 14 with you. | For you are sent from before the king, and his seven counselors, to visit Judea and Jerusalem according to the law 15 of your God, which is in your hand. | And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered 16 to the God of Israel, whose tabernacle is in Jerusalem. | And all the silver and gold that you shall find in all the province of Babylon, and that the people is willing to offer, and that the priests shall offer of their own accord to the house of their God, 17 which is in Jerusalem, | take freely, and buy diligently with this money, calves, rams, lambs, with the sacrifices and libations of them. And offer them upon the altar of the temple of your 18 God, that is in Jerusalem. | And if it seem good to you, and to your brethren to do any thing with the rest of the silver and 19 gold, do it according to the will of your God. | The vessels also, that are given you for the sacrifice of the house of your God, 20 deliver you in the sight of God in Jerusalem. | And whatsoever more there shall be need of for the house of your God, how much ever you shall have occasion to spend, it shall be given out of the treasury, and the king's exchequer, and by me.
21 I Artaxerxes the king have ordered and decreed to all the keepers of the public chest, that are beyond the river, that whatsoever Esdras the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of 22 heaven, shall require of you, you give it without delay: | unto a hundred talents of silver, and unto a hundred cores of wheat, and unto a hundred bates of wine, and unto a hundred bates of 23 oil, and salt without measure. | All that belongs to the rites of the God of heaven, let it be given diligently in the house of the God of heaven: lest his wrath should be enkindled against the 24 realm of the king, and of his sons. | We give you also to understand concerning all the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nathinites, and ministers of the house of this God, that you have no authority to impose toll or tribute, or custom upon them.

7, 12-26: This is the letter of Artaxerxes, written in the Aramaic language.

7, 20-21: Esdras' possible requests are limited in v. 22.

7, 23: Lest his wrath: Artaxerxes probably desired not only the favor of another god, but a friendly Palestinian flank in case of a Persian attack on Egypt.

25 And you Esdras, according to the wisdom of your God, which is in your hand, appoint judges and magistrates, that may judge all the people that is beyond the river, that is: for them who know the law of your God. Yea and the ignorant teach freely.
26 | And whosoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king diligently, judgment shall be executed upon him, either unto death, or unto banishment, or to the confiscation of goods, or at least to prison.
27 Blessed be the Lord the God of our fathers, who had put this in the king's heart, to glorify the house of the Lord, which is in 28 Jerusalem, | and has inclined his mercy toward me before the king and his counselors, and all the mighty princes of the king.
And I being strengthened by the hand of the Lord my God, which was upon me, gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

8

1 The Companions of Esdras Now these are the chiefs of families, and the genealogy of them, who came up with me from 2 Babylon in the reign of Artaxerxes the king. | Of the sons of Phinees, Gersom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of 3 David, Hattus. | Of the sons of Sechenias, the son of Pharos, Zacharias, and with him were numbered a hundred and fifty 4 men. | Of the sons of Phahath Moab, Eleoenai the son of 5 Zareha, and with him two hundred men. | Of the sons of Sechenias, the son of Ezechiel, and with him three hundred men.
6 | Of the sons of Adan, Abed the son of Jonathan, and with him
7 fifty men. | Of the sons of Alam, Isaias the son of Athalias, and 8 with him seventy men. | Of the sons of Saphatia: Zebodia the 9 son of Michael, and with him eighty men. | Of the sons of Joab, Obedia the son of Jahiel, and with him two hundred and 10 eighteen men. | Of the sons of Selomith, the son of Josphia,
11 and with him a hundred and sixty men. | Of the sons of Bebai, Zacharias the son of Bebai, and with him eight and twenty 12 men. | Of the sons of Azgad, Joanan the son of Eccetan, and 13 with him a hundred and ten men. | Of the sons of Adonicam, who were the last, and these are their names: Eliphelet, and 14 Jehiel, and Samaias, and with them sixty men. | Of the sons of Begui, Uthai and Zachur, and with them seventy men.
15 And I gathered them together to the river, which runs down to Ahava, and we stayed there three days. And I sought among the people and among the priests for the sons of Levi, and 16 found none there. | So I sent Eliezer, and Ariel, and Semeias, and Elnathan, and Jarib, and another Elnathan, and Nathan, and Zacharias, and Mosollam, chief men, and Joiarib, and 17 Elnathan, wise men. | And I sent them to Eddo, who is chief in the place of Chasphia, and I put in their mouth the words that they should speak to Eddo, and his brethren the Nathinites in the place of Chasphia, that they should bring us ministers of 18 the house of our God. | And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a most learned man of the sons of Moholi the son of Levi the son of Israel, and Sarabias and his 19 sons, and his brethren, eighteen. | And Hasabias, and with him Isaias of the sons of Merari, and his brethren, and his sons, 20 twenty. | And of the Nathinites, whom David and the princes gave for the service of the Levites, Nathinites, two hundred and twenty: all these were called by their names.

21 Esdras Proclaims a Fast And I proclaimed there a fast by the river Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before the Lord our God, and might ask of him a right way for us, and for our 22 children, and for all our substance. | For I was ashamed to ask the king for aid and for horsemen to defend us from the enemy in the way, because we had said to the king: The hand of our God is upon all them that seek him in goodness; and his power and strength, and wrath upon all them that forsake him.
25 | And we fasted, and besought our God for this: and it fell out prosperously unto us.

24 And I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sarabias, 25 and Hasabias: and with them ten of their brethren. And I weighed unto them the silver and gold, and the vessels consecrated for the house of our God, which the king and his counselors, and his princes, and all Israel, that were found, had 26 offered. | And I weighed to their hands six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and a hundred vessels of silver, and a hundred 27 talents of gold. | And twenty cups of gold, of a thousand solids, and two vessels of the best shining brass, beautiful as 28 gold. | And I said to them: You are the holy ones of the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the silver and gold, that is freely 29 offered to the Lord the God of our fathers. | Watch them and keep them, till you deliver them by weight before the chief of the priests, and of the Levites, and the heads of the families of Israel in Jerusalem, into the treasure of the house of the Lord. |
30 And the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver

8, 20: It is estimated that a total of about 5,000 people made up this caravan.

8, 21: And I proclaimed a fast . . . afflict ourselves: in the Old Testament, fasting is associated with humbling oneself.

and gold, and the vessels, to carry them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

31 Then we set forward from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and delivered us from the hand of the enemy,
32 and of such as lay in wait by the way. | And we came to Jerusalem: and we stayed there three days.

33 Holy Vessels Brought into the Temple And on the fourth day the silver, and the gold, and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Urias the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees; and with them Jozabad the son of Josue, and Noadaia the son
34 of Benoi, Levites. | According to the number and weight of 35 every thing: and all the weight was written at that time. | Moreover the children of them that had been carried away and had come out of the captivity, offered holocausts to the God of Israel: twelve calves for all the people of Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve he-goats for sin: all for a holo-
36 caust to the Lord. | And they gave the king's edicts to the lords that were from the king's court, and the governors beyond the river. And they furthered the people and the house of God.

9

1 Esdras Mourns for the Sins of the People And after these things were accomplished, the princes came to me, saying: The people of Israel, and the priests and Levites have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, and from their abominations, namely, of the Chanaanites, and the Hethites, and the Pherezites, and the Jebusites, and the Ammonites, and
2 the Moabites, and the Egyptians, and the Amorrites. | For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons; and they have mingled the holy seed with the people of the lands. And the hand of the princes and magistrates has been
3 first in this transgression. | And when I had heard this word I rent my mantle and my coat, and plucked off the hairs of my
4 head and my beard: and I sat down mourning. | And there were assembled to me all that feared the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had come from the captivity.
5 And I sat sorrowful, until the evening sacrifice. | And at the 9, 3: Mantle: the tunic or undergarment. Coat: the long cloak. Plucked off the hairs: not completely. A moral ceremonious expression of sorrow is to shave the head and beard. See Job 1, 20.

9, 5: Commentators notice Esdras' psychology here (see v. 3; and 10, 1). He could have used his authority and implemented it with force.

evening sacrifice I rose up from my affliction, and having rent my mantle and my garment, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands to the Lord my God.

6 The Prayer of Esdras And I said: My God, I am confounded and ashamed to lift up my face to you. For our iniquities are multiplied over our heads, and our sins have grown up even unto heaven, 7 From the days of our fathers: and we ourselves also have sinned grievously unto this day. And for our iniquities we, and our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hands of the kings of the lands, and to the sword, and to captivity, and to spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is at this day.
8 And now as a little and for a moment has our prayer been made before the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant, and give us a pin in his holy place, and that our God would enlighten our eyes, and would give us a little life in our bondage.
9 For we are bondmen, and in our bondage our God has not forsaken us, but has extended mercy upon us before the king of the Persians, to give us life, and to set up the house of our God, and to rebuild the desolations thereof, and to give us a fence in Juda and Jerusalem.
10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments:
11 Which you have commanded by the hand of your servants the prophets, saying: The land which you go to possess, is an unclean land, according to the uncleanness of the people, and of other lands, with their abominations, who have filled it from mouth to mouth with their filth.
12 Now therefore give not your daughters to their sons, and take not their daughters for your sons, and seek not their peace, nor their prosperity for ever: that you may be strengthened, and may eat the good things of the land, and may have your children your heirs for ever.
13 And after all that has come upon us, for our most wicked deeds, and our great sin, seeing that you, our God, have saved us from our iniquity, and have given us a deliverance as at this day:
14 That we should not turn away, nor break your commandments, nor join in marriage with the people of these abomina-

He chose to attract the people and have them of their own accord put away foreign wives.

9, 8: Pin: probably figuratively, a foothold.

9, 9: Fence: probably, in a figurative sense, safety.

tions. Are you angry with us unto utter destruction, not to leave us a remnant to be saved?

15 O Lord God of Israel, you are just: for we remain yet to be saved as at this day. Behold we are before you in our sin: for there can be no standing before you in this matter.

10

